

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

We have at last reached a point where there is really something to do that will count toward making Washington a state; and something to do which must be done promptly, carefully, and with a purpose single to the best interests of all.

The citizens of Ellensburg, acting upon the generous impulse characteristic of them, called an informal meeting, presided over by Mayor Adams, who is also president of the board of trade, and extended a cordial invitation to the territory to hold a constitutional convention here on the 4th of July.

The P-I prints the dispatch, as she is bound to do in fulfillment of her contract, but fails to make further comparison of the manners of the two places.

The Wickersham, or Pellowham sedition case, as it has been dubbed, is a nasty morsel for unclean tongues to roll around in unclean mouths.

At the time when it was generally conceded that the fifth congress would let the session slip by without passing the admission bill the Board of Trade of Yakima, with the welfare of the territory at heart and in hopes of hastening our enfranchisement, petitioned the governor to call a constitutional convention, and extended the hospitalities of the city to the delegates about Yakima to be named as the place of meeting.

NOTES OF NEWS.

Brief Paragraphs Taken From the Telegraph Wires—What the World at Large is Doing.

Another bill is before congress to repeal all land laws but the homestead law.

President-elect Harrison and party are now at Washington and quartered at the Arlington hotel.

Dave Wilson's new hotel at Davenport will cost $10,000. It is to have three stories, a Mansard roof and to be hard finished.

Spokane has 44 saloons, 41 real estate firms, 23 grocery stores, 17 dry goods stores, 15 hotels, 12 cigar stores, and 11 meat markets.

Johanne Powers, 11 years old, was taken to the county asylum at Orange Farm, N. Y., a ravaging maniac from the effects of excessive cigar smoking.

To become a policeman in Seattle a man must be five feet and ten inches in height, be between 25 and 45 years of age, must weigh 165 pounds and must not drink.

Bell Boy, the famous trotting stallion, was sold on the 21st inst. to J. H. Clark of New York for $15,000, the highest price ever paid for a horse in the United States at either public or private sale.

Waterville, W. T., is having a boom. Last spring there were six or seven houses; now there are about one hundred houses and about three hundred inhabitants, with new houses going up all the time.

There is but little doubt that the congressional bill requiring residence of five years and ability to read the constitution in English before a foreigner can be naturalized in the United States will become a law.

Gwin Hick, deputy collector of internal revenue, has resigned, to take effect July 1. As Mr. Hicks was prominent in democratic councils during the late contest, President Harrison may hasten his resignation.

Dr. Joseph Parker of London has distanced all the sensational preachers in the race for popularity by his invitation to workmen to come in their working clothes and bring their pipes and their dinner pails with them. Dr. Parker is evidently in no danger of falling into the soup.

Washington territory leads every state and territory in the Union in the yield of wheat per acre. In the official reports of the government the greatest yield of any state is that of Oregon, placed at 16.3 bushels per acre, and the largest yield in the United States is accorded to Washington territory, being 18.5 bushels per acre.

The great Parnell-London Times suit is about finished. Plott has confessed that the alleged Parnell letters, on which the hopes of the Times were based, are forgeries and that he, Pigott, did the forging of all letters ascribed to Parnell, Egan, Davitt and O'Kelly. Warrants are out for the arrest of Pigott on the charge of perjury and forgery but he has fled. Davitt says that the Times and the government have aided Pigott to escape.

Thinking a description of some of the peculiar and somewhat unique and wonderful characteristics of Honey Lake valley might interest some of our readers at least, I will tell what I saw on a trip to the east end of the valley. Honey lake, a body of water which in the past occupied an area of several thousand acres, sank from sight in the month of June last and remained out of sight up to within a week or two past, notwithstanding two streams about the size of the Klickitat are constantly discharging their waters into its bed. At present it is very copiously overflowing in sight again. The lake took its name from the great deposits of honey dew in the early settlement of the valley. But at present I would more particularly call attention to the boiling springs, a number of which rise near the border of the lake on the northeast side. These rise out of a level plain not less than a mile from the surrounding hills in a vast tract of alluvial soil as white as though covered with snow.

There are quite a number of these springs, and they extend for three or four miles along the border of the lake when it is at its largest extension. Each spring has some peculiar characteristics of its own. The largest one of all throws out a volume of water four feet wide and four inches deep as clear as crystal, and boils with such energy that the water comes up a foot above the still water around and jets of water are constantly spurting much higher and the roaring, hissing and sputtering is so loud that our team would not willingly go near. If this is the place discovered by emigrant Dutchman when he so urgently requested Hans to drive on for God's sake for his astanic majesty's Jonimon was not one mile away, one can hardly wonder at his fears.

