GARFIELD IN 1861.

Our Democratic contemporaries are constantly charging Mr. Garfield with having uttered secessionist sentiments in 1861, and later years during the rebellion. Notwithstanding Mr. Garfield has publicly denied the truth of the statement, and challenged the production of proofs, yet we find them constantly reiterated in our local exchanges, that oppose Mr. Garfield's election. We propose to show now by the best proof, which the nature of the case admits of, that Mr. Garfield in 1861, was true and loyal to the country. We have before us a copy of the Vancouver Chronicle, a paper with Democratic tendencies published in this town some eight years ago. The number of May 23, 1861 contains a full report of the Democratic Territorial Convention held in this town about that time. Mr. Garfield had just received the nomination for Congress at the hands of that Convention, and in accepting the nomination, he used the following language, which we copy verbatim from the Chronicle:

"Mr. Garfield appeared and was introduced to the Convention. He thanked the Convention from the bottom of his heart for the honor conferred upon him. He thought that former differences in the party should be forever banished in oblivion. They were abstract issues now. The great vital question presented before the people was the preservation of the Union. He denounced secession. Secession, said he, was only justifiable when the tyranny of the General Government became intolerable. The States themselves had committed the wrong complained of, not the General Government. "South Carolina had ever thought that she could manage her own affairs alone better than with the assistance of the General Government. She was now making the experiment. For all loyal citizens then was, however, but one line of duty to follow—and that was to stand by the flag of our Union. [Loud Applause.] No matter who steered the ship of State, it was the duty of every American at this crisis to support the Government in the constitutional exercise of its duties and the maintenance of the laws. The moral force of our Government was gone when the right of a State to secede at pleasure was acknowledged. He finally conjured his countrymen by the recollection of the past, the blessings of the present and for the sake of transmitting our glorious institutions to posterity, to be and remain unalterably attached to the whole Union."

How does this language tally with the false accusations of Murphy and other Democratic editors and speakers? It is well recollected in this and other counties that during the canvass of 1861, Mr. Garfield took strong grounds in favor of vigorous means to suppress the rebellion and to maintain the supremacy of the laws. He was a thorough War Democrat, according in sentiment with such men as General Dix, Joseph Holt, Daniel Dickinson and a host of others, who, while not advocating the distinctive principles of the Republican party as then constituted, yet upheld and supported the Government in its efforts to suppress the rebellion by force of arms.

One year later, in July, 1862, Mr. Garfield addressed, by special invitation, the Republican County Convention of Clarke county, then in session at Vancouver, on which occasion, he uttered substantially the same sentiments heretofore stated, and the Convention passed a unanimous vote of thanks to Mr. Garfield for the able, eloquent and patriotic address delivered by him. The writer, who was present on that occasion, well remembers the glorious peroration of that speech, when Mr. Garfield in an outburst of eloquence, that created the wildest enthusiasm, conjured his hearers "to stand by and defend the flag of our country in its hour of peril, to maintain the national honor inviolate, to assert the dignity of the Government and vindicate the majesty of the laws, come weal, come woe, in life or death, now and forever, and if need be to take up arms against the foe and traitors, that were endeavoring to destroy the Union of our fathers."

Space forbids us at this time to publish other proofs of Mr. Garfield's loyalty, during the rebellion, but we shall take this subject up again at some future period during the canvass, if necessity requires it.

COLONIZATION.

A vigorous effort will be made by the Democracy of Oregon to colonize W. T. on June next with Democratic votes. But their efforts will be futile; every interloper is spotted, and his name registered at the Head Quarters of the Central Union Committee, and he will have the privilege of playing checkers with his nose for an indefinite period of time. The better class of Democrats, we believe, will not endorse illegal voting. We are sorry, more for them than for ourselves, that the Democrats of Oregon should make themselves so "fresh" in W. T. affairs. Democrats and Republicans look with proper jealousy upon this effort of Oregon to dictate in their business. Oregon Democrats had better attend to their own affairs, they will need all their funds and efforts to keep themselves in the saddle at home. They had better not be absent too long, or when they return, they'll find "the door will be shut, and the string pulled in."

