The Independent Farmer.

Let sailors sing of the briny deep, Let soldiers praise their armor; But in my heart this thought I'll keep, The Independent Farmer.

When first the rose, in robe of green, Unfolds its crimson lining, And around the cottage porch is seen The honeysuckle twining;

When banks of bloom their sweetness yield To heat that gather honey, He drives the team across the field; Where black flies are sofy and sunny.

The blackbirds circle behind the plow, The quail pipes loud and clearly— Yet orchard hides beyond its hough The home he loves so dearly;

The gray and old barn-doors unfold His ample store in measure, More rich than heaps of hoarded gold, So precious, blest and treasured.

While yonder in the porch there stands His wife, the lovely chambermaid, The sweetest rose on all his lands— The Independent Farmer.

To him the Spring comes dancingly, To him the Summer blushes, The Autumn smiles with mellow ray, And Winter comes with hoarings.

He cares not how the world may move, No doubt or fears confound him; His little flock are linked in love, And household angels round him;

He trusts to God and loves his wife— No grief, no ill may harm her; He's Nature's nobleman in life— The Independent Farmer.

A Twilight Woeing. It is an awful thing to lose a friend by marriage!

It is an awful thing to lose a friend by marriage! To see him drop into your room occasionally, always with a paper parcel under his arm, suggesting to you that he is on his way to the blue-breathed evening city.

I should die to make her happy. Oh, Mary, can't you give me a word of encouragement? I dare not tell her my love, because my heart sinks so to pieces, that the little word "No!" will speak it, do you think?

There was no answer still. "Mary, will she break my heart?" I spoke with trembling accents, fresh from the deepest recesses of my soul—the very air seemed to sob around me as I ceased. One instant of silence in the soft, pulsing fragrance of midsummer twilight, and then there was a fluttering of light, azure robes, the fall of a fairy footstep—

She could look up, a soft white arm gleaming with the clasp of a blood-red corset was around my neck—a shower of brown curls, nestled on my breast.

"She will not—she never will." "Thee'rt what of Agnes Day; I held the coy, coy 'tish tremble to my heart."

"Life's a heap brimming with sweetest ever since—many a golden moment has passed to sprinkle the shade of joy around my footsteps as I nestled into the fold of by-gone; but in all my existence, there never came a second time like that."

"So, I am really to have a brother-in-law?" she said, putting aside the roses and coming forward just as the wicket fastening clicked under Jack's hand, and the fiery spark of his cigar flashed through the purple gleaming, slowly traveling up the garden walk.

"I have called upon a very respectable errand, sir, and want your advice. My wife and I do not live happily together, and I am thinking of getting a divorce. What do you advise, sir?"

"The Governor at a few moments in deep thought, then turning to Squire W. said: "How did you treat Mrs. W., when you were married?"

Fruit Culture.

The proper selection of fruit trees is of vast importance to the cultivator, and affects in an important point of view the whole country.

Since the culture of fruit trees has called forth so vast an amount of the money labor, it must be evident to all that it has become a subject of science and study, which has called forth a catalogue of almost innumerable varieties. It must be evident also, that as the fruit market is governed by the advancement of its cultivation, it will always demand the most choice varieties of fruits, and out of this vast catalogue, it is equally evident that a few only can meet the demand.

It will be remembered, too, that the delicatness of the fruit is not all that the market demands: its size, beauty, keeping, season and hardness, are some of the qualities which the market demands, hence we are governed there by the market.

After this our attention is called to the tree, which forms an important part of the study of the fruit culture, for many varieties which possess all the fine qualities that the market demands, are from the irrigated and uncertain soils of the tree worthless to the cultivator. Some of the distinguishing habits of trees are as follows:

From the most tardy and small to the most thrifty and luxuriant growth, and from the fourth to the most sparse bearing. And again, from every year's bearing to every second or third year. Now to illustrate the importance of proper selections. The two extremes is at least one-half.

