Be not swift to take offense;
Let it pass.
Anger is a foe to sense;
Let it pass.
Brood not darkly o'er a wrong
Which will disappear ere long;
Rather sing the cheery song.
Let it pass, let it pass,

Strife corrodes the purest mind; As the unregarder wind,
As y vulgar souls that live
May condemn without reprieve;
"Tis the noble who forgive;
Let it pass, let it pass.

Let it pass, it.

Echo not an angry word;

Let it pass.

Think how often you have greed;

Since our joys must pass away,

'Like the dew-drops on the apray,

Wherefore should our sorrows atay?

Let it pass, let it pass.

If for goou ... Let it pure...
Oh, be kind and genute still,
Let it pass.
Time at last makes all things straight;
Let us not resent, but way.
Let us not resent, but way.
Let it pass, let it pass. If for good you've taken ill;

Bid your anger to depart;
Let it pass.
Let these homely words to heart,
Let it pass.
Follow not the girdy throng;
Better to be wronged than wrong;
Therefore sing the cheery song.
Let it pass, let it pass, let it pass.

The family is like a book—
The children are the leaves—
The parents are the cover, that Protective beauty gives.

At first the pages of the book Are blank and purely fair— But time soon writeth memories, And painteth pictures there.

Love is the little golden clasp

Should scatter and be lest.

A STORY OF LEAP YEAR.

Samuel Smith sat at home on New Year's Samuel Smith sat at home on New Year's day, in dishabille. His beard was unshaven, his hair uncombed, his long boots unblackened; he was leaning back in a picturesque attitude, with his heels against the mantlepiece, smoking a cigar. Samuel thought to himself that, as it was leap year, it would be glorious if the ladies would pop the question in accordance with their ancient privil-

As he sat watching the smoke which curled so gracefully, his fancy glowed with the idea; how delightful it would be to have the dear creatures fondling him, and with their tender glances endeavoring to do the agreeable.

As he mediated his heart softened, and he began to feal a squeamish, womanish sensa-tion diffused over his feelings, and he thought he would faint with propriety, the first time a lady squeezed his hand.

a lady squeezed his hand.

Rap, rap, rap, sounded at the door. Samuel peeped through the venetian blinds.

"Mercy!" exclaimed he. "If there isn't Miss Jones—and I in a dishabille, and looking like a fright—good gracious. I must go and fix myself."

He left the room, Miss Jones entered, and with a composed air, intimated thatshe could wait. She was a firm believer in woman's rights, and now that the season was propitious, she determined to take the advantage thereof, and do a little courting on her own hook. It was one of women's privileges which had been usurped by that tyrant man which had been usurped by that tyrant man and she determined to assert her rights in spite of the hollow formalties of the false system of society.
On Samuel's return to the room she exclaimed:

"Dearest how beautiful you look," accompanying her words with a look of undisguised admiration.
'Spare the blushes of a modest young man,' said Sam, applying the cambric to his face to hide his confusion.

The road leading from Walla Walla to the Ferry is far superior to the old Coiville road, and the country is better supplied with grass and water. The public will find it to their advantage to travel this road.

with my arm around thee, will I confess my true affection."

'Leave me, oh, leave me!' murmured Samuel; think of my youth and inexperience—spare my palpitating heart.'

'Leave thee?' said Susan, pressing him closer to her; 'never! until the story of restless nights of unrequited aspiration, fond emotion and undying love, is laid before, thee. Know that for years I have suffered for the a secret passiog. Need I tell the how such manly beauty moved me? How I worshipped like a sun-flower in the lurid light of those raven tresses? How my fond heart was enwrapped in the meshes of those magnificent whiskers? How I would yield to the government of that imperial! Thy manners so modest, so delicate, enchanted me—joy to me—for thy joy was my joy.—

My heart is ever thine; take it; but first let me snatch one kiss from those ruby lips.'

The overwhelming feelings of the delighted youth were too strong, and he fainted from excess of joy. Meanwhile, the enamored maiden hung fondly over him, and—

Slowly the eyes of Samuel Smith opened; he gazed wildly about him; then, meeting the ardent gaze of his lover, he blushed deeply, and from behind his pocket handker-ohief faintly faltered out: 'Ask my ma.'

george Augustus Sala writes to the London Tolegraph that 'Americans beat the world in hospitality, and says: In France, you know, you get little but sugar and water out of your friends; in Germany nothing but smoke, and in Haly there are some grand houses where you can only obtain supper by paying for it. In Spain you can procure nothing to eat, because beyond eggs and chocolate, and garlic, there is nothing to eat. But in the United States you may ruin your digestive organs for nothing, in a fortnight. If the oysters and canvass back ducks don't give you dyspepsia, the eternal ice creams and candied sweetmeats will; and when you fall sick you will find plenty of kind friends to press Hostetter's and Drake's Plantation Bitters as curatives, on your acceptance. All this is done in sheer, bountous generosity and kindness of heart.

