POETRY.

A HOME SCENE.

Come, let us pull the curtain down,
And lay the work aside,
And gather up the playthings
You've scattered far and wide;
And place the lamp upon the stand,
Beside the great arm chair,
And bring the last new magazine
And cut the leaves with care.

Now heap the coal upon the grate—
He loves a cheerful fire—
See how the flames dance merrily,
And leap up high and higher!
Now place his slippers on the rug,
And get his dressing gown;
For papa will be tired and cold
When he comes back from town.

Come, let me bathe your glowing cheeks,
And make your hair look neat,
And put your bright pink apron on—
There, now, you're clean and sweet!
Now sit down on the little bench
That grand-pa made, and see
How still you will be while good mama
Goes lay the cloth for tea.

The tea-kettle sends forth its hum,
The biscuits are so light;
I wish he'd come, it seems to me
He's rather late to-night!
Hark! wasn't that our gate that clicked?
"Hurrah!" shouts little Will,
And ere I've time to tell him hush,
He's bounded o'er the sill.

And "papa's come!" he shouts again,
And climbs up for a kiss;
And "papa's tum! Oh, papa's tum!"
Echoes his little sis.
Oh! happy group that live and love
Within that humble cot;
Many who dwell in palaces
Might envy them their lot.

EDITOR Pioneer and Democrat:

To show to the people of this Territory that Clarke county is not backward in manifesting her appreciation of the good services of our Delegate, Hon. I. I. STEVENS, I present you a brief outline (with the request that you give it publicity) of the manner in which his constituency of Clarke received him, on his arrival here, Saturday evening, the 23d ult. He was met at the wharf by a large number of citizens; as soon as he touched terra firma, hundreds flocked around him, anxious to welcome him back to our Territory. This was only relieved by the booming of cannon, close by—a salute of forty-two guns fired—after which GOV. STEVENS addressed the assemblage, which was received with deafening cheers.

On Monday it was ascertained that Gov. S. would not take his departure from this place until Wednesday morning. Notices were posted throughout the city and vicinity, calling a meeting of the Democrats, at which meeting a committee of six were appointed, (consisting of Messrs. Kelly, Ahern, O'Ragan, Sohon, Martin, and Langford,) to wait upon Gov. STEVENS, with the request that he would address the citizens of Clarke county, on Tuesday evening at "Musical Hall."

At the hour and place appointed, a large concourse of people had assembled. CHAS. WESTMORELAND, Esq., was called to the Chair, who, in a very appropriate speech, introduced Hon. I. I. STEVENS to the meeting. Gov. S. took the stand, greeted with loud cheers. He treated upon the future prospects of this Territory, its knowledge abroad, &c.—the situation of the war debt—the assurance given him, on the eve of his departure from Washington, by the Secretary of State, (Gen. CASS,) that the rights of the Hudson Bay Company would be settled at an early day, and in the event of the matter being settled, the rights of the settlers thereon, would be respected; &c., &c., &c. The address was well received and duly appreciated.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing and banqueting. The ball, (complimentary to Hon. I. I. STEVENS,) opened at 10 o'clock, with a grand "operatic" march.—Music by the 4th Infantry Band. There were a large number of ladies in attendance, from the matronly dame of sixty to the blushing maiden of "sweet sixteen."

GOV. STEVENS, Gen HARNEY and Staff, and nearly all the officers stationed here, were present—all participating in the dance. At twelve, a sumptuous banquet was served up, after which all separated, well pleased with the enjoyment of the day and evening. D.

The meeting was called to order by the Hon. J. W. Wiley, Chairman of the Central Committee.

On motion of Mr. Van Bokkelin, Hon. J. Catlin was elected Chairman pro tem., and on motion of E. C. Fitzhugh, S. D. Smith and H. K. Stevens were chosen Secretaries pro tem.

On motion of Hon. H. J. G. Maxon, a committee of nine was appointed by the chair to examine the credentials of the delegates to this convention. On motion, the Convention adjourned until 1 o'clock P. M., at which time the committee on credentials were to present their report.

On motion the report of the committee was accepted and the committee discharged.

The Secretary having called the roll of the delegates, it was found to correspond with the report of the committee.

The Convention, on motion of Mr. Weed, proceeded to elect permanent officers, viva voce; whereupon E. C. Fitzhugh was put in nomination for President and duly elected, and C. H. Armstrong and H. K. Stevens were declared Secretaries.

The Chairman, after making a short pertinent address, declared the Convention in working order and ready to proceed to business; when, upon motion of Mr. Miles, the viva voce system of voting was adopted by the Convention; and upon motion of Mr. Rutledge, it was determined that a majority of the votes of this Convention shall nominate a candidate for delegate to Congress.

The chair, upon motion of Mr. Catlin, appointed the following gentlemen a committee to draw up a set of resolutions expressive of the sentiments of this Convention, and by which our candidate for delegate, whoever he may be, will be governed in case the resolutions are adopted by the Convention:—Wm. W. Miller, E. S. Fowler, A. R. Burbank, Wm. M. Morrow, J. Catlin.

Mr. Kelly, from Clarke, here presented the following resolutions, which the Convention after hearing read, ordered to be laid before the committee on resolutions for their consideration:

Resolved, That the following facts be submitted to the Territorial Convention, to be held at Olympia on the 16th of May next, for their grave consideration:

1st. That under the rights guaranteed to settlers by the donation act of 1850, many settlers did enter upon vacant lands in Clarke County and other parts of the Territory, and that those settlers did reside upon and cultivate those lands in such a manner as to entitle them to receive a patent under the provision of said act.

2d. That in the year 1852, subsequent to the settlement of those lands under said act, the Hudson Bay Company did survey and set up a claim to a large tract of land in Clarke County and other parts of the Territory, by filing the records of their survey with the Surveyor General of Oregon Territory.

3d. That the most of those lands thus surveyed and claimed were lands which the Hudson Bay Company had never reduced to their possession, as was contemplated by the treaty with Great Britain, in June, 1846.

4th. That the Surveyor General, under instructions from the proper department at Washington, has not surveyed and placed those lands on an equal footing in relation to the settles with other lands of the Territory.

5th. The charter under which the Hudson Bay Company claims its rights expires the present year.

Therefore be it resolved, That the settlers have a right to demand that the proper authorities at Washington give the necessary orders to the Surveyor General, to place the settlers on an equal footing with the other settlers of the Territory, to all lands outside of the Hudson Bay Company's enclosures at the present time; and in so doing, it will be but tardy justice to those settlers who have been oppressed by this fictious claim of this Company.

The Chairman of the committee on resolutions here presented the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT:—The committee on resolutions after due deliberation, have instructed me to submit the accompanying resolutions to the Convention, and recommend their adoption.

The committee have also had under consideration the resolutions submitted to the Convention from Clarke County, and have instructed me to report the same back to the Convention for its further consideration. W. W. MILLER, Ch'n.

The following resolutions were then offered by the committe, and on motion of Mr. Kelly, were voted upon separately, and adopted by the Convention:

1st. Resolved, That the platform of principles established by the last Democratic Convention, at Cincinnati, in 1856, continues to receive our concurrence and approbation, and we hereby declare our adherance thereto as containing the true principles of democracy.

2nd. Resolved, That we cordially approve of the policy pursued by President BUCHANAN in his administration of the affairs of the government, and while faithfully adhering to principles essential to the best interests of our country, should receive the undivided co-operation and support of the democracy of the Union.

3d. Resolved, That the warmest thanks of this Convention, and the people whom it represents, are due to the Hon. ISAAC I. STEVENS for the able, faithful and energetic performance of his duties as late Delegate in Congress from the Territery of Washington.

4th. Resolved, That the greatest thanks of this Convention are due, and are hereby tendered, to the Senators and Representatives in Congress from Oregon and California, for their efforts in furthering the interests of our Territory.

