PUGET SOUND WEEKLY.

MONDAY, May 7, 1866.

To Subscribers.

We include in to-day's WEEKLY the news which otherwise would appear in the DAILY of to-day, in order to give our subscribers to the WEEKLY one day's later news. We shall, therefore, issue no DAILY to-day. This arrangement will probably be made permanent.

THE ROAD OVER THE MOUNTAINS.

We understand that the question as to whether the Commissioners shall appropriate money out of the county treasury for the purpose of constructing a road from Seattle through the Snoqualmie pass over the Cascade mountains, will be submitted to the voters of King county for determination, at the coming June election.

We are in favor of the appropriation, for it strikes us that the importance of an early completion of that road cannot be overestimated. With that road completed, communications are opened with all the fine farming and grazing region beyond the mountains, and it is surely desirable to open as many avenues of trade and traffic as possible. The opening of this road will undoubtedly contribute materially to the commercial prosperity of Seattle, and prove most advantageous to every section of the Sound country.

The distance to the Columbia river by a route through the Snoqualmie pass, does not exceed one hundred and twenty-five miles, we doubt that it exceeds one hundred miles. With this road open, therefore, the Columbia can be reached at a point nearly five hundred miles above its mouth, by a journey of, in no case to exceed, one hundred and twenty-five miles. Is this a matter of no importance? Under the present state of affairs, the same point cannot be reached without a long voyage by sea, to the mouth of the Columbia, where the most dangerous bar on the Pacific coast has to be crossed, or else a tedious journey overland to that river and then, in either case, a long and tedious voyage up the river, to say nothing of the many obstructions in it, besides the horrors of falling into the hands of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company and paying three or four prices for freight and passage and for accommodations that you don't get.

Travel to or through a country is always desirable. It makes money plenty, creates a home market, which is the best kind of market in the world, makes business brisk, and contributes in a thousand different ways to the prosperity of a country. But how can any body travel through a country without roads?

Every one admits that the great want of Washington Territory is population. The natural wealth and resources of the Territory are unsurpassed but population is indispensably necessary to the development of these resources. But how can immigration be expected when there are no roads by which immigrants can reach this part of the Territory? and it is by no means desirable to settle on the other side of the mountains and be cut off from communications with the maritime and commercial towns and cities of the coast.

There is a great deal of talk about the Big Bend and Montana mines. Now, we venture the assertion, that there is no better or more direct route to Big Bend or Montana than through the Snoqualmie pass to the Columbia river; and that, with a good wagon road open, a share, at least, of the immense flood of emigration, that flows into those regions, would mark this channel, and the Sound country reap its share of the benefit to be derived from it. The Big Bend and Montana trade and travel are "big things," and our Victoria and "web foot" neighbors are well aware of the fact.

We have talked with men of undoubted veracity and we are thoroughly convinced that the Snoqualmie pass is practicable for a wagon road; that it is, in the fullest acceptation of the term, a natural pass through the mountains, and that the expense of constructing a road through the pass, will be but a trifle greater than the expense of constructing the same distance on almost any other section of it.

Let every voter, therefore, be assured that every dollar levied upon his property to construct this road, will return to him as increasing the value of his property; to the farmer, by creating a market for the products of his farm; to the merchant, by increase of business; and to every body, by brightening up the aspect of affairs generally.

VANCOUVER QUARTZ LEDGE.—The discovery of gold and silver bearing quartz rock in the vicinity of Vancouver, W. T., continues to develop new cause for excitement among the citizens of that locality, and recent tests leave no doubt of the fact that rock sufficiently rich to pay well for investment and labor has been found within a few miles of the Columbia river, easy of access, with an abundance of timber and water privileges close at hand. We saw yesterday a certificate of assay, by Wells, Fargo & Co., which resulted as follows: "330 pounds of rock assayed $2 11 gold, and 93 cts. silver, 816 fine. Total $3 38." This will yield about $22 to the ton, which is considered by all experienced miners sufficiently rich to pay well for working. The natural advantages of location and means of access make it more favorable than a ledge yielding twice or three times that much in Owyhee regions, or any other distant locality; where the cost of living and freights are three or four times greater. There have been so many bogus quartz leads struck, and so many mining excitements in this country, that most persons have naturally become incredulous upon such subjects, and especially so when the new discovery purports to be close at hand; yet there is no telling the freaks of nature or where she may deposit her richest treasures. The precious metals have been discovered in even more unseemly places than the one under consideration. —Herald.

IRELAND.

The following is from the writings of Thomas Davis, one of Ireland's most gifted writers. It is a perfect poem, save that it lacks versification. The author is describing the condition of the Irish peasantry. Nothing could be finer or more poetical than those two figures in the first sentence, and the one in the third:

In a climate so fit as a mother's smile, on a soil as fruitful as God's love, the Irish peasant mourns. He is not unconsolated. Faith in the joys of another world, brightened by his woes in this, gives him hours when he scarcely looks down the torments that encircle him—the moon on a troubled sky. Domestic love, almost morbid from external suffering, prevents him from becoming a misanthrope or a fanatic, and reconciles him to life. But bitter is the reflection that squalidness, and hunger and disease are insufficient guardians of his home; and that the puff of the agent's or landlord's breath may blow him off the land where he has lived, and send him and his to a dyke, or to prolong wretchedness in some desperate kennel in the next town, until the strong wings of Death—unopposed lords of such suburbs—bear them away. To whomsoever God has given a heart less cold than stones, these truths must cry day and night. Oh, how they cross us like "Banshees" when we would range free on the mountain—how, as we walk in the evening light amid flowers, they startle us from the rest of mind! Ye nobles! whose bouqs are gorgeous as the mete's (who dwelleth in the sunbeam)—ye strong and haughty squires—ye dames, exuberant with tingling blood—ye maidens, whom splendor has not yet spoiled, will ye not shudder in your couches to think how rain, wind and smoke dwell with the blanketless peasant?—will ye not turn from the sumptuous board to look at these hard worn meals of black and slimy roots on which man, woman and child feed year after year? Will you never try to banish wringing hunger and ghastly disease from the home of the poor?—will ye not give back its dues to the village—its mountain pay to boyhood—its serene hopes to manhood?

THE YOUNG WIDOW.

She is modest, she is bashful,
Free and easy, but not bold—
Like an apple, ripe and mellow,
Not too young, and not too old:
Half inviting, half repulsive,
Now advancing, and now shy,
There is mischief in her dimple,
There is danger in her eye.

She has studied human nature,
She is schooled in all her arts,
She has taken her diploma
As the mistress of all hearts.
She can tell the very moment
When to sigh or when to smile—
Oh, a maid is sometimes charming,
But a widow all the while.

You are sad. How very serious
Will her handsome face become;
You are angry! she is wretched,
Lonely, friendless, fearful, dumb.
You are merry! How her laughter—
Silver sounding—will ring out!
She can jest, and catch, and play you
As the angler does the trout.

All old bachelors of forty,
Who have grown so bold and wise;
Ye Adonis of twenty,
With your love-look in your eyes,
You may practice all the lessons
Taught by Cupid since the fall,
But I know a little widow
Who could play and win you all.

MAY-DAY PARTY.

