WASHINGTON LEGISLATURE—THIRD SESSION.

House of Representatives.

MONDAY, Dec. 17, 1855.

Mr. Clark presented petitions, signed by Thomas and Noame Canbe, praying the Legislature to pass an act dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between said parties.

On motion of Mr. Howe, the matter was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

The House took up and passed memorial praying Congress to grant an appropriation to defray the expenses of the Indian war.

Message from the Council announced the passage of a Joint Resolution, relative to the employment of an enrolling and engrossing clerk, who is willing to look for his pay to the liberality of Congress.

The office is one that is needed, and probably the Joint Resolution will ultimately secure such an amendment of the Organic Act, as will secure the creation of said office, and prompt and sufficient pay therefor. The resolution received three several readings, under a suspension of the rules, and was unanimously adopted.

C. B. No. 1, "an act relative to the distribution of the school fund for 1855," was taken up in its order, read, and upon motion of Mr. McElroy, referred to the committee on education.

H. M. No. 4, relative to the action of the navy board, in the case of commander Sterritt, United States Navy, and thanking him for his prompt response to the call of the Executive of Washington territory, for arms, &c., was taken up, read a third time, and unanimously adopted.

H. M. No. 5, relative to mail route, and contract for mail service from Fort Vancouver to the Dalles, via Cascade City, read a third time, and unanimously adopted.

The remainder of the session was occupied in committee of the whole, upon H. M. No. 7, praying an appropriation for mail communication, by sea, between San Francisco, California, and Olympia, Washington territory.

Sundry amendments in the phraseology of said document were made, when the committee rose and reported the amendments, and the memorial was continued on second reading.

The House then adjourned.

TUESDAY, Dec. 18, 1855.

The committee on Judiciary, by Mr. Clark, chairman, reported by bill upon the petitions of Thomas and Naome Canbe, granting the prayer of the petitioners.

Petitions and bill laid upon the table, and ordered to be printed.

The committee on Indian Affairs, thro' Mr. Bishop, chairman, reported that they had had under consideration so much of the message of the Governor, as relates to supplying Indians with guns and ammunition, reported, by bill, making it felony to give, barter, trade, or furnish in any way, any Indian with such articles.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the bill reported was read twice, and referred to the Judiciary committee.

Mr. Eldridge introduced H. M. No. 9, praying an appropriation to locate a military road from Steilacoom to Bellingham Bay. Memorial received two readings, and was ordered printed.

Mr. Chambers introduced H. B. No. 6, "an act to provide for the selection of school lands, in place of settled portions of sections 16 and 36."

The bill was read a first time.

Mr. Van Cleave introduced H. B. No. 7, "an act to prevent the discharge of ballast in Shoalwater Bay."

Read twice and referred to committee on Commerce.

The intent of this act is to bring Shoalwater Bay within the purview of the laws heretofore passed upon this subject.

H. J. R. No. 5, relative to the creation of an additional Land Office for the territory of Washington, was taken up, read a third time, and unanimously adopted.

By this resolution, the counties bordering upon the Columbia river, to wit: Pacific, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clarke, Skamania, and Walla Walla, are created into a new Land District, with a prayer for the location of an office, at the most eligible point upon said river.

H. M. No. 8, praying an increase of appropriation for mail service, so as to secure mail communication by sea from San Francisco to Olympia, occupied considerable of this morning's session.

After disposing of several motions te refer to various committees, on motion of Mr. Hale, the memorial was considered engrossed, and now assigned as the time of its third reading.

Memorial read a third time and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, H. M. No. 7, praying that an armed steamer be stationed on the north west coast, was taken up, and read a third time and adopted.

H. B. No. 8, a substitute for H. B. No. 1, reported by committee on Judiciary, taken up.

The original bill related to the office of county auditor, and was intended to meet a case where the auditor resigned, and the county commissioners appointed, that the appointment should only continue until the next general election, and not for the unexpired term. The substitute amends the election law, and is applicable to all cases.

The substitute was adopted, read twice, and ordered printed.

Then adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 19, 1855.

Mr. Johnson, of the committee on Roads and Highways, reported back H. B. No. 2, "an act to locate a Territorial road from Oakland, in Sawamish county, to Bruceville, on Shoalwater Bay, in Chehalis county," without amendments.

Bill ordered printed.

Mr. Walker, of committee on Military Affairs, reported a substitute for the resolution referred to said committee, relative to the employment of friendly Indians, in the present war.

Report adopted, and resolution read a first time.

Mr. Walker, of committee on Commerce, reported a substitute for the resolution relative to the erection of light houses.

The report was adopted, the resolution read twice, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Van Cleave introduced a memorial praying for an appropriation for a military road from Olympia, on Puget Sound, to connect with the military road from Salem to Astoria, in Oregon Territory, at some point near the mouth of the Columbia river. Memorial read, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Morrow introduced a memorial asking congress for an appropriation to pay the volunteers, now in the service of the United States.

This memorial fixes the pay due to infantry at three dollars per day, and cavalry or mounted men at five dollars a day.

The memorial was read twice and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Jones introduced a memorial to Maj. Gen. Wool, United States Army, asking that steps may at once be taken to secure the establishment of a military post, at New Dunginess, in Clallam county, Washington territory.

Mr. Phillips introduced a memorial relative to increasing the pay of United States Deputy Surveyors, proposing, instead of the present ruinous rates, a compensation of thirty dollars a mile for meridian and standard parallel work, and twenty dollars per mile for sectional and subdivisional lines, requesting that the contractors of the past year may be included within the benefits of the proposed appropriation.

The memorial was read and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Jones, introduced a memorial praying for an appropriation for a military road from New Dunginess, southward, along the western shore of Hood's Canal, to intersect the military road from Fort Vancouver to Fort Steilacoom.

Memorial read and ordered printed.

On motion of Mr. Eldridge, the House then took up H. M. No. 9, relative to a military road from Steilacoom to Bellingham Bay.

Memorial read a third time and passed.

The House proceeded to the consideration of business from the Council.

C. B. No. 3, "an act to incorporate the Olympia Lodge, No. 1, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows," read a first time.

Mr. Douthit moved the suspension of the rules, the bill passed a second and third reading, and the title was approved.

The House then adjourned.

THURSDAY, Dec. 20, 1855.

Mr. Anderson introduced a Joint Resolution, H. J. R. No. 9, instructing our delegate in Congress to use his influence to obtain an appropriation for a military road from Bruceville, on Shoalwater Bay, to intersect the military road from Steilacoom to Fort Vancouver, at or near the Cowlitz Landing.

On motion of Mr. Ward, the rules were suspended, and the resolution was again read, when, on motion of Mr. Van Cleave, it was laid upon the table and ordered to be printed.

House Joint Resolution as to the acceptance of the services of friendly Indians, was read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Morrison, continued upon second reading, laid upon table, and ordered to be printed.

Considerable time this morning was occupied in the consideration of the Rules and Orders of the House, reported by Mr. Hale, of the committee on Rules.

The House adopted the report of the committee, which was the rules of last session, but slightly amended.

The remainder of the morning was occupied in the consideration of the homestead exemption law, which was referred to a committee of the whole, Mr. Clark in the chair.

By the provisions of this law, forty acres and the improvements thereon, are exempt from execution, as also six months' provisions, and five hundred dollars worth of personal property to a married man or head of a family, and six months' provisions and two hundred dollars worth of personal property to a single man; in all of which cases the party claiming the exemption shall select the property to be retained.

Sundry amendments were proposed, excluding town sites, mill sites, coal mines, etc., but none were adopted. The discussion was participated in by Messrs. Ward, Eldridge, Anderson, Bishop, Morrison, Whipple, and others, when the committee rose, reported back bill without amendments, and were discharged from its further consideration. The bill was subsequently referred to committee on the Judiciary.

The Territorial Auditor's report, and also that of the Territorial Treasurer, were taken up on motion of Mr. Hale, and referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Then adjourned.

FRIDAY DEC. 21, 1855.

Mr. Caples introduced H. M. No. 16, praying the extinguishment of the rights of the Puget Sound Agricultural and Hudson's Bay Companies, to lands in Washington Territory.

This memorial plainly states, that it is imperatively necessary to ascertain and extinguish these claims. That the existing state of affairs promotes litigation, embitters neighborhoods, by provoking jealousies, retards settlements, prevents school districts from being formed, and is without one redeeming benefit to our Territory.—It alludes, in strong terms, to the anomaly of a foreign corporation, thriving and prospering on American soil, whilst its every object and desire is anti-American in its character.

