

Thanksgiving Day, the annual religious festival observed in the United States, was probably first suggested by the Hebrew feast of tabernacles, or a "feast of ingathering at the end of the year."

MARRYING AGAIN.

New York Sun: A bachelor of the town asks us for our views as to this very important and interesting matter: Which is the more righteous and noble action for a husband or wife, in case of the death of the other, to sacrifice all comfort of further home life and live on singly in everlasting memory of the dear departed, or to marry again, for one reason or another, and thereby stamp the act of marriage simply as a partnership for the sake of one convenience or another, which shall be renewed according to emergency and chance?

So they feel, honestly and sincerely, and the sentiment does credit to their conjugal devotion. And yet, the more complete the happiness of a marriage, the more likely it may be that when death has broken it up the survivor will make use of the opportunity to take a new partner.

DUNSMO 1889 slightly over $100,000,000 worth of gold has been dug from the earth on the four continents; the largest quantity came from Australia, California and South Africa. Africa is looking up.

PROSTITUTION OF POWER.

Tacoma News: According to Washington dispatches President Harrison has placed himself in a most unenviable position in connection with the admission of Montana. He has lent his aid to a piece of sharp practice which cannot fail to provoke resentment, without regard to political affiliations, wherever the facts are understood.

Roy Roy: And this is Washington: Ideal climate; taxes moderate; society the best; fruit unexcelled; farmers prosperous; deep and fertile soil; rapidly growing cities; natural drainage perfect; no longer a frontier state; a great cattle raising region; railroads mileage 1700 miles; little land unfit for something; churches and schools everywhere; cities and towns rich and prosperous; have good home market for live stock; honest and efficient local government; streams and rivers in all parts of the state; native grasses the most luxuriant in the world; raise the most and finest timothy hay per acre; average elevation above the sea level, 2000 feet; summers mild, winters exceedingly short; smallest per centage of illiteracy of any state in the union; on the line of the principal transcontinental railway route; the most healthful region in the Union—pure and bracing air; the finest Indian summers to be enjoyed anywhere in the world.

These senators and congressmen from the four new states and the representative from Idaho have formulated a plan for advancing the interests of the northwest. They have arranged for the lease of suitable quarters in Washington, D. C., and will furnish them in comfortable style. Here will be found files of newspapers, and tables for writing. The congressmen are to ask the boards of trade in their respective states to forward samples of articles showing the resources of the different sections which will be kept on exhibition for advertising purposes.

Scott Hawertt, the republican representative from Pierce county, while in a petulant mood over the result of the senatorial contest, sent in his resignation. It is now conceded that the democrats will elect their man and the party is looking with favorable eyes towards William C. Sharpstein, of Tacoma. Mr. Sharpstein is a son of Judge Sharpstein, of the supreme bench of California, and a nephew of Judge B. L. Sharpstein of Walla Walla.

A RECENT decision of the U. S. land commissioner gives to the entrant in which he desires his proof publication to be made. Friends of the HERALD should remember this when they are ready to prove up on their claims. The local land officers in the past have held differently on this question.

A FIRE at Lynn, Mass., Tuesday swept away a square mile of the business portion of that city. The loss is estimated at $10,000,000.

Before Thanksgiving Day there sat, A turkey who was well and fat; Yet this fact warrants no presumption, He died to-day of quick consumption.

FECHTER & LAW,

OVER YAKIMA NATIONAL BANK, Yakima Avenue, North Yakima, Washington.

HOW ABOUT YAKIMA?

Listen to the Story as it is Told by Careful Observers from Abroad.

(San Francisco Examiner.) The new State Capital will probably be at North Yakima.

(Spokane Falls Review.) The best and most extensive agricultural region in the Yakima Land District, and in the Territory, lies about the City of North Yakima and is known as the Yakima Valley.

