UNION PLATFORM.

WHEREAS, The Union Convention, now in session at Vancouver, Washington Territory, deem it their duty, as representatives of the Union party, to clearly and unequivocally define the position they occupy in common with all Union citizens; therefore be it

Resolved, That the late rebellion against the legitimate authority of the United States, directed against the life of the nation, having been crushed, it becomes the duty of the representatives of the loyal masses to take such measures for the national preservation as will prevent a future expenditure of blood and treasure, and protect all law-abiding citizens in the enjoyment of their rights.

Resolved, That while we all earnestly desire such a regeneration of those who so persistently endeavored to destroy the nation during four years of rebellion, as would enable us to extend to them once again the right hand of fellowship, self preservation forbids us to trust them until they have manifested a sincere contrition for the past and proved by their future conduct that they have the welfare of the United States enshrined in their hearts as their governing principle.

Resolved, That the bloody massacres of Memphis and New Orleans, as well as the general persecution of the Union men throughout the South, and the selection of notorious rebels for civil offices, prove that the temper of those who strive to destroy this great nation remains as yet unchanged. Beaten in their appeal to arms, they are now striving to acquire political power which would inevitably be used to accomplish our destruction.

Resolved, That we most heartily rejoice in the adoption of the thirtieth amendment to the Constitution, whereby slavery or involuntary servitude, except for crime, is forever destroyed, and cordially approve of the proposed amendment to the Constitution, known as the Fourteenth Article, believing that it contains principles essential to our national security, and future unity and welfare.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse and fully sustain the reconstruction bill passed by Congress at the last session, as it prevents those who have already labored to destroy the nation from re-acquiring power to renew the contest.

Resolved, That we urge Congress not to overlook the claims of the Northern Pacific Railroad. On its construction depends in a great degree the future prosperity of the entire North-West, and of the loyal millions who will inhabit it. We believe that it would develop resources, agricultural, mineral and commercial, of incalculable value to the United States, and that our delegate will devote his best energies to the accomplishment of this great enterprise.

Resolved, That in our opinion the Union members of the Thirty-ninth Congress have labored faithfully and zealously for the public interests and deserve the Nation's thanks.

POLITICAL.

In conducting the election campaign this year, it will be well to define positions and issues at an early moment. Unlike years past, it is not merely shall one party triumph and the other fail? but principles, vital to the nation and country, are involved. Mr. Flanders or Mr. Clark is not merely to be elected and sent to Congress, but each one is a representative man, and as such his mere personality is of small moment. Mr. Flanders represents the principles and party of progress in the United States. He is their candidate. He adopts their platform. He stands before the world as their man. His record as such is made. Those principles and that party are as vital to the well being of the nation as when rebellion was in its palmy days. The struggle is to be sure no longer on the battle field, but it is going on and the election in June will be a victory or a defeat, not of Mr. Flanders, but of those noble principles as far as Washington Territory is concerned.

Mr. Clark is a representative man. With him as such we have to deal. His victory or defeat will be so regarded. And the principles and party he represents willingly or unwillingly are in opposition to progress, to humanity, to justice, and national safety. Let any man read carefully the platform upon which he is placed by those who nominated him, and he can see the evidence of the truth of the above statement. He cannot carry out those principles without outraging his own better convictions and the feelings of the moral and intelligent lovers of our country. Let men every where remember these stubborn facts. We are to support principles this time, and not persons. Home or local pride should be sacrificed for the general good. Mr. Flanders also will be in sympathy with the party in Congress who are the ruling power and who are determined that treason unsuccessful on the battle field shall not rule by legislation. Mr. Clark will be in opposition to that power and hence powerless for any good.

There are 100 rat catchers in Paris who make $130 per night.

VICTORIA. ITS LESSONS. ETC.

