Rules of the Road

- This training provides information to agency officials. You are receiving this information to assist you in understanding and applying open meetings laws.
- This training satisfies the open meetings training in ESB 5964 (Chap. 66, 2014 Laws) (RCW 42.30.205) the "Open Government Trainings Act."
- If a quorum of a board/council/committee is present, exercise caution and do not discuss the agency's business.
 - If a member has a question regarding an issue in his/her jurisdiction, direct the question to the agency's lawyer, or discuss at a public meeting, or call the AGO (re OPMA or Public Records Act) or State Archives (re records retention/management).

Open Government Laws Like the OPMA are Often Called "Transparency Laws" or "Sunshine Laws"

This is because they "shine light" on government. U.S. Supreme Court Justice Louis Brandeis once famously said, "Sunlight is the best disinfectant."

Let Us Begin!

Transparency builds public confidence in government.

Open Public Meetings Act RCW 42.30

Washington's Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA)

- Passed in 1971
- Requires meetings to be open to the public, gavel to gavel
- RCW 42.30

[5]

Purpose

- "The people do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them."
- "The people, in delegating authority, do not give public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know."
- "The people insist on remaining informed so they may retain control over the instruments they have created."

~ RCW 42.30.010

Purpose (Cont.)

- Public commissions, boards, councils, etc. listed in OPMA are agencies of this state that exist to aid in the conduct of the people's business.
 - Their actions are to be taken openly and deliberations conducted openly.
- RCW 42.30.010

- Act is to be "liberally construed."
- RCW 42.30.910

- The purpose of the OPMA is to allow the public to view the "decisionmaking process."
- Washington State Supreme Court

[7]

OPMA Applies To:

Multi-member public state and local agencies, such as boards and commissions, as follows:

- Any state board, commission, committee, department, educational institution, or other state agency which is created by or pursuant to statute, other than courts and the legislature.

- RCW 42.30.020

These are the "public agencies" subject to the OPMA.

 - Legislature
 - Agencies not defined as "public agency" in OPMA, such as agencies governed by a single individual

- Physical presence not required – can occur by phone or email

An exchange of e-mail could constitute a meeting if, for example, a quorum of the members participate in the e-mail exchange & discuss agency business. Simply receiving information without comment is not a meeting. Do not hit "reply all."

- Does not need to be titled "meeting" – OPMA also applies to "retreats," "workshops," "study sessions," etc.
- No meeting occurs if the governing body lacks a quorum.

[12]

~ RCW 42.30.020

{ 13 }

Final Action

- "Final action" is a collective positive or negative decision, or an actual vote, by a majority of the governing body, or by the "committee thereof"
- Must be taken in public, even if deliberations were in closed session
- Secret ballots are not allowed

{ 14 }

Travel and Gathering

- A majority of the members of a governing body may travel together or gather for purposes other than a regular meeting or a special meeting, so long as no action is taken.
- Discussion or consideration of official business would be action, triggering the requirements of the OPMA.

~ RCW 42.30.070

{ 15 }

“Regular” Meetings

- “Regular meetings” are recurring meetings held in accordance with a periodic schedule by ordinance, resolution, bylaws or other rule.

 - Given to each local newspaper of general circulation, radio, and TV station which has a notice request on file
 - Posted on the agency's website --- with certain exceptions in RCW 42.30.080(2)(b), if the agency (i) does not have a website, (ii) employs fewer than ten full-time equivalent employees; or (iii) does not employ personnel whose duty, as defined by a job description or existing contract, is to maintain or update the web site
