

OWNERS of city lots have but one week more in which to file their claims.

A CHANGE TO INVEST.—For a practical man, the distillery advertised in this week's issue, offers the opportunity of at once engaging in a paying business.

DR. SPANGLING'S LECTURES.—It will be seen that Dr. Spaulding anticipates his narrative, and this week gives the details of the Whitman massacre. The particulars of that bloody tragedy cannot fail to interest the reader.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—Saturday, the 17th of March, being the anniversary of the birth-day of St. Patrick, the patron of the Catholic church, there will be divine service at 10 o'clock, A. M. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Father Mahoney. Vespers will be at 7 o'clock, P. M.

THE CONCERT.—Notwithstanding Monday night was one of the most inclement of the season, the concert of Mr. Kelly, at the M. E. Church, was attended by a large and appreciative audience. The Church was filled to repletion. In fact, the crowd was so great that many were compelled to leave, not being able to obtain either sitting or standing room. Mr. Kelly and Little Willie each received round after round of applause.

MR. K. is undoubtedly at the head of his profession as a violinist and vocalist. He is also entitled to great praise for the care and attention he has bestowed upon Little Willie, who is certainly a wonderful child. It will be seen from the correspondence elsewhere that the concert will be repeated. Those who attend may calculate upon a rich treat, and one well worth the price of admission.

DROWNED.—A man named Eufenslad Rosof, was drowned in Mill Creek, on Wednesday night last, under the following circumstances: The water in Mill Creek was "booming" on last Wednesday night and threatened to wash away the rear part of a building at the intersection of Mill Creek and Third street. To prevent this the deceased and three other men attempted to put down some boards that would answer the purpose of a breakwater. Whilst thus engaged the bank caved in and the whole party were precipitated into the water. Three of the men succeeded in making their way out, but the fourth was swept away. At an early hour yesterday morning the body was found about a half mile below town, where it brought up against a fence that crosses the stream. The night was quite dark at the time of the accident, and to this cause, most likely, is due the fatal result. Deceased was a married man, and a packer by profession.

PACK TRAINS.—Within the last day or two we have noticed quite a number of pack trains fitting out for the different mining localities. The spring trade can scarcely be said to have commenced, and yet there is an evident revival in all branches of business. With receiving new stocks and attending to the demands of customers our merchants are on a constant stretch. As in former seasons, we noticed that persistent attempts are being made to divert trade from this point. In the enthusiasm of the moment, it is claimed for a locality just springing into notice that it is destined to be a "second Sacramento." The same prediction has been applied to other localities that have sprung up like "Jonah's gourd" and subsided quite as hurriedly, and we presume that alike fate will attend this latest excitement.

To build up a permanent town requires substantial resources, and it is in this respect that the new locality, like others we could name, is deficient. So long as Walla Walla remains the principal source from whence the mining districts draw their supplies of hardware and cured meats, we can safely calculate upon having the cream of mining trade, and this, too, notwithstanding every sand bar on the Columbia River be dignified with the title of town-site. It is to be hoped that the flour and bacon market of the Willamette Valley that Portland owes all her past prosperity, and it is in this trade that Walla Walla finds her surest guarantee for a prosperous future.

AN ESCAPED CONVICT ARRESTED.—Deputy Sheriff Gilliam, of Wasco county, Oregon, has been at Walla Walla for a week or two looking after an escaped convict. On Wednesday last, assisted by Sheriff Seitel, he succeeded in capturing his man, and now has him safely lodged in the county jail. The prisoner, named James E. Buchanan, for several months back has been living within a mile or two of Walla Walla, and has sustained the reputation of being an honest farmer. He came into the Valley some time last Fall, and bought himself a farm, on which with his wife and family he had settled down. Previous to coming here, he had lived in Wasco county some fifteen miles distant from the Dalles, where he had followed the occupation of a farmer. In the early part of 1865 he was indicted on the charge of stealing cattle, and his case came up for trial at the June term of the District Court. Two indictments had been found against him. On the first of these he was tried and convicted. The second indictment had been set for trial, and the party was allowed to go at large on $600 bail. Taking advantage of his freedom, he made his escape, and first went to California. How he finally made his way back to this country, we have no means of knowing. Certainly he was very foolish to settle down within a mile or two of the Oregon line. For several months the Oregon authorities have been cognizant of his whereabouts. A week or two since, Sheriff White was up here looking after him, but the prisoner kept out of the way. On Wednesday last he came to town for the purpose of trading, when he was captured without difficulty. As already stated, he has a wife and children who keenly feel the husband and father's disgrace.