Position in Sleeping.—It is better to go to sleep on the right side, for then the stomach is very much in the position of a bottle turned upside down, and the contents of it are aided in passing out by gravitation. If one goes to sleep on the left side the operation of emptying the stomach of its contents is more like drawing water from a well. After going to sleep let the body take its own position. If you sleep on your back, especially soon after eating a hearty meal, the weight of the digestive organs, and that of the food, resting on the great vein of the body, near the backbone, compresses it, and arrests the flow of the blood, more or less If the arrest is partial, the sleep is disturbed, and there are unpleasant dreams.—If the meal has been recent and heavy, the arrest is more decided; and the various sensations, such as falling over a precipice, or the present of a mid-heavy and the enter eathers mean. sations, such as falling over a precipice, or the pursuit of a wild beast, or other impendthe pursuit of a wild beast, or other impending danger, and the desperate effort to getrid of it, arouses us, and sends on the stagnating blood; and we wake in a fright or trembling, or perspiration, or feeling of exhaustion, according to the degree of stagnation, and the length and strength of the efforts made to escape the danger—when we do fall over the precipice,—when the tumbling building crushes us—what then? That is death! That is the death of those of whom it is said, when found lifeless in of whom it is said, when found lifeless in the morning—"That they were as well as they ever were the day before," and it is often added "and ate heartier than common!"

they ever were the day before," and it is often added "and ate heartier than common!" This last, as a frequent cause of death to those who have gone to bed to wake no more, we give merely as a private opinion. The possibility of its truth is enough to deter any rational man from a late and hearty meal. This we do know with certainty, that waking up in the night with painful diarrhose, or cholera, or billious choic, ending in death in a very short time, is properly traceable to a late large meal.

The truly wise will take the safe side.—For persons who eat three times a day, it is amply sufficient to make the last meal of cold bread and butter and a cup of some warm drink. No one can starve on it; while a perseverance in a habit, soon begets a vigorous appetite for breakfast, so promising a day of comfort.—Hall's Journal of Health.

MELANCHOLY JETTER.—The following is an extract of a letter, written under date of May 8th, by a soldier at Camp Douglas,
to a friend in this city:

"Have you heard any news of your brothers in the army, and how are they getting along? I would like to hear." I will tell you. 1st, Henry met with a serious accident near Laurel Hill, by the explosion of a box of cartridges, of which wound he has since died. 2d. Benjamin was at the same place, and was wounded in the leg, and had to suffer amputation, of which he died during the operation. 3d and 4th, Joseph and George were both killed at Newbern.
George was reported for some time as missing, but was afterwards found on the field dead. My fifth and only brother left was killed at Gettysburg, so you see I am the only one left out of the six. My sister, the

the only one lat have, is left awidow, her husband
having been killed at Lookout Mountain.
I also had an uncle killed at the same place. I have no doubt but you remember in name. You also ask me whether I will remain here or return to California, when I get my discharge. I shall do neither, for in the first place, I shall go to our little State in the East, and see my mother, and if I can be of any assistance to her I shall remain there. If I cannot assist her any, and uncle Sam wants a soldier, and will give him a chance to fight against therrobels, and have some revenge for my murdered brothers, It am his man slong as there is a robel in the field, unless they kill me too. My mother is now a raving maniae (and has been so since she heard the news from Newbern), and if can be of any assistance to her I shall remain there. If I cannot assist her any, and

The New York Evening Post says the people have made up their minds that the union shall stand, whether the constitution does or not. That is just as wise as to say, the doctors have made up their minds that the man shall live, whether the breath leaves his body or not. By the way, I must not forget to inforfing you of the last sensation in military circles. It is but natural that the soldiers, far away from their wives and sweethearts, retain all the fond recollections of the good old times of peace, and though rarely meeting educated and refined ladies out here in Dixie, they have not forgotten their old love for ringlets and crinoline. Brazil.—The Empire of Brazil is growing with a rapidity unexampled in the history of South America. Her products are chiefly of raw material; her imports comprehend the whole catalogue of manufactures. She has grown so vastly within a short space as to have secured for herself steam communication with Europe; she has grown daily with an increased power by reason of large immigration from England and the Mediterranean, in part, although the bulk arrives from Germany. A glance at the map will show what fitty years may be reasonably expected to do for her. Stretching from the fifth degree of north latitude to the thirty-third degree south, and thus containing the most favorable climate on the globe for staple agricultural products; extending from the seventh degree of cast longitude to the forty-second, having a territory of three millions nine hundred and fifty-six thousand equare miles, or about one million in excess of the United States; with a notice of the second states with a notice.