Mr. Eldridge moved the suspension of the rules, to read a second time now, which being done, on motion of Mr. Van Cleave, the memorial was laid upon the table to be printed.

Mr. Harris introduced H. M. No. 17, praying for an appropriation for a military road from Oak Point, on the Columbia river, by way of the Boisfort settlements, to connect with the military road from Fort Vancouver to Fort Steilacoom.

The memorial sets forth that twenty miles of this road has already been built by the settlers, and that twenty miles will complete it, and asks for an appropriation of $15,000.

The memorial received its two readings, and was laid upon the table to be printed.

Mr. Morrison introduced H. M. No. 18, addressed to Major General Wool, Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific division of the United States army, praying for the establishment of a military post on the military road from Fort Walla Walla to Fort Steilacoom, at or near where said road crosses White river.

The memorial having been read twice, was laid upon the table in order to be printed.

Mr. Gilliam introduced a joint resolution relative to the establishment of a marine hospital on Puget Sound, with a lunatic asylum attached thereto.

This resolution was laid upon the table, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Howe introduced a joint resolution relative to the Legislative Assembly adjourning for the holydays.

Mr. Douthit moved to lay upon the table. Lost.

Rules suspended, resolution read three times and passed, and the clerk instructed to report forthwith its passage to the Council.

Mr. Douthit introduced H. B. No. 11, "an act for the relief of James C. Strong."

This bill is to authorize the Territorial Treasurer to pay Mr. Strong one hundred and fifty dollars, for services as prosecuting attorney of the first judicial district, during the time a vacancy existed in said district, until the next annual election, a period of about nine months. Mr. Strong received his appointment from Judge McFadden, instead of the Governor.

This bill was referred to the committee on Claims.

Mr. Douthit asked leave to attend said committee, on behalf of Mr. Strong.

Mr. Clark, from the Judiciary committee, reported a substitute for the House Bill referred to said committee, making it felony to supply Indians with guns and ammunition.

The substitute bill prohibits the supplying of said articles to Indians, declaring it a misdemeanor, and fines and imprisons, or fines only, for such offence.

House took up H. B. No. 8, amendatory of the election law, and referring to vacancies filled in county offices by the county commissioners, making such appointments continue until the next general election.

On motion of Mr. Morrison, the bill ordered to its third reading now.

Bill read a third time and passed, and the title agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Clark, H. B. No. 9, bill divorcing Thomas and Naome Canby, taken up, read a third time and passed, and the title approved.

On motion of Mr. Clark, House took up House Resolution relative to the services of friendly Indians being employed in the existing war.

This resolution allows the Governor, if he deem it necessary, to employ Indians in the present war. It does not advise nor condemn the policy, but expresses the opinion that the Governor would be justified under existing circumstances.

Mr. Clark moved to postpone said resolution, and make it the order of the day upon a certain anniversary, which being beyond the present session, the Speaker ruled was equivalent to indefinite postponement.

Mr. Walker moved the indefinite postponement, and Mr. Clark accepted, withdrawing the original motion.

Mr. Clark said he would vote for this motion, because he could not subscribe to the doctrine contained in the preamble.—It asserts that certain bands of Indians have not become hostile, but are willing and desirous to aid the whites in prosecuting this war against the hostile savages. He did not believe in their willingness; he could not reconcile it with his ideas to believe their sympathies were any other way than adverse to the whites. This must become sooner or later a war of the races, and he looked upon every Indian as one who desired the downfall of the whites in the present war. Examine the history of the Indian race, and where have they been reliable? Isolated events have occurred, 'tis true, where certain Indians have been of service; but look at the race, generally, and it teaches that, when least doubted, when apparently most friendly, then have they been most dangerous. The present war establishes that—the history of the Indian always shows that feature. Would you have an instance of this feeling, then look at the exultation displayed by the Indians, on the news of any defeat or reverse to our arms. Witness the effect the news of the gallant Slaughter's death had upon the Indians at Seattle. That old Indian, Seattle, who is esteemed so friendly, could not conceal his joy, at that casualty. This was the first unguarded outbreak of feeling; he subsequently changed his tone and manner, but his first instinct had too manifestly betrayed itself.

But this was not his only objection. He thought passing such a resolution would cast reflection upon the Executive. That officer reaps all the honor, if this war is carried on successfully, and while that is the case, he should shrink from no responsibility of the position. He, for one, believed we had such an Executive, and was willing to leave with him all the responsibility. He did not believe the Governor would wish our advice, and he felt certain that it was a work of superrogation for the Legislature to attempt to give it. He is not dependent on us, and is not obliged to obey our instructions, and why gratuitously and unsought volunteer them? As a member of this House, or as a citizen, he had an opinion on this matter, which he was free to give, if asked for; but never would he volunteer it, nor obtrude it, not knowing how it would be received.

MR. MORRISON followed, cautioning members of the House from being carried away by the flowery speech of his colleague. He said the wants of the country demanded the speedy termination of this war. Our wives and children, who have been forced to abandon their homes, are crying in our ears for a home and for protection—the farms of my constituents are deserted—my people prevented from cultivating the soil, and they cannot put in their crops, and must become destitute—while my colleague lives in the town of Steilacoom, surrounded by fortifications. He has nothing at stake; the war may continue for all him. He has no wife, no children—a single professional gentleman. In reference to the CONSTITUTIONALITY of employing Indians, the history of the United States demonstrates that in all the Indian wars, friendly Indians have rendered valuable service. They employed them in Indiana and Kentucky, why not as well employ them here? He, for one, believed they would be of great service, and he was for having Pat Kanin organize his Indian company and go fight our battles; he was ready to trust them if they left their women and children hostages. All Pat Kanan asked for was ammunition, clothing and provisions—and he believed that this would be the best way to restore peace and tranquility to the Territory. But, perhaps, my colleague thinks it beneath the dignity of Americans to employ Indians to fight our battles. For my part, continued Mr. Morrison, I consider it beneath my dignity to go out and fight these savages—to give them a chance to kill me—to give them an opportunity to slay in cold blood our defenceless women and children.

Mr. CLARK rejoined. He lived in town 'tis true, but sympathized warmly with the gentleman who had preceded him, and knew too well the misfortunes of his constituency. He desired most heartily to accomplish the same object—peace to our borders and chastisement to the savage. They all united in the end desired. It was the means in which they differed. The history of Pierce county warned the whites against trusting Pat Kanan. He it was who for years kept the settlers in fear; he was chief of the band who slew in cold blood an inoffending white man; he it was who dared to threaten the taking of Fort Nisqually. There was not an Indian on the length and breadth of this Sound, who years back caused more terror to the women and children of Pierce county than this same Pat Kanan.

The question on the indefinite postponement was taken by ayes and noes, and was as follows:

Ayes—Anderson, Buchanan, Chambers, Clark, Douthit, Eldridge, Gilliam, Hale, Harris, Jones, McElroy, Morrison, Robinson, Roe, Walker, Ward and Mr. Speaker—17.

Noes—Baker, Bishop, Caples, Crosbie, Howe, Johnson, Morrow, Packard, Phillips, Van Cleave and Whipple—11.

On motion of Mr. Morrow, House took up H. B. No. 2—Territorial road from Oakland, Sawamish county, to Bruceport, Shoalwater Bay—which was read a third time, passed, and title agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, House took up and adopted House Joint Resolution No. 6—relative to the immediate use of the appropriations for the erection of light houses in the Territory of Washington.

Mr. Phillips called up H. M. No. 15—asking for increase of price per mile for surveying the public lands of Washington Territory. Resolution read a third time and adopted.

Mr. Jones called up H. M. No. 12—to General Wool, U. S. A., praying the establishment of a military post at New Dunginess. Memorial read a third time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Chambers, House took up H. B. No. 6—relative to county commissioners selecting school lands in place of sections sixteen and thirty-six, where they are taken up by settlers. The bill was read, and pending a motion to amend, Mr. Clark moved to lay upon the table. Carried.

Adjourned.

SATURDAY, Dec. 22, 1855.

Mr. Bishop, from the committee on Indian affairs, to whom had been referred so much of the Governor's message as related to the propriety of enacting a law making it an offence to employ Northern Indians, or to adopt some method which would prevent them visiting our Territory, reported that the committee had maturely considered the matter, and desired to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject. In a proposition to re-commit the subject to committee, with instructions to draft a bill, Mr. Bishop asked to be excused from further service, on the ground that he was decidedly opposed to such a course of policy. A motion was then made to refer to a select committee consisting of the delegations from Island, Whatcom, Jefferson and Clalm—which was amended so as to refer the matter to Messrs. Eldridge, Howe and Van Cleave.