5th. Resolved, That we hail as Democrats, all, whatever heretofore may have been their political creed, who will unite with us in support of our principles.

6th. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention, the connection of our Atlantic and Pacific States by Railroad is of the most vital importance to all parts of our Union, and to the securing of the vast commerce of Asia and the Islands of the Pacific.

7th. Resolved, That we cordially approve of the course pursued by the late able and efficient Postmaster General, in furnishing this remote portion of our country with ample mail facilities.

8th. Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to the Hon. JOHN B. FLOYD, Secretary of War, for his untiring efforts to promote the interests of our Territory.

9th. Resolved, That it is the duty of the general government to at once take measures to extinguish all rights which the Hudson Bay and Puget Sound Agricultural Companies claim to have in the Territory of Washington.

10th. Resolved, That we, as the representatives of the democracy of Washington Territory, tender our warmest thanks to the Hon. JEFFERSON DAVIS, of Mississippi, and the Hon. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS, of Georgia, for their efforts as members of Congress in behalf of our Territory.

On motion of Mr. Burbank, it was determined by the Convention to reconsider the report of the committee on credentials, so far as it related to the delegation from Clalm county, and Messrs. Brownfield and Van Bokkelin entered into explanations.

It was determined by the Convention that the report of the committee on credentials be amended, and Mr. Brownfield allowed to cast both votes from Clalm; and on motion of Mr. Burbank, it was determined to adopt the report as amended.

A set of resolutions was here offered by Mr. Brownfield and read to the Convention; and upon motion of Mr. Burbank, were laid upon the table, (all voting in the affirmative except Brownfield,) as all that is embodied in these resolutions, that it is necessary for this Convention to adopt, has been adopted in the previous resolutions.

Mr. Hyatt here put in nomination the Hon. I. I. Stevens as candidate for Delegate to Congress; whereupon the vote of the Convention was cast, and resulted in the Hon. I. I. Stevens receiving the whole number of votes (sixty), and he was therefore unanimously declared the nominee of the Democratic Convention of Washington for Delegate to Congress.

Mr. Hyatt here offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we hereby approve and endorse the course pursued by the Pioneer and Democrat during the past year, and that the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to the editors of said paper for the manly and independent spirit with which they have conducted that journal.

The chair here appointed Kelly of Clarke, Miller of Island, and Cooper of Lewis, a committee to wait on Hon. I. I. Stevens and acquaint him with the results of the proceeding of this Convention.

On motion of Mr. Miles, it was determined that the chair appoint a committee of five to select a democratic central committee for the ensuing two years; whereupon, Messrs. Furste, Maxon, Morrow, Maynard and Bullard were appointed.

It was determined, on motion of Mr. Brownfield, that the committee appointed to wait on Hon. I. I. Stevens, shall request him to meet this Convention without delay; whereupon, after a short absence, the committee report him in attendence, and he is introduced to the Convention by the President and proceeded to address it.

On motion of Mr. Rutledge, it was determined to increase the central committee from five to seven.

The chairman of the committee appointed to select a democratic central Committee hereupon offered the following report:

The committee appointed to select a democratic central committee for Washington Territory for the next two years, have selected the following gentlemen, viz:—James W. Wiley, of Thurston County; Patrick Ahern, of Clarke; Samuel D. Smith, of Walla-Walla; Charles Plummer, of King; Samuel S. Woodard, of Chehalis; J. J. H. Van Bokkelen, of Jefferson; Warren Gove, of Pierce; and the committee further recommend that the next territorial convention be held at Vancouver, W. T. EDWARD FURSTE, Ch'n.

D. S. Maynard, of this committee, dissents from the latter recommendation, and suggests Steilacoom, Pierce County.

The report after having been read, was, on motion of Mr. Rutledge, adopted, and the committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. Catlin, it was determined that the proceedings of this Convention be published in the Pioneer and Democrat.

The thanks of the Convention were tendered to the President and Secretaries, on motion of Mr. Burbank.

E. C. FITZHUGH,
President.

C. H. ARMSTRONG, H. K. STEVENS, } Secretaries.

Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes as follows in relation to Hon. A. H. Stephens, the distinguished Representative from Georgia:

"If you had entered the House this afternoon, you would have seen a large group of intensely interested members, near the centre of the hall, surrounding a strange figure, seemingly half man, half boy, and all mummy; his sparse flaxen hair combed close down upon a long, narrow head, his sallow, beardless skin resembling shrivelled parchment, his gaunt, sickly body swaying to and fro with excitement, his arms sweeping around in short angles, his alto voice, sweet and shrill like a woman's pitched to its highest key, and piercing the remotest corner of the crowded galleries. This is Mr. Alexander H. Stephens, closing the debate on the bill for the admission of Oregon.

"This whilom Whig and now strict-constructing Democrat, when sitting at a distance looks like a boy of eighteen, who has been struggling all his life with relentless chills and fever. As he gets up to address the chair you are surprised at the attitude of the specter before you, rising nearly six feet from the floor. The tones of his voice rivet your attention. It is not a man's voice, nor a boy's, nor exactly a woman's. You never heard such a voice before. In declamatory passages, when swelled to its full capacity, it sounds like recitation in music, or the wail of the wind in a grove of pines, or, as the long drawn sentences monotonously rise and fall, like the hortatory strains of a revival preaching painting the glories of Heaven, and warning from the wrath to come. The gestures, angular, sharp and impetuous, saw the air, dart forward like a rapier, and strike out right and left like a broadsword. In impassioned periods, the bony, clenched fists smites blow after blow on the desk; and the long, skinny finger, following the deep-set, mournful, and now glowing eye, to some distant object, serves as an exclamation point at the close of a pungent retort, an emphatic assertion, or a nervous sentence. * * * *

"We have seen members of the diplomatic corps, who did not understand a word of English, sit spell-bound half an hour while Stephens was speaking; their gaze rivited by the look, tone and manner of the strange being below. His admirers call him a close reasoner—the ablest in the House. * * * *

He studies the subject matter, knows its facts, and so can oft prove his statements by an apt citation, or confuse an opponent by his superior acquaintance with the contemporaneous data or the historical precedents pertaining to the question.

* * * * * *

Mr. Stephens has been often compared to John Randolph. Except in some peculiarities of look and voice, he is quite unlike the unique orator of Roanoke. He never plays a part, nor effects singularity. Randolph always did, even at the solemn hour, when, in the chamber of death, he traced the word "Remorse" on the card of the physician, Dr. Parish. Randolph had an exuberant, wayward fancy, to which he gave rein in his forensic displays. Stephens rarely uses metaphor, either to illustrate or adorn. Randolph reveled in quotations from poets and dramatists, ancient and modern. Stephens never cites anything more classic than Coke and Hansard. Randolph was highly dramatic in diction and delivery; and, at times, his eloquence flowed in a stream beautiful and picturesque as his own Roanoke. Stephens is always terse and pointed, and usually dry and didactic. His valedictory to-day was more ornate than any speech we ever heard him deliver before. As he put on his heavy overcoat at the close, all knew that he was not the affectation of Randolph, mounting a jockey cap at the conclusion of his speeches, but was dictated by a prudent regard for a constitution long shaken by strange maladies.

"Mr. Stephens will leave Congress at the close of the present term. Less eccentric, but scarcely less valuable to the Southern Democracy, are two other members of the present House, who retire at the same time, Col. Orr, of South Carolina, and Mr. Letcher, of Virginia."

The Democratic as Compared with the Opposition Party.

The Democratic party was never in better position than now. The differences and alienations caused by the disagreements growing out of the policy of the Administration appear to have been obliterated, and throughout the nation the party may be said to be united, determined and harmonious.

