The Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions.

2. If subscribers order their papers discontinued without paying up, publishers may continue them until all arrears are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office or place to which they are sent, they are responsible until they settle their bills and give notice to discontinue them.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take a paper or periodical from the office, or removing and leaving it uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

THE VERY LATEST, By Telegraph

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY.)

New York, June 16.—The steamship City of Paris brings dates to the 7th.

It is fully confirmed that the proposed Peace Conference is abandoned owing to the demands of Austria, which were regarded by England, France and Prussia as tantamount to a refusal; it therefore was broken off.

The London Times says that daily and hourly the chances of peace fade away. It believes the first movement will be made in the Elbe Duchies; but the great move of Austria will be nearer the boundaries of Silesia.

The Prussian Government had issued a circular note to the neutral powers charging Austria with flagrant breach of treaties by referring the Holstein question to the Diet.

The latest dispatches from London quote consols at 85@85½.

Agra & Mesterman's Bank had suspended, with liabilities heavy and wide spread. The event caused considerable commercial depression, though it was not unexpected.

The crisis on the Continent continues, and war is apparently inevitable.

The Paris Bourse is very flat—62½.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

San Francisco, June 16.—The steamer America which connected with the steamer Santiago, from New York, May 20th, arrived this morning.

General Sherman's agent yesterday refused $2,000 per foot for 42 feet of ground at the corner of Clay and Montgomery streets.

The mother of Thomas Starr King died in Charlestown, Mass., on the 19th of May. She had been in infirm health for some time.

The rates of fare to New York by the Constitution which sails for Panama on Monday, are: 1st cabin, outside berths, $225; inside rooms, $181 50; cabin $116; steerage $65 50.

Fears are entertained for the safety of the Bremen barque Libelle, which sailed hence for Hong Kong, Jan. 19th.

The market for domestic produce is dull and prices of grains are drooping.

Local monetary affairs are without essential change. Capital is abundant and banks continue to grant accommodation to merchants and business men freely at the rates long current, 171½ per cent. The receipts of bullion continue free.

There are rumors of extreme gold prices in New York yesterday, some accounts stating that sales were made as high as 159, but this lacks confirmation, authentic dispatches quoting at 150½ 148, closing at inside prices.

SHIPPING.

Arrived—June 16th, barque Glimpse, 12 days from Port Discovery, with lumber to S. L. Mastick & Co.; Hamburg barque Joachim, Christian, 197 days from Liverpool; Prussian brig Mathelde, Jacobson, 190 days from Hamburg via Callao, 37 days.

Sailed—June 15th, brig Orient for Puget Sound—June 16th, ship Star of the Union, for McKans Island; barque Milan, for Puget Sound.

THE ELECTION IN KING.—The following majorities were received by the Union candidates at the recent election in King county: For Councilman, C. J. Noyes 35; for Representatives, Christian Clymer 37, and J. J. McGilvra 36; for Commissioner, Lewis McMullen 37; for Auditor, Gardner Kellogg 77; for Probate Judge, Thomas Mercer 42; for School Superintendent, Edmund Carr 38; for Coroner, Dr. J. Settle (no opposition) 143; for Surveyor, Edmund Richardson (no opposition) 144.

In Admiralty.

Territory of Washington, } ss. Third Judicial District, } County of Jefferson, }

In the District Court of the United States, for the Third Judicial District, holding terms at Port Townsend.

The President of the United States of America to the Marshal of the Territory of Washington, Greeting:

WHEREAS, a libel has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the Third Judicial District, holding terms at Port Townsend, on the 20th day of April, 1866, by William Delany, Frank Perkins, Thomas Snow, Samuel Smart, Charles J. Hart, Eliza B. Wright, Harris Garcelon, Charles Roberts, Angus Beaton, William Turner, Thomas Griffin, Thomas J. Davis, Cornelius G. Perkins, George Nicholson and James Kennedy, against a vessel or steamer called, or intended to be called, the Transport, her machinery, tackle, boilers, apparel and furniture, for the reasons and causes in said libel mentioned, and praying the usual process and motion of the said Court in that behalf to be made, and that all persons claiming, or having any right, title or interest in the said steamer, or vessel, her machinery, tackle, apparel, furniture and appurtenances, may be cited to answer the premises, and all proceedings being had, the said steamer or vessel, her machinery, tackle, &c., may, for the causes in said libel mentioned, be condemned and sold to pay the demands of the libellants.

You are hereby commanded. To attach the said ship or vessel, her machinery, tackle, apparel, appurtenances, boilers and furniture, and to detain the same in your custody, until the further order of the Court respecting the same, and to give due notice to all persons claiming the same, or knowing or having anything to say why the same should not be condemned and sold, pursuant to the prayer of said libel; That they be and appear before the said Court, to be held in and for the said District, at Port Townsend, on the 19th day of June, 1866, at ten o'clock, in the forenoon of the same day, if that be a day of jurisdiction, otherwise on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter, then and there to interpose a claim for the same, and to make their allegations in that behalf. And have you then and there this writ with your return thereon. Witness the Honorable the Judge of said Court, this 20th day of April, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six.

Attest my hand with the seal of said Court affixed the date above named.

[Seal] JAMES KEAVEY, Clerk Dist. Court, U. S., for the 3d Judicial Dist., holding terms at Port Townsend. PAUL K. HUBBS, Proctor for Libellants. Aggregate claims $6,787 75. [U. S. Stamp, 50 cents, on Libel.]

Territory of Washington, } ss. County of Jefferson, }

By virtue of the writ of which the above is a correct copy, I have attached and hold in my custody, subject to the further order of the Court, the steamer called, or intended to be called, the Transport, her hull, boilers, machinery, tackle, apparel and furniture, being unladen, and lying upon the shore of Port Ludlow Bay, in the Third Judicial District, and one boat, appurtenant to said steamer, on the waters of said bay; and hereby publish the foregoing motion, as commanded by said writ, this 28th day of May, 1866.

WM. HUNTINGTON, Marshal of the Territory of Washington, By L. V. WYCKOFF, His Deputy. 11:2w

Divorce Notice.

Territory of Washington, } ss. County of King, }

In the District Court of the Third Judicial District, holding terms at Seattle.

To Walter H. Thayer: You are hereby notified that Eleanor Thayer has filed a complaint against you in said Court, which will come on to be heard at the first term of the Court, which shall commence more than two months after the 20th day of April, 1866; and unless you appear at said term and answer the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof granted.

The object and prayer of said complaint is to obtain a decree of divorce from you, and the care and custody of the minor child.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY.]

EXCITING FENIAN NEWS.

San Francisco, June 13.—The Eastern line is working, but we have received no news. The following report is from private dispatches published this evening:

New York, June 9.—To Mr. Hawill:—We mean fight now; send us every dollar you can; don't believe the lying reports of the newspapers.

W. B. ROBERTS,
President F. B.

New York, June 9.—John Hawill:—We have just received the following:

Pigeon Hill, C. E., June 9.—We are in the enemy's country, and the Green Flag waves defiantly. We have captured Pigeon Hill, stormed Centre Slab [?] City, taken British colors, and are ready to advance again. Hurry up the ammunition. Victory or death. The growlers and cowards have gone to the rear—they will talk about our position, but don't mind them; tried men of nerve are at the front. Signed E. L. CARRY.

New York, June 9th.—To Jno. Hamill: God bless your noble efforts in our glorious cause. Our troops are doing their work, and notwithstanding few arrests everything goes well. Give accompanying telegraph dispatches to the San Francisco papers:—There is no such word as fail; all are determined to sacrifice their lives till the work of Ireland's redemption is accomplished.

Signed, EDWARD L. CARRY.
MISCELLANEOUS.

Private dispatches state that opposition steamship Santiago, with passengers which left here on the 15th of May arrived at New York on the 7th.

