

VOTERS of all parties will support George F. Thomas for the reason that they know him to be faithful and competent.

HON. B. L. SHARPESTEIN, writes us from Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, that the vote in that State for President will be close, with the chances in favor of the republicans.

TOM PAGE comes fully up to the Jeffersonian standard, both honest and capable. On the 7th of November the people will show by their votes that they appreciate honest merit.

DAN HOLTON, proprietor of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Portland, and a genial, social gentleman, is visiting Walla Walla for the first time. We trust that Dan will bring away pleasant remembrances of his trip.

SANK OWENS, a gentleman who is known all over the coast, is at Walla Walla, attracted by the big races. Our acquaintance with Mr. Owens dates back nearly 20 years, and he looks as young now as he did the first day we met him.

W. T. ARBERY, Esq., has come up from the land of weebot, and is now visiting his old Walla Walla friends. The land of everlasting rain seems to suit "Tex," as he now turns the scales at 250. May his shadow never grow less.

DEMAND FOR WHEAT.—Any person having from one thousand to two thousand bushels of "Little Club Wheat" for sale, can hear of a cash purchaser on application at the STATESMAN'S office. The wheat must be clean and all respects fit for milling purposes.

CROSS-WALK.—Messrs. Schwabacher and O'Donnell have placed a substantial cross-walk to Main street, for the convenience of persons wishing to cross to their stores. Improvement of this kind are great conveniences and money thus expended is well invested.

THE CANVASS on the Sound is progressing satisfactorily. A dispatch from Seattle states that on Monday night the democrats held the largest meeting ever seen in that place. Hon. J. P. Judson was the principal speaker, and was received with great enthusiasm. It is regarded as certain that King county will give Judson a large majority.

SENATOR MITCHELL has worn himself out from constant speaking, and hence will not be able to fill his appointment at Walla Walla. This will be a serious disappointment to our people who had arranged to give the Senator a cordial reception. Should his health improve, he will visit Walla Walla before leaving for Washington to be present at the opening of the session.

THE RACE TRACK.—We visited Bush's Driving Park, Wednesday afternoon, and were surprised to find the track in fine condition. The heavy rains of last week, continuing down to Monday, led us to believe that the track would be muddy and unfit for racing purposes. Instead of that it was nice and dry, and pronounced by old sports as in fine order.

HANDSOME JEWELRY.—Dr. J. H. Day has just returned from the centennial and brings with him a large stock of fancy and ornamental goods that are specially suited to the purpose of presents. In the line of glassware, perfume, bottles, brushes, etc., the display is very fine and greatly superior to anything ever before seen in this town. In addition to goods of the description named, he has a very full stock of jewelry, gold chains, sleeve buttons, rings with set and plain, gold chains, and the thousand-and-one articles that are found in first-class jewelry stores in large cities, but never seen in the ordinary country watchmaking establishment. Herefore gentlemen and ladies when they desired to make valuable or tasty presents were obliged to send below, and often times were disappointed in failing to get the article they desired. Dr. Day, with his accustomed enterprise, now meets this want, and has laid down a stock of ornamental jewelry, from which selections can be made to suit the most refined taste. When the holiday season approaches we shall refer more particularly to this rare and beautiful collection of jewelry, and in the meantime we recommend ladies or gentlemen desiring to secure the latest and most desirable styles of solid or filled jewelry, to call and examine the collection as now exhibited in Dr. Day's show cases.

A FAITHFUL OFFICER.—It is always pleasant to speak well of an official who has faithfully discharged his duty. It so frequently happens that editors are required to note the shortcomings of men in place that the general public come to regard quill-drivers as chronic fault finders. Nothing could be further from the fact. Editors as a class have much of the "milk of human kindness in their composition," and it is only under a sense of duty that they chronicle the misdeeds of men in office. Instead of being captious, they are inclined to a favorable estimate the labors of public men, and whenever the circumstances warrant it are free to extend the meed of praise. It is in this spirit we refer to Geo. F. Thomas, sheriff of Walla Walla county, and candidate for reelection. Two years ago Mr. Thomas came into the office, new to its duties, and although unexperienced. Not discouraged, he went to work and mastering the details of the place, he has so managed to discharge its duties as to disarm criticism, and leave his opponents without a single peg upon which to hang objections. Previous to Mr. Thomas' time escapes from the county jail were a common occurrence. Under his administration not a single prisoner has escaped. With previous sheriffs there was always more or less complaint about the service of papers and the lack of consideration for those whose misfortune it was to be poor. Not unfrequently we heard of cases where the last horse or last cow went to satisfy a judgment. It is true that officers are occasionally obliged to appear unfeeling, but it is due Mr. Thomas to say that during his whole term of office we have never heard a single complaint on this score. To thus conduct the affairs of the most important office in the county and entirely escape censure, argues peculiar fitness for the place, and it is for this reason that the people with rare unanimity call upon the present incumbent to continue in the office.

