

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

EXCELLENCE

IN GOVERNMENT

2009 Ralph Munro Longevity Award Recipients

The Longevity Award was created in 1999 to commemorate Ralph Munro's 20-year service as Secretary of State. The award is given to employees who have been in state service for at least 40 years and every five years thereafter.

Those with at least 40 years of service include:

Judith Schillereff- Department of Transportation
Arthur Warner- Department of Transportation
Garry Wolf- Department of Transportation
Donald Pratt- Department of Transportation
Gary Clemensen- Department of Transportation
Kelly Jones- Department of Transportation
Charles Vander Wal- Department of Transportation
Jeffery Moore- Department of Transportation
Robert Hoover- Department of Transportation
James Sinclair- Department of Transportation
Linda Rolfe- Department of Social and Health Services
Linda McKenna- Department of Social and Health Services
Vicki Maher- Department of Social and Health Services
Patricia Pickett- Department of Social and Health Services
Sandra Boyle- Department of Social and Health Services
David Rowland- Department of Social and Health Services
Rachel Loss- Department of Social and Health Services
Estelle Ovadia- Department of Social and Health Services
Lynne Hay-Chapman- Department of Social and Health Services
Lynn Red- Office of Secretary of State
Cathleen Cardinal- Department of Personnel
Thomas Herbert- Liquor Control Board
Robert Monn- Department of Ecology
Alan Medley- Employment Security Department
Virginia Haataia- Department of Licensing
Shirley Huguenin- Department of Early Learning
John Campbell- Washington State Patrol
Gus Nilsson- Washington State Patrol
Hal Behme- Department of Labor and Industries
Maureen Rasa- Department of Labor and Industries
Pauline Christiansen- Bellevue Community College
Aslam Kahn- Bellevue Community College
Ron Hess- Eastern Washington University
James Kiewetter- Eastern Washington University
Wayne Kraft- Eastern Washington University
Grant Smith- Eastern Washington University
Henry York-Steiner- Eastern Washington University

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

EXCELLENCE

IN GOVERNMENT

2009 Ralph Munro Longevity Award Recipients

The Longevity Award was created in 1999 to commemorate Ralph Munro's 20-year service as Secretary of State. The award is given to employees who have been in state service for at least 40 years and every five years thereafter.

Those with at least 40 years of service include:

George Ball- Washington State University
Dallas E. Barnes- Washington State University
Steven R. Burkett- Washington State University
Harold A. Dengerink- Washington State University
Don A. Dillman- Washington State University
Jerry B. Gough- Washington State University
George Hinman- Washington State University
John E. Jorgensen- Washington State University
Michael Kallaher- Washington State University
Richard E. Kayser- Washington State University
Kathleen Thistle- Washington State University
Gerald E. Tripart- Washington State University
Kung-Chi Wang- Washington State University
William A. Webb- Washington State University

Those with at least 45 years of service include:

Shirley Tesdal- Department of Transportation
Beldon Pearson- Department of Transportation
Paul Papas- Department of Transportation
Merley McCall- Department of Ecology
Eugene Sanborn- Department of Fish and Wildlife

The Department of Fish and Wildlife's Duane Eldred was the lone honoree with at least 50 years of service.