Negotiations are said to be going on in London to obtain a subsidy from the English government for a line of steamers between San Francisco and China. Should the arrangement be completed Hong Kong will be made the port of arrival and departure in China. San Francisco is probably the only place of commercial importance carrying on a distinct export and import trade that the English Government has not subsidized steamship lines for, and though direct mail communication with London by the east might have been looked for, it would be strange should the first English mail boat come from the west. Not very long after we have seen China steamships in regular action, we shall in all probability have either a Royal Mail to the West Indies, or a West India and Pacific company's vessels running between San Francisco and Panama. If our merchants think it would be any gain to them to have a semi-monthly English line, they have only to bestir themselves. The argument that in conjunction with China it would put a girdle of mail communication around the world be irresistible even to the most parsimonious members of the English House of Commons. Steam communication between Australia and England via Panama is about to be inaugurated; the first mail steamer from the colonies to Panama will be dispatched in about a month. This will afford us regular monthly mail facilities with Australia.

Sterling exchange was higher, though the demand was not active. Gold on the 9th, 139 3-8.

FROM THE EAST.

New York, June 9th.—Steamer New York from Aspinwall brings California mails of May 19th. The news from the South Pacific is uninteresting.

Total specie exported from this port since January 1st $37,657,174. Total exports exclusive of specie, 78,154,453. Total value of imports, dry goods and general merchandise, 146,638,721.

FURTHER FROM THE FENIANS.

Ottawa, June 9th.—Canadian Parliament unanimously passed the bill suspending the Habeas Corpus. A court martial will be immediately convened to try Fenians; it is believed many will be hung.

Chicago June 10th.—Reports from all points represent the Fenian excitement subsiding. Many parties are being disbanded, and sent home on parole from St. Albans, Malone and Ogdensburg, or wherever else they have assembled. Gen. Spears' invading column returned from Franklin and St. Albans yesterday from Pigeon Hill, totally disappointed. Gen. Meade visited Malone yesterday and arrived at St. Albans last evening. He feels confident that all trouble is over.

FROM EUROPE.

Latest European advices say the bombardment of Valparaiso was generally denounced. Petitions were circulating among merchants who suffered by the bombardment, praying the French government to hold Spain responsible for losses, and that an international commission be appointed to settle the claims. The French Trans-Atlantic Steam Navigation Company demands £20,000 indemnity from Austria for breach of contract for shipment of volunteers to Mexico.

Farther Point, June 10.—The Hibernian brings European dates to June 1.

Consols closed at 87 1/2 @ 87 3/4; five-twenties, 66 1/2 @ 66 3/4. Financial affairs continued to exhibit steady progress in recovery and gradual return of confidence.

The pressure for discount at the bank was diminishing, although still very large; rate remained at ten per cent. Invitations to the Congress are all accepted, and it will meet in Paris shortly.

Prussia, Austria and Italy are still arming. The Italian volunteers are mobilizing rapidly. Austria has mobilized six hundred thousand men. Prussia and Italy have postponed hostilities until Congress proves a failure.

Orders for a second conscription at Vienna produced strong discontent.

The Austrian army commenced marching towards Venetia on the 24th of May.

Austria categorically refuses all propositions relative to cession.

Venetia calls for a conversation of the Duchies to settle the Scheselwig Holstein question, and demands that Congress shall not be competent to discuss any project for the reform of the Federal Constitution. Prussia is also said to regard that conference shall not discuss questions relating exclusively to the internal interests of Germany; that its deliberations shall speedily prove that some real prospect exists for the preservation of peace.

The note of the French Government, inviting the Federal Diet to send a representative of the German States, says the object of the conference is to be a diplomatic settlement of the question of Scheselwig and Venetia; also, of Federal reform so far as effects European equilibrium. The Federal Diet resolved to accept the invitation.

The Austrian Government had ordered a forced loan of twelve millions of florins in Lombardy and Venetia.

Communication received in London asserts that Garibaldi was still on the Island of Caprea, and had no immediate intention of leaving.

Turkey will not occupy Danubian principalities in consequence of the Russian and French declaration against Turkish intervention.

Liverpool, June 1.—The day for meeting of the Conference has not been fixed; the press believes that Napoleon will preside.

MORE FENIAN NEWS.

Chicago, June 11.—The Fenian leaders are very much dispirited at the interference of the Government and the consequent failure of their scheme and bitterly denounce the Administration for bad faith, alleging that it should find more than half a million dollars worth of arms, knowing the use to be made of them; that the Fenians were every way encouraged to make the attempt which the Government has suppressed.

Meade estimates that, in all, he has had reports of the seizure of forty thousand stands of arms bound for the invading army.—This confirms what has already been said of the magnitude of the campaign as planned and the probabilities are that, but for the United States Government, they would have made their invasion a serious matter.

CONGRESS ON THE FENIAN QUESTION.

Washington, June 11.—The House spent the whole morning on the Fenian question.

Iucona offered a resolution censuring England for her course during the late war; thanking Irishmen for their services in the Union army; expressing sympathy in their efforts to free Ireland; and directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to report a bill repealing the neutrality law of 1818, under which the President's proclamation was issued.

Schenk offered a resolution, requesting the President to grant the Fenians the same rights that England granted to the rebels.

Harding of Illinois, offered a resolution expressing sympathy with the Irish and recommending the Government to give them all the privileges possible under the law.

The proceedings were noisy, and decidedly favorable to the Fenians. The whole subject was finally referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

JEFF DAVIS.

Washington, June 12.—In the House, Rosseau offered a resolution that whereas, it is a notorious fact that Jeff Davis was the leader of the late rebellion and is guilty of treason under the laws of the United States; and whereas, by proclamation in May, 1865, the President said that Davis was charged with complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, said proclamation not having been revoked, therefore, resolved as the opinion of the House of Representatives, that Davis should be held in custody as a prisoner, and subjected to trial according to law. Adopted, 105 against 49.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, June 14.—Late Sydney papers mention the death of Jed Wilson, the bank master of Wilson's circus, well known throughout this coast.

Telegrams of the 13th, quote an advance in gold to 146. Sterling exchange remained without decided change, ruling at 109 @ 109 1/2 for 60 days, and 111 for sight bills.

San Francisco, June 15.—The eastern line is out of order beyond Fort Kearney and there are no news.

The report is received that the opposition steamer Moses Taylor sailed for San Juan Del Sur this morning.

The examination of John Duane, charged with complicity in the shooting of Ross, was resumed yesterday afternoon. A large number testified to the shooting by Charles and to John's being present at the time. Another witness testified that he heard John say to Charley just before the shooting: "Kill the son of a b—." H—, another witness, testified that he had playfully searched Ross about an hour before the shooting and found him unarmed and that Ross stated that he never carried weapons. One of the parties opposed to Duane in the land dispute, testified that when Mr. Dick was searched for weapons during the squatter trial, John Duane said, "Search Ross, he carries concealed weapons. D—n him to h—l, he'll get killed."

The telegraph gives the price of Gold yesterday, 14th, at 147 1/2.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

Arrived—June 14th, barque Emily Banning, Wells, 11 days from Bellingham Bay.

Sailed—June 14th, Hawaiian barque Bernico, for Houolua; brig Sunny South, for Kanagewa and Shanghai.

EUROPEAN.

The Scotia brings dates via Queenstown to May 30th. Consols closed on Saturday evening at 85 1/2 @ 85 3/4, ex-dividend; 5-20's were 64 1/2. Cotton was firmer and buoyant, with an advance.

Clippings.

The "great" coal discovery at Sooke turns out to be, as we from the first feared, a roorback. Coal was discovered there, it is true, but it was only a stray lump that must have fallen over some steamer or schooner's side during the gold excitement in that locality in '64. Capt. Nagle, with several other gentlemen, after camping on the spot ten days, returned to town yesterday, completely disgusted with the result of the expedition.—Colonist.

EXCLUSIVE.—A family of nine persons resided on a farm in Derry, N. H., for a period of 53 years, during which time there was neither a birth, death or marriage in the family. Neither did they during that time put a letter in the post office, take one out, or take a newspaper.

A new material for soling shoes has made its appearance. It is a substance of which India rubber is the basis, but it is heavier, and while as soft as iron, is flexible and elastic. It is said that one pair of shoes soled with this article, will outwear four pairs soled with the best English leather.

