A FEW FACTS ABOUT PUBLIC AFFAIRS,

AN EYE OPENER. The SPOKAN TIMES was estab lished in April, 1879. At that the disadvantage of the greatest time and up to the present date. the name, good will and material attached to this office has belonged to the present owner. The pa per has been published at times under very disadvantageous circumstances, but has prospered with the progress of the new country in which it was the first to give the weekly tidings of the Spokan country to the world. In every prominent public move ment THE TIMES has taken an active part. This paper has always favored the best interests of the greatest number; but in doing this it has met with the greates opposition from those who should have extended to it the right hand of fellowship. Early in the history of this paper it became evident that while THE TIMES pursued the vorable to the enterprise, honest and honorable course of In order to have an organ of sepresenting the best interest of their own with which to mislead the greatest number, it could not the public whenever occasion suit the town proprietors of Spomight offer an opportunity, the kan Falls." When the question of carving a new county out of Stevens was being mooted, the editor of THE TIMES invited public discussion of the subject through its colamns. This was a proposition too satisfactory ending for the people, trol our city, and prosperity will but not for their private aims. Because of this fact, the town proprietors secretly denounced this paper and its editor. Not wish; effort was to locate the school ing to have the public understand that we really had men so small in our midst who had assumed to themselves the authority of running the town, we kept quietly failed, even though the questions and steadily on representing the were arranged with an idea of best interests of the town and forcing a vote favorable to their country.

When the question of permanently locating the county seat of Spokan county came up, THE TIMES worked faithfully and earfor the just indignation of many old settlers throughout the countion of appeal to the supreme in his paper by mistake, rather court, could not be supported by than by intent to mislead.

James and MacVeagh and other officials engaged in the prosecution have no confidence whatever in Cork were centered. And, thanks to a hill and they make no secret of the fact. They do not charge that Corkhill has been influenced by any money consideration to favor the star route ring, but bewhen it was evident that their on- lieve has social and personal relations to say the least, so influence him. All the officials concerned in the prosecution maintain Cork-hill has obstructed their progress from the first, and therefore was determined to prepare all papers of presentment fully and keep them in his heart, so that all he will have to do will be to submit them to the grand jury. This is why Bis drew down the papers and although Bliss has some pressing business in New York, he has remained here at the request of the postmaster and attorney general, to watch the postmaster of these cases. It is the intention of the prosecution to ask the grand jury to take hold of the case inmediately u on next Monday, but as Corkhill insists upon present-ing Guitteau's case first, that will take precedence. Several person implicated have confused and given away operations of the ring. The prompt and determined stand of President Arthur in favor of vigorons prosecution, has demoralized and dismayed the ring leaders, who had kept weak ones silent by assuring them if Arthur became president, 'the whole matter should immediately quashed.
