STANDING GUARD.

BY MRS. G. H. M'LEOD.

The light was dim—the night far spent,
The sick and wounded slept,
Save one, by whom a watcher lone
Her loving vigil kept.
Loving, although she scarcely knew
The name of that poor boy,
She knew a mother soon must weep
The loss of earthly joy.

With gentle touch she put the hair
Back from the childish brow,
Wishing a mother's lips might kiss
His marble fairness now.
She bent to hear each whispered tone,
A mem'ry to be kept
For her who in her peaceful home,
Unconscious calmly slept.

"Oh! mother, I have said the prayer
You taught me, every night,
And sometimes twice, as I kept watch
Beside the camp fire bright.
It is very cold, dear mother,
Standing guard here alone,
But the relief will soon be round,
I hear the pass-word, 'Home!'

"My home! oh, mother, I shall come
When the next battle's fought,
Almost as soon as the glad news
Of victory is brought!
This staff is broken, wet with blood,
Your boy's blood, mother dear;
I held it clasped close to my heart,
Without a single fear.

"But it was shot from out my grasp,
And borne towards the sky,
I'll make a stronger, better one,
From which our flag shall fly."
For a brief time, he laid so still,
It seemed as if he slept
That sleep which knows no waking here,
And but its semblance kept.

Through tears the lonely watcher gazed
Upon the fair, young face,
On which, as yet, life's darker scenes
Had left no impure trace.
Softly she kissed the death cold lips
A mother might not press,
And cut from off the waving hair
One soft and curling tress.

"Mother!" again he murmured low,
"Say, is it almost light?
Dear mother, it is very cold
Here, standing guard, to-night!
Standing guard, mother," that sweet word
Was all that mortal ear,
Though wildly strained in yearning love,
On Earth might ever hear.

The boy's last watch below was kept,
And at the Golden Gate
The angel who kept watch that night
Needed no longer wait.

THE REJECTED.

He bowed his head as if the chords
Of life had snapped in twain.
I could not catch his hurried words,
But they sounded full of pain.
His eyes were lit with feverish fire,
His cheek had a hectic stain,
As he stooped to kiss my hand,
His tears fell down like rain.

We met once more, in after years,
When—I—another's bride—
Had learned to measure by my tears
The costliness of pride.
Amid the gay, unheeding crowd,
Chance threw us side by side;
He seemed the wreck of a noble heart
Whose hope had early died.

The forgotten look returned,—
The sad, impassioned look;
It seemed to pierce my very soul
And read it as a book.
He bowed his head and strove to smile;
Alas! I could not brook
To know how worthless all I gained,
And see what I forsook.

NUMBER OF BATTLES FOUGHT.—In the late war, we fought, in the name of the old flag, on the soil of every State leagued in rebellion, two hundred and fifty-two battles, all rising to the dignity of engagements. Of these, the soil of Virginia drank the blood of eighty-nine, Tennessee witnessed thirty-seven, Missouri twenty-five, Georgia twelve, South Carolina ten, North Carolina eleven, Alabama seven, Louisiana thirteen, Arkansas sixteen, Florida five, Maryland five, Kentucky fourteen, the Indian Territory and New Mexico one each, once the wave of war rolled into a Northern State, and broke in a great billow at Gettysburg. Of these battles enumerated, sixteen were naval engagements of a magnitude and meaning that fade out in comparison the recorded naval glories of the past. Van Tromp with his broom looks like a boy with a fly brush.

A PROFOUND OBSERVATION.—Every object bath an inexhaustible meaning, the eye sees in it what the eye brings means of seeing.

DETAILS OF EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to Nov. 12th.

The World's special says: Chief Justice Chase has notified the President that he cannot preside over the trial of Jeff. Davis in Richmond, for the reason that there is no regularly organized court in that city. The President maintains that he cannot be tried at any other place. The impression is that he will be released.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The National Intelligencer, in noticing a visit to the President, of a delegation of ladies from Baltimore, seeking the clemency of the Executive in behalf of Jeff. Davis, says the interview was a protracted one, and of a most agreeable character. The full petitioners left the city, carrying with them a most pleasurable impression of the character of the President. He regretted that the national character of the question restrained all private sympathy which their visit might awaken. He made this important statement, that complete arrangements had been made for the early trial of Jeff. Davis according to the law of the land.

New York, Nov. 8.—The Herald publishes a summary of Governor Marvins' Message to the Florida Reconstruction Convention. Gov. Marvin does not think it would be wise to confer the privilege of voting on the negroes. He believes Congress will not command it as an indispensable primary to the admission of Representatives, but urges upon the Convention, as a matter of plain justice as well as wisdom, that laws for the most complete protection of freedmen's civil rights be passed, and that their testimony be received in the courts. Without these, he says, the colored people will have no safeguards against the impositions of cruel or dishonest employers. He thinks the emancipated people will be generally contented, industrious and enterprising, even in the absence of the exercise of the ballot. He also recommends that the Convention declare the secession ordinance not repealed, but ruled void. He favors the adoption by the legislature, of the amendment prohibiting slavery.