Let them be of the fullest and most every habit of fruiting.

Oil on the Brain.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing from Parkersburg, Va., gives the following description of the all oil-spraying mania in that locality:

"If you want to be bored, come to the oil region. Here's the place where you bore and get bored. It is nothing but oil from morning till night—oil on paper—boiled oil—people talk, write, sleep and snore oil. Ask a man how fat it is to Charleston."

"Twenty-six miles from Slabside's oil spring, 'What time does the steamer leave for Wheeling?'"

"What was the fight about yesterday?"

"Oh!"

"Denkins married an oil well frater—or just as good—married Miss Snifkins, whose father struck 'ole' a few days ago."

"Snifkins hadn't time to go to his wife's funeral last Tuesday for fear his 'ole' would pour upon the troubled waters, and say this is the very spot where the oil for the occasion comes from."

I slept on four barrels of oil last night—every hotel full. The entire country looks greasy, people have oily tongues, and your oil factory nerves are strongly impressed with the terrible stench. Everybody has territory for sale, and anticipate their realization of the Baron Munchausen stories that are afloat.

Every sharper has a map of the region, and can tell a stranger exactly where the next spot is—has been there, known the place, but is short of funds—has no personal interest in the matter, not he, indeed. But in mere matter of friendship, advises you to buy there, and then to what he is doing—here, and oil must come.

Then seem crazy, victims are plenty. Seeking to become suddenly rich, many a tolerably well-to-do but over-sanguine individual goes his pite and loses all he has, and spends the remainder of his life in a lunatic asylum; not one in a hundred but get their fingers terribly burned.

A TALK OF THE TRADE.—It is well known to the purchaser of dry goods that cotton cloth made within the past two or three years is much inferior in quality to that manufactured before the war, and consequently there is a great demand for "old cotton." One of the trades in it is to take low-priced cotton, getting it to take out the sizing, and drag it about the store so as to give it the appearance of age.

This "doctored" cotton is then placed in the window, labeled as genuine old cotton, slightly damaged, and for sale, at reduced prices. No better advertisement than this can be found, and the consequence is that the "slightly damaged" article sells rapidly, while that which remains in the store is not so well.

A TOTAL ROUT.—The late battles before Richmond and Petersburg resulted in the defeat and total rout of the Confederate forces. The capture of Lee's army appears to be the next thing in order, and surrounded as it is with immense Federal armies, there can be little doubt that it will be bagged, Sherman, Grant and Sheridan are pressing Lee on all sides, and the Union troops pushed with a series of brilliant victories will follow up the pursuit sanguine of success.

REJOICINGS AT PORTLAND.—The freemen, soldiers and citizens of Portland paraded the streets of that city on the evening of the 6th inst., in honor of the capture of Richmond. Speeches were made on the occasion by Messrs. E. D. Shattuck and J. H. Mitchell. Similar rejoicings took place at Oregon City and Salem.

THE MARYSVILLE APPEAL.—A strong Administration paper, thinks the Southern rebellion will not be ended this year, if indeed it is ended during Mr. Lincoln's second Presidential term. It bases the prediction upon the fact that the Confederates have yet 300,000 brave and determined troops in the field, with the addition of a large number of slaves to assist in carrying on the war.

LAW AND ORDER.—Law and order is indispensably requisite to the welfare of all well regulated communities. Whenever legitimate law is set aside and mob rule prevails for any great length of time, everything is thrown into confusion and disorder. But even mob rule is sometimes deemed justifiable, where thieves and vagabonds disregard all law and attempt to rule. The thief always assumes to be in favor of upholding the law, and is horrified at the bare mention of a mob. At the same time, by the thefts and lawless acts which he constantly commits, he is doing that which incites a populace to the mob spirit which he so persistently condemns.

THE WALLA WALLA VALLEY.—The Walla Walla valley had no Vigilance organization, nor no jail, certainly none worthy the name. The desperadoes were not long in discovering that this was a suitable region for their operations, and they swarmed here in large numbers. Their presence soon became known and their thieving operations were felt in no slight degree. In truth, their operation were felt to such an extent that there was scarcely a resident of the valley who had not lost property of one kind or other.