EDITOR PUGET SOUND DAILY:—

SIR:—I would excuse myself for not offering this correspondence earlier on account of leaving the task to abler hands. On Tuesday evening, May 1st, myself and a few others of our townfolk jumped aboard the fleet little steamer Louis Hinde, Capt. Robbins, who kindly came from Port Madison for the purpose of taking us over, and after a pleasant run of two hours were landed at the Port Madison pier. There we were welcomed by some of the good people of the town, who escorted us to the Port Madison Hotel, where we were immediately installed as favored guests along with those of our townfolk who had gone over in the Day.

Dancing had already commenced, and of course, having a "sort of hankerin'" in that direction, we joined the happy troupe, and patronized Terpsichore to our heart's content. At 12 o'clock, supper was served, and it did our liberal host credit too. All the good things of the season and out of the season, were spread, and not one of our kind entertainers would touch a morsel until every guest from Seattle had been provided for, and there was plenty and to spare for all of us.

After everybody had eaten as much as they wanted, dancing was resumed and kept up until the "Wee wee" hours of the twal, when bidding our kind friends good bye, we got on board the fine steamer Libby, and sped away over the rippling tide that danced and sparkled in the light of the morning sun, as if in sympathy with our own light hearts, and arrived at Seattle at 6 a. m., and proceeding to Sires' Hotel, an excellent breakfast was laid for us, after which we proceeded to our several homes; and as for the "undersigned," he sought his couch to dream of pretty faces, the mazy dance, and good suppers.

AMPHION.

Seattle, May 4, 1880.

The Pall Mall Gazette attributes human tastes and character entirely to education, and thinks that many a rannomized saint if educated like Tom Sayers, would have been a rowdy and a prize fighter.

We have received the first number of the PUGET SOUND SEMI-WEEKLY, edited and published by Hall and McNamara, at Seattle. The paper fully endorses President Johnson's veto of the Ironmen's bureau bill.—Pacific Christian Advocate.

SUNDAY DINNER IN PRISON.—

The Sacramento correspondent of the Flag, tells the following pathetic story: There is a young man sentenced to jail for a year, who still retains the treasures of a pretty wife and child. They come to see him every day, and the Warden turns the great creaking lock, and the three sit on a bench and for a while forget their misfortunes.—Yesterday, being Sunday, they brought him his dinner, all the little delicacies that a poor man would think of and care for, and the repast lasted a great while.—The child is extremely beautiful, and while it was playing about the grated doors, I could see the furtive tears drive one another quickly down the young mother's rosey cheeks, though she was pretending to be cheerful all the time. It was a melancholy banquet to be sure, and while pretending not to see, I still observed the dread misery that was tearing at her heart. At length the banquet in the "House of Sorrows," was over; the father was locked in his cell, and the mother and child went away carrying the things, the little one with paces hardly a foot long. Its face and hands were as white as the snows of Caucasus, its cheeks set with the incarnation of Summer roses; and yet the desolate aspect of the poor little thing, made me wish that there were no gloomy jails, no forbidden doors in the way of affection; no creaking keys, no iron hearted locks to separate it from its father's bosom; no unforgiven sin in the earth to blast the lifetime of two innocent beings so young and beautiful.

We are informed that a letter has been received by a gentleman of this place from Washington, stating that the U. S. mail contract on the Sound has been awarded to Messrs. C. Crosby & Co., of Tom Water, and Mr. Henry Winsor of this place, to be carried semi-weekly by steamer. This news will be hailed with great satisfaction by the people on the Sound.—Standard.

"Can you tell me what this is, sir?" said a man to Dr. Ayer, the chemist, exhibiting a box full of specimens. "Certainly, that is iron pyrites." "And what is that?" "Dross." "And what is it worth?" "Nothing." "Thunder! A woman in our town owns a hill full of that and I've married her.

A shocking murder was discovered in Philadelphia lately. Christopher Deering, his wife, 4 children, niece and servant boy, in all 8 persons, were found to have been killed under circumstances showing bellish brutality in the use of weapons. Deering was a man of moderate means, living on a small farm, and it is supposed the murder was committed by a German laborer 4 days before its discovery.

The conflict between the Saints and Gentiles waxed warm and warmer every day. The Salt Lake Vidette, the organ of the outside barbarians, referring to Brigham and his flock, says: The loyal element of Utah is beginning to thoroughly understand that it cannot occupy any middle ground in treating with the church leaders. With this knowledge, this element is rapidly consolidating its strength—by no means desirable—and preparing for the great moral conflict which will soon triumph and free the people of Utah from their oppressors.

The population of Minnesota is estimated at 275,000.

THE TREASURES OF MONTANA.—The Oregonian says: "Oy" Newcombe, well known to parties in this city, recently went to Montana, and gives a rose colored picture of the virgin Territory in a letter to the Carson Appeal. Hear him: "First, I have seen a very large amount of gold dust, and this country is supported by the amount taken from the ground. The merchants are all making their fortunes, and gambling and all such amusements flourish. I have seen the richest and most extensive quartz leads that can be found in the world, both gold and silver. The placer diggings are yet in their infancy. New discoveries are made weekly, and vast amounts will be taken out this year. Thousands of miners left here for the States last fall, all to return and bring more with them. Thousands of gulches that are favorable for gold are yet unprospected. The whole Rocky Mountains are one vast miner's deposit. Mines so far prospected pay to the man from 5 cents to $10, and higher. But $10 a day is considered very ordinary. The mines extend for hundreds of miles in all directions. Water and timber in abundance. Grass the year round. Climate—winters cold, summers fine. Take it altogether it is better than Nevada. Game and fish in abundance. Wages for bar-keepers, $75 to $150; laborers, five to ten dollars per day. Costs from 16 to 18 dollars per week according to the man's disposition and taste."

DISEASED PORK.—The Virginia Union thus discourses in this connection: "A vast deal of pernicious humbug is being written about the trichina disease. In fact, the only new type of the disease is the newspaper type—about the worst it has had in a century. Since trichina will live in pork, and have done so since the earliest porcine history, only one thing remains to be done. In every case buy carefully and broil thoroughly. It is not true that the trichina will withstand the oxo-butyric blow-pipe, but it is quite as safe as that every of the parasite rather enjoying being broiled. A temperature that coagulates albumen will kill every parasite in pork or sausage. In Germany they eat sausages raw, and that is the trouble there. In this country we devour newspapers raw and that's the trouble here.

ENTERPRISE IN COLORADO.—There are 4 daily papers in the State of Colorado—2 published in Denver and 2 more in the mountain regions. The section in which lumber is found in Colorado has 25 saw mills, and 10 flour mills have been set up within the past few years. The quartz mills in the State, are counted at over 150, costing $40,000,000.—They should average, if all are running on medium ore, not less than $28,000,000 per year. Wages run at $5 per day. Mr. Loveland, a resident of Golden City, is soon to erect a blast furnace and rolling furnace at that point. The mill is to turn out rails for the road that is to be constructed between Denver and the towns of Central and Empire, passing through Golden City, and probably furnishing one of the many links in the overland railway to the Pacific.

Gen. Joseph P. Knife has been nominated for postmaster of Harrisburg. It is also understood that ex-Governor Wm. F. Johnson, who made a speech here last week in support of the President, has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue at Pittsburg.