If some of our Klickitat bacon manufacturers could import this spring it would make a great saving of fuel. I felt of this stream six or eight rods below where it issues from the ground and found that it was hot enough for scalding and I was told the water where it came from the ground was hotter than water can be made artificially. Here is a nut for philo-sophers to crack. The other springs, a number of which rise near this large one, are of different degrees of heat, all from boiling down to cold. In one place a cold and a hot spring are near enough together that by lying down, one hand can be placed in one and the other hand in the other. A large volume of steam arises from the head of the spring and for a long distance along the stream its course can be readily traced by the rising steam. I was told by my guide that in the past an overheated dog one summer day came running up to the pool at the head of this spring and plunged in and could not get out alive. I was also informed that it is excellent sanitarially for sweat baths for persons who are troubled with rheumatism. The steam gives off a sulphuric odor.

Increased confidence on the part of Northern Yakimaites is caused by the supposition that the branch road of the Northern Pacific, diverging from Cheney, will strike their town, in the course of time, and this impression is sustained by the movements of the company. It is believed that the Northern Pacific is on the inside track, and that North Yakima will secure the capital.—East Oregonian.

The Chinese railroad and other laborers, numbering about forty, in and about Tekoa, a town located on the edge of the Cour d'Alene reservation, were recently compelled to leave for other parts. About 200 white men gathered, gave the Chinese "warning," assisted them to pack their grips and escorted them quite a distance on their way to Farmington.

D. 1890, authorizing me to sell the community real estate owned by the deceased Annie Hill and myself, her surviving husband, I will on FRIDAY, MARCH 15TH, 1890, beginning at the hour of 2 P. M., at public auction, at the front door of the Court House of Yakima county, in the city of Yakima, Washington Territory, sell all of the following described real estate so ordered to be sold, situated in Yakima county, Washington Territory, to-wit: Lot four (4) in block thirty-one (31), lots five, six and six, in block forty-eight, lot one, in block sixty-nine, and lots nine, ten, eleven, and twelve, in block sixty-seven, of the range 22, sec. 22, Twp. 11 N., R. 20 E., W. 4., and also the original plat of the city of North Yakima, said county and territory filed in the office of the auditor of said county.

ROSLYN MINES AND MINERS.—There is a patched-up peace at Roslyn, and all of the miners, white and black, are now at work. The disturbing element which has been the cause of all the trouble and strikes in which the whites engaged have left for other black diamond fields. The white miners remaining, about two hundred, have gone to work in the same mines with the darkies, but there is no affiliation between the two. Before the whites resumed work concessions were made, and now the miners receive $1 per ton, when preceding the strike they were paid $1.15. Kongley, the manager of the mine, has gone east, but will return in April, when he will be prepared to contract with the white miners for yearly work. By this means it is thought that strikes will be obviated. If satisfactory arrangements can be made, the colored miners will be worked exclusively in mine No. 3. A new mine is to be opened as soon as possible, and the diamond drill has again been called into play to fix upon the proper location.

ANOTHER BUSINESS HOUSE.—H. Kuehler, late of Pleasanton, Cal., has rented the building on Yakima avenue, vacated by Goodwin, Strobach & Pugsley, and is having it rearranged and a new front built preparatory to opening therein a $15,000 stock of jewelry, clocks and silverware. The Pleasanton, (Cal.) Star thus speaks of Mr. Kuehler's change of base: "Mr. H. Kuehler leaves for North Yakima, Washington Territory, next week. We much regret his leaving. He is a workman of fine abilities. We but voice the sentiment of the people of this section when we say that his going will be deplored by all. What is our loss in Yakima's gain. He goes from here not because he did not do a good business, but because he prefers a much larger territory. If attention to business and first-class abilities as a workman amount to anything, he will succeed."

HARD LINES FOR OFFICERS-ELECT.—The admission of Washington expects the calculations of a good many people. The terms of the newly elected county officers will be brief unless they are re-elected at the polls in October. Barring a possible special session of congress John B. Allen, delegate-elect, will never take his seat, and the members-elect of the territorial legislature are in the same box, for, unless the governor calls a special session to provide for expenses of the constitutional convention and the apportionment of delegates for the different districts, the honor of their election will be all that is left to them unless it is the incident of expense contracted in canvassing.