W. T. UNION CONVENTION.—A dispatch to the Oregonian from Olympia, April 5th, says the Union Convention, held at Clatskanie, in this Territory, nominated Hon. A. C. Denny, on the first ballot, for Delegate to Congress. Mr. Denny has resided at Olympia for the past four years, and during the time has filled the position of Register in the Land Office there.

LOSERS BY FIRE.—The losses by fire in the United States during the past year are estimated at fifty million dollars.

Council Proceedings.

WALLA WALLA, April 11, 1865. Council met at 7 P. M. Present—Messrs. Abbott, McNulty, Thibode and Lynch. Minutes read and approved.

Table with financial entries: Total amount received from taxes, $3,827 35; Licenses, 12,570 00; Recorder's fines, 467 00; City lots located and recorded, 150 00; Dog tax, 108 00.

Table with financial entries: Total receipts, $17,122 35; Warrants have been drawn and disbursements made as follows: Special mail-box police, 160 83; Attendance on small-pox cases, 325 00; Boarding and nursing paupers, 376 00; Medical attendance on paupers, 100 00; Burial of paupers, 182 18.

On motion, the Council adjourned sine die. The members of the new Council were then sworn into office by S. B. Farge, Esq., and taking their seats, Mr. S. G. Rees was elected President of the Council.

Denny, on the first ballot, for Delegate to Congress. Mr. Denny has resided at Olympia for the past four years, and during the time has filled the position of Register in the Land Office there.

greater than the whole. While the individual States are sovereign, as regards each other, the United States are sovereign, in all the attributes which by the laws of nations denote sovereignty, and that while the citizens of the several States owe a measurable allegiance to their respective commonwealths, the allegiance due to the United States is paramount to all other considerations.

Capture of Richmond. Richmond was captured by the Federal army the 3d of April. The fight was begun by Lee. The following are some of the details: New York, April 4.—A special in the Times says the cavalry fight on Friday at 1 o'clock P. M. Gibb's brigade for a long time held its position and made successful charges, in one of which several hundred rebels threw down their arms and attempted to rush into our lines.

Washington, April 3.—The Army of the Potomac has been in and out of Petersburg this morning, making flying visits. The rebels commenced evacuating last night at 10 o'clock, and by three this morning were across the river, having burned about a million dollars worth of tobacco, the South Side railroad depot and the bridge across the Appomattox. Our men charged the inner line of works at daylight, taking a large number of prisoners, and the rebels entering the city behaved most admirably. Not more than a half dozen stores were entered by them. Most of these contained tobacco, cigars and liquors. The Provost Guard soon arrived and established order. The Mayor of the town met the troops as they entered and heading to the office commanding the following communication:

Washington, April 5.—The Commercial dispatch says: The colored troops headed by Gen. Draper of Massachusetts were the first to enter Petersburg. Several banks and the printing office were burned. Gen. Weitzel took Jeff. Davis' house for his headquarters. Gen. Shipley was appointed military Governor. Gen. Pierpont is to transfer the State Government of Virginia to this city to-day.

HORSE THIEVES ON THE RAMPAGE.—Our Walla Walla correspondent writes: "Spring opens in our 'precinct' about as usual. If the weather or our alliances fail to remind us, horse and cattle thieves are sure to give us notice in so tangible a shape that we are not likely to forget. Quite a lot of cattle have recently been stolen, and it is believed that the thieves are in the Walla Walla river, deemed it time for them to 'strike out,' which they did, and strange to say, a fine bay mare, belonging to Mr. North, and three horses, belonging to Mr. Pambrun, and five other horses, belonging to other parties, followed the aforesaid parties off, all leaving in the same direction. On Sunday morning about 5 o'clock three of the parties were seen on the Touchet river, near Manyon's ranch. They had with them fifteen animals and a frail daughter of French blood, known as 'Janella.' Mr. North and Mr. Pambrun started in pursuit of the thieves, with a fair prospect of overhauling them. Should the thieves be brought back to Walla, the chances are that they will live on both low and high diet for awhile, at the expense and trouble of the inhabitants hereabouts."

