The great observer signs himself "Buckeye," When it should have been "Binde-ye," It is evident that the extent of his observations, anxious as he may have been, were limited to a few minutes' view of the city, or that some unaccountable preductive, or that some unaccountable preductive, or that some unaccountable regulate has induced him to make statements that the facts will not support him in. When he says that the country is poor, he gives himself away. He did not go unt and look at the country tributary to the Falls, or take notice of the large amount of grain coming into the city, even in this unpropitious season. The milli owners here have no fears that the country Lovel Scanning and the country is poor, he gives himself away. If such was the case two of the oldest settlers in the county would not have hazarded thousands would not have hazzrded thousands of dollars in the largest flouring mill in the Territory. His further statement that business is dull is one of most absurd absurdities in the letter. If does look that way when the city is daily full of vehicles, when every merchant and laborer has about all that they can conveniently attend to; when stocks of goods are arriving from the East and Wast larger than [Fig. 1]. F. Farney, Contage Magnation, which is the first property of the pr that they can conveniently attend to; when stocks of goods are arriving from the East and West larger than ever before opened here, and new firms are going into business almost every week. THE following nugget of news from Tuesday's dispatches are inter-esting as it bears directly upon the Northern Pacific road: SAN FIRACISCO, Sept. 25.—The railroad managers of lines west of the

mitroad managers of lines west of the Missouri river, at to-day's meeting practically closed their labors by the adoption of an agreement, the substance of which is as follows: Portland and San Francisco are to be common points, taking the same rates to and from the cest, The Northern Pacific is to make the same through rates to San Francisco via Portland that other roads make to San Francisco direct, and the latter are to make the same through rates to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland that days of Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland that days of Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco that the Northern Pacific makes to Portland via San Francisco via San Francisco via San Francisco via San

The wheat market is so much missettled that the Chency dealers show the same through rates to make the same through rates to make the same through rates to make the same through rates the consistency of the Archive to maintain their present regular rates, and indications are that the market will drop and not rise again before where the market settles down, our dealers will again buy of the highest mirket prices.—Cheavy Tribana. The above may be sail right as an as it refers to Chency, but does not it the dealers at the Falls. Buyers here are taking all the grain that comes in market, and early and and storia, and the other lines are itself on the investment, yet they look pleasant under the affilt ton.

So far as at present heard from, the hurricane from the West Indies which has been passing northward along the coast, has not been specially disastrous to shipping. A little adhesion to facts by correspondent would greatly improve their standing for veracity, and would, at the same time, make their productions just as readable, if not more so. We do not object to just criticism, but mistakes of the ealthre as quoted, are too heavy to pass unnoticed.

An Excuse.

It is to be hoped that our readers will overlook and excuse any difficiencies in the REVIEW of this week. By one of those mysterious rulings of Providence we have had doled out to us one of those trials that fall to the lot of most men, which has called for and cc. upled our entire time.

Geo. T. Crane pure-based the first bill of goods in Chicago to be shipped over the Northern Pacific road to Spokane Falls. At the Gazland stove establishment, where he purchased his goods, a large bishurer vas stretched across the street amounc-ing the opening of the Washington Ter-ritory trade, and all of the large dailles of the city mentioned the circumstance as a new era in the wholesale business of Chicago.

We are informed that there is a very large number of freight cars on both sides of the Snake river, at Ainsworth, awaiting, transportation. The transfer steamer is by no means equal to the demands made upon its carrying capacity. This partial embargo is apt to continue until the bridge is completed at that point. A heavy force is at work on the structure, but it will be some months before the bridge will be ready for use.

County Division

Petitions are in circulation throughout the easter and western portions of the county, appealing to the Legislature for a division of the county.
This movement has become a matter of necessity. The county as it now exists ie entirely too large and cumbersome, and the sooner it is cut up the better. From a very small section the proposition to divide is opposed, but there is not a man in this part of the county who has refused to sign the document. We have carefully refrained from saying anythingon this subject, feeling that a division was inevitable some day, and that it would naturally occur at the proper would naturally occur at the proper time, and think that that time is now ripe. We believe that a division will be beneficial in many respects, and will have more to say on the subject

George T. Crane, at the head of the new firm of Crane & Company, dealers in stoves, hardware, tinware, etc., who are to occupy the elegant store room just being completed by Dr. Burch, on Howard street, arrived at the Falls Monday, direct from Chicago, where he purchased as complete a stock of goods in his Jine as has ever been consigned to the northwest. The new firm expect to open out on the 10th of October. If any reliance can be placed in the time-card lance can be placed in the time-card. It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the demise of Mrs. Sarah A. Bradshaw, wife of our estimable townsman, Col. C. G. Bradshaw, who died in this city last Monday morning, Sept. 23th, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Bradshaw's maiden name was Sargent, and she was a native of Illinois, where she was born in 1839. The lady never enjoyed robust health, and her constitution was enitively broken down by a severe sickness several years ago, being a confirmed invalid ever since. The sole reason for the removal of the family to this territory was the hopes that the change of climate might prove beneficial. Upon her arrival in July of this year she improved to a remarkable extent, but the effort of nature was but momentary, and the seeds of disease were too deeply resident of the seeds of disease were too deeply resident.

He will handle the Garland stoves and ranges made by the Michigan Stove and the paper speaking of that article says: "The most magnificent and perfect line of cooking and heating stoves in the world is the line of "Garland stoves and ranges" made by the Michigan Stove company.
