

A REPRESENTATIVE MAN.

John F. Boyer—Biographical Sketch of one of Walla Walla's Self-made Bankers.

[From Col Gilbert's History of Walla Walla.] John F. Boyer, of the firm of Baker and Boyer, bankers in Walla Walla, W. T., is one of the men whose success in life and business has been mainly achieved in the country where he now lives by the exercise of economy, industry and business integrity, guided with intelligent financial ability.

In 1859 Mr. Boyer with his family again crossed the plains to California, where he established himself as a merchant at Sonora and remained there until 1862, when he accepted an offer of co-partnership with Dr. D. S. Baker in the mercantile branch of his Walla Walla business.

In conclusion we would say that Mr. and Mrs. Boyer and the same is equally true of Dr. D. S. Baker) have raised a family of children in a manner that reflects credit upon them as persons possessing practical sense.

Taxed to Death.

The cry "protect our infant industries" so frequently raised by the monopolies of the east, is now threaded and worn, but so long as the Americans are led by the nose by every politician, the manufacturers will continue to have their own way in and out of Congress, and the working class of the country will have to foot the bill as usual.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Percent. Lists various goods and their tax percentages.

National Humiliation.

A great cry of anguish comes to us from the valley of the Ohio. Thousands of men and women torn from their homes by the irresistible flood, without food, without shelter, without the opportunity to labor, cry aloud for assistance.

The retention of the duty upon lumber means a rapid and unnecessary destruction of the forests. It means that Senators of the United States are indifferent to the great losses of life and property which may be directly traced to forest destruction.

The Canadian Pacific.

When completed, together with connections, this line will extend 2,850 miles, from Montreal, Canada, to Port Moody, on the Georgian Gulf. The main line begins at Prince Arthur's landing, on Lake Superior, and has been built to Winnipeg 435 miles.

Important to Ranchers.

General Manager Haupt, of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, has issued the following notice in reference to prairie fires caused by sparks from railroad engines on the line of road, which will be of interest to settlers and land owners along the line.

What New England Doesn't Love.

[Texas Siftings] A friendly Indian is one who does not make a business of scalping the superior race: one who only kills his white benefactors at such odd times as can safely and conveniently be done on some one else.

The Dangers of Street Acquaintances.

Public Ledger. She does not understand it. It is a game at which only one is the loser. If the disappearance follows, who is to blame? Is it the mother or near friend who has fondly fancied that ignorance of evil was the best security for the free-gold child?

Ben Holladay.

It is currently rumored on the streets and generally believed, that the Oregon Improvement Company has purchased all Ben Holladay's right, title and interest therein pertaining, to certain real estate in the city of Portland and East Portland.

Land Decision by Secretary Taylor.

In a communication to the commissioner of the general land office, on March 13th, respecting the repayment of purchase money, under the act of June 16, 1880, for the relief of settlers on public lands, and to provide for the repayment of certain fees of purchase money paid on void entries of public lands.

The Workingman.

A cartoon in the N. Y. Graphic represents the workingman as he really is. The monopolist Senator and bondholder Representative picture him sitting in a home surrounded by every luxury and where every prospect pleases—no words to that effect, varying the monotony of listening to the piano and reading the papers by going to the bank to make a deposit, or out of coupons as the case may be.

The Whipping Post.

One of the best legislative acts passed in any state this year is that of the Illinois legislature which has passed a bill punishing wife beating with whipping. Nothing but this extreme measure will cure these brutes of their cruelty, and it would be as well for our own legislature next winter to seriously consider a similar measure.

ELASTIC FROM THE FRONT.

As Set off by our Regular Correspondent—A Brutal Murder—Small-pox all Genes—Locus of General Interest—Etc.

N. P. R. R., WEST MONTANA, March 15th, 1883. Track is laid to the Missoula river, the end of the Clark's Fork divide, at the 251 mile post, making a total of 587 miles east of Portland.

Only three cases of small-pox, and the are improving fast, at Stevens' mill. Dr. H. Ban, who lately took charge of the hospital, went vigorously to work and burned everything belonging to the patients and strictly quarantined them by putting on a guard of eight men well armed. No further danger from small-pox is apprehended along the line.

Now as the pleasant weather approaches our city will soon be flooded with an army of canvassers who come from San Francisco and Portland, and represent large wholesale jobbing houses. These pests go around from place to place and take orders for suits of clothes, shirts, underwear, and goods of almost every description, secure a deposit and after a few weeks the articles contracted for arrive through the mails.

C. S. L. Railroad News.

The stage express and mail service between Wood River and Kelton, says the Halcyon Times, has been abandoned altogether, and all such service, even from San Francisco, will go via Ogden in future. The mail to Goose Creek will be taken on horseback, from Shoshone. Notwithstanding the danger of traveling over the O. S. L. to Shoshone, there is an average of ten arrivals daily at that place by rail.

Try It. "I like it better than any remedy I have ever used, because it leaves my eyes in better condition," is the remark made by every one whom we refer to Syrup of Figs. That is one of the principal reasons why Syrup of Figs is taking the place of all the live-medicine and non-mercurial cathartics heretofore used. Try it. H. R. Holmes is agent for Walla Walla.

Brought into Connection with the World, the Best Carries off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876, the leading products of all the branches of the World's industry was assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible variety, representing the skill and the profoundest study of the age, and it may be of vital importance to you, personally to know that the highest and only medal given to rubber Porous Plasters was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPSICINE POROUS PLASTER, by the following jury:

Dr. J. E. Chen, chief surgeon of the O. R. & N. O. & C., and N. P. Brooks, is on a business trip to the front. We hear at the front could not be better. Show all good and sanitary summer days. WASHINGTON.

Now as the pleasant weather approaches our city will soon be flooded with an army of canvassers who come from San Francisco and Portland, and represent large wholesale jobbing houses. These pests go around from place to place and take orders for suits of clothes, shirts, underwear, and goods of almost every description, secure a deposit and after a few weeks the articles contracted for arrive through the mails.

The right of Benson's Capsicine Porous Plaster to stand at the head of all external applications whatsoever, for the mitigation or cure of disease, is no longer questioned.