Democracy without interlopers from Idaho and Montana will soon die out in Oregon. Joseph Smith will soon negotiate with the seeds he has sent on ahead.

The Colonization Society has stired out many for the trip at stores in Portland. The fisheries along the river are to be stocked with Democratic voters if it is possible, and the Cascades are to have that wilderness invaded by a temporary population. The O. S. N. Co. and W. Side R. R. should not attempt to plant Democracy in W. T. We have not an Andy Johnson at the head of affairs, and any attempt on their part to do this may seriously affect their pockets, a spot where they are particularly sensitive.

The O. S. N. Co. has been a great benefit to the country in the way of its development, there is no denying. They have been greatly benefitted, also, in carrying for the U. S. While their allegiance has been only a pseudo one. We would inform them, if they have not heard the news, that Andy Johnson is not in the chair, but Ulysses is at the helm of the nation, and the Mrs. Cabb style of contractors has cobbed out. The O. S. N. Co. and L. & T. had better attend to their appropriate business, and not try to run Washington Territory. When they attempt to oppose the General Government they will find themselves in the predicament of Mrs. Partington dipping out the Atlantic with a wash bowl.

Their own interests should dictate to them a course independent of politics. If they would have business from all parties they should eschew politics, and let them take their natural course. They should not disseminate Democratic delegates, and charge Republicans a bite a meal. Their employees must pronounce the "shibboleth" of Democracy, or their heads are off in a twinkling. The stale slander that Grant is the father of Aborigines must make their staple of conversation, and every gallant officer is a "drunk-on-bummer," while Confederate officers are the "pinks of gentility, high toned chivalry" &c. &c. If these parties attempt to cut the throat of W. T. and delay its internal improvements a decade of years, they will find such a course suicidal to themselves.

The formation of a Southern Confederacy on the Pacific slope has been a pet scheme of rebels for many years, but they are doomed to disappointment. We believe W. T. will stand firm in the coming election, that Oregon will follow suit, taking their places by the side of California and Nevada, in the brilliant galaxy of Republican States on the Pacific slope.

TESTIMONIAL.

At a called meeting of the members of the Bar and Officers of the Court, held at the court house in Vancouver, Clarke County, W. T. during the regular session of the U. S. District Court of the 2nd Judicial District of W. T. Hon. C. C. Hewett Chief Justice of the Supreme Court presiding at said term, was requested to vacate the chair, and on motion, Hon. C. Lancaster was appointed chairman and Jay D. Potter secretary; when the following preamble and resolution were presented and unanimously adopted viz: Whereas, we the undersigned members of the legal profession practicing at Vancouver, W. T., together with the Clerk of said Court, Deputy U. S. Marshall and Sheriff and under sheriff of Clarke County, have learned of the probable retirement of Hon. C. C. Hewett from the position of Chief Justice of W. T. therefore,

Resolved, That by his long and arduous labors, his uniform kindness, courtesy and forbearance toward the members of the profession and the officers of the court he has won, and is entitled to our honor, veneration and respect.

Resolved, That however we may sometimes have differed with him in opinions as to questions of law, we have never for a moment questioned his integrity.

Resolved, That as he retires from the honorable position so long held by him, he bears with him our highest esteem and regards as a jurist and gentleman, and we do hereby tender him our hearty congratulations and our best wishes for his future happiness and prosperity.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the journals of this court and be published in the Vancouver Register and the Olympia newspapers and the Daily Oregonian.

C. Lancaster, G. H. Stewart, J. D. Potter, John F. Caples, H. G. Struve, A. G. Cook, A. C. Smith, D. Friederich, I. T. Maulsby, Thomas A. McBride, G. W. Jones, Deputy U. S. Marshall; G. T. McConnell, Clerk District Court; G. W. Durgan, Sheriff; S. W. Beall, Under Sheriff. C. LANCASTER, Chairman J. D. POTTER, Secretary May 8th 1869.

—It is expected S. J. McCormick will be invited to lecture before the Union Club. McCormick is very witty as well as eloquent, so a good time may be expected.