It is true in some of the States there are local dissensions growing out of misunderstandings between leading men, and in others there are yet unhealed sores arising from other causes, but in none can it be said the Democratic party are seriously divided on national questions, and will not lead a united support to the nominations to be made at Charleston. And unlike the opposition, the creed of the party is of universal recognition. Its binding force and effect is equally operative on all the States alike, whether north or south, east or west.

How is it with the opposition? Torn asunder by intestine dissentions—not daring to announce any settled policy in more than one State; without a single plank which can be incorporated into a National platform, agreeing upon nothing but a thirst for the plunder or patronage—designs which it dare not avow—it stands before the country void of power to accomplish anything for itself, however much it may possess to annoy and embarrass the Federal Administration. Indeed, this is its only capital.

Its calm and discreet organ here, the Times, told us last week that the opposition obtained great triumphs at the late session of Congress, which, of course, must have been the defeat of the Post Office Appropriation bill, and the prevention of other measures necessary to carry on the Government, and from these results it argues that its success is certain in 1860. How small are the prospects of success in 1860 when predicated upon the results of such conduct, and how sad the error which leads a party to believe that factious and unprincipled opposition can, if successful in stopping the wheels of Government, accomplish aught but its own ruin and disgrace. The country cannot fail to perceive the motives which govern in such a case, and will be as ready to place the responsibility where it belongs, as it will be to sustain those who are thus embarrassed.

But let us look a little further into the domestic affairs of this Opposition and see whether there are not other obstacles to its success as a party for a Presidential campaign. When the Presidential battle shall be fought, new considerations will present themselves. It will not then be a union to destroy and break down a popular Administration—it will not be a coalition between a hundred men, all actuated by a common purpose of revenge or partisan success. Other than negative positions must be assumed. The field, as well as the parties to the conflict, will be of a very different character. The affirmative must be taken—doctrines must be enunciated—candidates must be presented—defenses maintained, and nationality assumed. How will it be with the "Republicans" then? How will this boasted victory over justice and patriotism serve them upon that occasion? Will it not rather return to plague them and arise up in judgment at a time of all others they would rather have it forgotten? We think so. They will find that a few more such triumphs as that obtained in the defeat of the Post Office Appropriation bill will leave them utterly prostrated. And who shall be their standard-bearer in 1860? Who shall it be? Seward? If so, how many electoral votes would he get out of New England? Not one. Or Crittenden? How many electoral votes would he receive in New England? Not one. Indeed there is no man belonging to any political organization other than the Democratic who can obtain a majority of the electoral colleges. We deem this a fact already so positively ascertained that the idea of a Democratic defeat in 1860 is too absurd to be entertained for a moment.

Some of the opposition press talk of the demoralization of the Democratic party, of its weakness and intestine divisions. They will find that, notwithstanding its late troubles and difficulties, it will retain vigor and vitality sufficient to beat a dozen such desperate and unscrupulous factions as now constitute the opposition party of this country. Wait and see.—N. Y. News.

CURIOUS HISTORICAL FACT.—During the troubles in the reign of Charles I., a country girl came to London in search of a place as a servant maid; but not succeeding, she hired herself to carry out beer from a brew-house, and was one of those called tub-women. The brewer observing a good-looking girl in this low occupation, took her into his family as a servant, and after a short time married her; but he died while she was yet a young woman, and left her the bulk of his fortune. The business of the brewery was dropped, and to the young woman was recommended Mr. Hyde as a skilful lawyer to arrange her husband's affairs. Hyde, who was afterwards the great Earl of Clarendon, finding the widow's fortune very considerable, married her. Of this marriage there was no other issue than a daughter, who was afterwards the wife of James II, and mother of Mary and Anne, queens of England.

DECAY IN THE HOLY LAND.—A letter from Jerusalem announces that the cupola of the Holy Sepulchre is falling to ruins.—A subscription has been opened to repairit.

NOW AND THEN.—When in the fall in 1857, Mr. Cobb, Secretary of the Treasury, came forward with the strong arm of the Federal Treasury, to relieve in some measure the financial disasters which were fast crowding upon the business of the country, no praises were too loud, no encomiums too extravagant for his action.—This sentiment was not at all confined to his own political party, but was general among all parties. It was deemed appropriate that the ready money in the Treasury should be used for purchasing Government Bonds not yet matured, and thus afford temporary relief to the country, in the hour of its greatest need.

But the revulsion went so far as to prostrate business, and to carry down some of the ablest and most experienced financiers in the country; and the Treasury, owing to the great reduction in imports, soon become exhausted, and like thousands of solvent merchants was obliged to effect a temporary loan. The equilibrium has not yet been restored, and the utmost economy is required on the part of the government to keep the expenses within the proper limits. Greedy speculators, who are impatient to get their hands into the Treasury in some way, are growing tired of government economy, and begin to cry out for higher duties, for more money. Of course, as Mr. Cobb is the immediate head of the Financial Department, they first visit their anathemas upon him; and, therefore, he who was fifteen months ago praised by all tongues, now comes in for a liberal share of abuse. The same sheets who then thought the able financial managment of the Secretary would surely make him President in 1860, now think the public policy of Mr. Cobb has brought the Government to the most pitiable condition it has occupied since the days of Tyler.—Journal of Commerce.

FURTHER ARCHÆOLOGICAL DISCOVERIES IN ATHENS.—The Providence Journal copies the following from an Athens paper of February 5th:

"Other ancient monuments have been found in the course of excavations between the Erecthenum and the Parthenon. They are as follows:

A pedestal of Pentilican marble, on which is sculptured the figure of a warrior, with helmet and shield; above it is the inscription, "Xenocles," the father, probably, of the tragic poet Carcinus. Although mutilated, the work exhibits much artictic merit. The pedestal was found built into the side of the door of a small chapel, the ruins of which were thrown out in the excavations. Within this chapel are Christian tombs, as the manner of burying intimates. They belong to the Byzantine period, and underneath them there are foundations from still earlier times.

Here, also, were discovered broken pieces of a colossal statue (perhaps to Minerva) praped to the feet.

Not far from the same spot they have found an anaglyph of four men standing, and beneath them an inscription, obliterated except the last syllable. It belongs to the best period of the art. It was one of the votive offerings that stood in front of the Parthenon.

Some important inscriptions have also been found and published in the archæological paper. One of them is very interesting, both for the matter of it and for the beauty of the characters. It is written in Attic letters.

It is worthy of notice that the precincts of the Parthenon and the Erecthenum are discovered to be floored with overlapping rows of stones, from the rock of the Acropolis. This work was probably done when the Acropolis was leveled off.

☞ Mr. Hatch and Mr. Taylor, late members from New York, are applicants for the Indian Bureau, or for the Patent Office. No appointment has yet been made to either vacancy.

☞ The Navy Department has taken measures for the immediate purchase of the chartered vessels engaged in the Paraguay expedition, Congress having made an appropriation for that purpose.

☞ Great activity prevails in our nay yards, in getting ready vessels for immediate service. The Lancaster, Hartford, San Jacinto, Constellation, John Adams, Levant, Portsmouth, Mohican, Wyoming and Narragansett, have been ordered to be prepared for sea immediately.

☞ Elections for members of Congress are to be held in the course of this year, as follows: Connecticut and Rhode Island elect early in April; in Virginia, on the fourth Thursday in May; on first Monday of August, in Alabama, Kentucky and Texas; on first Thursday of August, in North Carolina; on first Monday of October, in Georgia and Mississippi; on second Tuesday of October, in Minnesota; on first Monday (7th) of October, in Louisiana; and on first Wednesday (2d) of November, in Maryland. Nearly all of these States were represented in the last House by Democrats. The Connecticut election took place April 4. The Republicans have elected the entire Congressional delegation, as well as the whole State ticket and a large majority of the Legislature.

☞ The express train east on the Great Western Railway, Canada, ran off the track, near Hamilton, March 14th, demolishing the engine cars, and killing four or five persons, including the engineer, and injuring several others.