From the latter place there is railroad communication to all parts of the northern States .-Mr. Adams, (formerly of Bitter Root valley) Paymaster, and at at present acting Road Agent for the line, arrived here this week from the East. From him we learn that the line is "stocked" through from Salt Lake to Boise City. At present, however, the stations are only temporary structures, but gangs of workmen are employed along the line in building substantial houses suited for the accommodation of travelers This work will be pushed rapidly forward and completed before the close of the present summer. During this season, Mr. Holliday will run only five passenger coaches from here to Salt Lake, and next spring he will put on coaches capable of carrying nine passengers. The rate of fare through is not fixed yet, but it will probably be about $150 from here to Atchison. For the present Messrs. Thomas & Co.'s line of stages will carry the mail from here to Boise city.

Postmaster Kelly informs us that all le ter mail intended for the East, will hereafter be sent from the office by this line, unless otherwise directed.

An agent of the Freedmen's Association is about to visit Oregon for the purpose of procuring donations from the citizens of that State and those of this Territory to support the negroes that have been freed duing the present war. Those who have been clamorous for the freedom of the negroes should by all means be willing to con tribute liberally toward their support when freed; but we notice that the Union papers on this coast turn the cold shoulder upon the objects of their former solicitude, and when they deign to notice the Freedmen's Association at all, it is done in such a niggardly manner that the cause receives there by much more injury than benefit. They as much as say, "An agent of the Freedmen's Association will soon be among us asking alms for those poor long-heeled negroes, but don't you give him a cent, to save his life." That is the kind of aid they are giving, when instead, (at least to be coneistent) they should be giving the Associa tion favorable notices, and urging the peo-ple to come forward with substantial contributions. However, we are not surprised to find the public pulse waning, financially, from the over-strained pressure of matter of this kind. The government has taken care to free the negroes and it is now supporting vast numbers of them and the ba ance ought to be able to work and support themselves, as white men do. see why the freedmen should be entitled to sympathy and aid above poor white folks, and we hear of no poor Whitemen's Associ ation being formed anywhere.

Major-General Irwin McDowell is said to be on his way to California, to take command of the Military Department of the Pacific. We hope that McDowell will be able to give as universal satisfaction in his management on the coast as General Wright has done. Gen. Wright has the advantage of being thoroughly acquainted with affairs here, besides having the confidence of the people, who look upon him as an able officer and trustworthy man, while McDowel will come as a stranger, having much to learn in the new department assigned him.

The bill to establish a Branch Mint at the Dalles, Oregon, has passed the U. S. Senate, and has been favorably reported upon by the Finance Committee of the It is thought the bill, when called up, will pass the House without opposition. We would rather see the Mint located a litthe higher up the Columbia but Oregon had the "drop" on us, and we accept the Dalles as a much better location than a point lower down.

GOLD DISCOVERY AT PORT ANGELOS. A prospecting party lately left Port Angelos, in this Territory, and found gold on two small streams that put into the harbon near the town. On White creek several bars were found from which an average prospect of five cents to the pan was obtained. ecimens of quartz rock were also found which, when assayed, proved to contain both gold and silver. Our Puget Sound brethren may yet have occasion to rejoice over the discovery of paying mines in their section of the Territory. Puget Sound is al-ready noted for its valuable oyster beds, its lumber advantages and its coal beds, and should it also prove to be a gold and silver preducing region, will eventually be the ost important district along the Pacific coast.

Letter From Grand Ronde

PHILLIPS' RANCH, June 25, 1864.