OUR PLATFORM.

1. Resolved, That the principles of the Republican party, as declared by the late National Republican Convention at Chicago meet with our hearty approval, and adherence thereto by the National, State and Territorial Legislatures will secure the peace and prosperity of our country.

2. That we recognize the great principles laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independence as the true foundation of democratic government; and we hail with gladness every effort toward making these principles a living reality on every inch of American soil.

3. That we regard with great pride and satisfaction the accession of the wise, efficient, and victorious leader of the American army, General Grant, to the high and honorable position of President of the United States, and confidently rely upon the earnest cooperation of the different branches of the Government, for the enactment and enforcement of such measures as shall secure the rights and liberty of every American citizen, upon principles of justice and equality, and that respect for the laws by the people, that will insure the peace and progress of the entire country.

4. That the interests of Washington Territory can best be promoted by the election of an able Republican representative of our people as Delegate to Congress who will exert himself to obtain the fostering care and material aid of the General Government for such and all of our citizens, and who as opportunity offers, will make known to the people of the States, by public addresses, the great advantages and inducements our Territory presents to capital and population.

5. That a system of internal improvements in our Territory should receive the encouragement and support of the General Government in order that our important resources may be developed and the prosperity of the country promoted. Among these internal improvements, the construction of the Northern Pacific, Columbia River and Puget Sound and Walla Walla and Columbia River Railroads are of great and paramount importance, and their early completion highly necessary for the interests of not only this Territory, but also those of the entire country.

6. That the nominee of this Convention can and will by the hearty and united efforts of the Union Republican party will be triumphantly elected; and to that end, all personal preferences and prejudices should be waived for the general good, and the present, as well as future success of the Republican party and its principles be thereby effectually maintained.

PROTECTION TO NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS.

The following are the laws of Congress, touching the liability of subscribers to newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers who have not paid, order their papers stopped, the publisher may continue to send them until paid.

3. If subscribers refuse or neglect to take their papers from the office, they are held responsible until they have settled the bill and ordered the paper discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without notifying the publishers, and their papers are continued to the former office, they are held responsible.

5. The Courts have decided that refusing to take a paper from the office, or removing, and leaving it uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud on the part of each subscriber.

There is no nausea or disturbance of the stomach, and instead of causing any sense of languor, or debility, it causes rather to invigorate the whole system, and excite the keenest appetite.

Business men, worn by care and sedentary habits, often suffer from constipation of the bowels, until the evil consequences of such a condition are realized in extreme debility, nervousness and prostration of the vital energies of the system; and it may be safely asserted that a majority of the female sex are little better than invalids from the same cause; but by simply using Dr. Walker's VEGETABLE VINEGAR BITTERS, this natural aperient and tonic brings back the vigor and buoyancy of health.

Purify the blood is essential to sound health and long life. No chronic disease, sores, ulcers, skin eruptions, glandular swellings, discharges from the ear, sore eyes, sores or cankers in the mouth, will never appear if the blood is pure. To secure this great desideratum, take Dr. Walker's VEGETABLE VINEGAR BITTERS. It is the great Blood Purifier, and life-giving principle, increasing the power of digestion, and exciting the absorbents into healthy action, whereby all impurities of the system are carried off.

PERSONALITIES.

A political canvass should be devoid of personalities and harsh acrimonious assaults and criticisms upon the personal and private character and habits of the nominees. This course should be adopted by both political parties, both upon the ground of principle and policy. While it is not improper to expose in a candid, truthful way the shortcomings and defects of opposing candidates, yet the language used should be guarded and temperate and not calculated to wound the feelings or to arouse the angry passions of the friends of the candidates. It is too frequently the custom, that sneers, taunts and ridicule are heaped in a bitter and malignant spirit and without just cause upon the opposite party. This only has a tendency to destroy the personal friendly relation existing between citizens of the Territory and to engender a hatred and ill will, that a period of ten years of political quietude can hardly eradicate.

