NOTICE.
PARTIES owing me are requested to come forward with cash and make settlements, as I must have the money. This is urgent and must be heeded.
H. REUKLEIN.

"German Syrup"
A Cough For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as children's troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

Castoria
For Infants and Children.
Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. JACOBI, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to affections of children."
ALEX. HENNINGSON, M. D., 1027 2d Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the bowels, and general system very much. Many mothers have told of its excellent effect upon their children."
DR. G. G. OSBORN, Lowell, Mass.

The Celebrated French Cure,

CITY PARK BLINDNESS.

The council at its session on Tuesday night saw fit to plant its feet on the project for a city park. Why this was done passes the understanding of thinking people whose range of vision extends beyond the tip of the nose. That a park is very much to be desired will admit, and when one can be secured in a satisfactory location, at a price that all must admit is exceedingly low, and on terms of payment most favorable, why should there be delay? Bodies of land suitable for park purposes are a rarity unless the country is invaded, and a consideration in getting a location within a reasonable distance is that those who may derive the full benefit from it who would be unable to enjoy this pleasure if the keeping of a horse or the contracting of a livery bill was required in making the journey.

It has been said the city has entered upon too many things requiring expenditures. This would be in the nature of truth if we did not look forward to further growth in population, wealth and importance. If it was doubted that North Yakima would not further progress that would be the moment when our decadence would begin, for many of our most enterprising citizens would not be content to remain here, but for that confidence and unwavering faith in the future. Had the city purchased suitable park lands years ago when urged by the press and property holders it would have made the original cost many times over in the rise in value. Because of the mistakes in the past there is no reason why they should be continued in this day. The sixteen and a fraction acres of land which is offered in the city in Capital addition for $2,500, to be paid in six and seven years at 6 per cent interest, is reasonably worth much more money today for speculative purposes, and the owners would refuse to sell it for any other object except at a greatly increased price. It is in the one body of land centrally located, which can be improved at a minimum cost that is now within our reach. Other desirable tracts have been segregated by platting and sale of lots or are held at such a price as to make this opportunity to purchase the more attractive to those who recognize the needs in this direction. The council at its last meeting made a mistake, but it is not too late for it to be rectified. We are looked upon abroad as a progressive and enterprising people, with the nucleus for a beautiful city and backed by a bountiful country on which nature has showered many blessings and man is multiplying. There is no time for a backward step, when the forward steps so plainly point to our material benefit and to the health and pleasure of our citizens.

SUMMARY OF THE WORLD'S NEWS.

Twenty mammoth hotels and a great many minor buildings were destroyed by fire at Rockaway Beach, N. J., on Tuesday. The burned district covers over 100 acres of ground. Mrs. Harrison, wife of the president, whose serious illness has been noted with anxiety by the country at large, has so far recovered as to permit of her removal from Loo Lake to Washington, D. C. Ireland is at length free from government by proclamation and by removal of the magistrates. The little green island is now under a government of law which makes impossible such prosecutions as drove Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon to take flight to America and make free speech a farce.

The convention of the National Republican League of clubs, which was held in Buffalo last week, was a dismal failure both in point of attendance and interest. The same old officers were re-elected which means that Clarkson, who was bitterly opposed to the nomination of Harrison, will have the direction of the club's campaign, and whatever he does in favor of Harrison's candidacy will be done with two grimaces to every snarl.

Senator David H. Hill began his campaign for the democratic national ticket at Brooklyn, N. Y., Tuesday night. The immense Academy of music building would scarcely contain the crowd and Hill was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm. The senator concluded his earnest remarks to the democrats to "organize in the most thorough manner; buckle on the armor and fight for the triumph of the party and elect our honored standard-bearer, Cleveland and Stevenson."

Four miles of handkerchiefs are a good many, yet one of our local mathematicians has figured that the new lot of silk and linen handkerchiefs recently arrived at Ditter's store will, if laid side by side, reach from here to Yakima City, four miles away.

REPUBLICAN TARIFF ROT.