EMBEZZLED FROM THE COUNTY, TOO.—Wilson, the Roslyn justice of the peace, is in for a heap o' trouble. He now languishes behind the bars for embezzling the funds of the Roslyn lodge of Knights of Labor, and when he gets through with that scrape the county will be ready to prefer a charge. In his official capacity Wilson was a terror to evil doers, for he laid on the fines with much freedom, but when it came to dividing up the assets of the business with the county his generosity all took one direction, and that was towards himself. His peculations are said to cover a very pretty figure.

SALE OF TEN-ACRE GRASS FARMS.—Last fall Messrs. Howlett and Eshelman bought and divided the Yolo ranch into ten-acre tracts. The last three of these tracts were sold on Saturday, February 23, by Messrs. Rodman & Eshelman, for $750 each. The purchasers were G. W. Cary, Frank Bartholet and Mrs. G. W. Rodman. One of these tracts has been resold to Mr. Sanders, of Walla Walla, for $1250, who will build at once and improve the land. Several other purchasers of these tracts will build this coming season.

WILL LEAD THE LESSER CITIES.—The Masons of North Yakima have purchased from Edward Whitson the two lots on the southeast corner of A and Second streets and will build thereon a Masonic temple which will eclipse any building of the kind in the territory. The cost of the structure is estimated at $20,000. With the handsome and costly buildings finished, those under construction and those projected Yakima will distance, in this respect, any town in the Northwest of two or three times its population.

ANOTHER BIG REALTY DEAL.—The Gravel tract of 200 acres, lying northwest of Yakima, which was sold a short time since to Goodwin, Strobach & Pugsley for $7000, and resold a few days later to Edward Whitson and J. B. Reavis for $6000, was this week again sold, this time to Howard H. Lewis, of Seattle, the consideration being $15,000. Mr. Lewis has instructed his agents here to have the land grubbed of sage brush, preparatory to being cut up into garden tracts and improved.

IS NOT A CANDIDATE.—In another part of the Herald the Spokane Falls Review names Hon. Edward Whitson, of this city, for governor of the state of Washington. Mr. Whitson, when spoken to on this subject, disclaimed any knowledge of it and stated most emphatically that, while he appreciated the compliment, he was not a candidate nor would he accept the nomination under any circumstances, as his business arrangements required his undivided attention.

PROPOSED REDUCING THE RUNNING TIME.—J. R. Peters, superintendent of bridges and buildings in this division of the Northern Pacific, was in town this week and announced to the Herald that a pile driver had been received and that the work of improving the track and road-bed from Ellensburg to Kennewick would be at once commenced. This work is to be done so as to admit of shortening the time of travel on this division.

A belittled patriot named Sewall met a fate exceedingly cruel; He stood by the flag, But was given the bag, And now he's in the great.

