

THE YAKIMA HERALD.

VOL. IV.

NORTH YAKIMA, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1892.

NO. 15.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 23, 1891.
I have resided in the Yakima Valley for 12 years, engaged in general farming, fruit and hop culture. I raise all my products by irrigation, and have never failed a single year in obtaining bountiful crops.
I farmed formerly in the State of Kansas. I find all kinds of husbandry here much more profitable than in Kansas. And as to climate, such things as blizzards and cyclones are not known. Our winters are very short, and the spring and fall are perfectly delightful. All our farmers who are industrious are prosperous and happy.
JOSEPH STEPHENSON,
President Board of County Commissioners, Yakima County.

FRED R. REED & CO.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., April 18, 1891.
D. E. Lesh, proprietor of the celebrated fruit farm called "Fruit Vale," swears that on one Alexander peach-tree grew, during the year 1890, five hundred and twenty pounds of peaches, which he sold for $52; that off four apple-trees twenty oz. pippins, he sold 100 boxes, 4,600 pounds, at $125. My whole orchard, between six and seven acres of peaches, apples, plums, pears and apricots, brought me, during the season of 1890, about three thousand dollars.
D. E. LESH.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th day of April, 1891.

Three and one-fourth acres of Hops, 6,400 pounds . . . $2,100
Ninety tons of Hay 950
Thirty tons of Carrots 300
Fifteen tons of Onions 675
Four hundred bushels of Corn 300
Twenty-four hundred bushels of Potatoes 1,440
Total $5,675
Besides supplying twenty-five head of hogs and nine head of horses during the said year.

YAKIMA AND THE STATE.
Interesting Items of News from Yakima and Its Suburbs.
Bits of Gossip, Facts, Fancies, Personalities, and a Hodge-Podge of Paragraphs of Every Description.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller have returned from Puyallup to remain.
Robert Wilson is now on the ocean, bound on a visit to his old home in Scotland.
Rev. Rufus Chase, of this city, officiated at All Saints church, Spokane, on Sunday last.
Theo P. Airheart, formerly of this city, is now a mine broker and real estate dealer at Fremont, Col.
L. Frank Gordon, formerly of Yakima, has been appointed deputy clerk of the superior courts of Spokane county.
Mrs. C. E. Clancy, of Tacoma, after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Edward Whitson, returned home on Saturday.
Dr. E. E. Heg made a visit to Ellensburg last week, and one of the local papers announced him as Dr. Hogg and another one as Dr. Hogue.
Jim Corbett passed through Yakima yesterday on his way to San Francisco, where he will go into training for his great fight with John L. Sullivan for a purse of $45,000.
Mr. Fred Parker, of Duluth and Everett, spent several days in the city this week looking for investments. It is needless to say that he is very much taken with the Yakima country.
Randall Williams, the negro who was formerly porter of the Hotel Yakima, is on the chain gang at Spokane for beating his white wife, whom he married at Ellensburg. Mrs. Williams is in the lock-up for general cussedness.
The Middle Irrigation district of Kittitas county is again in trouble. No sooner has the decision of the supreme court on the legality of its bonds been published, than F. H. Wilkins asks an order to restrain the directors from proceeding with the work of construction. The local newspapers are holding Mr. Wilkins up as a muckrack and obstructionist.

Sam Cameron reports that the wheat in the Horse Heaven country is looking fine, and that upwards of 2,000 new acres were broken this spring. There is every evidence of greater prosperity in that section than ever before, and many new comers have located there.
The Northern Pacific has discharged all of the white laborers on its line between Spokane and Moscow and replaced them with Chinamen. The reason assigned is that the men refuse to work for less than $2 per day, while $1.75 is the rate paid on the main line and other branches.
Miss Dewitt, daughter of William Dewitt the Roslyn brewer, has brought suit for breach of promise against Samuel Hobbs, the leader of the Roslyn band, alleging that her affections are damaged in the sum of $5,000. Hobbs will have to blow his horn pretty hard to pay this sum.
The Pasco Headlight, after growing smaller and smaller, until it was little larger than a cigarette paper, has finally given up the ghost. Muncy left it, then Edwards, and now the devil in a final kick, in which he says he cannot live on wind and sand, has turned the key on the office to await the coming of the first tramp printer.
The Tekoa Globe thinks the state agricultural college which that old corruptionist, Dr. Turnover, located on the frost-bitten hills of Pullman, is a sample of Dakota hogwashiness. It says that George W. Hopp, a recent arrival from Dakota, who had run the length of a lengthy string in that state, was made a regent of the college through "collusion of Fatty-Accident Loughton, and ex-Governor Black, sah, of Alabama, sah!" and that with brazen officiousness and without consulting the other members of the board, Hopp asserted authority and engaged an old Dakota tillicum as president, his former Dakota partner as professor of agriculture and the balance of the faculty, with two exceptions, from the same place, where little or nothing is grown aside from wheat, and now he has located a newspaper there under the management of his brother to do the college printing and advertising. Although Washington has to support the college, it looks as though it was being manipulated for the benefit of Dakota. The college, with its princely endowment, that was so unsuitably and unsatisfactorily located, is probably to be turned into a haven for old political hacks and to be made the object of jobbery throughout that it was in the beginning.

