

Lending e-Readers: What Libraries Need to Know Resources

E-reader Policies and Procedures-Samples from Libraries (WebJunction)

WebJunction Blog post: Circulating E-Readers

Developing and Maintaining E-Reader Policies and Procedures for Libraries
(WebJunction)

Hooksett Public Library eReaders for Loan @ Your Library

NACO article: County Libraries See Benefits in Lending e-Readers

American Libraries article 1/12/2012: Threats to Digital Lending

Code4Lib: So You Want to Start a Kindle Lending Program

TechDirt 1/5/2012: If Libraries Didn't Exist, Would Publishers be Trying to Kill Book Lending?

Fairleigh Dickinson University eReader Loan Program FAQs

Reddick Public Library District: eReader Lending Policy

Additional Resources from Lauren Corder:

<http://www.theunquietlibrary.libguides.com/kindles>

Other useful links:

No Shelf Required: How to start an eReader lending program at your library

<http://www.libraries.wright.edu/noshelfrequired/2011/02/28/how-to-start-an-e-reader-lending-program-at-your-library/>

Library Law Blog: May a library lend e-book readers?

<http://blog.librarylaw.com/librarylaw/2010/06/may-a-library-lend-e-book-readers.html>

Sacramento County Library E-Readers Report: <http://saclibrary.org/?pageId=1591>