EDS. STATESMAN:—I am now traveling through this part of Oregon, not to take "a peep at Washoe," but to visit the different mining camps in Idaho. I propose now to give your readers the benefit of a few items in regard to my trip thus far; and to those who expect to take a similar tour, a few porhaps, valuable hints. I left Walla Walla on the 21st inst., coming as far as the Walla Walla river that evening. On the following morning I started on my journey over the mountains, by way of the Linkton road.—Making a short drive, I brought up, about 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Charles Hotel, on the summit of the mountains. This PHILLIPS' RANCH, June 25, 1864. 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Charles Hotel, on the summit of the mountain. This Hotel, on the summit of the mountain. This popular stopping-place is owned and kept by Mr. Charles Besserer and lady; and here let me say, although I do not intend puffing the numerous hotel keepers on this road, that Mr. B. makes a model boniface and Mrs. Besserer as landlady has no equal—"she wears the belt." Taking my leave of the Charles Hotel on the morning of the 23d, I came to Phillips' Ranch, at the foot of the mountains, in this deliability allen. 23d, I came to Phillips' Ranch, at the foot of the mountains, in this delightful valley. This preferable place, for the entertainment of the traveling community, is owned by Messrs. Phillips & McGoey, two young men who seem to spare no pains in making their customers comfortable and happy. I will only add that persons leaving Walla Walla can route to any portion of Idaho, west and south of the Blue mountain range, will do well to travel this road, making the drives as I have done.

The road across the mountains is said to he, by those who have traveled it, from the time it was opened in the spring to the pres-ent, in worse condition than they have ever seen it, owing to late rains. However, I ent, in worse condition than they have ever seen it, owing to late rains. However, I do not think it a bad one even at this time. The gentleman with whom I took passage from Walla Walla, had his wagon loaded with about 1200 pounds; and with one pair of horses, small ones too, brought it to this place without any trouble. The stage goes or comes over the mountain every day; and wakes good time.

or comes over the mountain every day; and makes good time.

It has been raining for the last few days in this part of the country; and no "Oregon mist" about it either, but in a regular old Pennsylvania fashion, and from appearances now it will not "light up" for several days to come without some timely interference of the "weather clerk."

The emigration from the Atlantic side

The emigration from the Atlantic side The emigration from the Atlantic side has already made its appearance in this valley. Those who have already arrived, report large numbers behind them. One train hus arrived which reports itself as coming from the Missouri river this spring—and by the Reese River route.

Before this will have reached you, you will be called upon to notice the crowded will be called upon to notice the crowded appearance of the streets of your city, with Kootena miners. It would seem that the people of the Boise Basin have heard somepeople of the Boise Basin have heard some-thing from that quarter more than we have down this way; and, yet, those with whom I have talked on the subject, have no reli-able news, but are going because they have heard that some man in Walla Walla has received. a letter from some friend in those mines, who states that gold has been found in abundance there, and of such a quality that it is worth twice as much ner ounce as that it is worth twice as much per ounce as any heretofore discovered.

Mr. Gordon and a few others who live in Mr. Gordon and a few others who live to this vicinity, have recently returned from a prospecting trip in the direction of the Eagle Creek mines. They report finding gold; but the streams were too high to allow them to prospect thoroughly.

I shall write you from time to time as I journey through this land of gold, giving you some of the incidents of my trip.

"HTEMS."

EDS. STATESMAN :- I enclose a paper containing some facts connected with the the murder of Louis Raboin ; it was handed to me by a deputation of the settlers of the Tukanon and Coppei. As there was no inquest held, the people of that section thought t would be proper, to make public through the columns of your paper, such facts as they were able to establish. Mr. Freemen, who had been out with a party until Saturday evening, told me that they had succeeded in tracking the murderrs (there were two) up the Tukanon about four miles to where their horses had been concealed, and from there after many windings over stony ground, they had turned up a rocky ridge toward Assotin. The necessary steps have been taken for the apprehension of the guilty parties, and when this is accomplished, it is to be hoped that they may meet with their just deserts.

Louis Kaboin was a native of St. Louis, Missouri, and came to the Mountains in 1830, with an expedition of the American Fur Company. He was one of the pomeers of this country, and was known by all to be an honest man and a good citizen.

June 23d, 1864. \{\}
We, the undersigned citizens of Walla Walla county, submit the following statements of facts in connection with the shoot-

ments of facts in connection with the shooting and killing of Louis Raboin, familiarly known as Loui Marango.

We proceeded from his house about onefourth of a mile to where he and his little son had been hoeing in a tobacco patch, and upon examination we found moccasin tracks near by; also, the gress and weeds broken down in three different places immediately in the edge of the brush, (the place we bein the edge of the brush, (the place we be-lieve where the fatal shot was discharged) and at the short distance of but twenty pa and at the short distance of but twenty paces from where Raboin was hoeing.

We made diligent search about and around the place in order to obtain a farther clue to the nurder, but without effect, and from the appearances, we are led to believe there have were two or more persons engraced that there were two or more persons engage in the murder, and that they were Indian The shot was fired from a large sized gub or pistol, and entered the left side of the body immediately under the arm, the ball remain-ing in the body, producing death in about three hours.

HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN .-Amory Holbrook, formerly editor of the Oregonian and for some time principal Agent for the Sanitary Commission in Oreegon, is being handled without gloves by his late political associates and boon companions, for the almost (it would seem) criminal act of running as an independent candidate for the Legislature, outside of the Union organization. Holbrook not only suffered an overwhelming defeat at the balstigma of being denounced a fraitor and altogether unworthy to be trusted with funds for the Sanitary Commission. Many of his fellow-citizens have avowed a determination to contribute no more funds for sanitary pur poses while he remains the authorized agent He will undoubtedly soon be superceded by some one who sympathi-zes more earnestly with "our glorious party." But a few short weeks ago, Amory was one of Oregon's little great men-the quintessence of pure "loyalty" and the embediment of all that was patriotic and noble. Now he is down, beneath the notice of subservient politicians, kicked and cuffed by understrappers, with bitter reproach upon his name from former friends. So goes the world, with some men. Like bub-

SISTER'S SCHOOL .- The first half of the cond quarter of the Sister's school closed this week. The school will be opened again on the 1st of September. During vacation the Sisters will endeavor to complete their establishment in order to accommodate the numerous applications that are daily made for boarding scholars. We are requested to state that owing to the prevalence of the mall pox in the city during the last term the receipts of the institution were materially reduced, in consequence of which the Sisters will again be compelled to call upon those who may feel disposed to assist them in the completion of their building, so that the Florence mines are situated. they may be prepared to meet the wants of the public.

HEAVY HAIL STORM .- One of the erest hail storms on record visited Indian valley on Saturday last. From Mr. Phillips of Phillips & Co's ranch, we learn that the hail fell to a depth of four inches on their place. Their barley and oats crops were beat down level with the ground. The barley is totally ruined, and the oats, which was not "jointed," may possibly revive. The vegetables in the vicinity were totally destroyed, and the pine trees were almost stripoed bare of their leaves. Messrs. Phillips & Co. were damaged to the amount of five or six thousand dollars by the destruction of their crops. The storm passed over a space of about three miles in width, and did ot extend into the main (Grand Ronde) valley.

VALLANDIGHAM.—The dispatches say that the Democracy of Ohio have appointed C. L. Vallandigham a Delegate to the Chieago Convention. This may have had some effect in the postponement of the Convention. At all events, if he has been made a delegate, and if such men as he are to shape the platform upon which a candidate for the Presidency is to be nominated, the national committe would do just as well to postpone the convention until after the Presidential election.

There are many well qualified young n now belonging to the Oregon cavalry, both of officers, non-commissioned officers and privates, who would be glad to enter the serrice as officers in the colored regiments, and it would seem to be but liberal and fair that they should have the opportunity. These young men are aware of the high standard required for officers of the regiments referred to, and are willing, yea, anxious, to submit their qualifications to the decision of properly constituted Board of officers ap-

Give them a Board by all means and let them sail in. We have before understood that some men belonging to the Oregon cavalry were anxious to go into active service in the East, but this is the first intimation we have had that it was their desire to gold. get into colored regiments.

FROM KOOTENAL.-Two or three perous have arrived this week from the above country. Their opinions of the miner about accord with those that we have for merly published; some expressing a bilief that the mines will prove to be rich and ex tensive, and others asserting that if some thing more is not found than has already been discovered, it will not pay men to go there. This is both sides of the subject, briefly told.

To Tax Payens .- Treasurer McAuliff gives notice to-day that the tax books for the county are in his hands ready for the receipt of taxes. Those who would save the 10 per cent. added, for collection, should remember and not hold on to their scrip and greenbacks more than fifty-nine days from this date.

THE LAND OFFICERS COMING .- Mr. H. Parker states that the Land officers will visit this city again, this season; provided enough business can be obtained here to justify them in coming. They may be ex- rally made preparations to appropriately pected in two or three months.

IDEAS .- We are getting them-treasur ing them up in our memory-everybody's deas upon the subject of the war, "lying dispatches," democracy, republicanism, unionism, radicalism, and all the other isms,and if they don't take the hint pretty soon that the composing room of a printing office is no place to discuss politics, we'll "print 'em." We are no secesh nor radical on either side, but you can bet your bottom dollar we are a determined cass when we get started, and some day when we are at work at the case without copy, vainly endeavoring to set up a "local" and listen to you at the same time, we'll get radical and take our text" from your mouths, and show the public your peculiar qualifications for berths at Alcatraz or Fort Lafavette, or for association with the inmates of an Alabama plantation. Don't all get frightened at once, but come along, take seats, look over the "exchanges"

FROM PAYETTE MINES .- Mr. Ousley, arrived here this week from Gold Fork-a tributary of the Payette river-bringing with him 100 ounces of gold dust. The lot was assayed by Dr. J. H. Day, and netted $16 12 per oz.