Milwaukee, Nov. 8.—Returns from seventeen precincts, including the principal cities, give Fairchilds, the Union candidate for Governor, 1,687 majority. The result of the vote for negro suffrage is doubtful. The vote for the extension of the suffrage, in the precincts heard from, is 500 behind the ticket.

New York, Nov. 8.—The steamers arriving from down the Southern coast continue to report serious gales, with many vessels in distress. The gale seems to have attained its greatest force upon the Georgia and Florida coast.

The State Convention of Georgia has repudiated the rebel war debt.
New York, Nov. 9.—The Times says General Longstreet, while in this city, declared that the rebellion could, and would have succeeded, had it not been for the incapacity of Jeff. Davis, whose intermeddling destroyed all their hopes; and that, on several occasions, he prevented the rebel army from taking Washington, and making it their base of offensive operations.

Fortress Monroe, Nov. 8.—Orders have been received from Washington that no more steamers or vessels will be discharged from the Government service; also stopping the sales of transportation property.
It is officially stated, from rolls in possession of the Government, that Gen. Lee's army, at the surrender, numbered 28,000 men, and Johnson's, 41,000.

Yesterday the Secretary of War ordered a suspension of the sale of Government hospitals in anticipation of a visitation of the cholera.
A dispatch to the Savannah Columbian, dated Columbia, October 31st, says: Ex-Governor Manning has been elected U. S. Senator, for the term ending 1867.
Gen. Longstreet had an interview with the President yesterday, and took the amnesty oath.

The Times says further important gold discoveries have been made in the north-eastern portions of Minnesota.
New York, Nov. 10.—The order for the execution of Wirz is creating more excitement than did the hanging of the conspirators. This is probably due to the fact of the notice given in this instance, while in the case of the former execution, scarcely more than ten hours of daylight intervened between the public announcement, and the appearance of the victims upon the scaffold. The condemned is said to be in a much better condition to-day than at any other time during his confinement. He has had considerable sleep, and has a moderate appetite. He appears to show more stamina as the hours of his life approach their close.—His spiritual adviser, Father Beerle, was with him during much of the afternoon, and left his cell about six o'clock, P. M. Schrade also visited him, after an hour's interview of the former with the President this morning.

The interview is known to be productive of nothing to indicate that Wirz would be reprieved, though on the streets and in the hotels, the popular opinion seems to be gradually settling into that conviction. The President is known to have met the petition of Schrade, for a commutation of sentence, with kind attention and regard, but said nothing to induce a belief that Executive clemency would be extended in the case of Wirz.

New York, Nov. 11.—The following is the sentence of Gen. Briscoe: "The Court does therefore sentence him, Brevet Brig. Gen. Briscoe, Col. of the 99th Pennsylvania, to be cashiered, dishonorably discharged from the United States service, and forever disqualified from holding any office of honor or profit under the United States Government; that he forfeit pay and allowance now due him, or which may become due to him, and be confined at hard labor, in such place as the Secretary of War may direct, for the term of five years.

The findings and sentence are approved and confirmed. By the high testimonials of the former good character and gallantry of Gen. Briscoe, by Generals Meade, Hancock, Stoneman, Gibbon, Terry, Schless, and others, so much of the sentence as pertains to confinement, is remitted.
"By order of the President,
E. D. TOWNSEND, A. A. G."

About noon, Briscoe was released. He was highly elated at his escape from prison, as he fully expected to be sent to the penitentiary.
Washington, Nov. 8.—A dispatch to the Secretary of the Treasury, dated Galveston, Nov. 4th, announces the death of Wm. Johnson, only brother of the President, from the effects of a gun-shot wound.

New York, Nov. 9.—The Albany Journal makes Barlow's majority, in that State, 27,000, and the Argus concedes that this is about correct.
The Senate of the American Fenian organization, which has been in session in this city for two weeks, adjourned on Tuesday afternoon, having appointed a Financial Secretary and Military Department, to take charge of the funds. The Treasurer is to give five hundred thousand dollars bonds.—There are six general organizations of canvassers, with one or more clerks. The machinery of the new constitution is now in readiness for action, though the Senate will be called together during the winter. The Western members left to-day for home.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Returns from Minnesota indicate the election of Marshall, the Union candidate for Governor, by a large majority.
A HEAVY TRAIN AT THE CAPITAL.—The Washington Republican has the following: She was a glorious creature—perhaps a little vain—as she swept along the Avenue, drawing a silken train. Her robe was very costly, her train was very long, and murmured admiration swelled out from every throng of idle swells and loafers the fair one chanced to meet, or who ogled her from taverns and corners of the street. And thus she promenaded through many weedy squares, astonishing the people with her grand and lofty airs. But at length her train grew heavy and with labor on she strode, while her garment, like a drag net, took the sweepings of the road. On she struggled, till she fainter, her brain spun quite round, and two near-at-hand policemen tried to bear her from the ground. But, though well and able bodied, their strength was all in vain; they could lift the gentle dame, but they couldn't budge her train. At last her skirt was lifted, and a terrible mess lay weltering there, beneath the dress of the lady fair. There were quids of tobacco and stumps of cigars, "old sogers" that surely had "been through the wars"—a dead rat and a sausage, an old "dogger-type," cock-roaches, live spiders, and pieces of tripe, all plastered together with feculent dirt—a pretty appendage to an elegant flirt! She lifted her tenderly—hauled with care—put her into a hack and sent her home, and it is to be hoped she will not again be guilty of promenading in her evening dress.

