A JAPANESE BELLE.

A recent East India traveler thus describes her:

I saw a young girl standing, fan in hand, at an open door, reading. She was simply clad in a loose crape, half petticoat, half dressing gown sort of dress, reaching as far down as the ankles, and bound by a sash of yellow silk around the waist. Her feet, which were small and beautifully formed, rested on the common straw sandals of the country. Over this dress, which left the bosom partially uncovered, she wore a light, cream-colored open jacket, of muslin texture, with wide sleeves extended a little below the elbow; her soft black hair was beautifully drawn back off the forehead and bound in a peculiar cluster at the back of the head, where it was held by two gold pins, one of great length, and a scorpion-like device attached to it, and which moved to and fro with every motion of its fair wearer. Her complexion was bright and pale, much more than the Chinese; her teeth white and as finely formed as her entire figure. By the latter I saw that she was unmarried—the invariable Japanese custom being that on the marriage of every female the teeth are dyed black, and in some cases the eyebrows shaven off.

I halted nearly in front of where she stood; she did not look piqued, and turn away as the fair damsels of my own country would have done, but she favored me with a steady gaze, and smiled, though I could scarcely detect the movement of a feature, while her eyes, like souls of eloquence, glowed in fascinating beauty. She was reading a book; I saluted her with a bow; she returned the complement by a somewhat similar movement. Observing my curiosity to see the book she held, she handed it to me. It was thick, and of nearly quarto size, and the letter press was mixed with numerous wood cuts—a common circumstance in Japan, as I subsequently ascertained—where nearly every book that is published abounds with numerous illustrations. In weight the book was exceedingly light, and the cover was very thick, colored paper, highly ornamented, the external picture being that of the crucifixion; the paper was printed on one side only, and left uncut, so that the printed sides were alone presented to the eye. The work, one of ordinary kind, was of excellent typography. Of its ordinary merits the lady might have formed an opinion; but being anything but a Japanese, I could do no such pleasant thing.

A STREAK AHEAD OF NOAH.—A dispute arose between two Scotchmen, named Campbell and McLean, upon the antiquity of the two families. The latter would not allow that the Campbells had any right to rank with the McLeans in antiquity, who, he insisted, were in existence as a clan since the beginning of the world. Campbell had a little more Biblical knowledge than his antagonist, and asked him if the clan of the McLeans was before the flood.

"Flood! What flood?" asked McLean.

"The flood, you know, that drowned all the world but Noah and his family and his flocks," said Campbell.

"Poo! you and your flood," said McLean; "My clan was before the flood."

"I have not read in my Bible," said Campbell, "of the name of McLean going into Noah's ark."

"Noah's ark!" retorted McLean, in contempt, "Who ever heard of a McLean that hadn't a boat of his ain?"

A MISTAKE IN A BARBER SHOP.—A laughable mistake occurred in a Baltimore barber's shop on Thursday. Two gentlemen hung up their coats and sat down to be shaved about the same time. One of them for whom the operation was performed first arose, and by mistake donned the other one's coat, in the pocket of which was a wallet containing $2,500. Off he walked, but a policeman soon overtook him. When the charge against him was explained he became greatly alarmed for the safety of his own coat, in the pocket of which was the sum of $5,000. Explanations followed, coats were exchanged and each found his money safe.

A city editor, who is a bachelor, having said in his last issue that he really wished he had a son, so that he could dress him up in the fashion, was called upon the next day by his adorable, to whom he had been paying his addresses for the last two years, and asked him if he really meant to say that. "Certainly, my dear," "Well, Jemmy," said she, "why don't you make arrangements for one?" Our friend said it was the first time he was ever cornered, and it so mortified him that he went right away to a parson.

The Portland Press tells the following rather extravagant story to illustrate the wholesale thieving practiced there on the night of the great fire: "One who had been slumbering peacefully in his grave in the Eastern Cemetery, awoke, and walking forth asked if the day of judgment had come?" On being told it was only Portland burning, he remarked that he would go back to his repose. On reaching his grave he found that in his absence somebody had stolen his coffin.

