A wine ring has been unearthed.
Mr. Farrell formerly Consul at Cadiz, has testified before the Committee on Expenditures in the State Department, that the wine merchants of that city secured his removal because he refused to become a partly to a system of undervaluation of Luited States; and that the wine ring brought about the appointment of a successor who was not as seruplous. It is alleged that the loss to the revenue from undervaluation of wine through the connivance of the Consul, rivals that occasioned by the whisky frauch.

Is it possible these things can be, and overcome us like a summer cloud, and we not know it until a Democratic Congress sets its investigation committees at work? By the way, it appears that Donffe, Far-rell's successor, was appointed at the recovered to the browner of the Potential Potential Congress was the State of the Consultation of the Cons
