OUR MILITARY TITLE.

"There is no more enterprising man in all Oregon than he, and he richly deserves success. Major Adams of the Vancouver Register, intends travelling over the country and will lecture on the "True Progress of Mankind." He invites "all Live men and women to attend;" and he asks "old fogies to take back seats." We never knew before that Booch was a Maj—but Booch is so very modest about the use of that personal pronoun first person singular number—I—that the account for our ignorance in the premises."

Commercial.

There is a fair specimen of the consistency of Bull. One moment he says "there is no more enterprising man in all Oregon than he, (Major Adams) and the next moment abuses us. As to our Military title of Major, we think by right we wear it, having been conferred on us by the highest power in the United States. Read this already published in the Vancouver Register of May 29 1869.

"The President of the United States has issued all varieties those precious grants, No. 3 to No. 10. I do hereby confer on each O. Adams the U. S. Volunteer in the service of the United States and with advice and consent of the Senate, do hereby grant him a commission to serve as such from the thirtieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, for gallant and meritorious service during the war.

"Signed by the President, Secretary of War, and Adjunct General. Recorded Volume 6, page 33. Adj. General's Office, Wash., 1869.

We served 6 months and fourteen days after the commission having the most of the time a Colonel's command. Bro. Bull don't know much, so we are not astonished he doesn't know we are "Major." We have the parchment to show, Bro. Bull.

What an Eastern Lady Thinks of the Vancouver Register.

Mr. EDITOR:

Size—A copy of the VANCOUVER REGISTER came to my hands, which I read with great interest. I particularly admire the poem on the first page, entitled "The Bridal Frost of Death," which you will recognize. You are or was once an Eastern man and I have friends living in the west in the State of Oregon, which make Western papers particularly interesting to me, and I judge that eastern papers will be acceptable to you. So I take the liberty to send you a copy of those which our town affords, and if it is not asking too much, will you have the kindness to send me a copy of the VANCOUVER REGISTER. It agrees to you, we will exchange papers once a year, or so. Pardon the liberty I take and address, Miss E. L. HADLEY, Haverhill Mass. P. O. Box, 1058.

FURTHER FROM THE MINES.

We have nothing later from the mines than Mr. Miller's report, which is indefinite to the extreme. Departures continue steady and quite a brisk little trade has sprung up in furnishing outfitts to prospectors. About 20 pack animals in all, loaded with from 150 to 250 pounds of provisions and mining tools each, have left for the diggings within the past week. Mr. Goo. Weeden started a train of seven horses on Thursday to carry the outfitts of a party from Portland, and others are preparing to start day or to-morrow. We have strong hopes that the miners may yet turn out something more than a chance deposit. The only experienced miner with whom we have conversed gave it as his opinion that wage-diggers could most likely be found sufficient to give employment to 200 or 300 men. He said the country bore all the outward indications of an aridous region, and thought that a thorough prospecting would reveal p something that would astonish us. We trust he's right, and shall hasten to chronicle all reliable information in realization of his prediction.

Reports of the discovery a silver bearing quartz-ledge on the East Fork of Lewis river have been rife for some days, but we failed to trace them to any reliable source.

The effect of the gold excitement has been to give a bustling, business-like air to our tradesmen and a life and stir to our streets, quite out of the common order. Well, who knows but that long expected "something," for the turning up of which we have waited so long and patiently, has concluded to "turn up" and put an end to our feverish suspense.

Mr. Mallett and Mr. Miller have returned from the mines. They had some difficulty in finding the Lone Star Diggings. The blazes were so arranged that one advancing to the mine could not notice them, they were only to be recognized when looking back. They found the Canyon, at last, where Texas and his companions were. There were huge boulders lying around. It wore the aspect of a rough place. On a bar in the Canyon, we understood, the miners had reared their dominoes. Texas has taken out as high as fifty cents to the pan.

We would state for the information of those going to the Lewis river mines that to go by the way of Vancouver is the best route. Many, we have understood, have gone to the mouth of Lewis River, being misled by the name "Lewis river mines." It is almost an impossibility by that route to reach the mines. Vancouver is the best point of approach.

