THE ELECTIONS.

So many inquiries have been made about our local elections, that it has been thought proper to offer the following remarks at this late date on the lessons taught by the elections here and elsewhere.

East and west, north and south, the papers are discussing what the elections mean, a few months ago, it seems as if the whole country would go Democratic or else indulge in a wild chase after new parties with the catch phrases of labor party, flat money, etc.

Faithfully and in a doubtful, halting manner, the Republican party indicated that it would be found in favor of a sound currency, and that a regard for its past record, if nothing else, would finally compel it to be true to its principles; not even this feeble guarantee could be obtained from other organizations. The result showed how intelligently the people will decide, when leaders dare submit real issues to their decision.

Had the R-publicans leaders, for twelve months past, sought to have been true to principle and be a truly representative party and presented something like issues to be decided, in place of making election a mere scramble for office. They might have now a majority assured for the next Congress. Their half return to principle, gave them the great gains of the late election.

In this Territory, the results show an equal fidelity to principle and a full perception of the question, presented. Neither of the candidates for Delegate were able, talented or representative men. Their nominations were accidents of the canvass. The only principle represented was the Railroad question. This winter was to be the congressional session when all the questions relative to the great N. P. R. R. land grant and railroad connection over the mountains was to be settled.

With the single exception of King county the whole Territory were favorably inclined to that road, and willing to concede almost any terms desired, provided they could have a CERTAINTY that the road would be built without delay and the land question settled, so that settlers could obtain a perfect title from either the government or the railroad company.

Here the company made a terrible blunder, in attempting to bully the people or appearing so to do, into supporting a platform, that might here be construed to mean nothing, to be perfectly harmless; but at Washington would be a command proceeding from the people here, giving every thing into the hands of the company, absolutely, without restraint in kind, degree or nature. The result is the reaction against their trying to secure all, when most any thing desired that was reasonable would have been cheerfully conceded.

The matters that so greatly influenced the choice of Delegate, had as great or greater influence in securing so overwhelming a popular vote for the new State constitution. In county politics in this county, there is an equally strong general and sudden reaction. But this time it is from the Republican to the Democratic party in county politics, while participating in the almost unanimous support of the Republican party on Territorial and other issues. Even down to Joint Councilman, the vote was Republican by a large majority. McGlenn in Whatcom, Snohomish and Kitsap counties receiving nearly a two-thirds, if not quite that part of the vote cast for that office.

Why so complete a revolution in county politics? Each party put up their best men. No fault could be found with the men on either ticket. A short time before election it appeared as if it would be very close between several of the rival candidates; yet the county went Democratic by the largest majority ever known. What caused it? It certainly was not difference in the character or qualifications of the candidates for the offices, because they were at least equal, while in several cases, Republicans defeated, were, many times more competent than their opponents. The explanation is about as follows:

The laboring element, the logger and worker in the woods control the vote of this county. While there is no capitalist class here, yet these men were made to feel that the Republican organization for this county was to a certain extent controlled by men, who used altogether too dictatorial language in reference to office. The candidates for public places, and who assumed to exercise a greater control than was desired in such matters.

The change was successfully raised, that if certain men were elected, they would be too much subject to the controlling influence of those who appeared to strive to control all. Although when applied to individual candidates, this assumption was wholly without foundation, yet it had a most important effect on the canvass. The result is valuable in this, that like the people of the Territory towards the N. P. R. R. Co. the working men here, while willing to concede a leading, if not an almost controlling influence in county affairs, to those whom, it was alleged assumed to control such matters here, yet were very quick to rebel, if not condemn all attempts at dictation in county affairs, or of the appearance of it even.