ONE of the Government Revenue Detectives seriously informs the Commissioner of Customs that the Canada smugglers have laid pipes across the St. Lawrence river and are engaged in pumping whisky from Canada to the United States. He says he is engaged in searching for the spout.

ONE of the best illustrations of avarice we ever heard of, is that contained in a caricature, which represents old Nick carrying a Dutchman down to his regions, and while on the way, the Hollander is making propositions to his majesty to supply him with coal.

CHEAP BOARD.—In a facetious article on Congressional proceedings, in a Pittsburg paper, one member is reported to have said in his speech, "It so happened that when our fathers formed this Government, board was only two dollars and a half a week, and in many instances this sum included washing."

Frequently ask yourself what you have done, why you have done it, and how you have done it. This will teach you to inspect first, your actions; second, your motive; and third, the manner in which you discharge your duty.

A letter written from New York to a paper in the South, asserts that there is in Wall street a Southern minister who can "out preach" any three of the ablest divines in the city, engaged in the gold and general brokerage business, and making a great fortune.

Lately a family at South Bend, Ia., was terribly frightened by hearing mysterious sounds from the piano in the parlor. Upon investigation the sounds were found to be produced by one tom cat, who was walking deliberately back and forth on the keys.

Foreign journals announce the death of the fattest man in the world. He was a German, named Herr Helon, and followed the profession of translator for booksellers and merchants. He was 42 years of age and weighed 500 pounds.

CONUNDRUM.—Why are country girl's cheeks like a good print dress? Because they are warranted to wash and retain their color.

HEALTHY.—Philo Chase of Connecticut, died lately, aged 75 years. For the last 25 years his daily diet had been 3 pints of milk and 1 pint of whiskey.—

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

From the DAILY of Tuesday, 12.
No TELEGRAPHIC. — The wires are out of repair on the Columbia river, caused by high water. We are therefore without later dispatches.

An important negotiation, it is reported, has taken place, embracing a sale of the entire property of the Bellingham Bay Coal Company in this Territory, and the Black Diamond Coal Company of Mount Diablo, Cal. The purchasers consist of a number of San Francisco capitalists.

NEW STEAMER.—Captain Crosby has purchased, we are informed, at San Francisco the steamer Josie McNear, which will be used as a mail boat on the Sound and will arrive here in a few days.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to our friend, Mr. Schmieg, of the North Pacific Brewery, for a keg of number one cream ale which is undoubtedly the finest we have tasted in a long time. We would advise those wishing a fine article of this kind, to give Mr. Schmieg a call, and in addition to getting a first rate article, they will find him to be a gentleman in every respect. Our Brown is in favor of the North Pacific Brewery, and, judging by the frequency of his visits to the ale keg, we judge he is in favor of the ale also. Brown is not ungrateful, and every drink he takes, he says, "Here's luck and long life to Mr. Schmieg of the North Pacific Brewery," which are our sentiments exactly.

MR. FARNSWORTH, of Vancouver, arrived here yesterday by the steamer Anderson. He will proceed to explore the Snoqualmie and Natches passes immediately.

From the DAILY of Wednesday, 13.
ARRIVED.—The steamer Resolute arrived here yesterday from Port Madison, via Freeport.

SAILED.—The barque Charles Devans, Capt. Reynolds, sailed yesterday for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber, from Port Madison.

THE ELECTION IN OREGON.—The election in Oregon is reported to have gone Union by about five hundred majority. Some parts of the State are yet to be heard from, but it is thought that that is about the result.

THE Pacific Tribune records as a rare occurrence, the fact that three steamers were lying at the wharves of Olympia, recently, at the same time.

SAILED.—Steamer Resolute, Capt. Guindon, for Port Madison.

From the DAILY of Thursday, 14.
We observe that our fellow townsman, Mr. S. B. Hinds, is extending and otherwise materially improving his wharf.

THE SNOQUALMIE EXPLORING EXPEDITION.—The Snoqualmie exploring expedition, consisting of Hon. Levi Farnsworth of Vancouver, the Commissioner appointed by the Legislature, Hon. John Denny and Mr. W. W. Perkins, left Seattle yesterday morning. They will proceed on horseback as far as possible, and then, sending the horses back, take it afoot.

ARRIVED.—Steamer Resolute, Capt. Guindon, arrived here yesterday.

SAILED.—Steamer Resolute, Capt. Guindon, for Port Madison, yesterday afternoon.

SAILED.—The steamer Anderson sailed this morning at 5 o'clock for Olympia and way ports.

WHAT ALL MUST EXPECT.—Manhood will come, and old age will come, and the dying bed will come, and the very last look you shall cast on your acquaintances will come, and the agony of the parting breath will come, and the time when you are stretched a lifeless corpse before the eyes of weeping relatives will come, and the coffin that is to enclose you will come, and that hour when the company assemble to carry you to the churchyard will come, and the throwing in of the loose earth into the narrow house where you are laid, and the spreading of the green sod over it—all, all will come on every living creature who now hears me; and in a few little years the minister who now speaks, and the people who now listen, will be carried to their long homes, and make room for another generation. Now, all this, you know, must and will happen—your common sense and common experience serve to convince you of it.

Perhaps it may have been little thought of in the days of careless, and thoughtless, and thankless unconcern which you have spent hitherto; but I call upon you to think of it now, to lay it seriously to heart, and no longer to trifle and delay when the high matters of death and judgment, and eternity are thus set so evidently before you. And the tidings wherewith I am charged—and the blood lieth upon your own head, and not on mine, if you will not listen to them—the object of my coming among you is to let you know what more things are to come—it is to carry you beyond the regions of sight and sense, to the regions of faith, and to assure you, in the name of Him who cannot lie, that as sure as the hour of laying the body in the grave comes, so sure will also come the hour of the spirit returning to the God who gave it. Yes, and the day of final reckoning will come, and the appearance of the Son of God in heaven, and his mighty angels around him, will come, and the opening of the books will come, and the standing of men of all generations before the judgment-seat will come, and the passing of the solemn sentence which fixes you to eternity will come.—Dr. Chambers.

The following amendment, offered by Mr. Nesmith, of Oregon, a few weeks since, to the Army Bill, was agreed to by the Senate:

That all officers who have served during the rebellion as volunteers in the armies of the United States, and who have been, or who hereafter may be, honorably mustered out of the volunteer service, shall be entitled to bear the official title, and upon occasions of ceremony to wear the uniform of the highest grade they have held by brevet or other commission in the volunteer service; in the case of officers of the regular army, the volunteer rank shall be entered upon the Army Register; provided, that these privileges shall not entitle any officer to command, pay, or emoluments.

The Sonoma County Bank, with a capital of $100,000, and to be located at Petaluma, was incorporated last week.

TELEGRAPHIC.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY.]

FURTHER IN REGARD TO THE INVASION OF CANADA BY THE FENIANS.

Chicago, June 10.—Reports being detained by the line's being down, the following is a summary of the news of the 6th, 7th and 8th:

The Fenian excitement raged ferociously until President Johnson issued a proclamation, directing General Meade to employ the forces and militia to arrest the Fenian conspirators and prevent their unlawful proceedings. The Frontier was made into three military districts under Gen. Barry, head quarters at Buffalo, Colonel Hodges, head quarters at Ogdensburg, and Major Augusta A. Gibson, head quarters at St. Albans. The Fenian Council of War decided upon advancing immediately in two columns, from Malone, N. Y., and from Franklin, Vt. A large seizure of Fenian arms was made in Northern New York and Vermont during the 6th. Sweeney was arrested at St. Albans the same night. Notwithstanding this and other obstructions, the Franklin column moved early under command of General Spear, formerly Colonel of the 11th Pennsylvania cavalry, and numbering 1,000 men tolerably well armed, and established themselves on Pigeon Hill, four miles north of St. Albans, that night to await reinforcements and collect supplies. The latter movement was prevented by the arrest of Gen. Murphy on the 5th. The men after rioting somewhat during the day at Malone, were finally quelled into subjection. The reports to last evening say that Spear's invasion was a failure. No reinforcements arrived. The men came straggling back, transportation being furnished from St. Albans.