E. church will give a supper at their hall Friday evening from 5 to 10 o'clock. Supper 25 cents. —Judge I. A. Navarre's residence and homestead of forty acres south of town has been sold to a Mr. Broadhead, of Ohio, for $4000. —Joseph Mickelson is fitting up the building on Front street, one door north of Tucker's livery stable, and will open a restaurant there. —J. B. Reavis and E. M. Reed purchased two lots situated on Second street, opposite the court house, this week. B. Reavis, of this city, and James Carroll, of Tacoma, as likely to be aspirants for the democratic contingency for the office of governor of the new state of Washington. —Efforts are being made by leading citizens of Goldendale to have a company organized to build a railroad from that town to North Yakima. The Board of Trade of this place should co-operate in the furtherance of the project. —Richard Strobach has withdrawn from the real estate firm of Goodwin, Strobach & Pugsley. The business will be conducted by Goodwin & Pugsley, who have moved into their new quarters in the First National bank building. —At a hugging bee for the benefit of a church along the Hudson a few evenings since, a man while blindfolded hugged his wife for several minutes without knowing who he was hugging. When he did find out, he wanted his fifteen cents back. —The stock for the telephone system to be maintained at Yakima is nearly all subscribed, and it is believed the balance will be secured this week. With water works, electric lights, street railways and telephone lines this city will be moderately equipped. —Zamloch, the Austrian conjurer, who is well spoken of by the press throughout the country, is billed to appear at Switzer's opera house on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. In addition to his entertainment he distributes nightly 150 presents among those in attendance. —Olympia was designated in the territorial admission bill as the place for holding the constitutional convention. Seventy-five delegates are to be chosen to attend the convention. With these and the hundreds of camp-followers Olympia will have to hustle to provide them with accommodations. —NOW IS THE ACCEPTED TIME.—An urgent request is made by the city authorities that the annual spring cleaning of door yards and alleys be made at once, and that the refuse be either burned or hauled away. In this conjunction, the Herald suggests that the work should not stop with this. Every lot owner owes it to himself, his neighbors and the city to clear his property of sage brush and place it in the most presentable condition possible. If the property is held for speculation, it becomes so much more attractive in the eyes of the purchaser, and will bring an added price much greater than the cost of such improvement. This is also the time for painting of houses, barns and fences, and a little money expended in this way will never be missed, while, if generally followed, it will contribute much to the attractiveness of the town. —It is believed that Governor Semple will call the present legislature together in order that the territory may be properly apportioned into districts from which delegates to the constitutional convention may be elected and in order further to provide for the expense of such election and convention, unless otherwise provided for. Delegates will have to be voted for in October. The convention of delegates will have to meet and agree upon a constitution to submit to the people and then the people may vote upon the adoption of the constitution thus submitted and at the same time elect a member of congress, a governor and other state officers, a state legislature and for the location of the seat of government. The legislature thus elected may proceed to select two United States senators who may take their seats in the next congress.

He is greatly impressed with the prospects of this section. Howard H. Lewis, of Seattle, who purchased the Gervais tract this week for $15,000, is one of the most shrewd operators in the territory. Although but about 30 years of age he is credited with being worth a quarter of a million dollars. A. P. Sharpstein arrived from the Sound Thursday, and is prepared to execute the bond of $50,000 for the Mammoth mine owned by Churchill, McDaniel, Clark and others, of this city, and to place a force of men immediately to developing the same. Mr. M. C. Kimberly, formerly superintendent of the Minnesota division of the Northern Pacific railroad, has been appointed assistant general superintendent in place of Mr. Root, who was killed in the accident at Tacoma recently. Mr. Kimberly's headquarters will be at Helena. Ed Barker, formerly of this city, but now one of the locating corps of surveyors of the Northern Pacific, stopped off at Yakima Wednesday on his return to Davenport from a trip to Portland. Mr. Barker says that the lines will be run immediately for the Northern Pacific cut-off road from Cheney. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Snively entertained their friends with progressive euchre, Friday evening, February 22. There were present Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Weed, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Weed, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Whitson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steinweg, Miss Nichols, Miss B. Wiswell, Miss C. Allen, Miss D. Allen, H. C. Humphrey, W. J. Milroy, R. B. Milroy and W. H. Chapman. Resolutions of Ladies' Relief Corps. At a regular communication of Meado Corps No. 9, the following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our sister, Mrs. Tuft, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her, therefore be it Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting her removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respected regard. Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it pleased divine providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy. Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of our departed sister by the secretary of this meeting. Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Corps and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased sister and to the newspapers of North Yakima. HARRIET LEANING, Pies. ELLA F. McDONALD, Sec. North Yakima, February 20, 1889. —The directors of the North Yakima public schools have decided to add three months more to the school year, making 9 months in all, which will carry the present session through May. No change will be made in teachers, as they are giving perfect satisfaction.

AN AGE OF WONDERS.

After Centuries of Bigoted Darkness, Light!

Every Assault Upon the Impregnable Citadel of True Science Adds Unnumbered Recruits to Its Cause.

The ammunition of calumny has been exploded. The deadly projectiles hurled have missed their destination. The shafts and arrows lie broken at the feet of victory. And when Aurora's rays shall have pierced the smoke of the battlefield, the name of the histogenetic system of medicine will glitter a bright and imperishable star in the diadem of science, when those who tried to wind their slimy coils around the snowy throat have moldered in oblivion and their epitaphs have vanished from the face of the earth.

