Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Veg-etable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Vinegan Britzens?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded pos-The properties of Dr. WALKER'S VINEAR BITTERS are Aperient, Dia-phoretic, Nutritious, Laxative, Dia-retic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Su-dorific, Alterative, and Anti-Billious.

> New York, Aug. 10 .- The Brooklyn Argus, Tilton's organ, says the statement submitted by Moulton covers more than twice the number of pages of manuscript made by Mr. Tilton in his statement. Moulton rests his case almost entirely on documentary evidence, which had been voluntarily placed in his hands by Beecher, Tilton, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Morse (Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Morse (Mrs. Tilton's mother), and other persons. Moulton declares, with repeated and renewed assurances, that he has preserved his friendly relations with all parties during the long period covered by the document in his pressession, and the court-room of said Probate Court, at an adjourned meeting friendly relations with all parties during the long period covered by the document in his pressession, and of the court-room of said Probate Court at Port Madison in said Kitsap County, more than twice the number of pages of enly that he was blackmailed in large almost entirely on documentary evi-Mr. Moulton tell all he knows an en- ed in his hands by Beecher, Tilton, Mrs. publicly connected with the inquiry, friendly relations with all parties duran adjustment of the whole matter. Moulton finds it necessary to refer to the beginning of the controversy, the whole difficulty having originated in the interfering with non-society men in difference between Henry C. Bowen and Tilton. He gives the history of Tilton's serious complications with Bowen, and step by step traces to progress of the breace between them, leading up to the final complication between Tilton and Beecher, out of which grew the tripartite covenant. EXCITING OCCURRENCE.-The steamer Wm. Tabor brought from San Francisco Capt. Rollins, who had in his charge 14 sailors for the ship Lady Clarendon. They were transferred at the mouth of the harbor to the pilot boat, but conclu ded they would make tracks for the American shore. Capt. Rollins and the Edwin. "man" on board the pilot-boat were sent below, but were afterwards brought on deck to assist in sailing the craft. The Wm. Tabor brought the news to town and the steamer Isabel was sent in pursuit. She overhauled them about eight miles from the American shore. They surrendered and thirteen of them were placed on board .- Colonist.

Morris also showed a receipt of William Page, dated Feb. 25th. 1869, for a portrait of Beecher, purchased by Tilton and now hang ing in Moulton's house, saying that in the following year, 1870, after Mrs. Tilton had informed her mother of her guilty relations with Beecher, her mother threatened to cut the canvas into slits; and Tilton, unwilling to see a work of art destroyed, removed it to Moulton's, where it still remains.

Morris also said that Mrs. Tilton's statement concerning her husband's cruelty, his locking her in a room, his freezfictitions: and if there be any insanity in the family at all the charge will not be at the door of Tilton, but of his wife. It is rumored that Moulton's state ment is already prepared with the help of Gen. Butier. The services of the latter gentleman were offered to Beecher. The offer was not declined but was replied to with thanks.

Moulton said to-day that he had not said anything by tongue or pen to justify anyone in assuming that he was in the least degree unfriendly to Beecher. should characterize no actions and interpolate no inferences of his own. -There were some papers in his possession which the committee desired to obtain. He should gratify that desire, recording the order in which they came. leaving to the committee and public to make their own inferences. He had thus far endeavored to maintain peace between Beecher and Tilton and should continue to do so, and by the removal of the misunderstandings and through an intelligent realization of self-interest. he should never despair of renewing

The following is the latest in the Philadelphia papers in regard to the boy abduction case, which shows how little progress has been made in the solution of the mystery:

From news gained in police circles and from private sources, it may be set down for a certainty that Charlie Ross is in Philadelphia, and if not he is not very far from here, if the child is moved from the city. The Pacific Mail Steamship Company have ordered their managing director to insure seventeen of their best wooder ships at one-third their value. The iron vessels are all insured except the City of Pekin and City of Tokoi, now preparing for sea, which are to be insured for $750. 000 each. Captain A. W. Shufeldt, Commander