A MODERN LUCRETIA BORGIA.—A letter from Hamilton, Canada, says that last week a woman named Perkins, wife of a respectable well-to-do farmer, near Brantford, U. C., finding herself upon her deathbed, sent for a clergyman and confessed that she had at different periods of her life committed six murders, and all by poison. At first it was imagined that the woman was delirious, but subsequent inquiry awarded ample corroboration of the poor wretch's statement. She said that she had a mania for destroying human life, and it was only by the greatest self restraint that she could keep herself from secretly poisoning all persons with whom she was on terms of friendship. She had, however, poisoned four children and two adults, and what makes the matter more revolting, is the fact that two of the former were her own children, and one of the latter her first husband. The children were murdered in England, and the adults in Canada.

The newest thing out is "plumpers," for hollow-cheeked damsels. The plumper is made of porcelain, pear-shaped in form, flat on one side and bulging out on the other. They fit on the inside of the cheeks, giving a round, plump appearance; hence, doubtless, their name.

A Yankee has made a bucket in which there are fifty-seven thousand five hundred and sixty-eight pieces. It is demonstrative alike of much ingenuity and patience.

PICKING APPLES AND PEARS.—The Rural World gives the following advice as to when apples and pears should be picked:

Most people let apples and pears become too ripe before they gather them. They want to see them fully ripe—ready to fall off the tree—before they pick them. This is wrong. If picked a few days before maturity, they will keep longer, color more highly and command a higher price in the market. The precise time to pick is rather hard to determine. The best criterion is, to raise the fruit up and bend the stem over, and if the stem parts from the shoot without breaking, the fruit is ready to pick—whether apples or pears. Pears should be picked proportionally earlier than apples. The quality of the fruit is also improved by early gathering. After picking it should be put in tight boxes or barrels, and kept a few days in the dark, if of Summer or Fall varieties. Here they undergo a sweating process, and when the barrel is opened the fruit will be found of the brightest crimson and richest golden colors. Half of the secret of success in orcharding is in knowing how and when to pick fruit and how to get it to market so as to command the highest price and readiest sales. Every one's experience must govern him, and the more he studies this matter, the more expert he will become. We are anxious that all our readers should think while they work,—that the mind should be exercised, as well as the muscles, in all farming operations; and particularly should this be the case in fruit-growing, where skill of the highest order is always suitably rewarded.

Some idea of the terrible havoc of war, may be gained from the following figures: In the desperate encounter at Chickamauga, Rosecrans lost 16,851 men, and at Murfreesboro, 12,085; at Pittsburg Landing, Grant lost 13,573, at Vicksburg, 9,875, and at Mission Ridge, 1,000; at Gaines' Mill, Peach Orchard, Savage Station, Glendale, White Oak Swamp, and Malvern Hill, McClellan lost 70,000, and at Antietam, 11,426; Hooker, in his campaign in the Wilderness, lost 20,000; and Grant's united losses, from the time of the crossing of the Rapidan, in his final campaign, to the surrender of Lee, are computed at 90,000.

NOVEL BRIDAL TOUR.—A long contemplated balloon bridal tour took place at New York City on the 8th inst. The parties were Dr. J. F. Boynton, of Syracuse, N. Y., and Miss Mary Alter, of St. Louis, Missouri. They came down safely, at Mount Vernon, Westchester county. In this age of astonishing feats this party have sufficiently displayed their love of adventure.

SAW-MILL POETRY.—The following is a specimen of saw-mill poetry, which, as the reader will readily see, is regulated by the rapidity with which the machinery travels:
The man that doth no paper take,
Grudging the price of one year,
Will never a good husband make,
Because his wife can never know what is going on in the world, and his children will very ignorant appear.

A FEMALE refugee (white) who had a large family dependant on her at Memphis, Tennessee, and who had only one calico dress, excited the sympathy of some gentlemen, who made a collection for her, amounting to fifteen dollars. She was profuse in her expressions of gratitude, and at once repaired to a dry goods store, where she paid thirteen dollars for a lace collar.

NEW STYLE OF BONNETS.—A humorous writer describes the new style of bonnets, which is to take the place of the "Waterfall" arrangement, as the "infernal, old-fashioned, roughest, roughest imaginable." The incorrigible rascal further declares that, a lady wearing one of those atrocities, looks as distressed as a cat with its head fast in a tea-cup.

A comet is making its way towards the Earth, and may be seen some distance north of the four stars of the constellation Pegasus. It shows very dimly at present, but as it is coming directly toward the Earth, it may soon be plainly seen without the aid of a glass. It appears now as a pale light with a bright spot in the center.

BREATHES there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
"I will my country paper take, both for my own and children's sake?" If such there be, let him repent, and have this paper to him sent; 'twill do him good, in time to come, and he will thank the printer—some.