☞ The Boston Post publishes a letter from Ex-President Pierce, dated Sorrento, Feb. 11th, and addressed B. M. Farley, Esq., Hollis, N. H., in which Mr. Pierce says:—"I cannot speak with any certainty as to the period of our return, but, whether it be earlier or later, you may be quite sure that I shall, under no possible circumstances, consent to the use of my name in a manner calculated to disturb the tranquil pursuits which alone pertain to the life of a private citizen."

☞ On the 17th March, James Hamilton, who attempted to kill his wife and himself in St. Louis, expired. He died truly repentant for the great crime which he had perpetrated. His last thoughts were of his wife, whom he had greatly wronged. Thus ends the history of the first victim.

The above shows a larger number of delegates in actual attendance than have been present at any of our preceding Territorial Conventions. The 17 votes, making up the 60, were cast by accredited proxies.

Ere this time, the members of the Convention will have assured the democracy of the Territory as to the harmony, good feeling and unanimity of purpose which characterized the deliberations of that body throughout. All the discussions engaged in, were conducted in the utmost good temper, free from acrimony or petty peevishness, and it has been conceded by all parties present, conversant with the history of the past, to have been the most orderly convention of the party ever assembled in the Territory. Never have we witnessed a nomination for delegate or representative to Congress, which was made with equal or greater unanimity. Upon the call of delegate list, and the first vote sufficed, we belive there were four scattering votes cast by two of the members against Gov. STEVENS, which were subsequently withdrawn, and our late delegate was then declared the unanimous nominee of the party for re-election. Gov. STEVENS was then introduced to the Convention by the committee appointed for that purpose, and in returning thanks for the honor conferred, made an exceedingly neat and patriotic speech, in which he placed himself squarely upon the platform of resolutions adopted by the Convention, and unhesitatingly pledged himself in their defence in the canvass upon which he was about to enter.

The Convention concluded all the business pertaining to it on Monday—(the three preceding ones occupied two days)—and adjourned in the settled confidence that the nominee would be triumphantly elected. We have taken the pains to make considerable inquiry of the members of the Convention on the subject, and it is their unanimous testimony, as a belief, that Gov. STEVENS will be re-elected by a largely increased vote over that given to him at his last election. Be that as it may, we feel entirely safe in making the confident prediction that he will be re-elected by a decisive—a very large majority.

Democrats of Washington! at our mast head will be found the name of the democratic nominee for Delegate to Congress, as also the names, as far as received, of the regular candidates of the party for Councilmen and Representatives; and we cannot too earnestly urge upon the party, in each county where legitimate nominations have been made, that they extend to them a warm and cordial support. Let the practice of "bolting" be ignored at once and forever. With the primary and county conventions, all disaffection and strife should be buried, and the organization close up to the encounter of a common enemy. It cannot be expected that in every instance, all will be satisfied with the selections made; but this is a matter that should be fairly canvassed in advance, when, if we are honest in support of the party usage that we profess to be, the minority will yield a cheerful obedience to the decision of the majority, and give to the candidates of its choice an unbroken support. Shall not this principle obtain in the approaching election?—Will not the party, everywhere, endeavor to strengthen the vote of their nominee for delegate, by giving their county ticket an earnest and hearty support?

Without the least design at an invidious comparison, we must be permitted to express the opinion that the party in this (Thurston) county, have, at their late convention, agreed upon the strongest, if not the best ticket that has ever been presented to the county for democratic suffrage. Messrs. HENNESS and SHEAD were members of the last Legislature—(the former having been a member of the House for several years)—and both, last winter, earned the reputation of being amongst the most faithful and best working members of the assembly. For a number of years past, Dr. G. K. WILLARD has been entrusted with various offices of honor and responsibility, the duties of which, so far as we are advised, he has discharged with general if not universal, satisfaction. He is a gentleman highly esteemed for his probity of character, intelligence, and estimable qualities of head and heart.—With the exception that Mr. A. S. YANTIS has never until now, been before the people of this county for office, the above remarks are equally applicable to that gentleman. He is a farmer—a plain, practical man, and is well acquainted with the wants of the people he will be called upon to represent. Of Mr. C. E. WEED, we need say nothing. He is one of the oldest residents of Olympia, although now engaged in agricultural life; is perhaps acquainted with every resident of the country—is esteemed as one of the most enterprising and clear-headed young men amongst us, and who, by his straight-forward business transactions, for a series of years, has acquired a host of friends. Mr. LEVI SHELTON is a staunch democratic farmer, of good judgment and excellent native sense, and who, from the opportunity he has enjoyed for the past two or three years, as an officer of the House, will at once find himself as much at home in the work of legislation as any of the old members. He will make one of the best representatives on the ticket. The joint Councilman for Thurston and Sawamish, (Mr. JAMES BILES,) is well known, we believe, in both counties, and is deservedly a very popular nominee. He has been a resident here since 1853—is one of our most substantial and intelligent farmers—has for several years been one of our County Commissioners, in which capacity, by his prudence and good judgment in the management of the embarrassed financial affairs of our county, he has won not only the approbation, but golden opinions from his fellow-citizens.

FELLOW-DEMOCRATS!—The name of the nominee of the party for delegate to Congress—for members of the Council and House for Thurston and a few other counties, is now before you, and it is for you to determine how large a majority you can secure for them. In this matter, we earnestly call upon you to be up and doing. The night season has passed away—the sun has arisen, and the time for work is at hand. Arouse ye, then, like the strong man from his slumbers—gird on your armor, and be ready for the battle. "Give neither sleep to your eyes nor slumber to your eyelids," until you have marshalled your forces, called over the roll, and are certain that every man is at his post. Let every Democrat consider it his duty to go round among his neighbors, and urge them to action, and awaken them to the responsibility that rests upon their shoulders. It is high time thaty ou should know who are Democrats and who are not—who are to be trusted and who are not—who are friends and who enemies—who loyalists and who traitors. We warn our Democratic friends against the insidious whisperings of opposition or independent candidates for office, or covert insinuations of sore-headed Democrats, such as that the democracy are dissatisfied with this, that or the other nomination, or disparaging insinuations of a kindred character. Again, we say, let every man bestir himself who claims to be a Democrat. There is nothing more portentious to the eye of enlightened patriotism than to behold the people sunk into an apathy in regard to their political interests—to see them indifferent as to the choice of the men who are to make the laws by which they are to be governed, and who are to shape the destiny of their country. The right to choose their rulers is the greatest privilege of freemen. Let every Democrat fulfill that duty. There is no special providence for that purpose, and if the people do not attend to those matters, the political intriguers and demagogues will. Whenever called upon therefore to do so, the farmer should unhesitatingly lay aside his plough, and the merchant should quit his counting-house, and the mechanic his handicraft. Somebody must make laws for us—somebody represent us in Congress, and somebody elect our lawgivers and other public servants.

Resigned.—We regret to learn that Hon. C. C. PHILLIPS, of Island county, who for the past two sessions of the Legislature represented the counties of Island, Jefferson, Whatcom and Claim in the Council, has resigned. We learn that a new election has been ordered, but no nomination has as yet been made to supply the vacancy. There are many sterling democrats in that district, and we doubt not but that some good and deserving democrat will be nominated. Mr. PHILLIPS was a faithful representative and an unswerving democrat.

The Mask Withdrawn.—If we can comprehend the meaning of plain Saxon language, from the last issue of that paper, we cannot do otherwise than infer that our amiable cotemporary of the Puget Sound Herald has doffed his assumed garb of neutrality, and will enter the canvass in support of the opposition candidate, Col. WALLACE, for the delegateship. The communication in the last number headed "TODYISM," and signed "SXOPOS," contains many glaring misrepresentations and absurdities, some of which, when we have more room and time, we may consider it worth while to point out. We have seen no "todyism" practised by our citizens towards Gov. STEVENS; and as to the author of the communication not liking the manner in which our editorials are written, we can inform him that there are whole families in that same awful fix. According to Mr. PROSH's confession, a sudden change has "come o'er the spirit of his dream;" and instead of now thinking as he did in the immediately preceding number, "that the odds were by no means in favor of Col. WALLACE, and that he will have to work hard to win success," he appears now to think that the reverse is the case. Patent medicine advertisers tell us of a "matchless sanative" that work miracles of changes, but we will not be ungenerous enough to intimate that the political character of the Herald has been effected by it.