The Olympia states that "if there be any class of people in the United States who should first, last and always be republicans, it is the farmer. He has found in the protective tariff an unfailing wall against the cheapened products of other lands;" and then it goes on to tell the farmer and stock raiser of "east of the mountains" how the wonderful McKinley bill has placed a protective tariff of about $30 a head on horses.

Why, bless the Olympians' simple soul, the "east of the mountains" horses have never been so cheap as at the present time, notwithstanding that wonderful McKinley protective tariff. The farmers import no horses except for breeding purposes, and when they desire to improve their stock this glorified protective measure "taxes them about $25 per head" for this privilege. If the Olympians or any other newspaper has one valid reason why the farmers of "east of the mountains" should support the McKinley bill it should be advanced at once, for it will be news to all. That highly-protected John-McGraw-Seattleditch organ, the Post-Intelligencer, tells the farmer that he should put unquestioned faith in the McKinley bill and the republican party, because there is a protective duty of fifteen cents a pound on hops. Had the editor of that paper been in Yakima this week we would have answered him by pointing to a long train traveling over the Northern Pacific, and loaded with hops consigned to London. When we are exporters and the foreign markets make the price, the talk of a protective tariff for the farmer is the veriest rot.

Mr. EDWARD WHITSON's argument in favor of the so-called "protective" tariff on hops, at the republican meeting Monday night, was unique. He acknowledged that the tariff of 15 cents a pound was, under present conditions, of no benefit to the hop growers, as we were exporters, but that there might be a time when it would prove a benefit through the failure of the crop of this country. We would like to ask Mr. Whitson what good would a protective tariff be to the hop grower who had no hops? It would simply tax the already afflicted man by making him pay higher for everything that he bought, into which hops entered into the composition. Everyone knows that the surplus hops of this country are shipped to England, and that the price throughout the world is controlled by that market. The only hops imported into this country are from Bohemia, where a grade of hops is grown which we cannot raise in this country and which is required for mixture with our own in the manufacture of certain grades of malt liquors. Could we raise this hop with our soil and climate the Bohemian grower could not compete with us, for his district only amounts to some 14,000 acres, and the average yield is about 4.00 pounds to the acre. The hop tariff is just one of the sops thrown at the producing class of this country, which is expected to keep him contented but which is absolutely of no benefit to him.

OVER in Seattle John McGraw tried to capture the Afro-Americans by inviting the colored elites to take part in the republican bloc-out on Monday; but the colored clubs, instead of marching, passed resolutions in which they stated that they were opposed to the candidacy of John McGraw and favored that of Snively.

A CLERK in the office of Auditor Ellis visited the farmers of the Ahtanum this week on an electrifying tour, and the best argument that he could advance for the retention of his chief was that he would lose his job if a change in officers took place.

REPORTS WHICH HAVE OCCURRED DURING THE PAST WEEK WHICH WILL INTEREST EVERYBODY.

Republican Speakers Void of Arguments.

The republican parade and rally on Monday night was a very successful affair in point of attendance. There were nearly one hundred men and boys in the parade, and they made a very good appearance with their uniforms and torches. At the hall Col. L. N. Howlett presided, and the speakers were Edward Whitson, and Charles F. Fishback of Seattle. The audience was composed of members of all parties, and they listened to the addresses with apparent interest, although it was perceptible that many were exceedingly restless under the lame arguments presented.

Mr. Whitson opened his address with an apology for the party candidates, stating that everyone could not be suited in the choice of candidates, in fact it appeared all through the evening when any allusion was made to the republican nomination it was in the nature of an apology. Mr. Whitson stated that the democratic party said it was proud of its record, and then he pursued the old, old tactics and went back to 1864, revamping the old canard that it was the democratic party that was fighting the union. Mr. Whitson had his notes before him, although he had apparently committed well to memory. He was in good voice and fluent in his speech, but when he came to the Seattle ditch plank he seemed to think he had a greater burden than he could conveniently carry, and while he endorsed it, he said he would leave it to the following speaker to dilute on the subject.