JUDGE C.—, a well known, highly respectable Knickerbocker, on the shady side of fifty, a widower with five children—full of fun and frolic, ever ready for a joke, to give or to take—was bantered one evening by a mischievous twenty-five, for not taking a wife; she urged that he was hale and hearty, and deserved a matrimonial messmate. The Judge acknowledged that it was the fact, admitted that he was convinced by the eloquence of his fair friend that he had thus far been remiss, expressed contrition for the fault confessed and ended with offering himself to the lady, telling her that she could not certainly reject him after pointing out his heinous offence. The lady replied that she would be most happy to take the situation so uniquely advertised, and become bone of his boue and flesh of his flesh, but there was one—to her—serious obstacle.

"Well," said the Judge "name it. My profession is to surmount such obstacles."

"Ah! Judge, this is beyond your power. I have vowed if ever I marry a widower, he must have ten children."

"Ten children! O, that's nothing," says the Judge. "I'll give you five now, and my notes on demand in yearly installments for the balance."

Some years since a sober, zealous Connecticut farmer went to catechise a family in his neighborhood, who were not so well versed in the rudiments of divinity as some are. When he arrived, he thought proper to begin with Mary, the eldest daughter, a girl about eighteen, buxom and blooming as May, whose charms had suited the village swains with an epidemic.

"Well Mary," said the parson, "I shall begin with you; come, tell me who died for you?"

Mary, with a flush on her cheek, replied:

"Why, nobody as I knows on."

The parson, rather surprised at her answer repeated his question with increased zeal.

"Mary, I say, tell me who died for you?"

Poor Mary, rather irritated at the inquisitive parson again replied:

"Why, nobody sir; there was Bob Dawson lay bed-ridden for me about six months, folks says he got about again."

HE CLEARED FIVE DOLLARS.—A queer genius lately appeared before Justice Cathbertson, at Chicago, accused himself of assault and battery, and demanded to be arrested and fined; the Judge finally accommodated him by fining him five dollars. The joke of the affair has not yet been told, however, that the repentant criminal paid a ten dollar bill, which the clerk changed, giving him five dollars in good money, to find after he was gone, that the ten dollar bill was a counterfeit, and that the conscientious man had cleared five dollars.

What celebrated convention would you be reminded of on hearing a lady giving advice to her uncle? Council of Nice.

OFFICIAL.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-Ninth Congress.
[Public—No. 108.]

[Concluded.]

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That upon the reimportation of articles once exported of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, upon which no internal tax has been assessed or paid, or upon which such tax has been paid and refunded by allowance or drawback, there shall be levied, collected and paid a duty equal to the tax imposed by the internal revenue laws upon such articles.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That there shall be established in and attached to the Department of the Treasury a bureau to be styled "the Bureau of Statistics," and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to appoint a director to superintend and control the business of said bureau, who shall be paid an annual salary of thirty-five hundred dollars. And it shall be the duty of the director of the Bureau of Statistics to prepare the report on the statistics of commerce and navigation, exports, and imports, now required by law to be submitted annually to Congress by the Secretary of the treasury; and said report, embracing the returns of the commerce and navigation, the exports and imports of the United States to the close of the fiscal year, shall be submitted to Congress in a printed form on or before the first day of December next succeeding; and the said director, as soon as practicable after the organization of this office shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the treasury, prepare and publish monthly reports of the exports and imports of the United States, including the quantities and values of goods warehoused or withdrawn from warehouse, and such other statistics relative to the trade and industry of the country as the Secretary of the treasury may consider expedient. And the director of the Bureau of Statistics shall also prepare an annual statement of vessels registered, enrolled, and licensed under the laws of the United States, together with the class, name, tonnage, and place of registry of each vessel, and such other information as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem proper to embody therein; and to enable the said director to furnish the information required, the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, to establish and provide a system of numbering vessels so registered, enrolled and licensed; and each vessel so numbered shall have her number deeply carved or otherwise permanently marked on her main beam; and if at any time she shall cease to be so marked, such vessel shall be no longer recognized as a vessel of the United States. The said director shall also prepare an annual statement of all merchandise, passing in transit through the United States to foreign countries, each description of merchandise, so far as practicable, warehoused, withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, for exportation, for transportation to other districts, and remaining in the warehouse at the end of each fiscal year. It shall be the further duty of said director to collect, digest and arrange, for the use of Congress, the statistics of the manufactures of the United States, their localities, sources of raw material, markets, exchanges with the producing regions of the country, transportation of products, wages, and such other conditions as are found to affect their prosperity; and to aid him in the discharge of these duties, the several clerks now employed in the preparation of statistics in the Treasury Department or any bureau thereof, may be placed under his supervision and direction; and, in addition, the Secretary of the treasury shall detail such other clerks as may be necessary to fully carry out the provisions of this act. And the expenses of the Bureau of Statistics for clerical services, publication of reports, and statistical periodicals and papers required by the Bureau, shall be defrayed on the order and approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. And all letters and documents to and from the director of the Bureau of Statistics, relating to the duties and business of his office, shall be transmitted by mail free of postage.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to suspend the collection, in any of the States heretofore declared in insurrection, of the direct tax imposed by an act of Congress passed August fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act to provide increased revenue from imports, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," until January first, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.