William R. Roberts, the Fenian President, issued a proclamation on the 6th counseling the brotherhood to renewed efforts. He was arrested by the U. S. Marshal on the 7th and arraigned before Commissioner Betts where he assumed a defiant attitude, refusing to accept bail if coupled with parole. Roberts was then remanded to custody and the hotels refusing to entertain him while under arrest, fearing attempts to rescue him, he was lodged in Eldridge street jail. Numerous other leading Fenians were arrested on the 7th.

At Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, and St. Louis the furor of war was turned into indignation and despondency. Great indignation meetings were held, denouncing President Johnson for playing false with the Fenians.

Col. O'Neil's other leaders in the Fenian expedition were arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner of Buffalo on the 7th and gave bonds to appear for trial before the U. S. Commissioner at Canandaigua on the 19th—(Here the line failed.)

Chicago, June 10.—The Fenian

failures are made more complete from the fact that nowhere in Canada has there been the least show of sympathy where riots and uprisings existed.

The Canadian parliament assembled. The Governor's speech recommended a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. The Fenian prisoners held by Canadian Government, have not yet been arraigned for trial.

JEFF DAVIS.

Chicago, June 9.—The U. S. District Court met at Richmond on Tuesday, and on Wednesday the case of Jeff Davis was postponed until the first Thursday in October, to which day this Court adjourned. No motion was made, as expected, to release Davis, the District Attorney saying that Davis was not in the custody of this Court.

MAIL CONTRACT.

The contract for daily service from Virginia City, Nevada, via Humboldt to Boise City for four years from the first of September, has been given to Jesse D. Carr, formerly of Monterey, Cal.

CALIFORNIA NEWS.

San Francisco, June 11.—S. S. Rawson, for many years a resident of this city, was found dead in his room yesterday. He was found lying on the floor with his clothes on. It is supposed that he died suddenly the night previous of hemorrhage of the lungs.—Mr. Rawson was a native of Maine, was sixty years old, a lawyer by profession, and has been located here several years past, principally as a searcher of records.

In the absence of late gold quotations from the east, legal tenders are inactive. Brokers quote 72 buying and 73 selling.

Commercial affairs are extremely dull. All parties are awaiting to hear telegraphic advices.

San Francisco, June 12.—The steamship Constitution arrived from Panama this afternoon with passengers and mails from New York the 21st.

The new stern wheel steamer, called the Reform, was launched last evening from North Yard.—She is to run on the Sacramento river and its tributaries.

Since the injunction against the United States Pacific Telegraph Company, their offices have been closed and all their business stopped. It is now generally understood that the two lines will consolidate and the whole telegraphing business across the plains and on this coast be under the control of the Western Union Telegraph Company which owns nearly all the telegraphic lines in the United States. The new line will be continued across the plains in any event, and will probably be in operation to Salt Lake in August. The contract has been given out and the work is progressing on that portion of the line between Salt Lake and Denver. The old line now in use will soon undergo a complete overhauling east of Salt Lake where most of the breaks have occurred. Before the advent of the new year, we shall have two lines of telegraphs across the Continent.

The latest authentic gold quotations is New York, June 6th.—Legal tenders are 72 1/2 and 73.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

Arrived—June 10th, barque Cambridge, 19 days from Honolulu; barque Leonora, 18 days from Port Blakely; brig Deacon, 12 days from Port Ludlow; barque Anna, 90 days from Melbourne; ship Asa Eldridge, 134 days from Boston; barque Geo. Washington, 14 days from Freeport; Adelaide Cooper, 13 days from Port Ludlow; Florence, 12 days from Seabeck; brig Derwent, 125 days from Sidney; ship Lookout, 131 days from New York; barque Constance, 84 days from Auckland.

THE FOOL AND HIS MONEY.—The lucky miner hastens down to Victoria or San Francisco and sows his gold broadcast. No luxury is too costly for him, no extravagance too great for the magnitude of his ideas. His love of display leads him into a thousand follies, and he proclaims his disregard of money by a thousand eccentricities. One man, who at the end of the season found himself possessed of thirty or forty thousand dollars, having filled his pockets with twenty dollar gold pieces, on his arrival at Victoria, proceeded to a bar-room and treated "the crowd" to champagne.

The company present being unable to consume all the bar-keeper's stock, assistance was obtained without, and the passer-by compelled to come in. Still the supply held out, and not another drink could any one swallow. In this emergency the ingenious giver of the treat ordered every glass belonging to the establishment to be brought out and filled. Then, raising his stick, with one fell swoop he knocked the army of glasses off the counter. One hamper of champagne, however, yet remained, and, determined not to be beaten, he ordered it to be opened and placed upon the floor, and jumping in, stamped the bottles to pieces with his heavy boots, severely cutting his shins, it is said, in the operation. But although the champagne was at last finished, he had a handful of gold pieces to dispose of, and walking up to a large mirror, worth several hundred dollars, which adorned one end of the room, dashed a heavy shower of coins against it and shivered it to pieces. The hero of this story returned to the mines in the following spring without a cent, and was working as a common laborer at the time of our visit. A freak of one of the most successful Californians may be appended as a companion of the story just related. When in the height of his glory he was in the habit of substituting champagne bottles—full ones, too—for wooden pins in the bowling alley, smashing batch after batch with infinite satisfaction to himself, amid the applause of his companions and the "bar-keeper."

TRICHINIA.—The name of this disease in pork, or rather the worm which is the disease, has been known to the Chinese for centuries. Ap Poy, a learned Confucian, who resides in San Francisco, informs the correspondent of the Stockton Herald that every Chinese meat dealer is familiar with the various poisonous diseases of pork, which so astonishes Europe and America. He said "Trichinia is the combination of the spotted yellow fever, the black spot fever and the worm fever; hence its name, three diseases in one. The pork raised in China upon high ground is subject to the yellow spotted fever. The hot murky grounds produce the black spotted fever, and the worm was originally produced by the putrid human remains which float along the banks of the many rivers in China." Hogs, in huge droves have all been inoculated from one, with other disease. In fact, when attacked the disease is contagious. Any person eating of any kind of diseased hog meat is as surely attacked with the disease the hog was poisoned with as they eat the meat. He—Ap Poy—contended the spotted fevers prevalent among the people of Europe, were nothing more nor less than the hog disease. He quoted many cases in Asia, Europe, South America, Mexico, North America, and throughout the numerous islands, where, of a sudden, these various diseases have broken out. He further said that a composition of arsenic and lead was used to cure the spotted fevers in men and hogs. Verdigris was used to cure trichina, and in his district the doctors never failed to cure. Here is something for our medical men to practice upon. Were this brought to the knowledge of any European Medical Society, how the world would ring with the discovery.

YELLOW STONE FLEET.—Mr. Ben. Cardwell, a gentleman in this city who contracted for passage in the fleet of Mackinaw boats which were advertised to sail from a certain point on the Yellowstone river, for Omaha, on the 29th of last month, returned home on Monday, and reports that the passengers upon arriving at the Yellowstone, where the Mackinaw fleet was advertised to sail from, found one miserable flat boat, without awning or anything else to protect them from the storms of that inclement season, and into this miserable hulk it was proposed to stow thirty-four passengers, among whom were two women and seven children, for a voyage of hundreds of miles. A party consisting of six passengers by some means procured a boat, and proceeded on their way down the river, leaving their companions to rig up the flat boat above mentioned and follow as soon as practicable. The party after proceeding some distance down the river, were attacked by a band of Indians and one of their number killed; their boat having run upon a sand bar they were forced to quit it, and make their escape on foot back to their comrades, living for four days on roots and prickly pears, and finally succeeded in getting back to their friends who were endeavoring to navigate the Yellowstone in their wretched flat boat. Having communicated the intelligence of the Indian attack on the voyagers of the other boat, the whole party turned back and are now on their way to Virginia City.—Mon. Dem. Apr. 21.

