LOUIS NAPOLEON'S MORNING PRAYER.

Mon Dieu! Mon Dieu! great holy God, (If God, perchance, there be.) Oh, please exalt the great French race, (At least take care of me!) (At least take care of me:)
Oh, lead our armies in the fight,
(And to my ears reveal,)
And help me guide their steps aright,
(Where I can rob and steal.

I feel the weight of passing years,
(My days, oh lengthen out.)
I thus may rule the great French race,
(And bring my ends about.)
They're but a simple people, Lord,
(By my great wisdom led;)
And, with Thy aid, I still will reign,
(And thus retain my head.)

These Kings and Czars are foolish ones,
(I rule them all, in fact.)
Oh, Lord. pray help me stir them up,
(With craft and cunning tact.)
I toil alone for Frenchmen's good,
(When it proves good for me;)
And all my power Thou wilt increase,
(It shall their glory be.)

Pray, belp me spread our Empire o'er (Those Yankees of the West.)
Thy Church I'm toiling to restore, (When Find which is best;)
Pray, give my Empress fruifful health, (And bless my youthful heir;)
So all my race may power and wealth, (Partieu! what do I care?)

CALISTOGA HOT-SPRINGS, NAPPA VALLEY -A NOVEL WELL -In our columns, of late, allusions have been made to an attempt to produce an Artesian well of cold water, in the vicinity of the above named Springs. In one experiment, lukewarm water was found at a depth of thirty feet, which rose to within four feet of the surface; hard boulders were encountered, and the well was piped and the boring suspended. A second experiment was tried in a different locality, and boring was continued to a depth of seventy-three feet; boiling hot water was found here, which rose to within three feet of the surface. The rock at this depth proved too hard for the drills, and this well was piped and labor thereon suspended. A third trial has been made in a hot spring, 110 Fahrenheit, with the following result: At the depth of twentyfive feet a stream of beiling hot water was struck, which rose about a foot above the surface; piping has been effected to this depth. Passing through calcareous rock, at the depth of forty-five feet, a fissure in the rock was reached, from which is constantly ejected a jet of very hot steam, causing the water in and about the jet to boil ed the enemy. LATE EASTERN NEWS!

DATES TO APRIL 20th.

Newbern, N. C. April 14 .- According to the Raleigh Progress, the people of western North Carolina recently hung several Confederate officers and soldiers for attempting to enforce the conscription.

The Raleigh Confederate says: The result of the State election depends on the success of the rebel arms. If our armies are defeated Holdon will be elected Governor by a large majority.

Both Senate and House have adopted resolutions authorizing inquiry into the Fort Pillow slaughter. Bill relating to donating lands in Oregon and California, passed the Senate.

New York, April 18 .- Gen. Banks' army moved this morning in the direction of Shrevesport.

Accounts from the rebel lines say, the feeling in Kirby Smith's army was bad, and not more than half the men will stand the fight. He has great unpopularity among Louisianians,

Accounts confirm the report of large numbers of citizens daily subscribing to the amnesty oath.

Works without guns had been found use-

All the cotton along the river had been burned.

In the skirmish at Fort Jessup, on the 2d we took 40 prisoners. Our loss slight.

A pitched battle is not probable, unless Kirby Smith can fall upon a detachment of Banks' forces.

The rebel army is reported 20,000 strong with 72 pieces of artillery.

Gen. Price is said to be approaching with 7,000 men.

Chicago, April 19.-Late advices from Red river say, a fight was reported to have taken place on Cane river, at Henderson Hill, 20 miles distant. Five Federal regiments and one battery were engaged. Nineteen officers, 28 privates, 2 brass six-pounders, 2 12-pounders, 280 horses and about the same number of small arms were captured.

A small skirmish occurred on the 6th, at Pleasant Hill, within five miles of Shreves-

On the 7th, a slight skirmish took place five miles above Natchitoches. The Union troops were driven in, but ralied, and the enemy retreated with a loss. The Union forces had thirty killed and wounded.

Alexandria advices to the 8th, state, the army was in fine spirits and moving steadily on to Shrevesport. It was thought the enemy would retreat to Texas.

Letters dated Grand Echo, La., 10th divisions of the 18th army corps, after a hard fought action, were overpowered and put to rout by largely superior rebel forces. The 19th corps came up and finally check-

New York, April 20 .- Telegrams dated the 19th, say it is rumored that Lee is moving a portion of his cavalry this side of the Rapidan near Madison Court House; we have nothing reliable, however.

Information has been received of the presence of a considerable body of the rebel cavalry near Leesburg. Measures have been taken to check their advance, should it be attempted.

SEATTLE, W. T., MAY 3, 1864.

MAKE NO PARTY DISTINCTIONS.