A. B. ELMER, Esq., wife and family are visiting their friend in this city.

CENTENNIAL VIEWS.—Dr. J. H. Day was a careful observer at the centennial exhibition and brings back with him a number of photographic views that serve to give an idea of the grandeur and vastness of the exhibition. It is the testimony of foreigners who visited the centennial fair that no such demonstration was ever before witnessed. The London exhibition, which has served as the pattern for all other exhibitions of the kind, was not up to the Philadelphia demonstration; and the exposition at Paris, and still later at Vienna, are pronounced inferior. In Dr. Day's collection, which we have been privileged to examine, there are views of all the principal halls, giving an idea of their extent and the immensity of the preparations made to accommodate a genuine seventeen acres of ground, and all of them are on an immense scale. He has also views showing the interior of the buildings and the arrangement of the countless articles on exhibition. In the Italian department the exhibition of statuary was very fine, and this statuary photographed and viewed through a properly arranged glass has great interest for persons of artistic taste. Each of the countries represented excelled in certain peculiarities, but taken as a whole the United States distanced the world, in the line of machinery and in the various products of the soil, stood without a rival. The Corliss engine that moved the miles and miles of machinery, was a marvel of ingenuity, and at once attested the superior skill of American engineers and mechanics. The resources of this section of country were but imperfectly represented. Mr. Lawler's contribution of a lot of "Paradise wheat," of which notice has already been given in the STATESMAN, attracted much attention, and was really all that spoke for this valley. An effort was made to represent the products of the Puget Sound country, but outside of lumber and coal, we all know that that country is singularly barren. It is estimated that five million persons, representing all races of people, visited the exhibition, and had our products been properly represented, our advantages would literally have been advertised to the whole world. The neglect in this particular is a sad illustration of our lack of enterprise, and stamps us as behind the age. No such opportunity to make known our resources will ever again be presented, and that we neglected to improve the opportunity is a matter of profound regret.

MILITARY BAND.—The following item was prepared for our issue of last week, but accidentally omitted: The regimental headquarters and band of the First Cavalry arrived, as was expected, on the 23d, ult., and thanks to the adjutant for the treat to the many citizens, who were at the depot to greet their arrival, for the music as the train steamed its way up the track to the station. We have now at the Garrison one of the best military bands in the country, and is under a leader of professed merit and accomplishments as a musician and band-master. Any of our citizens who desire to hear good music can do so by going to the Garrison, whenever the weather will permit of the band playing, at 9 o'clock in the morning, or about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturdays and Sundays excepted. We hope soon to hear of a concert in our city, and many of them during our long winter, as we have no hesitation in saying that they will be doubly welcome and well patronized. Major Towler, U. S. A., arrived from Portland on Wednesday and left the same afternoon for Fort Colville, where he will inflate some of Uncle Sam's soft money among the boys. Inflation will be in order here at the Garrison on his return, as the regular bi-monthly muster and inspection of troops at the Garrison, took place on Tuesday, the 21st ult.

REMEMBER THEM.—Our friends in Eastern Oregon when they come to vote next Tuesday will remember that it is a republican administration that suspended the appropriation for the improvement of the Columbia river, and that virtually denies them an outlet for their surplus products. The law making power appropriated the money for this purpose, and now comes a republican administration and arbitrarily forbids its expenditure. Under these circumstances, a vote for Hayes is literally a vote in favor of closing up the country. The men who have spent the best years of their lives in making homes east of the mountains will know how to resent the outrage.

THE WHOLE TICKET.—We urge our democratic friends to vote the whole ticket. This is no time to vent personal spite, and the man who scratches his ticket will possibly imperil the success of the cause all over at heart. Roll up to the polls and vote the whole ticket from delegate down to constable. Next week we will celebrate the election of a democratic President, and the man who has scratched his ticket will not be able to join in the general jubilee.

BENJ. HARNED, nominee of the democrats of Thurston county for a seat in the legislature, declines the honor. It is to be regretted that such men as Mr. Harned cannot be induced to accept seats in the legislature. With men of his character to represent the people we should hear less of legislative jobbery and political corruption.

PRECINCT OFFICERS.—Messrs. O. P. Lacy and Frank Kimmerly are the democratic candidates for justice of the peace in Walla Walla Precinct. James B. Thompson for constable. North Walla Walla, Mike Kinney for justice of the peace, and A. J. Gregory for constable.

JUDSON AHEAD.—A special dispatch addressed to the STATESMAN, says that Judson has this week addressed the largest political meetings ever held on the Sound, and that he will leave that part of the territory with five hundred majority. Hurrah for Judson!

TILDEN STOCK UP.—Pools were sold in New York, on Wednesday, $700 to $300, that Tilden would carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. These three States render certain a democratic victory. Hip! hip! hurrah!

MEN OF MEANS will vote for George F. Thomas for sheriff, and thus assist in electing a man who can be relied upon to enforce the law, without "fear, favor or affection."

POOR MEN will vote for George F. Thomas for sheriff, and thus ensure the election of an officer who will sympathize with them when unfortunate.