Mr. Morrow, from the committe on claims, to whom had been referred a communication of the county commissioners of King county relative to a claim for attendance, support, &c., of a non-resident lunatic pauper, reported that "while the committee believe that this case claims all our sympathy—that such attenant expense is extremely onerous upon any particular county, yet it would be a greater evil, and an extremely dangerous precedent for the Territory in the present state of affairs to assume such debts; and that any legislation upon such cases is entirely unnecessary, for the sixth section of the act for the support of the poor, page 396, laws of Washington Territory, fully meets such cases.

On motion of Mr. Morrison, whole subject indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Crosbie presented the petition of Catharine Pooler for a divorce from her husband, L. M. Pooler, and for a law conferring upon her the custody of her son, T. L. Pooler. The petition set forth that she could not prosecute her action in court for divorce, because she had not yet been a resident of this Territory for one year, as the law requires. She alleged several causes why said petition should be granted, among which were bad treatment, drunkenness, failure to support her or her child—supported by several affidavits. The whole subject was referred to the committee on judiciary, who subsequently reported by bill, H. B. No. 13, an act to dissolve the bonds of matrimony existing between Lawrence M. and Catharine Pooler. The bill was at once put through its three several readings, and clerk theinstructed to report the bill and accompanying evidence to the Council.

Mr. Harris, from the joint committee on Enrolled bills, said that he had been instructed to report the name of Charles Judson, to the House, as clerk to said committee.

The report took its place upon the table, and was not further acted upon.

Mr. Van Cleave moved to take up House Memorial No. 10—praying an appropriation for a military road from Olympia to some point near the mouth of Columbia river, where it will connect with the military road from Astoria to Salem, in Oregon Territory. Pending a motion to amend those portions where "Olympia" is named and insert "Fort Steilacoom via Olympia," Mr. Howe moved to refer to committee on memorials. Carried.

Mr. Johnson introduced H. B. No, 14—an act to change the name of Bruceville, on Shoalwater Bay, to Bruceport.

Mr. Morrow moved to suspend rules and read a second time. Carried.

Mr. Packard moved to refer to committee on corporations. Lost.

Mr. Eldridge moved to suspend rules and read a third time.

Mr. Douthit moved to lay on table and make the order of day for January 4th, 1856. Lost.

The motion of Mr. Eldridge was put and carried.

Bill read a third time and passed.

Message from the Council announcing the passage of C. J. R. No. 3, relative to adjournment.

On motion, the House proceeded to consider the business reported by the Council. First reading of C. J. R. No. 3—that when the two houses adjourn to-day, they adjourn until the 2d day of January, 1856.

The rules were further suspended, the resolution received two other readings and was adopted.

Mr. Harris moved that the House instruct the clerk to report all business passed upon by the House, to the Council. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Jones, House took up House memorial No. 14—praying an appropriation for a military road from New Dunginess to intersect the military road from Fort Steilacoom to Fort Vancouver.

Mr. Hale moved to suspend the rules and assign now as the time for the third reading of said memorial. Carried.

Memorial read a third time and passed.

Mr. Crosbie introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the committee on military affairs be instructed to inquire into all the facts with regard to the delay in forwarding the Territorial arms from the ordnance depot at San Francisco, California.

Mr. Hale moved to suspend the rules making it necessary for said resolution to lie upon the table one day, and that the House proceed to its consideration now. Carried.

Resolution read and adopted.

The House then adjourned until Wednesday morning, January 2, 1856.

COUNCIL.

FRIDAY, Dec. 21, 1855.

Council met at the usual hour.—President Catlin in the Chair.

Journal read, corrected and approved.

H. M. No. 5, relative to the increased mail facilities on the Columbia river—the rules were suspended, memorial read a second and third time and passed.

H. M. No. 2, relative to the establishment of a military post at Bellingham bay, memorial read a second and third time and passed.

H. J. M. No. 5, relative to an additional land office for the territory of Washington—ordered to a third reading—rules suspended and memorial passed.

H. B. No. 9, relative to disolving the bonds of matrimony, between Thomas and Naomy Canbe, read first time—rules suspended and bill passed.

Mr. Huff moved to take up H. J. R. No. 5, relative to adjourning until 3d of January, 1856.

Mr. Huff, moved to amend, by striking out the 3rd of Jan. '56 and inserting 26th Dec., '55 on which he called the ayes and noes.

Mr. Poe, moved a call of the House—carried, Mr. Wallace absent.

Mr. Huff, moved to amend, by striking out, 30th Jan., '56, and inserting 2nd Jan. '56—lost.

Resolution read a second time, and laid over one day under the rules.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

SATURDAY, Dec. 22d, 1855.

Council met at the usual hour—President Catlin in the Chair.

Journal read, corrected and approved.

All present except Mr. Wallace.

Mr. Strickler from joint committee on enrolled and engrossed bills, reported that they had procured the services of Mr. Judson.

H. B. No. 8, was read second time, and referred to committee on corporations.

H. J. R. No. 5, coming up for third reading, Mr. Huff moved to reconsider the vote ordering it to a third reading, and called the ayes and noes.

Ayes—Huff, Pagett, Patterson, Strickler and Mr. President—5.

Noes—Bigelow, Cock and Poe—3.

So the motion prevailed.

Mr. Huff, moved to insert 27th December, instead of 3rd January, and called the ayes and noes.

Ayes—Huff, Pagett, Patterson, and Mr. President—4.

Noes—Bigelow, Cock and Strickler—4. Lost.

Mr. Huff moved to insert 1st January instead of 3d January, and called the ayes and noes:

Ayes—Bigelow, Huff, Patterson, Strickler and Mr. President—5.

Noes—Cock, Pagget, Poe—3.

Motion prevailed and ordered to third reading.

Mr. Strickler moved to suspend the rules and read third time now. Withdrawn.

H. J. R. No. 5 read three times, and on final passage, Mr. Huff called the ayes and noes:

Ayes—Bigelow, Cock, Huff, Pagget, Patterson, Strickler—6.

Noes—Poe, Wallace and Mr. President—3.

Mr. Cock moved to re-consider last vote. Lost.

So the resolution passed.

Mr. Bigelow, introduced a resolution to adjourn until after New year's—read once.

Mr. Bigelow, moved to suspend the rules and read a second time now.

Mr. Wallace objected.

Mr. President announced, that as objection had been raised, he ruled that the motion could not be put. From this decision, Mr. Poe appealed.

The question being, "Shall the decision of the chair stand," after discussing the rules, Mr. President changed his decision—appeal withdrawn.

Mr. Strickler moved to suspend the rules and read a second time now—carried.

Mr. Poe moved to amend by inserting January 2.

Mr. Huff moved to amend the amendment, so that every able-bodied member of the assembly should shoulder a musket and march against the hostile Indians.

Mr. Wallace called the ayes and noes upon the amendment of Mr. Huff.

Ayes—Messrs. Huff, Poe, Mr. President, 3. Nays—Messrs Bigelow, Cock, Paget, Patterson, Strickler and Wallace, 6.

The question was then taken on the amendment of Mr. Poe, which carried.

Mr. Bigelow moved that the resolution be read a third time now—carried.

On the final passage of the resolution, Mr. Bigelow called for the ayes and noes. Ayes—Messrs. Bigelow, Cock, Paget, Poe, Strickler, and Wallace, 6. Noes—Messrs. Huff, Patterson and Mr. President, 3.

On motion of Mr. Paget, the Council adjourned till 2 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON.

Report of committee on engrossed bills, was taken up and adopted.

The correspondence relative to the Indian war, furnished by the Governor, being on the table, on motion of Mr. Poe, the Council went into committee of the whole on said correspondence.

Mr. Cock in the chair.

After some time spent in committee, of the whole, hearing said correspondence read, which was very voluminous, the committee rose and reported progresss and asked leave to sit again when the balance of correspondence arrives—report adopted.

Mr. President signed "an act to dissolve the bonds of matrimony existing between Thomas and Naomy Caube."

H. B. No. 14, to change the name of Bruceville, read once and ordered to second reading.

On motion of Mr. Huff, rules suspended and bill read a second time now.

Mr. Huff moved to strike out Bruceport, and insert Port Poe. Carried.

Mr. Huff moved to suspend the rules, and read a third time now.

Mr. Poe objected.

The President announced that as an objection had been raised, the question could not be put.

Mr. Cock appealed.

The question being—Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained? Mr. Strickler called the ayes and noes, which were—

Ayes—Huff, Patterson, and Strickler—3.

Noes—Cock, Pagett, and Poe—3.