Shipping, Etc.—The U. S. mail steamer Constitution, A. B. GOVE, commander, arrived at her wharf on Saturday last, at 2 o'clock P. M., with the mails and passengers, from Semiahmoo, Victoria and intermediate ports.

The news from the mines of Frazer river was so discouraging as to effect business seriously at Victoria, although the faith in the ultimate success of them is as strong as ever among the old settlers and those who have known their existence long.

The brig W. D. Rice, has arrived from San Francisco—would discharge her freight for Victoria and leave for Olympia on Wednesday last. The steamer Forward, from London, via. San Francisco, was hourly expected—as was the flag-ship of the British fleet.

At Port Gamble the ship Moonlight is loading spars for Hong Kong. At same place, just arrived, the ship Leonora, from San Francisco, having been absent from the mill only thirty-five days in making the round trip.

Ship Mayflower, reparing, will load for San Francisco.

Bark Jenny Ford, to sail next day for San Francisco.

The Constitution carried down a large lot of cattle for Victoria the last trip, which arrived in good season, as the market was nearly bare of beef.

The steamers E. Anderson, Gov. Douglass and Beaver, are running between Victoria and Langley, and the opposition is strong among them.

The schooner Towanda, with merchandise from Boston, via. Port Gamble, is on her passage to Olympia, and may be expected to-day. She has coal for the Constitution.

For the above memoranda, we are indebted to purser Molthrop, as also, for the Victoria Gazette of May 10th. The news is unimportant.

ARRIVAL AND DAPARTURE OF THE JONATHAN.—The steamer Brother Jonathan, Staples master, arrived in Esquimalt harbor, about six o'clock, on Saturday afternoon, with 66 passengers, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, and a large amount of freight for this place. She left again for San Francisco, via. Portland, on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with 50 passengers, and about $50,000 in gold dust. Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped $57,800 worth of Frazer river gold dust per steamer Brother Johnathan for San Francisco. The amount in the hands of passengers is unknown, but we estimate the total amount of the shipment at not less than $50,000 worth. The $5000 mentioned recently as having been deposited at Wells, Fargo & Co.'s by two miners from Hill's Bar, is not included in their shipment.

The total value of merchandise imported into this Colony for the quarter ending March 31st, 1859, according to the returns of the Custom House, was $503,933 25. This shows an increase of $109,264 92, over the previous quarter, ending 31st of December, 1858.

At the time of the departure hence of the schooner Page, it was reported that she carried down $5,000 in gold dust. The San Francisco papers state that $12,500 were received by her.

Miss Burdett Coutts has increased her donation for the endowment of a bishoprie in British Columbia from £15,000 to £25,000.

OLYMPIA, W. T., May 16th, 1857.

FRIEND WILEY:—It appears that friend ANDERSON has taken great pains to learn what my "near neighbors" know of my political antecedents. If my "near neighbors" are aggrieved by my "speckled record," I will be swift to make amend, by working with them hereafter, provided, always, it be in democratic harness. We will be safe in the party by one of the resolutions passed by the Territorial Convention to-day. But as we have as good a right to our say as our "near neighbors," we will make a statement of facts as they are; and our "near neighbors" will see at once that they have wronged us, and will take it all back, for we do not, still not, believe that we have a neighbor who would wilfully injure us, even politically.

The first charge is that we allowed our name used against Judge CATLIN. The facts are, that as soon as I learned that Judge CATLIN was running for the office, I withdrew my name. My card of withdrawal was written by JOHN ANDERSON, Esq., and carried by him to the printer, and published. Judge CATLIN received my vote and the votes of all of my friends. That is one Democratic vote.

We have since voted for LANCASTER, ANDERSON, and Gov. STEVENS, and voted the regular nominations twice in joint convention of the Legislature. As for the office that I now hold, Clark county nominated Caples, and Skamania nominated me. Skamania got the best of the fight.

I am sorry, from the very bottom of my heart, that friend ANDERSON has allowed himself to go so far astray about secret caucuses; I can attribute it to nothing but a disordered imagination, and elicita from us nothing but feelings of commisseration.

We had the kindest feelings for our friend ANDERSON when we wrote what we did about him. We saw him about to leave the Democratic party;—the only party to which he could go was the Steilacoom-Bar-FRANK CLARK-Hudson Bay-"Wool"-party; that he would have to first acknowledge FRANK CLARK his file-leader, ask forgiveness of Doct. TOLMIE—acknowledge that the Truth Teller told the truth—then go and do penance at the grave of "Leshi" after which he would have been allowed to take the band of the tories in the last Indian war, and ask their forgiveness.

Then at the bidding of FRANK CLARK he (ANDERSON) would have to raise the howl of "the severest condemnation against Gov. STEVENS—all of which we knew him to be incapable of performing. Don't you think, friend WILEY, that we meant it in kindness?

In all kindness we must tell friend ANDERSON of another error he has fallen into. He has said before a voter of this Territory that Col. WALLACE was a better Democrat than Gov. STEVENS; that Col. WALLACE was going round to the different courts pleading law for POOR CLIENTS for nothing; that Col. WALLACE would not take a nomination from the Republican party; that the Col. would take a nomination from the Democratic party, but he cared but little whether or not he got the nomination; that he intended to run whether nominated or not.

The above we will prove if our friend ANDERSON wishes us to do.

In our former communication we applied the term "bolter" only to those who bolted the regular nominations in joint convention last winter. We say this much to correct the false impressions of those who supposed that we applied it elsewhere.

VANCOUVER.

OLYMPIA, W. T., May 17, 1859.

DEAR SIR:—Some three months ago you published a covert attack upon me, when, after unusual delay, you gave me the name of the author of that attack, the writer proved to be one of the most versatile political aspirants in Washington Territory. I made a short reply to his tergiversations. Last week you published that reply, and made it the text for more than two columns of detraction from my character, and that detraction is all by insuendo and insinuation.—From these facts the conclusion to my mind is irresistible that your purpose is to attempt to "read me out" of the democratic party, or consign me to the earliest political grave. If such is your purpose will you do me the justice to attack me in future with charges direct and open. Don't attempt to stab me with dark insuendos and poisoned insinuations; in my opinion such assaults are as unjust and unmanly as in this instance they are untrue and unfounded. You are not to be held personally responsible for such things. You may think and feel that you are, but I cannot feel that such is the case.

Do me the justice to publish this, and I will trouble you with no more communications for your paper.

Yours, respectfully,
BUTLER P. ANDERSON.

We had intended to devote a few words of comment upon the supercilious and drugooning character of the language as applied to us in the above card of Mr. ANDERSON—such as—"when after much delay you gave me the name of the author," leaving it to be inferred that "the name of the author" was forced from us—an "insinuation" which is untrue. That we "are not to be held personally responsible," &c., and similar taunting and exceptionable declarations; but being admonished that room will not permit a lengthened review of the above card we forbear.