ENCOURAGING IMMIGRATION.—A leading business man who has lately returned from the centennial, calls our attention to the fact that immigrants on the line of the Columbia river. He states that a number of immigrants came up at the time he did, and that they charged full rates both on the river and railroad. He is of the opinion that immigrants are limited in their means, and it is deemed a wise policy in other communities to invite this class of people by offering them low fares. We are told that immigrants wishing to reach the more important points in the Willamette valley are frequently taken through free of charge. It is scarcely possible to make an arrangement of this kind for our own section of country, but we think it would be well for the owners of the steamboat and railroad lines to arrange in all cases to bring immigrants through at half the usual rates. It is of the utmost importance for the owners of these lines to get people into the country, and this can best be done by cheapening the modes of travel. We offer this suggestion in the kindest feeling, and trust that our friends who control the means of access to the country will see it to their interest to carry immigrants at half rates for both fares and freight.

THE RACES.—Wednesday morning dawned clear and bright, affording a cheering contrast to the dark and gloomy weather that had prevailed for the previous week. As usual, the attendance at the race track was limited, but gradually increased until yesterday, when the crowd was immense. A friend kindly furnishes us with a report of the races: First day—First race was for $150, best 3 in 5 for the horses of the three minute class. It was won by Mr. Glasford's "Osgood," he beating "Silvie" and "General Sprague." Time was slow, being about 3 minutes. Silvie won the first heat; Sprague was distanced in the third heat for foul driving. Second day—1 1/2 mile heats, purse $100, was won by "Steggy Law" and "Sixty Six" and "Osgood" and "Scarred Charley." The first heat was a dead heat. Oregon Babs was the favorite. Next was a trotting race; 3 in 5 for two year olds, purse $150. The race was won by "Ila Laidy," beating "Hopless" and "Captain Jack" in three straight heats. The time was 3:30-3:21-3:35.

MILITARY ITEMS.—The commission to adjust the Willowa valley and Joseph's band of non-treaty Indians difficulty is looked for in a few days, probably Wednesday next. The commission consists of Gen. O. O. Howard, Col. H. Clay Wood, Col. D. Perry, Capt. S. G. Whipple and the following citizens: William Stickney, secretary of the board of Indian commission, D. H. Jerome, of Saginaw, Michigan, and A. C. Bristow of Providence, Rhode Island. This is a special commission appointed by the President under the peculiar circumstances in the premises, as the act of March 31, 1871, prohibits the negotiation of a formal treaty with any tribe or band of Indians. We hope a conclusive settlement may result from the grand pow-wow. The inauguration of the bi-weekly hops at the Garrison was held on Thursday night, and was much enjoyed by all present.

HON. WM. MARTIN, democratic candidate for member of the legislature, was in town yesterday. Mr. Martin is a gentleman from the country, and is confident of the election of the entire democratic ticket. In conversation with Mr. Martin we learned that he formerly lived on the Sound, and has an extensive acquaintance there whose influence he will be able to invoke in behalf of his immediate constituents. As already stated in these columns, Mr. Martin is a plain honest farmer, with ability and education that will make him a valuable representative.

BUSY TIMES.—Our merchants are so busy that it is difficult to get a word in edge ways. A day or two since we asked Mr. Fred Adams how business was, when the answer came that from "Wednesday morning, at 6 o'clock, to the following morning he was unable to get a bite to eat, too busy to go to his meals." We accepted this as proof positive that business is lively.

D. J. STORMS, Esq., democratic candidate for county commissioner, was in town yesterday, and brings favorable reports from his part of the county. Democrats generally will support the straight democratic ticket, and many republicans who are tired of corruption and misrule will vote the democratic ticket in whole or in part.

MEDICAL CARD.—We call attention to the card of Dr. E. S. Kellogg, in another column. Dr. Kellogg comes to us highly recommended, and those who secure his professional services have the fullest assurance that they will be treated skillfully and have all the advantages that science can bring to the relief of suffering humanity.

"THE TELLER" is the title of a new paper published at Lewiston, A. Leland & Son publishers. Mr. Leland is an able and experienced writer, and will tell many truths that the world will be all the better for knowing. Our friends of Northern Idaho, if they understand their own interests, will give their local paper a generous support.

TROTTING RACE.—The great trotting race for a purse of $500 will come off over the Driving Park Course, this (Saturday) afternoon. This race promises to be the most interesting event of the kind that ever transpired in the Northern country, and without doubt will attract a very large attendance.

SPOUSERS TICKETS.—We learn that so-called democratic tickets are being circulated in the county with the name of James P. Page for county auditor omitted and that of R. Jacobs substituted instead. These tickets are bogus and voters will beware of them.

THE GREAT RACE yesterday afternoon for the $500 purse was won by Billy Bingham in three straight heats. This horse was backed by our Portland friends, and as a matter of course they are jubilant.

M. OPPENHEIMER, Esq., democratic candidate for representative from Stevens county, is in town. Mr. Oppenheimer reports Stevens county as certain for Judson and the democratic ticket.

ACQUITTED.—At the District Court for Umatilla county, the jury in the case of Emert, charged with the murder of Gordon, returned a verdict of "Not guilty!"

TO THE PUBLIC.—Our readers will notice a card with this caption, under the head of "new advertisements."