We have refrained from speaking of the contest for District Attorney until now, because Mr. Ballard went into office by an overwhelming vote, because there was nothing to be alleged against him, and voting for him, followed as a matter of course the vote for the head of the ticket. Mr. Haller, although able and competent was on an unfortunate ticket, was a very young man to run for such an office, and one who apparently desired official position. Although nothing could be said against him as a lawyer or as a man, since his commencement scandal affair, which happened years ago, on Whidbey Island, which of late years he has done all any one could do to live down, was successfully used against him and cost him hundreds of votes, were it not for this old matter, he would have run Mr. Ballard a much closer race.

A few weeks ago we published a tabular statement of the taxable property of this Territory in which a few of the counties were estimated. Since then the Territorial Auditor, Mr. T. M. Reed, has received reports from all the counties. The total taxable valuation is $18,922,516.94, a net gain of $1,637,938.02. This gives a per capita of over $344, assuming the population to be 55,000. The total gain in seventeen counties was $2,028,685.52, while in seven counties total loss was $391,417.50.

Had it not been for this retrogression of these counties the gain in the Territory during the past year would have been nearly 11 per centum. Some of the counties show a remarkable gain. Columbia heads the list with $322,311; Walla Walla follows with $333,970; Pierce with $332,274; Whitman with $20,159; and Kitsap $100,927.52. San Juan shows the least gain, $6,415. The counties showing a decrease are Pacific $110,809, Cowlitz $103,674, King $79,487, Wabikakum $10,992.30, Island $20,442, Jefferson $25,644 and Mason $1,309. The decrease in Cowlitz county may be attributed to the transfer of the Hill and company's machine shops, rolling stock, etc., to Tacoma, at the same time largely adding to Pierce county assessment.

Pacific county's reduction we do not understand. King county has lost by two coal mines stopping operations and a lessening in the price of Seattle town property. The decline in the other counties we cannot account for. The six eastern counties show a gain of $1,312,176, leaving only $716,509.52 for the other 11 counties which have shown a gain. The greatest relative gain was in Pierce and Whitman counties. Courier.

A Good Place to Trade.

Appreciating the fact, that a large share of their most valuable trade comes from the lower Sound country, and believing that advertising is one of the legitimate methods of keeping up an already very extensive business, as well as extending their business, and desiring the patronage of all in this section, the proprietors of the Arcade, the leading house of its kind on the Sound, have for some time intended to advertise their select and varied stock of ladies and gents furnishing goods, dry goods, etc., but have been too busy selling goods to take time to prepare such an ad. as they desire, to fully represent the extent and variety of their stock, so at present they simply reserve the space, which in due time Messrs. Boyd, Povein and Young will fill by the proper description of all the leading lines of dry goods and clothing, they have taken so much pains in selecting; always endeavoring to get the latest styles, and the best quality of goods in the market best suited to the Sound trade.

This excellent house is so well known for the quality of the goods it carries, the experience and good judgment of its proprietors, and the square dealings, that those wishing honorable dealing, and the best grade of goods at a fair price will be sure to call there whenever they go to Seattle to do their trading. When once acquainted with their stock and methods of dealing they will be apt to feel the truth of the remark made by one of the leading ladies in the society of this town, whom we met trading there a few days since, that she preferred to trade there to any other place in Seattle, because they kept a better stock and were pleasanter to trade with. This lady's judgment was confirmed by some half dozen or more other ladies of this place, whom we saw trading the same day.

For several years past, E. T. Young has been connected with the New England Hotel of Olympia, and has ever bore the reputation of a courteous gentleman and an excellent landlord. The old Hotel property became so dilapidated that last year he declined to renew the lease to the premises. This led to negotiations by which, in the end a brother, Mr. Wm. Young, an experienced Hotel keeper, joined him, coming from California to Olympia.

On the 27th of last April, they purchased the whole property for $5,425, since which date they have expended more than as much more in rebuilding refitting, cleaning up and purifying the premises, so that no neater, cleaner or more convenient hotel property need be found anywhere. Although the terms are very moderate, the accommodations are excellent and the treatment first class, because both proprietors are gentlemen who know how to keep a hotel, make money at it, where others would fail, and be gentlemenly and courteous to all.

