ATTENTION

Currently, your ballot cast in the recent election is not being counted due to a problem with your signature. It is very important that we correct this error immediately.

Please fill out the attached forms and give the Washington State Republican Party's Rossi Recount office a call as soon as possible at 1-800-889-0270, so that we can pick up your forms and return them to your auditor's office so there will be a chance for your ballot to be counted.

December 12, 2004

Dear Auditor:

I am a registered voter who cast a ballot in the November 2, 2004 general election. It has come to my attention that my ballot was not counted. In order to provide you sufficient information to verify and count my ballot, I am submitting with this letter a signed oath of voter and a voter registration form with my current information included. Please use this information to ensure that my ballot is counted.

Sincerely,

(signed)