A good-natured communication from "Vancouver" in reply to Mr. ANDERSON's communication of last week will be found in another column, in which he either explains, or emphatically denies all the accusations made by Mr. A., on "authority of the Gen's near neighbors." Be it remembered that Gen. MAXON's "near neighbors" have not as yet been called upon publicly to "come to judgment;" and as the General pleads "not guilty" to the accusations against him, as a rule of law, he must be considered innocent until conviction has been obtained. As to the Gen. being "one of the most versatile political aspirants in Washington Territory," we think that such an accusation comes with a bad grace from Mr. ANDERSON, who, we are informed, previous to his return to the territory some two years ago, was an applicant for the Governorship; subsequently, had moderate pretensions to appointment as Register; has been Secretary of the Council; was appointed by the Legislature to that office, and subsequently elected Territorial Prosecuting Attorney; was appointed by the Legislature a member of the commission to revise and compile the laws of the territory; was the candidate of his friends for Councilman last year, and was the candidate of ten members of the Legislature last winter for Public Printer. Now Mr. ANDERSON had a right to be an aspirant for one and all of those offices, and certainly Gen. MAXON is not to blame for having been elected to an arduous military position at the time of the late Indian war, and to a subsequent seat in the Territorial Council. As to his political "versatility" and "tergiversations," read his own defense.

As to our attempt to read Mr. ANDERSON out of the Democratic party, we will simply say that we never meditated any thing of the kind; but that we esteem it the duty of a public journal to vindicate the truth of political history whenever necessity demands it, without "fear, favor or affection;" and as to our "two columns of detraction from his character, and all that detraction by insinuation and innendo," published last week in connection with his communication, we respectfully beg leave to appeal from the summary and unsatisfactory manner in which he has been pleased to characterize what we have said as "unjust and unfounded." As will be seen by the above card, no particular specification of ours, by "insinuation, inuendo," or otherwise, has been contradicted, except in sweeping, general terms. We considered the strictures and statements made by us, as exceedingly temperate, and as far as the historical part is concerned, as given to the extent of our personal knowledge, we do not fear contradiction, because from the varied, and mass of testimony which is accessible to us, we feel entirely safe in being sustained in what we have said. Whatever "inuendos or insinuations" we may have made in our former remarks, we esteem as having been authorized, and called forth by the former card of Mr. ANDERSON.

OREGON ITEMS.

The Oregon state legislature was to have assembled on Monday of this week, in virtue of the proclamation of Gov. WHITAKER. An election of U. S. senator to supply the vacancy, has already, probably been made. The contest for the position has doubtless been warm and ranchorous.

We learn from the Portland Standard, of May 11th, that Hon. L. F. GROVER, (late delegate to Congres for Oregon,) returned on the last trip of the steamer Northerner, and that he has "signified his intention to yield to Mr. STOUT the fullest support" for the next delegateship.——That Col. J. D. FRY, postal agent for the Pacific coast, arrived on the Northerner, to make an official tour of Oregon and of Washington Territory.——That Hon. JOS. LANE had reached San Francisco, and was to leave in the Columbia for southern Oregon, via Umpqua, and that it was understood to be his intention to canvass the state for the democratic nominees. He will probably be at Salem during the approaching session of the legislative assembly.——That Lieut. JOHN MULLEN, with his complement of assistants, (the names of whom we published last week,) arrived at Portland on the Northerner, and that on Monday, the 9th inst., himself and party started for the Dalles, to make preparations for a speedy movement in the construction of the military road between Walla-Walla and Fort Benton. The escort assigned to this command by Gen. HARNEY is in readiness to march upon instant notice.——That Gen. NESMITH, superintendent of Indian affairs for Oregon and this territory, and Mr. ZEIBER, surveyor general of Oregon, have been removed from their respective offices, and that E. A. GEARY, Esq., of Linn, and Col. W. W. CHAPMAN, of Lane counties, have been appointed to fill those positions. The Standard deprecates the change, and says that considerable feeling was manifested in Portland upon the announcement of the official intelligence to that effect.——That on Monday, May 9th, as the "Turn Vereins" were proceeding on board the Senorita, a volunteer salute was fired for them by some young men, with an old iron cannon, which has stood upon the levee for a long time past. One shot had been fired, and while in the act of loading for the second, the man at the vent removed his thumb. Instantaneously the cartridge ignited, and a premature explosion of the gun occurred. The two men employed in ramming home the load were fearfully wounded, and the man at the vent had his thumb blown off. The names of the two men so badly mutilated are JOSEPH JAMIESON and FRANK HOWARD—the former an attache of Stewart's Theatre, the latter a watchman on the Mountain Buck. JAMIESON has his right arm broken in two places, his jaw bone shattered, two fingers torn from his right hand, and his right eye gone. HOWARD has an arm broken, his face badly torn, and one of his eyes shot away. As soon as the accident was made known to the 'Turners,' a committee of their association was dispatched to procure medical attendance and employ nurses for the unfortunate men. Every attention that can be paid them has been secured."——That a ship carpenter named LANCASTER was found drowned by Col. FRESH, near the ferry landing, Portland, with only his head and shoulders in the water, the rest of his body being left perfectly dry on shore. How long he had lain there is not known. Whether he had fallen in a fit, or was helplessly intoxicated, cannot be ascertained.——That Mr. and Mrs. CONNER, two very talented performers, had arrived at Portland, and would play an engagement at Stewart's Theatre;——and that from present indications the Willamette and Columbia rivers will rise considerably higher this year than has been known for many years. Already the water is nearly to the top of the Portland wharves. COUCH & FRANDERS' upper tier wharf will probably be the only one not submerged before long.

The Statesman, of the 10th inst., says that Mr. ATKINSON, the 3d auditor of the treasury, requested Mr. GROVER to spend the summer in Washington, and, with him, go over the report of the Oregon and Washington war claim commission, and aid him in preparing a report for the next Congress, pursuant to the Faulkner resolution; and that Mr. GROVER was in doubt what course to pursue, but decided to return to Oregon, and, if re-elected, to return to Washington immediately thereafter, and spend the time from then until the meeting of Congress in the office of the 3d auditor.——That Judge DEADY accepts the U. S. judgeship.——That it is anticipated that Messrs. PRIM and REED, of Jacksonville, will be candidates for the state judgeship, which Deady vacates. The vacancy will be filled by gubernatorial appointment until the election of 1860;——and that Mr. SAMUEL FIELD, of Grand Ronde, Polk Co., left his home ostensibly to go to Butteville, on the 6th of April last, promising to return on the following day, but has not been heard from since. He left a wife and five children. He had with him between $5,000 and $6,000, and left no money or provision for his family, though leaving some stock and other property. If he is living, his family would like to hear of his whereabouts. His wife's address is MATILDA JANE FIELD, Salem, Ogn. Mr. FIELD and his wife formerly lived on unamiable terms, and it is cojectured that he has "vamosed the ranch."

Canvass.—As will be observed by a notice in another column, Gov. STEVENS, who, on Monday was nominated by the territorial democratic convention, as the candidate of the party for delegate to Congress, opens the canvass at 1 o'clock to-day at Skokomish, Sawamish county—between which time and June 25th, the programme indicates twenty-nine places at which he will address his fellow-citizens. His independent opponent—Col. W. H. WALLACE—has arranged to meet him at the several places designated. The Col. will be required to "move his boots," to "come to time" at all the points agreed upon. We trust the canvass will be an agreeable one for all parties that may become involved in it.

☞ The schooner Teando, Capt. Keller, from Boston, arrived at Olympia wharf on Wednesday evening. Cargo of assorted merchandise.

"I. C. on the Cork."—That "alf-and-alf," two of each, which HEFRON & Co., of the "Capitol Saloon," was kind enough last week to present to the office of the PIONEER AND DEMOCRAT, "went in" with a perfect "whereas," and was pronounced "A No. 1." The segars were soon made "scarce"—and the contents of the other bottle of "groceries" was speedily numbered with the things that were. General acknowledgments are returned.

☞ The following letter, which emphatically speaks for itself, was written by the Dean of the Faculty of the Philadelphia College of Medicine—to the editors of the Pacific Medical and Surgical Journal, San Francisco, for publication:

PHILADELPHIA, January 17, 1859.