The traveler of two or three days sojourn in Victoria will be deeply impressed with the depression and decline so marked. "To let" is the large proprietor, and the end is not yet reached. A vast outlay of money in property brings no return and fails to retain the inhabitants. "Passing away" is every where manifest. The inquiry naturally arises: Why all this? and what the remedy? Making all proper allowances for overdoing and therefore some reaction, the conviction forces itself upon the mind that its governmental relations have had much to do in causing its present condition, and will have in shaping its future. This feeling is entertained by the intelligent of the place. Its distance from the Home Government, its isolation, and its friction with Uncle Sammel, all operate against prosperity. To support a sprig of royalty, about twenty thousand dollars are paid yearly to the governor so called, saying nothing of all the paraphernalia of aristocracy, running through every ramifications of society. Those who live and prosper in the United States and grumble about high taxes, ought to do penance for a time by living here and bearing their share of the burdens of a kingly or queenly government. Apart from the principle of the government the easiest and shortest way out of present trouble is annexation to the United States of America. Hemmed in as it now is, it is clear to the philosopher that it will be more and more fettered if not actually squeezed to death. Already Russian America is becoming a household word and steamers are advertised for Sitka and New Archangel; and the energetic, who give and inspire life wherever they go, are preparing to unfurl the star spangled banner upon the frontiers of our North West. It does not take an eagle eye to see that Victoria and region round about, in becoming part and parcel of this land, would at once start on the road to greatness. The manifest "ocean bound" destiny of the United States is becoming more apparent every year. With the suppression of the rebellion, "I am an American Citizen" is a term of almost magic power.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY.—A correspondent writing from Whidby's Island says:

MR. EDITOR:—In looking over a late number of the GAZETTE, I noticed an account of the death of Mr. Henry Roland of this island, and a statement that after his death, a Mr. Demming moved into his house with the klooehman and children, and that his conduct towards them became so cruel that the klooehman was driven to despair and fled from her dwelling, and after taking the lives of her two little children, "put an end to her own existence by means of her shawl." In justice to Mr. Demming I wish to state, that he, being a neighbor of the deceased, was engaged by the administrator to go and take care of the property, which he did in a satisfactory manner, treating the woman and her children with the most kindness, as is believed. But the Indian woman on learning the financial affairs of the deceased, and that her portion of all which she had considered her own, was nothing and that she would be obliged to return to her friends with her three children, with nothing to show for her her toils, nothing for the support of her children, became frantic. To reason with her was out of the question. Mr. Demming contemplated taking the two eldest of the children, and procuring, if possible, some place for them where they might be brought up in civilized society, and receive the benefit of an education. But all at once the woman and the two younger children were missing and although diligent search was made for some time after, they were not found until quite recently, when they were found suspended from the limb of a tree. It was certainly a shocking affair, but no blame should be attached to Mr. Demming. The charge is without foundation.

A poor Hindoo, having been released from the cares of this world, and from a scurvy wife, presented himself at the gate of Brahma's paradise.

"Have you been through purgatory?" asked the god.

"No, but I have been married," he replied seriously.

"Come in, then, it's all the same."

At this moment arrived another man, just defunct, who begged of Brahma to be permitted to go in also.

"Softly, softly! have you been through purgatory?"

"No; but what of that? Did you not admit, a moment ago, one who had not been there any more than I?"

"Certainly; but he has been married."

"Married? Who are you talking to? I have been married twice."

"Oh, pahaw! replied Brahma; "get away! Paradise is not for fools."

STANDS FIRM.—The New Orleans Times says that Louisiana "cannot be moved from her high position. She stands firmly on her constitutional rights as a member of the Federal Union." This is rather cool from men who, two years ago, insisted just as fiercely that their relations to the Union were absolutely and legally severed. They now claim that the old tie has held firm all along. This may be true, but which doctrine do they believe?

A PARALLEL.—The western radicals are enjoying the following "parallel" between our Johnson "Moses," and the Moses of old, got up by one of their wits:—

Moses led his people through the sea; Johnson led his into it.

Moses asked Pharaoh to let the people go; Johnson was asked by Congress to let the people go, but wouldn't.

Moses cast down and broke the tables of the law; so has Johnson.

Moses erected a serpent in the wilderness and the people lived; Johnson erected a serpent in New Orleans and the people died.

Moses slew an Egyptian; Johnson "slews" himself.

Moses had Aaron for a spokesman; Johnson has his spokesman, Aaron made and showed a manerger.

Moses ate quails in the wilderness; Johnson entertained "quails" at the White House.

Moses sang a song of triumph; Johnson sings on the other side of his mouth.

Moses was angry with the people; so is Johnson.

In Moses' time there were plagues by reason of hanging on to slavery and maintaining the slave power; so there is in Johnson's.

Moses esteemed reproach greater than the riches of Egypt, for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward; Johnson esteems his "policy" far above reproach, and had respect unto the recompense of the pardon-brokers.

Moses was the meekest man; Johnson is the "umblest individual."

Moses sent spies to spy out the land, and they brought back an evil report; so did Johnson and they brought back increased radical majorities.

Moses didn't bring his people into the promised land; so didn't Johnson.