Glass Mill stores are among the latest inventions.

Territorial Items.

Pierce county has a mining excitement,—quartz—on the Nichele.

Harry Sutton, the Port Townsend jailbird, is in Mexico.

Pierce county has a debt of $7,511.46.

Island county cast one vote against the Constitution.

Seattle coal has advanced in Frisco.

Port Townsend has a new fire company. Chillum county put in large quantities of fall wheat.

A Masonic lodge has been organized at Port Blakely.

Mr. Edward McReavey of Union City, has just completed a new house at that place.

The new electric light has been introduced in stores in Paris, with the most satisfactory results.

W. H. Newel the venerable editor of the Walla Walla Statesman died recently, aged about 60 years.

On the 1st of November 500 medical students, at Ann Arbor, Michigan mob a house of ill repute and compel the inmates to leave town.

The new Steamer Josephine, Capt. Smith, is now running between Seattle and Olympia, while the Zephyr is up for repairs.

The Puget mill Co. at Port Gamble averaged 160,000 feet of lumber cut per day for 313 working days in 1877, or over 50,000,000 feet for the year.

By a late showing in San Francisco papers, the affairs of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. are in a bad way, millions wasted in the past few years.

Jeff Davis, Jr., son of the late president of the Rebellion, whose decease is noted of recent date, is the only son of his father and the last of the family line.

Mr. W. L. Steinweg has been appointed postmaster at Schome, vice D. Rodgers, resigned. And D. Rodgers, has been appointed postmaster at Ferndale, this county.

By an accident, John Collins, proprietor of the Occidental Hotel in Seattle came near being killed by his son, who shot and wounded him, mistaking him for a burglar.

Dr. N. W. Lane, of Seattle, is about moving to Port Gamble, where he will serve the people as physician, in place of Dr. J. H. Hughton, and as minister, in place of Rev. J. F. Damon, whose illness incapacitates him for the work.

Late numbers of the Olympia Standard which is just eighteen years old, have contained several long, and well written articles, under the heading of "Olympia Landmarks", which contain much valuable matter, historical and descriptive, of the numerous societies, and public institutions connected with the Capitol city. This is a work every local paper should engage in, to write up all the institutions representative of the community by which it is supported.

Mr. S. C. Salisbury has placed on exhibition a steam-engine, where petroleum is used as the fuel, with coal tar. The mixture is conducted to the furnace by a gas-pipe, as it leaves the pipe it is atomized by superheated steam, this shoots in a fierce and delicate spray into the blazing furnace. This slight spray gives a heat of 5,000 degrees, melts pig-iron in ten minutes, and produces liquid glass in two hours in place of sixteen. It is less than one half as costly as coal or wood for fuel.

THE FATAL BOOTS.

Those moralists who hold that the contemplation of suffering which it is impossible to relieve has a benumbing effect upon the human heart are probably right.

In the town of Clinton, Ill., reside two young men, each of whom has a sister. The young men are addicted to fishing, and their sisters are full of gaiety and good-humor.

Last Saturday the two young men were to go on a fishing excursion, and were to set out from the house of Julia's brother.

As has been said, this painful event happened last Saturday. From that day to this Miss Julia has remained confined to her bed, and no amount of search has revealed to Helen's brother the whereabouts of his missing boots.

Farm Chemistry.

Water is the union of oxygen and hydrogen; air, of oxygen and nitrogen; carbonic acid, of oxygen and carbon; gypsum, of oxygen, sulphur and calcium; potash of oxygen, carbon and potassium.

Every farmer should know not only the names of these elements which feed the plants, but how they can be produced and applied. He should know that potash is found in great abundance in fresh ash; that soda, magnesia and lime abound in common soil, also in lime and ash; that silica is extracted from crystallizing rock; that phosphoric acid is found largely in guano; that carbonic acid and ammonia are the products of decaying vegetables and animals, and of combustion in the chimney and in the lungs.

