Democratic County Central Committee.

At a meeting of the Democratic Central Committee, held at the Court House, on Thursday, March 11, the following proceedings were had:

The number of delegates to each Convention was fixed at 25; apportioned as follows:

Walla Walla Precinct, 10

Cappell, 5

Paton, 3

Tanah, 1

Basel Creek, 3

Frenchtown, 3

Oxy Creek, 3

Mill Creek, 1

Palma, 1

Snake River, 1

Walla Walla, 1

The Committee voted to hold the primary meetings in the different precincts for delegates to the County Convention, for the nomination of county officers on the 1st May, and that the convention for the nomination of county officers, be held in Walla Walla city, on Saturday, May 8th.

The Committee recommended that all proxies be given to residents of the precinct in which the delegate resides. J. M. VANSEKLE, Sec.

Talent and Industry.

More is to be expected from laborious mediocrity than from the erratic efforts of a wayward genius.

Newton rose to the heavens by the steps of geometry, and said that it was only in the habit of patient thinking that he was conscious of differing from other men.

It is generally thought that men are situated more by talent than industry; it is felt to be vulgarizing of genius to attribute it to anything but direct inspiration from Heaven; they overlook the steady and persevering devotion of mind to one subject. There are higher and lower walks in scholarship, but the highest is a walk of labor. We are often led into contrary opinion by looking at the magnitude of the object in its finished state; such as the Principia of Newton, and the Pyramids of Egypt, without reflecting on the gradual, continuous, I had almost said, creeping progress by which they grew into objects of the greatest magnificence in the literary and physical world.

In the one case indeed, we may fancy the chisel which wrought each successive stone, but in the other we cannot trace the process by which the philosopher was raised from one landing place to another, till he soared to his towering elevation; it seems as if the work was produced at the bidding of a magician. But Newton has left as a legacy the assurance that he did not attain his elevation by dint of a heaven-born inspiration out of the reach of man, but by dint of homely virtue within the reach of all.—Chalmers.

Life in Paris.

An indiscreet compiler of the statistics of social life in Paris has calculated that the number of children in the highest ranks of the aristocracy of Paris (to every family) is only two, while in the bourgeoisie every family has on an average five children, and the proportion of children in the lowest classes of society is still greater. But he says that while the aristocratic families generally succeed in preserving the lives of their two children, the bourgeoisie lose on an average three of the five before they are six years old, and the lower classes bring up only one child out of five. He infers from these statistics that the aristocracy is both vicious and exhausted, while the bourgeoisie is virtuous and ignorant, and the lower classes are too wretched and stupid to take proper care of their children.

Olive Logan on France.

Her first stay was in the Hotel de Louvre, and in the morning she was surprised to see a man come into her room to make her bed. She had always thought that work remained peculiarly to that sex that cannot vote. But Frenchmen do many things that would be considered unworthy their sex in other countries; and, on the other hand, women have a far wider range of employment in France than in democratic America. There they are cashiers in banks and sell tickets at the stations, and act as ushers in theaters and concerts, and janitors of buildings. But some chambermaids refuse to sweep the floors, urging that it is the men's business. In this hotel there is nothing like a ladies' parlor; all have to go into one common room.

THE LONG AGO.

On that deep retiring shore Frequent pearls of beauty lie, Where the passion waves of yore Fiercely beat and mounted high; Sorrows that are sorrows still, Lose the bitter taste of woe; Nothing's altogether ill In the griefs of long-ago.

Tombs where lonely love repines, Ghostly tenement of tears, Wear the look of happy shrines Through the golden mist of years; Death to those who trust in good, Vindicating his hardest blow, Oh! we would not, if we could, Wake the sleep of long-ago!

Though the doom of swift decay Shocks the soul where life is strong, Though for feiler hearts the day Lingers sad and overlong— Still the weight will find a leave, Still the spoiler's hand is slow, While the future has its haven, And the past its long-ago!

SYMPATHY.

There is a tear more sweet and soft Than beauty's smiling lip of love— By angel's eyes first wept, and oft On earth by eyes like those above; It flows from virtue in distress; It soothes like hope our sufferings here; 'Twas given, and 'tis shed, to bless— 'Tis sympathy's celestial tear.

AN INTERESTING CEREMONY.

CONVERSION OF A CHRISTIAN MAIDEN TO JUDAISM.—The conversion of a Christian to Judaism is nearly, if not quite, as unusual an occurrence as the conversion of a Jew to Christianity. The tenacity with which each clings to the popular tenets of his church with which he or she is connected, having from childhood been accustomed to worship according to a prescribed form laid down by their ancestors, renders the task of training the mind to run in a totally different and contrary channel to which it has been habituated, one of extreme difficulty, almost invariably resulting in disappointment and vexation. The strongest arguments falling, as it were, upon unwilling hearers, fail to produce any impression whatever, and, if any one is induced to renounce his faith, it is generally due to outside influences.

The converts to Judaism thus far, at least in this city have been women, and the fact that there was a man ready to receive them and call them wife as soon as they crossed the line, has induced them to abjure Christianity, desert Christ and depart from the paths in which they had been instructed to walk. They probably feel justified in so doing, evidently interpreting the Apostle Paul that a woman should leave her father and mother and cling to her husband, as including Christ also. The power of Cupid is wonderful, and when a woman devotedly loves a man she will sacrifice herself for his sake, for it matters not with what particular sect she becomes identified, so long as her belief is sincere and her faith unflinching.

The second instance of a Chicago Christian adopting the Jewish faith, and being admitted to membership in that church, is that of Miss Mary Gilmore, formerly of Detroit, Michigan. Particular interest is attached to this case, from the fact that she was a Catholic, it being generally conceded that the Roman Church has a stronger hold on its members than any other denomination of Christians. As in the other instance, a prospective husband was the paramount reason for desiring conversion.

The ceremonies were held in the Brothers of Peace Synagogue, located on the corner of Third avenue and Harrison street, yesterday morning. Our reporter entered the church and walked up one of the aisles, hat in hand, being unfamiliar with the customs of the Israelites. As he approached the altar several gentlemen requested him to don his chapote, as it was contrary to the Jewish law for a man to uncover in a place of worship. The head covering was restored to its place, and he seated himself to await developments. There were no decorations, and no more than ordinary interest was manifested upon the part of those present in the rare event which was to take place.

About ten minutes after eleven the convert came up the main aisle, accompanied by Mrs. Julia Barnett and Mrs. Sarah Schneider, taking a seat to the left of the altar. She was attired in a neat fitting white tarleton dress, with no ornament except a white silk scarf, which encircled her neck. She wore a "Greelan Band" hat, trimmed with blue, with a large white feather in front. Miss Gilmore is decidedly good-looking, and unquestionably will make Mr. Barney Berlyn, the gentleman whom she has selected as a life partner, happy.

The advent of the Rabbi, the Rev. Dr. Messing, was looked for with anxiety. He entered the church dressed in his robes, in a short time, and took a position in front of the altar. There were now about three hundred persons present. Miss Gilmore was conducted to the altar by the sexton, Mr. Louis Bacharach, when the following colloquy took place, the young lady answering the questions in a clear and distinct voice, the audience maintaining the strictest silence during the exercises:

Rabbi—Miss Gilmore, as you present yourself with the intention of joining the Jewish faith, are you ready to answer me, in the presence of these people, the following questions?

Miss Gilmore—I am.

Rabbi—Then, please answer them. Do you freely, and of your own accord join the Jewish faith?

Miss Gilmore—I do, in the presence of all these people in this house of the Lord, and in the presence of the Almighty, declare my purpose to join the Jewish nation and recognize the unity of God.

Rabbi—Are you acquainted with the articles of faith of our nation?

Miss Gilmore—I am well acquainted with them, and hereby do declare them. [She then declared the thirteen articles of faith of the Jewish nation, as follows]:

1. I believe with a perfect faith, that God (blessed be His name) is the Creator and Governor of all created beings, and that he alone has made, and ever will make every production.

2. I believe with a perfect faith that the Creator (blessed be His name) is the only God, and that there is no unity whatever like unto His; and that He alone is our God who was, who is, and will be eternally.

3. I believe with a perfect faith the Almighty (blessed be His name) is incorporeal; that he is not subject to any of the chances incident to matter, and that he has not any similitude whatever.

