

Reed Awards Outstanding Leader

David Trujillo, Washington State Gambling Commission and Secretary of State Sam Reed

Public Service Recognition Week, or PSRW, has been celebrated in Washington State since 1990. Throughout the nation and around the world, PSRW is celebrated each year during the first full week of May to recognize the men and women who have dedicated their careers to bettering this great state.

As part of PSRW, the Washington State Leadership Award, created this year, gives state employees the opportunity to nominate a supervisor, manager or director for outstanding service.

Ten employees out of the 85 nominated were selected to be honored with the Washington State Leadership Award – David Trujillo was one of the chosen.

David was chosen because of his “inspiration and motivation” and is someone who is, according to the nomination, “respectful, genuine and honest.”