It is with a feeling akin to reverence when I think of the glorious achievement of the wonderful Histogenetic Medicine in my case. My right hand was entirely paralyzed—cold and lifeless. I did not have the slightest control over it, no more than as if it did not belong to me. This is not all. I was sick all over, and felt myself irresistibly doomed. Doctors whom I consulted gave me not the slightest encouragement. The Lord took pity on me when he put in my mind to go to Dr. J. Eugene Jordan; and I could hardly credit my senses when Dr. Jordan told me that paralysis is curable under the Histogenetic system. I admit I did not have the slightest hope; still, as I had everything to gain, I persevered. The first month I perceived no change, but as the doctor told me that it was a disease which, as a rule, improves slowly, and as I did not anticipate any good results, I was resigned. The next month, however, I began to perceive unmistakable signs of life coming back, and my joy was boundless. At times there would be a standstill—that is, I could not see an improvement. Then I would start and improve right along, until after about four months I could do all kinds of work with my hand. My general health kept pace with my other improvement. I recovered perfectly every way. It is now a year since I quit taking medicine. All my health and happiness I owe to Dr. Jordan's brilliant genius as the author of the Histogenetic system—the grandest product of the 19th century.

Mrs. M. A. HARTMAN, Seattle.

FREEDALE, W. T., Sept. 27, 1888.

From childhood I was troubled with urinary incontinence produced by scarlet fever. The trouble continued getting worse, and at last the urethra became inflamed to such an extent that an operation was supposed to be the only thing that would save my life. I was thereupon operated upon by the surgical faculty of the Iowa City Medical College. This saved my life temporarily, but left me to a worse fate, as the place operated on never fully healed up. It kept on getting worse and discharging pus and swelling until it terminated in about five openings, which continually discharged urine and pus. The said openings were not all in the urethra, but all around the scrotum. The guttae muscles were fearfully swollen, and as hard as rocks. I could only lie on my back, and my sufferings were a proverb in my whole neighborhood—keeping a general store and being postmaster, I am well known. The constant discharge of pus and urine at last turned into blood poisoning, and I was reduced to almost a skeleton, giving myself up to die. Nothing short of a miracle was thought possible to cure me. I had the best medical skill without the slightest result. Abscesses would form and break while I, prostrate and enduring agonies, could do nothing but contemplate death. I finally heard of the author of the Histogenetic system of medicine, Dr. J. Eugene Jordan; and as the theory looked very reasonable I had myself carried to the doctor and began taking his medicines. The result is, I consider myself cured. I told the doctor that if ever I got well through his efforts I would endeavor by all possible means in my power to acquaint the world with the grandest system of medicine man has ever produced. I have now but one word to say, and that is, in my estimation all other doctors compared to Dr. Jordan are as pigmies compared to a giant; and I also wish to publicly express my pity for the ignorant meddlers who tried hard to keep me, through ignorant prejudice, from treating with Dr. Jordan. Had I followed their valuable advice I would have been dead and buried long ago, as every doctor told me that a fistula can never be cured and never was cured by the aid of medicine.

J. D. WHEELER. Subscribed and sworn to before me by J. D. Wheeler, Sept. 27, A. D. 1888.

JUNIOR ROCHESTER, Notary public in and for Washington Territory.

SPOKANE FALLS, NOV. 10, 1888.

About the 10th of September I was taken with a severe form of diarrhoea. I tried every known remedy, but without avail. After having been sick two weeks a physician was called who gave me such powerful and nauseating medicines that the dyspepsia that I had had for years was aggravated to such a degree that I could not bear the slightest pressure, either on my chest or bowels, there being such a tenderness that even the weight of my clothing distressed me. After suffering more than I can express for nearly six weeks, I concluded to try Dr. J. Eugene Jordan's medicines. At the end of three days the soreness was gone from my chest and bowels, and I was so greatly benefited that I can conscientiously recommend these remedies.

Mrs. C. H. HAYES.

CAUTION.—The Histogenetic medicines are sold in but one agency in each town. The label around the bottle bears the following inscription: "Dr. J. Eugene Jordan's Histogenetic Medicine." Every other device is a fraud.

The only establishment in the city that carries a full line exclusively of gents' furnishing goods. Also, we would remind the people of North Yakima that we will sell our winter stock of underwear very cheap rather than carry it over to another season.

Dennis Ryan at Home.

