TO THE COUNTY AUDITORS:

I, Sam Reed, Secretary of State of the State of Washington, certify that the following are the full, true, and correct copies of the official ballot titles of those measures which have been referred pursuant to state law to the voters of this state for their approval or rejection at the state general election to be held on Tuesday, November 4, 2008. The following headings and ballot order are as prescribed by RCW 29A.36.121, RCW 29A.72.050, 29A.72.290 and WAC 434-230-020:

Proposed by Initiative Petition

INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. 985

Initiative Measure No. 985 concerns transportation.

This measure would open high-occupancy vehicle lanes to all traffic during specified hours, require traffic light synchronization, increase roadside assistance funding, and dedicate certain taxes, fines, tolls and other revenues to traffic-flow purposes.

Should this measure be enacted into law? Yes [] No []

Proposed by Initiative Petition

INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. 1000

Initiative Measure No. 1000 concerns allowing certain terminally ill competent adults to obtain lethal prescriptions.

This measure would permit terminally ill, competent, adult Washington residents, who are medically predicted to have six months or less to live, to request and self-administer lethal medication prescribed by a physician.

Should this measure be enacted into law? Yes [] No []

Proposed by Initiative Petition

INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. 1029

Initiative Measure No. 1029 concerns long-term care services for the elderly and persons with disabilities.

This measure would require long-term care workers to be certified as home care aides based on an examination, with exceptions; increase training and criminal background check requirements; and establish disciplinary standards and procedures.

Should this measure be enacted into law? Yes [] No []

Note: The certification of Initiative Measure No. 1029 is subject to possible modification if a court of competent jurisdiction issues an order removing I-1029 from the ballot.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed the seal of the state of Washington, this 13th day of August, 2008.

SAM REED
Secretary of State