4. I believe, with a perfect faith, that the Creator (blessed be His name) is both the first and the last of all things.

5. I believe with a perfect faith, that the Creator (blessed be His name), yea, to Him only, is it proper to address our prayers, and that it is not proper to pray to any other being.

6. I believe with a perfect faith, that the words of the prophets are true.

7. I believe, with a perfect faith, that the prophecy of Moses, our instructor (may his soul rest in peace), was true prophecy, and that he excelled all the sages who preceded him or who may succeed him.

8. I believe with a perfect faith that the law which we now have in our possession is the same law which was given to Moses, our instructor. (May his soul rest in peace.)

9. I believe, with a perfect faith, that the law will never be changed, and that the Creator (blessed be His name) will never give us any other law.

10. I believe with a perfect faith that the Creator, (blessed be His name) knoweth all the actions and thoughts of men, as it is stated; all their hearts, and is fully acquainted with all their works.

11. I believe with a perfect faith, that the Creator (blessed be His name) rewards those who observe His commandments, and punishes those who transgress them.

12. I believe with a perfect faith that the Messiah will come, and although his coming be delayed, I will still, in daily hope, patiently await his appearance.

13. I believe with a perfect faith, that there will be a resurrection of the dead at a time when it shall please the Creator (blessed and exalted be His name forever and ever).

The Rabbi then took Miss Gilmore by the hand, led her into the altar, opened a door and exposed the Taurah to view, at the same time asking the question—Do you know the meaning of this and the origin thereof?

Miss Gilmore—It is the Taurah, the holy law of God, given unto Moses on Mount Sinai, for the children of Israel.

Rabbi—Can you inform me of the most important words of this holy law?

Miss Gilmore—I can. The most important words are those in the Second Book, chapter 19, sixth verse: "And God said unto Israel, ye shall be of my kingdom of priests and an holy nation."

They then resumed their former position in front of the altar, and the colloquy was continued as follows:

Rabbi—As you have joined our nation, it now becomes you to cast off your old name and take a name among Israel, therefore please state which name you choose.

Miss Gilmore—I choose the name of Leah, being the humblest of the mothers of our nation, and who never faltered in her faith in God.

Rabbi—I declare you then, Sister Leah, in this house of the Lord our God, and in the presence of the people, by the power invested in me as a minister of this congregation, as accepted a member of our nation, in which I congratulate you Sister Leah, in the name of Israel, your nation, and accept from me a share in the blessings of the Lord our God. May the Lord bless and preserve thee; may the Lord make his face shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee; may the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee and give thee peace. Amen.

The Rabbi then shook hands with her and the ceremony was over.

At one o'clock the bride and groom presented themselves before the altar and were married, consummating an event, an account of which, from its not being daily witnessed, will be read with pleasure and interest.—Chicago Tribune.

BOYHOOD'S PLEASURES AND PENALTIES.

A youngster came home after a glorious time in the puddles, his face all aglow and his boots full of water. The punishment of staying in the house for the remainder of the day, did not seem very hard; but as his little heart warmed up with the recollection of the triumphs of the morning, when he had waded deeper than any of his playmates dared to, he could bear the restraint no longer, and went to his mother, saying: "Please, mother whip me, and let me go out again!" Human nature could not resist such an appeal, and tho' the mother's heart had some misgivings as to the propriety of indulging her son, he was allowed his liberty, and received a caress instead of a flogging.

A boy found holding a horse by the road side, near Ithaca, N. Y., recently, was asked whose animal he had in charge, and replied that it belonged a "crazy Dutchman looking for birds' nests over yonder in the woods." The crazy Dutchman was Agassiz.

MARRIAGE, said an unfortunate husband, is the church yard of love. And you men, sepiated his wife, are the grave diggers.

Be true to all. We may be true to the bad without being false to the good.

JIM WOLFE AND THE TOM CATS.

Mark Twain relates the following: "I knew by the sympathetic glow on his bald head—I knew by the thoughtful look on his face—I knew by the emotional flush upon the strawberry on the end of the old free lover's nose, that Simon Wheeler's memory was busy with the olden time. And so I prepared to leave, because all these were symptoms of a reminiscence—but I was too slow; he got the start of me. As nearly as I can recollect, the infliction was couched in the following language:

"We was all boys then, and didn't care for nothing, only how to shirk school and keep up a rovin' state of devilement all the time. This yar Jim Wolfe I was talking about was the 'prentice, and was the best hearted fellow he was, and the most forgiving and onselfish I ever see—well, there couldn't be a more bullier boy than he was, take him anyhow you would, and sorry enough I was when I seed him for the last time.

Me and Henry was always plastering hoss bills on his back and putting bubble bees in his bed, and so on, and sometimes we'd crowd in and bunk with him, notwithstanding his growling, and then we'd let on to git mad and fight across him, so as to keep him stirred up like. We was nineteen, we was, and long, and lank and bashful, and he was sixteen and tolerably lazy and worthless.

So that night, you know, that my sister Mary gave the candy-pullin', they started off to bed early, so as the company could have to full swing, and we wrung in on him to have some fun.

Our wander looked out on to the roof of the ell, and about ten o'clock a couple of old tom cats got to rovin' and chargin' around on it and carryin' on like sin. There was four inches of snow on the roof, and it froze so that there was a right smart crust of ice on it, and the moon was shining bright, and we could see them cats like daylight. First they'd stand off and eyow yow, yow, just the same as if they was cussin one another, you know, and how up their backs and lurch up their tails, and swell round and spit, and then all of a sudden the gray cat he'd snatch a handful of fur out of the yaller cat's ham and spin him round like a button on a barn door. But the yaller cat was game, and he'd come and clinch, and they'd growl, and bite and growl, and the way they'd make the fur fly was powerful.

Well, Jim he got disgusted with the row and 'lowed he'd climb out there and shake 'em off the roof. He hadn't recly no notion of doin' it likely, but he everlastingly dogged him and bossymugged him and 'lowed he'd always bragged how he wouldn't 'take a dare, and so on, till benemy he bisted the wander, and lo! behold you he went—went exactly as he was—nothin on but a shirt, and his finger nails in fur to keep him from slippin'; and above all, you ought to see that shirt flappin' in the wind, and the yong, riddulous shanks of his a glistenin' in the moonlight.

Then comp'ny folks was down there under the eaves, the whole squad of 'em under that oery shade of dead Washington bower vines—all settin' round about two dozen sassers of hot candy, which they'd sot in the snow to cool. And they was laughin' and talkin' likely; but bless you, they didn't know nothin' about the panorama that was goin' on over their heads. Well, Jim he went a sneakin' up unbeknowns to the tom cats—they was a wishin their tails, and yow yowin' and threatenin' to clinch, you know, and not payin' any attention—he went a sneakin' and a sneakin', right up to the com' of the roof, till he was within a foot and a half of them, and all of a sudden he made a grab for the yaller cat! But, by gosh! he missed fire and slipped his bolt, and his heels flew up, and he flopped on his back and shot off'n that roof like a dart! went a smashin' and crashin' down through them old rusty vines, and landed right in the dead center of all them comp'ny people!—sot down like a yartquake in them two dozen sassers of red hot candy, and let off a howl that was hark from the tomb! Them girls'—well, they left. They see he warn't dressed for comp'ny, and so they left. All done in a second; it war just one little war whoop and a wish of their dresses, and blame the wench of 'em was in sight anywhere!

Jim, he was in sight. He was gorned with the bilin' hot molasses candy clean down to his heels, and had more bustid sassingers hangin' to him than if he was a lojun privy, and come a pracin' up stairs just a whoopin' and a cussin', and every jump he gave he shed some china, and every squirm he fetched he dripped some candy! And blistered! Why, bless your soul, that poor creature couldn't really set down comfortable for as much as four weeks.

FIRST LOVE.—The celebrated David Crockett, when quite a young man, fell in love with a beautiful Quaker girl, and thus forcibly, graphically and poetically describes the effect on an ardent and susceptible mind produced by the first love:

"I found myself over head and heels in love with this girl, and I thought if all the hills there were pure chink, and all belonged to me, I would give them if I could just talk to her as I wanted to; but I was afraid to begin; for when I would think of saying anything to her, my heart would begin to flutter like a duck in a puddle, and if I tried to outdo it and speak, it would get right up in my throat and choke me like a cold potato."

GENERAL SHERIDAN says that he lately saw a herd of buffaloes ninety-five miles long and twenty-five miles wide. Even supposing that the herd was only one buffalo deep it must have numbered about 300,000.

