PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY EVENING.

Walla Walla, W. T., October 31, 1864.

INTERESTING AT THE NORTH.—The New York Herald, which always claims the fulfillment of its prophecies, predicts now that in the event of Abraham Lincoln's re-election, there will be a revolution in the Northern States.

It claims to be well posted up in regard to the affairs of leading capitalists and business men in New York, and says they are shaping their business matters so that they will be enabled to leave the country in the event of Lincoln's election; that they regard a general uprising at the North as inevitable in case of such election, and that they will flee the country to avert impending ruin.

We may see at this distance from the great capital center, that New York City stakes her all on McClellan's election, and that City alone will probably give him 50,000 majority. The moral interest of the city is all opposed to Lincoln and in favor of McClellan.

This week the telegraph starts Wall Street from its propriety by rumormongering that the great States of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana had given Republican majorities, and immediately gold rises again above 200, and government stocks fall in like proportion.

There can be no other reason assigned for this sudden change in the gold market. There is no reported disaster to our forces in the field, but the reports Federal successes were being constantly sent from our armies.

But Wall Street was looking ahead; Federal victories or defeats it scarcely heeds; but a Lincoln victory gives it a fit of nervousness that vibrates and communicates the shock to all parts of the land; the banker and the merchant in the West take their cue from Wall Street, and their money bags open or close in mimicry of that great business center.

The far-seeing and wisest business men of the nation are what we sometimes call the gold speculators of New York City. They are the capitalists of the country—large holders of government stocks, and the small fry speculators and capitalists, who have plenty of money and but little brains, naturally look to them for guidance and the solution of financial difficulties.

When the Wall Street capitalists speak out in a body and define a course to be pursued in regard to national affairs, the whole country chimes in and responds in thunder tones a hearty Amen. The capitalists of New York are now combined as one man in zealous exertions to defeat Abraham Lincoln and elect their chosen leader, George B. McClellan, for the next Presidency.

Letter from Hon. George E. Cole.

We extract the following from a private letter from Hon. George E. Cole, dated Fulton, New York, Aug. 14th, 1864.

Before this reaches you the Chicago Convention will have nominated the next President, and you will have heard of it by telegraph. I say President, for a judicious nomination with a platform looking to peace on honorable terms is equivalent to an election.

McClellan is far ahead of all competition for the nomination, but the signs of the times indicate that he will be triumphantly elected. It is estimated that New York City will give him from fifty thousand to sixty thousand majority, and the majority in the State, cannot be less than that number.

While Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, Illinois, Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, and Missouri are counted upon as certain to go for him, which will be 127 of the electoral votes—116 being necessary for a choice. Besides, Wisconsin, Michigan, New Hampshire, Connecticut and Maine are as likely to go for him as Lincoln.

McClellan is so popular with the soldiers, he has had, and the good vote he took of his men here, have not seen a veteran volunteer (and I have met and conversed with several many) who is not a McClellan man, regardless of politics.

They all think him the greatest General we have had, and the good vote he took of his men here, have not seen a veteran volunteer (and I have met and conversed with several many) who is not a McClellan man, regardless of politics.

Lewisohn Correspondence.

EDS. STATESMAN:—Amid the current of rapidly passing events, I have scarcely found time to send you my notes for your readers.

Though late with my notes they may be acceptable, and therefore I submit them. I promised to furnish your readers a sketch of the reconciliation meeting between the great Statesmen of the Republican fold and the Whigs.

Curiously similar to that which prompts the rustic youth to visit the parades of large cities or enter a vagabond puppet show, draw together a large audience to witness the "Slight of Spirit" performance of this amateur magician.

Soon after seven, the artist (7) made his appearance and assuming a dramatic air, which would have done credit to a third rate "walking gentleman" upon the boards, commenced. As might have been expected (in the robe of injured innocence) he enumerated his grievances, repeated the charges made against him, in his prologue, and then commenced the amateur juggling.

The least and most trivial were handled, with much severity and denivel with all the gravity and semi-dramatic effort that could be assumed. The graver and more important business were postponed until the "Slight of Spirit" was reached.

Here was a peep, and here the magic lantern man called up all the brass in his metallic constitution to his aid, and with a flourish of his wand, without a record of any kind and relied solely upon the assurance the most common criminal assumes when confronted with the violated law of the land at the bar of justice.

That here was a record, and that record to public denial our popular wave could cease from the page of history. But still in conjunction with the other parts of his speech, he stoutly denied any guilty knowledge of the past and declared the audience that had his election depended upon that vote he never would have claimed his seat as a Delegate from Idaho Territory.