The first number of the PUGET SOUND SEMI-WEEKLY was issued April 6th. It is a small, neat, paper, Union in politics, but professedly very independent in everything.—Oregonian.

DONALD McDONALD.—The Oregonian says:

This gentleman, who, it will be recollected, was taken from Idaho to Sacramento recently, as the murderer Wells, called upon us last evening. Having passed through the most torturing term of a lifetime safely, and established his identity, he is now en route for Idaho again to resume his occupation as a miner. He has a memento of this painful page in his history, in the shape of a photograph of Wells, and one of himself, on a card. At first sight one would be inclined to say that there was a great similarity in the two pictures; but upon closer inspection, considerable difference is observed. Mr. McDonald appears to be a very honest and industrious man, and about the last person to be mistaken for a murderer.

RESCUE OF A WHITE GIRL FROM THE INDIANS.—The late expedition under Major Wynkoop to the Indian Territory, succeeded in rescuing a young lady captive named Amanda Fletcher, fifteen years of age, who was captured near Fort Halleck on the first of August last, while en route for Idaho with her parents. Her mother was badly wounded at the time and may have died, but her father escaped. The family was from Minersville, Henry county, Ill. She had been subject to all the cruelties and atrocities incident to captivity of this degradation, but enjoys excellent health, and is delighted at her deliverance.

A POLICEMAN IN A CURIOUS POSITION.—A gentleman of early rising tendencies was in the streets of Trowbridge, Wiltshire, England, one fine morning, recently, when he observed a singular and decidedly suspicious scene. This was a man being lowered from a bedroom window by means of a sheet. The man having been let down gently to the ground, the gentleman observed that he had no shoes on stockings on, but these articles were immediately thrown out of the window from which he had been lowered. The observer of these suspicious movements conjectured the man must be a burglar and collared him. He proved to be a policeman, whose duty it was to promenade one of terraces in the neighborhood, but having won the affections of a young lady, this Romeo of the force had got admitted to the lady's coyness. The man begged to be let go, but his ruthless captor took him to the police station.

NEW MOTIVE POWER.—At the Paris Academy of Science, Messrs. Burdin and Bourget laid before the members a description of their continued experiments for obtaining the greatest amount of work from the hot air machine, so constructed as to be adapted to a furnace resembling that of an ordinary steam engine. These gentlemen express a hope that the result of their thirty years' labor may be, eventually, the introduction of a new motive power superior to steam, and thus capable of increasing the wealth and power of civilized nations.

Last August, Charles Russell, at Pittsfield, Massachusetts, had $2,500 stolen from him. A reward was offered for the return of the money, but until recently nothing has been heard of it. A few days ago Mr. Russell received through the post-office a letter mailed at Pittsfield, containing no signature, and was as follows: "I return you fifty dollars of the $2,500 you lost. Most of it I lost gambling at New York. I will pay you the rest as soon as I can earn it. I have met with a change of heart. May God forgive me."

SALUBRIOUS CLIMATE.—Eleven men were frozen to death in the vicinity of Hamilton, Fi more county, Minn., on the night of January 20. Six of them were frozen in a sleigh while passing along the road; another man was found frozen in a standing posture, with his hands over his face, and only three or four rods from a house.

Clippings.

GOLD.—We were yesterday shown a piece of smooth gold about the size of a grain of wheat, which was taken from the craw of a grouse, killed upon the farm of James B. Stephens, opposite this city. Such things have been heard of before, and it now only remains for us to know how long a bird could retain such a thing in its crop, in order to form an opinion as to the locality from whence the specimen was picked up.—Herald.

It is well understood that the comparative poverty of Maximilian was the principal moving cause of his acceptance of the Mexican crown. This difficulty has now been removed, for his wife, a daughter of the late King Leopold, of Belgium, comes at once into possession of not less than a million sterling, ($5,000,000,) the King's entire fortune being divided equally between his three children.

WITHOUT taking into account the expenditure of blood and treasure in battle; it is an official fact that seventeen thousand Mexican republicans have been executed by order of Maximilian's court-martial officers during his short reign. This is "mild imperial government" of the Louis Napoleon order.

On the 17th of March, last, two brothers, named M. H. and Andrew McHugh, were buried, at Dry Gulch, Montana Territory, by the caving of the dirt in which they were at work. Assistance was immediately procured, and after about an hour's labor, M. H. McHugh was extricated, considerably bruised but without serious injury; after about an hour's further labor, the dead body of his brother was taken out.

INFORMATION WANTED.—By a letter from his father, we are requested to make inquiry as to the whereabouts of Wm. Francis Slocum. He was a member of Capt. Borland's Company, First Oregon Infantry. Any person knowing anything of Mr. Slocum will do a favor by addressing Wm. Slocum, of Roseburg, Oregon, or by leaving information at this office.—Yanconver Register.

USELESS.—There is a divine out west trying to persuade the girl to forego marriage. He might just as well try to persuade ducks to find a substitute for water, or rosebuds that there is something better for their complexion than sunshine. The only convert he has made is a single lady aged sweet sixty-nine.

A FRENCH REGIMENT at the battle of Spire, had orders to give no quarter. A German officer being taken, begged for his life.

Sir," said the polite Frenchman, you may ask me any other favor, but as for your life, it is impossible for me to grant it."

EMPEROR MAX.—The Emperor of Mexico has ordered a magnificent garden to be constructed near his palace, the cost of which will be $24,000. This does not look like leaving.

A Missouri paper announced a short time ago that the "wife crop in Gasconada county yielded 15,000 gals." The next week the editor came out with an "erratum—for wife read wine."

"Well, Bridget, if I engage you I shall want you to stay at home whenever I shall wish to go out." "Well, ma'am, I have no objections, providin' you do the same when I wish to go out."

We are the inheritors of the sum of all the wisdom that has been acquired in the past.

ARRIVED.—The steamer J. B. Libby arrived, yesterday, from Port Madison.

ARRIVED.—The steamer Eliza Anderson arrived at 2 o'clock p. m. to day, on her regular trip from Olympia to Victoria.

TUESDAY, May 1.

A PLEASURE EXCURSION.—The steamer J. B. Libby, Capt. Libby, sailed at 1 o'clock p. m., today, for Port Madison, taking a number of ladies and gentlemen from Seattle on a pleasure excursion.

GET HIS COMMISSION.—We are informed that Hon. S. Garfield has received his commission as Surveyor General of Washington Territory.

BROWN thinks that the Original Monet of the Connoisseur's Retreat, across the way, understands the culinary business just about as well as any body he has struck lately. We think Brown's heart is about square on that point.

FOUND.—A handkerchief, which the owner can have by applying at this office and proving property.

"CALL ME PET NAMES, DEAREST."—The two papers published at our Territorial Capital have been "bidding and cooing" at each other for the past month at a terrible rate. They are certainly in love with each other. The Standard man comes out of the swamp to the corner by the Washington Hotel, the Tribune gentleman steps sprucely to the opposite corner—they take off their hats, bow, smile, and return. The Tribune man begins his next leader with "My dear dirt eater." The Standard man begins his with "My dear Chinook flabdoole," and each writes on with terms of inexpressible endearment. We venture to suggest that their love making is a little too public for modest people.—Vancouver Register.

That letter clause puts us to mind of the "loco-making" at a certain camp-meeting, which was a "little too public for modest people," if all reports are true.—Standard.