Murder will Out.

Every one remembers how remarkable was the circumstantial evidence which convicted Prof Webster of the murder of Dr. Parkman, in Boston, 1849. He killed his victim to avoid paying a debt he justly owed.

The country was lately astounded at the mysterious assassination of General Murray McConnell, State Senator of Illinois, at Jacksonville, in that State. He was found dead in his office, and the murderer was detected by the following wonderful circumstantial evidence:

On Gen. McConnell's table, a book for calculating interest was lying open at the pages which contain, on one side, the tables for computing interest on $400, and, on the other, on $500; that a person, in scrutinizing interest, would naturally trace down the column from the top, with the pencil, until the correct point was reached; but on this book was a pencil-mark made by a pencil traveling up the page from the bottom to the top; that this pencil-mark commenced very abruptly, was broad and heavy, and made such an indentation in the paper that it could be readily seen on the next leaf under it; that this pencil-mark was about half an inch long, where there is evidence that the lead of the pencil was broken off, and the mark continued for some distance by the wood of the pencil; that upon the floor, beside the murdered man, was a pencil with the point broken off.

These circumstances seemed to justify the belief that the victim was computing interest when he received the blow of the assassin. Here, then, was the starting point. If computing interest, what more natural than that he was computing for some person? And who was that person? Very likely some one against whom he had a note. Following this trail, the first effort was to ascertain against whom the General had notes; and it was developed that, a short time before his death, his son George McConnell, at his dictation, had made out a schedule of all the notes and papers of value in his possession. A brief search among his papers sufficed to bring this to light. His notes were then produced and scheduled, and a note of William A. Robinson was discovered to be missing; and what was more startling, it was a note for precisely $400, which was the precise figure at which the interest book lay open. Nothing whatever had been removed from the room after the murder, and a search was at once made for a paper upon which interest had been figured; and a little piece of paper, about two inches square, was found on which, in the General's own figures, was calculated the interest on $400 from the day the Robinson note was dated to the day of the murder.

This was deemed sufficient to justify the detention of Robinson, who was at once placed under arrest, ostensibly, however as a witness, until further developments should take place. When told that he was desired as a witness, and that he was under arrest until called, he wondered what they could want of him; but added, that he had been down past the house the time the murder must have been committed.

Robinson was examined as a witness, and his contradictions and extraordinary manner in which he explained how he paid the note months previous, leave no doubt of his being the guilty party, and murdered the deceased to escape payment.—Galveston Dispatch.

A Gold Carrier.

In a late number of Harper's Magazine we find the following description of a Wall street character and a Wall street load:

All the bullion and coin is carried about the streets in common, open carts, precisely such as are used in carrying ordinary merchandise. For twenty-two years past one carman, John C. Barkley, best known in the street as 'Honest John', whose three carts stand at the busy corner of Wall and Broad streets, has done the carting for the bullion dealers and bankers of the city, any of whom would trust him in their vaults with treasure uncounted. Tall, robust and ruddy, Honest John has in his countenance precisely the expression which we should expect to see in the face of one who for so many years has borne so honorable a name. He began in the street twenty-seven years ago, and, after the fifth year, he became the established carman of the coin and bullion men. It is his carts that go to the California steamers and convey their kegs of gold to the vaults to which they are consigned. His carts assist to restore the financial balance between the two continents by conveying gold to and from the Cunard steamers in Jersey City. He has occasionally carried for short distances down hill, a million dollars in gold, which weighs two tons; but his opinion is that seven hundred thousand dollars is about as much as a human man will ever permit his horse to draw over these rough pavements for any considerable distance. On a busy day he will have as many as twenty loads of precious metals. A load of gold, when it goes across the town, is usually accompanied by a clerk of the house to which it belongs; but it often happens that Honest John is quite alone when he has as much gold of his cart as a horse can draw. For such service he gets higher compensation than when he carries an office desk or a load of printing paper; and, indeed, he has the air of a man who could show a little gold and silver of his own if there were occasion.

The first institution vouchsafed to our race was the Sunday; the next, marriage. So give your first thought to heaven, the next to your wife.

Do you see anything ridiculous in this wig? said one of his brother Judges to Curran. Nothing but the head, he answered.

Female Friendship.

It is a wondrous advantage to a man, in every pursuit or avocation, to secure an adviser in a sensible woman. In woman there is at once a subtle delicacy of tact, and a plain soundness of judgment, which are rarely combined to an equal degree in man. A woman, if she be really your friend, will have a sensitive regard for your character, honor, and reputation. She will seldom counsel you to do a shabby thing, for a woman friend always desires to be proud of you. At the same time her constitutional timidity makes her more cautious than your male friend. She, therefore, seldom counsels you to do any imprudent thing. By female friendships I mean pure friendships—those in which there is no admixture of the passions of love except in the married state. A man's best female friend is a wife of good sense and a good heart, whom he loves, and who loves him. If he have that, he need not seek elsewhere. But, supposing, the man to be without such a helpmate, female friendships he must still have, or his intellect will be without a garden, and there will be many an unheeded gap even in its strongest fence. Better and safer, of course, friendships where the disparity of years or circumstances puts the idea of love out of the question. Middle life has rarely this advantage; youth and old age have. We have many female friendships with those much older and those much younger than ourselves. Moliere's old housekeeper was a great help to his genius; and Montaigne's philosophy takes both a gentler and a loftier character of wisdom from the date in which he finds Marie de Gournay, an adopted daughter, 'certainly beloved by me,' says the Horace of essays, 'with more than paternal love, and involved in my solitude of retirement, as one of the best parts of my being.' Female friendship, indeed, is to a man the bulwark, sweetener, ornament of his existence. To his mental culture it is invaluable; without it all his knowledge of books will never give him knowledge of the world.—Sir E. B. Lytton.

MINING UNDER THE SEA.

The miner's life can hardly be a cheerful one, exposed as he is to the many explosions from fire, damp, or crumbling walls, of falls down fearful shafts, and the general unhealthfulness of working where the purifying sunbeams are ever excluded. But mining under the sea must have its peculiar trials and terrors.

There is a vast copper mine in England where shafts extend many hundred yards under the bottom of the sea. The moaning of the waves as they dash against the rock is forever sounding in those gloomy aisles. When the storms come, the sound of the waters become so terrific that even the boldest miners cannot stay below, but leave their work and come out on the firm upper earth. Overhead are masses of bright, pure copper, streaming through the gallery in all directions, traversed by a net work of thin red veins of iron, and over all the water constantly drips, drips, down from the tiny crevices in the rock. Immense wealth of metal is contained in these roofs, but no miner dare give it another stroke with his pick ax. Already there has been one day's work too much upon it, as a huge wedge of wood, driven into the rocks, bears witness. The wedge is all that keeps back the sea from bursting in upon them. The roof is probably not over three feet in thickness, and in many places may be less. Yet there are three tiers of galleries, where men work day by day, not knowing but at some fatal hour the flood may be upon them, rendering all escape as hopeless as it was in the days of Noah. The awe-stricken visitor hurries away from the scene, with a heart appalled in view of its hourly dangers. Who would wish money at such a risk, with the sullen roar of the ocean forever sounding its warning in his ears?

AN ENOCH ARDEN CASE.

A wife living in Kansas City, by some 'hoens pous' married a second husband after her first husband had been absent from her fifteen months. By another 'hoens pous,' husband of the first part returned a few days ago, and in the agony of disappointment at losing his 'row' he got angry, but loving her, a compromise was proposed to husband of the second part. Nix! Both men then resolved to fight it out on that clothes line, with their fists. Husband the first was victor, and as number two stunk away and has not been seen since, number one retains the spoils—the wife.

TIME REQUIRED TO COOL.

The time during which the earth has generated organic beings is small compared with the ages during which the earth was a mass of molten rocks. The experiments of Bischof upon basalt show that our globe would require 350,000,000 of years to cool down from 3,600 degrees, which is the most intense heat that we are able to produce, to 360 degrees Fahrenheit. And with regard to the period during which the first nebulous masses condensed to form our planetary system, conjecture must entirely cease.

WRONG SIDE OUT.

A radical and a negro were talking politics one day, and Sambo getting the best of it, the white man broke out suddenly saying: 'Who are you, anyway, but a black nigger?' Well, said Sambo, I know I 's black, but dat don't make no difference, for you is just as black as I am. How do you make that out? Why, dat's just as plain as day—I 's black outside and white inside; but you are a nigger turned inside out—you're white out, but blacker dan de debil inside.'