UNIVERSITY EXHIBITION.

The exhibition at the University on Friday evening last, was of a character to do credit to the students and their teachers. The hall in the College building was neatly and tastefully decorated for the occasion, a wreath of evergreen encircling the walls of the room, and columns formed of cedar boughs supporting an arch of similar material in front of the stage—two large American flags being displayed at the sides of the columns. The words "Welcome, Welcome, Friends," were conspicuously arranged on the rear wall of the stage.

The exercises consisted of declamations, dialogues, reading of compositions, and vocal and instrumental music.

The students acquitted themselves well, generally; far better than could have been expected considering the shortness of the time a single term afforded for improvement. We confess that we attended the exhibition with the expectation of witnessing nothing more than the ordinary average of ability usually displayed on such occasions, but in this we were agreeably deceived. Some of the compositions read would have done no discredit to authors of distinction and known ability; and some of the speeches were delivered with a fluency, ease and dignity that many a speaker has only acquired after years of practice.

The music, both vocal and instrumental was good, and the proficiency displayed shows that the pupils had enjoyed the advantage of competent instruction.

At the close of the exercises, prizes were awarded to Miss Gertrude Boren and Mr. Henry Hathaway for more than ordinary diligence manifested in pursuing their studies, and the other students were highly commended for perseverance.

The President stated that during the entire term there had not been the slightest discord between the teachers and students, nor between the students themselves; but to the contrary, a spirit of harmony and a kind and obliging disposition had been manifested by all. This speaks well for both teachers and scholars, and will have a beneficial influence on the future success and usefulness of the University.

After the presentation of the prizes by the President, he and his lady were presented with some valuable books by Mr. George McConaha, on behalf of the students, as a testimonial of the high esteem in which they were held. The presentation speech would have done honor to a more experienced speaker.

The citizens who were present were highly pleased, and retired from the Hall with a renewed appreciation of the benefits derived from an efficient school, and with a cordial wish for its prosperity.

The second term under the present management will commence on the seventh of January, and it is hoped that the attendance will be much larger than at the term just closed.

We would call the attention of the public to the advertisement in another column of the Ladies' Furnishing Store and Millinery Establishment of Mrs. Libby. She is constantly receiving new goods, and can give better satisfaction to customers than any similar establishment on the Sound.

AN INCIDENT.—As a train of cars was approaching the suspension bridge, near Niagara, says the Albany Argus, the conductor found a man who could not pay his fare. The poor fellow was evidently in the last stages of consumption, and emaciated to skeleton proportions. He sat by himself, and his eyes were red, as though he had been weeping. But the laws of the company could not be transgressed, and he must leave the train. Not a person moved or spoke as the conductor led him from his seat, all shivering with cold, just as he reached the door a beautiful girl arose from her seat, and with bright, sparkling eyes, demanded the amount charged for the poor invalid. The conductor said eight dollars, and the young and noble girl took the sum from her pocket book, and kindly led the sick youth back to his seat. The action put to shame several men who had witnessed it, and they offered to "pay half," but the whole-souled woman indignantly refused the assistance. When the train arrived in this city, the young protectress gave the invalid money to keep him over night and send him to his friends next morning.