DON'T PAY.—A retiring Western editor says "that all is vanity. From the hour he started his paper until the present time, he had been solicited to lie upon every given subject, and can't remember ever having told a whole-some truth without diminishing his subscription list, or making an enemy. Under these circumstances of trial, and having a thorough contempt for himself, he retires in order to recruit his mental constitution."

THE VERY LATEST,

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

San Francisco, April 27.—Detectives Lees and Ellis have recovered $500 dollars more of the money stolen from Collector Adams of Astoria.

WRECK OF THE THETIS.

The ship Silas Fish, which arrived from New Castle last night, brings information of the loss of the ship Thetis, which was wrecked on Starbuck Island while on her way to the Walden Islands for a load of Guano. The Captain and a portion of the crew had arrived at Tahiti after a passage of 14 days, and the brig City of Sydney had gone for the balance who remained on the island.

A LIBEL CASE.

Dr. Charles Powell has sued the Examiner for $100,000 damages for saying that he had been endeavoring to dispossess B. B. Newman from a piece of land west of Lone Mountain.

ARRIVAL OF THE ORIZABA.

The steamer Orizaba which left Portland on the evening of April 24th, arrived here to-day. She brings $111,200 in treasure.

GOLD.

The gold and sterling exchange markets in New York are gaining strength. The rise seems to be the result of a temporary scarcity of gold and a reduced supply of cotton bills with which the market has been overstocked for some time past. The rates yesterday were 127½ and 108½ for gold best banker's bills. Legal tenders are 79 @ 79½ buying, and 79½ @ 79½ selling.

ANOTHER EXPLOSION—MANY LIVES LOST.

Detroit, April 26.—As the freight at the Detroit & Milwaukee depot at 10 o'clock this evening, a barrel of Naphtha exploded on board, setting both the steamer and the depot on fire. Some 40 persons were on board the boat, 2 of whom are known to have been drowned. The steamer floated down the stream and was totally consumed. The fire destroyed both the passenger and freight depots, a loaded freight train and all the offices of the company. The loss is estimated at half a million of dollars. It is feared that many lives have been lost.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Washington, April 22.—The District of Columbia Suffrage bill will be taken up in the Senate next week. It is being asserted that if the Coslardo(?) bill passes the House, the President will veto it.

Among the nominations made to the Senate, yesterday, was D. L. Greigg, Receiver of Public Money at Carson City, Nev., and John Clarke, Surveyor General of Nevada.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Halifax, April 26.—The news by the Africa, from London, Saturday evening, 14th inst., is as follows: Consols closed at 85½ @ 86½, having touched the lowest prices since the Crimean war; five-twentieths, 67 @ 67½.

Liverpool, April 13.—Cotton market yesterday and to-day is very dull, with a panic, and the decline of two days amounts to from one to three half-pence per pound.

FROM FRANCE.

Alluding to the panic on the Bourse, the correspondent of the London Times says one of the distinguishing rumors was, that the relations between the French and the United States governments were such as to justify the very worst fears; all, of course, on account of Mexico.

The same writer says hopes of peace in Germany are rapidly vanishing.

AUSTRIA AND PRUSSIA.

A Vienna dispatch says the Prussian reply to the last Austrian note was received on the 12th. It declines in laconic terms to accede to the demand of Austria for the demoralization of the Prussian troops.

An official contradiction has been given at Berlin to the assertion that the Prussian Government would take action on account of the expulsion of Count Walderise from the Austrian territory.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

San Francisco, April 29.—The Eastern line was out of order last night, but it is working again to day. No report received for morning papers.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

About five, p. m., yesterday, a young lady about fifteen years of age, very handsomely dressed, went down to the end of Beal street wharf, and jumped deliberately overboard. She was only rescued from death by Captain Edwin Lennen, of the bark Washington, who plunged in and caught her as she was going down the third time. She would not give her name, and was delivered up to her friends. Later in the day she was seized with convulsions and was taken to the calaboose, where she lay in a frightful condition for hours. Her real name is Lacker, though she has been playing at a melodeon under an alias. She recovered so far last night as to be able to be removed to the residence of her friends.

ARRIVAL OF THE DEL MONTE AND MONTANA.

The steamship Del Norte arrived yesterday morning, and the Montana last night, at 8 o'clock, both from Portland.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The number of deaths in this city last week amounts to 47.

The bark Clarabelle, with the first detachment of the Russian telegraph expedition, will sail to-morrow for Petropavsk.

The sloop Amelia Frances, loaded with lime caught fire off San Pablo Point to-day, and the boat and cargo sank.

A scaffolding, at the Metropolitan Theatre, fell this noon with two men a distance of 26 feet. Albert Kingsbury was seriously and probably fatally injured; the other escaped with slight injury.

Weather cool and showery.

Arrived—Ship Pedro, from Callao, sailed April 1st.

Bark Othello, from New Castle, with coal.

THE CHOLERA.

New York, April 27.—In the Board of Aldermen, yesterday, a resolution was adopted directing the Committee to report the most expeditious method of rebuilding the Washington Market.

The Board of Health will occupy the Battery Barracks immediately. There have been three deaths from cholera, but no more new cases since the last report.

FENIANS ON THE RAMPAGE.

The Fenian war has been resumed in this city by the returned veterans of the Passamaquoddy, who bandy epithets more freely than ever, and charge each other with causing the failure of its not having been a successful expedition. There is a new bolt from the old headquarters, and the Roberts faction enjoy the fresh troubles of Union square.

Gillian keeps quiet so far, but his Lieutenant-in-Command is very bitter on O'Mahony, and tells the Fenians to stop sending money to the imperial chief. It appears that when the Fenians were en route home by steamers some of the belligerent ones drew pistols and ordered the captain to return to the seat of war. They were put ashore on an island on the coast of Maine.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Washington, April 27.—The Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to the Cuba Telegraph Bill; amendment being that the company should not charge exceeding three dollars and fifty cents for ten words. Conness said the price was altogether too high, and hoped the Senate would not concur.

The Committee of Conference thereupon asked the Senate to debate the bill for the relief of naval contractors. After three hours discussion, Mr. Henderson moved to postpone the bill to December—ayes, 11; noes, 25. Henderson then moved to remit—ayes, 12; noes, 33. The bill then passed. The bill provides that the amounts paid on awards shall not exceed twelve per cent, of original contract price, except in the case of the Comanche, which award shall be paid in full. The Senate then adjourned.

In the House, Kasson of Iowa, offered a resolution which was adopted, requesting the President to cause to be furnished to the House an enumeration of the provisions relating to freedmen in the Constitutions and laws of the Southern States.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Northern Pacific Railroad Bill.

There seems to be no doubt that Mrs. Jeff Davis is now en route south from Montreal, having obtained permission to visit her husband in Fortress Monroe.

The nomination of Henry A. Smith for Collector of New York, has been referred to the Committee on Commerce. Senator Morgan, one of the members of that convention has not yet reported but he will probably be at the meeting next Thursday.

MONETARY.

The Commercial's money article says the stock market this morning shows partial recovery from the shock produced by the foreign news yesterday, and the feeling on the streets is comparatively independent of European movements. All accounts from London agree that, amid the prevailing panic in British and Continental societies, American stocks maintain greater firmness than any others.