Mr. Ousley says the company with which and-keep quiet.

he is interested on Gold Fork is the only one engaged in mining there at present, though others are prospecting with a view of getting to work. The diggings where the company are at work, are situated be-tween the Warrren and Placerville mines, being about fifty miles distant from either point. The gold is fine and is collected in the sluices with quicksilver. The company have so far worked on a hill some distance above the level of the stream, mak ing from $16 to $20 per day to the hand. Mr. Ousley thinks good pay will be found in the bed of the stream when the water gets low so that it can be prospected. He says that but very little prospecting has been done there as yet. Gold Fork is as large a stream as Slate creek, upon which ELECTED .- Mr. S. B. Fargo has received a letter from the county Auditor of Stevens county, stating that he received 147 votes for Prosecuting Attorney in that county -Mr. Lasater, the opposing candidate, owing, we suppose, to the fact that there were no tickets circulated with his name upon them Mr. Lesater's majority was 138 in this county. Mr. Fargo is therefore elected by 9 votes. The total number of votes polled in Stevens this year was 156-a gain of 66 over the vote of last year.

NEWSPAPORIAL .- It is reported that the Oregon Democrat and Eugene City Review are soon to be removed to Salem, where the two papers, will be consolidated into one sheet. It is also stated that the publishers of the Salem Statesman, intend issuing daily edition after the fourth of July.

Col. T'Vault of the Jacksonville Intelli gencer, who was a candidate in the late Oregon election for Prosecuting Attorney, was defeated by one vote. He olaims that his opponent received about fifteen tillegal votes. Old T. acknowledges his defeat and appears contented wiffs the reflection that he come within one of being elected.

A QUESTION FOR LAWYERS.—The following paragraph is going the rounds of the California papers:

"In Alpine county hives a lady who some time since got married, as all women love to do. Four weeks after her busband was killed in a claim, and in three weeks she married again. Her second busband lived only two weeks, and in two weeks after his death she married his brother, and six months after she married the last time gave bigth to a child by her first husband." birth to a child by her first husband.

The question is, what should the name of the child he? Which of the three husbands should the child be named after?

Vice President Hamlin is understood to e a warm sympathizer with the Fremont party, consequently his name was dropped in the Baltimore Convention.

It is stated that there are twenty-seven newspapers in the Western States which are out in support of Fremont for the Presidency.

THE PIC NIC .- The Committee of Arrangements are having the ground cleared and fitted up in nice order for the pic-nic on the 4th. A table is being set up in the grove, and workmen are engaged in building a shade over it, composed of green boughs. We have not visited the ground, but those who have, say it is just the place where every body can spend the 4th patriotically and agreeably, if they wish to .it should not forget that the table is to be provided by donations, and to guard against the possible contingency of a scarcity of edibles on the occasion, persons living outside of town would do well to bring along with them a "piece." We learn that a committee of ladies, appointed for the purpose, visited all the families in town this week in any easo hereafter in which the app for the benefit of the homestead and age for the thirsty.

After the Firemen's Parade in the morning, the procession will form at the M. E. Church at 103 o'clock and march to the grove, where the exercises of the day-consieting of an Oration, Reading of the Declaration of Independence, music by the Brass Band, singing, etc -will be carried out according to the previously published programme. In behalf of the Committee of Arrangements, we again say that an cornest invitation to be present is extended to INVITATION .- Don't forget, you who love to "trip the light fantastic toe," that you are invited to attend the Firemen's Bull, which is to conclude the exercises of the day in this city on the "glorious Fourth." The Ball is to take place at Ryan's Hall, and the supper at Mr. Taylor's City Hotel. All barrangements are made to make the evening's entertainment an agrecable one

HARDWARE STORE -- Mr. Wm. Phillips has opened a Hardware Store, in conection with his stove and tin establishment in this city.

ATTENTION COMPANY .- The annual election of officers for Washington Engine Company takes place this evening. A full attendance is desired at the meeting.

KOOTENAI DUST .- Mr. Gray, packer arrived this week from Kootenai, bringing with him forty ounces of dust from that country. Mr. G. took a small train from here last March, and intends to return again.