The Albany Journal makes an old story forcibly illustrate the consequences of the Copperhead view of the political situation. Alluding to the idea that the acts of individuals cannot effect the rights or conditions of the body politic, and that the revolted States have therefore lost some of their rights by rebellion, the Journal proceeds to make the following illustration: The Duke of York was a bishop of the Church of England, and also a General in the army. One day he was heard to swear by a friend who rebuked him for his profanity. The Duke excused himself by saying that it was only as a General he swore. "But," said his friend, "your Grace, when the General is damned, what becomes of the Bishop?" So if the people forming a political community have lost all their rights by the act of rebellion, what becomes of the State?

A London letter writer expresses doubt, should Napoleon die, whether the French nation would submit to a ten year's regency even of the Empress, personally popular as she has made herself. She is not a French woman, and there are many in France who, to this day, persist in doubting if she is the actual mother of the Prince Imperial. Besides, religiously speaking, she is the most superstitious and fanatical woman living, and would be certain, sooner or later, to involve herself and the nation in some serious disaster, growing out of her wild vagaries.

The Copperheads of Washington Territory have declared in favor of electing men "who love and are determined to preserve the American Constitution and the American Union." This is "going back on" the record that declared the "war a failure." If when the Union was in peril, they had resolved that it should be preserved, instead of resolving against the use of measures for its preservation, the proceeding would have been pertinent and timely, as well as much more creditable.—Oregonian.

A married man of our acquaintance says the first thing that ever turned his attention to matrimony was the neat and skillful manner in which a pretty girl handled a broom. He may see the time when the manner in which that broom will be handled will not afford him quite so much satisfaction.

Take wine-glass, fill it with wine—see that you fill it drop by drop, with as much wine as it will hold without running over. Then drop into the wine-glass as many pins as the glass can contain, and the wine will not run over. Take a fresh glass of similar size, pour the wine from the first glass into it and you will have a glass full of pins and a glass full of wine.

The act organizing Idaho Territory has been amended by Congress so that no Legislature can meet till December, 1868. In view of the disgraceful scene at Boise city last winter, Congress would be justified in depriving Idaho of a Legislature for ten years to come.

A gentleman having occasion to call upon an author, found him in his study writing. He remarked the great heat of the apartment, and said, "It is hot as an oven." So it ought to be," replied the author, "for it is here I make my bread."

Not less than a thousand people in New York live by fortune telling and other such methods of gaining a livelihood.

Over 3,060 bales of cotton in Atlanta, Georgia, are awaiting transportation north.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all the impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. OUR AGENTS.

Table listing agents for various locations: San Francisco, Victoria, Tekelet, Port Madison, Snohomish City, Port Discovery, Port Orchard, Port Townsend, Port Ladlow, Port Blakely, Coupeville, Whatcom.

FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS, ALVAN FLANDERS, OF WALLA WALLA.

For Prosecuting Attorney, 3d Judicial District, JAMES K. KENNEDY, OF JEFFERSON.

THE PROSPECTS.

The rival candidates for Congressional honors passed up the Sound on Thursday last having filled all their appointments below this place on the Sound. Flanders stock is unquestionably firm with a decided upward tendency.

By the way, as Frank Clark is such an extraordinary man, can he not, in advance of the election, secure the annexation of Vancouver's Island to Washington Territory. Let him try his hand with the military, as he is so powerful in that department.

Our neighbors are doubtless well posted by the Orphan Boy, in regard to those "who have heretofore represented the Territory at Washington." They, it seems, (the Orphan Boy's friend Cole included) "have been too busily engaged in figuring up their pay and mileage."

THE NEW GOVERNOR.—A telegram announces that M. F. Moore has been appointed and confirmed as Governor of this Territory.

The Colonist "sympathizes" for the Orphan. The Victoria Colonist, of a recent date, contains what the Standard styles "a first rate notice of our candidate for Delegate."

We would also recommend the Orphan Boy to take steps to secure the establishment of an election precinct in Victoria. The warehouse of the Hudson Bay Co. would be a convenient point at which to open the polls, so that those who are such admirers of this "energetic, able, conservative man, who is known through the length and breadth of the North Pacific Coast," and who are especially interested in securing his election, the opportunity of voting for him.

Our neighbors are doubtless well posted by the Orphan Boy, in regard to those "who have heretofore represented the Territory at Washington." They, it seems, (the Orphan Boy's friend Cole included) "have been too busily engaged in figuring up their pay and mileage."

THE RUSSIAN TELEGRAPH.—Captain Ingalls, of the bark Egmont, received a telegram from London yesterday afternoon, advising him of the purchase of the bark Egmont by the Western Union Telegraph Company; so the Russian-American Telegraph will probably go on again.—Victoria News.