Now, let us see how the farmer can make use of such knowledge to his advantage. To raise a good crop of potatoes, he must plant in the midst of sulphuric acid, magnesia, silica and iron. If he does not find these elements in the soil, he must restore them by suitable fertilizers or he will lose his crop.

Plants require specific kinds of food, and there can be no substitute. For instance a kernel of wheat cannot be developed without phosphoric acid and ammonia. The stalk must have silica to give it strength and stiffness.

But enough of scientific facts for now. If I could induce young farmers to spend their rainy days and long winter evenings in the study of chemical farming, this article would not have been written in vain.

Personal Notes.

Many readers of this paper will remember S. M. Alford, formerly of the Elephant Store in Seattle. When last in Portland, we accidentally met him on First street, and soon found he was in the employ of Fishmer, Mayor and Co., an exclusively wholesale and jobbing establishment, dealing in dry goods, ladies and gent's finishing goods of every description, furs, millinery goods, notions, etc.

The house is one of the largest of its kind there. The building is three stories high, fronts on both Front and First street. It is 200 feet long by 50 feet wide. The first floor contains the offices and is devoted to dry goods and notions. The second floor by Millinery goods, hats, caps, furs, prints, etc.

Mr. A. appeared to take great pleasure in showing us through the different departments as well as in conversing about sound matters with which he was familiar. After a pleasant chat with Mr. Alford, we called at J. H. Fiske's assay office No. 33, Stark street, for a chat with him and other old friends we expected to meet there, but found he was out, and had just disposed of his business to Messrs. Lent and Prince, who, we found were fully prepared to continue his business at that place, in analysing or assaying, as the case may be, all kinds of ores, coal's, mineral waters, etc., and waiting to purchase and ready to pay the highest price for gold dust.

Perhaps it would not be out of place to add, that Mr. Fiske has strong faith in the quartz claims or lodes in the Skyronish valley being of a quality that will ultimately well pay for working. They are in the same section of country, and only a few miles distant from the Sultan mines.

Largest Plant in the World.

We are accustomed to regard the great trees of California the most gigantic specimens of vegetable growths known to man, but such is not the case. There is a submarine plant growing in the North Pacific Ocean which according to Professor Reinsch, dwarfs all others in its vast proportions. The Macrocladia parifera, one of the Melospermae, has been known to grow to such an extent as to cover vast areas of the ocean bed. One specimen, by measurement, was found to cover three square miles, and the stem from which the growth proceeded was eight feet in diameter.

It is almost impossible to conceive of such a plant, or look a system of root system can be maintained through such extended channels in the living organism. Nature performs strange tricks, and certainly none can be stranger than the fact that on this gigantic specimen there are some specimens so small as to be microscopic, or only to be seen by the aid of powerful objectives.

Out of the ruins.

A quarter of a century ago there was a memorable conflagration at Sacramento City, California, by which the entire business portion of the city was laid to ashes. When the great fire was at its maximum fury a wealthy merchant named McNulty, who owned some of the largest business establishments in the city, gazed for a few moments upon the work of destruction, and then, instead of holding his hands and weeping over the disaster, he went to the nearest livery stable, hired a fleet footed horse, rode like John Galt during the remainder of the night, and before daylight the next morning had purchased every foot of lumber and every saw mill at Grass Valley and Nevada City.

There is, possibly, no human being on earth who would think of running off by the light of his burning property in order to literally make his fortune out of the disaster except an American. McNulty did so, however, and almost immediately realized out of the sale of his lumber four out as much money as he had lost by the great fire.

The Standard, noting the opposition between this place and Seattle, raises the query, that one or the other must be wonderful places, and wishes to know which.

"They say" that Vincent, of Olympia, has secured most of the trade in boots on the Skagit and Snohomish.

We were absent the greater part of this week, on business, and will visit La Conner the coming week in attendance on the District Court which will then be in session there.