Mr. Fishback is a pleasant speaker. He never hesitates, and it was remarked that in the period of over an hour in which he spoke he never mopped his forehead nor took a glass of water, nor did he make a single point that was tenable. He said that parties and principles were changing like the tide, and that new light was dawning. He intimated that the fruits and the flowers of Yakima were due to republicanism. He said that workmen on American soil were the pride of the American people, and asked, "are we for or against the laboring men?" and then left it without answer, probably having in mind how the republicans defeated the eight-hour bill and the anti-Tinkertail bill in the state, and refused to ratify the Watson bill, the farmers' pet measure for regulation of freights and fares. He attempted to answer an editorial squib from THE HERALD, in which the question was asked as to the benefits of protection when wheat was selling in free trade England for $1.05 and in Chicago for 70 and 80 cents. In this he made a dismal failure, and absolutely made no point whatever, saying that there would be a difference if we could move our farms over there. While it was a beautiful oration and filled with pretty metaphors, it was absolutely without one grain of substantial argument, and while all will say that Mr. Fishback is a very pleasant gentleman and a nice talker, when his speech was finished no one could recall a single valid reason advanced why the republican principles and the republican nomination should be supported.

A MONSTER CAMPAIGN CLUB.

The H. J. Snively Young Men's Democratic Club Organized - They are Decidedly in Earnest.

The H. J. Snively Young Men's Democratic club was organized at Mason's opera-house Tuesday evening, with a membership of over 150. This is the largest campaign club of any party which has ever been formed in Yakima county, and shows that the democrats are thoroughly in earnest in the coming contest. Mr. Henry Teal was elected president; Fred Miller, first vice president; O. T. Stratton, second vice president; Phil Ditter, secretary, and N. Hartung, treasurer. Mr. Teal, however, was under the impression that he had had too little experience in such matters to preside, and in a graceful speech, in which he promised his earnest and active support, he tendered his resignation. Other resignations were also given, as many thought the best that after Mr. Teal's withdrawal a new election should be held, and Friday night of this week was named for the date, when it is hoped every member will be present.

During the evening a telegram was received from Hon. H. J. Snively, who had been advised of the club's action, in which he thanked the club for the honor it had conferred upon him, and sent his congratulations over the large membership, which told of victory on November 8th. Rousing speeches were made by Fred Miller, Senator J. T. Eshelman and Hon. J. B. Reavis, and much enthusiasm was shown and the speakers were vigorously applauded.

Saved From Death by Onions.

There has no doubt been more lives of children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of onions than any other known remedy. Our mothers used to make poultices of them, or a syrup, which was always effectual in breaking up a cough or cold. Dr. Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few remedies with it which makes it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. 50c. Sold by Janek's Pharmacy.

HERALDINGS.

Mr. Frank C. Sharkey is visiting the Sound country.

L. E. Sperry expects to leave for Tacoma, Friday for a brief visit.

Mrs. J. B. Huntington, of Oregon, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guiland.

The Anderson Live Stock Association shipped a train load of sheep from Yakima for Chicago, on Tuesday.

Charles W. Henry leaves today for his former home in Ohio. He expects to be absent until the first of the year.

A. C. Keeling has returned from the Mount Adams country, where he claims to have discovered a valuable ledge of cinnabar.

Found, a gentleman's watch. The owner can have same by application at this office, proving property and paying charges.

E. E. Butler, while playing with a coyote that is kept at his place as a pet, received a severe bite on the hand, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ross are back from Tacoma. Mr. Ross will return to look after the interests of Yakima county at the exposition in a few days.

Miss Anna Becker, of Ellensburg, has been in the city for the past week visiting Mrs. W. H. Chapman. Miss Becker will attend the excursion to Tacoma on Yakima day.

Mr. W. I. Lince left last evening for Tacoma and Victoria, to be absent four weeks. He has had a very annoying cold and cough of late, and hopes that the change will prove beneficial.

The democratic central committee headquarters have been established in the Eshelman building. A banner is being painted, and will be extended across the street to the First National bank block.

The last of the sewer pipe was laid today, and now all that is required to make the system complete and ready for water and connections is some flush tanks, which it will take but a few days to construct.