Mr. B. L. Stone has removed from his old stand to 107 Frontstreet where he has a very fine display of watches and jewelry of all kinds. His establishment is truly an elegant one. One half is occupied by S. L. Stone, who has a fine supply of tobacco and cigars. The Messrs. Stone are very sociable gentlemen, and treat every one with courtesy. There is a chance to make excellent trades, as they believe in the principle of quick sales and small profits.

Mr. B. L. Stone has among other novelties a chronometer and perpetual Almanac, very fine to hang on your watch-chain, if you wish to know on an instant the day of the month and the length of the day.

Vic. Trevitt says he is bound to get his living by honest credit.

OFFICIAL VOTE.

All the returns being now in we are enabled to lay before our readers the full vote for Delegate at the late election. We also republish the vote of 1867, to exhibit the difference in the vote of the last and preceding election:

	1869.	1867.
Carriers.	[Gardner's Name] [P. J. Clark]	[Gardner's Name] [P. J. Clark]
Clarke	74—28	42—27
Collier	6—24	57—27
Cowles	1—11	2—11
Culham	68—41	67—49
Jackson	82—54	81—54
King	184—156	129—113
Kirk	29—18	26—111
Levy	25—23	25—23
Mason	25—23	25—23
Pacific	87—46	42—22
Pierce	133—161	86—13
Shankman	22—19	62—43
Stevens	15—67	48—53
Thurston	27—24	25—25
Walla Walla	18—101	66—66
Whitson	15—25	5—18
Yakima	25—44	19—22
	1743—1254	2268—2272
Gardner's majority	149	149
Flanders' majority	96	96

The total vote in 1867 was 4,640; in 1869 it was 5,337; showing an increase of 697. All the counties east of the mountains have gained 128 votes, and the Puget Sound counties, 563. Pacific county has lost 5, and S. Evans county 39 votes. The election of June next will exhibit more marked changes than are here shown. Our readers on the S. and will remember that it was just on the eve of the late election that the migration set in to this section, which has continued ever since, and that scores of people were here on the 7th of June last who had not been in the Territory to that date. The result of this will be to add to the gentlemen, who have shown so high an appreciation of the influence and capabilities of woman. No other sentiment in whatever manner expressed could in the estimation of every lady be more highly appreciated or prove to our minds a higher standard of moral character and intelligence. Could man generally be thus assured that the more solid requirements and active efforts to do good were admired they would turn many frivolities into graces, and their labors for display would be enlisted in a higher and more elevating service. Take the history of nations throughout the world, and we see that the unceasing and unrelenting labor made servants of females, while on the other hand, those that stand the highest in the scale of civilization and education regard woman as their equal and God ordained helpmate of man. In that faith which we have in女子's abilities to do good, and hope which we entertain of your disposition to do good, and in that clarity which is ever ready to uphold all good and thinks no evil, we will in behalf of the lady members of this Lodge and other lodges thank you for the noble sentiments of the last. This response was by a lady.

Toast.—The liberty of the Press, the liberty of conscience, the four of tyranny and the evening of bigotry. In March, if governed in reason, and prudence, will emancipate a world.

Toast.—The progress of education. May speedily abolish every species of dangerous distinction, and render every American a patriot from principle.

COLUMBIAN LANCER.

He was a Delegate in Congress from the Territory of Washington, during the years 1854 and 1855.

J. PATTON ANDREWS.

He was born in Tennessee, and was elected a Delegate to the 34th Congress from the Territory of Washington.

ISAAC L. STEVENS.

He was born in North Andover, Massachusetts, 1818; graduated at the West Point Military Academy in 1839, and entered the Corps of Engineers, in which service he continued until 1852, when he was appointed Governor and Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Territory of Washington. This office he resigned in 1857, having previously been elected a Delegate to Congress from Washington Territory, where he continued until the breaking out of the Rebellion in 1861.

As an officer of the army, he was at the siege of Vera Cruz under General Scott; fought in several subsequent battles; was severely wounded in the final assault upon the City of Mexico, and was twice breveted for gallant services. He also served for a time as an assistant in the Coast Survey office in Washington City. When Governor W. T. in 1850, he travelled throughout his whole extent, and as Commissioner made many trips with the Indian tribes. In September, 1861, he was appointed a Brigadier-General in the V. Volunteer service, and was killed at battle at Bull Run, Virginia, in 1862.

