

Nobody Hurt.

The Presidential election is over and "nobody hurt." The Eastern dispatches indicate the election of "Abraham the First" to a second term in the White House.

The "Unionists" appear to act upon the principle that "everything is fair in war," and any story that is likely to serve immediate purposes, however false, is resorted to as a dernier resort.

It is possible that the returns, when all in, will decrease the reported large Republican majorities, but the result will not be changed. Mr. Lincoln will occupy the Presidential seat for another four years' term.

President Lincoln's re-election was honored at Fort Walla Walla, on Wednesday last, by the firing of one hundred rounds from their cannons.

"RALLY 'ROUND THE FLAG, BOYS."

There is a chance for everybody now to rally 'round the flag, and be in at the death of secession and rebellion. We have been informed of late by General Grant and through various sources, that the rebellion is near at an end, and that the war has only to be prosecuted vigorously for a short time to insure success to the Federal arms and the Union cause.

Did you never find when you go fishing (if you ever follow the gentle art) that the more you desire to fill your basket or bag, or whatever you may carry, the more difficult it is to do so, and the chances are that you return with downcast looks, and to the repeated inquiries of "What luck," you are obliged to answer "nary."

By the latest telegraphic dispatches to the Oregonians from the East, it appears that the Presidential election has not gone so one-sided as we were led to believe it had from the first dispatches published in that paper after the election.

But little news is given about the election in the Western States. Missouri has probably been carried for McClellan, and it is not yet certain that Indiana, Illinois, and some other States have gone for Lincoln.

WALLA WALLA, Nov. 18, 1864.

EDS. STATESMAN:—I must commence this letter with a P. S. to the last. When I do a wrong I always wish to rectify it if I can. I have wronged Walla Walla, and now wish to rectify. I did say this town was "chary of conferring titles."

I suppose you know that the Presidential Election is over—so is my letter. Yours, with distinguished respect, THE OLD MAN.

REV. T. H. PEARNE comes but in the Oregonian of the 15th in a very weak, a very ungentlemanly, and a certainly very unchristian article against Rev. Wm. Roberts. The gist of the whole thing seems to be that Mr. Roberts last spring published a series of articles in the Advocate against ministers of the gospel holding office.

Edward Stanly, formerly Military Governor of North Carolina by appointment of Mr. Lincoln, gives it as his firm belief, after a thorough investigation of affairs at the South, that the youngest man now living will not live to see the end of the war, if its prosecution is continued upon radical principles.

News of Nov. 9th.

The following States have given majorities for Lincoln and Johnson: New York, thirty-five thousand. Illinois, fifteen thousand. Pennsylvania, largely for Lincoln.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Partial returns from fifteen counties show a gain over the October election: The Union majority will exceed 40,000 on the home vote.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Illinois gives a Union majority of 20,000. Springfield, Nov. 9.—The States have given Union a majority in the Legislature. Democrats lose Congressmen in the 8th, 12th and 17th Districts.

News of Nov. 10th. Cincinnati, Nov. 9.—Officers from Chattanooga report that Sherman returned to Atlanta last week with five corps of his army, leaving the 2d corps of his army in Tennessee.

Carolina are at my mercy and I shall strike.

Do not be anxious about me. I am alright. The Times says that it has authentic information, that rebel emissaries in Canada have laid before the Provisional Government the purported basis of the secret treaty between the Richmond authorities and the Emperor Maximilian.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Partial returns from fifteen counties show a gain over the October election: The Union majority will exceed 40,000 on the home vote.

California is claimed for Lincoln by 10,000 to 20,000. The Dalles Mountaineer of a late date says that less than one year ago, the Dalles polled less than three hundred votes all told.

Notice by the dispatches that an election was held in Tennessee and that Lincoln carried the day there. By a law of Congress the Electoral vote of that State will not be counted; so it makes but little difference how the State has gone.

A "BROOM RANGER" IN OUR MIDST.

A majority of our readers are perhaps aware that organizations exist throughout California and Nevada, known as "Broom Rangers." These Rangers were supporters of General McClellan for the Presidency, and they would assemble in large numbers in the principal towns and cities, at political gatherings, and parade the streets with brooms upon their shoulders.

By the returns, it appears that Siskiyou county was carried for McClellan, so Mr. Pyle will be required to pile on the ball and chain and saw that little pile of wood.

FOUNDRY.—The Sisters of Charity found upon the doors of their Academy, one morning last week, an infant child, supposed to be half-Chinese. The little stranger, we learn, has been sent to the Orphan Asylum at Vancouver, and it has since been ascertained that the mother of the child is Chinese courtizan, living at the east end of Third street.