The republicans announce another parade and speaking on Monday evening next. McGraw and P. H. Winston will be the orators; that is, McGraw will say a few words and Winston will say many words.

Died, at North Yakima, September 18, Ethel G., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wiley, aged 20 years, 3 months and 3 days. The funeral was conducted by Rev. S. H. Cheddie from the family residence, on Tuesday morning.

Col. W. F. Prosser returned from the Sound, Wednesday night, but will be here only a few days, as his duties as chairman of the harbor line commission require his presence on the Sound almost continuously. Mrs. Prosser and children will not return from the coast before the first of next month.

Mrs. Mary G. Jackson, of the Ahtanum, received a valuable hairloom the other day from relatives in Virginia, in the way of a breastpin that is over 200 years old, which she prizes very highly. It contains the portrait of her great grandmother, painted in England, and is a quaint piece of jewelry.

A. L. Slemmons was recently admitted to the bar at Ellensburg, and on Friday of last week he was impeached in court the veracity of V. G. Frost, ex-chairman of the democratic central committee. This aroused Frost's anger and he called Slemmons vile names, for which he was fined $10. The following day Frost purchased a revolver, and meeting Slemmons began a tirade of abuse. This Slemmons resented, and Frost drew his revolver and fired. It is claimed that the firing was premature, and notwithstanding the large sized target that Mr. Slemmons makes, the bullet went wide of the mark and was imbedded in the sidewalk. Frost was arrested and bound over in the sum of $250. There has been bad feeling between the two men for a long time past.

Charles Keene, who is engaged in working on the sewer, is usually a temperate young man, but on Monday night some influence contributed to his forgetting his prohibition principles and he got as full as a bottled owl. His friends tried to care for him and take him home, but they got no further than the rear of the Cadwell building, where drowsy slumber overtook Keene, and despite his companions' efforts and protests, he laid down and tried to wear off the effects of the intoxicants he had imbibed by pounding his ear against mother earth. He remembers that later on a couple of men rolled him over, and one said, "Let's take his watch," while the other objected; but Keene was too nearly dead to the world to have more than a hazy recollection of what took place. When he awoke and pulled himself together he found his finger ring, watch, chain and other jewelry had been safely stored in one of his pockets, but that $80, of which he had been the possessor, had taken wings and flown away. Mr. Keene is now of the impression that snarmanes are not always fittingly bestowed.

THE YAKIMA EXHIBIT AT THE EXPOSITION.

The Tacoma "Ledge" Says It Forms One of the Finest Displays—Yakima Winning Fame.

Tacoma Ledge: The Yakima county exhibit has been arranged with a great deal of care. Two entire sections are devoted to it. The ceiling of both are festooned with evergreen and the archway connecting them is decorated with hop vines. The first of the compartments is now pretty nearly completed, while the other is awaiting the progress of the season to receive the finishing touches.

The end wall of the compartment is decorated with alfalfa, and in the midst of it is a red signboard bearing the legend, "Yakima county," printed in cross sections of corn. In the middle, standing on the floor, is a pyramid of wheat, oats, rye and other grasses and grains; and, on the walls, are decorative designs of the yellow grain. Surrounding the bottom of the pyramid is a border of watermelons, which, by the way, are worth five cents each in Yakima. Inside the border are, leaped up, apples, monster carrots, muskmelons, etc. The corners are ornamented with quarter pyramids of bottled mineral waters. Along the remaining two walls run tables, out from which extend large banks of fruit. The right hand bank consists of the following fruits: The last of the Early Crawford, grown by L. S. Howlett, yellow plums grown by Edward Whitson, blue pearmain, gravenstein and bellflower apples grown by D. E. Lesh, egg plums and prunes grown by Watt & Cornett, Hungarian prunes grown by H. J. Bicknell, of Sunnyside, nice grapes grown by Frank Terrell, six boxes of Foster peaches grown by H. J. Bicknell and early Crawford peaches by D. E. Lesh. The grapes, of which there is a full and excellent exhibit, are from Fruitvale, the farm of D. E. Lesh, and are the Concord, Moore's early and sweetwaters. They are shown on plates. The Cox's golden-tinged peaches are from the same farm. The late Crawford peaches which average nine ounces each are from the farm of H. J. Bicknell. The gravenstein apples are from Fruitvale. The pears are from W. D. Beck.