WE have received the Daily Congressional Globe regularly for a long time, for which we are indebted to the kindness of Hon. A. A. Denny. Mr. Denny will also please accept our thanks for a copy of the Bankrupt Law.

THANKS.—Capt. Finch, of the steamer Eliza Anderson, will please accept our thanks for kind favors.

Public Speaking. Hon. ALVAN FLANDERS, Union Candidate for Delegate to Congress, and S. Garfield, Esq., will address their fellow citizens upon the political issues of the day at the following times and places:

ATTENTION!!! Whereas, at the May term of the County Commissioners Court, an appropriation of two thousand dollars was made for the opening of the Snoqualmie Wagon Road, Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the County Commissioners for the opening of said road as follows, viz:

1st. So much per mile from the point where work was left off between Cedar River and Squak Prairie, to the Squak Creek. 2d. So much per mile from Squak Creek to the point where the road is opened from Snoqualmie Prairie to Squak Creek. 3d. So much per mile from where work was left off in or near the Snoqualmie Pass, through the Snoqualmie Pass and to the open country in the Yakima Valley.

ALL bids must be in on or before the 25th inst.; and the right to reject any or all of the bids to be reserved by the Commissioners.

G. KELLOGG, Clerk Board County Commissioners. Dated, Seattle, May 10th, 1867.

The New World will make an excursion to Victoria, so as to be in that city on the Queen's birthday, the 24th inst. She will leave Olympia on Thursday morning. Returning will leave Victoria either Friday evening or early Saturday morning. The Victorians are making preparations and will receive the Good Templars (who may go over) in good style. For the round trip, the fare will be reduced. For full particulars, see circulars.

NEW PAPER AT PORT TOWNSEND.—A. B. Pettygrove & Co. have issued the prospectus of a new paper, to be called the "Weekly Message," the publication of which is to begin at Port Townsend on or about the 21st inst. It is to be a Union paper and we doubt not that it will succeed. Port Townsend has long needed a newspaper and the "Message" promises to be exactly the thing needed.

POLITICAL GATHERING AT THE CAPITAL.—A grand political gathering at Olympia took place on Saturday last. The steamer Resolute of Port Madison, the Cyrus Walker of Port Gamble and the Colfax of Seabeck carried passengers free of charge. The Anderson came down to this place and returned, having been chartered to carry passengers free of charge.

ARRIVAL.—The A I ship Astart, 1574 tons register, Captain Dodd, 160 days from Aden on the Red Sea, arrived at Royal Roads on Monday night. The Astart is consigned to Capt. Stamp, and will proceed to Burrard Inlet and take a cargo of spars for the French Government.—Victoria News.

THE RUSSIAN TELEGRAPH.—Captain Ingalls, of the bark Egmont, received a telegram from London yesterday afternoon, advising him of the purchase of the bark Egmont by the Western Union Telegraph Company; so the Russian-American Telegraph will probably go on again.—Victoria News.

WE have received the Daily Congressional Globe regularly for a long time, for which we are indebted to the kindness of Hon. A. A. Denny.

Mr. Denny will also please accept our thanks for a copy of the Bankrupt Law.

CONCERT.—The Pixly Sisters gave concerts on Monday and Wednesday evenings of last week at Yessler's Hall. The entertainments were decidedly good, and were well worth the price of admission.

PASSENGERS BY THE NEW WORLD, MAY 9TH.—A. Gardiner, Dr. Settle, Mr. Johnston, A. J. Cain, Blethin, Thompson, P. Mitchell, A. S. Pinkham, Mrs. Folsom, J. O. Ellis, W. R. Sinclair, T. Lindmith.

WE are informed that E. L. Smith has been appointed and confirmed Secretary of this Territory.

THANKS.—Capt. Finch, of the steamer Eliza Anderson, will please accept our thanks for kind favors.

Public Speaking. Hon. ALVAN FLANDERS, Union Candidate for Delegate to Congress, and S. Garfield, Esq., will address their fellow citizens upon the political issues of the day at the following times and places:

ASTROLOGY. THE WORLD ASTONISHED. AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST, MADAME H. A. FERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doubtful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets—and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame, by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair. Address, MADAME H. A. FERRIGO, 7-1/2 P. O. DRAWER 298, BUFFALO, N. Y.

Reparator Capilla. Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig; Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair, And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair. REPARATOR CAPILLA. For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilla; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Address, W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3. West Fayette Street, ST. LOUIS, N. Y. 4-no-7-1/2