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—The adjourned meeting of the Walla Walla county Agricultural Society will be held at the District School House on Alder street, in this city, on Saturday, April 22, at 2 o'clock P. M. The object of the meeting is to adopt a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Society.

MAIL CONTRACT.—Messrs. Geo. P. Thomas & Co., have obtained from Ben. Holliday the contract for carrying the mail from Boise City to the Dalles the remainder of the unexpired term—three years and three months.

County Democratic Convention. The Democrats of Walla Walla county are requested to meet in their respective precincts on Sunday April 29, to elect delegates to attend the County Convention to be held in the city of Walla Walla, W. T., on Saturday, MAY 6, 1865, for the purpose of nominating candidates to run for the county offices at the ensuing June election.

MARRIED. McCULLA—HORTON.—At the residence of Mr. A. H. Reynolds, near Walla Walla, on Sunday, April 10, 1865, by order of the Rev. Mr. John W. McCall and Mrs. Elizabeth Horton.

DIED. O'CONNOR.—At Walla Walla, W. T., on the 31st March, 1865, of consumption, Mr. William O'Conner, aged 42 years.

Lost. On Thursday evening April 13th, on the Lewiston road, between Walla Walla and Bonanza, a small black and white dog, with a white collar, containing gold to the amount of $25.00. Any one finding the same and leaving it at this office will be liberally rewarded.

City of Walla Walla, W. T., charged with discharging firearms in the city. RECEIVED, Walla Walla, W. T., of Jos. Teal, one dollar, fine for discharging pistol within the city limits, and four dollars for the same. S. B. FAIRGO, City Recorder, Walla Walla, April 12, 1865.

Notice is HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE Undersigned has been duly appointed and qualified as Probate Court for Walla Walla county, Washington Territory, as Administrator upon the estate of H. H. Gilman, late of said county and Territory deceased; therefore all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to me at my residence, in Walla Walla, and those having claims must present them, with proper vouchers, within one year from this date or be forever barred. THEATER.—For the past week our citizens have been gratified with a series of Theatrical performances by the Potter Dramatic Troupe, under the management of that indefatigable gentleman, Mr. John S. Potter.

To-morrow evening the play of the "Serious Family" will be reproduced, with a play entitled, "She Would and She Wouldn't."

PURSUIT OF CATTLE THIEVES.—A Mr. Jeffries arrived here from Wild Horse Creek on Tuesday in search of a band of some sixty-odd cattle, which had been stolen from him.

It appears from the dispatches that Lee began the battle at Richmond. He no doubt felt compelled to choose the alternative of a bad defeat to awaiting Sherman's arrival at Richmond and having himself and his whole army captured.

CHANGEABLE.—It is stated that during the forty years of Mexico's Independence the Government has been subjected to forty-six changes.

SALMON.—Two species of Salmon, the "Silver" and "Dog" have made their appearance in the streams running through this valley.

Read, it will be remembered, played a very active part here last week in denouncing vigilance organizations, and threatened the life of one man whom he supposed to be a member of an organization of the kind.

A report has since been in circulation that one of the men was caught by the vigilantes and hanged, but the story appears to be without foundation.

BAD ROADS.—The road to Boise is now in a worse condition than it has ever been since it has been traveled.

New Jersey is out of debt, and claims a balance due her from the United States Government of a little over $940,000.

Well Worth the Reading.—If you wish to get Carpets, Floor Oil Cloths, Matings, Window Shades, Paper Hangings, Table Covers, and all articles in the Carpet line at Eastern Prices, call where you can find the largest and best stock in the country.