On the opposite side of the room the first apples, pippins, on the tables are from the farm of W. D. Beck. James Beck shows some Bartlett pears. Sweetwater grapes are shown by Hugo Sigmond, and Isabella's by Fenn B. Woodcock. Messrs. Lesh and Bicknell send the crowning glory of the exhibit—a bank measuring twelve by three feet and consisting of Crawford pears, early Gravenstein and June apples, Pearmain apples, Bartlett pears and winter pears, tomatoes, sweetwater grapes and prunes. Across the windows are festoons and two sheafs of wild rye grass of mammoth proportions, supporting a huge wreath of green and yellow grasses and grains. The 200 watermelons came from Mrs. Adams' farm. One of them weighed fifty-four and one-half pounds, this particular one being from the farm of A. B. Feuder. A fine exhibit of crabapples came from A. B. Weed's place. Dr. Lesh shows some red peppers. Mammoth corn is shown from various places, and two bales of tobacco are from the Moxee farm. Among the corn are several fine bearing stalks from the farm of Jack Bradford, Jr.

Among the preserved fruits are the following specimens: Crawford and Alexandra peaches, peach plums, apricots, grown by D. E. Lesh; apricots grown by M. W. Wallace; apricots grown by A. B. Weed; Bartlett pears grown by D. E. Lesh; Bartlett pears grown by James Cook; Bartlett pears grown by D. A. Ball; Bartlett pears grown by Orlando Beck; Bartlett pears grown by James Cook; grapes grown by D. E. Lesh; grapes grown by Frank Terrell.

The exhibit is under the supervision of D. E. Lesh, and in charge of W. H. Chapman and A. B. Ross. An exhibit of twenty-five pounds of honey is shown from the Busy Wild Apiary of Charles Lee. The honey making was in addition to the sending off of five swarms of bees by the hive.

Simeon Palmer shows some alfalfa eight feet high. The Moxee farm shows a bale of pressed Havana tobacco, one of hops and a number of poles of hops. Messrs. Hiram and Charles Carpenter also show hops on poles. Mayor A. B. Weed shows two poles of hops out of a field one year old which produced an average of 1,200 pounds to the acre. Other exhibits are: A collection of Bartlett and other pears grown by S. O. Morford; Ben Davis variety of apples grown by F. B. Woodcock; summer winess apples and northern spies grown by E. Denton; Burbank and late rose potatoes grown by James White; eight-row flint corn grown by George Taylor; Fleishish beauty pears and queen apples grown by E. R. Leuning; yellow bellflower and Ben Davis apples grown by E. Denton.

Among the exhibits of grapes shown are the following: Concord grown by D. E. Lesh; sweetwaters grown by Fred Thompson; Concord, black Hamburgs and Delaware grown by M. B. Curtis, of Sunnyside.

Judge George Turner was in the city on Tuesday, stopping over after making a republican speech at Ellensburg. The electric lights did not work on the night of Judge Turner's speech, and as a result there was a small attendance. This is to be deplored, as it would be interesting to know how the judge finds reasons to support McGraw after strongly denouncing him from the bench for his course while sheriff of King county. Judge Turner's scathing remarks on McGraw are published in the Washington reports.

Mr. Guy Sterling has been appointed the successor of D. W. Ross, as the resident and assistant chief engineer of the N. P., Y. & K. I. company. Mr. Sterling has already taken possession of the office and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

YAKIMA DAY TO BE SEPTEMBER 27TH.

A Big Crowd Will Take Advantage of the $5.00 Rate—Yakima Will Be Heretofore Proud.