Who is wise? He that is teachable. Who is mighty? He that conquers himself. Who is rich? He that is contented. Who is honored? He that honoreth others.

MONDAY, December 10, 1866.

MADE THEIR ESCAPE. — Powell, the murderer—under sentence of death—and the soldiers who robbed the Brewery at Steilacoom, made their escape from the Steilacoom jail on Thursday night last.

We have just been informed that the prisoners have been caught, and are safely in custody.

PASSENGERS BY THE JOSIE McNEAR.—The following passengers arrived by the steamer Josie McNear, at Seattle, Dec. 7th:

Benson, Tomlinson, Crossman, Sears, Coleman, Butler Warren, and Thomas.

At the special election in Kitsap county, a week ago last Thursday, W. K. Temple was elected Representative in place of Mr. Rowe, resigned.

A dispatch from Mobile says that on the 2d of September, on the Florida coast, fifteen miles from land, an island was thrown up by volcanic influence to the height of ninety feet above the water level, and measuring seven-hundred feet in circumference.

A GRANDER WATERFALL.—The Sonora Democrat says a waterfall has been discovered on the South Fork of the Toulumne which exceeds the Yosemite in height by seven hundred feet. The Yosemite Fall—at least the perpendicular fall—is stated, we believe, at thirteen hundred feet, while this fall of water on the Toulumne is given at two thousand feet.

The Palmyra (Mo.) Spectator says: "Rev. Edward H. Hudson, a well-known minister of the Methodist Church, and a member of a Masonic Lodge in this city, eloped from his county last week with Mrs. McCulloch, a widow, for parts unknown, probably Canada. This unfeeling wretch took two of his children with him, leaving a wife and one child in his desolate home. The wretched woman left her three children behind, worse than motherless, with her parents, who are of the highest respectability, and whose hearts are well nigh broken.

Speaking of the insecurity of life and property in Utah, the Vedette remarks:

When men feel that each day they walk abroad, taking their lives in their hand, and that each night the assassin may send them to their long home, it is time that something should be done. No matter from what standpoint the recent murder of Dr. Robinson may be viewed, it discloses a state that calls loudly for remedy. It is a sad state of affairs when, in a city of twenty thousand inhabitants, in the heart of a territory of one hundred thousand people, and a component part of the great Republic, an entire class of law-abiding citizens—the so-called Gentiles—feel that ordinary prudence confines them to their homes after nightfall, lest they may be the next victim of assassination. This sentiment, so prevalent in the community, is not, we opine, the result of a cowardly fear, or an inexcusable panic, but arises from the events of the past few weeks, culminating in the death of a man who enjoyed the respect of his fellows, and, so far as can be ascertained had not a personal foe in the world.

The condition of the Mexican Empire continues to be a leading topic of conversation in Europe and America.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, 27.—The British iron bark Coya, of Liverpool, laden with coal from Sidney, was approaching this port under every sail, the captain supposing himself near the Farrallones, the weather having been thick the two previous days, when she struck at 7 o'clock, on Pigeon Point, sixty miles South of this point. Walter Cooper, one of the three saved, arrived in this city last night. He describes the scene after she struck as terrible in the extreme. An attempt was made to launch the boat, but she was instantly swamped by the waves which were constantly breaking over her. The captain and officers did all in their power to save the passengers, but all to no purpose. No boat could live in such a sea. It was evident to all on board that the only hope of being saved was in clinging to pieces of the wreck as the ship dashed to pieces on the rocks. Cooper had on only his undershirt, drawers and cravat, when he reached shore, and the others were equally as scantily clothed. They were nearly benumbed with cold, and crawled out of reach of the waves with great difficulty. In order to protect themselves from the cold they dug a hole in the sand, and the three survivors crawled into it, covering themselves over with bushes, where they remained until morning, when they found their whereabouts about a mile from the wreck. Only one body, that of Mrs. Jeffries, had washed ashore when Cooper left. The hull of the vessel had entirely broken up and disappeared, while the beach was strown with the fragments.