And certainly no good can possibly result from this conduct. Men can be induced by argument and the use of persuasive powers, but they cannot be driven or sooted into the support of any man differing in political sentiments from them. We therefore earnestly enjoin upon our Republican friends to abstain from all offensive personalities. If the Democrats choose to carry on the canvass in this manner, let them do so; it will surely recoil upon their own heads. Our cause is just and our standard bearer can stand the test of close criticism. Let every man whose heart is in the cause work with energy and perseverance, and in a candid, and straightforward manner endeavor to persuade his neighbor by honest argument, that the Republican platform embodies sound principles and that it is to the interest of the Territory, that Mr. Garfield should be elected to Congress. We do not know, how the editor in chief of this paper, likes these sentiments, but we are satisfied that they correspond with the views of a large portion of the thinking and influential Republicans of this Territory.

—We have learned from good authority that Governor Flanders, General Hazard Stevens (son of the heroic I. I. Stevens), Gen. McKim and all the U. S. Officials in Olympia have come out in favor of Garfield and that his election is conceded by all parties.

A SENSIBLE REASON.

Below we publish a card, written by Thos. J. Fletcher, Esq., an old Democrat and highly respected citizen of this county, who has shown the manliness, and independence of severing party ties, when the election of the Democratic nominee would operate injuriously to the common interests of the citizens of this county. Mr. Fletcher is too well known as a man of sagacity and foresight in business matters and versed in the principles of political economy, to justify the least suspicion, that he is actuated by any other motives than those set forth in his card. This feeling is gaining ground rapidly, that the railroad interests of this county would be best subserved by the election of Mr. Garfield. Mr. Fletcher has large property interests at stake in this county and knows whereof he speaks, and he has in this instance set an example that would be well for other Democrats to imitate.

A SARD. To avoid misrepresentation in regard to my political course in the present canvass, I thought proper to publish this card, briefly stating my reasons for disregarding party usage.

I am a Democrat and as such used all honorable means to secure the nomination of Gov. Moore, believing him to be the most available man in the party. And as I had understood he was a member of the Puget Sound and Columbia River Railroad Company, I had reason to believe him to be in the interest of the East Side Road in Oregon, and the Union Branch Road also; indeed, I had it from very good authority, as I supposed at the time, that the companies building those roads desired his election. In this, however, I am now well satisfied I was grossly mistaken. I have taken a deep interest in these matters and done everything in my power to aid and encourage those enterprising companies, conscious that by aiding the railroad, I would be doing the greatest possible good in my power to the people of this Territory and especially to the citizens of the county in which I reside. Deeming this question of Railroads of paramount importance in the coming election, and believing it to be the most important election ever transpiring in this Territory, I have taken great pains to post myself, and I am now firmly convinced that if we desire Railroads through this [Clarke County] the election of the Republican nominee for Delegate to Congress is our only salvation. And wishing to be loyal to my own interests, to the interests of my children, my neighbors, my county and my Territory, I now announce myself in favor of Mr. Garfield, and shall use all honorable means to secure his election.

And as I am under no obligation to the Democratic party for either place, post or position, I hope no member of that party will be so unreasonably as to ask me to sacrifice my own personal interests and that of every citizen of the county for mere party ends.

But should, however, the party pronounce me a transgressor, all I have to say is, "Let him that is without political sin cast the first stone."

THOS. J. FLETCHER.

VANCOUVER SEMINARY.

The interest of the students are well cared for by the present instructors. They have had disadvantages to meet, but by uniting industry and good management, they have gained the confidence of the students and all connected with the institution. Thus demonstrating that they are competent and qualified for the position they now fill—the right one in the right place. The Academy is now placed upon a good foundation.

The faculty of man have every natural capacity to improve, every natural ability, but then it will never improve until it has the proper intellects to bring it out; to give those little fellows the right shoot is the idea. Now let me say a word to parents. The great mistake with a majority of men is, that they seek the world first, riches, so as to have plenty of money; after that they expect to educate their children. The mind at a very early age becomes completely surfeited with the world, and if there were a disposition to go to school, it would require an almost superhuman effort to learn anything. There are thousands of children who could be sent to school just as well as not, but parents want to get rich first. It don't cost so much to give a boy a common school education after all, and even if it does, he will pay you back, yes, all your money with compound interest.