The Bible Society of Walla Walla offer Bibles and Testaments of all styles and sizes at Eastern cost, with freight added. Depository at D. S. Baker & Co.'s store.

H. ROSENFELD & CO. have purchased the stock and outstanding debts of S. Rosenfeld & Co. of Walla Walla city, and will carry on the business at the same place.

Mrs. S. Garfield and Elwood Evans, are expected here in a short time to canvass the county for the Union nominee for Delegate to Congress.

LIEUT. Col. Geo. B. Curry arrived at the Fort the fore part of the week and is now in command there.

SKEDADDLING OF THIEVES.—The excitement throughout the community consequent upon the recent cattle and horse thieving operations has tended to promote the "vigilante" sentiment among the settlers, and many who have heretofore favored the doctrine that "law and order" should reign supreme evince a disposition now to ally themselves with the "strongest side" and help to rid the country, in some summary manner, of the band of horse and cattle thieves who have of late been infesting it.

CACHE OF STOLEN CATTLE FOUND.—Mr. Sam'l Johnson, who has lost some sixty head of cattle out of his band, and supposes them to have been stolen, was out hunting for them before last and found a trail which he followed from opposite the mouth of the Touchet to a point on the Columbia river about sixty miles above Priest Rapids.

Income and Annual Tax. NOTICE is hereby given that on and after the 1st day of April, 1865, I will proceed to make the annual assessment of income for the year ending Dec. 31, 1864, for license and all other annual assessments for the year ending April 30th, 1865.

The information of all concerned, the following section of the excise act of June 20th, 1862, is inserted: "SEC. 137. And he is further required that the assessors shall be levied, collected, and paid annually upon the annual gains, or income of every person residing in the Territory of Washington, on the 1st day of January, next preceding, or on the 1st day of January, next following, carried on in the United States, or elsewhere, or from any other source whatever, except as hereinafter mentioned, if such annual gains, profits, or income, exceed the sum of six hundred dollars, a duty of five per centum on the excess over six hundred dollars, and not exceeding five thousand dollars; and a duty of ten per centum on the excess over ten thousand dollars. And the duty herein provided for shall be assessed, collected, and paid upon the gains, profits, or income for the year ending the 31st day of December next, preceding the time for levying, collecting, and paying said duty: Provided, That income derived from interest on bonds, stocks, and other securities of the United States, shall be included in estimating income under this section: Provided, That only one deduction of six hundred dollars shall be made from the aggregate income of all the members of any family composed of parents and minor children, or husband and wife, except individual estates, gains, or lots of the wife's income of all the members of any family composed of parents and minor children, or husband and wife, for which income is estimated, shall be chargeable; and losses on sales of real estate purchased within the year for which income is estimated, shall be deducted from the income of such year."

The following instructions of a circular relative to the annual list is inserted, for the information of all persons concerned, and show the necessity of promptness in the assessment: TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INT. REV., Washington, Feb. 22d, 1864.

In order to insure an early completion of the annual list for 1864, Assessors will instruct their Assistants to return to the Assessors, after entering their respective divisions. Although tax payers are authorized to delay making returns until the first Monday of May, those who have not made returns by that day will be liable to assessment under the provision of section 11 (14). Assistant Assessors will transmit all returns to the Assessors, after entering the amounts in their assessment books. As soon as the first Monday in May is practically reached, each Assistant Assessor will make out his alphabetical list, and deliver the same to the Assessors. By the 14th (18) section of the excise law this list is required to be delivered within thirty days after the first Monday in May. The same section, provides that any Assessor who fails to perform this duty within the time prescribed, not being prevented by sickness or other unavoidable accident, shall be discharged from office and shall moreover, forfeit and pay two hundred dollars, with costs of suit. It is hoped that no occasion will arise for the enforcement of these penalties. Form No. 11 should be distributed at the same time with forms 24 and 25, and applications for licenses should be received at the same time with returns of income and articles in schedule A.

