Political.-" The political calender is bilin," was the ass-tute remark of one our self constituted Solona; which being interpreted, means that things are being cooked up for the coming election and the local politicians are in a stew. The Republican primary was held here on baturday, was well attended and very er, and also that she fell through Beechharmonious, resulting in the choice of a delegation in which every interest and Here follows a note from Mrs. Stanton class in the community is very fairly represented. This is the only organized political party in the county, and has, to repel as false the charge of Beecher undoubtedly, on any diffinet party issue, a majority of the popular vote, and unsought. Much space is here given to go into the contest with this decided advantage; but in the present laxity of party ties and party discipline, and in the fierce and passionate character of total absence of all distinctive political Mrs. Morse by quotations from her combinations for ulterior purposes, will scatter to the winds all fraudulent devices depending for success upon a party majority. We are not the instrument state the facts as we find them. The ticket which presents the best men will to party names.

publican Convention for this county and Kearney as their second choice for Delegate to Congress. This is simply a local and personal concession. That Judge Jacobs enjoys the confidence and esteem of his Republican neighbors, as a gentleman of very attractive social qualities and as a consistent and uncompromising party politician, there is no ground for dispute. As against any other man, outside of the county, it is conceded by all that Kearney would be the first choice of not only near! v all the Republican voters, but a very considerable number of Democrats. That he would poll a larger vote in this county than any other candidate who could be presented, without an exception, is the opinion of many of the most intelligent observers of popular sentiment. It would be no personal favor to either of the gentlemen named to constrain him to surrender Lis present position for the chances of the Delegateship which a mere nomination implies, it can therefore be considered and discussed without any personal feeling. We are entirely satisfied with Judge Jacobs in his present position, which is the most honorable and digrified of any in the Territory, except that of a private citiests. With Mr. Kearney the case is different. We were the first to publicly recommend him as a candidate, against his most sincere and earnest protest, and should he be nominated we should feel in honor bound to support him. Beyond that we are free from all entangling party alliances.

CHICAGO, Ills., Sept. 18 .- The Tribune this afternoon publishes in an extraTilton's new statement in full, making four full pages of that paper. The following is a synopsis of the main points:

The first portion of the statement consists of quotations from letters and other evidence, showing the friendly relations existing between Tilton and Beecher up to the time of Mr. Tilton's confession, and of the marital felicity of Tilton and wife up to the same period; all of which is offered as a refutation of the charge of Tilton's vindictivenes toward Beecher and of his brutality toward his wife.

Tilton next relates with great particularity the circumstances under which Mrs. Tilton made her confession, which he alleges was given him in detail, after | promulgated. exacting from him a solemn pledge that he would not injure the person implicated nor communicate to him the fact been relieved from duty at Fort Klamath that 30 or 40 lives were lost, nearly all of her revelation, as she wanted to in- Oregon, and ordered to Camp Douglas, girls, have been lost, while the list of Warner. Washington, Sept. 18.—There was fa special cabinet meeting this morning and an order was sent through Adjutant General Townsend to General Enery. He is directed by the President to say: Your acts to this date, so far as they have been reported and received here officially, are approved, except so far as they name Colonel Brooks Commander of the City of New Orleans. It would have been better to have named him Commander of the U.S. forces in that city, and the State Government existing at the time of the present insurrectionary movement must be recognized as the lawful State Government until some other can be legally supplied. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18,-McEner and!Penu have issued an address to the people advising obedience to the con stitued authorities. No new develope ments this morning.

Gen. Brooke occupies the execu tive office. Mayor Wiltz has been in consultation with him relative to the reestablishing of the municipal govern ment. A consultation is now going on at the Custom House between Governor McEnery and his partisans and Kellogg and others, looking to a compromise but legal obstacles present themselves at almost every step. Military occupation till Congress disposes of the question would doubtless be cheerfully acquiesced in by both parties.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 17 .- The Dear of Christ's Church Cathedral has been on trial for some days on charges of in subordination and contumacy. To-day the Bishop of Columbia delivered a judgment revoking the Dean's license commenced. The Church bell was tolland hooted from the Church. The Dean was loudly cheered by the populace of all denominations, who charge that the Dean's offences consist in his opposition to the ritualistic practices of the Bishop. Secondly, that no new election is needed, inasmuch as the Constitution of the State provides for an election for members of the Legislature early in December next and the Legislature ther elected will have it in their power to remove any or all existing State official and supply their places by men of their own choice. Kellogg concludes: If we can have a peaceable election in November next, the result will show most conclusively that McEnery was no a persistent claim.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The following is the remainder of the synopsis of Tilton's statement: He gives a long letter written to him by Mrs. Tilton from Marrietta and enclosed a letter to her mother, in which she protests against his cruel course, begging him to do differently and for his children's sake to bury her past and leave it with her and her God, who is merciful. This letter was plainly written under the influence of strong emotion. While it plainly confesses a great sin it intimates clearly that he had also much to be forgiven.

This letter he regards as a sufficient refutation to the assertion in the Committee's report that Mrs. Tilton's confession was extorted from her by him and that she never made any confession to her mother. She begs him in this Сикладо, Sept. 18.—A special to the letter not to blacken the reputation of Tribune from New Orleans, received at Mr. Beecher, which is dear to her, and at late hour last night, reported that asks him if he wanted her to abuse woman he loved.

He repeats his declaration that Beecher confessed to his criminal intimacy with Mrs. Tilton, not only once, but re peatedly, and on one occasion specified the time that this intimacy had existed. Over a year, he said, but not a year and a half. He also relates the particulars of an interview between himself and Beecher, in which Tilton desired to ascertain from him if the date of his wife's confession of her first act of adultery with Beecher was correct, in order to settle, if possible, the doubtful parentage of the child born to Mrs. Tilton in

They pointed out means of escape principally by iron ladders, but many are so terror stricken as to be unable to use them. As the fire frightened them away from those ladders they rushed to the windows in the south gable, nearly sixty feet from the ground, but dared not jump down. Cotton ropes were put out for them to slide down by, out no sooner would a rope be lowered elected to office, to which he makes such than there was a rush for it and too many would take bold, when it would break and all clinging to it would come down in a bunch. Similar scenes were going on in the male spinning coms. The flames had ascended rapcutting off this means of escape, but the operatives had 2 ladders at the south gable directly before them and were urged by the overseers and citizens to take to them, still many rushed to the balcony and leaped headlong from the guards. Everybody would have been saved had the girls followed the instructions of the Superintendant, who rushed to the upper story at the first alarm and did everything possible to save life-every means of escape was tried. It is reported that four firemen lost their lives dead bodies were taken to Central Station and other unfortunates were carried home or to hospitals and all the medical aid in the city was summoned. Bailey, which resulted in the death of the former. The parties had been intimate friends and had been doing business together for several years, when a misanderstanding in regard to some business transaction arose. Irving became very much excited, armed himself with a revolver and sought Bailey, threatening to shoot him on sight .-When they met, Irving was driving a span of horses attached to a lumber wagon. He stopped his toam and drew his revolver, but before he could use it Bailey caught a stake from the wagon and dealt him a blow in the forehead which resulted in his death about six hours afterwards. The deceased was a native of Roches-

the ovaries and bowels. All the Doctors said the ovaries and bowels. All the Doctors said "there was no help for it." I tried every thing that was recommended, but nothing helped me. I saw your Resolvent, and thought I would try it; but had no faith in it, because I had suffered for twelve years. I took six bottles of the Resolvest, and one box of Radway's Pills, and two bottles of your Beady Relief; and there is not a sign of tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel better, smarter, and happier than I have for twelve years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish it if you choose.