A young lady who was rebuked by her mother, for kissing her lover, quoted the following, to justify the act: "Whatever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

An exchange says the only cure for palpitation of the heart is to stop hugging the girls. If this is the only remedy, we say, "then let her palpitate."

SEATTLE GAZETTE.

M. W. WAITT, is agent for the GAZETTE at Victoria, V. I.

THE STUMPAGE TAX.

We desire it to be remembered, though it be not writ down, that the GAZETTE is emphatically and outspokenly opposed to the levying and collecting of such an enormously exorbitant stumpage fee as two dollars and fifty cents per thousand feet, for cutting timber on the Government lands of the Puget Sound country. No mill company can afford to pay such a price for timber. If the lands were in market and could be bought by loggers and mill men, then they would have a remedy, and might proceed with their business; but as it is, they will be compelled to suspend operations altogether, and hundreds of workmen will be thrown out of employment. The charge is enormous. The land may, when it is brought into market, be bought for one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre. At the rate charged for stumpage, the timber on an acre will cost more than ten times that amount. The price of lumber must of necessity rise, and the mills of British Columbia will successfully compete with ours. Capital will be driven to that country, as that Government charges no tax on timber, and lumber can be put into market in American ports from there, cheaper than from the mills of Puget Sound. The lumbering interest is the great interest of the Sound, and the levying of such an enormous tax, strikes a death blow to our main source of wealth and prosperity, and will materially retard the development of the resources of the Territory. It ought to be the business of the Government to foster enterprise and industry, and the hardy frontiersman deserves encouragement, rather than that obstacles be thrown in his pathway. If the rich mill owners were the only sufferers, it would not be so bad; but this is not the case, the laboring classes, (the bone and sinew of the country) are in this case the sufferers as well as others, and hundreds will be compelled to go elsewhere to obtain employment. Almost every kind of business is supported directly or indirectly from the lumbering trade, and when that source fails, every thing will, of necessity, be at a stand, and utter stagnation ensue. It strikes us that the development of this part of our great country ought to be of some importance, and that if we contribute our share to the public treasury in proportion to our wealth and population, we discharge our duty. A reasonable price for the lumber should be paid, but we do, most emphatically, protest against a proceeding that, if persevered in, will depopulate the Territory and bring ruin upon us.

A MINING BUREAU.—We have received a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of the California Mining Bureau Association, and take pleasure in recommending the Association to the favorable notice of the public. The design of the Society is to gather statistics concerning the mineral resources of California and of the other States and Territories of this coast, and furnish correct and reliable information, from time to time, through the press, of the vast mineral wealth of the country, thereby attracting attention to its fuller development. The Society aims to increase production by furnishing such information as will cause capital and labor to be used in the successful opening of good mines, instead of being used (as much has been) on worthless claims, and to prevent the introduction of wild cat stocks into market for the purpose of swindling the inexperienced. Such an association has long been needed, and its labors will add materially to the prosperity of the country.

DARING ROBBERY.—The safe of the What Cheer House, in San Francisco, was robbed of $70,000 about three o'clock on the morning of the 19th inst. Two men entered the office, knocked the clerk down, took from his pockets the key of the safe and a small sum of money, opened and robbed the safe, and made their escape before an alarm was given. The money stolen was deposited by boarders for safe-keeping. Mr. Woodward, the proprietor of the house, has offered a reward of $2,000 dollars for the apprehension of the robbers.

With this number of the GAZETTE, the first half of volume two is completed, and the time has expired of those who subscribed for six months, from number one of volume two. We hope all, who are in arrears for that time, will call and settle, and those who want to continue taking the paper, will please pass in their checks for the next six months.

HEAVY GALE.—On Tuesday last, a heavy "south-wester" visited this portion of the Sound, capsizing several small boats, and causing the ship John Jay to drag anchor nearly a half a mile, when she succeeded in dropping a second anchor, which prevented her from going ashore. Fortunately, no lives were lost.

SIXTHS.—The bark Vidette sailed from Freeport on Wednesday last, with a cargo of lumber for San Francisco.

ARRIVED.—The ship John Jay arrived at this place on Monday last, and is loading with lumber at Yealer's wharf.

It is reported that tin ore has been discovered in the Oryhee country.

NEW DISCOVERIES IN OLD PLACES.

From the Daily Oregonian of the 4th inst., we take the following, concerning the early discoveries and future prospects of the mines on the eastern slope of the Cascade Mountains, in this Territory:

"Recent discoveries of gold and silver bearing quartz rock, made on the head waters of the Natchess river in Washington Territory, on the eastern slope of the Cascade Mountains north of the Columbia river, are attracting considerable attention in the Puget Sound region. Gold and silver bearing quartz has lately been discovered in the region of Lake Chelan, and it is said pieces of considerable value are known to exist in Klukit valley. As long ago as 1860, gold placers were worked on the We-Nachie with satisfactory results, but explorations were never pushed into the mountains to any very great distance. The prevailing mania for seeking gold placers and veins of quartz, elsewhere, has retarded developments in Washington Territory, but the existence of valuable minerals is rendered almost certain in many portions of that unexplored country, and in future it will not appear strange to hear of many new discoveries being made within her borders. The conveniences for supplying miners through the vast extent of the country north of the Columbia river are not inferior to those afforded for supplying the regions farther south, and the advantages of being nearer home, together with a mild climate, offers an inducement to the enterprising of coming years. The first effort at exploring in Oregon for mineral wealth, we think, was made in this direction; and it was there that the unfortunate explorer from the Dalles, met his death at the hands of the Indians. It was in this direction that in 1830 so many left the Willamette valley to seek for gold. But the discovery about Jacksonville and camps elsewhere, has kept the country north of us from coming prominently before the public.