To the Editors of the "Pacific Medical and Surgical Journal"—Gentlemen: My attention has been called to an article in the December number of your journal in regard to the ad eundem degree granted by the Philadelphia College of Medicine to Dr. L. J. Czapkay. When the application for the degree was made to the Faculty, it was accompanied by affidavits and testimonials to the effect that Dr. Czapkay was a regular graduate M. D. of the University of Pesth, had served as Surgeon in the Hungarian army and was a regular practitioner of medicine. On the strength of these the degree was granted. The ad eundem degree, as its name implies, is conferred on graduates only, and gives us new privileges. Had there been the slightest suspicion of irregularity, the application would have been refused. By inserting this in your journal, you will do an act of justice to the college, and confer a favor on. Yours, very respectfully, H. RAND, Dean of the Faculty of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S PRIVATE MEDICAL and Surgical Institute is on Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's office, San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultations, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. Office hours, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTIFICATE.

I, the undersigned, Governor of Hungary, do testify hereby, that Dr. L. J. Czapkay has served during the contest for Hungarian liberty, as Chief Surgeon in the Hungarian army, with faithful perseverance—whereof I have given him this certificate, and do recommend him to the sympathy, attention and protection of all those who are capable of appreciating patriotic self sacrifice and undeserved misfortune.

KOSSUTH LAJOS,
Governor of Hungary.

CORRECTED WEEKLY FOR THE PIONEER AND DEMOCRAT BY AYERS & WILLIAMS.

THURSDAY EVENING, May 19, 1859.

We are gratified in being able to congratulate our citizens upon the renewed communication with one of the richest agricultural sections of the Territory, by the completion of the bridge across Deschutes river; the loss of which has been severely felt in town, in the scarcity of farm products, and in the country in additional expenses upon merchandise received from this market. We note an unusual number of teams in town during the past week, and a very agreeable revival of business occasioned thereby. Farm products have been received in some considerable quantities, and have met with ready sales at satisfactory rates, from the increasing demands of the town and Sound trade. We quote sales of Butter (new) at 62½ cents per lb; Bacon, hog round, 18@20; Lard 20; Eggs (scarce and in demand) 40 cts per doz.; Wheat $2 00 per bushel; Oats $1 00; Beef, net, 12½ cts; Mutton, net, 15 cts; Pork, net, 12½ cts.

SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY.

Attending and Resident Physician,

L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D.,

Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on the diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Consultations, by letter or otherwise, free.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his institute for the cure of all forms of Private Diseases—such as Syphilis, Gonorrea, Nocturnal Emissions, and all the consequences of self-abuse. In the first stages of Syphilitic or Gonorreal diseases he guarantees a cure in a few days, without inconvenience to the patient or hindrance to his business. When a patient by neglect or improper treatment has developed the secondary symptoms of Syphilis, such as buboes or painful swellings on the groins, or ulcers in the throat and nose, which, if not checked, destroy the soft parts and cause the bones to mortify, separate and come away, leaving the sufferer an object hideous to behold; or when blotches and pimples break out upon the skin, or when he has painful swellings upon the bones, or when his constitution is injured so as to pre-dispose to consumption or other constitutional disease, the Dr. guarantees a cure or asks no compensation.

In RHEUMATISM, chronic or acute; in DYSENTEY or DIARRHŒA, he has safe and effectual remedies. For the treatment of the consequences of self-abuse, such as nocturnal emissions, nervousness, timidity, headache, pains in the back and limbs, with general weakness, loss of appetite, loss of memory, injury to the sight, restlessness, confusion of ideas, dislike for society, and a feeling of weariness of life; with the nervous system so excitable that slight noises shock or startle the patient, making his existence miserable. For the above maladies the Doctor will guarantee a cure or ask no compensation. He can be consulted free of charge, and invites all to call, as it will cost them nothing, and may be much to their advantage. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

REMARKABLE INSTANCE OF MEDICAL RELIEF.

Below we publish the certificates of two of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted:

Thankfulness is the Incentive to Gratitude.

CURTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of uncontrollable passion of youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance; but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror, that, instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and, being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and, by a strict obedience to his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pains in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous jreaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times, pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and, in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I felt as it inspired by a new life—that life which, a short time ago, I contemplated to end with my own hand.

With a view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merits and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his care, a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, county of San Francisco—Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 17th day of April, A. D. 1856. (Signed,) JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

CARD.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from cause unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning; and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger, as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having, previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay; I told him my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services—regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessings of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

MEYER YABLONSKY.

As inoculation is a sure preventive against small pox, so is Dr. L. J. Czapkay's prophylacticum a preventative against syphilitic and gonorrheal diseases. Harmless in itself, it possesses the power of chemically destroying the syphilitic virus, and thereby saving thousands of debauchees from being infected by the most loathsome of all diseases. Let no young man who appreciates health be without Dr. Czapkay's Prophylacticum. It is in very convenient packages, and will be found convenient for use, being used as a soap.—Price $5. TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. L. J. Also diseases of the Kidneys, and other urinary organs, such as Diabetes, or an excessive flow of urine, Albuminaria, commonly known as Brights disease. In this complaint physician nor patient oftentimes suspect the presence of disease until too late. The most common symptoms are general indisposition, with dropsical swellings, calculi in the Kidneys, Urethra or Bladder, Eouresis or inability to retain the urine, cystitis or inflamation of the bladder, and all other disorders of the urinary organs. Also, diseases of the womb and its appendages, such as irregularities of the MENSES, when excessive, defective, suppressed or irregular, Prolapsus or falling of the womb, sterility, ovarean dropsy, and other diseases of the parts. In the treatment of any of the above diseases, the Doctor has many new remedies, and guarantees a perfect cure in all cases, or the money will be returned. CAUTION

TO PURCHASERS OF

EUREKA WHISKY.

IT HAS COME TO THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE undersigned that various parties are putting up inferior Whisky in imitation packages, branding it "EUREKA WHISKY," and selling the same at much less than the Agent's price for the genuine article. We have also ascertained that empty packages with our names on them are frequently refilled with a common article, and sold for the genuine.

There are houses who sell the genuine

The fact of so many parties trying to imitate this article is the surest guarantee that it is the best Whisky offered for sale on the Pacific coast.

The genuine EUREKA WHISKY is imported in barrels and half-barrels, and the packages are branded on one head:

"EUREKA WHISKY---1849."

"WM. NEWELL & CO."

To any one who has once purchased the genuine EUREKA WHISKY, this caution is unnecessary, as they cannot be deceived by imitations.

LONDON

CLUB HOUSE GIN.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THIS CELEBRATED GIN—PRETENDING TO nothing but what it is, viz: a pure and unadulterated article, and assuming no artificial merits of what it is not, as some of its rival imitators do—after five years of public approval and very extensive sales in California, has been pronounced by the public to be superior, not only as a beverage of general use, to any other article competing against it, but is

UNRIVALLED IN ITS MEDICAL EFFICIENCY

In most cases of complaints. To persons traveling in these days of rapid transit from East to West, North to South, who are constantly changing their water as well their climate; who are drinking, indeed, a dozen kinds of water in every twenty-four hours, and each draught containing some property acting in chemical antagonism to the preceding one, thereby causing no unnatural degree of excitement to the stomach—it is positively and absolutely necessary to use a counteracting agent. From the fact that the

"LONDON CLUB HOUSE GIN"

Is prepared expressly to meet such exigencies, and to act as we know it will act, as an antidote, we confidently prescribe it as the very best article in the country. The name of "Aromatic Scheidam Schnapps" has never been attached in any way to this article. In first presenting the

"LONDON CLUB HOUSE GIN"

To the public, my aim was to give them a pure and unadulterated article of Gin, and to call it by its right name. The success attending its introduction and extensive sale in California is a sufficient guarantee of the high appreciation of the article by consumers.