SELF MURDER.—A suicide of an extremely ghastly character has been committed in London, C. W., Chas. Vallance, a man fifty years of age, having almost severed his head from his body by means of rather an ingeniously contrived guillotine. The deceased was found on Monday morning lying on his back on a form, his head being nearly cut off by an ax, the handle of which was screwed to a bed-post so that it might be held firm. The bed was drawn close up to a cupboard, on the top of which a roller had been placed, and to the end of a rope some four feet long the deceased had tied a large stone weighing about ninety pounds. Having drawn up the stone to the top of the door, so as to give it a fall of four feet, he had arranged matters so that the stone was placed exactly over the head of the ax. The deceased must have laid down on the form, placed his neck under the head of the ax, and cut the rope by which the stone was suspended with a razor.

A SAD DEATH.—An elderly man by the name of Hamlin, who came to Oregon in 1848, had the misfortune sometime since to be afflicted with epilepsy. Having a spasm he fell into the fire and lost an arm and an eye. After this accident his nervous irritation became so great that he was taken to the hospital, that he might have the care and attention which his friends were unable to give him. Leaving the hospital on the 6th inst., he started to Mill-shore to visit friends. On the road he had a spasm and fell into a pool of water, but was rescued by a man who happened to be passing. He started on, in a chilled and feeble condition, but again had a fit, it is believed, and lay by the road-side from that time, Saturday, until the following Thursday. He was found in a dying condition. His body was brought back to the hospital and buried. His friends knew nothing of the matter until after his interment. His old neighbors speak of him in terms of kindness and respect.—Advocate.

MASONRY.—The Washington Home Gazette says of Masonry: "It numbers to-day, within its secret pale more adult males than all the religious organizations on the face of the earth. It is as widespread as humanity, as universal as human language. 'The Jew, before the altar on the sacred mount, the Parsee, in his adoration of the sun, the Mussulman, bowing to the east in prayer, the Greek before the shrine of his divinity, the Christian in devout faith at the foot of the cross, all alike know and understand its mystic language.' Kings, princes and potentates of the earth have beheld with awe its hieroglyphic light, and have been proud to wear its mystic emblems. It is more powerful than kingdoms, principalities and powers, and in ages to come will be a blessing and a protection to unnumbered millions.

LUSUS NATURAE.—We have this morning, says the British Colonist of the 29th ultimo, another freak of nature to record in the shape of a kid born with two separate and distinct heads attached to its neck. The little curiosity was alive when born and was able to stand and suck, but the milk imbibed through the mouth instead of finding its way down the throat ran out of the nostrils of the other head, and the one head appeared to be either annoyed at or envious of the other when so engaged. Mr. Wilby, the owner of the piece of curious malformation, was so anxious that it should live that he overfed the little creature and thinks that it died from suffocation. He will have it stuffed and preserved. The heads are possessed of all their proper organs excepting that there are but two ears, one on the outside of each head.

FLATTERING FOR IDAHO.—The Dramatic Chronicle says: The Judge of the Third Judicial District Court recently charged the Grand Jury to inspect two places within the jurisdiction. The first instruction was as follows: "You will visit the County Jail, provided you can find it. The Court has been here two weeks, and after the most diligent inquiry I have been unable to find that there is such a place." The second was more easily complied with: "There is another. That is out at the graveyard. Go out there and see by numbering the graves of those who have met with violent deaths, how the law has been defied."—In Idaho society requires a few more executions and a less number of burials—a larger goal and a smaller burial ground, and it is to be hoped that the respectable portion of the inhabitants will support the judges in trying to cure the evils which are destroying society in that Territory.

SIMPLE MODE OF COMPUTING INTEREST.—Multiply any given number of dollars by the number of days' interest required, separate the right hand figure and divide by six, the result is the true interest for such number of days at six per cent. The rule is so simple and so true, according to all business usages, that every banker, broker, merchant and clerk should post it up for reference and use. There being no such thing as fractions in it, there is scarcely any liability to error or mistake. By no arithmetical process can so desired information be obtained with so few figures.

JOHN BULL INCLINED TO PAY UP. We see, by recent advices from Europe, that Lord Clarendon is now anxious to re-open the Alabama discussion and come to some definite settlement. A short time ago the noble Lord declared the subject was exhausted—as his side of it was—and his anxiety to discuss it again simply means that, in view of the possible contingency of the Fenian question, John Bull is pretty nearly ready to pay our little bill in hard cash. But, on the whole, we see no reason for pressing our claims just at present, and we cannot allow Mr. Bull to settle with us so soon. He is a good debtor; he has plenty of real and personal estate in all parts of the world, and as our mortgage upon his property brings us very good interest, and can be foreclosed at any time we wish, it is merely a matter of prudence on our part not to let him pay us off when we really do not need the money, and could not invest it to such excellent advantage anywhere else.—N. Y. Herald.

AFFECTING INCIDENT.—McKean Buchanan and daughter were announced to appear on the 5th of March, in "Hamlet," at the Terre Haute, Indiana, Theatre. Mrs. Buchanan at the time was lying dangerously ill at the Terre Haute House, of neuralgia of the heart. After the first scene it was announced that Miss Buchanan would not be able to appear as Ophelia on account of her mother's sickness, and if the play went on her part would have to be omitted. The audience desired the drama to proceed, but when Mr. Buchanan appeared and commenced the soliloquy, "To be, or not to be," he was noticed to lack his usual fire and energy. He had not proceeded half a dozen lines when his faltering voice broke, and falling into a chair exclaimed, "My wife is dying; take your money; run down the curtain, I cannot play!" and the audience slowly and sadly dispersed. Mrs. Buchanan was dead when her husband reached the hotel.

A TALL FELLOW.—A St. Joseph correspondent of the St. Louis Republican furnishes a stunning description of a cave discovered in the bluffs near that place. Among other things it says: "On one side was a raised platform of pure marble extending the entire length of the room; and on this platform they discovered a human skeleton of gigantic size and in excellent preservation. Its length from head to feet was thirty-eight feet six inches. They could not measure the circumference of the head, but it was immense—they should imagine about six feet. Two of the teeth were dislocated, and these they brought to town, and I have seen them. They are now on the counter of the office of the Pacific Hotel, for general inspection. One of them is ten inches in circumference, and the other six. It is almost impossible to imagine an animal large enough to use such masticators." This is one of the biggest yarns since the story of Jack the Giant Killer. Nevertheless, we don't doubt it.

A MAN WITHOUT MONEY.—A man without money is a body without a soul—a wailing death—a spectre that frightens everybody. His countenance is sorrowful and his conversation is languishing and tedious. If he calls upon an acquaintance, he never finds him at home, and if he opens his mouth he is interrupted every moment, so that he may not finish his discourse which it is fearful will end with asking for money. He is avoided like a person infected with disease, and is regarded as an incumbrance to the earth. Waut wakes him in the morning, and misery accompanies him to bed at night. The ladies discover that he is an awkward booby—landlord believes that he lives upon air, and if he wants anything from a tradesman he is asked for cash before delivery.

FENIANISM.—The late O'Mahoney headquarters in New York have been closed, and the private secretary of Mr. Stephens is in charge of the building. It is stated that O'Mahoney's treasury contains less than three hundred dollars. Although Mr. Stephens is making every effort to effect a reconciliation between the rival sects of the brotherhood, the matter is not found to be an easy one. While seeking the co-operation of Mr. Roberts, which is at present the most potent of the two, he has carefully abstained from recognizing the Fenian Senate. Mr. Stephens has issued an order calling on all exiles in the United States to subscribe towards the movement in Ireland, and send the money to him at once at his headquarters at the Metropolitan Hotel.

A CURIOSITY.—Messrs. Hodge & Calef gave us, on Saturday last, a small paper box, labelled "The Eggs of Pharaoh's Serpents," containing a number of small, white sulphuric cones, which when set upon a large dish and the small end ignited, will shoot forth a great worm looking object to a surprising length and repulsive to look at. A small cone, not much larger than a rifle ball, will present a worm three feet long as large as a common sized pencil case. It is made as a toy for children, but has been declared dangerous in consequence of the poisonous smoke that proceeds from its burning. Those dealing with it should be careful to keep away from the smoke, and it should only be lighted in the open air or a well ventilated room.—Herald.

