DO NOT FORGET ME! Do not forget me! The hours, full fraught with a joy too deep for words, have flown too swiftly by.

Our Washington Letter, WASHINGTON, Aug. 23, 1877. ED. STATESMAN:—Senator Blaine springs to the front again, this time with an invitation to Mr. Hayes to visit Maine.

American & European Workmen, It was a matter to stir one's patriotic pride, but not less to move one's pity, to observe the commotion in business circles in Switzerland.

J. GOULD'S PRIVATE OFFICES, EXCLUDED BEHIND LOCKED DOORS FROM INSPECTION BY OUTSIDERS. JAY GOULD is a special partner in the firm of William Belden & Co., the other members of the firm being William Belden, Charles D. Belden, W. E. Connor, who is a member of the Stock Exchange, and Henry Belden.

DEATH OF A NOTED JEWISH RABBI.—J. D. LYONS, Rabbi of the Shearith Israel Synagogue on West Nineteenth street, near Fifth avenue, died very suddenly at his residence about midnight Sunday.

PEACH BUTTER.—Take pound for pound of peaches and sugar; cook peaches until soft, then put in one-half the sugar, and stir half an hour; then the remainder of the sugar and stir one and one-half hours.

DOMESTIC SERVICE IN THE COUNTRY, It has been quite generally assumed as an ascertained fact that there was a pronounced discrimination among the laboring classes of both sexes that accepted work in the country.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE, The Cincinnati Enquirer gives the points of a story, to be published by the New York World, which purports to be a revelation of the secret of the murder of Sarah Alexander.

THE HEARSE, It is one of the finest sites of San Francisco, which is tendered to the public free of charge.

DR. NICHOLS, with a long experience of over thirty years' practice, having been charged of the State Institutions of Minnesota by the Hon. Duggan and Blaine during the past six months, offers his professional services to the public for a short time longer.

RUSSIAN DEFEAT.—The London News and Standard publish dispatches from an eye witness of Thursday's battle which comprise in detail a serious Russian defeat on the front.

SENATOR BAILEY SAYS: However conciliatory the administration party may be, it is simply breaking up the republican party.

DEPLORABLE.—It is a deplorable fact that last year in the state of Maine, where Blaine, the moral censor, holds forth, there was a gain of 16 per cent.

ON ITS DEATH BED.—The great radical party whose prime Lincolnian aim and whose decline Summer mourned, flows now on the blast of personal hatred, gasps now on its death-bed.

FALSE PRETENSES.—The Maine pretense of alarm at the condition of things in the South is nothing but a pretense.

A CHANGE.—The most striking illustration of the change in South Carolina is afforded by the experience of the few persons, mostly negroes, who paid their taxes to the Chamberlain treasurer last winter.

THE CHICAGO INTER-OCEAN has been interviewing Congressmen, by letter, as to their views on the silver question.

THE CARPET-BAG THIEVES.—No such thing has happened in our generation as the prosecution of the carpet-bag thieves by the authorities of South Carolina.

A PROTECTIVE TARIFF is a direct assault upon the personal liberty of labor.

THE FRENCH ELECTIONS.—It is announced in Paris semi-officially that the date of the election is finally fixed for Sunday, October 14th.

THE TARIFF is a question of great public interest. In it are interested vitally the farmer, the mechanic, the laborer;

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION is reported to have resulted in a democratic success.

THE RUSSO-TURKISH WAR.—The impression is steadily gaining ground that the Russians will gain little advantage from the campaign of the present year.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The following is a copy of a petition which is having a wide circulation:

To the Congress of the United States: The undersigned, inhabitants of the state of Oregon, and of Washington territory, respectfully represent that there is great and increasing need of direct railroad communication between the countries bordering on the northwest coast and the interior and eastern states.

AMERICAN MILITARY OFFICERS.—Correspondents at the seat of war bear testimony that the Egyptian contingents comprise the best drilled soldiers of any belonging to the Turkish army.

SILVER AND GREENBACKS.—No argument is more common, and none entitled to less consideration, than that silver may not properly be made a legal tender for purposes for which gold is not specified as a means of payment.

BLANK DEEDS.—Printed and for sale at this office.

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S FUNERAL.—SALT LAKE, Sept. 2.—An immense concourse of people, Mormons, apostates and Gentiles, viewed the remains of Brigham Young lying in state at the Tabernacle yesterday.

ASIDE FROM THE immense wheat fields that greet the eye, in every direction, extending almost to the top of the Blue Mountains, one of the most pleasing features of the country is the splendid fruit growing in the vicinity.

DEED.—IN this city, of diptheria, on Tuesday morning, September 5th, Joseph Orelli, aged 9 years, 6 months and 12 days.

LAND CLAIM FOR SALE.—THE UNDERSIGNED OFFERS FOR SALE the improved and well watered tract of land of the Walla Walla River, and situated about ten miles from town.

STEEL'S PAIN ERADICATOR.—The Most Wonderful Discovery of the Age.

GRANE & BRIGHAM, Wholesale Druggists, 520 and 522 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal. Price 91 per Large Bottle, 5x bottles $5.

What is Said of Us. Col. D. M. Baker, editor of the Charleston (Iowa) Leader, is writing a series of letters descriptive of the Northwest coast.

WALLA WALLA.—This city is located in the finest country I have seen west of the Rocky Mountains. Here is the great wheat producing region of the north-west, and the yield this year is almost incredible.

WALLA WALLA is the best town I have seen this side of Portland, and is destined at some day to be one of the finest business points in the north-west.