(Seattle Post-Intelligencer.) To-day, where four years ago were uncultivated prairies, the home of great herds of unrestrained wild cattle and vicious bands of cayuse ponies who knew no halter, now stands the City of North Yakima, the Queen of Eastern Washington.

(Northwest Magazine.) The knot of valleys which meet at the new town of North Yakima seems a bit of Southern California here in the north. Public opinion in all parts of Washington has settled upon this place as the Capital of the new State.

(Portland Oregonian.) There is no just reason why this city and county, when they shall have reached their maximum in population, should not have in the city from 15,000 to 20,000, and the county 40,000 to 50,000. Neither is there any good reason why they should not be eventually among the very wealthiest towns and counties in Washington Territory. All the material elements that go to make a big and prosperous city are here. The total taxation of the county is only 13 1/2 mills which includes the total tax, territorial added. There is not a pauper in the county. The taxation is heralded to the world as the lowest known from and including Minnesota to and including California. If there is another county in a new country that can show as low a taxation the public would like to know it.

(Tacoma Ledger.) The valley in which the city of North Yakima is situated is in the center of a series of very fertile valleys which open into it and have grown famous for their products. With a splendid agricultural country surrounding it and the peculiar advantages of its location for railroad approaches North Yakima cannot but figure in the future brilliantly.

(Spokane Falls Review.) Although less than forty miles apart the difference in climate between Yakima in Yakima county and Ellensburg in Kittitas county is almost as great as that between a northern and southern latitude. The valley surrounding Ellensburg is excellent for producing grain, while in the valleys near Yakima the farmers are devoting more attention to fruits, vegetables, hops, tobacco and similar crops, which can only be grown in a warm climate.

Interview with Judge J. R. Lewis on his return from attending the Mechanics Fair in California, Published in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

It was a great exhibition of the wealth of California, but I found no better specimens of vegetables and many varieties of fruit than Washington Territory produces. I can go over into the Yakima country and in two days collect finer products in those lines than I saw in California. The Yakima peaches are of better quality and flavor than any raised in California, the apples are superior and the prunes are away ahead of anything I ever saw. Then, too, they raise finer melons, squashes and all kinds of vegetables in the Yakima country than any produced in California.

DIVIDING KITITAS COUNTY.—A petition has been numerously signed and will be presented to the legislature asking for a division of Kititas county and for the formation of a new county to be known as Grant, with county seat at Cle-Elum.

LAND DECISION AFFECTING SIXTY THOUSAND ACRES.—Commissioner Groff, of the general land office, has instructed the register and receiver of the local land office to allow the application of Charles W. Young to make timber culture entry of the southwest quarter of section 34, township 14, north range 18 east.

FROM POLITICS TO RELIGION.—The Christian church has been the scene of interesting meetings of late which have been largely attended. There were twelve who entered the fold on Sunday last, among whom was Sam Vincent.

COLLISION ON THE NORTHERN.—There was a close call for a disastrous collision on the Northern Pacific at Palmer, a station near Tacoma, Monday.

ATTEMPTED JAIL BREAKING.—Last Sunday night the seven prisoners confined in the city jail attempted to break out. They had removed the bricks to the outer layer, from a space large enough to admit the passage of a body, when Policeman Stout tumbled to the racket and anchored them with ball and chain.

AN ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT RECEIVED.—At various times during the past four weeks there have been received consignments consisting of copper wire, converters, globes and an engine, at the local Northern Pacific office, until now there is stored in the warehouse a complete electric light plant.

—Fashions are constantly changing, but the turkey-to-day will be dressed in the same old style, which, while a little ancient, is ever attractive. —Dudley Eselman has resigned his office of school director, and J. M. Stout has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

—Reeves Ayres of Tacoma has been appointed by Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, of California, clerk of the United States circuit court for the district of Washington. —Scott Kramer now has the contract for the building of the new brick school house, Parrott's contract having lapsed on account of his failure to furnish bonds.

White Bluff Stock.