Still further up the Columbia river, veins of quartz, rich in silver, have been found. These ores were discovered near the lakes on the Upper Columbia. It is said that no rock from any country can surpass this in richness. The ore is found in very great quantities, and it is expected that next year great numbers of people will be attracted to that locality. There is every indication that the mineral wealth of the Columbia river region surpasses that of any other large extent of country now known. The prosperity of this great region is but just begun. Our trade thereto is constantly increasing in value. We may now safely regard it as permanent. Whatever doubts may have previously existed upon this score, have been removed by the successful operations of the present season. The coming year is one of great promise for the upper country and also for our own State."

A correspondent who has recently visited the U. S. Arsenal, thus describes the present appearance of what he states is the sepulchre of the assassin, J. Wilkes Booth: "Entering the lower rooms of the prison, and passing through devious halls formed by piles of cartridge-boxes, we came at length to a solid wall, against which was piled the same sort of ammunition, but through an aperture between the boxes, on shoving to one side a heavy plank, an empty, floorless room was disclosed, in one corner of which the loosened earth indicated the burial place of the foulest assassin of time."

ROBERT WADDINGTON, convicted of the crime of highway robbery at the April term of the Walla Walla District Court, and sentenced to imprisonment for life, has been pardoned by Governor Evans and released from custody. There were many extenuating circumstances in favor of the young man, and hence, his pardon.

OYSTERS.—In connection with Mr. Thayer's Saloon, on Commercial street, Mr. J. Summers has opened an Oyster Stand, where will always be found a good supply of fresh oysters, and "Old Jake" in readiness to serve them up in every desirable style.

We have received the first number of a new paper, published in San Francisco, entitled "The Irish People." It makes a very creditable appearance, and is an advocate of Fenianism. We wish it success.

THE REV. ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, the great controversialist, died in Kentucky a few weeks ago. He was about the only man whom Dr. Robert J. Breckenridge did not care to encounter in debate.

ON THURSDAY EVENING, NOV. 1st, a Fenian meeting was held in Walla Walla, and a circle organized. Twenty-eight names were placed upon the roll of the Society.

REMOVAL.—Mr. Joshua Smith has removed his Boot and Shoe Store to his new building, on Commercial street, one door north of J. Williamson's Dry Goods Establishment.

DIED.—N. B. Judkins, for several years a resident of this place, died at San Francisco, Oct. 25th, while on his way to the Eastern States.

The next Congress will officially proclaim the Territory of Colorado as the 37th State in the Union.

In Portsmouth, N. H., is still standing a house, the lightning rods of which were put up under the superintendence of Ben. Franklin, in 1762.

The steamer Constitution, for the safety of which much anxiety was felt, has arrived at San Francisco.

Miscellaneous Items.

The late earthquake on the Mississippi, appears to have been one of unusual severity, and to have been attended with some remarkable phenomena. At New Madrid the water of the Mississippi rose several feet in height—the water, in fact, was forced backward, up the stream, the current being actually stopped during the continuance of the shock. Several chimneys were toppled over, in Memphis, and considerable plastering was knocked down. While it was so sensibly felt in the houses, it was hardly perceptible in the streets.

A. D. Richardson, writing to the New York Tribune of his ride through Butte county, California, says: "We passed the grave of a rich citizen, buried upon his own farm, whose monument bears this inscription, written by himself: 'Thomas M. Wright lived and died an atheist, fearing no hell, hoping for no heaven—a friend and an advocate of mental liberty.'"

At the Seventeen Mile House, near the San Francisco and San Jose Railroad, the earthquake of the 8th of September made openings in the earth. A gentleman attached a weight to a string composing a large ball of twine, and let it down into one of the earth's openings, and though the entire ball was run out, no bottom was found.

The Mountaineer notices continued Indian depredations, in the neighborhood of Camp Watson, on the line of the Canyon City road. The troops stationed at the Camp are scarcely sufficient to guard the Government property, and hence the Indians are enabled to commit their depredations with impunity.

A down-east editor, in a complimentary notice of a valiant General, was made, by the omission of a single letter, to call him a battle-scarred veteran. The poor man hastened to make amends in his next issue, by stating that it was his intention to have denominated the hero as a bottle-scarred veteran.

Quincy A. Brooks, of Portland, Oregon, is appointed special agent of the Post Office Department for the State of Oregon, and Washington and Idaho Territories, with instructions to report to Col. A. H. Markland, superintendent of mails on the Pacific coast.