Private business, of an important character, will probably require us within the next twelve months to visit The Dalls, Dayton, Walla Walla, and other places east of the mountains, as well as Albany and Roseburg, Ogo, and Red Bluff and San Francisco Cal.

Two new buildings now under way in the upper portion of this city (Glenet-ville); one by D. B. Jackson—a dwelling house, and the other by Wm. Romanes, for a saloon.

There seems to be a great diversity of opinion, in this place as to the age at which people are supposed to know how to behave, either in church or at entertainments.

Plan for An Old Hat.

Are we free? We were told, when a boy, that this was a land of liberty, where men were free to act as they pleased, so long as they interfered with the rights of no other man.

Now, after years of faithful service rendered, must we part, because forsooth, Time, who should have taught men sense (but failed ignominiously) has dimmed its glory and robbed it of its symmetry?

The Hon. Elwood Evans, delivered at Presbyterian church in Seattle a most able, and instructive lecture on the Whitman massacre and the life, service and character of the missionary Whitman, on the anniversary of the massacre celebrated there last evening.

of Seattle present, under whose auspices the lecture was delivered and the celebration conducted, that the lecture should appear in print, the columns of the STAR were loaned for that purpose as an act of courtesy due the lecturer for the great importance of the information contained in his address, as well as to the Association for their efforts in celebrating the occasion.

On the night of last Friday, Nov. 15th one of the night shift hands at Wilkeson, named Peter McCaskell, engaged at sinking the slope on the N. P. R. F. coal veins there, while employed at some duty on the outside, fell from the trestle a distance of forty feet upon the rocks below, breaking his hip bone (anatomically known as the ilium) in three places.

We learn that Hon. Elwood Evans has been appointed resident solicitor for the N. P. R. Co., at Olympia, in place of Hon. J. R. Wheat.

There is nothing like this celebrated grain in America. It will yield a third more to the acre than any other grain grown on the same kind of soil, with similar treatment. It grows like rye, hence is frequently called MAMMOTH RYE.
The berry resembles wheat, only is twice or three times as large, some grains being one half inch long. It ripens the earliest of any grain grown here if sown in the fall, and as early as any other grain if sown in the spring. The seed was procured at the east and planted the past spring. The crop is thoroughly matured and is offered for sale in one pound packages at

No. 11 Kearney Street,
Treats all Chronic and Special diseases.

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM the effects of youthful indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the great boon ever laid on the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to fork $500 for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits, aropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a milky hue, again changing to a dark or milky appearance. There are many men who die of this identity, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs. Office hours, 10 to 4 and 6 to 8, Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice $5.

OLD,
TRIED,
AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 25 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast. To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-rot, hollow horn, grub, scree-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscles to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger sizes being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

PUGET SOUND Business College,

FRONT STREET, NEAR COLUMBIA,
SEATTLE, W. T.

The Leading Commercial College on the Pacific Coast.

THE DESIGN of this institution is to impart a practical and useful BUSINESS EDUCATION. Young and middle-aged men are thoroughly fitted for Bankers, Merchants, Bookkeepers, Cashiers, Clerks and Salesmen, by our great system of ACTIVE BUSINESS TRAINING. By this system the student practices, while in the school, the same methods in conducting business affairs that he would in a bona fide Bank, Office, or Counting House.

The great advantages of thorough scientific and practical instruction, as carried out at this institution, have long been felt and recognized in the mercantile community, where its graduates receive the preference and are rapidly promoted to positions of honor and profit.

Young Men and Ladies.

Wishing to prepare themselves for the practical duties of life, will find at this college unsurpassed facilities. Students learn just what they need to insure success. Each student receives separate instruction, and can thus advance as rapidly as his ability will permit, not being kept back by those more deficient.

THE COMMERCIAL COURSE.