Orowds of miners are now coming down from Boise to go to Kootenai. Many of them continue straight on their journey while others, after arriving here conclude to await further developments.

· HARVESTING .- Most of the farmers in the valley are now busily engaged harvesting their barley and wheat crops.

CUSTOM QUARTZ MILL.-Messrs. Robie & Bush are removing their steam Saw Mill from Lewiston to Owyhee, where they pro-pose to convert it into a quartz mill. They will run it solely as a custom mill.

The Sac. Union says that a new bank, called the Bank of California has been in-corporated to do business in San Francisco. The capital stock is $2,000,000.

ROLL OF THE LEGION OF HONON.—The following firms have signed an agreement to close their stores on the Fourth, provided all the other stores in town are closed at the same time:

are closed at the same time:

Howard & Cady, L. Mayer & Ca, J. Ellis & Co, E. Sheil, Wm. Philips, M. L. Frank & Ca, J. Rosenthal, Mrs. Sanana, H. Parker, A. Seltel, J. D. Oork & Co, Brown, Wolf & Co, J. C. Leanes, Kyger & Resse, Kehlhauff & Guildard, O. Jacobs & Co, D. S. Baker & Co, A. McKay, A. Frank, Kelly & Johnson, Geo Stage.

Savage.

Mr. Cook, who circulated the petition, informs us that there are seven firms who refused to sign it, but they separately agree to close up if the others will. Geutlemen four be pseudiar, but close up and enjoy the day with the balance of your fellow-citizens. Pecuniarily, it won't make a cent's difference with you, and socially and physically you cannot fail to be immensely-improved by one day's recreation such as that promises to be.

Howe Asam.—Ned. Kelly, after an absence of firse months, is again at his cld place in the post flice, looking much improved in health, and is as at-ative and obliging as usual.

the fees and allowances provided by this Act, fifty per cent. of said fees and allowances as compensation for their services; provided that the salary and fees allowed any Register or Receiver shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of $3,000 per annum. Approved March 21, 1864.

An act in relation to university lands in Washington Territory,

Whereas it is declared in the fourth section of the act of Congress approved July 17th, 1854, amendatory of the act approved September 27th, 1850, creating the office of surveyor general of the public lands in Oregon, etc., "that in lieu of the townships of land granted to the Territory of Oregon, by the tenth section of the act of 1850, for universities, there shall be reserved to each of the Territories of Washington and Oregon two townships of land of thirty sections each, to be selected in legal subdivisions, for university purposes, under the direction of the Legislatures of said Territories, respectively;" and whereas it is represented that sales have been made by the Territorial authorities of lands selected in virtue of the terns of said act of 17th of July, 1854, authorizing selections to be "reserved," merely under Whereas it is declared in the fourth said act of 17th of July, 1854, authorizing selections to be "reserved," merely under the conviction that they had the power to dispose of the same as a fee-simple grant:— Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in all cases of sales made to individuals by the Territorial authorities prior to the passage of of this act, in which it may be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that such sales were bona fide, and of the class hereinbefore mentioned, and that the tracts so sold are selections in all other respects regular and proper, it shall and may be pects regular and proper, it shall and may be lawful for the said Secretary to approve such selection as a grant in fee-simple, and a transcript, certified under the seal of the General Land Office by the Commissioner thereof, of such approval, shall vest, the title in the Territory and in its bona fide vendees.

Approved March 14, 1864.

SALUTE.—Some of the pairiotic citizens have ob-tained a gun from the Fort with which to fire a Na-tional salute in the city on the morning of the 4th.

The Albany (N. Y.) Journal publishes a table exhibiting the results of the town meetings, in all the counties in New York except two—Putnam and Suffolk. The whole humber of Supervisors elected is 1,005. Of these, the Union party have elected 536—the Democrats 869. Union majority, 267. The Union mun. have gained 102 since last year, distributed through 37 counties—the Democrats gain 8, in 7 counties—the Union gain 94. The Union party have the Boards of Supervisors in 38 counties, the Democrats of Supervisors in 38 counties, the Democrats in 11, tied, 6. THE Richmond Examiner of the 2d of May concludes an article on the military situation in Virginia as follows: "If we hold our own in Virginia till this summer is ended the North's power for mischief will ercrywhere be gone. If we lose, the South's capacity for resistance will be broken. The Confederacy has ample power to keep its place in Virginia if employed with energy and consistency, and this is the last year of the war whichever wins."