CHARACTERISTIC.—A German paper publishes an anecdote of President Lincoln, which has not been in print in this country. A Lieutenant, whom debts compelled to leave his fatherland and service, succeeded in being admitted to the late President Lincoln, and, by reason of his commendable and winning deportment, and intelligent appearance, was promised a lieutenant's commission in a cavalry regiment. He was so enraptured at his success that he deemed it a duty to inform the President that he belonged to one of the noble houses of Germany. "Oh, never mind that," said the President, "you will not find that to be an obstacle to your advancement."

NEVADA.—More rampageous females are reported in Virginia City. A woman there tries to get her husband from a saloon.—After some difficulty he consents—on his way home draws a pistol and blazes away at her without effect—wife flees husband pursues—both parties bring up in a lumber yard—husband, to use the classic language of Nevada, "belts her out of her"—policeman interferes—husband makes tracks—woman didn't wish any arrest made—said it was only a little family episode—didn't want her husband taken to the station-house. Domestic felicity!

A gentleman came into our office a few days ago and paid us a five dollar gold piece! He was perfectly sane. It is so long since we had seen anything of the kind, that we had almost forgotten what such a coin looked like, and felt disposed to reject it. It is rather a handsome piece of money, and may be seen at this office during business hours, for a reasonable sum. N. B. The piece is not for sale. We make this statement in order that we may not be compelled to sell it to any of our city banks, who may wish, in making up their statements for the current quarter, to report "coin in vault."—Munford Herald.

The Legislature of Georgia has passed a law ordering that marriages between colored people shall be solemnized in the same manner as marriages between whites. The act also provides a heavy penalty against the marriage of a white person and one of African descent.

Clippings.

Some ingenious thieves in London have found a way of plundering pillar letter-boxes. A bag fitted with a spring is fitted into the slit of the box, and into this, instead of the proper receptacle, the letters which are posted fall. A postman found one of these ingenious appliances on a pillar post near Belgrave Square, recently. The spring had broken or become disordered, so that the bag could not be withdrawn.

SINGULAR DISCOVERY.—In the vicinity of Stratford-upon-Avon, the birthplace of Shakspeare, about 3000 human skeletons were recently found while digging. They were all laid closely side by side, and the bones were in a remarkable state of preservation. It is supposed that they were the remains of the slain of some great battle, but history is silent regarding any encounter between armies near the spot.

A VEGETABLE CURIOSITY.—The Tehama Observer speaks of a young oak tree growing out of a sycamore. It would appear that an acorn had been deposited in a small cavity in the sycamore, some twenty feet from the ground, sprouted, taken root in the accumulated mould, and finally became so large as to resemble a branch of the same tree, so firm and closely is it joined to the main trunk.

A GEORGIA DECISION.—A Georgia Judge recently decided that the value of a slave is even now recoverable, provided the liability was incurred prior to January 1st, 1863; and that not the President's proclamation of that date, but the ordinance of the Constitutional Convention, abolished slavery in the State of Georgia.

STRONG SYMPTOM.—"Is Miss Blinkins at home?" asked Mr. Saunders of the Irish girl who answered his ring at the door. "Yes, I b'love she is, sir." "Is she engaged?" "An' is it engaged you say? Faix, an' I can't tell you, sir; but she kissed Mr. Vincent last evening as if she had never seen the like uv him, an' it's engaged I b'love they are, sir."

"George Smith, do you recollect the story of David and Goliath?" "Yes, sir. David was a tavern keeper and Goliath was an intemperate man."

"Who told you that?" "Nobody, I read it and it said that David fixed a sling for Goliath, and Goliath got slewed with it."

He who thinks he can find in himself the means of doing without others, is much mistaken; but he who thinks that others cannot do without him, is still more mistaken.

A country editor received a severe "hoist" by treading on a fragment of orange-peel in the city, and commenced a series of letters to his journal, headed, "My Trip on the Rhine."

A pretty girl says: "If our Maker thought it was wrong for Adam to live single, when there was not a woman upon earth, how criminally guilty are the old bachelors, with the world full of pretty girls!"

If a policeman gets after you, the best thing you can do is to lock the door and then bolt yourself.

A vigilance committee is organized at Montana. It numbers 1,600 members and is increasing. A perfect police system is maintained.

A Western paper suggests as an improvement in Bibles the preparation of a page or two in the "family record" for divorcees.

The father of Walker, the filibuster, who was, before the rebellion, a wealthy merchant in Nashville, is now in very indigent circumstances, and has been keeping door at a theatre in New York.

DOUBTFUL.—At a store in Rockville, Conn., a blinding sheet of lightning entered at the door with a vivid flash, which actually lit an oil lamp and left it burning, without leaving any other visible marks of its passage.

PUGET SOUND WEEKLY.

MONDAY, June 13, 1866.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

From the DAILY of Friday, 15th. IMPROVEMENTS.—We notice that improvements of a substantial nature are being made in various parts of our city, which speaks well for the enterprise of our citizens. Mr. Yester has finished shipping the large lot of lumber that lay upon his wharf, and is now engaged in filling in with slabs, that portion of the wharf that rests on piles. This mode of building solid wharves is undoubtedly an improvement.—Mr. Hinds has his new wharf ready for planking and we understand that he intends to build a large warehouse thereon shortly. The workmen are now engaged in the construction of the pavilion, which is to be used for the celebration of the Fourth of July, for which our citizens are making extensive preparations. Private residences are being erected in various parts of the town, and other improvements are going forward, in the shape of the fencing and otherwise adorning, of grounds. We are informed that there is a boot and shoe manufactory started in town, in which machinery is used. We have also a new harness shop and millinery establishment. Altogether, it looks as though our citizens are determined to keep up the reputation of this place, dull times notwithstanding. We are glad to see it, and hope success will attend their efforts.

Our thanks are due to Capt. Finch of the steamer Eliza Anderson for favors done this office.

SAILED.—The brig Admiral, Capt. Newbury, sailed from Yester's wharf, yesterday, for San Francisco. Her cargo consists of 300 M feet of lumber and 130 dry hides.

The steamer Anderson arrived here last evening on her regular trip from Victoria to Olympia.

IMPORTANT TELEGRAM.—The following telegram has been received from the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington:

Washington, May 18, 1866.

Twenty per cent., ad valorem, on all importations of live animals. Those in British Provinces, now owned by American citizens, exempt until the 27th inst.

To the Collector of Customs at Port Angeles.

We are under obligations to our agent at Victoria, Mr. M. W. Waitt, for numerous favors.

From the DAILY of Saturday, 16.

THE "SARANAC."—We are indebted to Mr. E. S. Dyer, of Port Angeles, for the following list of officers of the U. S. war steamer Saranac, 11 guns, 1446 tons, which arrived at Port Angeles on the 12th inst., and will probably remain on the Sound a month, and visit the principal places: Geo. H. Scott, Captain; Byron Wilson, Lieut. Com. and Executive Officer; W. W. Saunders, Lieut.; Wm. Williams, Acting Master; O. Linderman, H. L. White, O. S. M. Coner, Acting Ensigns; Wm. Mott, Mate; Doug. East Robinson, Surgeon; J. F.

Lamb, Chief Engineer; D. Mack, Jr., Assistant Surgeon; W. R. Winslow, Asst. Paymaster; S. Robinson, Lieut. of Marines; J. M. Middleton, Tarsens L. Vandervisie, G. F. Sawyer, 2d Asst. Eng.; S. P. Budd, 3d Asst. Engineer; Geo. Alexander, Paymaster's Clerk, and 188 in the crew.

FROM PORT ANGELOS.

Port Angeles, June 13.