Arrangements are being made to organize an "Oregon Fur Company," which will be managed by some of the leading men of the State. The high price of furs has increased speculation in this direction. The new company will not confine its operations to Oregon.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided to receive deposits of gold, and issue certificates payable on demand in gold. These gold notes will be receivable for custom duties and will be largely used in adjusting balances in New York.

A St. Louis burglar, who was robbing a room in which a young lady was sleeping, could not resist the temptation of kissing the beautiful lips of the damsel, and was caught at it. It will be State Prison for a kiss.

The telegraph announces that several cases of cholera had occurred on board the ship Atlanta, from Europe, lying at the New York quarantine.

The Mountaineer says that a day or two ago dense volumes of smoke were again seen issuing from Mount Hood. Wonder if San Francisco is in danger of another vigorous shaking?

The Placerville Mirror is responsible for the following: "In the face of our iron clad, Britain will be apt to change her boast that 'Britannia rules the Waves,' into 'Britannia Waves the Rule.'"

There is a phrenologist near the docks, who can tell the contents of a barrel by examining its head. He makes his examinations with a gimblet.

It is said that the new counterfeit $100 compound interest note is prepared in part, at least, from the genuine plates. No wonder it is a dangerous counterfeit.

In Ceylon the marriage ceremony is performed by tying the couple together by the thumbs. In this country they are most frequently put together by the ears.

He that loves himself has only one joy; he that loves his neighbors has many, especially if his neighbors are of the female persuasion and good looking.

Although it is desirable that the rank and file of the rebels should disperse, it is just as well that the leaders shall hang together.

Richard Ralston, recently wounded in a shooting affray at Idaho City, died a few days ago while a limb was being amputated.

Character don't depend on diet. The ass eats thistles and nettles, the sharpest kind of food, and is the dullest of animals.

Gen. Grant is likely to establish a reputation as an orator. It is stated that he recently made a speech which fills up ten lines in newspaper print.

Utah Territory is said to contain ninety thousand inhabitant. The Territory comprises 100,882 square miles.

Sixty miles of the Union Pacific Railroad, west of Lawrence, Kansas, is to be completed by the first of next May.

A new beatitude: "Blessed is the man that maketh a short speech; he will be invited to come again."

To abandon a friend for a single error, evinces a cold heart and a weak judgment.

Hot, fiery fellows are our soldiers—peppered while in the service—and mustered out of it.

Dates to Nov. 15.

Eastern News.

Washington, Nov. 10.—It is asserted, from an official source, that the army of the United States will not be reduced, as has been supposed. Its full available force exceeds 180,000, of which about one-half is on each side of the Mississippi river.

The Tribune's special says: Judge Hunter has condemned the Governor of Mississippi's personal property for confiscation. His real estate is not worth that formality.

Gen. Steele, who has just returned from his command in the Rio Grande, had a long interview yesterday with the President and Secretary of War. He states that military operations along that line remain unchanged. Our army is simply one of observation, and will probably shortly be withdrawn.

New York, Nov. 14.—Thurlow Weed states that Preston King, Collector of the Port of New York, was seen, by a little boy and girl, to jump off of a ferry boat, yesterday morning. They picked up his hat, which had been handed to Weed, and recognized. There are, as yet, no traces of the body.

Portland, Maine, Nov. 15.—A fire in West Baxter, in this State, destroyed Hall's Woolen Mills, Lar's Saw-Mills, and a number of houses, to the value of one hundred thousand dollars. The fire originated from a kerosene oil lamp.

New York, Nov. 15.—Dr. Long's church, corner of Sixteenth street and Stuyvesant place, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. Loss, $300,000. Insured at $70,000.

The World's Columbia correspondent, under date of Nov. 1th, says: Resolutions were reported from the Committee on Federal Relations, to the Legislature of South Carolina, to the effect that the State had fully complied with the requirements of the amnesty proclamation of President Johnson, and having emancipated her slaves, is entitled to the benefits of the said amnesty, and acknowledge their position as a conquered people, and accepting the terms offered them, they ask the withdrawal of military rule, to which, they say, the Government stands pledged. The report says: They have met with honest purpose, and entire loyalty of heart, and given solemn pledges to be henceforth good and loyal citizens.—The resolutions will probably be unanimously adopted.

The Board of Common Council has passed a resolution almost unanimously, that should any bill be introduced into Congress, for the admission of the colored men of Washington to the right of suffrage, the Mayor be authorized to call the Council together for the purpose of taking into consideration measures for holding a special election, to ascertain the sentiment of the people on the subject. The Aldermen have not yet acted on the resolution.

T. S. Mathers, of the Supreme Court of South Carolina, died at Sumter, on the 8th instant.

Foreign News.

Liverpool, Nov. 2.—It is generally reported in the Parisian papers, that the French army in Mexico will be withdrawn by instalments, and that by August or September next year, the whole of it shall have returned to France. This resolution is said to have been adopted, not only from a desire to afford no reasonable ground of complaint to the United States, but also, on economical grounds.