The one millionaire of St. Paul about whom the most is said and the least is known is probably Dennis Ryan. Leaving his family in California, where they will spend the winter, Mr. Ryan came back to St. Paul last week. He was walking through the corridors of the big hotel which he built and which bears his name yesterday afternoon, and when one of the bell boys walked in his path he stepped aside to make way for the boy. To-day he will probably sell a million dollars' worth of pine lands and trade off a mine or two for the controlling interest in a railroad. There are few bolder speculators than Dennis Ryan, and few more successful. His interests are everywhere in the West. He owns mines in Idaho, Montana and Colorado that promise big. He may wake up some morning and find himself a richer man than Mackay ever thought of. He has recently built smelting works at Tacoma which will have a larger capacity than any similar institution anywhere, when in full operation. But he has much money invested in property of more certain value. He has a large income from rents than any man in St. Paul. It amounts to more than $125,000 a year. A man who ought to know said yesterday that Dennis Ryan could clear up over $3,000,000 after paying off all obligations.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

What They Are Worth.

Ada Bohan is worth $150,000. Agnes Booth is worth $100,000. Rosina Vokes is worth $100,000. Kate Claxton is worth $125,000. Edwin Booth is worth $1,000,000. Nellie McHenry is worth $400,000. Mary Anderson is worth $250,000. Maggie Mitchell is worth $100,000. Mrs. D. P. Bowers is worth $150,000. Joseph Jefferson is worth $500,000. Lawrence Barrett is worth $750,000. Mrs. Lilly Langtry is worth $550,000. Oliver Doud Byron is worth $750,000. Helena Mojecka is worth $200,000. Fannie Davenport is worth $150,000. Clara Louise Kellogg is worth $100,000. Mrs. Thomas W. Keene is worth $100,000. Augustin Daly, of New York, is worth $300,000. Henry C. Miner, of New York, is worth $300,000. A. M. Palmer, of New York, is worth $400,000. Tony Pastor, of New York, is worth $500,000. Mrs. Crabtree (Lotta's mother) is worth $800,000.

She Victimizes Him.

"Ehbel," said Lionel Bertram Jones, as he dropped his slice of bread on the plate with a noise that set the canary in the gilt cage overhead chirping merrily, "Ehbel, I have something to say to you." They had been married only four weeks and the time had not yet arrived when she did all the saying. "Do you remember the day on which I proposed to you?" "Yes," she replied, "I will never forget it."

"Do you remember," he went on as he abstractedly drilled a hole into the loaf with the point of the carving knife, "how, when I rang the bell, you came to the door with your sleeves rolled up and your fingers sticky with dough, and said you thought it was your little brother who wanted to get in?"

"Oh, Ehbel! How could you? How could you?" "How could I what?" she responded, as a guilty look crept into her face. "How could you make me the victim of such a bluff?"—Merchant Traveler.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at C. B. Bushnell's drug store.

Let The Old For 1892.

President Cleveland will retire from the chief magistracy precisely two weeks before the completion of his fifty-second year, in the prime of his life and strength. He was the youngest, save one, of all the presidents when inaugurated, General Grant only being his junior by a year. He is now several years younger than a majority of the presidents were when elected. He may still look forward to a long period of activity and usefulness in his profession.

Incidents, Or., Dec. 13.

Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the kidneys, and had tried many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About three months ago we were induced to try a package of Oregon Kidney Tea which has apparently cured both of us, as since taking it two weeks we have felt no symptoms of the disease. We can heartily recommend it to others similarly afflicted as we believe it will do all that is claimed for it. M. L. Warren. Sold by Allen & Chapman.

Nothing is more disagreeable to a young lady or gentleman than to have the face covered with pimples, blackheads and blotches. Dutard's Specific, the new skin remedy, will remove all disfigurements from the face and hands and produce a clear and beautiful complexion. Try it and be convinced. Sold by Allen & Chapman.

TO THE PUBLIC: A few Reasons why North Yakima, Washington Territory is being recognized as the most promising city in Central Washington:

First—Because it has eight of the finest, largest and most fertile valleys in Washington territory immediately tributary to it.

Second—The seasons are from four to eight weeks earlier than any other part of the north-west coast.

Third—Because we have the finest and most delightful climate in the Pacific northwest.

Fourth—We are destined to become the great truck garden of the coast, with a cash market for our products on Puget Sound.

Fifth—Being centrally located, we are recognized as the desirable place for the capital of the great state of Washington.

Sixth—Because men who are well known as successful, shrewd and long-headed, are making large investments in North Yakima and Yakima county.

Believing we are located in the most favored portion of Washington Territory for gardening, fruit growing and general agricultural purposes we invite all those who are looking for homes, business locations and manufacturing opportunities, to call on us at North Yakima, and, by seeing for themselves, be convinced.