Certain German bankers of this city have been to-day subjected to twist (?) on their short contracts in 5-20's of '62 made some days ago at 1030 @ 1030½ in expectation, a decline being produced by the return of bonds from Europe. The bonds have not arrived within the period of option and the shorts have consequently to be covered at a loss of 2½ @ 3 per cent.

THE CHOLERA.

New York, April 28.—Since the last report made by the Health Officer there have been fifteen new cases of cholera admitted to the hospital ship, and five deaths; leaving 96 cases still in the hospital.

The sloops-of-war Saratoga and Portsmouth have been sent to the lower quarantines as hospital ships.

Dispatches from Halifax say the passengers by the England left there are now well, and that there have been no deaths among them during the week.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Chicago, April 28.—The House yesterday killed the Northern Pacific Railroad bill, after a stormy and protracted debate. The bill was laid on the table—ayes, 76; noes, 66. The bill, as originally reported last Tuesday evening, April 24, provides that the United States should guarantee six per cent, interest on the stock for 20 years, on the following amounts: On 200 shares of stock per mile between the eastern and 110th meridian; on 25 shares per mile in Montana district, between the 111th and 119th meridian; on 300 shares per mile from the 119th meridian to the western terminus. The bill further provided for the securing of the United States out of the gross receipts and land sales. The following is a summary of the debate on the bill, running through three days.

Wentworth, of Ill., said the names of well known gentlemen, including Gen. Grant, had been inserted in the original charter as corporators without their having any interest in the matter, or knowing anything about it. He said if responsible men in each State were made corporators, he would vote for the bill, but he had in vain sought information as to where the money was to go.

Bingham, of Ohio, mentioned the fact that his own name was put in the charter without his knowledge.

After considerable discussion, Spaulding, of Ohio, moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table. The question was taken amid intense interest.

After the result was declared Wright, of New York, moved to reconsider.

Darling, of New York, with a view to prevent the vote being taken, moved an adjournment. Refused—ayes, 52; noes, 69.

Motion to reconsider was then laid on the table without division.

HANGED FOR MURDER.

San Francisco, April 26.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon Sassovich paid the penalty of the crime of murder for having taken the life of Edward Walter on Pacific street about a year ago. The Deputy Sheriff having finished the work of binding the legs and arms of the prisoner, the black cap was quickly drawn over his face, and, at precisely 10 minutes past one o'clock, at the words, "Jesus, Joseph and Mary, have mercy," the drop fell and Sassovich was launched into eternity. The fall was about 8 feet. The body remained perfectly motionless, with the exception of the swinging movement caused by the fall. A strong convulsive motion of the arms then commenced and, for nearly five minutes, the body showed signs of the most terrible death struggle; the shoulders shrugged convulsively, and every muscle of the body seemed to put forth its strength to free the grasp of death. Gradually the convulsions became less violent, and, finally, ceased entirely. The body was allowed to remain suspended until the physicians pronounced life extinct, when it was taken down and delivered to friends of Sassovich, who will attend to the burial. The windows in the cells of the other prisoners were closed during the execution to prevent their viewing it.

Judge Pratt, to-day, rendered judgment for Plaintiff in the suit of Henry Miller vs. Samuel Hannah et. al. for $27,260 36. The action was brought to foreclose a mortgage on certain property in San Mateo county.

James H. Berry and Geo. Cook have been committed to the Insane Asylum. Both have been in the Asylum before.

The charge of manslaughter against Robert Morrison for accidentally shooting Andrew Thistrip, was dismissed in the Police Court, to-day.

GOLD.

Gold, in New York, yesterday, was 129. Legal tenders have shaded a trifle. The brokers quote 78½ buying and 79½ selling prices. This has been rather a quiet steamer day, as regards financial and commercial matters. The transactions in bullion have been light at 840 @ 850 for gold bars. The rates of exchange have varied a trifle. Currency drafts on the Atlantic cities rule at 13½ per cent. premium. Telegraphic transactions are quoted at 107.

CALIFORNIA MARKET.

MERCER IN TROUBLE.

San Francisco, April 30.—J. W. Balch and Elizabeth Thorne have commenced attachment suits in the 4th District Court against A. S. Mercer for causes of action alleged as follows:

Balch complains that in January last he contracted with Mercer for the passage of himself and family, consisting of 6 persons in all, from New York to Seattle, Washington Territory, on the Continental, for which he paid Mercer $650. That at the time of entering into said contract, Mercer represented that the vessel would sail immediately; but on the contrary, she was detained several months, during which delay, plaintiff was under great expense and was compelled to pledge his baggage, with a boarding house keeper at Jersey City, and that Mercer promised to redeem for him. When the vessel was ready to sail, Mercer refused to receive plaintiff on board, and to act up to the terms of his contract, notwithstanding he received and retained the passage money. He now brings suit to recover $650, passage money paid Mercer, $500, expenses incurred from detention in New York, and $1140, damages; making in all $2,300.

Mrs. Thorne, in her complaint and affidavit, states that she contracted with Mercer for passage of herself and 2 children, for which she paid $400. But Mercer refused to receive them on board when the steamer sailed. Part of her baggage had been sent on board of the steamer and was taken away in the ship. She seeks to recover $400, passage money paid Mercer, $200 for value of her baggage which was lost, and $600, damages; in all, $1,200.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The statement that the Secretary of the Treasury will soon put a new loan in the market is untrue. The subject has been under advisement but no decision will be reached for several weeks.

Washington April 28.—The President has pardoned John I. Monroe, Mayor elect of New Orleans. The presence of nearly all the Senators and Representatives who support the President at the White House last evening excites remark. There seems to be a misapprehension about the tax bill in regard to oils; it is now stated as against the reduction on certain articles; the charges on rates of others will increase the aggregate product of internal revenue nearly sixty millions of dollars. It is estimated the cotton tax alone will reach thirty-three millions additional.

FRANCE AND MEXICO.

The diplomatic correspondence between France and the United States just published, treats of the negotiations, which immediately preceded, and led to the resolve of the French Government to withdraw its troops from Mexico. France desired in the first place to have her right to make war on Mexico recognized by the United States. This was readily granted. De L'Huys then early in January addressed Bigelow an informal note saying, "In Mexico we hope to obtain before long the guarantees which we have sought and which are to complete our arrangements with Maximilian. At that moment the mission of our troops will be accomplished and they can return to France, and I wrote in this sense to Mexico by order of the Emperor on the 10th of January." Bigelow had a conversation with De L'Huys of which he writes to Seward: "I asked M. D. L'Huys if he could give me an idea of the guarantees which he hoped to obtain from Mexico. He said they did not, of course expect to get the money owing them, but hoped for something which they might regard as an equivalent; that it was a matter of negotiation between them and Mexico, but he could not very well talk to me about these guarantees now, as they must depend on the result of the pending negotiations in Mexico, and were liable to be different from anything they might be able to suggest now." It thus appears that the French Government must have exacted from the Mexican Emperor certain guarantees for indemnity before yielding to the demand of our Government to withdraw the troops from Mexico. What these guarantees were the French Minister of State has failed to communicate to Seward in the despatches announcing the intention to withdraw the French in the course of two years. If they are as reported by European newspapers to continue in possession of Mexican seaports, the Mexican complication is obvious.