Waterville Immigrant: Stockmen from the southern part of Douglas county claim that cattle as a general thing are poor in the neighborhood of White Bluffs. One stockman named Williams has 2200 head on the range between the Columbia river and Moses lake and expects to lose fifty per cent of them even though the winter be only an ordinary one. The dry summer was pretty hard on cattle, and ranges became eaten out within ten to twelve miles of water, and poor cows as well as young calves cannot get that far between grass and water and thrive. Stockmen have not yet learned to put up fodder for winter feeding, and with few exceptions have no hay on hand for the snowy time. O. G. Smith is an exception, as he has 150 tons of clover hay on hand for his herd.

The Ellensburg Rev.

On Sunday afternoon a row occurred at Spencer's saloon, when some loggers were the aggressors. It commenced by one of them slapping a pie in the face of a colored man who was sitting in one of the rooms of the saloon. This act led to blows, in which the colored man was badly worsted. Dave Cornell, being present, undertook to keep the men from laboring the colored man, whereupon bottles, beer glasses and chairs were hurled at Dave, who was badly beaten about the face and head. The colored man, as soon as he was released, left the scene of action and has not been seen since. A knife was used on the assailant. Ed Emerson, Duncan McCormack and Zack McCormack were the names of the parties engaged in the brawl. Ed Emerson, of the four men injured, was the most seriously hurt, he being stabbed in the skull. Duncan McCormack received a slash on the scalp and a slash in the left arm, severing an artery and vein. His ear was divided by a thrust of the knife from behind. He had a narrow escape from death. Zack McCormack received some cuts about the head and a thrust in the neck.—Localier.

The Brazilian Revolution.

The Brazilian revolution is an accomplished fact. Apparently the army and navy made common cause with the new movement and carried it through. The flag of the new republic has been recognized in the various provinces of the empire, now states of the republic. Dom Pedro and his family have been put upon a Brazilian man-of-war, with short time for leave taking, and are now en route for Lisbon. He refused to abdicate, but yielded, without resistance, to the demands of the revolutionary leaders, backed by force. A purse of $2,500,000 and an allowance from the Brazilian treasury of $450,000 annually will solace his exile. The best men of the nation are said to be at the head of the revolution. A provisional government has been established. The new republic will take the name of the United States of Brazil. A congress of the representatives of the various states will soon meet. Meantime the provisional government has given notice that all the financial engagements of the empire will be faithfully observed by the republic. The revolution was carried out apparently without violence, except a minor disturbance caused by the resistance of a few national guards. A late dispatch announces that the parliament of the emperor have taken up arms and are fighting with the revolutionists in the streets of Rio, but the news is of doubtful authenticity. The diplomatic and consular representatives of Brazil in foreign countries have been notified by the new government of the change in affairs, but have not yet received instructions. Pending these the Brazilian representatives in the Pan-American congress and the International Marine congress have withdrawn from participation in the proceedings of those bodies.

Watson C. Squire's Wealth.

Senator Watson C. Squire and family left for Washington last Saturday, via the Union Pacific, in a private car furnished by the Seattle, Lake Shore and Eastern. Senator Squire will occupy a residence belonging to W. C. Hill, of Seattle, and John C. Carrere, of Spokane Falls, will be his private secretary. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer in speaking of the senator's wealth says he owns a $24 acre farm, half a mile from Renton, on Black river, which is stocked with a large number of full-blooded and valuable Holstein cattle. Netherland Prince, a Holstein bull was acquired by the senator at a cost of $1000, and he has other animals fully as valuable. The dairy now produces about sixty-five gallons of milk daily. Last fall this farm also produced some of the finest hops ever seen in the country. Ninety acres of land in the city of Seattle are also owned by the senator. They lie about midway between the bay and Lake Washington and two blocks north of Yeeler avenue. Another possession is the three-story brick almost completed at the corner of Battery and Front streets, in North Seattle. On the water front, between Bell and Battery streets, the senator has just built a large wharf and warehouse at a cost of $18,000. The Squire-Lattimer building, on the corner of Main and Commercial streets, is another of Senator Squire's solid improvements. This building is built in the very best style, and is strong and handsome. He also owns numerous smaller buildings all over the city, among which are the store buildings at the corner of Fourth and Pike and at the corner of Front and Wall streets. He intends to build before long on the lots at the corner of south Second and Main streets, which was occupied by a large brick building. He also owns stock in countless enterprises started in Seattle, among which are the Washington National bank, the Bank of North Seattle, the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern railway, the Puget Sound & Alaska Steamship company, and others of lesser note. He has been ever willing to help young enterprises, and has made many successful investments in real estate as well as business ventures.