OUTCROPPINGS.

Outcroppings of weeds choke the budding grain; When the seedlings grow, we may labor in vain; But the fruitful corn with its golden hair, Gives a small increase when 'tis planted there.

Those Radicals.—The agitation which was started but a few weeks ago, and which commenced in the assault on the President's restoration policy, is still kept up. In fact, a sort of civil war exists in Washington.

A Young man in Bristol, Eng., was charged with stealing articles belonging to a mariner whose wife had been taken with the articles, the latter became her paramour's apostle. "Her young friend," she said, who was formerly her employer, "had been seeking piety, and was on the road to amendment, although he had not quite given up his evil ways."

Public Lands.—The Secretary of the Interior has made the following important decision relative to the public lands of the United States: "Where a party may have filed a pre-emption declaration on a tract of land, and the time of settlement is shown to have been subsequent to the survey, the settler may convey such pre-emption right into a homestead; but in cases where the settlement was made prior to the survey, and the party filed a pre-emption right on the land, he will be required to perform his engagement under the pre-emption law or incur the penalty of its failure."

A Disgraced Editor's Farewell.—An editor in Ohio has retired to private life after ten years experience in the editorial chair. He takes his leave of his readers in the following valedictory: "The undersigned retires from the editorial chair with complete conviction that all is vanity. From the hour he started his paper to the present time he has been solicited to lie upon every given subject, and can't remember ever having told a wholesome truth without diminishing his subscription list or making an enemy. Under those circumstances of trial, and having a thorough contempt for himself, he retires in order to recoup his moral constitution."

A Young and beautiful but bashful female lately appeared before a magistrate in Pittsburgh and complained that her husband had been taking liberties with her. She was married the morning previous. The magistrate informed her that he had no jurisdiction, and advised her to go home to her man.

STANDING BY THE GOVERNMENT.—The N. Y. Observer, a religious newspaper, remarks: "It is painful to observe what papers now ridicule, oppose, and seek to defeat the measures of the Government; they are the papers that were loudest in making a test of loyalty—papers that denounced every man as a traitor, who opposed the measures that Government wished to carry through."

THE TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON, COUNTY OF WALLA WALLA.—WHEREAS, Two executions have been issued out of the District Court, First Judicial District, W. T., and to me directed, against M. H. Kemper and in favor of J. H. Lasater, and whereas one of said executions directs me by virtue of decree of foreclosure of mortgage in said Court, and the other by virtue of an attachment, to take the following described TRACT OR PARCEL OF LAND belonging to said Kemper, to wit: The south half of the north-west quarter, and the north half of the south-west quarter of section thirty-one, in township seven north of range thirty-seven east, containing one hundred and sixty acres, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to satisfy said Lasater's claim and costs, and whereas I have levied on said premises with appurtenances thereto belonging, therefore I will offer for sale the above described premises and their appurtenances, to the highest bidder, for lawful money of the United States, on SATURDAY, the 10th day of March, A. D. 1865, at 9 o'clock, A. M., and 4 o'clock, P. M., of said day, at the premises, to satisfy said executions.

THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONSTANTLY Manufacturing a superior article of Tarapentine for the trade. We will fill orders in quantities to suit, at reduced prices. We are also manufacturing a superior article of Aesop's razor for the Wholesale trade. T. A. WOOD & CO. Nov. 11, '64. Front street, Portland, Oregon.

THE GOSPEL FOR GOLD.—The press of the country are ridiculing the scene which lately occurred in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, the theatre of Rev. H. W. Beecher's Sunday lectures, on the occasion of the annual meeting of the sittings. It was an auction, precisely similar to that witnessed at the sale of seats for a concert, when some great artistical celebrity is to appear. The "services" were opened with prayer, the auctioneer then mounted the block and the sale of the ministrations of the gospel began. First there was a contest for the choice of seats, he who paid the highest having the choice of all the pews, and he who offered the next highest sum having the second choice. This choice money is in addition to the price of the pew, or its annual rent, and this price is itself fixed by the auction.