JAPAN.

Washington, April 28.—The President has officially proclaimed the contention between the Emperor of Japan and the Governments of the United States, Great Britain, France and Holland providing for the payment by Japan of $3,000,000, indemnity for damages to shipping and the stoppage of trade in the Straits of Simons by the hostile action of Prince Noguti. As the Ticoon could not prevent it, it is agreed that, in lieu of money, the Ticoon may open Simonosaki or other ports in the inland, whichever the above named Governments may accept.

CHILE AND SPAIN.

Chicago, April 28.—The Herald's special dispatch says it is asserted on good authority that the Spanish minister has proposed to accept the mediation of the United States in the Spanish difficulty with Chile.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Chicago, April 28.—The New York shipping list of the 27th says business continues comparatively dull and there is a general depression. Money is so very plenty as to be almost a drug in the market. Interest is low, since our last, while the price of gold has not essentially changed. The changes in the tariff are not known and there is no telling when they will be. Congress does not appear to appreciate the importance of finally settling this question, and has held the business community throughout the country for 4 or 5 months in ignorance. The Custom House receipts last week, were $25,355 37. The balance now in the sub-treasury is $975,913 44.—Dry goods are dull. The Providence printing cloth market is very dull, printers generally, as well as speculators decline to buy at present quotations, anticipating a further decline in exchange. The stocks on hand, are accumulating and will be rapidly increased after the first of May.—In hardware, there is a light stock and a fair assortment, prices steady.

Hides—California light, 30 @ 31½; middles, heavy at 31 @ 32.

Molasses have an upward tendency—Cuba Muscovado 60; St. Croix 73; Porto Rico 70 @ 75.

Sugar—Liberal receipts of West India, and on good Cuba a slight improvement has been realized. The Stewarts have reduced their figures to 15½ for best crushed, ground and granulated, and 14½ for white.

The latest stock quotations are as follows: quicksilver, Mariposa preferred, 22½; W. U. Telegraph 58; Atlantic Mail 128½; Quartz Hill 520; Consolidated Gregory 1620.

New York, April 28.—Stock quotations to-day are as follows: Mariposa 12½, preferred 24; Pacific Mail 125; W. U. Telegraph 55. The Evening Commercial says the market shows a slight reaction as to activity but the prices are nominally a fraction better, the market being sustained by general confidence in farther improvement. There are indications of a vigorous bull movement in some leading shares. Government stocks are less active; 5 20's ¼ @ ¼ lower; 7 30's ¼ @ ¼ better. Of the miscellaneous list, Mariposa preferred was more active, opening at 25 and closing at 24; W. U. Telegraph stock rose 1½. Money is plenty and prime paper is in demand, round sums being offered at ¼ @ ½ per cent. below the prevailing rate.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, May 1st.—No Eastern news to-day. Albert Kingsbury who was hurt by falling off a scaffolding at the Metropolitan theatre, died last evening. Judge Dwinelle sentenced Chung Wang to be hanged June 1st, for the murder of his mistress. The R. W. Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows is in session; attendance unusually large. In the suit of United States vs Roopmansep, known as the Patsed Rice case, the jury disagreed last evening and was discharged.

A TRIP TO PORT MADISON.

Mr. EORON.—On Friday last we stepped on board the tidy little sloop Maria, Capt. Cosgrove, alias Humboldt Jack, for a "pass-eh" over the Sound. We left Ye-ler's wharf with a fair wind, rather light, however, but which increased to a brisk breeze by the time we had passed Five Mile Rock. About this time our worthy commander, who, by-the-way, had, apparently, been deeply interested in the pages of a book in the cabin, now put forth his peepers to note passing events. With that knowing kind of look that always betokens the sailor on duty, he hurriedly emerged from below, and with orders to the mate to keep her up a little, down went the jib and up goes an extra sail—a sort of half-square sail, as mayhap some top-gallant stunsail, from some other craft, and the gallant little Maria "walks the waters like a thing of life."

Curling, seething, foaming, went the silver-crested billows by; springing, like a strong man in a race, went the gallant craft, while the gallant commander smiled with satisfaction, and we shook our sides with hearty laughter to see her travel on, and occasionally the salt water from our trouser-locks.

We would recommend our friends who may wish a pleasant trip to place themselves in the care of Capt. Jack some day when Old Boreas smiles propitiously and take a snuff of the invigorating breeze.

Arrived at Port Madison we sought to renovate the inner man by a visit to the Port Madison Hotel, where we found our old friend S. F. C. (Sam for short) doing the honors of "mine host" with a pleasant smile and plenty of good cheer for all hands.

As our visit to this place was for the purpose of seeing the mill and machinery which had been entirely rebuilt since our last visit some two years since, we were shown around the entire works including mill, work shops, foundry, wharves, etc., by the gentlemanly proprietor, G. A. Meigs Esq., who is ever on hand to do the agreeable to those who may call to inspect this colony of industry. With items and minutia we have no room in a short note like this but will state that we were informed that in the year 1865 this mill cut the enormous amount 18 millions of feet of lumber which was nearly all shipped to the San Francisco market.

A company of mechanics from San Francisco are building a large schooner at this place, which will be launched this week, a branch of business for which Puget Sound is eminently fitted and which we hope to see general in a few years.

Port Madison is certainly a thriving place, and as it is now connected with Seattle by a daily ferry with the brisk little steam-propeller "Lizzy Hinds," Capt. Robbins, the social and business relations of the two places will, no doubt, become closely interwoven.

We will close this short sketch by stating that we were very much pleased with a view of the cozy little nook, or home grounds holding the residence of the proprietor, Mr. Meigs, showing that the cares and turmoils of business life leave yet in the heart of this man a taste for rural beauty and simplicity which is truly praiseworthy. Although it is not, yet the joy and happiness are not all his; for it gladdens the eye and greets the sight of many a passer-by, and the heart gushes with joyous gladness and blesses the hand that so beautifully moulds these gifts of nature. MENTOR.

Saxe, the joker and poet, was once taking a trip on a steamer, when he fell in with a young lady, to whom he made himself very agreeable. Of course he made an impression on the damsel, who said, at parting, "Good bye, Mr. Saxe, but I fear you will soon be forgetting me." "Ah, miss," said the inveterate punster, "if I was not a married man already, you may be sure I be for getting you."

KLAMATH VALLEY.—Mr. Pengra, in his report of surveys of the Oregon Central Military Road, thus describes the scenery around Port Klamath: The valley in which this post is situated is a lovely one to look upon from the surrounding mountains. The scenery here presents a beauty and grandeur which may be dreamed of, but seldom seen in a lifetime. Along its western and northern sides the Cascade mountains, whose towering peaks bid defiance to the battling elements, present their hundred varied forms. On the east is a large ridge, heavily timbered with yellow pine, with a rocky wall at its base from one to three hundred feet in height. To the south is Klamath Lake, eighty miles broad and twenty-five or thirty long. Snow is seen in large fields on the mountain sides. Away to the south, in the dim distance, is the white form of Shasta Peak. A little nearer, and farther around to the west, is Mount Pitt. At the foot of the mountain ridges large springs of pure water burst forth, which form broad and deep rivers at their very heads. Here then are the "gushing stream," "placid lake," "gentle brook," "the deep river," "snows of winter," "summer's verdure," "high walls," "towering mountains," "green forests," and the "lovely vale," of which poets have sung and tourist become entranced, all seen at one view.