To THE PUGET SOUND DAILY.—The U. S. war steamer Saranac came into the harbor yesterday afternoon, having left San Francisco on the 5th instant. The Lincoln returned from Port Madison yesterday morning, bringing the mail, and left this afternoon for Victoria. The Saranac has been indulging this afternoon in target practice, to the great bewilderment of the aborigines, who halo cantuz mox poos. The Victorians have on a big scare lest their city is to fall into the hands of the Fenians, who are reported to have landed to the number of 1200, somewhere on the American side in the neighborhood of Neah Bay. [I am not authority.] This report receives some apparent confirmation in the unexpected appearance of the Saranac, which has come up, of course, to see what neutrality is maintained. The harbors of Victoria and Esquimalt are blockaded, and every craft entering, or approaching, is thoroughly inspected. W. E. B.

THE LATE TRAGEDY IN NEVADA.—The Nevada Transcript gives the following version of the statement of Mr. Venard, who killed the three robbers in Nevada:

On hearing of the robbery, Sheriff Gentry and party immediately started for the spot, which is a short distance down the grade to Black's Bridge, on the south Yuba. An examination satisfied some of the party that the robbers had gone down the hill so as to strike the river at a point below. The party started to scour the country. Venard and Lee got upon the trail of the robbers, and followed on such a distance that it seemed likely they would come out on the road to Holt's Crossing. Lee went back to take the horses round to that end. Venard followed the trail till it struck the South Yuba near the mouth of Myer's Ravine, and found the robbers had not crossed the river, nor the ravine, which is a steep muddy mountain torrent, rushing among and over rocks with considerable noise. He followed up the steep bank, watching to see if the robbers had crossed or ascended the hill. Coming to a mass of huge rocks rising in the midst of this torrent, he crossed to it at its lowest point. He heard nothing unusual, but cautiously proceeded. A rock towered above him; smaller ones but still huge, were between. He came to an alley between the rocks that opened up to the larger one. At the base of the latter 10 feet above him, and at 20 or 25 feet distance, he saw a robber sitting in the act of drawing his revolver. Venard says, one thought flashed through his brain, that the robber or he must die, and he preferred to live himself. He was a mile away from his companions. Quick as thought he brought his Henry rifle to bear on the robber. At the same moment he saw another leveling a pistol at him. It was too late to change his aim from one robber to another. He fired. The victim fell back; the second robber slipped into a cleft in the rocks to cover himself. His pistol showed over the top. As his head came up to take aim, Venard fired, and the robber fell. Still there was another robber. It was a lonely spot. Rocks, logs and brush were all around. He might receive a shot from any direction. There might be confederates all around. Venard rushed up to the den where the robbers had fallen and took their pistols, that others might get away with them. There was also a bag of money. He took them a few feet, and covered them from sight. He then hurried up a steep point on the other side of the torrent to overlook the scene and to discover the robber if possible. At about sixty yards distant he saw a man making off up the mountain as fast as possible. He fired and the man fell, but continued his flight on his hands and knees, looking over his shoulders at his pursuer. Another shot and the robber stopped, stared upon Venard a minute, his head fell, and he rolled down the hill. Venard then sought his companions. The scene of the encounter was visited, and the bags of money brought to town and delivered to Wells, Fargo & Co.

It cannot be denied that this feat of Steve Venard's is a splendid one and never exceeded in the State. It displays a coolness, courage and skill of a most extraordinary character. It must live as an event in the history of our county, and the criminal history of the country. A safe is robbed at half-past four in the morning by three robbers, of $8,000. One man follows the daring villains to their dens, kills them all at four shots, and restores the money to the owners at two o'clock of the same day. If this act is not worthy of reward, we know of no act that is. We hope, in addition to the reward offered by Wells, Fargo & Co., that the Board of Supervisors will vote a handsome sum. It is but just that those who peril life for the good of society should receive the reward of their merit.

A year or more ago it was announced that a process had been discovered for extracting sugar from Indian corn. The matter was discussed quite extensively, and high expectations were raised as to the result of the experiment. The process has been carefully tested, but thus far without any successful result. The syrup made from the corn starch is very handsome, but contains less saccharine matter than ordinary sugar house syrup, and is liable to become sour very soon after production. If the last named difficulty can be overcome, the discovery may still be rendered quite valuable, although it should not add to the supply of sugar.

IT DON'T GO.—The Humboldt Register has the following:

Speaking of things dramatic reminds us of the time we put in a weary night near Ousley's Bar. The landlady's daughter tried to make out our gait, and we evaded all direct questions. At last she determined beyond persuasion that we were "a actor." Not denying it nailed the assumption for a certain fact. Humoring this we asked her if they ever had theatrical performances there. "No, thir," said the lispng fair one with golden locks, "we havn't had any theater yet; we wath going to have Damon and Pythiath lath month, up at Outhleyth", and everybody went; but Damon got Pythiath drunk, and it didn't go."

Paris is at present well supplied with fruit and vegetables from Algeria. Green peas, of the present year's growth, are plenty in all eating-houses. Strawberries are selling in the central market at 1s. 6d. to 3s. 6d. to the pot; asparagus from 8s. to 10s. 15s. to 21s. the bundle; green kidney beans at 3s. to 12s. the pound weight; artichokes from 6s. to 10s. the dozen; green peas from 6d. to 10d. the pound weight. Truffles, so dear two months since, have fallen to 7s. to the pound weight. These, of course are the wholesale prices.

A wool contractor in this State recently employed a number of men to work for him, and after giving them the necessary outfit set them to work early one morning and then returned to his house. In the evening he returned to see how his choppers were getting on, when, to his astonishment, he found that they had sold their axes for whisky, and "under the influence" were circling round a huge pine, singing— "Oh, woodman, spare that tree," etc.

Milk may be kept sweet by having it constantly in the presence of fresh water. In a milk-room, provided with tubs, in which the water is changed twice a day, milk will not be soured even by lightning.

AN EXTRAORDINARY OCCURRENCE. A correspondent of the Hartford Times tells a story of a volunteer in one of the Connecticut regiments, who in the advance of the grand Army of the Potomac, in 1863, was taken sick, died, and was buried, the correspondent performing the last sad rites over the remains of his dead comrade. A volley was fired over the grave and the soldier was left to his long sleep.

Time passed; the war ended; the correspondent was honorably discharged, and he had forgotten in the rush of events his comrade sleeping by the banks of the Rapidan, when the other day, in Hartford, who should appear before him but the dead and buried soldier. It is not strange that he felt a curious sensation come over him; that he looked at the figure before him without speaking; that he stepped aside when the other advanced to meet him with outstretched hand. The devoement is thus given:

"Old chum, don't you know me?" Said I, "Yes, I do; but what, in the name of God, are you doing here. I helped to bury you once in Virginia."

"I know that some one buried me, and I always thought that you were one of them, as you were always so kind to me. But you see now," said he, offering his hand to me, "that I am flesh and blood."

I shook hands with him, and he told me that he was in a trance when we buried him, and that he was digging his way out, and had got his head out, when the rebs. came along and assisted him. They then sent him to Libby prison, where they kept him in durance a year. They then sent him to Georgia, where he remained till the war was ended, when he was released.

THE MORMONS.—Abraham Wells, a Mormon, who has arrived in Chicago for the purpose of marrying his fifth wife, writes the following curious note to the Tribune of that city: "On my visit to Chicago, I noticed an article in the Tribune in regard to Utah, that Speaker Colfax expressed a wish that President Young might have a 'revelation prohibiting polygamy,' is to me a matter of some doubt. On the contrary, I have every reason to know that Speaker Colfax eloquently expressed his gratitude at the domestic happiness of our community. I am a Mormon born and bred, and the husband of four wives, and, what may seem strange, my mission here is one of love—to transplant a flower from this sterile (morally) latitude, to bloom and flourish in our happy home. We have no wish to be admitted into your 'Union'—nor do we wish, at one fell swoop, to be divorced of our wives and families. It seems to me that it would be wise to let us Mormons alone, and devote your moral lectures to a community where a man or woman can marry or be divorced three times within as many years."