WILLIAM H. WALLACE.

Born in Miami County, Ohio, July 17, 1811; spent his early life in Indiana; removed to Iowa in 1837; was elected to the State Legislature in 1852; and served as Speaker; and also as President of the State Council; was appointed by President Taylor to receive Paymaster at Fort Smith; and was a member of the National Committee; was elected a Delegate from Idaho; he was a member of the National Committee; was appointed a Senator from Idaho; he was a delegate to the 37th Congress; was appointed the first Governor of Idaho Territory; and re-elected to the 38th Congress, as a Delegate from Idaho. He was a member of the National Committee; accompanied the remains of President Lincoln to Illinois. He was also a delegate to the Philadelphia "National Union Convention" of 1860.

GEORGE E. COLE.

Was born in Oneida County, New York, December the 22d 1827; went to Iowa in 1842; crossed the plains in 1850, and went to Oregon the same year; was a member of the Oregon Legislature in 1853, 1854 and 1855; during the years 1856 and 1857 he was Clerk of the United States District Court for Oregon; removed to Washington Territory in 1861; and in 1863 he was elected a Delegate from Washington Territory to the 38th Congress.

ARTHUR A. DENNY.

He was born in Indiana in 1822; went with his parents to Knox County, Illinois, when fourteen years of age; was for eight years Surveyor of Knox County. In 1851 he removed to the Pacific coast, and settled at Puget's Sound, in what is now called Washington Territory. He was a member of the Territorial Legislature from 1853 to 1861; a four year Register of the Land Office at Olympia; and was elected a Delegate from Washington Territory to the 38th Congress.

ALVIN FLANDERS.

Born in Hightown, New Hampshire, in 1820; acquired the trade of a machinist in Boston; removed to California in 1851, where he was in the lumber business until 1858; subsequently took part in establishing the San Francisco "Daily Times," with which he was connected until 1861; during that year he was elected to the State Legislature; spent two years in the United States Branch Mint; was appointed, in 1862, Register of the Mint at Bayard's Office, which he resigned; and then he removed to Washington Territory, from which he was elected a Delegate to the 38th Congress.

FOR OUR FARMERS.

If you have a farm of 160 acres, upon which you raise 2,000 bushels grain for market, worth $1,000, and it costs half its value, $500, to market it, and a railroad will place it at better mark't for $15; how much of 160 acres can you afford to a Railroad Company and pay yourself $20 per acre for the land and the expense of five years, out of the saving on freight? Ans. 160 acres.

Mr. B. L. Stone has among other novelties a chronometer and perpetual Almanac, very fine to hang on your watch-chain, if you wish to know on an instant the day of the month and the length of the day.

Vic. Trevitt says he is bound to get his living by honest credit.

ED. REGISTER:—As you are always desirous of getting the news from all parts of the country, I will attempt to give you what is of interest to us, and may be to others. Our Lodge enjoys complete success in this place.

We have a full attendance and great interest is manifested by all. As a proof we had an anniversary celebration a short time since.

Every invited guest was present and responded to. Speeches were read and responded to. The toast of the tea and the responses:

Toast.—Lady Empress, an excited example of female excellence and virtue.

Worthy Chief, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I suppose a few words in reference to the toast just read, will be no more than justice to the gentlemen, who have shown so high an appreciation of the influence and capabilities of woman. No other sentiment in whatever manner expressed could in the estimation of every lady be more highly appreciated or prove to our minds a higher standard of moral character and intelligence. Could man generally be thus assured that the more solid requirements and active efforts to do good were admired they would turn many frivolities into graces, and their labors for display would be enlisted in a higher and more elevating service. In that faith which we have in女子's abilities to do good, and hope which we entertain of your disposition to do good, and in that clarity which is ever ready to uphold all good and thinks no evil, we will in behalf of the lady members of this Lodge and other lodges thank you for the noble sentiments of the last.

This is the result of the money we have paid to the Port of Vancouver.