MAMMOTH SKELETON.—There are other wonderful and important developments made in mining, aside from the exhuming of metals from their recent hiding places. Recently on Meagher's Bar, opposite Nevada, says the Montana Post, the fossil remains of a race of human beings, which at some previous time had inhabited the country, were disinterred at a depth of about 18 feet from the surface. Judging from the parts of the skeleton found, the individual to whom they originally belonged could not have been less than from ten to twelve feet high. Remains of a quadruped were also found, indicating an animal twice the size of the Asiatic elephant. The remains were embedded in a close diluvial deposit and in what the configuration of the country shows was once the eddy of a river.

SENATOR SUMNER'S SPEECH.—The New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

The manuscript of Senator Sumner's recent speech on "Republican Government and its guarantees" has been presented to a well known Republican friend in this city. It covers 170 foolscap pages, and, with the possible exception of the famous speech on the "Barbarism of Slavery," is the most extensive "autograph" of the radical Massachusetts Senator that any one can boast of possessing. The manuscript is highly prized by its possessor, as being the basis of Sumner's most elaborate speech and so closely connected with the historic scenes through which the country is now passing.

THE VANCOUVER GOLD AND SILVER QUARTZ LEAD.

The Oregon Herald says: Mr. W. H. Farrar returned and amalgamated the product of 830 pounds of quartz from this lode on Saturday, and after being assayed by Wells, Fargo & Co., it was found to yield $23 50 to the ton. The product contains about one fourth silver. Mr. Farrar will test the rock from another lead in the vicinity to-morrow. The Vancouver lead, we are informed by Judge Lawrence, is very wide and extensive. The above assay was from the croppings. The gold assays at 19 carats.

RECENT accounts from Shanghai state that a Christian village north-west of Peking had been burned down, and that the Catholic bishop who resided there had been assassinated. On learning this melancholy intelligence, the representative of France addressed an energetic note to the Chinese Government, which promised that measures should be immediately taken to punish the authors of those crimes.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THURSDAY, May 3.

SAILING.—The telegraph announces that the steamer Anderson sailed from Victoria for Olympia and way ports at 5 o'clock this morning.

The weather has improved considerably in the past few days, though, we think, there is still abundance of room for further improvement.

We notice (without charging him anything for it,) that our friend J. B. Pray, on the corner, across the way, is making some improvements.

FRIDAY, May 4.

UNION CONVENTION.—In our issue of the 30th ult., we neglected to call attention to the call for a Union Convention to be held at Seattle on the 17th inst. The precinct meetings will be held on the 12th inst.

ASTRONOMICAL.—It may be a matter worthy of notice that there was no full moon during the month of February last. Such an occurrence, it is said, has not happened heretofore for many years.

We would call attention to the advertisement of Cheng Choong, Cigar Manufacturer, which can be found by referring to another column. Those wishing to purchase at wholesale would do well to give him a call, for his prices defy competition.

The weather has improved considerably since yesterday.

SATURDAY, May 5.

MISTAKE CORRECTED.—In our issue of April 25th, we stated that voters were required to pay their poll tax 30 days before the day of election. Upon further advisement and investigation we find we were mistaken in this, and that the payment of the poll tax at any time before the day of election is sufficient.

No TELEGRAPHIC.—The telegraph lines being out of repair, we have received no telegraphic dispatches since yesterday.

TELEGRAPHIC.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

New York, April 29.—The steamer Herman, from Hamburg, via Southampton, April 18, arrived at quarantine.

Consols closed at 86 1/2 @ 86 1/2 for money; 5-20's 68 1/2 @ 69 1/2. The cotton market is firmer. The Times' city article says that confidence is completely destroyed, and that the only chance for a turn in the market would be from the actual commencement of war on the Continent and change at once of the current of attention.

News from Germany is somewhat threatening. Vienna dispatches say that the state of affairs continues very serious. Minor States are preparing a declaration for the Federal Diet, and will refuse to take the Prussian motion for the reform of the Constitution before the Great German powers have demoralized Wurttemberg, Baden and Bavaria, and forbidden fortification and the importation of horses.

The Independent Belgium says the overtures being made will have more effect in settling questions of armaments than of war.

Volunteer corps will be formed at Peath.

Austria, Bavaria and Saxony have agreed to carry out the plans of the Constitution.

The rumors which were heard at Hamburg of Bismark's resignation are not credited.

The Cobourg Gazette states that Austria has reiterated her previous assertions about armaments, and insists on the demoralization of the Prussian troops in order to confirm the pacific declarations of Prussia.

The stowing away of the Atlantic Cable in tanks on board the Great Eastern is progressing. The laying of the cable will commence in July.

The Times says the more the franchise bill is discussed, even by its best friends, the more it loses of the body and solidity it had credit for.

An attempt was made to assassinate the Czar of Russia, but the bullet missed its aim.

Letters from Bordeaux notice the arrival of the English screw steamer Henrietta, said to be intended for Chilean service. She is commanded by Capt. Hunter Davidson, ex-rebel officer who served on the Merimac. The majority of the officers of the Henrietta have served in the Confederate navy. The vessel is being made ready for sea. Her presence caused much comment.

OUTRAGEOUS BURGLARY IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 30th.—Yesterday morning six burglars entered the residence of Cashier Harrison of the National Bank of Ohio, gagged the cashier, and made him deliver the keys to the bank and safe, effected an entrance, robbed the safe of $300,000 U. S. Bonds, and $50,000 deposits, locked the watchman inside, and escaped, after cutting the wires of the telegraph.

MERCER AGAIN.

San Francisco, May 2.—No further Eastern news to-day. A. S. Mercer of the Continental, has filed answers in suits of J. W. Bulch and Emily Thorp, denying each and every allegation of the complaints.

PRUSSIA AND AUSTRIA.

Washington, April 30.—State Department yesterday received positive advices to the effect that the difficulties between Prussia and Austria will find peaceful solution—report comes from highest authority in the French capital.

MEXICO.

New York, April 30.—The Commercial Advertiser's Washington dispatch says that the Austrian minister has advertised his furnished residence for sale, as he expects the next European steamer to bring news of the sailing of Austrian troops for Mexico, which will insure his receiving his passports from Seward.

SPAIN AND CHILE.

The Navy Department has received advices from Commodore Rodgers, commanding U. S. squadron in the harbor of Valparaiso, that he had placed his fleet between the Spanish vessels and the city, and in conjunction with the English Admiral notified the Spanish Commander that a bombardment would not be permitted. Rodgers believes he could sink the Spanish ironclads in half an hour with his monitor Monadnock. The American squadron in the harbor consists of the Monadnock, Powhatan, Vanderbilt, Tuscarora, Wateree and Suwanee—in all sixty guns. The English fleet is smaller.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.

New Haven, April 30.—The buildings of the New Haven Clock Co., seven in number, with eleven dwellings were burned. Loss $200,000.

Thorald, C. W., April 30.—A fire, yesterday afternoon, destroyed 33 buildings on Front and Clarmont streets. Loss, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

BURGLARS CAUGHT.