The meeting at the opera-house Saturday afternoon to arrange for the excursion to Tacoma on Yakima day was not as largely attended as was desired, but the interest exhibited was general. Considerable discussion arose over the belief of some present in the advisability of changing the date to the 27th. It was argued that this move would give more time to the committee to dispose of the 50 tickets, and that the postponement would benefit many who were in the hop fields, and who would be through with their labors this week and be able to attend the excursion if the change in date was made. Mr. Granger said that this would be agreeable to the exposition people and also to the railroad company, and finally it carried. It was decided to have a soliciting committee of seven to sell tickets and take charge of the arrangements, which committee was made up as follows: Fred R. Reed, R. B. Milroy, Capt. J. H. Thomas, E. F. Benson, J. H. Hubbard, J. M. Brown and John Reed.

After the meeting W. N. Granger communicated with Mr. Whiting of the exposition company regarding the change of date, and received an answer that it was perfectly satisfactory, and to come with a big crowd, and that every consideration would be shown the excursionists. It is proposed to make the visit somewhat official in its nature by having the Yakima party headed by the mayor and city council. Members of the committee are now out with tickets, and are meeting with encouraging success. Mr. Fred Reed will attend to Ellensburg and John Reed to Cle-Elum and Roslyn, where it is expected that from seventy-five to one hundred people will take advantage of the exceedingly low transportation rates offered.

A very good suggestion has been made that all those who have fruit or vegetables that would do credit to our exhibition, should make up a basket and take them along or send them to the rooms of the committee in the Cadwell block, where they will be packed and forwarded free of charge.

The hour that the train will start from North Yakima is 7 o'clock a. m., although it would be well enough for all to be at the depot in ample time for the agent to issue the tickets in payment of the receipts.

There will be services at the Episcopal church Sunday at the usual hours. The Rev. Mr. Greer will deliver the sermon.

Up to date there have been 176 voters registered from the first precinct, North Yakima, and 207 from the second; a total of 443.

The firemen's dance at the opera-house Saturday evening was well attended and proved very enjoyable. The next will be given on the evening of September 1st.

Mr. Luther, a recent arrival from Montezuma, has rented and is handsomely fitting one of the storerooms in the Switzer building, on Front street, for a grocery store. Mr. Luther will carry a heavy stock.

Chester A. Congdon, president of the Ontario Land company, was in the city on Tuesday. Mr. Congdon had high words of praise for THE HERALD and its constant efforts in the way of advancing the interests of Yakima.

The postponement of Yakima day at the Tacoma exposition has conflicted somewhat with the arrangements of the democrats, for the formal opening of the campaign in this city by speakers, but the rally will be held some evening the latter part of next week, when the committee hopes to secure James Hamilton Lewis and possibly Thomas Carroll.

Those who propose to take advantage of the favorable $5 rate to Tacoma, on Yakima day, Tuesday, Sept. 25th, must make themselves known at once. The guarantee of the 300 tickets will have to be made by Saturday, and no guarantee will be made until 3:00 receipts for tickets are sold and the money deposited. Members of the committee have the tickets receipts for sale and if purchasers are unable to find them their wants can be supplied at Chapman's drug store. There should be no delay in this matter. The purchase of a receipt will entitle the holder to a ticket, if the necessary 300 are sold, and if this number is not sold the receipt will be redeemed upon presentation at the First National bank. If the 300 tickets are not sold by Saturday the railroad company will be notified, the committee will disband and the opportunity will have passed. At this time, Thursday afternoon, about 150 tickets have been sold, which Chairman Reed, of the committee, thinks is an assurance of the success of the excursion.

On Saturday afternoon of last week John Smith, David Gordon and John Breen, who were confined in the county jail as United States prisoners charged with selling liquor to Indians, managed to break through the wall from the corridor and were making off on the run when three patrol men fired by Sheriff Simmons and Deputy Dilley brought them to a halt and they were marched back to the jail and placed in the "cage." The sheriff and his deputy were conversant with the intention of the men to skip, and not only knew of the hole in the wall but the deputy acted on the attempt to escape by telling the prisoners that the sheriff had gone to Ellensburg, and that he was going up town after giving them their meals and allowing them the freedom of the corridor. There is considerable complaint over this kind of trifling and it is not thought to be just the proper thing to turn prisoners loose simply for the purpose of taking a shot at them and showing to the world how vigilant our officers are, especially before election.