The decision was sustained.

Mr. Poe withdrew his objection, and Mr. Huff's motion prevailed.

Bill read a third time, its title changed to Port Poe, passed, and the title approved.

H. J. R. No. 6 read a first time, and under a suspension of the rules, read second and third times, and passed.

H. M. No. 12 read three times under a suspension of the rules, and passed.

Mr. Strickler moved that the clerk be requested to furnish the public printer with a copy of the journal of the council of the present session, at his earliest convenience.

Mr. Poe moved a call of the House.

The roll was called, and Messrs. Bigelow and Wallace found absent.

On motion of Mr. Strickler, further call dispensed with.

On motion of Mr. Strickler, motion laid on table until 2d January.

Then adjourned.

OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON TERRITORY,
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1855.

J. W. WILEY, EDITOR.

"Truth crush'd to earth will rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers."

The State of the Country.

We have war in our midst—our people, many of them, driven from their homes and their former quiet and happy firesides—to seek protection in forts, block-houses, &c.—The strong arm of the athletic agriculturist has been stayed—palsied—in order to afford, in fortifications, protection to his family, and that, as circumstances were favorable, to shoulder the rifle, and lend assistance in repelling the encroachments of the savage, and procuring, through contested battle fields with our assailants, a season of quiet, and a perpetual peace.

In this state of affairs, many of our most wealthy, enterprizing and worthy citizens, have, for the time being, been called upon to make sacrifices, (cheerfully complied with,) in the furnishing of the "sinews" of war, in the shape of provision and forage—calculated, in the event of a prolongued continuance of the present Indian war, if not liquidated by government, to prove ruinous and disastrous to them. Whilst the families of our farming population remain in forts, &c., and many of their husbands, brothers and fathers, have taken the "tented field," their flocks of sheep—their bands of cattle, are left unprotected—subjected, at any and all times, to be captured and destroyed by our cowardly assailants. At this moment, a prostration and a heavy gloom hangs, as a mantle, over our territory, and the time has come for united action. Let our people be calm and reflective, and let the principle of forbearance characterize their every action, and we doubt not much good will be the result. We have a country and sea-coast to defend, and a savage foe to encounter.

In the present position of affairs it is a herculean task. Can it be accomplished? We say it can, and must—or desolation and death will stalk over our land!

There must be one united effort for the country—her people and her honor. Let no man look back, else he be turned into the image of salt, as was the wife of LOTT, according to the divine record. The watchword now, is forward! "United we stand—divided we fall!" Let the smouldering ashes of discontent, remain in forgetfulness until we have asserted the honor and dignity of our country, and secured the happiness of our people; and then, if needs be, settle the minor differences of opinion. Let us all stand forth as one man—each with his bosom bared to battle for the homesteads of the yeomanry of the territory—their firesides and their loved ones, and we will thus win a brave victory, or many brave men, otherwise, will leave his bones on the field of strife, to bleach in the howling of the "pittiless storm," no less than in the rejoicings of our adversaries. We say again, let the cry be victory or death," and with God's blessing it will be victory. Give credit to those to whom credit is due—do justice to them—bear with each other, as men and brothers, and show that magnanimity of heart and soul, that belongs to brave freemen, and can soar above all differences of opinion—until, at least, hostilities are removed from our borders, and quiet and tranquility again erects its empire.

Those citizens, who from necessity have been compelled to remain at home—let them reflect upon the hardships and privatious our brave citizen soldiery have endured. Their captains, subalterns, non-commissioned officers and each man serving under them, deserve a greatful people's heartfelt thanks, and they will receive it.

And indeed, too much praise cannot be given to the volunteers and regulars on service at Fort Steilacoom, that good fortune has placed amongst us. They have all discharged their duty as becometh men and soldiers. The officers and men of the U. S. Sloop-of-war, Decatur, STERRETT, commanding, and the U. S. Revenue cutter Jeff. Davis, PEASE, commanding, deserve, officers and men, the highest commendations of a grateful people; and, we think, this sentiment, in the territory, is universal.

God be thanked, that in the midst of gloom, and doubt, and lowering darkness spreading over our land, our hearts were made to feel more hope—more life—when the news arrived of the glorious triumph of our noble co-laborers and brethren of Oregon, in the country east of the Cascades.—The triumphant victory they have achieved, stamps them as men of brave hearts and of an iron nerve. In every sense of the word, soldiers. May the God of wars "defend your shields, and keep your armor buckled on."

Thus far, the legislative assembly of the territory—particularly in the House, has, in divers manners, memorialized congress with regard to the war at present waged against both territories, in the shape of memorials for appropriations for protection, aid and remuneration for subsistence, forage, services, &c., which we know, full well, Hon. J. PATTON ANDERSON, will, at the earliest moment, urge upon the attention of congress.

THE LEGISLATURE.—As will be seen by the proceedings, both branches of the legislature adjourned on Saturday last to meet on the 2d of next month, or during the hollidays. Some of the members are on a visit to their constituents—for instructions, we suppose—others are out on pleasure excursions—(bracing and cool for that object,) but the major portion remain quietly at their different places of abode—(except some who do not.) Some pleasant things that we have, or might probably have been induced to say, of some of the members, we may be induced, through circumstances of their own creation, to take back or withhold; and we always feel a reluctance "in doing that same." Our underground reporter of the "wake cumtux" movements, thinks there is something "klonas" in the wind, inasmuch as the breeze from certain directions smells quite "fishy." Although, as he says, he has no "dead sure thing" on them yet, still he protests that he can obtain the "necessary ropes" to scent the "owl and bat" party to their holes and hiding places, and when fairly "swarmed" or "correlled," to furnish us with a black list. After re-assembling, the time may not be far off, when we will be enabled to exhibit to the people of the territory a bright galaxy of fungi in the legislature, that infests the healthy body of the democratic party. A few biographical sketches of sound political integrity may be expected, that may make some persons squirm.

THE WAR.—No intelligence has reached us since our last issue, of importance, concerning the war between our people and the Indians, on either side of the mountains. We know nothing of the intended movement of troops on either. Nothing new from Oregon, since our last issue, and no news of interest from California or elsewhere. No further reports of Indian outrages since our last, of a reliable character.

"By the way, Wiley, where do you keep those documents? Rather cumbersome ain't they? Have to carry them out occasionally, don't you?"—Courier.

The above is in part reply to an inquiry, (subsequently refuted by the Courier,) and statement we made a few weeks since, on authority of Capt. JAMES M. HUNT, and Col. M. T. SIMMONS, that Lt. J. Q. COLE, of Pierce county, had advised a chief of the Nisqually to wrap up and send back to Gov. STEVENS, a certain "cultus" "pot-lach," &c. We spoke from authority, as we always do—not from hearsay, or idle rumor. Let Lt. COLE and the gentlemen referred to—our informants—settle matters as they please.

"By the way," about those "cumbersome documents," we would inform the Courier, that a light-fingered scribbler, and correspondent of that paper, as we have every reason to suppose, relieved us of one of those documents; but as we have its number on file, we expect to trace it up some day or other.

"A rat! a rat!! dead for a ducat.—Pioneer.

"Oh Jupiter! wiley, you try to tell us that you quote from Shakspeare, t'is no such thing. You stole the above from poor McIlvaine, a "typo," you ought to turn yourself into a "toad, and feed upon the vapors of a dungeon." "—Courier.

We always quote, when we quote anything, from memory; and although not always, as we are well aware, according to the text, the above jackasticle of the Courier is sufficient to show that the embicile who presides over its columns never read Shakspeare, or if he did, Hamlet was not in the edition he perused. Take the fool to some lunatic assylum.

"Eureka!"

Yes, we "have found it!—we have found it the "first time trying!" We have found out who "Scorpion" in the Courier really is! What a diskivery! We protest, most solemnly, we never knew him before, as Scorpion. Why, my dear Scorpion, we are glad to renew, with you, our old acquaintance. The introduction to your communication—whilst entirely original—is after the most approved and chaste style of ancient and modern classics. You say, by way of introduction, "that Scorpion is intent upon using the instrument which nature has furnished him." What an intent! We hope you have been using it legitimately, since you wrote the above! But is there a sting in it? "Aye, there's the rub." Don't wear that instrument out, all at once—now don't—for you know, as you, yourself say, your "sting is death." Fie, man, pluck it out!

In his address to us, Scorpion complains, bitterly complains that we have never, heretofore, noticed, or paid any attention to his "various essays." "Essays" on what? Aye, the thought occurs to us: Scorpion has been engaged with Mr. Gunn in fixing up a series of "essays," on a certain subject, in the completion of which he, (Gunn,) has been industriously employed for more than three years past. We beg pardon. Did not know that you were partners. Did not know that said "essays" had ever been completed, and given to the public.