HORRIBLE SCENE AT A BULL-FIGHT.—The Paris correspondent of the London Globe says: We are to have a bull-fight at the Hippodrome, in the Champs Elysees. The director of the concern, M. Arnault, has actually got a regular authorization for such a spectacle. Four bulls, of Spanish race are already in Paris, destined to figure in this butchery. Their names are Triple Diable, Infernal, Leopard and Tiger. This very day we get accounts from Montpellier of a sad catastrophe in the suburbs of that city, where a bull-fight had been organized in presence of 6,000 lookers-on; a wooden structure, in the form of an amphitheater, served as a temporary erection for this performance, in the midst of which a crash of timbers hurled a mass of people into the arena where the bulls were careering in full fury; a dash was made by the beasts into the thick of the crowd, a mother and child were tossed aloft, more than a dozen were frightfully gored, and the assembled multitude had their fill of what they sought—a sensation.

SINGULAR PHENOMENON ON GOOSE LAKE.—By Whittle and Jenks, says the Yreka Union, just in from Surprise Valley, we learn that on the morning of the earthquake at San Francisco, Goose Lake, situated a short distance this side of the summit of the Nevada range of mountains, near the northern line of California, was covered with a great number of water-spouts, rising at the same time and a short distance from each other over the whole surface of the lake, presenting much the appearance of a school of whales "blowing." The fact, with its relation—the earthquake then unknown to Whittle and Jenks—extends the field of investigation to the scientific.

The very large fortune in silver and gold, that Jeff. Davis wanted to carry off with him after the collapse of the Confederacy, was not such a big pile after all. A Washington dispatch says: "Jeff. Davis' treasure, brought here by the Treasury agent, has been counted in the Treasurer's office and found to consist of $87,000 gold coin, $9,000 in silver coin mostly Mexican dollars, old coinage, and 30 bars of silver; total value slightly over one hundred thousand dollars."

The Idaho Statesman, of October 28th, says that there were fifty-eight horses and mules stolen from Camp Lyon, in Stein's valley, by the Snakes, a few days before. All of them but twenty-seven head were recovered. The Indians crossed the Owyhee and took up a long canon, where pursuit was abandoned by the party of fourteen men that had gone after them.

A new married couple went to Niagara on a visit, and the gentleman, in order to convince his dear that he was as brave as he was gallant, resolved to go down into the "Cave of the Winds." She, of course, objected; but finding that he was determined, affectionately requested him to leave his pocket book and watch behind.

Ninety-three thousand dollars have been subscribed to build a woolen mill at Olympia, and the project now seems to be on the right road to success. It is the most important business move ever yet made on the Sound. The people of that section know what is to their interest, and are wise in getting ahead of other places in this matter.

LARGE FLEECES.—A French Merino buck, in Linn county, Oregon, was lately sheared of a fleece of wool of two year's growth, which weighed fifty-nine pounds. The fleeces from the three fine premium bucks of the late State Fair, weighed one hundred and seventy-two and a half pounds.

A MAN by the name of William H. Lamar, was murdered at Walla Walla on the 31st ult. He is supposed to have been one of the men who robbed the stage between that place and Boise City a short time since, and a dispute having arisen in dividing the spoils, his partners shot him.

It is estimated that upwards of 80,000 lives had been lost from cholera in Constantinople at last accounts from that city. The daily mortality was estimated at from 1,500 to 2,000, and according to the newspaper reports, the stench from the imperfectly buried corpses was almost intolerable.

The late elections in the East have all resulted in the triumphant success of the Union party. New York, Massachusetts, Minnesota, all show large Union gains on former majorities, and even New Jersey has wheeled into line, and taken her place in the Union ranks.

Lord Brougham is very anxious to have the Cuban slave trade stopped, but he was not at all anxious to have the rebels fail in their attempt to establish an empire with slavery as the chief corner-stone.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of this Territory, will convene in Olympia on the 29th instant.

The editors of a paper in New York are under arrest for calling somebody a "million-headed lawyer."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Merit Rewarded.—This famous family medicine has withstood the test of time and the most unrelenting opposition. These Pills are a direct purifier of the blood, and all the other fluids of the human body. During the winter, and, indeed, throughout the year, no house or home should be without the means of arresting disease at its onset. Such means are safely and surely presented in these excellent Pills, when they are taken according to the directions accompanying them. Holloway's medicine removes indigestion, and acts as a mild and effective aperient. These Pills are strongly recommended to those persons who are constitutionally weak, or whose nervous systems have been shattered by illness. To such they will confer indescribable comfort.

STORM AND FIRE AT PORT ANGELES.

On Saturday last Port Angeles was visited by a severe storm, from the eastward, accompanied with wind. It was manifestly the effect of a storm above, where it must have been blowing heavily the night previous.

The new wharf of Mr. Allingham was swept away, nothing being left of it but one of the outer piers. Some of the floating timbers from the wharf struck the jetty of the Custom House and made a breach through it.

Frank Tucker narrowly escaped drowning, by the upsetting of the Custom House boat in the surf, which fell over him.

The English bark, which sailed from Port Angeles on Tuesday last, was the same evening, hove on her beam ends in a squall off Cape Flattery.