The following is a list of the passengers of the bark: Dr. Rawson and wife, London; Mr. Jeffries and wife and baby, Portsmouth; George Byron, Sydney; Miss Bassata, Napa Valley; Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Page and daughter. Crew of the Coya—Captain R. Page; Thomas Braslow, first mate; Wm. Cair, second mate; James Skeelen, sailmaker; Frank Bashby, carpenter, J. TROUBLE THREATENING IN GREAT BRITAIN.—The London Weekly Dispatch of a late date has the following:

There is an upheaving groundswell of society at this moment, perilous to the privilege of rent consumers. Recruits refuse to enter the army. We cannot man our navy or mercantile marine. Emigration is the prompt remedy for the least contraction in wages. In Australia and New Zealand it was fast discovered that the only way to keep the population in their places was to make them owners of the soil. Cheap land and ready access to it is the whole secret of settlement of the Western States. If we do not abolish primogeniture, primogeniture will abolish its authors. If we would keep our people in the country we must give them the country. The real patriotism of America, the ballast that steadies the vessel of state, is to be found in the freeholders of the Western States. A war of classes is looming in the near future. Let them call to their side—it will be done to soon—a peasant proprietary attached to the soil by owning it and to law which forms the security to their rights of property. We again urge the sale of Crown lands, the reclamation and disposal of our wastes, the settlement of the Irish upon the land of Ireland. We are treading on the hot sinners of a social crater. Our system is dangerous, solitarily artificial. No country in the world has so few owners of the soil. Not an hour is to be lost in setting our houses in order.

A wonderful Cashmere shawl, now in Calcutta, will be among the sights of the great exhibition at Paris, next year. It is worked in arabesques of unheated of sineness, on red ground, and was ten years in the workman's frame. It was originally ordered for the Queen of Oude, not long before the Sepoy revolt.

The San Francisco Mint coined $2,312,000 in gold and silver in the month of October.

Essence of Jamaica Ginger.

This valuable preparation containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise; for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes.

It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

PUGET SOUND WEEKLY.

MONDAY, December 10, 1866.

ST. CHARLES COLLEGE.

We take great pleasure in recommending to the public a new institution, the St. Charles College, at Steilacoom, presided over by the Rev. Charles Vary. The object of the teachers is to prepare young men to occupy good situations in society. Among the several branches which shall be taught we will mention all the common and higher branches, including Algebra, Geometry, Surveying, Navigation, Greek, Latin, French and Phonography.

A firm but gentle discipline will be kept, and meanwhile every creed shall be free. Pupils will be expected to attend for decorum to the religious exercise of the Institution.

We sincerely believe that such an establishment under the management of a clergyman assisted by competent Professors will receive the patronage of our fellow citizens, and we hope they will encourage the efforts of the President of so worthy an Institution. Term opened December 4th.

AUCTION SALES.—There will be a sale of goods seized for violation of the revenue laws, at the Custom House, in Port Townsend, on the 19th of the present month. The amount of goods for sale is large, consisting of liquors, dry-goods, groceries, clothing, etc. The quantity of liquors is especially noticeable, and are of the best brands, in packages of every kind. The attention of persons wishing to purchase is especially called to the opportunity as one seldom occurring on so large a scale for profitable investment.

The bark Caroline Reed, which had been out some two or three weeks, returned during the past week, to Port Angeles, water-logged. The bark George Washington also put back after being out some time, in a similar condition. These are the first vessels we have heard of which have suffered damage from the late prevailing storms, and we sincerely hope we may not hear of worse disasters with loss of life.

The Victoria Chronicle says His Excellency the Governor has instructed the Harbourmaster to suspend the collection of dues under the Stock and Carcass Act, until such time as the existing tax laws of Vancouver Island can be adjusted by the next Legislature.

We understand that the fire still rages in the Bellingham Bay Coal Mine, and that work will probably not be resumed till spring. It is designed to sink a fresh shaft a quarter of a mile further on the level.

A Fair will be held by the Rev. Sister of Charity at Steilacoom on 20th and 21st inst. A full attendance is requested.

From Central American.

GUATEMALA.—The 15th of September, the anniversary of the liberation of Central America from the Spanish yoke, was celebrated throughout the Republic with great enthusiasm.