We contend that there is no necessity whatever for drawing party lines, in this Territory, at the election to take place next and partook of an excellent frepast, after month. There is not a single question of national politics now before the country which should divide the suffrages of a patriotic people. It would be gratifying indeed, if such a state of unanimity prevailed the steamer left her wharf. Paying a passas could dispense with more than a single candidate for each office to be filled; but we can scarcely hope that old party prejudices will permit such a course on this occasion. Opposing candidates will, no doubt, be put in the field, and purely imaginary issues created to confuse the people and divide their votes. This is the policy of demagogues to accomplish their private purposes; but if the voters must choose between the nominees of canenses and conventions. they may and ought to do so without reference to party, and with a view to select honest and capable men. We hope no faction will put up men of doubtful loyalty; but if this is done, the true Union man will find his duty the easier to perform. It is likely, however, that all candidates, before the election, will be intensely Union in their sentiments; in such cases, the past actions and opinions of the aspirants will furnish blows worthy of gods in your own irona criterion by which the people may judge of their sincerity, and choose accordingly. We are disinclined to say anything have no commerce, no mining, no manufacmore upon this subject than to urge the importance of selecting reliable Union men for the Legislature, and men who will pledge themselves to employ their time, in that body, in something better than fruitless party quarrels, and hatching schemes for private speculation. King county has this year to elect, one member of the Assembly, and one joint member with Snohomish. By a call for a convention, in to-day's paper, it will be seen that some parties suppose there will be a joint Councilman to elect for Kitsap and King, in place of Mr. Sinclair, who, it is said, has ceased to be a resident of the District. We are not informed as to the facts in the case, and therefore have nothing to say.

OLD ACQUAINTANCES .- Harry and Joe. Taylor, of the old favorite Taylor band of Minstrels, dropped in, last week, upon their Seattle friends, and gave an entertainment on Friday night in Yesler's Hall. Mr. Tom Lafont, the great whistler and imitator, known as the "American Mocking bird," is travelling with the troupe, and together they contrive to get up a very good show. Songs, glees, negro delineations and imitations, in which they are all proficient, constitute the entertainment; and Lafont's whistling is certainly so perfect that he might aspire to give lessons to an aviary of bridge Island, when, by means of a small allowed to rest quiet in his provincial rerequested to take the oath of allegiance. young mocking birds. May Day .- On yesterday morning the youth and beauty of Seattle met in the grove near the University for the purpose of celebrating May-day. A tastefully decorated stage had been erected, upon which, after a few brief and appropriate remarks, Miss LENORA DENNY was crowned "Queen of May" by Mr. GEORGE McCONAHA. The party then repaired to the University Hall, which, all accepted an invitation to take an excursion across the Sound on the steamer J. B. Libby. At 11 oclock, with colors flying, and fair ones discoursing sweet music, ing visit to Freeport, the excursionists proceeded to Port Madison, where they were of the mills, foundery, machine shops, etc., by the proprietor, Mr. G. A. Meiggs. After two hours on shore the company returned to the steamer and were soon again at enjoyment.

VIRGINIA DESCRIBED BY ONE OF HER OWN Sons .- A few years ago, in Virginia, during one of the gubenatorial campaigns. Henry A. Wise, in a speech, gave a vivid view of what slavery has done for the South. In language as graphic as truthful he says :

Commerce has long spread her sails and sailed away from you. You have not, as yet, dug more than coal enough to warm set no tilt-hammers of Vulcan to strike foundries; you have not yet spun more than coarse cotton enough, in the way of manufacture, to clothe your own slaves. turers. You have relied alone on the single power of agriculture, and such agriculture! Your sedge-patch outshines the sun. Your inattention to your only source of wealth has seared the very bosom of mother earth. Instead of having to feed cattle on a thousand hills, you have had to chase the stump-tailed steer through the sedgepatches to procure a tough beef steak. The present condition of things has existed too long in Virginia. The landlord has skinned the tenant, and the tenant has skinned the land until all have grown poor together.

LIEUT. Maury is still in England, writing busily and malignantly against the Federal Government, to which, throughout the greater part of his life, he has been indebted for the clothes upon his back, the leather upon his feet, and the meat upon his bones. He has been "lame of a leg" for many years, and as for his poor crippled mind, it has to go on crutches.

AN INVOLUNTARY EXCURSION .- About 2 o'clock this morning, the new scow Henry Adams tripped her anchor and drifted out on the ebb tide, carrying our friend Hornbeck, who was the only person on board, unconsciously away. The following passage from a speech of Reverdy Johnson, made in his place in the Senate, is worthy of note, being from a man of high legal attainments, and all his life a citizen of a slave State, Maryland :

LATE EASTERN NEWS!

DATES TO APRIL 27th.

New York, April 25 .- Authentic intelbgence states that the rebels are busily engaged strengthening the fortifications at Richmond, and the opinion prevails that Lee will fall back there when Grant adances, and no considerable resistance will e made on the Rapidan.