How much sincerity or with what degree of credulity this assertion should be received, I do not know. He stated that he was certain that the injured Governor was himself in a district over which he exercised full control, whereas a greater fraud, if possible, was practiced than the celebrated "Laramie return" upon the people of this Territory.

He wound up as in all traveling "Shows" with a grand display of "red fire" and bogus patriotic squibs. Alas! for human frailty, the (Black) sheep that he strayed upon a thousand hills were gathered back, and with beatings and other signs of satisfaction, acknowledged the hand that had fed them, (with promises) heard their Shepherd's voice and followed him. In one word, those who had been the most bitterly opposed to him were the first to extend the hand of friendship and invite to take full command of the flock.

Eastern News.

Dates to Oct. 14th.

Indianapolis, Oct. 12.—45 counties gave a Union majority of 20,000. The balance to be heard from will probably increase the majority 5,000.

The small Union majorities in both branches of the legislature, The Congressmen are all Union except 2d, 1st and 7th district. The two latter are doubtful; claimed by both parties.

Baltimore, Oct. 12.—Scattering returns from counties, the vote on New Constitution will be close. The soldier's vote will, probably, be required to indicate the result.

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—The reported majority in 43 counties, show a Union majority of 3,678. In the remaining 23 counties, the vote last year gave Union majorities of 1,843. If we allow a total falling off in the Union vote of 80,000 in counties to be heard from, there will still be a Union majority (home vote) of 2,850.

The Age claims a gain of 20,000 on Curtin's vote, and that the Democrats will have a majority on the home vote of 5,000. Footing up the table the reported Democratic gains so far, is 14,242 in 49 counties. The 12th Congressional district gives 1,600 Democratic majority. It was reported at 20,000. Unionists claim the election of Wm. W. Keitchum to Congress by the soldiers' vote.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Whigs basing their assertion on the figures it has thus far received from Pennsylvania says: The Democrats will probably obtain a majority of 5,000 on the home vote.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The Union majority of Ohio on the home vote is about 35,000. The soldiers' vote will probably increase it to 85,000. 17 Union Congressmen are elected.

Baltimore, Oct. 14.—The returns of the Convention in election come in slowly. The result is doubtful. The friends of emancipation think the New Constitution will be adopted by a small majority, unless the slaveholding counties give larger majorities than is anticipated.

THE IDAHO ELECTION.

The returns from the Idaho election are not all in, but sufficient has been received to insure the election of Mr. E. D. Holbrook, the Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress, by a handsome majority.

In Boise county alone he has 850 majority over Parks; and the entire Democratic ticket is elected in that county by similar majorities. Pinkham, the great light of the Republican party in that county, and who, it is said, had staked his all in bets upon his election, is defeated for Sheriff (by A. O. Bowen) by 950 majority.

Returns from Owyhee and Alturas have not yet come in, but both these counties are reported to have given Democratic majorities. Nez Perces county has given a small Republican majority—the number we have not learned—and the entire Republican ticket is elected in that county.

Idaho county has gone the other way—giving a Democratic majority of 57 for Delegate and from 53 to 105 majority on the representative and judiciary tickets. Shoshone county remains to be heard from; but the vote is small there and cannot much affect the result upon delegate, whichever way it goes.

RETURN TO THE GARIBOLDI.—The usual summer campaign of the Oregon Cavalry and W. T. Infantry Volunteers has ended and orders have been issued by the Commandant of the District of Oregon for the return of the troops to the different Military Posts on the Columbia.

Captain Caldwell's command returned to Fort Dalles, Oregon, some ten days since, and on Friday last, Oct. 14th, detachment of Cavalry under command of Capt. Drake, some thirty men, eighty horses and the equipments, returned to Fort Vancouver. The command now out with Capt. Curry may be expected in at Fort Walla Walla about the 26th inst.

We doubt not the moral effect of the soldiers among the Indians during the past season has been great and will bring about good results; the military have also afforded security to the dense mass of immigration which has come pouring in, and rendered all the assistance possible.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The remains of Chief Justice Taney were accompanied by the railroad train today by President Lincoln and several members of his Cabinet. His body will be conveyed to Frederick, Maryland for interment.

There is no doubt that the friends of ex-Secretary Chase that he will be appointed Chief Justice.

CAPTAIN OLNEY'S COMMAND.