ADJOURNED SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Northern Pacific Property to Be Condemned for Street Purposes—Park Proposition Lost.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held in the council chambers Tuesday evening, when a number of matters of great importance were brought up. There were only four councilmen present, Messrs. Carpenter, Cox, Needham and Vaughn responding to the roll call.

The city engineer reported on the cost of extending the sewer pipe about 600 feet to the Sisters' hospital to be $495.

A petition for an arc light on the corner of Third and Chestnut streets, in front of the Methodist church, was referred to the proper committee.

Bids were opened for a sidewalk on Third street, from A to Maple, and Elmer Schwartz being the lowest bidder, at 39 cents per lineal foot, the contract was awarded to him.

A petition, which had been signed by about 200 taxpayers, asking for the opening of Yakima avenue, Chestnut and A streets, through the depot and railroad trackage property of the Northern Pacific, was read and granted. Many interested citizens were present and closely watched the proceedings. The city attorney was ordered to go ahead and take the necessary steps for the condemnation of the right-of-way for the said streets, and to consult with Judge George A. Turner, who had been retained by the property holders in case that the railroad people entered upon any legal contest. At the time of the trouble over the endeavor to lay the sewers across the track the railroad company presented an agreement reserving the right to cross and recross the streets with its tracks and rolling stock, and also the right to use said lands for any and all purposes as should be needed, which should be binding upon the successors and assigns of each party to the agreement. The council practically agreed to this in a verbal way, but when an investigation of the effect was made it refused to give the official approval of its signature, the order was countermanded and the minutes in reference thereto were ordered stricken from the rolls. Mr. Whitson was called upon for his opinion on this question, but against his advice the measure was passed. Later on Judge Turner, after investigating the points pro and con, gave it as his opinion that there were no legal grounds why the property should not be condemned and opened as public highways.

The petition of Fred R. Reed for the vacation of an alley in the rear of his residence, where he owned the property on both sides thereof, was refused on the vote of Councilman Vaughn. The purchase of property in Capital addition for park purposes was also voted down.

Hon. Percy W. Rochester, of Seattle, accompanied by Mr. Charles B. Wood, have been in Yakima for several days. They are the general northwestern agents of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance company, and their business here has been to look after the general interests of their company in this locality. They have selected Dr. G. J. Hill as their examining physician, and Harry Coonan as their local agent. They have also selected and appointed Mr. J. B. Pugsley as a special agent. We bespeak for the gentlemen the success which their business methods deserve.

Timothy Lynch's Cholera Cure.

Editor Herald: My Dear Sir,—I see by the papers that cholera is in our country, and it may travel faster than we would wish, therefore we should be prepared for the worst. I know a sure cure for this scourge, which has had the test of over fifty years, and I have known it to save thousands in my time. This cure was first successfully used in India. It is cheap, but nevertheless effective. I believe it would be wise for communities to take up a small subscription to defray expenses, and appoint a committee to see that there is plenty of the medicine compounded and placed in sealed jars, to be used if needed, which I trust in God it will not be. This is the formula:

Tormentilla root, 2 oz. Tincture of Myrrh, 1/2 oz. Cayenne Pepper, 1 tablespoonful. Boil the root in two quarts of water down to one quart and strain it. Then add the tincture of myrrh and cayenne pepper, then bottle. These are the proportionate ingredients of the cure, and the ratio of increase of the medicine should be on this basis. I remain very respectfully T. J. LYNCH.

Can't Cook as Mother Did!

How many a young wife's heart has been saddened by hearing the above remark! And yet how often the words are true; especially when cake, pastry or biscuit are in question! The reason is plain, yet it is "like telling a secret."

Our mothers used and are using Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. They cannot be misled into using any of the ammonia or alum powders. No dyspepsia no sallow complexions, when mother did the cooking.

The first symptoms of ammonia poisoning, says a New York paper, which appear among those who work in ammonia factories, is a discoloration of the nose and forehead. This gradually extends over the face until the complexion has a stained, blotched and unsightly appearance.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only pure cream of tartar powder that contains the whites of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.