Blank forms for the returns of income, with explanatory notes, which will aid parties in making up their returns, will be delivered or sent to all parties liable by the Assistant Assessor of the respective divisions, and should any further explanation be necessary, it will be the duty of the Assistant Assessor to impart the same upon application.

It cannot too earnestly urge prompt and full compliance with the requirements of the law, and by so doing it will not only be necessary to induce the penalties provided for a neglect or other cause. It is made my imperative duty to enforce the law, and where parties become liable, from neglect or otherwise, to impose its penalties. JOHN G. SPARKS, U. S. Assessor, W. P.

Let's Sit Down and Talk Together.

[From a work, entitled Macklar's "Droppings from the Heart," we copy the annexed stanzas. The sentiments uttered by the poet, can be readily appreciated by all who, like some folks we know of, are growing old.]

Let's sit down and talk together
Of the things of olden day.
When we like lambskins loosed from tether,
Gaily tripp'd along the way.
Time has touched us both with lightness,
Leaving furrows here and there,
And tinging with peculiar brightness,
Slivery threads among our hair.
Let's sit down and talk together;
Many years away have passed,
And fair and foul has been the weather
Since we saw each other last.
Many whom we loved are living
In a better world than this;
And some amongst us still are giving
Toil and thought for present bliss.
Let's sit down and talk together;
Though the flowers of youth are dead,
The ferns still grow among the heather,
And for us their fragrance shed.
Life has a thousand blessings in it
Even for the aged man;
And God has hid in every minute
Something we may wisely scan.
Let's sit down and talk together;
Boys we were—we now are men;
We meet awhile, but know not whether
We shall meet to talk again.
Parting time has come, how fleetly
Speed the moments when their wings
Are fann'd by breathings issuing sweetly
From a tongue that never stings!

Farm Products in 1864.

The wheat crop of 1864 is less than that of 1863 by over 18,000,000 bushels. In quality, however, it is generally superior.
Rye is nearly a million bushels less than in 1863.
Barley is nearly three quarters of a million less than in 1863.
The crop of oats is nearly three millions of bushels greater than in 1863.
The corn crop is 55,000,000 bushels less than in 1862, and 78,000,000 bushels less than that of 1863.

Hay is over one and a half million tons less than in 1863.
More attention has been paid to the cultivation of flax. The crop of cotton in Illinois is forty per cent larger than that in 1862. Sorghum has increased but little.
The Commissioner regrets, as a good crop of turnips, mangels, &c., would take the place of corn in the winter feeding of stock.

Apples, peaches and grapes have been very good in the Eastern and Middle States, but in the Western States the destruction of the trees by the intense cold has caused a diminution of fruit that will be felt for years.
HORSES.—The great demand for horses and mules to supply the army has enhanced their price, and drawn away a great number from the farming operations.

CATTLE.—The large amount of beef consumed by the army, the scarcity of corn and fodder the last winter, and the drought of last summer, will reduce to a considerable extent the number of cattle to be fattened this year. The supply of cattle is evidently becoming inadequate to meet the wants of the army and the people of the country.

SHEEP.—The increased demand for wool has induced a corresponding increase in sheep raising, one of the most important and profitable branches of farming, and it is to be hoped that before many years have passed we shall not only cease to be importers of wool, but exporters to a large extent.
SWINE.—The number of fattening hogs is much below an average, probably one third; this is mainly due to the short crop of corn last fall and winter. The hog cholera, though still prevailing in some places, has not been so destructive as usual in the west.

Rules for the Preservation of Health.
Wash yourself now and then.
Change your inner garments occasionally.
Chew your meats.
Eschew greasy gravies.
Don't chew your tobacco.
Don't eat much more than your stomach will hold.

If a soldier, don't rest upon your laurels until they have been well aired.
Avoid falling out about trifles.
Fall out of windows as seldom as possible.
If your constitution requires you to sleep during the sermon, see that the sexton has an aired nightcap for you, and a hod of hot bricks to put to your feet.
Keep your mouth shut on dusty days.
Never open your mouth in frosty weather.