The time for which Captain Olney's Company, (organized at the Dalles last Spring), was mustered into service expires on the 1st of November. The Mountain States thinks that the condition of the Canyon City road is so unsettled and liable to removal of Indian depredations, that a bounty should be raised to induce them to serve for six months longer.

The San Francisco Educational Board has just completed a Grammar School building capable of accommodating eight hundred pupils. In this school the New England system is to be repudiated and the sexes are to be taught in separate apartments.

A BEEHIVE.—We were shown a beehive the other day, raised upon Mr. Patten's farm above town, which weighed thirty-two and a-half pounds. It was perfectly sound, to all appearance and is the largest one we have ever seen or heard of.

EMERSON HOTEL.—This Hotel and Restaurant, formerly kept by "Capt. Jack," is now kept by Mr. L. Markham, late of "Boise," and formerly a resident of this city.

ACRETON.—Teegarden & Dunn will sell at Auction on the 23th, on the corner of Main and Second Streets, a good four-horse wagon and a lot of American bred horses and horses.

PORTER AT VANCOUVER.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt yesterday, the 14th, brought the prisoner Geo. H. Porter charged with the murder of Englander, at Walla Walla, on a charge some to Vancouver for trial. The officers in charge of him were assisted in every way desired, in remanding him to his destination. Porter was well known in this community at one time.

REPUBLICAN TESTIMONY.—Hon. Wilson Flint, who arrived at the last steamer from the East, acknowledged his conviction, from personal observation, that McClellan will be elected by an overwhelming majority. He says that the enthusiasm here bears no comparison to that which he witnessed in the Atlantic States upon the reception of the news of the nomination. He says the public sentiment is entirely revolutionized against the Administration. (Col. Express)

ROBERT MURDER.—Mr. John Creighton, from Owyhee, informs the Idaho Statesman that a party of fourteen men, who had left the Owyhee for Washoe, were attacked by Indians and the whole party killed. No authentic information was yet received when Mr. O. left, nor could he recollect the name of the place where the murder occurred; but it was not a great distance beyond Owyhee. Fears were entertained in Idaho City for the safety of the Humboldt Express.

THE MORNING are surveying a Canal to bring the Jordan river into Salt Lake.

ATTENTION NO. 1.

From and after this date, until further notice, there will be a drill meeting of Washington Engine Co. No. 1, every Monday evening at 5 o'clock. P. P. ALLEN, Foreman.

BIRTH.

HANAFORD.—In this city on Monday, October 17, 1864, to the wife of C. H. Hanaford, a daughter.

A Tribute to Copperheadism.

Do you uphold the Nation's cause,
And think as Daniel Webster thought—
The Constitution and the laws
With Union's life law brought?
Does then your soul indignantly
With scorn for the foul deed who said,
Your Magna Charta is from Hell?
You are a "Copperhead!"
Do you revere our chartered rights?
And thus prove traitor—as they say,
Those Ethiopian Zoophytes
Who now hold sway?
Do you despise the valiant hero,
Upon the country's vital life,
Who served corruption as their Lord?
You are a "Copperhead!"
Do you revert to former days,
The days of glory and renown,
When patriots won the statesman's bays,
And won the moral crown?
When not the place could make the man,
But age the man the place instead,
Where honor proudly led the van?
You are a "Copperhead!"
Do you e'er pray that strife may cease,
That war may slay her crimson hand,
And that the broad, white wings of peace,
May brood the land?
If such your prayer, for one, I say,
God's blessing rest upon your head!
Come share with me the "whiskies!"
Of traitor! "Copperhead!"
When through these clouds the Union star
Shall struggle from its red eclipse,
And the red ocean of the war
Neath the horizon dips,
No higher glory be mine,
No sigh—no if haply dead—
Than this short, cabalistic line:
"Walter, the Copperhead!"

ORIGIN OF HUGENOTS.

Hugo Aubriet was appointed Provost of Paris on the accession of Charles VI to the throne, which post he honorably filled by embellishing the city and contributing to the happiness of its inhabitants. In every thing he manifested zeal for the public good; but he offended the students indulged in the most scandalous excesses; but the Provost, determined to suppress them, ordered the offending students to be arrested and confined in the dungeons of the Chatelet. The students resolved upon revenge, charged him with dreadful crimes before ecclesiastical tribunal, and succeeded, by intrigues, in convicting him as a bad Catholic, intemperate, debauched, the encourager of loose persons—in short, as a Jew and a heretic. Had not the Court interfered, he would have been burnt alive. He was, however, obliged to mount the scaffold, and there, bareheaded, with a rope around his waist, and on his knees, ask pardon before the people. The Rector of the University and the Bishop of Paris, dressed in pontifical robes, assisted at the ceremony; and, in conclusion, condemned him to end his days in a dungeon, with nothing but bread and water for his support. Hugo Aubriet was the year following released by the same populace who had joyfully assisted in his punishment. From him the French Protestants have been called Huguenots, to mark them as enemies of the Church.