MR. MUGGINS says there is no country in the world where wives are more worshipped than they are in France. He regrets to say, however, that the adoration comes from somebody else's husband.

Six Years' Changes.

A person who has lived in Walla Walla for the past six years would hardly recall half the changes that have occurred here in that time, unless, as with us, some incident should place them all before him.

Then, as now, politics and the Delegation seemed to be the absorbing topics. The number of the paper referred to contains a "crusher" on the delegate question, and says, "the arguments of all the candidates in the field are founded on the word 'if.'"

Thus: The eastern men say, if I can do, depend upon receiving the support of the upper country, I can get a large vote west of the Cascades; and the western men echo back, if I can get the support of the people on this side of the mountains, the people of the upper country will go for me to a man.

Next in the political list, we notice the name of E. L. Massey, in a communication urging the organization of the Democratic party. His remarks then are fully applicable to the present, and we copy his conclusion:

"Any and all minor difficulties that have heretofore divided the democracy of Walla Walla county should be blotted from the memory of all whose desire is to perpetuate the Union of States and preserve what little of the constitution may be left."

Mr. Massey went from here to Boise, Owyhee and Lemhi, and winter before last while traveling somewhere in the Lemhi country his feet were so badly frozen that they had to be amputated. He died soon after the amputation; destitute of means, but well cared for by friends.

Next, W. J. Terry signs a call, as Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, for a meeting to nominate delegates to attend the Territorial Convention, at Vancouver, on the 23d of May. Mr. Terry was then proprietor of the old Bank Exchange saloon, which was burned by the fire in '65, and financially ruined him. He is now somewhere in the east, and rotates between Washington City and the Mississippi.

Under the head of announcements as candidates for county offices, the following names appear: For Sheriff—G. W. Shoemaker, A. Seitel, E. B. Whitman and W. S. Gilliam. For Auditor—Henri M. Chase, H. Parker, C. H. Armstrong, and L. J. Rector. The successful men in this list were Gilliam and Rector. The former resigned in a short time after his election, and still avers that the office was $1000 damage to him. Rather poor encouragement for aspirants to that position, we take it. Mr. G. has since that time resided upon his farm, on Dry Creek, and joined the radicals; the latter being the only reason why we could deny his claim as being one of the most "modest" of our friends. Mr. Rector served his term out and removed to Oakland, Cal., where he now is, in company with his father and brothers, carrying on a cotton manufactory. Mr. Armstrong is in Portland, clerking in the Quartermaster's department. Mr. Whitman, who was then in partnership with Mr. D. S. Baldwin, selling dry goods in the store now occupied by F. W. Colman, is now engaged in the same business, with Mr. W. A. Ball as partner, at Warren's. Mr. Shoemaker went to Pennsylvania several years ago, and a year ago he was at Omaha, Nebraska, poorer in purse than when he left us, and wishing that he had been content to "let well enough alone" and remained here. Mr. Seitel, since that day, has been twice elected Sheriff, and is now filling the position of county jailor. Mr. Chase fills the office of Probate Judge, and avers that his desire for the Auditorship has become "chronic." Mr. Parker is still a resident, though now absent at Washington City, in quest of a higher office.

(Chas. A. Ebert was then W. M. of the

Masonic Lodge, and M. L. Frank, Secretary. Mr. Ebert went to the States and served as an officer in the federal army during the war, and Mr. Frank, who was then a partner in the firm of Schwabacker Bro's, went to faderland, where he still remains.

B. N. Sexton published a card, as Clerk of the Probate Court. He was also Clerk of the District Court; but nearly three years ago he finished his earthly records and was summoned to the Higher Court above. The young, green grass is now springing up around his grave in Walla Walla Cemetery.

Jas. Galbreath advertised the Union Hotel for rent. The Union Hotel then occupied the site of the present City Hotel and was burned down by the great fire in 1865. Mr. Galbreath was then county Auditor. He subsequently moved to a farm on Mill Creek, where he remained a year or two, and then went East to see "Mister Grant." Mr. G., it is said, is one of the friends who loaned Grant money to take him to the States.

When he called upon the General, that great lover of whisky, hoeses and dogs could only be made to say that he believed he once knew such a person as Mr. Galbreath, in the army of the Pacific. The General's admirers excuse this apparent forgetfulness and ingratitude on the ground that many men have no remembrance of what they see, do, or is done for them when drunk, and that Grant being drunk all the time he was on this coast could not be expected to call to mind any "little favor" conferred upon him during that time. Mr. Galbreath, is now a resident of Chicago, Ills.

Dr. J. Boswell, who then notified the public that he had an office on Main street, is now practicing in his profession at Salem, Oregon.

Six other doctors who also "hung out their signs" here then in the paper have since departed for less healthful climes. Dr. I. H. Harris went to Idaho city; thence to Nashville, Tennessee; Dr. Danforth is in Eugene City, Oregon; Dr. Raymond went to Owyhee; A. J. Thibodo is in Boise City, O. J. Thibodo is in Portland, Oregon, and R. Thibodo is in Canada.

H. Way, C. S. Bush and C. H. Armstrong advertised a dissolution of copartnership in the saw milling business. Of this firm the name of Mr. Armstrong has been previously mentioned. Their mill was moved to Boise City, and Mr. Bush, after trying business there and in Montana for three or four years, returned and settled on a farm a mile and a half east of this city, where he now resides. Mr. Way is in Owyhee and a year ago was less independent than when he left Walla Walla.

Otis L. Bridges, late Attorney General of the State of Maine, advertised a law card, and his son "Ned" offered the "Pioneer Race Course" for sale or lease. These gentlemen, went to Puget Sound, where a dotting ma-ma shot Ned in the neck with a revolver for falling in love with her daughter, or because the daughter experienced a tender feeling for him, we never knew which. Ned recovered from his wound and his love, and, with his father, was lately living in San Francisco. The manner in which the General used to make each particular hair on Esquire Horton's head stand erect, and cause that functionary to cast furtive glances at his own "double jeweled belt" when he began to prelude a decision against the gray haired sire, will be subject matter for future reminiscences.

Wm. Montgomery had an auction and commission store, opposite the post office. Mr. M. was a brother of the well-known California editors of that name, and at one time was a large dealer in Sacramento. He went from here to Idaho City several years ago.

Chas. Woodward advertised a tri weekly line of stages between Walla Walla and Lewiston. Mr. W. was then, and is still, the General Superintendent of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express on the Northern coast. In those days he spent much of his time here; but latterly he only makes us occasional "flying visits."

Brown Bro's & Co., had their names displayed in large type, in a double column advertisement, which they continued as long as they remained here, and to which fact, no doubt, they owed much of their abundant success. They are now all residents of San Francisco, and count their fortunes by tens of thousands. Mr. W. P. Adams, who was at that time the "faithful and accomplished" clerk of that firm—having since that day tried business in Idaho, Montana and Utah—is now senior partner in their old store, and doing business under the firm name of Adams Brothers.

The Messrs. Schwabacker, on the opposite corner, also displayed a column "ad," and have also made some partnership changes since then. "Abel" was the man most about the store here in those days; but for the past three years he has spent most of his time in Europe. He is now living in San Francisco, where he was lately married.

Kyger & Reese, a firm dissolved since then, also appeared as "liberal advertisers." Mr. Reese is now the proprietor of the extensive mill and distillery, at the lower end of the city, and can be seen almost any day on the street, talking as glibly of crows, hogs, and the prices of grain as any tiller of the soil, while Mr. Kyger still continues business at the old corner.

Van Dyk & Whitman were in the Livery and Exchange Stable business. They moved from here to Helena three years ago; thence to Salt Lake, and afterwards put their animals to work on the Pacific railroad. Mr. Whitman returned to Walla Walla a few weeks ago, and says that in all his travels he has not found a better place than this. He intends to re-locate in this valley. "Old Van," as his sweethearts used to call him, is still on the line of the railroad, and we were lately informed, has found a coal mine and is supplying the railroad company with coal.

E. E. Kelly—lively, good-natured, everybody's friend "Ned"—was then postmaster and proprietor of the City Book store. Ned has been sleeping his last sleep under the soil of California for three years, and H. E. Johnson, who was at that day Kyger & Reese's "modest" clerk, has succeeded to the post office and store.