HONDURAS.—President Medina and his Ministers visited the village of Ocotepeque during the month of September with the view of arranging several matters of public interest. The government has prohibited the cultivation of tobacco on the frontiers of Guatemala and Salvador, with the view of preventing contraband traffic in that article.

SALVADOR.—The official public organ of 20th September, publishes a legislative decree imposing certain penalties on thieves and burglars, in order to satisfy the general clamor which has been raised in consequence of the frequency with which robberies and burglaries have been committed in the country towns. The penalty being, where death is not incurred, transportation for life, and those who conceal the robbery will get from one to two hundred lashes. Robberies not exceeding $100, and not less than $10, will be punished with fifty lashes. This does not apply to women under 15 and over 60.

NICARAGUA.—The election of President of the Republic is absorbing the attention of the Nicaraguans.

COSTA RICA.—This Republic continues to enjoy peace under the liberal and intelligent administration of Senor Castro.

FINANCE.—The New York Tribune severely censures the Secretary of the Treasury, for keeping $100,000,000 in coin in the Government vaults, when he might use it to diminish the national debt and reduce the annual interest $5,000,000. The Tribune says:

Were the Secretary to use this coin forthwith in the purchase and extinction of the public debt, he would, first, reduce the premium on gold—in other words, diminish the debasement of the currency, thus bringing us ever so much nearer to healthy, natural prices; secondly, he would signally appreciate our public debt, and compel foreigners who henceforth buy it to pay something like its actual value; thirdly, it would arrest speculation and diminish importation; fourthly, it would enable the Secretary to renew his loans, when he shall be called to renew them, on terms far more favorable than he can otherwise hope for. By buying up and extinguishing nearly one hundred millions of public debt, he inevitably appreciates what remains, rendering its holders more reluctant to sell and others more eager to buy securities which are seen to be rising steadily in value. And, by continuing to pay up, extinguish, so fast as he can, with either coin or currency, the Secretary would soon be able to place a five per cent. Consol at par or over, absorbing therein most of our debt, and thus reducing the annual interest at least twenty millions.

We are informed that our statement, last week, to the effect that Major Van Bokkelen had received the appointment of Deputy Collector for this district, was incorrect.

A GUN INVENTION.—T. J. Cranmer, Calaveras county, California, is about to exhibit in Stockton a remarkable engine of destruction recently invented by himself. It is thus described by the Sonora Democrat:

The model is only about thirty inches long, including the barrels, three in number, and yet the rapidity, force and accuracy of its firing almost surpasses belief. It is said that the gun can be made to discharge not less than three hundred balls per minute. It is quarter size; a full sized gun will discharge twelve hundred balls per minute. It is so simple, also, that a child could apparently manage it. The whole machine is encased in a small iron box, and looks as if it could be carried under a man's arm. The charges are placed in a sort of hopper, like a coffee mill, divided by a tin partition. In one side is placed the powder and in the other balls, the hopper containing enough for several rounds. The caps are placed in a little sliding arrangement at the side of the gun. This being done, all that is to do is to turn a small crank and the battery opens its fire with tremendous force and rapidity. The cylinder of the model exhibited is six and a half inches long, nine inches in diameter and contains eighty-four chambers, resembling the chambers in Colt's six-shooter. It loads and caps itself and works with all the ease of a revolving pistol. The charge of powder required is only about one-third the quantity used in other guns.

At a recent banquet in Philadelphia, John Minor Botts drew a ring from his finger and said: "Gentlemen, the signet of this ring is composed of filings from the old Independence bell. It was presented to me by Mayor Swift. I wore it until armed rebellion raised its treasonable hand against the Union. Then I laid it by, determined not to resume it until the Union was restored. God's help I was again in a condition to wear this precious ring, and I shall, on the first fitting opportunity, present it to the victorious champion of the Union—General U. S. Grant."

NEW DISCOVERY.—A Canyon City Correspondent under date of Nov. 4th says:

Dr. Bruney (a man who has gained considerable reputation as an explorer and prospector) has just returned from the North Fork of John Day, which stream he prospected for a distance of fifty four miles. He reports gold in paying quantities on all the principal bars; and further states that by the hydraulic process, from twenty to forty dollars a day to the hand would be no exaggeration.