NECROMANCERS.

The raising of ghosts was a favorite exploit of the necromancers of old; the of fame Torralva, the Spanish magician has been immortalized in 'Don Quixote.' The demons that the celebrated Italian artist, Benvenuto Cellini, describes as having seen, when he got within the conjuror's circle, and which amazement magnified into several legions, are now believed to have been merely figures produced by a magic lantern; and their appearing in an atmosphere of perfumes is accounted for by the burning of odoriferous woods, in order to dim the vision of spectators. When the Emperor Charles the Fourth was married to the Bavarian Princess Sophia, in the city of Prague, the father of the bride brought with him a wagon-load of magicians to assist in the festivities. Two of the chief proficient in the art—Zytho, the Bohemian sorcerer, and Guion, the Bavarian—appeared as rivals in an extraordinary trial before an exalted assembly. After superhuman efforts to astonish, Zytho opened his jaws from ear to ear, and swallowed his companions until his teeth touched his shoes, which he spat out because, he said they had not been cleaned. The admiration of the audience was succeeded by feelings of horror, but Zytho calmed their apprehensions by restoring the vanished Guion in his perfect corporal proportions to life—a triumph of art inexplicable.

USELESS YOUNG LADIES.

A contemporary thus seriously speaks of that very large class of useless young ladies who glory in being above useful employment: "The number of idle, useless girls in all our large cities seems to be steadily increasing. They lounge or sleep through the mornings, parade the streets during the afternoon, and assemble in frivolous companies of their own and the other sex to pass away their evenings. What a store of unhappiness for themselves and others are they laying up for the coming time, when real duties and high responsibilities shall be thoughtlessly assumed! They are skilled in no domestic habits—say, they despise them; have no habits of industry nor taste for the useful. What will they be as wives and mothers? Alas for their husbands and children, and alas for themselves! Who can wonder if domestic unhappiness and domestic ruin follow?"

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.

I have heard some very extraordinary cases of murder tried. I remember in one, where I was counsel, for a long time the evidence did not appear to touch the prisoner at all, and he looked about him with the most perfect unconcern seeming to think himself quite safe. At last the surgeon was called, who stated deceased had been killed by a shot, a gunshot, in the head, and he produced the matted hair and stuff from and taken out of the wound. It was all hardened with blood. A basin of warm water was brought into court, and as the blood was gradually softened, a piece of printed paper appeared—the wedding of the gun, which proved to be half of a ballad. The other half had been found in the man's pocket when he was taken. He was hanged.

At a camp meeting in this State, recently a zealous brother excused himself for 'hooking' and appropriating to his own necessities, some 'good old rye' by saying: "My dear brethren, here, of all places, the 'spirit' should be most freely 'poured out.'"

"Mother," said Ike Partington, "did you know that the 'iron horse' has but one ear?"

"One ear? why merciful gracious child, what do you mean?" "Why the engine—er of course!"

THE NEW FERRY.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS JUST COMPLETED
his new Ferry across Snake river
At the Mouth of the Palouse,
on the most direct and only really practicable WAG-ON ROAD from Walla Walla to the Kootenai, Columbia river or Beaver Head Mines, or to Fort Ben-colville.

No pains or expense have been spared to make this ferry a safe, expeditious and convenient crossing for animals or vehicles of any description—superior to any ferry on the river, and not surpassed by any of the kind on the coast—capable of crossing one hundred animals per hour.

Parties traveling to Kootenai will find this much the shortest route, and an excellent road, with plenty of grass and good water, and good camping-places at short intervals.

The following is a table of distances from Walla
Walla to the Ferry:
From Walla Walla to
Dry Creek to..... 7 miles
" Touchet River to..... 13 "
" Ferry to..... 18 "
Making the total distance..... 46 miles

The rates of freight are as follows:
For each horse and rider,..... $1.00
" " Packed animal,..... 1.00
" " Loose animal,..... 50
" " Cattle,..... 50
A liberal deduction will be made to pack-trailers.