Treasurer Steinweg remitted on Monday to the purchasers of sewer bonds over $1,400, being the semi-annual interest.
John K. Rankin, of Lawrence, Kan., special agent of the department of Indian affairs, arrived here on Sunday and left on Tuesday for Fort Simcoe to begin the allotment in severality of the lands of the Yakima Indian reservation. Mr. Rankin says he will use his utmost endeavor to keep out renegades and Indians not entitled to lands.
Ellensburg Register: "Love's young dream never loses its charm for the youthful mind. A young man will even forget business when under the influence of its entrancing vision," said Johnny Fogarty, Monday, while discussing the continued absence of one of his clerks, who left for Yakima Sunday morning, expecting to return the same evening.
Puyallup Commerce: States are beginning to assume shape, and the campaign is coming. State candidates on the republican ticket are beginning to be mentioned about as follows: For governor, Hon. W. D. Tyler; for lieutenant governor, Fred B. Reed, of Yakima; for secretary of state, J. H. Price, of Pierce; for congress, Nelson Bennett, of Pierce; for United States senator, ex-Governor Miles C. Moore, of Walla Walla.
The jute mill at the Walla Walla penitentiary has been started up, and now the grain growers of the island empire will have some protection against the grain-bug trusts and combines. The state does not permit of a greater profit than 10 per cent to be made, and the sacks can only be sold to producers in quantities actually required. The state built the mill at an expense of $150,000, and its capacity is 4,000 bags per day.
S. W. Wall, formerly of the Tacoma Ledger, and the companion of George Francis Train in his trip around the world, is now in the employ of the Boston Post, and recently gained considerable notoriety through impersonating a Boston merchant who had received "green goods" circulars and bringing the swindlers to justice. Wall worked his plans with the aid of a United States postoffice inspector and made a clear case.
Two years ago the Com d'Alene Indians ceded to the government a portion of their reservation in consideration of $600,000, and this money, or at least $500,000 of it, has just been paid, each Indian receiving $1,100. The towns of Farmington, Tekoa, Okanada and other points along the line of the Spokane &

Falouse railroad are receiving a big boom owing to this payment, for the Indians have settled their debts at the stores and are rapidly spending the balance of their wealth. Buggies and hacks seemed to have the greatest fascination for them, and they lowered this stock to the bottom notch the first day after getting their money.
No effort is being made by the authorities to find out who the "whitecaps" were who forced Officer Steigler to give up the keys to the jail, and took the lustful Chinaman to the outskirts of the town and gave him a well-deserved thrashing on Thursday night of last week; public sentiment for this once being favorable to the law breakers. An onlooker of the proceedings said that the Chinaman yielded like a steam calliope from the moment he was taken from the jail until he was turned loose, and evidently thought his time had come. The whipping was done in the vicinity of the mill, and the blacksnake was applied with vigor on his naked hide. No mercy was shown, and he will carry with him for many a long day the welts raised by the lash. This Chinaman seems to have a mania for exposing himself to school girls, and he had once before been arrested in this city for a like offense, and for kindred disgusting actions the citizens of Ellensburg nearly drowned him through holding his head in a barrel of water last summer. It is said that he boarded the east-bound train at Selah station the following morning.
News From the Tangle District.
State lecturer of the Patrons of Husbandry, Brother James Nevin, was with us last week and organized a grange with twenty charter members. A. J. Shaw was elected master. The grange was started on a firm foundation, financially and otherwise, and will soon build for itself a comfortable hall.
The weather is so damp and cold up here that we are able to spare the people of the lower valley more than the usual amount of water, and more than we intended that they should have.
Crops are looking as well as could be expected for so backward a season. Hops are growing slowly, and our wheat is showing better than it does lower down the Ahtanum. The fruit has not been injured, with the exception of a few apricot blossoms.