Wheeling, April 30.—The burglars who robbed the bank at Cadiz, Ohio, were overtaken near Le Grande this afternoon, and after a sharp skirmish, one was wounded, three captured, and one escaped. Over $15,000 was recovered.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Farther Point, N. Y., April 30.—The steamer Hibernia, from Liverpool, April 19th, via Queens-town, April 20th, passed for Quebec. Consols 86 1/2 to 87; 5-20's 70 to 70 1/2. Setterly's Mail Circular says large transactions in American securities for German account touched as low as 68 but closed on the 19th at 69 1/2.

German advices continue more reassuring and there was a growing belief in peace. An Imperial decree proroguing the French Corps Legislatif until the 1st of June, has been issued.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

San Francisco, May 3.—The steamer Constitution arrived at noon. In port of Panama, the ship of war St. Mary's. In port of Acapulco, the P. M. S. S. Co.'s steamer California and a French man-of-war. John McLane was killed at Panama, April 14th, by falling down the forward hold.—Patrick Brown, steerage passenger, died at sea, April 24th, of remittent fever. He was buried at sea, May 2d, at 6 p. m. passed an English barque, supposed to be the Kangaroo, bound for San Francisco. The U. S. steamer Florida, Commander Rolando, arrived at Aspinwall on April 9th, from Havana, to relieve the James Adger, Commander McDairmid, which vessel will sail for the United States. Great numbers of Americans were sick.

MEXICAN VICTORIES.

Official communications received here by Consul Godoy from the Constitutional Government at El Paso Del Norte, March 30, give the following accounts of several important victories gained by the Liberals in Northern Chihuahua and Coahuila. The City of Chihuahua was taken by the Liberal forces under command of Luis Terraza after two days' hard fighting—on the 25th and 26th of March. The Republicans made 300 prisoners. Among them is Teraitor Julis Carranca, who had been acting in the capacity of Mayor under the Imperial rule.

On the 22d March the city of Hidalgo del Parral was also attacked and taken by assault by the Liberal forces of Col. Vasquez. Thus the last remnant of the French and Imperial troops have been driven from Chihuahua, and the whole State restored to constitutional law.

In the State of Coahuila, at Santa Isabel, near Parra, Gen. Viczea and Col. Treviero defeated the French and Imperialists. The French left 118 dead on the field, and 80 prisoners. The Traitors 13 dead and 85 prisoners. The French had seven officers killed, among them is their Commander Bryant. The enemy's artillery, baggage and munitions of war all fell into the hands of the Liberals.

NEW PAPER IN SAN FRANCISCO.

The certificate of incorporation of the Times Publishing Company was filed in the County Court to-day. The object of the association is to publish a daily and weekly and steamer newspaper, to be called the Times, in this city, and carrying on other business connected therewith. Capital stock $150,000, divided into shares of $100 each. Trustees—O. F. Meador, James Down, O. L. Baker, Henry Carlton, Jr., J. Greenbaum, Lucius A. Booth, Jno. Barton, W. B. Bourne, Caleb S. Hobbs, J. H. Haste, James B. Stetson, and W. H. Barton. It is rumored that the paper is started for the purpose of espousing the side of Congress in opposition to the President's policy.

HORSE RACE—MARKETS.

Molasses—100 bbls from store, 37 1/2c cash—jobbing at 40c. FROM NEW YORK—RECONSTRUCTION.

New York, April 30.—East India Telegraph Co., of New York, has appointed Dr. D. J. McGowan to proceed to China as commissioner and engineer to connect Pekin with Canton. He will be accompanied by a staff of practical telegraphers.

The Tribune says of the Congressional plan of reconstruction: Our own preference for a much shorter and simpler plan is well known, but we may accept the report agreed on in committee, as the Union party's plan.

The Herald says the plan is ingeniously contrived. It is considerably milder than anything that has hitherto emanated from the committee. It may be said to be unnecessary in some things, superfluous in others, and unfair in its continued exclusion of the Southern States, after they have fulfilled all the conditions of the Administration, which is charged with discretionary power over the whole subjects; but we have only now to await the issue before Congress.

VICTORIA NEWS.

Victoria, April 30.—The first lot of Big Bend gold dust has reached town, and has been assayed at the Bank of British North America. It is worth $18 50 per ounce. The amount brought down is fifteen hundred and fifty-three dollars, and it is decidedly the finest yet obtained from British Columbia.

On the reading of the Bill in the Massachusetts House, for the sale of the yacht Whisper, a stout looking member from Berkshire quickly arose, much elated, asking the clerk to be so kind as to read that again. The clerk complied, in a clear voice. "Ah," said the member from Berkshire, with a sigh, "I understood you to say a bill for the sale of hot whisky, and was about to move the passage of the bill without debate."

Reports are received from Utah that the Mormons contemplate the abandonment of that Territory, and a wholesale emigration to the Sandwich Islands. It is said that Brigham Young has purchased, or secured the refusal, of two of the Sandwich Islands for future colonization by the Mormons. The motive for this is the growing popular and official opposition to the system of polygamy.

In Charleston, S. C., a few days ago, Judge Aldridge sentenced a white man convicted of robbery to receive thirteen lashes on the bare back, in accordance with the State law. General Bennett interceded and prevented the infliction of the punishment, declaring that it was against the spirit of the civilization that pervades society at the present day.

Boot black boy to returned soldier—"Black your boots, sir. Make 'em shine!" Looking at his unpolished "gunboats" in a contemplative way, the war worn veteran replied, "Well I don't care if you do—fall in promptly, though." A man named Jeremiah Ryan, residing within a few miles of Templemore, Ireland, died a short time since in his 116th year. The eldest son of the deceased is at present over ninety years old, a grandson closing seventy, a great grandson 46, and a great-great-grandson 19.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS CABINET.

Washington, May 1.—It is understood that in a Cabinet meeting, the President invited an expression of opinion from his Constitutional advisers, respecting the plan reported to Congress by the Reconstruction Committee. An interesting and animated discussion ensued.

Seward declared himself, in very decided and emphatic terms against the plan of the Committee and in favor of the immediate admission of loyal Representatives from the lately rebellious States.

McCulloch also spoke in opposition to the plan and expressed himself strongly in favor of the immediate consummation of the President's restoration policy.

Stanton was equally decided in his opposition to the Committee's report.

Welles was unequivocally against the scheme and earnest in his support of the President.

Harlan expressed no opinion.

Postmaster General Dennison was in favor of the President's policy, but expressed doubts as to the precise terms on which loyal Representatives from the South should be admitted to seats in Congress.

Attorney General Speed was not present.

The President was earnest in his opposition to the report of the Committee, and expressed himself against all conditions precedent to the admission of loyal Representatives from the Southern States, such as amendments to the Constitution or Congressional legislation. He remarked in general terms, that if organic law be changed at all, it should be done at a time when all the States shall participate as one nation.

New York, May 2.—The Post's special dispatch says, it is known that the report of the Cabinet meeting, yesterday, was furnished by a prominent member of the Cabinet.

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.
John Ross, a stock speculator in Exchange Place, has been arrested for forgery. He had purchased $50,000 in gold from Black & Spalding, and $50,000 from Jo. Croing, paying them forged securities. He is said, also, to have forged the name of A. Speer on two checks on Union Bank for $64,000 each, and perpetrated other forgeries for amounts not stated.