ARTIFICIAL IVORY.—Both on the continent and in this country, the manufacture of artificial ivory is conducted on a scale of some magnitude. The process by which the most successful imitation of natural ivory is obtained, appears to consist in dissolving either India rubber or gutta percha in chloroform, passing chlorine through the solution until it has acquired a light yellow tint, next washing with alcohol, then adding, in fine powder, either sulphate of baryta, sulphate of lime, sulphate of lead, alumina, or chalk, in quantity proportioned to the desired density and the kneading, and finally subjecting to pressure. A very tough product, capable of taking a very high polish, is obtainable in this way.

A Young man in Bristol, Eng., was charged with stealing articles belonging to a mariner whose wife had been taken with the articles, the latter became her paramour's apostle. "Her young friend," she said, who was formerly her employer, "had been seeking piety, and was on the road to amendment, although he had not quite given up his evil ways. She took him to chapel, and to class, and prayer meetings, and urged him to repent; and, as a closing effort, her husband being a very bad and cruel man, she took the young innocent away, in order to convert him more thoroughly. They had lived together for six weeks, during which time she taught him how to seek the truth."

Public Lands.—The Secretary of the Interior has made the following important decision relative to the public lands of the United States: "Where a party may have filed a pre-emption declaration on a tract of land, and the time of settlement is shown to have been subsequent to the survey, the settler may convey such pre-emption right into a homestead; but in cases where the settlement was made prior to the survey, and the party filed a pre-emption right on the land, he will be required to perform his engagement under the pre-emption law or incur the penalty of its failure."

He takes his leave of his readers in the following valedictory: "The undersigned retires from the editorial chair with complete conviction that all is vanity. Under those circumstances of trial, and having a thorough contempt for himself, he retires in order to recoup his moral constitution."

A JUDGE, trying a case out in the West, had proceeded about two hours, when he observed, "Here are only eleven jurymen present; where is the twelfth?" "Please, your honor," said one of the eleven, "he has gone away about some other business, but he has left his verdict with me."

A Young and beautiful but bashful female lately appeared before a magistrate in Pittsburgh and complained that her husband had been taking liberties with her. She was married the morning previous. The magistrate informed her that he had no jurisdiction, and advised her to go home to her man.

STANDING BY THE GOVERNMENT.—The N. Y. MEDICAL INSTITUTE. QUICK CURES AND MODERATE CHARGES. DR. L. C. KINNEY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute, Main Street, Walla Walla, Opposite Bowler's & Co. Bro.

Established expressly to afford the afflicted sound and scientific Medical Aid, in the treatment and cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, Syphilitic cases of all kinds of sources, and all other diseases.

RETURNS HIS THANKS to his numerous patients for their patronage since locating here in 1858, and takes this method of notifying the public that he has leased the large and commodious building of Mr. Joseph Helms, one Main street, and has had the same fitted up for the purpose of an Hospital, with every comfort for the care and attention of those who require Medical or Surgical assistance.

Special attention will be paid to affections of the Lungs, Liver, Digestive Organs, Kidneys and Diseases of the Genitals, Urinary Organs, Diarrhoea and a private nature will receive prompt attention and managed successfully. Diseases peculiar to women and children, and all other cases, will be treated with the most judicious and successful attention, and the affections of eye and ear, and in short all the maladies to which human flesh is heir will claim his attention.

Letters from persons unable personally to communicate with the Dr. accompanied by the usual fee will receive prompt attention.

The Doctor would state that he has had an experience of more than thirty years in treating cases of disease occurring in Northern and Southern climates, besides having enjoyed a large hospital practice, both in civil life, and with our army in the Mexican War—where he was surgeon of the army.

It too often occurs that persons requiring Medical aid, arriving here from the various mining towns in the upper country, at the instance of friends, are induced to go to San Francisco, thinking that they will not find proper treatment short of that city thus involving an unnecessary expenditure of both time and money. To show that there is no necessity to do this, the Doctor refers to parties whom he has treated, and those now under his care in hospital.

N. B.—All those indebted to Doctor Kinney, by note or account are requested to call at his office and settle their bills. All accounts not paid before the 1st of January, 1866, will be placed in the hands of a collector for collection. 49nd.