SUPPLEMENT.

If you believe every'thing you hear about men and women, my boy, you'll be off your course all your life long. Take a good grip on that."

"That's all right," said Phil, "but I want to know what you mean by that. You say I'll be off my course all my life long if I don't take a good grip on that. Now, what do you mean by that?"

"You mean," said Phil, "that you don't know what you're doing. You're just a young fellow who's just come out of school, and you don't know what you're getting into. You'll be off your course all your life long if you don't take a good grip on that."

"What do you mean by that?" asked Phil. "You say I'll be off my course all my life long if I don't take a good grip on that. Now, what do you mean by that?"

"I mean," said Phil, "that you don't know what you're doing. You're just a young fellow who's just come out of school, and you don't know what you're getting into. You'll be off your course all your life long if you don't take a good grip on that."

"What do you mean by that?" asked Phil. "You say I'll be off my course all my life long if I don't take a good grip on that. Now, what do you mean by that?"

"Then I shall earnestly strive to be nice," said Phil. "There's some down town place," said Marge, "where papa gets his bowly candy a great deal cheaper than over Broadway; but he forgets in half the time, so we sometimes have one of the clerks order it sent to papa's desk—that is, clerks who know how to select candy," said Marge.

"You children are not to worry Phil with any of your trifling affairs," said the head of the house. "I want you all to understand that, besides having a desk in my office, he is a large operator in real estate—a capitalist—a sort of monopolist, in fact, for he is secretary and director of the Hayton Bay Improvement company, which has considerable land interests of shore front on the Atlantic coast."

"You mean," said Marge, "that you don't know what you're doing. You're just a young fellow who's just come out of school, and you don't know what you're getting into. You'll be off your course all your life long if you don't take a good grip on that."

Rich and Poor,

Prince and Pessant, the Millionaire and Day Laborer, by their common use of this remedy, attest the world-wide reputation of Ayer's Pills. Leading physicians recommend these pills for Stomach and Liver Troubles, Constiveness, Biliousness, and Sick Headache; also, for Rheumatism, Jaundice, and Neuralgia. They are sugar-coated; contain no alcohol; are prompt, but mild; in operation; and, therefore, the very best medicine for Family Use, as well as for Travelers and Tourists.

"I have derived great relief from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken so ill with Rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of these pills." Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

"Ayer's Pills have been in use in my family upwards of twenty years and have completely verified all that is claimed for them. In attacks of biliousness and indigestion they afford great relief than any other medicine I ever tried."—T. F. Adams, Holly Springs, N. C.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for a number of years, and have never found anything equal to them for giving me an appetite and imparting energy and strength to the system. I always keep them in the house."—R. D. Jackson, Wilmington, Del.

"Two boxes of Ayer's Pills cured me of severe Headache, from which I was long a sufferer."—Emma Keyes, Hubbardston, Mass.

"Whenever I am troubled with constipation, or suffer from loss of appetite, Ayer's Pills are my remedy."—A. J. Kiser, Jr., Rock House, Va.

"Ayer's Pills are in general demand among our customers. Our sales of them exceed those of all other pills combined. We have never known them fail to give entire satisfaction." Wright & Hanbury, San Diego, Texas.