Dan. Welch, then in the Bank Exchange saloon, was advertised as administrator of the estate of Edward H. Maroney. It hardly seems six years since the fire company, headed by the Walla Walla brass band, marched through Main street, and led the procession that followed Ned's remains to his grave. Mr. Welch is now a resident of Montana, and of that brass band there is not a member here; they are scattered from Canada to California.

S. Linkton, who was then fairly starting in business, advertised the saw mill from which he made a handsome fortune in five years. Mr. L. for the past year or two, has been a resident of San Francisco, and engaged in speculating in real estate.

C. Jacobs & Co. then did business in a store which was burned in the fire of 1865. They rebuilt, but afterwards closed out their business here, and removed their goods to Boise City, where they now have a store, mill and distillery. "Richard is himself again" here with his family, having returned from Boise City last week. "Cy" is the democratic Treasurer of Ada county, at Boise City, at $8000 a year.

J. C. Isaacs, who sold goods on "Main street, next door to the printing office," has for several years been doing business at Idaho City; and Howard & Cady who were in the same business "opposite the printing office," closed out their store long ago. [The STATESMAN office was then where Parker's book store now is.]

Frank Carpiod notified the public that he had taken the building lately known as Buckley's saloon, and was keeping a first class hotel and restaurant. Frank went from here to Idaho. The old hotel was burned down in '66, and Mr. Kohlhauff's store now occupies its site.

M. Pefferlee advertised a bakery and saloon, next door to Brown Bro's store. Mr. Pefferlee is now a resident of Boise City, where he is carrying on a barber shop.

Castleman & Brown had a daguerrian gallery, on Main street, below the Union Hotel. Mr. Castleman is, we believe, somewhere in Oregon, and for the past four years Mr. Brown has been at his old home in Nova Scotia. He writes to his friends here of a beautiful wife and a darling boy who have come to bless his home since his return; yet he sighs for the land of Walla Walla.

Kohlhauff & Guichard, who new do business at opposite corners, were then partners at the site of Mr. G's present store.

John Selby, alias, "Captain Jack," advertised and kept the Empire Restaurant, which was then on the site of Crowne & Stone's Saloon and the Oriental hotel. He was shot in his own house by one of his cooks, five years ago, and died from the effects of the wound.

Burpee, Bilike & Winship carried on a furniture shop at the lower end of the town, "opposite the public square." Of this firm Mr. Winship died about five years ago. Mr. Bilike is at Boise city, and Mr. Burpee at Owyhee.

Frank P. Dugan was engaged in the watch repairing business, next door to Kyger & Reese's store, and "warranting all work for twelve months." Second street was not opened then and his shop occupied what is now the middle of the street.

At the opposite side, and what is now also the middle of the street, M. A. Murray advertised that he was keeping the lively stable formerly occupied by J. F. Abbott. Mr. M. removed to La Grande, where he died, some two or three years ago.

Rogers & Monson then owned and advertised the cash and door manufactory, now owned by Wm. Glasford. Mr. Rogers was living in Portland a year or so ago, and Mr. Monson was in Montana.

Edward Nugent and F. A. Chenoweth had law offices over the old Bank Exchange saloon. Mr. Nugent went from here to Idaho city; thence to San Francisco, Judge Chenoweth lives at Corvallis, Oregon.

Dr. Craig was keeping "a complete and fresh assortment of drugs, opposite the Bank Exchange." The Dr. was one of the sufferers by the fire of 1865, and is now, we believe, in Idaho city.

W. G. Langford, now a resident of Washington city, then displayed his card as Prosecuting Attorney for the first Judicial district.

Ball & Stone kept the challenge saloon. Mr. Ball, in Co. with E. B. Whitman is now in the dry goods trade at Warrens. Mr. Stone capped the climax of anything outrageous ever before perpetrated by him by going from here last week as a delegate to the radical convention at Vancouver.

Jas. McLaughlin kept a store at the corner of Main and Third streets; afterwards moved his goods to Boise, where his store was burned out in the first great fire in that city. He had two buildings burned here by the fire in 1864 two more by the fire of '65; subsequently had a cargo of goods sunk, by the capsizing of a ferry boat, in Snake river, and attained the climax of misfortune four years ago by being elected a member of the Washington Territory "Parliament." It may be well, for history's sake, to add that he has "resurrected" since the time when a M. P., in order to avert suspicion from himself as the author of a special report which reflected somewhat upon some of his illustrious co-peers, he dignified himself with the title of "the bald-headed member from Walla Walla," and is now occupying the honorable position of county sheriff.

The firm of Brown & Wolfe subsequently became N & E. Brown. Mr. Wolfe is now in Portland, and N. Brown is in San Francisco. Mrs. S. J. Seman, dressmaker and milliner, is in New York.

Rev. John Flinn was pastor of the only church then in the city—the Methodist—and his wife taught the only school in the place—composed of 15 or 20 small children—in their dwelling at the lower end of town. We used to think then that a person who could quote Scripture for so hour and a half to a congregation of 10 to 15 hearers was abundantly blessed with the gift of continuance and patience, and to John Flinn we awarded a due meed of praise.

Of others who were advertising and in business here then and still remain, we can now only recall Wm. Phillips, Dusenburys, O. Brechtel, Jovell & Massam, P. M. Lynch, Fred Stine, D. S. Baker, Jo. Helmut, J. F. Abbott and Picard & Abel; but in all of these cases, excepting Stine and Brechtel, there have either been changes in firms or in business. There were others here then; but their names did not appear in "print."

Last, and least—so long as we say it—the individuals who then leaned upon the cases in the STATESMAN office and set up their own editorials, have, since then, changed the stick and the tripod for that vocation, which those who are pent up by city walls, and, of course, never tried it, usually characterize as the most pleasant, healthful and independent of all vocations. But, taking the song of "The farmer's life is the life for me" as a test oath, and qualifying them as to their firm conviction of its poetical truth when viewed from an experimental standpoint—such, for example, as binding grain in a harvest field on a hot day in August, or being kicked over by an unruly cow, in a muddy corral on a drizzly November or March morning—we imagine that if they should affirm it they would do so with many mental reservations.

RECORDS.—The radicals seem to have become wonderfully particular of late about the "records" of men whom they appoint to office; and as usual with them, their tenacity is only excelled by their inconsistency. It will be recollected that President Grant some time ago declared his intention to make no removals from office without some just cause. Week before last it was announced in the dispatches that ex-rebel Gen. Longstreet had been appointed Collector at New Orleans, and last week we were informed, through the same source, that Governor Moore, of this Territory, was to be superseded in office by Alvan Flanders. The justness of the President's "cause" in these removals, and the records of the men appointed and removed, fairly summed up, are as follows. Longstreet fought through the war against the "Government," and at Chickamauga, while he was directing the fire of rebel bullets, Governor—then General—Moore was fighting in behalf of the cause that raised Grant from obscurity and elevated him to his present position. From this we may infer that Grant has been studying the science of logic, as follows: The rebels caused the war. If there had been no rebels there would have been no war, and if there had been no war I would never have been made a General, and if there had been no rebel Generals to fight I would never have been made President, but would have still been the same drunken cuss I always was. Ergo, I must reward the rebels and ignore the Federals.

Gov. Moore was shot through one of his lungs during the war and has never enjoyed perfect health since. By the same course of logic this may be considered an additional cause for removal.

During the war, Mr. Flanders was industriously at work involving himself in debt. He succeeded admirably, and upon this record was sent to Congress, where he immortalized his name by pleading the baby act, to get rid of his creditors. Grant is supposed to have tickled his status thusly: He didn't fight nor nothin' during the war; but he imitated the example of our great leaders who involved our country in its inconceivable millions of debt, and with creditable dishonesty, like unto our loyal cotton speculators, he lined his pockets with the people's money. In Congress he has exhibited brilliant military genius, and imitated muchly my masterly inactivity before Richmond, and finally, he has exhibited a strategic movement in eluding his creditors which is only paralleled by the grand march from Bull Run to Washington. Verily, Alvan has a good record, and he shall be Governor of Washington Territory!

WHITE PINE.—The White Pine bubble has finally burst, and discouraged and disgusted miners from there are arriving in all parts of the upper country and reporting White Pine to be the most stupendous sell ever seen on the coast. Hundreds have exhausted their little all in going there and have been compelled to resort to every known means of getting away. The usual means are adopted by those who have interests there to keep the excitement up, and the unsuspecting and uninitiated are decoyed off in every surrounding direction to hunt for reported newly discovered diggings. Goods are selling at White Pine at less than half their original cost, and merchants, like the miners, are generally preparing to leave the country.