Fortress Mouroe, April 24,—An officer who has just arrived from Roanoke Island makes the following report:

Gen. Wessels surrendered Plymouth on the 20th, after four days' fighting. Our loss was 150 killed and 2,500 prisoners.— The rebel loss was 1,500 killed.

The Richmond Sentinel, of the 22d inst. says the following dispatch was received by Gen. Brannon :

Plymouth, April 21 .- I have stormed and taken this place, capturing one brigade of 1,600 men, with stores and 15 pieces of F. R. HOKE, Brig. General. The latest advices from Gen. Steel were that he was within 60 miles of Shrevesport with 10,000.

Chicago, April 25.-The House last night passed the Senate bill reported from the Committee of Public Lands, with reference to the donation of land claims in Oregon and Washington Territory. The bill donates lands to Oregon for the construction of Wagon Road, Military and Postal purposes.

New York, April 27 .- All quiet in front to-day. A heavy reconvoissance into the valley developed the fact that there was no considerable body of rebels this side of the Rapidan. It is believed that Lee would not venture upon an offensive movement. Reports prevail that he was removing his heavy artillery to Richmond, but there is no foundation for the rumor.

Longstreet's force is at Thoroughfare

Fitzhugh Lee's division was reviewed today by Gen. Stuart at Hampton Crossings, below Fredericksburg.

Deserters are again coming into our lines. At one point the average number has been eight per day for the last week.

Rumors are affoat that the rebel Government is leaving Richmond and Lee is falling back behind its defences.

Newbern, April 23 .- Reports from Plymouth say that our flag still flies over the fortifications there thoughthe enemy has possession of the town and river. It is said that Gen. Wessels retired with his forces to the fortifications with lifteen days' provisions. This report is believed. Washington and Newbern are much stronger fortified than Plymouth, and with a few more troops and gunboats which are said to be on their way can he held against the rebels.

GEN. GREENBACK .- The best joke of the season, (and the South sees it,) is the marching of the Federal Gen. Greenbacks into the Confederacy. It will need no effort on the part of Mr. Chase to flood the South with our money, so long as greenbacks will buy Confederate money at five cents on the dollar. Rebel money will soon be sold by the bushel, or cart load. There Lard, and 12 bushels Seed Peas. is much philosophy hid behind the warning of the Charleston Mercury, concerning this Federal financial raid into the South, for war, like every other matter of business, at last comes to the financial crucible. The longest purse will win, and the utter worthlessuess of Confederate money is the most discouraging symptom of the rebel cause.

A good one is told of a Quaker volunteer who was in a Virginia skirmish. Coming in pretty close quarters with a rebel, he re-marked, "Friend, it's unfortunate, but thee stands just where I'm going to shoot," and, blasing away, down came the rebel.

UNIVERSITY

Of Washington Territory.

THE UNIVERSITY established at SEATTLE on Puget Sound by Legislative Enactment and in accordance with an Act of Congress approved July 17th 1854, being completed, now opens its doors to all those who desire to avail themselves of the facilities those who desire to avail themselves of the facilities it affords for acquiring a thorough acquaintance with the common and higher English branches, and also the usual Collegiate course of Study.

The Board of Regents have recently elected W. C. Barnard, A. M., President of the University. Mr. Barnard is a graduate of Dartmouth College, and was for two years at the head of one of the most flourishing Academies of New England, His subsequent exsperience as Principal of La Creole Academy at Dalled Uregon, and still later, the reputation he acquired while connected with the Willamette University at Salem, as a thorough teacher and disciplinarian, just lify the expectation that the University of Washington Territory under his management, will rank second to none on the Pacific Coast.

CALENDAR.

The School Year will be divided into four Session of eleven weeks each:

First or Fall Session opens, Sept. 7, 1863, Second or Winter Session opens Nov. 30, 1363. Third or Spring Session opens February 15, 1864. Fourth or Summer Session, opens May 9th, 1864.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The studies that each scholar shall pursue, wils determined by the instructors, while the wishes The studies that each scholar shall pursue, wills be determined by the instructors, while the wishes of the patrons will be complied with, so far as they may not condict with the systematic progress of the student. All will be required to pursue Reading, Orthography, Writing, Geography and Mental Arithmetic, or pass a satisfactory examination in the same before engaging in more advanced studies. Classes formed at the commencement of the Fall Term, will continue without interruption through the year, or until the subjects considered shall have been mastered. until the subjects considered shall have been mastered. It is therefore very desirable that those purposing to join the School, to do so at the commencement of the year, as those coming later must join classes already iormed.

DISCIPLINE.

No student will be allowed to retain a connection with the school whose habits are such as to render him an unfit companion, or who will not reader a ready compliance with the regulations of the School. Frequenting of saloons, and attendance upon theatres and balls, are not allowed, but students are required to be at their respective, places of school at stated. to be at their respective places of abode at stated hours. A respectful observance of the Sabbath is re-quired.

BOARD.