FOREIGN INTERFERENCE AGAIN .- The Paris correspondent of the London Times learns that the French Government has sent two delegates to America—one civil and the two delegates to America—one civil and the other military—to ascertain and report upon the real state of the condition of affairs, and of the immense slaughter in the present war. Overtures have also been made by France to England, with the view to devise some means of putting a stop to the frightful carnage. He reviews the affairs in Virginia as unfavorable to the Federal cause, and will not be surprised to hear of Grant's failure.

Cold are my feet, warmth is unknown;
For I'm a batchelor, sleeping alone.
No gentle voice, no loving, kisse
Makes me rejoice in rapturous bilas.
No one to hug—I am undrea't,
Sleeping alone in may batchelor nest;
Cold are my feet, warmth is unknown;
For I'm'a batchelor, sleeping alone.

In dreams alone loved ones I see And well known voices then whisper to me; Sighing, I swa-feel like a sheep, To find I've only been feeled in my sleep. Oh, dreafful thought! what man would stay Unmarried, uncaught, from woman away? No one to hop, &c.

No one to hug—I am undres't—
None one to share my batchelor nest.
Trusting I wait, like a lone dove,
For a dear mate to share in my love.
Oh, bliss in store, oh, joy mine own,
Then never more I'll sleep alone.
No one to love, &c.

Inen, teah is look in Innagine something purer far, More free from stain of clay. Than Friendship, Lova or Fassion are, Yet human still are they. And if thy lips, for love like this No mortal word can frame, Go, ask of angels what it is, And call it by that name.

No mortal word can frame, Go. ask of angels what it is, And call it by that name.

Borrowing Trouble.—The most miserable mortal, perhaps, upon this missmic sphere, is he who has no present ills to complain of—except an overburden of gold and nothing to do—but who beats the bushes of Future till he wakes up lions, wild cats and tigers, and brings a nest of hornets about his ears. He sees more horrid scepters and ominous apparitions in the distance than I can count daisies of delight blooming in my pathway; and a soul-quake threatens momentarily to demolish his wretched carnal habitation. His trembling imagination looks out daily from its mud-built cell, and every to-morrow is a deep valley of gloom, filled with devouring orgics, howling at the savory scent of his treasures. A little cloud, not bigger than a man's hand, brews for him a storm of evil quicker than an old woman and ignited charcoal can raise a tempest in a tea kettle. Poor mortal! he is as blind as a bat at mid day—blind to everything but the innumerable goblins of wow which stalk in the darkness before him; deaf as an ader to all sounds save those that howl of approaching want and misery.

Rich, and surrounded with all the comforts that the world can bestow, he will go a fishing in the stagnant pools of the future for ills that he knows not of; and he is sure to get more bites in a minute, than I would to fish for a week at his elbow. Unbappy human! to look out day after day, from a goldon palace, upon an everlasting expanse of darkness and gloom! How much more fitting it is for me to sit in the door of poverty, with Contentment for my wife, and a crust for my dinner, and behold the blessed unshine gladdening the fields, and the dawn of still brighter days to come easting its sheen upon the distant mountain tope!

—or to throw one leg across the other, and watch the smoke from my pipe ascending in graceful wreathes to the happy heaven above!

It is a fact remarkable that the best talkers are almost invariably devoid of judgment. Their mouths seem like patent lexicons from which words issue with machanical precision; yet they will not bear the analyzation of the silent listener. He would compare them to the sparks that fly from the blacksmith's anvil or the sounds that emanate from the windharp—bright to look upon or pleasant to listen to, but thrown out only to die with the passing moment. The rapid talker is always vascilating in disposition, while he who thinks twice before he speaks rarely every fails in arriving at a correct conclusion, and it requires something more than words to induce him to change his opinions.

WHERE OUR GOLD GOES.—The official reports show that during the last nine months past, the imports at New York have amounted to $100,000,000 in gold—equal, including the difference in exchange, freight and insurance, to more than twice that sum; while the exports during the same time amount to about $120,000,000 in paper.—To check such a bad condition of affairs was the chief motive for increasing the tariff.

To admire the poet, the hero and the author one should be acquainted with them only in their writings and deeds. Poets and authors are often the most insipid conversationalists, and there is nothing truer than the saying that "a hero is not a hero to his valet."

CONTEMPLATION.—There is no lasting pleasure but contemplation; all others grow flat and insipid upon frequent use; and when a man hath run through a set of vanities, in the declension of his age he knows not what to do with himself, if he cannot think. He saunters about from one dull business to another, to wear out time; and hath no reason to value life except that he is afraid of death.