COLLECTOR FOR MONTANA.—Walter W. Johnson has been confirmed, by the Senate, as Collector for Montana. Mr. Johnson was formerly a resident of this city and still has property in the valley.

NOT CONFIRMED.—The telegraph has not yet announced the confirmation of Alvan Flanders as Governor of this Territory.

THE Northern Pacific Railroad Company is required to finish twenty-five miles of road by the 1st of July, 1869, and forty miles per year thereafter.

THE publication of the Polk County Signal has been resumed.

VELOCIPED.—Mr. David Weston of this city has just completed a velocipede. The curious can see the concern by calling at his shop, on Main street. When the editor returns we presume Mr. Weston will give him a complimentary ride. We shall ask the honor of an invitation to be present on the occasion.

NOT THE CAUSE.—We have been requested to state that the cause of the sickness and death of Mr. Frank Stone's little son was not the fall he received at school. He was not seriously hurt by his fall, and did not get sick for some weeks afterwards. His disease was typhoid fever.

RETURNED.—After going to Portland, Mr. Guichard changed his mind about going to San Francisco for medical aid, and is now at home and feeling better for his trip.

WITHDRAWN.—The telegraph announces the withdrawal of the nomination of Elwood Evans as Associate Justice for this Territory. The reason assigned is that Evans participated in the Philadelphia Johnson convention. Wonder if the radicals who asked for that withdrawal have forgotten how Grant, about the time of that convention, accompanied Mr. Johnson on his corner-stone-laying electioneering tour, and didn't make a speech endorsing Mr. Johnson because he couldn't? or do they excuse that "little indiscretion" on the ground that the General was drunk?

DEFORMED CALVES.—The people in the vicinity of Spaulding's on the Touchet are having something new in the annals of stock raising. A farmer from that section informs us that fifteen out of twenty of the calves born there this spring have either been so badly deformed that they died at birth, or it was necessary to kill them to put them out of misery. In one instance, there was only one perfectly formed calf out of thirteen, and in another only one out of six. The farmers there believe they have discovered the cause of this singular freak of nature in the fact that only cows that range in the vicinity of, and lick at, certain banks, supposed to be impregnated with alum, have deformed calves. The residents there are preparing to fence these banks, or licks, and thus in future avoid the misfortune that has befallen them this season.

THE CROPS.—The Oregon papers say there has been a much larger breadth of grain sown in that State this season than ever before, and that the prospects for an abundant yield are unusually flattering. The wheat crop in this valley will probably exceed that of last year. The Assessor's report which will be completed in a few days, will give an approximate of the amount sown.

Odd Fellows' Celebration.—The fiftieth anniversary of Odd Fellows in the United States will be celebrated by the Odd Fellows of Walla Walla by a grand procession of the Order on the 26th day of April, 1869. All members in good standing are requested to meet at the Hall at the hour of 2 o'clock P. M. of said day. The procession will form under the direction of the Marshal and march through the principal streets to the Methodist church, where a public address will be delivered by Hon. P. B. Johnson. The whole to conclude with a grand ball in the evening.

CITY HOTEL.—Mr. A. J. Gregory has rented the City Hotel and will hereafter act "mise host" in that establishment.

BRASS BAND.—All persons interested in the organization of a brass band in this city are requested to meet at the Bank Exchange Hall tomorrow evening, at 7 o'clock.

SPRING GOODS.—Wm. Kohlhauff has just returned from the Emporium, with a fine assortment of spring goods. He has also brought up a superior lot of oat meal. Call and see him, at the old corner.

THAT CROWD.—The cause of the continued crowd around the corner of Main and Third streets, is that Adams Brothers are displaying their spring stock of goods, and selling at such low prices that none can pass by without calling in to examine and purchase.

EXPLANATORY, BUT NOT APOLOGISTIC.—The absence of the editor will account for the greatly improved appearance and tone of the Statesman this week. As he will probably not return in time to "make up" the next issue, the readers may look for another rare literary treat; but after that—may the Lord have mercy on your souls!

COURT DOCKET.—April 20th, was the last day of service for the May term of the District Court. Sheriff McAuliff informs us that there are only thirty-five new civil cases on file, and two criminal cases awaiting the action of the Grand Jury. There are about fifteen civil cases, laid over at the last term, which will come up for a hearing, bringing up the civil docket to fifty cases.

THE DELEGATES TO THE Territorial Democratic Convention, which convened at Vancouver on the 22d, namely, Messrs. Nowell, Lanster, Mix, Stine, Shapstein, Dugan, Page and Reese, left for that place on Sunday morning last. Messrs. Drumheller, Ping and Stewart remained at home, and gave their proxies to the delegates attending. Judge Wyche accompanied the delegation.

THE NEW PAPER.—The first number of the Walla Walla Union made its advent on Saturday last. Typographically it looks neat. Politically—well, we were always sincere in our belief that it is a pity to spoil the face of new type by making it advocate radicalism. Judging from its advertising patronage, the republicans have exhibited commendable liberality in rallying to the support of their paper.

QUIET.—Since the departure of the delegates of the two political parties for their respective conventions our town has borne an unusually quiet appearance. No caucusing and hobnobbing is seen on the corners. The candidates for county offices seem to have arrived at a correct estimate of themselves and only express a willingness to serve the dear people in case the people call upon them for their services.

ON THE MOVE.—The saw mills of the valley, or mountains, rather, are all on the move lately. Messrs. Snieder and Reed have removed their mill to the head of Wild Horse creek, about twenty five miles from this city. Messrs. Johnson, Reynolds and Drumheller are putting their mill up on the head of Pine creek, and Mr. Young has brought the machinery of his mill down from the Columbia river and intends to re-erect it at the old site. The machinery of this latter mill, it will be recollected, was taken by a mining company to the upper Columbia a year or two ago, to be used in pumping water on to a mining claim; and that enterprise failing to be remunerative, Mr. Young proposes to set the mill to work at its old business.

HEAVING FOR A PASS.—Col. Hudson, in the employ of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, is now in the Blue Mountains hunting for a pass for a branch road, through the mountains, to the Columbia. Mr. H. Jacobs informs us that when he crossed, a few days ago, Col. H. was in the vicinity of Meacham's, and surveying along Meacham creek. Since his return, Mr. Jacobs has sent Col. H. information which will probably lead to the exploration of a pass from the South end of Grand Ronde to this valley—entering some 10 miles from this city—and offering a guide and Company to assist in the exploration.

CHILD DROWNED.—Mr. Barnes informs us that a little boy, two years old, son of Rev. J. B. Calloway, who lives on Mr. Lyle's farm on Dry creek, was drowned in that stream on Wednesday morning last. The father had just crossed the creek to go to his work, and the little fellow unperceived by any one except a larger boy, who was some distance off, attempted to follow. The little fellow reached the middle of a plank, which crossed the creek, and fell in, and before any one could get to his assistance he was carried away by the current and drowned. His body was not recovered until late in the evening, and it was found under a drift pile, two miles below the place where he fell in.

SALARIES OF COUNTY OFFICERS.—The Salaries of the county officers of this county fall far below the figures at which the people generally estimate them. We have obtained the following from the officers themselves, and the correctness of their estimates certainly can not be disputed:

The Sheriff's income is about $3,000 per year—perhaps a little more or a little less—and is governed by the amount of delinquent taxes to be collected, upon which he receives ten per cent. for collecting.

The Treasurer's per cent. amounts to from $500 to $1,000 per annum in greenbacks, and varies, of course, according to the amount of taxes collected.

The Auditor's fees amount to about $1,500 per annum. The income will not exceed that sum.

The Probate Judge's fees reach from $400 to $500 in greenbacks per annum.

The Sheriff's income, it will be seen, is double that of any of the others; but it must be borne in mind that this sum has to be divided between the Sheriff and a deputy, and that there are other expenses attached to the office—such as keeping a horse, traveling, etc.—which will bring the Salary of the chief officer down to at least half the sum that his fees reach.

LATEST EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to April 17th. [COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.] WASHINGTON NEWS.

Among the confirmations to day, was Samuel L. Watson as Collector for Montana, and Kennedy and Jacobs Associate Justices of Washington Territory.