DELICIOUS.—The correspondent of the San Francisco Call, writing from Ruby City, gives the following copy of a notice which he found posted up in his boarding house:—"Rules and Regulations. Board must be paid in advance; with beans, $15; without beans, $12; salt, free; boarders not permitted to speak to the cook; no extras allowed; potatoes for dinner; pocketing strictly forbidden; no whistling while eating; gentlemen are expected to wash out of doors, and find their own soap and water; no charge for ice; towels (bags) at the end of the house; extra charge for seats around the stove; lodgers must find their own straw for beds; beds on the billiard table and floor reserved for regular customers; persons sleeping in the bar are requested not to take off their boots; lodgers inside rise at 5, a. m.; in the stable at seven; each man sweeps up his own bed; no quartz taken at the bar; specimens must invariably be left on the outside of the house. Anyone violating the above rules will be shot without further notice."

THE RAIN UPON THE ROOF.

BY COATES KINNEY.

When the humid showers hover
Over all the starry spheres,
And the melancholy darkness
Gnostly weeps in rainy tears,
Tis a joy to press the pillow
Of a cottage chamber bed,
And listen to the murmur
Of the soft rain overhead.

Every tinkle on the shingles
Has an echo in the heart,
And a thousand dreamy fancies
Into busy being start,
And a thousand recollections
Wave their bright hues into woof,
As I listen to the pattering
Of the rain upon the roof.

Now in fancy comes my mother
As she used to, years ago,
To survey her darling dreamers
Ere she left them till the dawn.
Oh! I see her bending o'er me,
As I list to this refrain,
Which is played upon the shingles
By the pattering of the rain.

And my little seraph sister,
With her wings and waving hair,
And her bright-eyed cherub brother,
A serene angelic pair,
Glide around my wakeful pillow
With their praise or mild reproof,
As I listen to the music
Of the soft rain on the roof.

And another comes to woo me,
With her eyes' delicious blue,
And forget I, gazing on her,
That her heart was all untrue.
I remember but to love her,
With a rapture kin to pain,
And my heart's quick pulses vibrate
To the pattering of the rain.

There is naught in art's bravuras
That can work with such a spell,
In the spirit's pure deep fountains,
Whence the holy passions well,
As that melody of nature,
That subdued, subduing strains,
Which is played upon the shingles
By the pattering of the rain.

WHERE IS HE?—We have received, says the Stockton Independent, a letter from Mrs. Elizabeth H. Fisher, of Richmond, Indiana, entreating us to find out, if we can, the whereabouts of her brother, John P. Black, who has not been heard from since 1853, when he was a clerk at Stockton. Any one knowing of his whereabouts, will confer a great favor on his sorrowing sister by informing her of the same. Will our contemporaries please give this an insertion?

FACT.—The Placerville Mirror says that those fellows that have so much loose gab about newspapers and their editors, are the kind that never paid a cent to one in their lives. When you hear a fellow blowing about "that infernal lying" you may pat it up that he never sees the paper in question except when he buys or steals a copy. They are like the chaps who wanted to fight for slavery, and could not buy a negro baby if they were selling for six bits a dozen.

A gentleman in Belfast, Me., had at one time in his employ an Irishman possessed of a good deal more zeal than knowledge. His employer gave him a key one morning with directions to "go to the post office and get the contents of 40." Pat vanished, but presently came back with pockets, hat and hands filled with a collection of mail matter, and the explanation: "I couldn't open forty, sir, but I opened all I could, and here they be sir."

"MARY, why did you kiss your hand to the gentleman opposite, this morning?" said a careful mother to her blooming daughter. "Why, the gentleman had the impudence to throw a kiss clean across the street, and of course I threw it back indignantly. You would n't have me encourage him by keeping it, would you?"

A NEW CURE.—A negro woman of St. Louis, being taken with the cholera, sent for a doctor, who wrote a prescription, and laid a weight on it in the shape of a piece of coal, and told the messenger to take it to the apothecary's and have it pounded and given in three doses. On calling the next day he found his patient well, and found that she had taken the coal instead of the prescription.

PUGET SOUND WEEKLY.

MONDAY, June 13, 1865.

A fatal affray recently occurred near San Antonio, Texas. Captain Nolan, of the Thirteenth Regiment of Negro cavalry, was sent, with sixteen men, to arrest a bad character by the name of Porter, who had killed an old gentleman last August, and for whose arrest an order had been issued. A son of the murdered man informed Capt. Nolan that Porter and his comrade would be at a neighboring house to attend a wedding. The Captain went to the house with a squad, entered it, and placed his hand on Porter's shoulder and ordered him to surrender. A man then stepped up and shot the Captain through his wrist. A Sergeant then shot the assailant dead. Porter drew a pistol and shot Capt. Nolan in the breast, near his heart, the ball coming out near the shoulder. The Captain then shot Porter dead, and mortally wounded two others. By this time the soldiers had entered the house, where they drew up into line and were ready to fire into the crowd, when Nolan stopped them, exhorting them not to kill the women. Twenty of the wedding party were arrested and are under heavy guard. The recovery of Capt. Nolan is doubtful.

AN EARLY CALL ANSWERED.—The clerk of a drug store was recently awakened at an early hour by a loud ringing of the night bell. Aroused from his morning nap, he hurried to answer the call, which seemed to be a matter of life and death. On opening the door he was met by a woman with a request for a box of rouge, stating that she was going to a picnic, and, upon examining her toilet stand, found that essential article wanting. The clerk, annoyed at having been awakened for so frivolous a thing, turned abruptly on his heel, stating that he had not a sufficient stock of the article to cover a "cheek" like her's.

DERANGEMENT OF THE COMPASS.—A Portland steamer was found to be going astray, on a recent trip from Boston, owing to deviations of her compass. The deviation, it was also found, was caused by the steel hoop skirt of a young lady who was in the pilot house, and on her retiring the compass resumed its proper position.

A letter from Washington says: All loyal men must rejoice at the renewal of cordial relations between General Grant and General Butler. That such relations are being re-established I can assure you on the best of authority.—General Butler will, without doubt, withhold from publication his vindication, already prepared for the press.

A Massachusetts paper tells of a good old deacon who drove into town with a load of potatoes and stopped in front of the postoffice, which place he tried to enter but found the door locked. Someone standing by remarked that the postoffice didn't keep open on Sunday. "Sunday!" said the deacon, with a look of perfect astonishment, "I sware! is it Sunday? I thought it was Saturday; and here I've brought a load of potatoes to sell."

A MISTAKE.—A lucky Caribonite, who on Wednesday returned from a visit to the home of his childhood, in Ireland, was arrested while in Dublin on suspicion of being a Fenian. He was incarcerated for some weeks in the famous Richmond prison from which Stephens made his escape, and was only liberated after producing satisfactory evidence that he was what he professed to be—"an honest laborer."

PROGRESS.—An agent of the Russian Government has been in Washington recently, engaged in examining our system for the disposal of public lands, with a view to the improvement of the system in use in his own country.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINES.

Copy of the Report of the Committee of Awards at the Fair of the AMERICAN INSTITUTE, NEW YORK, 1865.

To the FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE CO., for the Best Family Sewing Machine.

Highest Premium! Gold Medal!

REASONS:

- 1st. Its simplicity and great range of work.
- 2d. The reversible feed motion.
- 3d. The perfect finish and substantial manner in which the machine is made.
- 4th. The rapidity of its working, and the quality of work done.
- 5th. The self-adjusting tension.

The "Florence" was awarded the First and Highest Premium at the State Fair of California, the only Fair on the Pacific Coast at which any two double thread Sewing Machines were exhibited in competition in 1865.

The FLORENCE received the only premium awarded by the Mechanics' Institute, of San Francisco, in 1861 and 1865, to any Sewing Machine, Sewing Machine Co., or Agent. The claim of a competitor to a medal is without any foundation whatever.

Wherever the FLORENCE has been brought in competition with other Sewing Machines, it has always been declared the best. It is the most simple, the most substantial, the most efficient, and its use is easily learned. Every machine sold is guaranteed in the full sense of the word.