Various parties have from time to time put up and shipped to California an article which they call "CLUB HOUSE GIN." My Gin, which has gained such a reputation in California, is branded on the cases,

"Old London Club House Gin---Wm. H. D."

The bottles also have a white label with a fac simile of my signature. I caution all parties to beware of imitations.

WOLFE'S

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS!

I beg to call the attention of the Merchants of California and Oregon to a Superior Article of

HOLLAND GIN,

MANUFACTURED BY MYSELF EXCLUSIVELY,

AT SCHIEDAM, HOLLAND,

And to Distinguish it from every other Alcoholic Stimulant in the world, I gave it the name of SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHAPPS.

It is the PURE TINCTURE OF JUNIPER, distilled from the BEST BARLEY that can be selected at any cost. It is flavored and medicated, not by the common harsh berry, but by the choice botanical variety of the AROMATIC ITALIAN JUNIPER BERRY, whose more elegant extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, and thus it becomes a concentrated TINCTURE OF EXQUISITE FLAVOR AND AROMA, altogether transcendent in its CORDIAL AND MEDICINAL PROPERTIES to any HOLLAND GIN IN THE WORLD.

Since the introduction of the celebrated SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS, the proprietor has submitted to the WHOLE MEDICAL FACULTY of the United States. Over THREE THOUSAND ENDORSE IT, over their own signatures, to be the Purest Alcoholic Stimulant in use. They also speak of the Great Success they have met with in their practice in Gravel, Gout, Chronic Rheumatism, Obstructions of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs. Persons traveling in the Southern and Western States should always have a supply on hand as a Preventative against Ague and Fever and change of water. The Physicians in New Orleans and St. Louis prescribe it with great confidence in case of Cholera, on account of the Purity of the article.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

Since the introduction of my Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps into the United States, a number of Liquor Mixers in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and San Francisco, have been engaged in putting up mixed and poisonous Gin in cases and jugs, to be palmed off upon the unwary for my genuine Schnapps. At first, they boldly counterfeited my name, but I soon stopped that by exposing several of them to be arrested. They now confine themselves to closely imitating the appearance and shape of my bottles, and the peculiar wrapper which I have always used, viz: YELLOW PAPER, printed with RED AND BLUE INK, PASTEBOARD PRINTED CAPS.

BEWARE OF THESE IMITATION BOGUS SCHNAPPS.

If the Liquor were fit to drink, there would be no need to palm them off by counterfeiting the peculiar style and appearance of the Genuine Wolfe's Schnapps. Avoid these mixed and doctored-up imitations, as you would avoid Shattered Nerves, Ruined Stomach and Delirium Tremens. The Pure and genuine Schnapps have my name on the bottle, cork, and a fac-simile of a signature on the label. For sale by all the Wholesale Druggists and respectable Liquor Dealers in the United States.

UDOLPHO WOLFE,

The word Schiedam Schnapps belongs exclusively to my article—all other are counterfeit, and are impositions on the public. 6m26

125 McCORMICK'S CHICAGO REAPERS.

Three Sizes—5½, 6 and 7 feet Cut,

WITH EXTRAS FOR ALL THE DIFFERENT patterns from 1852 to 1859. [Agent for the manufacturers for the Pacific Coast.]

2,500 sold in 1855, | 4,000 sold in 1857,

15,000 Sold in the Last Four Years.

No single establishment in the world can truthfully claim to have manufactured and sold anything like so large a number of Reaping and Mowing Machines during the same time, while my experience dates back to the origin of my machine. In 1834, having been actively and exclusively engaged in their manufacture for the last fifteen years. I am now more largely engaged in the manufacture of these machines than ever before, and, with my improvements for 1859, do not hesitate to warrant my machine as a Reaper, Mower, and Reaper and Mower, superior to any other for simplicity, durability and perfect working; and further, to say that farmers who may desire it are at liberty to work my machine through the harvest with any other, and keep and pay for the one preferred. The position of the raker in my machine, (as patented,) upon the main frame, where there is great strength, and where the weight adds to the power of the machine, is the only right one. Other makers have to haul their raker on the platform, where he must submit to having the dust thrown in his eyes by the operation of the reel, and to being jolted over the clods by the little platform wheel over which he rides, necessarily racking their machine to pieces. This accounts, in part, for the great durability of my machines as compared with others.

Highest Prize of Royal Agricultural Society of England, in 1857.

Highest Prize of the United States Agricultural Society, in 1857.

As the Best Reaper.

Publications made by the manufacturers of the Manny machine, claiming the highest honors, etc., at the French Universal Exposition, in 1855, are known by them to be FALSE. The success of my machine, as indicated by figures above, is its highest praise, while the awards of premiums, generally, are worthy of no confidence, although reaper makers make a business of laboring and scheming to secure the little annual one-horse premiums of the country. Although it may not be generally understood, it is nevertheless true, that these machines have always been sold at comparatively low prices, and but for the boldness with which I introduced and sold them by thousands, for the ten years past, other smaller manufacturers would doubtless have put the price much higher.

I could furnish thousands of testimonials from farmers and others, of the truthfulness of every statement I have made, and much more. I may further remark, that all of the reaping machines of any prominence in the country are mere modifications of my machine, all other manufacturers having necessarily limited experience in comparison with my own.

A single year's severe service will satisfy the farmer, that in point of durability my machine is far superior to all others; besides several most important advantages, referred to in my regular annual circular in pamphlet form, which will be furnished those who desire further information, by addressing me or any one of my agents. FORWARDING,

Storage & Commission

THE undersigned having erected at Port Townsend, Washington Territory, a large and commodious warehouse, well adapted to the storage of grain, merchandise, freight, etc., intended for transportation up or down the coast, awaiting the necessary means of conveyance, would inform the shippers and traders of the Sound that they are now prepared to store such articles on the usual terms.

Also, being extensively engaged in the business of TRANSPORTATION, either as owners of or agents for most of the coasting vessels of the Sound, they are further prepared to FORWARD such articles of merchandize, stock, and grain as may be entrusted to them, to any point on the Sound or Straits, Vancouver's Island, or elsewhere, as may be desired, at the shortest notice and on accommodating terms.

Patronage respectfully solicited. For further information address the undersigned.

MARINE HOSPITAL.

PORT TOWNSEND, JUNE 22D, 1858.

DR P. M. O'BRIEN, late Resident Physician and Surgeon of the County Hospital, San Francisco, and of the Hospital of the Sisters of Mercy, is now in charge of the Marine Hospital, Port Townsend.

Dr. O'BRIEN is also prepared to receive private patients. He flatters himself with the hope that an experience of 16 years to the practice of his profession, both private and Hospital, together which a thorough Medico-Cirurgical education, as evidenced by the proper guarantee of a Diploma to that effect will obtain for him the confidence of the citizens on Puget Sound.

LETTERS addressed—P. M. O'BRIEN, M. D., Port Townsend, will be duly acknowledged.

WASHINGTON HOTEL.

CORNER OF MAIN AND SECOND STREETS,

OLYMPIA, W. T.

SILAS GALLIHER, Proprietor.

THE PROPRIETOR has recently erected, in connection with, and as a part of the "Washington Hotel" a large two story building—20 by 60 feet—by which he is enabled to provide the traveling public with a larger number of capacious, comfortable and excellently ventilated apartments than can be afforded by any other public house in Washington Territory. An idea of his ability to accommodate the public may be judged from the fact that the Hotel contains twenty-five private rooms—(exclusive of family apartments)—six of which are large drawing rooms, or parlors.

Thankful to the public for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to the proprietor, and having thus enlarged upon his former business, he feels confident he can render the sojourn of strangers with him comfortable and pleasant, and no pains shall be spared to set his table as well as any in like business.

Beds and bed-rooms furnished to such as may desire them.

Board by the day and week.

A good stable is attached to this establishment, which will be amply supplied with forage for the accommodation of animals of the travelling public.