The President has directed the Secretary of War to order Gen. Reynolds to proceed to registration in Texas for an early election. It is expected similar orders will be issued in the case of Virginia and Mississippi.

A list of 132 clerks is being prepared in the Third Auditor's office and Treasury Department, for dismissal. It includes all the democrats and members of the Johnson Department club and the Conservative army and navy union. Large numbers of female clerks will be discharged to-morrow.

Chicago, April 15.—A Washington special says the Senate yesterday agreed not to dispose of the Darien ship canal treaty in the present session, but wait for additional information. Wilkinson strongly favors a railroad instead of a canal.

Senator Schurz has received over seven thousand applications for office. New York, April 15.—A Washington special says the Senate yesterday ratified the naturalization treaty with England, similar in provisions to other treaties on the subject with other European Powers.

Washington, April 15.—Deftres, late Superintendent of public Printing, will probably be appointed Second Controller of the Treasury.

About a hundred persons, mostly ladies, were removed from the Registrar's offices yesterday, at last reports. Many more will be removed. Two hundred male clerks will probably be removed during the present month.

No appointments are being made in the places thus vacated. The Supreme Court rendered several decisions to-day; none on the legal tender case. The Blair election case was continued for adjournment.

The Senate, in executive session, considered the San Juan treaty, but came to no conclusion. Probably the Senate will not adjourn before Wednesday next.

The Supreme Court has adjourned until October. New York, April 15.—Valente, General Agent of the Cuban revolutionists, has issued orders to the people of the United States. He says the insurgent army has been gradually increased, and now numbers 42,000.

General Capades is Commander-in-Chief, and the head of the republican Government, which is duly established within a line which covers about two thirds of the island, in which slavery is abolished. The patriots have effected this, notwithstanding their sad deficiency in war material, while their enemies are fully armed with the most approved weapons.

Memphis, April 15.—Ex President Johnson addressed about 3,000 people to-day. His speech was a repetition of those made at Nashville and Knoxville, and was well received and applauded.

Gen. Tom Ewing has brought suit against Perry Fuller for money on account of lobby services. Many rich developments are expected concerning the manipulations of amendments to appropriation bills.

Mr. Brownlow denounced the nomination of Ricks as Pension Agent for Knoxville as personally obnoxious to himself. Brownlow made a bitter assault on Grant for making the appointment and called on the Senate to reject Ricks, which was done. Ricks is a strong republican and served with credit in the Union army, and was recommended by Senator Warner and a large number of the best Union men of the South. Brownlow desires his own son in law to be appointed.

New York, April 17.—The World's special has the authority of a Senator from the Pacific coast for the statement that an extra Congress will be called within sixty days undoubtedly, for the consideration of the annexation of Cuba, either peacefully or forcibly. The same special says the President has been informed of a very formidable expedition preparing at New York and New Orleans with the avowed design of proceeding to Cuba. It is asserted that the Government will let this expedition alone very readily.

New York, April 17.—A Boston special says that letters were received yesterday from the Secretary of the Navy, directing all war vessels at the Portsmouth and Charlestown Navy Yards to be got ready for active service immediately.

FIRE AT PITTSBURG. Pittsburg, April 14.—The extensive oil refinery of Forsyth Bros. at Sharpburg, near this city, was almost totally destroyed by fire to-day. A tank of benzine exploded and the flames spread rapidly, setting the house, containing 1,500 bbls. of resin and 70 bbls. of distilled oil, on fire. All was burned up this afternoon. At 7 P. M. the tank containing 20,000 bbls. crude oil caught. At 10 o'clock still another alarm has struck, indicating that the fire is still raging. It is feared that the adjoining refineries may have taken fire. The total loss is estimated at from $125,000 to $200,000. Two men, two women and a child were burned by the first flames which spouted from the benzine, and one woman was injured seriously.

Albany, April 14.—The New York Senate passed a resolution ratifying the Fifteenth Amendment—17 to 15.

Montgomery, April 14.—The late frosts have seriously injured the cotton crop. Much of it will have to be re-planted.

Pittsburg, April 15.—The conflagration of Forsyth & Bro's oil refinery continued all day. The oil is still burning. Thirty-six thousand barrels of various kinds of oil were destroyed, together with the buildings. The remains of the man found in the ruins are thought to be a fireman who fell asleep and burned to death. The total loss of Forsyth & Bros. is estimated $220,000.

CUBAN AFFAIRS. Havana, April 14.—Napoleon Arriaso and other insurgent chiefs are heading a party in the Central Department of Cuba in opposition to General Quesada, who, however, has the largest number of adherents. Volunteers are organizing in the interior.

The Vasa de Cuba warns the public against over confidence in the termination of the insurrection. The Diario says the Spanish war steamers are watching the two expeditions expected from the United States. Casanova is still unreleased. A decree has been issued authorizing the raising of 1,000 additional guards to protect the property of western planters, who are to pay them. Advice from Puerto Principe say a convoy has arrived from Santa Cruz under a guard of 900 troops, who encountered 2,000 insurgents entrenched. After a desperate fight they destroyed them.

WALTHAM WATCHES! The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, it is decided the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 400,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country, or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize: The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, secured Pogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches. All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps protecting the movement from dust, and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public.

To CALIFORNIANS and other living in portions of the United States where watch-makers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned features, which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must every watch wearers, be a thoroughly reliable time-keeper.

To prevent imposition, buyers should invariably demand a certificate of genuineness. The trade supplied by Messrs. R. B. Gray & Co., San Francisco, Cal., and generally for sale at retail by all respectable dealers.

NOTICE TO MECHANICS AND BUILDERS!! PLANING MILL —AND— Sash, Door, and Blind Factory. I DID NOT COMPLETE AT THE LAST COUNTY FAIR, but I have re-planned lumber that had been planed by the so-called Premium Planing Machine. For the truth of the above, I refer the public to Dr. Hunter.

As I am competing with competitors in this place, and NOT with San Francisco or Portland, I will do your work as CHEAP and BETTER than you can get it done in the Premium Sash and Door Factory. I am now, and will continue, to sell Sashes, Doors, Window Frames, and Moulding, at greatly reduced prices. For the benefit of those building, I will keep the following sizes on hand: SASHES—8x10, 8x12, 10x12, 10x14, and 10x16, twelve feet long. SASHES—10x14, 12x14, 12x16, and 12x18, eight feet long. DOORS—four panels, 6-6x28, 6-8x28, 6-10x28, and 12-12.

WINDOW BLINDS to match the above sizes. Pioneer Washers For Sale at from $10 to $12. UNDERTAKING. I have just procured a HEARSE, and am prepared to fill orders in the Undertaking line. Charges in all cases reasonable. Hearse Free of Charge. 16:4f

Premium Sash and Door Factory. HAVING RECEIVED THE PREMIUM AT THE last County Fair on DRESS, SASH, MOLDING and PLANING, I wish more especially to call the attention of the public generally, that I am now steadily making up new machinery, and am now prepared to do any work in as low as any one else in this place; I care not how low they do it. My work will be done as well as it is done in San Francisco or Portland. I will keep on hand all the following sizes: SASHES—From 8x10 to 10x16, twelve lights; with and without glass. Other sizes made to order on short notice. DOORS—Of all sizes, two and four panels, always on hand. WINDOW BLINDS made to order. I am also prepared to do all kinds of TURNING and CABINET WORK, Broad lathes, Bedsteads, Tables, and Furniture generally. DOOR and WINDOW FRAMES also made to order. My Planer, and Tongue and Groover are some of the best machines on the coast, and will not fall to do good work. I have a Patent Tooth Saw for sawing weatherboarding, which will saw true and smooth. Also, an up and down saw, for sawing circles. WAGON WORK will be done at low rates. I will take in exchange for some of my work, Grain, Lumber and Shingles.

I am now prepared to take Contracts for any kind of CARPENTRY WORK. Having some of the best workmen in my employ, I Am Bound to Give Satisfaction. I hold myself ready at all times to GIVE BONDS for the performance of any contract I may take. J. SWIFT, on the Upper Umatilla, Oregon, is my agent; those in want of SASH and DOORS in that part of the country will please apply to him. Remember John Devel's Premium Sash and Door factory, Walla Walla. JOHN DOVELL. 15:4f

FAMILY JARS.

Jars of jelly, jars of jam, Jars of potted beef and ham, Jars of early gooseberries nice, Jars of mince-meat, jars of spice...