If your business compels you to go out before breakfast, have some breakfast first.
Do not swallow too many telegrams.
Keep out of the streets when gold is falling.
If the silver of advancing years is on your head don't change it for paper.
Don't let your circulation slacken; especially if you are a newspaper man.
Neither sleep in hot rooms nor eat mush-rooms.

If you cannot account for the milk of the cocoon, do not hesitate to make free use of it.
Never eat your own words unless you are madly desirous of giving an additional flavor to the cup of bitterness.
Should your thermometer indicate an extreme degree of cold or heat, immerse it in hot or cold water until it comes to a proper sense of its duty.

If you are subject to swelling, wear kid gloves next to your skin.
Rise early before you are twenty-five if possible.
Never dress your salad with codliver oil.
Always dress yourself with care.

Most people avoid a snarling dog, not because they fear him, but because he disturbs them; so it is with snarling men.
If you think your opportunities are not good enough, you would do well to improve them.

LILLIE'S LOCK OPENED

In One Minute. NEW YORK, September 2, 1864. F. TILMAN, Esq., 418 Battery Street, New York. Dear Sir: We notice on advertisement in your daily paper respecting the "society" of the "Lillie" lock. We are aware that you will understand this lock, and we will not allow your self to be annoyed by such representations. We have just sent for one of our men at the factory, and he, in our presence, opened the Lillie lock safe lock after it had been locked and the combination turned on. By one Blow of the Hammer Against the knob on the outside, and thereby breaking the iron lock inside. The whole time occupied in opening the lock was about ONE MINUTE. We send you this lock with our friends may not be deceived by false representations, etc. Respectfully, Wm. McFARLAND.

NO PRACTICAL Lock Picker or Thimble Rigger Required to OPERATE THE SAID LILLIE LOCK. Any parties desiring of seeing the above mentioned lock, its insecurity and ease mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

GLOUCESTER, March 26, 1864. Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND, Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass. Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr Lillie, I was induced to purchase one of his So Called "Fire-Proof Safes." On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and opening it we found— Everything had been Destroyed. We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or even worth the cost. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and opening it we found— Everything had been Destroyed.

In Perfect Condition. This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s safe, such as lard, pork, etc., their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the safe. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, faring, however, no better than ours. Very respectfully, your obedient servants, [Signed] GEO. L. CHESBRO & CO.

TILTON & McFARLAND'S SAFE THE ONLY PROTECTION Against Fire and Burglars. For the last fifteen years. This safe has been well known in California and the Eastern States. They have resisted all the fires on the Pacific Coast, and can point with satisfaction to the record. No man ever lost a dollar out of one of our safes by means of burglars. Their fire and burglar proof qualities are so well known that they need no further recommendation. A good assortment of Tilton & McFarland's Fire and Burglar Proof Safes for sale at 318 Battery street, San Francisco. Feb. 17, 1865. 10mg.] F. TILMAN.

Drugs and Medicines.

We invite the particular attention of the trade to our present large and well-assorted stock in this line, and to our extra facilities for supplying them at very low rates—imparting as we do, Direct from Eastern Markets. Extra pains will be taken to secure reliable medicines, and in no case will a worthless article be allowed to leave the store. HODGE & CALEP, Dealers in Drugs, Paints and Oils, 97 Front street, Portland. July 4, 1863.

Encourage Home Industry. KEEP YOUR MONEY IN THE COUNTRY. I AM NOW MANUFACTURING A SUPERIOR article of Yellow and Brown family Soaps, put up in 20 and 40 pound boxes that will sell as cheap as any brands of soap of the same quality manufactured outside of the State can be sold for. I will warrant every box of soap sold to be just what it is represented. Orders from the country accompanied with the cash, or sent through some house in the city, will meet prompt attention. A liberal discount made to the trade for cash. Send for a sample. Soap Works, 48, Front St., Portland.