On Wednesday evening, 22d, the house of Mrs. Victor Smith was destroyed by fire. The inmates barely escaped with their lives, saving nothing but their clothes. Not a vestige of the house remained the next morning, it being entirely reduced to ashes.

The Walla Walla Statesman says, that at Walla, Fargo & Co's office, on Sunday last, our attention was directed to an immense mass of bullion the aggregate weight of which was three thousand pounds. The whole of this glittering pile was brought down by Saturday's stage, and was the largest amount ever received in one day. Of this sum, fifteen hundred pounds were taken from the "Poor Man's" ledge. Passengers who came down by the stage state that such was the weight of treasure that they were unable to make the usual time. It has long been the boast of our Washoe neighbors that they compute their silver yield by the cwt. Idaho and Owyhee "raises" them and sends down the golden treasure by the ton.

The New York Herald sometimes expresses itself very bluntly. In noticing the fact that, since the conclusion of the war, a million and a quarter of men—hardy veterans, all of them—belonging to both the Northern and Southern armies, have returned to their homes, that journal says: "At the tap of the drum, or a word from the President, more than half of these trained soldiers would be again in arms to do his bidding against any foreign power. If England, France and Spain are wise, they will leave this continent as soon as possible, for a conflict with such an army with either France or Spain or England would be the signal for a general and bloody revolution all over Europe."

Captain Burns, of the steamship Orizaba, has been mulcted in the sum of $15,000 for discharging goods into the Active without coming to a port of entry. Captain Burns has also been fined $545 in the late opium smuggling case.

The steamer Anderson arrived at this place at a late hour last night, having awaited, in Victoria, the arrival of the Active from Portland. The latter steamer sailed from Portland on the 16th inst., but up to yesterday morning had not made her appearance at Victoria.

FULL returns of the election for Councilman have not yet been received. In King county there was no opposition to Mr. Denny, but in Kitsap county there was. We understand Mr. Denny received a majority of votes of Kitsap.

The California Steam Navigation Company's new steamer Pacific, was launched at San Francisco, on the 8th inst.

MARRIED.

At the residence of H. L. Yeiser, on Monday evening, November 20th, by the Rev. G. C. Belknap, Mr. PARKER HINCKLEY, of Port Ludlow, to Miss LILLIAN C. COFFIN, formerly of Lowell, Massachusetts.

With the above notice, we received a bottle of wine, and a goodly share of cake. The happy couple have the best wishes of the printers.

HOLLOWAYS PILLS.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT
 THE EFFECT OF THE OINTMENT ON THE SYSTEM.
 To the very core and centre of all diseases which affect the human body, this remarkable preparation penetrates. It disappears under the friction of the hand as salt disappears when rubbed upon meat.
 The unclean performs its healing errand rapidly, safely, and without pain. Simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumours, scrofulous developments of all kinds,
 abscesses, cancers, old wounds, and in fact, every species of inflammation or suppuration, whether in the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, can be arrested in its destructive course and permanently cured without danger, by rubbing in this inestimable Ointment.
BAD LEGS, BAD BREASTS, SORES AND ULCERS.
 In many Hospitals in Europe this celebrated remedy is now used for the cure of old wounds, sores and ulcers; in Spain and Portugal, and in many parts of Italy, the first Physicians regularly prescribe its use.
 It is a sovereign remedy for bad breasts and bad legs; and likewise for all skin diseases. It is to be found in the chest of nearly every sailor, soldier and emigrant.
PILES, FISTULAS, STRUCTURES.
 The above class of complaints is surely removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in this Ointment.
 Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress.
 It should be understood that it is not sufficient to merely smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be rubbed in for some considerable time, two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though it were palpable to the eye. Bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only proper treatment for females in cases of cancer in the stomach, or for those who suffer from a general heaving down.
IMPRUDENCES OF YOUTH—SORES AND ULCERS.
 Blotches, as also swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way these complaints only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humour from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time, aided by the use of the Pills, to insure a lasting cure.
DIPHTHERIA, BRONCHITIS, SORE THROATS, COUGHS AND COLDS.
 Any of the above class of diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day upon the skin covering the throat, chest and neck of the patient. The unguent will soon penetrate the pores and give immediate relief. To allay the fever and prevent inflammation, eight or ten Pills should be taken night and morning. The Ointment will produce perspiration, which is so essential for removing fevers, sore throats, and those oppressions of the chest which arise from Asthma, Bronchitis, and other causes.

BOTH THE OINTMENT AND PILLS SHOULD BE USED IN THE FOLLOWING CASES:—
 Bad Legs, Corns, (Soft,) Rheumatism,
 Bad Breasts, Cancers, Scalds,
 Burns, Contracted and Sore Throats,
 Bunions, Stiff Joints, Sore Nipples,
 Bite of Mosquit-Elephantiasis, Skin Diseases,
 Toes and Sand Pustulas, Scirrhous,
 Fleshy Growth, Sore Heads,
 Cocco-hay, Glandular Swel. Tumors,
 Chiefo-foot, Ings, Ulcers,
 Chilblains, Lumbago, Wounds,
 Chapped Hands, Piles, Yaws.
 Sold at the establishment of PROGRESSOR HOLLOWAY, larger sizes.