ENERGETIC.—Mr. F. M. Bates, we understand, has leased Oro Fino Theater in Portland for one year, and also a theater at Salem. He has been in Oregon but a short time but has met with far better success than any of his predecessors, and is acknowledged by the press and the people, to stand foremost in the rank of managers. We have never met with a more energetic, hard working person than Mr. Bates, and we hope his efforts to permanently establish the drama this side of Frisco may meet with success. The re-opening of Oro Fino takes place to-night, on which occasion will be produced Le Lorenz, and Guardians of Jubilee House, and the Loan of a Lover.

SPEAKING.—On next Wednesday evening, at Metropolitan Hall, the Union Republican Club will be addressed by able speakers from abroad. All are requested to attend. Special invitation to the ladies.

—If you want anything in a Saddler's line Bridle, Saddle, Harness etc., go to S. D. Maxon on Main Street Vancouver. He will satisfy you to perfection.

—The case of S. F. Hunter against Purdan and wife and S. A. Miles and wife has been decided in Hunter's favor. This was a case that has excited great interest in Columbia County, and seems to have been managed with great success by Hon. J. F. Caples. His ability as a lawyer is unquestioned, and his fame is on the increase.

—Hon. J. H. Mitchell has arrived home on the Continental. He states that at least twenty if not fifty miles of the East Side Road will be built during the coming season. He may be expected during the campaign to address the Union Club of this city.

—A Democratic candidate for office in this county was berating Grant at a great rate, in the presence of a leading Republican when the Republican returned. "Don't take it so to heart, send on your petition, properly signed, and Grant will pardon you."

—Mr. Boutelle has received his commission as Lieutenant. He leaves many warm friends. He is commissioned in the 1st Cavalry. He expects to serve in Arizona.

RECOVERED.—Mr. Curtis Stort and his sister have returned from the Sandwich Islands. His health is much improved.

The following items we clip from the Port Townsend Message:

—The Democratic party are trying to ride into power by nominating a man who does not represent their principles. The people of this Territory are not so easily deceived as to imagine a change of principles in the same direction; if anything, it portends a deeper relapse into error. Let none imagine for a moment that the nomination of Gov. Moore means abandonment of sympathy with those damnable doctrines that have cost us so much, as a nation. What the Democracy is seeking is strength. They are willing to make any momentary sacrifice to attain this. A bad woman gains no attribute of virtue because dressed in decent clothing. The Democracy becomes more dangerous. The Democratic party is none the less the party of Secession and Disunion, of opposition to all truthful progress in our nation, because it had in its ranks national struggle Frank P. Blair for a leader, or has in this coming Territorial conflict Marshall F. Moore for a candidate. This is the clavery party; the aristocratic party. Laboring men are its scorn. Its sneers at the "close fisted farmers" and "greasy mechanics," have passed into history and can never be forgotten. It would wipe our nation's savior Grant, as a "common drunkard." It would proclaim the brilliant, soldierly Sherman a "madman." It would insist that the gallant Sheridan was a "Vandal," one who delighted in plunder and destruction. This is the party that named the immortal Lincoln a "tyrant." (God send us many such.) We are sure these records of the past will not be forgotten. No laboring man—no soldier can forget them.

Marshall F. Moore's name is a subterfuge by which they hope to gain strength to promulgate their infamous principles here. The cry of war Democrats is "played out." If loyal men wish to know where to find war Democrats, Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Sikes will answer the question for them. Not Frank P. Blair or Marshall F. Moore. Let us look on the other side. Mr. Garfield is well known. He has long been active in politics in this Territory. (If Gov. Moore were better known, he might have more faith.) His talents are admitted, his qualifications for the position are unsurpassed. The tongue of Slander has exhausted its venom on Mr. Garfield, and every fault has been exaggerated into a crime. But who are the men that slander? They are the admirers of the "martyr Jeff. Davis," the "hero Bob Lee," the assassin Wilkes Booth. The hatred of these men is the richest crown a loyal man could desire.