Scorpion seems determined that we should know who he really is, in order that we might be induced to let all our readers know his real name. We advise our readers not to fret about that. Give him time and he will let the "cat out of the bag" himself. Let every body stand back—he is on his way to glory—and he'll "not tarry long in the wilderness." Really, had we known the author of the various Scorpion letters, instead of being severe upon him and them, we would never have noticed them. This, however, is the fault of our not having any ambition in prying into the secrets and "sanctums" regulating the publication of newspapers. But as for us giving your name to the public!—why, Scorpion, we will never do it. You have too much vanity, and too little sense to keep it long yourself. Excuse us—now do.

But the unkindest cut of all, of the last Scorpion of the Courier, is a breach of confidence, in which he tells the assembled readers of the Courier, the following circumstance:

"And now, I recall to mind an occurrence that took place, when you and I were lying behind that large stone, (I won't say in what state,) of our hearing an Indian remark to himself: "What! he a TYEE! a big man, why, he looks more like a Lynn shoemaker than a chief of the BOSTONS!" But the remark—Tarantula, is between ourselves."

Aye, Scorpion, and why not keep it there? But, really, was not that a rather intelligent Indian, to know whether or not he, (Gov. STEVENS), did really look like a "Lynn Shoemaker?" Smart Indian that! He must either have "bin to Bosting," or have been the daddy of that boy Charley, that a writer in the last Courier discourses so illigantly about. Come, now, Scorpion, don't tell much more now—don't, all at once. It would not take you long, you know, to tell all you do know.

But let us see: What was the language in which that siwash spoke, when from behind that large "stone" we overheard him? Was it in his native tongue, Chinook, or "Boston?" Scorpion, I really have forgotten, although you direct my attention to it.

In conclusion, we would inform Scorpion, that we were frightened "half to death," when we reached that part of his communication about Mexico—"cidevant Lieut. of the 15th," and that 'cowardly centipede,' &c. Oh! Scorpion! we tremble at the idea of that "one thrust, with a fell intent," which you say, if made at us by you, would cause our own self-destruction. Don't do it, Scorpion—please don't Oh! what an intent!

"And speaking of Mexico," as Scorpion says, we are reminded that the word 'Tarantula,' is, in that country, pronounced 'Tarantulus,' and hence, without examination, our orthography. Nevertheless, our idea of the nature of the reptile is correct, as will be seen below, according to our thinking. Scorpion says "Tarantula" means—"An insect whose bite is only cured by music." Webster says it is "a species of spider, &c., its bite sometimes producing a trifling effect, about equal to the sting of a wasp." But then Scorpion was born, or at least entered the classic stage since Webster died—we all know that Webster was a fool, and an "old fogy," however. As time will show, our heading in a previous number, in reply to Scorpion, will prove correct.

"He never had a dozen thoughts in all his life."

THE WEATHER.—We have had winter in dead earnest, for the last week or ten days. The ground is frozen to considerable depth, and a light coating of snow covers its surface. We have not experienced as rigorous a season, thus far, as this has been since 1852-3.

☞ We have probably taken more notice this week of the Puget Sound Courier, and its correspondents, than will, perhaps, ever be awarded to that paper, or its hireling scribblers again. Common courtesy, as it ever should be recognized in the business of newspaper publication, has ever, and on all occasions been vouchsafed by us towards the conductors first, and then the editor. We will leave it to the decision of a candid public, whether or not, our course towards our contemporary, has not, until "foul-mouthed slander op'ed her lying tongue," been marked with courtesy, kindness and affability. We at present hold the Courier as being cheap—dog cheap, from its management. Let it establish its own reputation.

For the Pioneer and Democrat.

SCATTER CREEK, Thirston Co.,
A. D. 1855.

MISTER EDITER:—Sence I drapped tu you them ere lines afore, I've ben arter the war nuse, and when I ketched up to it, it aint, I find, no grait shakes, no how. The war on this side of them tarnal mountings, jist looks to me like it wer a standen still. I jist wish our fokes, who are sogerin, could keep thar way till next early grass, arter the snow "clatawas," then I would feel mighty glad; but jist as soon as our fock gits reddy tu let it dry up a littel while, them all-fired Injuns kicks up a furs agin, and gits arter fighten. If the tarnal critters would jist only wate till our people ken git in thar wheat, and taters, and gardin truck in the spring, we mout arterwards do arful well fornenst them; case you sea, we must hev suthin to eat next year; enny how, we wood give them sich a tarnal treetin as yu never hearn on, and make 'em squat like a duck a hearin thunder. By ginger, it makes me so mad to heer on't.

Things begin to look a right smart chance more skeary like, as they did at furst a long, case, you see, menny think its more of a war then tha kalkelated for, an' did'nt want so much; tha jist wanted a small flar up, like, to make a grate blow abeout, and maik sum politikal capital out on't—that's all; an' then tha wood commense to houl and abuse GOV. STEVENS, and all demecrats as is in offis, an' begin tu mourn and weep, and cry abeout thar bleeding cuntry, and try tu maik the people b'lieve how much tha luved it. But Wiley's ben kicken the kiver off on 'em, an' tha du look all-fired ugly, without enny kiver on 'em;—you'd better b'lieve they do.

General WOOL had better be a gitting things in a good way over hear, or else we stand a rite smart chance of gettin sum uv our nappers takein, afore we ar reddy. I rather recken as how as I'll not be reddy for a long time tu cum, if tha leave it tu me—in fact, I no I won't. I jist berlieve when General Wool cums over hear, if he will on'y stop at Skatter Crick to see me, (it aint mutch out on his way,) I will gin him rite smart infurmashion, an' tell h'm a heep he don't no; and won't charge him nuthin, for sarting, for stayin all nite, nur for what I'll tell him, nuther: an' I know that's as cheep as he kin git his coffy ground enny whars. I'm a piane man, what allwers talks write out what I thinks—Ingins or no Ingins—by hokeys, I will.

Sum peeple tells me that Maj. Rains is goin to maik it a kinder paper war over thar, kase he writ one letter tu the Injuns, and nailed it on a trea far the Ingins tu reed; and I hearn it nocked 'em end ways, rite inter fitts—jest this one letter. He must be a powerful skollar at ritin' letters. But that kinder war won't do over hear, We must keep a given 'em lead pills, with sum powder back on 'em, till tha rekuver thare helth—maybe, about nex fall. I hope General Wool won't be arter makin the war over hear, like Majer Rains is makin it ovur thar. I'll tell him not tu be arter doin it that a way, the furst time I sea him at Skatter Crick.

Sum fokes spend a heep a time in fining fawlt, and gittin up fusses and trubbles.—Nou that aint no good way tu du in war times; evry man orter swoller down his rath, untill we nockt the enermy inter the middel ov next yeer, or inter —— etarnity that wood be better. A good menny peeples of them air kind begins to look kinder skeered, kase the war begins tu look in yearnest, nou I tell you.

Sea the trubbles peeples gits inter by not mindin thare one bizzines. The edetur at Stealercum is nockt in to a gin shop, by the Pierneer an' Demercrat man, and I gess will stay thar, till arter the war, and pla the fiddel for the sogers, at them are stag dances, what no ladys go two, nuther, but men; sum fokes say he kin pla rite smart, and makes a heep better musick that-a-way, than he can editering and printin a noosepaper.

Fur a private snigger now, ony jist see how them fellers abeout Stealercum, rite the littel pop Gun edeter into a tarnal scrape, and then aint got the branes to rite him out agin—but leaves the littel feller to stand and hold the bag, jist like tha was all a snipin, and then runs off and leaves him—in an orful ficks—in mud an' water—an' no bottom under him, nuther. It's a rite bad ficks to be in, and the nex time I goes to Stealercum, I'm detarmined tu tell him, never tu trust sich block-heds agin, tu rite fur his papur; and we now tell him—you edeter—allers git sum purson tu rite fur yore paper, whats got rite smart branes, and what don't rite treeson in thar letters. If you cums out hear on Skatter Crick, arter I gits dun givin Generel Wool all the infurmashun what is got together, and tellin him gist how things stan'—then if you cum out hear tu Skatter Crick, and sea me, I'll maik a bargin with you, tu rite you sum letters—all 'bout the war—and ficks em up, what aint fornenst the cuntry, and what's not got treesun in em; and I'll du it cheep. I kin drap you a fiew lines evry now and then, and tell you how matters stand; and if I rite yu inter a skrape, I'll rite yu out agin, and not charge yu nothin. Airn't that fare?