The Business course is by far more thorough and extensive than that of any other Business College on the Coast. It embraces the following branches:

BOOK-KEEPING, BY BOTH SINGLE AND DOUBLE ENTRY, AS APPLIED TO THE SIMPLEST AS WELL AS THE MOST COMPLICATED KINDS OF BUSINESS, such as Wholesale and Retail Merchandising, Farming, Manufacturing, Mining, Brokerage and Exchange, Importing and Jobbing, Commission, Railroad, Banking, etc.

COMMERCIAL CALCULATIONS, embracing the most rapid and abbreviated method of calculation in Percentage, Profit and Loss, Interest and Discount, Domestic and Foreign Exchange, General Average, Equating of Payments, Interest Accounts, Averaging Accounts, Partnership Settlements, etc.

PENMANSHIP, including careful instruction in the finger, muscular, whole-arm and combined movements, as applied to plain business writing, ledger headings, etc.

CORRESPONDENCE, embracing instruction in composition of business letters, use of capitals, rules of punctuation, folding, addressing, etc.

COMMERCIAL LAW, comprising lectures upon all the features of mercantile law important to the business man.

GENERAL LECTURES on political economy, business ethics, commercial geography, business success, etc.

In the teaching of the Commercial Course, THEORY AND PRACTICE are combined in such a manner as to make each an essential help to the other.

The SCHOOL-ROOM and COUNTING-ROOM

Are united upon a plan that secures to the student all the practical advantages of each. There is in active operation a Banking House, with Checks, Drafts, Notes, Bills of Exchange, Certificates of Deposit, etc., fully illustrating the Banking business.

JOBBING and IMPORTING EMPORIUMS,
GENERAL BANKING OFFICES,
COMMISSION and FORWARDING,
INSURANCE and EXPRESS OFFICES, &c.

The Student Buys, Sells, Ships, Barter, Consigns, Discounts, Insures, Draws Checks, Notes and Drafts, Gives Leases, Loans, Etc., and goes through the entire routine of business. He becomes acquainted with changing books from single to double entry, and vice versa, and also with Joint Stock and Partnership Books, and every style and form of book-keeping practiced in well regulated Business Houses.

It is impossible for attentive and industrious students to pass through this course of business training without becoming accomplished accountants and practically educated business men. A course of business training is no less important to a merchant and farmer or manufacturer than to the merchant. If one would make farming or manufacturing pay well, he must not merely be a farmer or manufacturer but a competent business man.

Rates of Tuition for the Business Course. PAYABLE IN ADVANCE IN U. S. GOLD COIN.

SCHOLARSHIP for the commercial course, as above explained.
SIX MONTHS DAY SESSIONS.....$50.00
" " NIGHT " " ".....$40.00

PARTIAL COURSE—Persons who wish a partial course, can receive instructions in the branches of the Business Course at the following rates:

THREE MONTHS DAY SESSIONS.....$30.00
ONE MONTH " " ".....$12.00
THREE MONTHS EVENING SESSIONS.....$25.00
ONE MONTH " " ".....$10.00

Students can enter at any time, there being no vacation to interrupt their progress.
Night school open to day scholars free of charge.

PEOPLE FINDING IT INCONVENIENT to pay for the Full Six Month's Business Course in advance, can pursue the same by paying $25.00 in three monthly installments of $20.00 each.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT is intended for the younger pupils, and those whose early education has been neglected.

FOR INSTRUCTIONS IN THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

SIX MONTHS DAY $25.00 | SIX MONTHS NIGHT $20.00
ONE MONTH " $ 9.00 | ONE MONTH " $ 5.00

SINGLE BRANCHES—Penmanship, one month $5.00, three months, in advance, $12.00. For book-keeping and different branches of the Business Course, other than penmanship, when pursued alone, the terms will be the same as for the Full Business Course for the same length of time.

SPECIAL BRANCHES—Ornamental Penmanship, Drawing, Higher Mathematics, Surveying, Navigation, Civil Engineering, etc. are practically taught in the College at reasonable rates, the tuition varying, according to the number and length of lessons.