FATE OF ROMAN POWITTS.—A dignitary of the Roman Church recently said, that forty five Powitts have either been driven out of Rome, or had never set their foot in it; nine times that city had been held by usurpers; seven times that city had been sacked and all but destroyed; in every century since there was a patrimony of St. Peter, those provinces had been occupied by usurpation and violence; so that what they saw at this moment was nothing to that which had been, and which would be to the end.

$75,493 in gold, from the sale of the pirate Shenandoah, at Liverpool, have been paid into the United States Treasury.

BARBER SHOP, AND BATH HOUSE

Commercial St. Seattle, Two Doors from the corner of Mill and Commercial streets. Shaving, Shampooing Hair Cutting and Dressing, Hair Dying and Duffs. ARCHYR FOX. Nov 6, 1866-u32-1t

A great many fine hits are being made at the Plantation Bitters, by a score or two of disbelievers and counterfeiters. It is all of no use. You people won't be long into education. The Plantation Bitters are becoming more and more popular every day, and "what's what's the matter?" They are in the same sized bottle, and made just as they were at first, and will continue to be, or we shall stop making them.

The Plantation Bitters purify, strengthen and invigorate. They cure a healthy appetite. They cause a sudden change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation. They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and the exhausted nature's great restorer. The Recipe and full Circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, Merchants, and persons whose ordinary duties induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, dizziness after eating, liver complaint, constipation, &c., will find substantial and permanent relief in these Bitters. But above all, they are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers.

They are sold by all respectable merchants. See that each bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork and steel-plate label.

Beware of imitations. See that the stamp has not been tampered with. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is a swindler and impostor, and should be immediately reported to us.

MUSTANG LINIMENT.

OVER A MILLION DOLLARS SAVED. "I had a leg worth $1,200 that was cut off from a bad hurt in the leg, and was useless for over a year. I had used everything, I could hear of without benefit, until I used the Mexican Mustang Liniment. It soon effected a permanent cure." J. J. DOWNING. Montgomery, Ala., June 17, 1859.

"It is the pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scratches or Cuts on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism, &c., and all say it acts like magic." J. W. NEWITT. Foreman American, Wells, Fargo's and Harding's Express.

"The swollen of my daughter's ankle, occasioned while skating last winter, was entirely cured in one week, after she commenced using your celebrated Mustang Liniment." ED. SEELY. Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 1, 1865.

It is an admitted fact that the Mexican Mustang Liniment performs more cures in shorter time, on man and beast, than any article ever discovered. Physicians, lawyers and planters should always have it on hand. Quick and sure it certainly is. All genuine is wrapped in steelplate engravings, bearing U. S. Stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. over the top. An effort has been made to counterfeit it with a cheap stone-plate label. Look closely.

Lyon's Katharion.

It is a most delightful Hair Dressing. It eradicates scurf and dandruff. It keeps the head cool and clean. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy. It prevents hair turning gray and falling out. It restores hair upon prematurely bald heads. This is what Lyon's Katharion will do. It is precisely as cheap—indeed, it is a hierarchy sold by the world, and yet its incredible demand is almost daily increasing, until there is hardly a country store that does not keep it, or a family that does not use it. E. THOMAS LYON, Chemist, N. Y.

Lyon's Extract Ginger.

Lyon's Extract of PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, Flatulency, &c., where a warming stimulant is required. Its careful preparation and entire purity make a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold every where at 50 cents per bottle. Ask for "LYON'S" PURE EXTRACT. Take no other.

CAUTION.—See that the private U. S. Stamp of Demas, Barnes & Co. is over the cork of each bottle. None other is genuine.

Lyon's Flea Powder.

DEATH TO FLEAS.—It is well known that Lyon's genuine Magnetic Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of fleas, ticks, bed-bugs, roaches, &c.; that it is perfectly poison to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to the human species and domestic animals.—The genuine has the signature of E. LYON, and the private stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation or counterfeit.—Any druggist will procure the genuine if you insist you will have no other. Oct. 8, 1866-u29-1y.