Jist tu finnish and git dun, fur this time, I wish enny wun uv them air fellers, what lize so abeout fokes, that thar tungs mout be burnt and blisterd with the fyer uv truth, till tha wood never lye agin. Blast thar gizzards—that ud put em in a strange fix, I tell yu now.

Yourn till deth,

GILES SCROGGINS.

P. S.—NOTER BENER.—Hurra! Hurri!! Hurraw!!!—I'll go to glory, but I'm glad! Since I drapped tu yu them fourgoin fiew lines, I larnt by the expres, that cum tu me at Skatter Crick, that our braiv Origin boys lickt out the Injuns tuther side the mountings, in littel less than no time, and that them ar reglars, over thar at the time, wur in good kwatters, and did'nt holp enny at all. The reglars begin to sho the chock ov thar ies. Holy Gerusalem! think on't! Did you ever here uv sich fightin? Fit twenty miles in wun day! and them tarnal reglars doin nuthin! It maiks me mad!—Jist think on't! I'll send a letter to Genral Wool immegiately.

GILES SCROGGINS,
As heartofour.

MARRIED.

At Olympia W. T., on the evening of the 24th inst, by Rev. J. F. DEVORE, WM. B. AYFLECK Esq., of Steilacoom, Pierce County, and Miss ELIZABETH SIMMONS, of this place.

We sincerely hope that our former cotemporary of the Puget Sound Courier, with his pretty bride may enjoy many years of prosperity and unalloyed happiness; and by the way would merely remark, that as much as the citizens of our rival city may profess to dislike the people, and town-site of Olympia, this marriage is an evidence that at least one of "Bachelor Kingdom" of Steilacoom, has sense enough to know, where to go to get his "coffee ground."

Indian Reservations.

The following reservations for the Indians on Puget Sound having been surveyed, or having natural boundaries defining them, information is given to the public, that settlers may take action accordingly in locating claims. The necessary notice will be given in regard to the remaining reservations, as soon as the surveys are made;

Reservations of the Indian Tribes on Puget Sound.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Olympia, W. T.
January 27th, 1855.

1st. The northern half of section 26—the north eastern quarter of section 27—fractional section 23, and the eastern half of section 22; all in range one (1) west, township nineteen (19) north, situated on the south side of Puget Sound, near the mouth of She-nah-nam, or Medicine creek, and one mile west of the Willamette meridian, containing according to the U. S. land survey 1204 acres.

2nd. A tract on the south side of Commencement Bay, not far from the mouth of the Puyallup river; beginning at a point on the beach marked by a large white fir tree, blazed on three sides, and standing on the north east corner of Swan & Riley's claim; thence along the beach, and following its meanderings one and a half miles in a south easterly direction, to a point marked by a fallen tree, bearing the letters U. S, R., behind which three cedar trees are conspicuously blazed; thence south one and a half miles; thence west about one mile to a point due south of the place of beginning, and thence north about two and a half miles to said place of beginning, containing in all 1280 acres, or two sections of land.

3d. The small island called Klah-che-min, situated opposite the mouth of Hammersly's and Totten's inlets, and separated from Hartstene Island by Peale's (or Pickering's) passage, containing, according to the U. S. land survey, about 1400 acres.

4th. The Peninsula at the south eastern end of Perry's Island called Shais-quihl; and

5th. The Island called Chah-choo-sen, situated in the Lummi river, at the point of separation of the mouths, emptying respectively into Bellingham Bay and the Gulf of Georgia.

6th. Commencing on the beach at Neah Bay, at the mouth of a small brook running into the same, next to the site of the old Spanish fort; thence along the shore round Cape Classet or Flattery to the mouth of another small stream running into the bay on the south side of said Cape, a little above the Watch village; thence following said brook to its source; thence in a straight line to the source of the first mentioned creek, and thence following the same down to the place of beginning.

Claim for Damages by Indians.

NOTICE is hereby given, that claims for damages, done by Indians of this Territory to citizens, must be put in under the regulations of the Department, in the following manner:

1. It must be shown either that the property has been taken by force, or with intent to steal, or that it has been maliciously destroyed, and that the person to whom it belonged was lawfully within the Indian country.

2. Application for remuneration must be made by the owner, his representative, attorney, or agent, to the proper superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, within three years after the commission of the injury.

3. The necessary documents and proofs must accompany the application.

4. Oaths may be administered and depositions taken by the proper superintendent, agent, or sub-agent. Whenever the Indian can make out a presumption of title in himself, from the fact of previous possession or ownership, the burden of proof will rest on the white person.

5. The application, documents, and proof, must then be transmitted by the superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, to the Department of the Interior, for the direction of the President.

6. Whenever directed by him, a demand will be made by the superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, upon the nation or tribe to which the Indian or Indians committing the injury belonged, for satisfaction.

7. From the making of such demand of satisfaction, the "reasonable time," not exceeding twelve months, will be computed.

8. If within that time the Indian nation or tribe shall refuse or neglect to make satisfaction, the superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, will make return of his doings to the Department of the Interior, accompanied by the papers connected with the case, that such further steps may be taken as shall be proper, in the opinion of the President, to obtain satisfaction for the injury.

9. Every person making application to the agent for indemnification for injuries committed by Indians upon his property, will be required to make affidavit, that neither himself, his representative, attorney, or agent, has violated the provisions of this law, by seeking or attempting to obtain private satisfaction or revenge. Evidence of such "seeking or attempting," if communicated to the superintendent, agent, or subagent, will make a part of the return of his doings herein before required.

Claims may accordingly be filed either at the office of the superintendent of Indian affairs, at Olympia, or delivered to the agent for the Paget Sound District, Col. M. T. Simmons, or the sub-agent for the Columbia River, W. H. Tappan, who will attend the various courts during term time for the purpose.

Notice.

AT A TREATY concluded at Hell Gate, in the Bitter Root Valley, on the 16th day of July, 1855, with the Flathead, Koo-te-nay and upper Pend d'Oreille Indians, there was ceded to the United States, except two Indian reservations to be hereafter mentioned, a tract of country bounded as follows, viz:

Commencing on the main ridge of the Rocky mountains at the forty-ninth parallel of latitude; thence westwardly on that parallel to the divide between Koo-te-nay river and Clarke's Fork; thence southerly and southeasterly along said divide to the one hundred and fifteenth degree of longitude; thence in a south-westerly direction to the divide between St. Regis de Borgia and the Coeur d'Alene rivers; thence southeasterly and southerly along the main ridge of the Bitter Root mountains to the divide between the head waters of the Koos-koos-kia river and of the southwestern fork of the Bitter Root river; thence easterly along the divide separating the waters of the several tributaries of the Bitter Root river from the waters flowing into the Salmon and Snake rivers to the main ridge of the Rocky mountains; thence northerly along said main ridge to the place of beginning.

The reservations are as follows, viz:

1. That portion of the valley of the Bitter Root river which is situated above Loolo Fork, or Traveller's Rest creek of Lewis and Clarke.

2. A tract of country on the Flathead river, bounded as follows, viz:

Commencing at the source of the main branch of the Jocko river; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing into the Bitter Root river from those flowing into the Jocko, to a point midway between the Camash and Horse prairies; thence northerly to and along the divide bounding on the west the Flathead river to a point due west from the point half way in latitude between the northern and southern extremities of the Flathead Lake; thence on a due east course to the divide, whence the Crow, the Pen-in, the Si-no-el-le-em, and the Jocko rivers have their rise; thence southerly along said divide to the place of beginning.

The land ceded outside of the reservations is now open to settlement. The Indians however are secured in the possession of their improvements till provision is made for their being moved to the reservations.

The right to pasture their animals in common with whites on unclaimed land, to fish in common with whites, to dig roots and gather berries on unclaimed land, is also secured to the Indians.

For further particulars application should be made to the Agent in the Bitter Root Valley, R. H. Lansdale.

Scott's Republications.

BRITISH PERIODICALS.

EARLY COPIES SECURED.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to re-publish the following British Periodicals, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY, (CONSERVATIVE.)
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, (WHIG.)
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (FREE CHURCH.)
THE WESTMINISTER REVIEW, (LIBERAL.)
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, (TORY.)

