Mayor Giover addressed the Board upon the street work lately finished under contract. Mr. Roe had reported the work as completed, and had collected most of the assessment levied for carry out the same. The streets had never been examined by the surveyor, that gentleman had made no report, and consequently the work had never been accepted. bad collected most of the assessment leveled for earry out the same. The streets had never been examined by the surveyor, that gentleman had made no report, and consequently the work had never been accepted. The surveyor refusing to go over the work, it became incumbent upon the Board to appoint some engineer who would carry out the wishes of the authorities. In company with Mr. Gray, Chairman of the Street and Alley Committee, he had levied an assessment of 75 cents per foot for doing the work. It had been contributed freely. He had requested Mr. Maxwell to examine the street and more reaching to the plane and specifications adopted for the same, but the refusal was point blank on account of some difficulty existing between the surveyor and the old Beard. The Mayor had advanced some strop in order that the improvement inglit be successfully pushed forward, and it was to the interest of the entire community that it should be done right. Mr. Roe reports the work completes in the recordance with orders, but this could not be decided with orders, but the footsteps of the product of a popular place of public achievings of the pub