Democracy or Republicanism are the issues. The principles which carried us through the war and now under Grant are establishing us in peace, or those theories which caused the war and now have culminated in repudiation and opposition to all truthful principles.

Washington Territory stands in the high ways of commerce—in the direct pathway of progress. Shall we go back in politics? It will carry us back ten years to send a Democratic Delegate to Congress, and ten years of progress will place us high up in the list of States. Let the people choose between right and wrong—between Garfield and Moore; and thus will slander work out its own merited rain.

Gov. Moore is at present on a visit to Port Townsend. He has declined to meet Mr. Garfield on the stump, and we think he has shown more wisdom than courage in the course he has pursued. If the Governor displayed no more bravery on the field of battle than he does in this campaign, he should not make much capital of his war record.

Ex-Governors don't seem to succeed very well when running on the Democratic ticket. Bedrick Democrats won't vote for them because they fought for the Union. Republicans won't vote for them because they want to get into power by pretending to adopt the principles they have shed their blood to subvert.

Garfield's friends will conduct the campaign honestly and fairly. Garfield can get a handsome majority without resorting to trickery.

How much service could Gov. Moore render Washington Territory, in the event of his election, when he had not sufficient influence in Washington to keep himself in the office of Governor?

Prominent Democrats on the street have been asserting, since the advent here of Honorable Frank Clark and M. F. Moore, that Mr. Garfield did not treat their candidate with proper courtesy, declining to meet him on the stump and even ran off to avoid meeting the eloquent leader of the Democracy. This is not true. Mr. Garfield waited 48 hours in order to see Mr. Moore and arrange the canvass. Gov. Moore knew Mr. Garfield was waiting to see him at Vancouver. Why did he shrink from meeting him and delay so long in Portland? coming at last in the boat by which he knew Mr. Garfield would have to leave in order to fill his engagements. If Gov. Moore is anxious to be met on the stump, let him announce when and where, and he can be effectually accommodated.

If Andy Johnson shed tears to know that Massachusetts and South Carolina walked arm in arm into the Philadelphia Convention, how his eyes would give down to see Marshall F. Moore and Frank Clark making their "preliminary tour" hand in hand collecting funds from the faithful. They have made a big trip together, and seem to be not altogether satisfied with the result; for going back they intend, we believe, to separate. Clark will appeal to the fire eating hardshells, and Moore make a draw on the Conservative softshells.

MANHOOD—IN THE YOUNG and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack of lustre eye, and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is showing her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health.

Herbert's Extract Becomes, for Weakness arising from excess or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms:—

During the superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy.

Who can say that those excesses are not frequently followed by those dreadful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the insane Asylum and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions.

With woeeful measures man Despair, Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled? Whilst we regret the existence of these diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the relief of the consequence: HERBERT'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT BECOMES.

It is a true and powerful medicine, and this is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

I am respectfully yours, COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director, Jan 16, 1866.

Many years ago the writer of these lines and an invalid physician, while visiting the Island of St. Croix for their health, experienced and witnessed many surprising and beneficial effects of the Bitters produced upon many of the invalids who were (the ourselves) seeking health; and, upon inquiry and investigation, obtained a full history of its medicinal virtues.

The result of his labors was a glorious success for himself and suffering humanity, for the celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS was thus made known to the world's PLANTATION BITTERS being an article of real merit, founded upon new principles, and relying wholly upon the vegetable world for its medicinal effects, worked a rapid revolution in the history of medicine, and became as a household word all over the civilized world.

Notwithstanding the large importation of St. Croix Bitters, made expressly for the compounding of these Bitters, the quantity was inadequate. It therefore became necessary that arrangements upon an extensive scale should at once be made, and an agent was dispatched to St. Thomas for that purpose.

As an antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, Dyspepsia, and other kindred diseases, the use of the PLANTATION BITTERS is unsurpassed in the history of the world. Over five million bottles are disposed of annually. They are adapted to old and young, male and female. They are agreeable in taste, and always produce an immediate beneficial result.