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily journal, and the ponderous tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of events, and as such, in addition to their well established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

Arrangements are now permanently made for the receipt of early sheets from the British publishers, by which we are enabled to place all our re-prints in the hands of subscribers, about as soon as they can be furnished with the foreign copies. Although this involves a very large outlay on our part, we shall continue to furnish the periodicals at the same low rates as heretofore, viz:

For any one of the four Reviews, per annum....$3 00
For any two of the four Reviews, do.............5 00
For any three of the four Reviews, do...........7 00
For any four of the Reviews, do.................8 00
For Blackwood's Magazine, do....................3 00
For Blackwood and three Reviews, do.............9 00
For Blackwood and four Reviews, do..............10 00

Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Money current in the state where issued will be received at par.

CLUBBING

A discount of twenty-five per cent from the above price will be allowed to clubs ordering direct from Scott & Co., for four or more copies of any one or more of the above. COUNCIL GROUND,
WALLA WALLA VALLEY, W. T.,
June 12th, 1855.

AT A TREATY concluded with the Yakima Nation of Indians at the Council Ground in the Walla Walla Valley the 9th day of June, 1855, the land included within the following boundaries was ceded to the United States, to-wit:

Commencing at Mt. Ranier; thence northerly along the main ridge of the Cascade mountains to the point where the northern tributaries of Lake Chelan and the southern tributaries of the Methew river have their rise; thence southeasterly on the divide between the waters of Lake Chelan and the Methew river to the Columbia river; thence crossing the Columbia, on a true east course, to a point whose longitude is one hundred and nineteen degrees and ten minutes—which two latter lines separate the above confederated tribes and bands of Indians from the Oakainakane tribe of Indians;—thence in a true south course to the forty-seventh parallel of latitude; thence east on said parallel to the main Palouse river—which two latter lines of boundary separate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Spokans; thence down the Palouse river to its junction with the Moh-hah-ne-she or southern tributary of the same;—thence in a southeasterly diriction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tucannon river, separating the above confederated tribes from the Nez Perce tribe of Indians; thence down the Snake river to its junction with the Columbia river; thence up the Columbia river to the "White Banks" below Priest's Rapids; thence westerly to a lake called "La Lac;" thence southerly to a point on the Yakima river called Toh-mah-luke; thence in a southwesterly direction to the Columbia river at the western extremity of the "Big Island," between the mouth of the Umatilla river and Butter creek—all which latter boundaries separate the above confederated tribes and bands from the Walla Walla, Cayuse and Uumatilla tribes and bands of Indians;—thence down the Columbia river to midway between the mouths of White Salmon and Wind rivers; thence along the divide between said rivers to the main ridge of the Cascade mountains; and thence along said ridge to the place of beginning.

There is, however, reserved from the land above ceded, for the exclusive use and occupation of said confederated tribes and bands of Indians, the tract of land included with the following boundaries, to-wit:

Commencing on the Yakima river at the mouth of the Attahnam river; thence westerly along said Attahnam river to the forks; thence along the southern tributary to the Cascade mountains; thence southerly along the main ridge of said mountains, passing south and east of mount Adams, to the Spur whence flows the waters of the Klikatat and Pisco rivers; thence down said spur to the divide between the waters of said rivers; thence along said divide to the divide separating the waters of the Satass river from those flowing into the Columbia river; thence along said divide to the main Yakima, eight miles below the mouth of the Satass river; and thence up the Yakima river to the place of beginning.

Also a tract of land not exceeding in quantity one township of six miles square, situated at the forks of the Pisquouse or Wenatshapam river, and known as the "Wenatshapam Fishery;" which said tract shall be surveyed and marked out whenever the President may direct.

By an express provision of the treaty, the country embraced in the cession and included in the reservations, is opened to settlement, excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and improvements until removed to the reservation.

This notice is published for the information of the public, and the attention of citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded territory, is especially called to the above provision, and for further information they are requested to apply to sub-agent A. J. Bolon.

Notice.

AT TREATIES concluded with the Nez Perce tribe of Indians and with the confederated tribes of the Walla Wallas, Cayuses and Umatillas in the Walla Walla valley at the council ground, there was ceded to the United States, a tract of country having the following boundaries, viz:

By the Nez Perces—Commencing at the source of the Wo-na-ne-she or southern tributary of the Palouse river; thence down that river to the main Palouse; thence in a southerly direction to the Snake river at the mouth of the Tukanon river; thence up the Tukanon to its source in the Blue mountains; thence southerly along the ridge of the Blue mountains; thence to a point on Grand Ronde river midway between Grande Ronde and the mouth of the Wol-low-how river; thence along the divide between the waters of the Woll-low-how and Powder river; thence to the crossing of Snake river at the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river, fifty miles above the place known as the "crossing of the Salmon river;" thence due north to the summit of the Bitter Root mountains; thence along the crest of the Bitter Root mountains to the place of beginning.

By the Walla Wallas, Cayuses and Umatillas, a tract of land having the following boundaries, to-wit:

Commencing at the mouth of Tukanon river in Washington territory; running thence up said river to its source; thence easterly along the summit of the Blue mountains, and on the southern boundaries of the purchase made of the Nez Perce Indians, and easterly along that boundary to the western limits of the country claimed by the Shoshones or Snake Indians; thence southerly along that boundary (being the waters of Powder river) to the source of Powder river; thence to the head waters of Willow creek; thence down Willow creek to the Columbia river; thence up the channel of Columbia river to the lower end of a large Island below the mouth of Umatilla river; thence northerly to a point on the Yakima river called Toh-nosh-luke; thence to La Lac; thence to the White Banks on the Columbia below Priest's Rapids; thence down the Columbia river to the junction of the Columbia and Snake rivers; thence up the Snake river to the place of beginning.

Provided, however, That so much of the country described above as contained in the following boundaries shall be set apart as Indian reservations:

For the Nez Perce tribe, viz:—Commencing where the Molsha-na-she or southern tributary of the Palouse river flows from the spurs of the Bitter Root mountains; thence down said tributary to the mouth of the Ti-nah-pan-up creek; thence southerly to the crossing of the Snake river ten miles below the mouth of the Alpowain river; thence to the source of the Alpowain river in the Blue mountains; thence to the crossing of the Grande Ronde river, midway between the Grande Ronde and the mouth of the Wol-low-how river; thence along the divide between the waters of the Wol-low-how river and Powder river; thence to the crossing of Snake river fifteen miles below the mouth of Powder river; thence to the Salmon river above the crossing; thence by the spurs of the Bitter Root mountains to the place of beginning.

For the confederated tribes of Walla Wallas, Cayuses and Umatillas, to-wit:

Commencing in the middle of the channel of the Umatilla river opposite the mouth of Wild Horse creek; thence up the middle of the channel of said creek to its source; thence southerly to a point in the Blue mountains, known as Lee's encampment; thence in a line to the waters of the How-tome creek; thence west to the divide the How-tome and Birch creeks; thence northerly along said divide to a point due west of the south-west corner of Wm. C. McKay's claim; thence east along his line to the south-east corner; thence in a line to the place of beginning.

By an express provision of the treaty, the country embraced in the cessions and not included in the reservations, is open to settlement, excepting that the Indians are secured in the possession of their buildings and improvements till removed to the reservations.

This notice is published for the information of the public.

The attention of the citizens proposing to locate claims upon the ceded territory is especially called to the provisions protecting the Indians in the possession of their improvements, and for further information in reference to the Walla Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla reservation they are requested to apply to agent R. R. Thompson—to the Nez Perce reservation to sub-agent W. H. Tappan.

EXTRADITION TREATY WITH BAVARIA.

BY AUTHORITY.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, a convention between the United States of America and the Kingdom of Bavaria was concluded and signed at London, by their respective plenipotentiaries, on the twelfth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three: which convention, being in the English and German languages, is word for word, as follows:—

Convention for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitives from Justice, in certain cases, concluded between the Government of the United States, on the one part, and the Kingdom of Bavaria, on the other part.

The United States of America and his Majesty the King of Bavaria, actuated by an equal desire to further the administration of justice, and to prevent the commission of crimes in their respective countries, taking into consideration that the increased means of communication between Europe and America facilitate the escape of offenders, and that, consequently, provision ought to be made in order that the ends of justice shall not be defeated, have determined to conclude an arrangement destined to regulate the course to be observed in all cases with reference to the extradition of such individuals as, having committed any of the offences hereafter enumerated, in one country, shall have taken refuge within the territories of the other. The constitution and laws of Bavaria, however, not allowing the Bavarian government to surrender their own subjects for trial before a foreign court of justice, a strict reciprocity requires that the government of the United States shall be held equally free from any obligation to surrender citizens of the United States.