PANDORA'S BOX.—Pandora, according to the heathen mythology, was the female created. She was formed of clay, by Vulcan, at the request of Jupiter...

A SNEEZING HEAD.—The manager of a Berlin theater got up a drama in which a human head was offered to a tyrant. In order to produce as much effect as possible, he resolved to use a human head...

DECEASED NOBILITY.—A Paris letter says of the Princes Imperial: "The greatest care is taken with him; he rides on horseback daily; he is sent to St. Cloud every evening for air and exercise, yet he looks like a shoemaker's consumptive apprentice..."

A MODEL OLD MAN.—Jacob Winans, of Milton, Mahoning county, Ohio, was born in 1769, and married at 21. His wife bore him seventeen children, fourteen of whom are now living...

A BRIDAL PRESENT.—Among the wedding gifts to a newly wedded pair in New Jersey recently was a broom sent to the lady, accompanied with the following sentiment: "This trifling gift accept from me, its use I would commend; In sunshine use the brassy part, In storms the other end."

HERE is a peculiar French description of the people of Bavaria: "The Bavarians are a happy people. They have money which brings happiness, and a King who makes music. They drink much and often, and smoke as they drink. They sleep long, eat five meals a day, and make love between their meals."

"Show me a man who can define, said Plato, and I will worship him as a god." Webster would have suited him, particularly in his old definition of a bull, as a "circumscribed subcutaneous inflammation, characterized by a pointed, pustular tumor, and accompanied with a central core; a poruncutis."

"WHAT does a man think of when he thinks of nothing" said a coquette to a gentleman with whom she had broken an engagement. "He thinks, miss, of a woman's promise."

PREACHERS should not be personal in their sermons. It is man—not men—that is to be reconstructed.

It is a remarkable fact that although common sheep delight in verdant fields, religious flocks are not anxious for green pastures.

MORE THAN 100,000 PERSONS

Bear testimony to the Wonderful Curative Effects Of Dr.

A CURE FOR EVERY DISEASE.

DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS,

Manufactured from the Native Herbs and Roots of California.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER AND Life-Giving Principal.

PURIFY THE BLOOD and the health of the whole system will follow. Nothing has ever been offered which can compare with these BITTERS.

The Life of all Flesh is the Blood Thereof. Cleanse the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well.

Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, Are a true medicine, placed in the hands of the people for their relief and no person can take them, according to directions, and remain long unwell. They are a perfect Renovator of the System, as they carry off every particle of poisonous matter. Every family should have a bottle of Vinegar Bitters at hand.

For Female Complaints Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout. These Bitters have been most successful. They are caused by vitiated blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the digestive organs.

It is a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic. Possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. In this respect, these Bitters have no equal.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms. Marking in the systems of so many thousands on this Coast are effectually destroyed and removed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. This disease, in a measure, is occasioned by the irregularity and want of action in the Liver, biliary ducts, and Gall bladder, etc. Headaches, Stomachic Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Liver, Copious Discharges of Urine, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offspring of this Dyspepsia.

Morbid Condition of the Blood. This is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Letter or Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sores, Ulcers, Pimples, and Eruptions of all kinds. For the cure of these various affections, which are merely symptoms of a morbid condition of the blood, medical science and skill have not, as yet discovered a Blood Purifier equal to Walker's Vinegar Bitters.

Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder. It thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor and bad taste, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition. It is perfectly harmless, never producing the slightest injury.

Let it be distinctly borne in mind that Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters is not a gilded pill, which lights the eye or pleases the fancy; it is a medical preparation, and not a beverage; it is composed of the most valuable ingredients of the dispensary of nature furnished, so far as discovery has yet extended, as it may be considered incredible that so many cases, considered hopelessly incurable, have been frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and cheerfully invite the investigation of the medical mind and scientific to the cure it has made.

ALL OVER THE WORLD

The world people of sense and judgment have learned to use PLANTATION BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, with its symptoms, Headache, Heartburn, Feverish Lips, Bad Breath, Yellow Complexion, &c., are cured by using PLANTATION BITTERS. This is the most successful tonic of the age, young, middle-aged and old, are delighted with its effects. The first trial always has a marked good effect. No change of diet is necessary. Eat all you wish, of the best and most nutritious food. It is the greatest cure ever known for an overloaded and distressed stomach, which it relieves in a few moments.

We know that we have the best and most popular medicine in the world. We are not afraid to show what it is composed of. PHYSICIANS ARE COMPELLED TO RECOMMEND IT.

ST-1860-X

CALHAYA BARK has been celebrated for over two hundred years, and was sold during the reign of Louis XVI, King of France, for the enormous price of its own weight in silver. It is remarkable for Dyspepsia, Fevers, Weakness, Constipation, &c. CASCAILLA BARK.—For Diarrhoea, Colic, and diseases of the stomach and bowels. DANDIELION.—For Inflammation of the Lungs and Dropsical Affections.

CHAMOMILE FLOWERS.—For enfeebled digestion. LAVENDER FLOWERS.—Aromatic, stimulates and tonic—highly invigorating in nervous debility. WINTERGREEN.—For Scrofula, Rheumatism, &c. ANISE.—An aromatic carminative; creating flesh, muscle and milk; much used by mothers nursing. Also clove-buds, orange, caraway, coriander, snake-root, &c.

Another wonderful ingredient, of Spanish origin, imparting beauty to the complexion and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown to the commerce of the world, and we withhold its name for the present. With this recipe before the community, and evidence effects meeting them on all sides, the success of Dr. Drake's is beyond question. Almost every family has some case of suffering which the PLANTATION BITTERS will alleviate and cure.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate relief. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our United States stamp over the cork unimpaired, and our signature on steel-plate label.

Sold by all respectable dealers throughout the United States. P. H. DRAKE & CO., New York, Sole Proprietors. REDDINGTON & CO., San Francisco, AGENTS FOR CALIFORNIA & NEVADA.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

The merits of this Liniment are well known. Its effects are instantaneous, clearing, and wonderful. Cuts, bruises, sprains and swellings, are so common, and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Liniment is the best investment that can be made.

It is more certain than a doctor—it saves time in sending for the doctor—it is cheaper than the doctor, and should never be dispensed with.

READ THE FOLLOWING: "I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scalds, and venereal Ulcers, bruises, sprains and swellings, are so common, and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Liniment is the best investment that can be made."

LYON'S FLEA POWDER. It is well known that Lyon's genuine Magnesian Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of fleas, ticks, bedbugs, roaches, &c.; that it is perfectly pure to the insect tribe, but entirely harmless to human beings and domestic animals. This Powder is their natural death. It should be in every cupboard.

JOHN L. ROMK, Esq., Superintendent of the New York City Hospital, says: "It is the only New York Flea Powder." "We have used LYON'S MAGNETIC POWDER for exterminating insects and vermin, with entire success."

COLEMAN & STETSON, Astor House, S. T. COZZENS, American Hotel, ACKER & TREADWELL, St. Nicholas Hotel, S. E. LAMOND & Co., Metropolitan Hotel.

Testimony of this character might be adduced to any length. Wherever it is used it advertises itself. The genuine has the signature of E. Lyon, and the private stamp of Deane Barnes & Co. Anything else of this kind is an imitation of counterfeit. Any druggist will procure the genuine if you insist you will have no other.

Sold by all druggists and general storekeepers in every town and mining camp on the Pacific Coast.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID

EXTRACT BUCHU CONTINUES TO RECEIVE THE UNQUALIFIED INDORSEMENT OF THE MOST PROMINENT PHYSICIANS IN THE UNITED STATES, FROM THE FACT THAT THE INGREDIENTS ARE NOT KEPT SECRET; AND ALSO, BECAUSE

Helmbold's GENUINE PREPARATIONS

Are recommended only for those diseases and accompanying symptoms for which their ingredients are everywhere recognized as thorough, standard specifics. In quoting properties from Medical Certificates, there must be repetitions of language. Diseases and symptoms follow, but symptoms should not be mistaken for distinct diseases. This is mentioned from the fact that many might say that they proposed to cure everything. Additional evidence, also, which fully sustains all that is claimed for them, is found in the medical works of the day, recommendations from prominent Chemists, Druggists, &c., and who have been personally acquainted with the proprietor for many years, as well as certificates in unlimited numbers.

"I take pleasure in recommending the Helmbold's Fluid as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scalds, and venereal Ulcers, bruises, sprains and swellings, are so common, and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Fluid is the best investment that can be made."