For which purposes the high contracting powers have appointed their plenipotentiaries:—

The President of the United States, James Buchanan, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States at the court of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

His Majesty the King of Bavaria, Augustus Baron de Cetto, his said Majesty's chamberlain, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary at the court of her Majesty, the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, knight commander of the order for merit of St. Michael, knight grand cross of the royal Grecian order of our Saviour:

Who, after reciprocal communication of their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed to the following articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The government of the United States and the Bavarian government promise and engage, upon mutual requisitions by them or their ministers, officers, or authorities, respectively made, to deliver up to justice all persons who, being charged with the crime of murder, or assault with intent to commit murder, or piracy, or arson, or robbery, or forgery, or the utterance of forged papers, or the fabrication or circulation of counterfeit money, whether coin or paper money, or the embezzlement of public moneys, committed within the jurisdiction of either party, shall seek an asylum, or shall be found within the territories of the other; provided that this shall only be done upon such evidence of criminality as, according to the laws of the place where the fugitive or person so charged shall be found, would justify his apprehension and commitment for trial, if the crime or offence had there been committed; and the respective judges and other magistrates of the two governments shall have power, jurisdiction, and authority, upon complaint made under oath, to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive or person so charged, that he may be brought before such judges or other magistrates respectively, to the end that the evidence of criminality may be heard and considered; and if, on such hearing, the evidence be deemed sufficient to sustain the charge, it shall be the duty of the examining judge or magistrate to certify the same to the proper executive authority, that a warrant may issue for the surrender of such fugitive.

The expense of such apprehension and delivery shall be borne and defrayed by the party who makes the requisition and receives the fugitive.

ARTICLE II.

The stipulations of this convention shall be applied to any other State of the German Confederation which may hereafter declare its accession thereto.

ARTICLE III.

None of the contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens or subjects under the stipulations of this convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Whenever any person accused of any crimes enumerated in this convention, shall have committed a new crime in the territories of the State where he has sought an asylum or shall be found, such person shall not be delivered up under the stipulations of this convention until he shall have been tried and shall have received the punishment due to such new crime, or shall have been acquitted thereof.

ARTICLE V.

The present convention shall continue in force until the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; and if neither party shall have given to the other six months' previous notice of its intention then to terminate the same, it shall further remain in force until the end of twelve months, after either of the high contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of such intention; each of the high contracting parties reserving to itself the right of giving such notice to the other at any time after the expiration of the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

ARTICLE VI.

The present convention shall be ratified by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, and by the government of Bavaria, and the ratifications shall be exchanged in London within fifteen months from the date hereof, or sooner if possible.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this convention and have hereunto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate, in London, the twelfth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and the seventy-eighth year of the independence of the United States.

JAMES BUCHANAN, [L. S.]
AUG. DE CETTO, [L. S.]

And whereas, the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at London, on the first instant, by James Buchanan, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States, and Augustus Baron de Cetto, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of his Majesty the King of Bavaria, at the court of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the part of their respective governments:—

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, FRANKLIN PIERCE, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

[L. S.] Done at the city of Washington, this eighteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and of the independence of the United States States of America the seventy-ninth.

FRANKLIN PIERCE.

W. L. MARCY, Secretary of State

The Ladies' Wreath,
AND PARLOR ANNUAL.

Two volumes a year, commencing May and November.

UNPARALLELLED ATTRACTIONS.

The Publishers take pleasure in announcing to the One Hundred Thousand Readers of this Popular Monthly, that with the May Number commences the publication of

of some of the most celebrated Musical Personages. The following, which are already engraved, will appear in the course of the year, accompanied with a biographical sketch of each, viz:

JENNY LIND, ANNA THILLON, H. SONTAG, CATHERINE HAYS, ALBONI, AND MRS. E. G. BOSTWICK.

If these should meet with favor, although very expensive, they will be followed by others of a similar character, as they are determined that the Wreath and Annual shall continue to be not only the cheapest, but the Best Dollar Magazine in the World! The contents will be entirely original, from the pens of the ablest and purest writers in the country. Although a Literary Magazine, every thing of an immoral or irreligious character will be carefully excluded. It will be the aim of the publishers to blend entertainment with instruction that will not only captivate the taste but also elevate the thoughts and improve the heart.

Each number will contain a FINE STEEL ENGRAVING and a BEAUTIFULLY COLORED FLOWER PLATE, also engraved on steel, with occasionally Popular Pieces of Music, and thirty-two large octavo pages printed on fine paper. The May number will have an attractive title page, making in all twenty-five embellishments, and a volume of four hundred and thirty-four pages. All who are interested in a pure family literature, and are willing to assist in fostering the Best Native Talent, are invited to become subscribers, and aid in its circulation by inducing their friends to secure for One Dollar a Magazine worth Three, as either the Steel Engravings, the Flower Plates, or the Literary Contents, are worth the price of the whole.

The necessary notice will be given in regard to the remaining reservations, as soon as the surveys are made;

Reservations of the Indian Tribes on Puget Sound.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Olympia, W. T.
January 27th, 1855.

1st. The northern half of section 26—the north eastern quarter of section 27—fractional section 23, and the eastern half of section 22; all in range one (1) west, township nineteen (19) north, situated on the south side of Puget Sound, near the mouth of She-nah-nam, or Medicine creek, and one mile west of the Willamette meridian, containing according to the U. S. land survey 1204 acres.

2nd. A tract on the south side of Commencement Bay, not far from the mouth of the Puyallup river; beginning at a point on the beach marked by a large white fir tree, blazed on three sides, and standing on the north east corner of Swan & Riley's claim; thence along the beach, and following its meanderings one and a half miles in a south easterly direction, to a point marked by a fallen tree, bearing the letters U. S. R., behind which three cedar trees are conspicuously blazed; thence south one and a half miles; thence west about one mile to a point due south of the place of beginning, and thence north about two and a half miles to said place of beginning, containing in all 1280 acres, or two sections of land.

3d. The small island called Klah-che-min, situated opposite the mouth of Hammersly's and Totten's inlets, and separated from Hartstene Island by Peale's (or Pickering's) passage, containing, according to the U. S. land survey, about 1400 acres.

4th. The Peninsula at the south eastern end of Perry's Island called Shais-quihl; and

5th. The Island called Chah-choo-sen, situated in the Lummi river, at the point of separation of the mouths, emptying respectively into Bellingham Bay and the Gulf of Georgia.

6th. Commencing on the beach at Neah Bay, at the mouth of a small brook running into the same; next to the site of the old Spanish fort; thence along the shore round Cape Classet or Flattery to the mouth of another small stream running into the bay on the south side of said Cape, a little above the Watch village; thence following said brook to its source; thence in a straight line to the source of the first mentioned creek, and thence following the same down to the place of beginning.

and Supt. Ind. Aff., W. T.

Claim for Damages by Indians.

NOTICE is hereby given, that claims for damages, done by Indians of this Territory to citizens, must be put in under the regulations of the Department, in the following manner:

1. It must be shown either that the property has been taken by force, or with intent to steal, or that it has been maliciously destroyed, and that the person to whom it belonged was lawfully within the Indian country.

2. Application for remuneration must be made by the owner, his representative, attorney, or agent, to the proper superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, within three years after the commission of the injury.

3. The necessary documents and proofs must accompany the application.

4. Oaths may be administered and depositions taken by the proper superintendent, agent, or sub-agent. Whenever the Indian can make out a presumption of title in himself, from the fact of previous possession or ownership, the burden of proof will rest on the white person.

5. The application, documents, and proof, must then be transmitted by the superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, to the Department of the Interior, for the direction of the President.

6. Whenever directed by him, a demand will be made by the superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, upon the nation or tribe to which the Indian or Indians committing the injury belonged, for satisfaction.

7. From the making of such demand of satisfaction, the "reasonable time," not exceeding twelve months, will be computed.

8. If within that time the Indian nation or tribe shall refuse or neglect to make satisfaction, the superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, will make return of his doings to the Department of the Interior, accompanied by the papers connected with the case, that such further steps may be taken as shall be proper, in the opinion of the President, to obtain satisfaction for the injury.

9. Every person making application to the agent for indemnification for injuries committed by Indians upon his property, will be required to make affidavit, that neither himself, his representative, attorney, or agent, has violated the provisions of this law, by seeking or attempting to obtain private satisfaction or revenge. Evidence of such "seeking or attempting," if communicated to the superintendent, agent, or sub-agent, will make a part of the return of his doings herein before required.

Claims may accordingly be filed either at the office of the superintendent of Indian affairs, at Olympia, or delivered to the agent for the Puget Sound District, Col. M. T. Simmons, or the sub-agent for the Columbia River, W. H. Tappan, who will attend the various courts during term time for the purpose.
