NOTICE.
TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

WHEREAS THE COMMISSIONER OF THE General Land Office, in letter dated July 8th, 1874, ordered that the lands in Township 23 North, Range 2 East, in the district of lands for sale at Olympia, W. T., should be withheld from disposal as agricultural lands until the nominal character thereof shall have been fully established. And, whereas, Thomas Mulroy, of King County, W. T., who made proposition, D. S. No. 1469, for land in said Township and Range, viz: The S. E. 1/4 of Section 28, and now makes application to make his final entry of said land, and has filed in this office his affidavit declaring that there is not within the limits of said land, to his knowledge, any coal or other valuable mineral deposit, and that said land is essentially non-mineral land.
Now, therefore, in accordance with instructions from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, it is ordered that testimony touching the character of said land shall be taken before the Clerk of the United States District Court, at his office, in Seattle, King County, W.
T., on the 5th day of February, A. D. 1876, beginning at 10 o'clock p. m., at which place and time all persons having interest in the matter of the character of the above described land are required to appear and there and then to present such evidence as may serve to fully establish the character of said tract of land.
Given under our hand, at the United States District Land Office at Olympia, W. T., this 27th day of December, A. D. 1875.

THE SEATTLE
Hospital!
CONDUCTED BY G. A. WEED, M. D.

COMMERCIAL ST., BETWEEN MAIN AND JACKSON,
SEATTLE, W. T.

TO MEET THE PRESSING WANTS OF many persons on Puget Sound needing Medical and Surgical aid, and for comfortable rooms, good care and moderate prices, I have fitted up a Hospital, where every convenience and comfort will be provided in connection with the most skillful Medical and Surgical attendance.
We aim to make this a permanent institution, and to give special attention to cases of fracture and injuries of all kinds that are constantly occurring in the saw mills, coal mines and logging camps, surrounding the Sound.
Seattle being centrally located, with regard to these interests, and more accessible than any other point, we mean with the aid of these advantages, and by giving personal and thorough attention to its entire management, to build up the Hospital as the most desirable and healthy institution where no homes, and worthy of their confidence and that of the public.
The Hospital is in a pleasant and healthy location, the rooms neatly and cheerfully furnished.
For further particulars apply either in person or by letter to G. A. WEED, M. D., at his office, 16

FROM DAILY OF THURSDAY.

IN JUSTICE'S COURT.—The following cases were before Smith, J.
P., yesterday. Gellerson Bros. vs.
A. B. Johnson, et al., replevin to recover saw-logs to the value of $100. Ordered that the logs be delivered to plaintiffs on payment to defendants of 1/3 their value, or $25, the salvage to which the law entitles them.— McNaught & Leary for plaintiffs, Emery for defendants.
Wilkes & Co. vs. A. B. Johnson, et al., replevin to recover saw-logs, etc. Compromised on the basis of the decision in the foregoing case.

REINHIMER vs. H. Vining & Co., claim for $99 for wages. Set for trial on Jan. 12th.
REINHIMER vs. H. E. Vining, claim for $29.50 for labor and money loaned. Case set for trial Jan. 12.

PROF. HERRMANN.—Prof. Hermann last evening was greeted by a pretty full house, though not nearly as large a one as his performance merited. The tricks introduced were all new and were performed with such ease and dexterity as to leave the audience bewildered with astonishment. Prof. Herrmann and troupe left this morning on the North Pacific for Victoria, at which place they are advertised to appear this evening.

ANOTHER LOTTERY.—Taking advantage of the law passed at the last session of the legislature legalizing lotteries provided a portion goes to the aid of the Snoqualmie road, Mr. B. Conkle man has brought out another lottery scheme. This consists of a cash lottery, with $20,000 in prizes, ranging from $10,000 to $5. There are 8,000 tickets, at $5. The drawing is to take place April 3d.

FREE LECTURES.—Rev. D. N.
Utter, who has been favorably known to the public for the last year as a preacher of Liberal Christianity, arrived in Seattle this morning on the North Pacific. He is to lecture in the Pavillion on Friday and Saturday evenings upon the subjects of "Spiritualism" and "Infidelity." Free to all. Lectures begin at 7 o'clock.

LOGS LOST.—While the steamer Politkofsky was towing a boom of logs into Port Madison yesterday, the heavy sea on at the time washed large numbers of them out of the boom. Nearly half the boom was lost in this manner.

PICKED UP.—The body of little Johnny Ralston, one of the boys who were drowned in Commencement Bay last week, was picked up on the Puyallup flats by an Indian.

HEAVY WINDS.—Reports from down Sound are to the effect that there have been very heavy gales for the past day or so. We have experienced no such weather here.

The barkentine Discovery has commenced loading with Renton coal from scows.

COAL.—The schooner Letitia, loaded with Nanaimo coal for the Seattle Gas Works, arrived here this morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—Sailed, bark Onward, Utalady; bark Rival, Columbia river; bark W.
A. Holcomb, Burrard Inlet.

The bark Harvest Home has finished discharging ballast and gone down to the coal wharf.

Mr. Hansen has opened a watch-maker's shop in the store of the Chilberg Bros. on Front street.

FAST TIME.—A Port Blakely correspondent furnishes us with the following:
The bark Martha Rideout, A.
Nichols Master, arrived here Jan. 6th, 4 days from San Francisco. The ship Dashing Wave, E. Nichols Master, was 9 days from San Francisco to Blakely rocks. Where is the broom now?

The bark J. W. Sepper arrived here this morning from San Francisco.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. L. B.
Frank, a workman employed in the furniture factory of Messrs.
Hall & Paulson, met with a very painful accident about 1 o'clock this afternoon. While working on a shaping machine the board he was dressing slipped, bringing his right hand in contact with the revolving knives and nearly severing the thumb and first two fingers. He was taken to the office of Dr. Weed to have the wound dressed. The two fingers and the first joint of the thumb were so lacerated that they had to be amputated. The other fingers are badly cut up and the bones broken, but they can be saved.

SEABECK, Jan. 5.—Sailed, bark Isaac Jeanes, San Francisco.

PORT DISCOVERY, Jan. 6.—Arrived, ship War Hawk. Sailed, bark Ida F. Taylor, Callao via San Francisco.

PORT GAMBLE, Jan. 6.—Arrived, King Phillip and schooner Jos. Perkins.

PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 5.—Arrived, ships Grace Darling, King Phillip and Dashing Wave.

6.—Arrived, bark Martha Rideout, 3 days and 20 hours from San Francisco; bark Amie.

PORT LUDLOW, Jan. 6.—Arrived, Forest Queen.

AHEAD OF TIME.—The North Pacific arrived here this morning about 6 or 8 hours ahead of time, and left here about 11 o'clock for Olympia. The reason for the early return was that some repairs were necessary to be made to her machinery, which would take a day or so,
and she wished to return to Olympia in time to have them completed before Sunday.

The following officers of Olive Branch Lodge, No. 4, I. O.
O. F., were elected Dec. 28, 1875:
W. J. Wallis, N. G.; Frank Hanford, V. G.; L. Diller, R. Sec.; J.
C. Lipsky, P. S.; I. Waddell, Treasurer; C. H. Burnett, G. W.
Hall and Wm. Meydenbauer, Trustees.

NEARLY FINISHED.—The three tenement houses of Mr. George, on 2d street, are nearly finished now. The plasterers are putting on the last coat, and in a week or so they will be ready for rent.

The ship Commodore, Capt. Cathcart, left San Francisco at 12 o'clock New Year's Day, arrived at Seattle at 7 o'- clock, Jan. 6th, making the run in 5 days, 7 hours, from port to port.

LARGE VESSELS.—There were in this harbor to-day six sea-going vessels, including among them three of the largest that have ever been in this place, viz: the ships Eldorado and Commodore and the bark Enoch Talbot, formerly a ship. In addition to these, there were the barks Harvest Home and J. W.
Seever and the barkentine Discovery.

REMOVING.—Mr. J. L. Jamieson is removing his stock of stationary and fancy goods to the stand formerly occupied by W. G.
Jamieson, on Commercial St., adjoining Schwabacher's. The stand has been handsomely fitted up with shelves, show cases, etc.

British Columbia Items.

FOUNDERED.—Oh Sunday evening the open boat "Herman," engaged in carrying provisions to Race Rocks light-house, foundered, and but for the timely assistance of the lightkeeper the occupant would have met his death. The accident happened while passing through one of the tide rips. The boat and everything in it were lost.

FAILED TO CONNECT.—A number of passengers arrived here per steamer North Pacific on Monday last expecting to connect with the steamer City of Panama for San Francisco, but much to their chagrin they were just in time to see the mail boat steam out of Esquimalt harbor, and have consequently to lay over a trip.

FINISHED.—The ship Eldorado has finished loading with Seattle coal and hauled out from the wharf. The bark Harvest Home loads next.

MORE NEW HOUSES.—Four small houses are building on 6th street, near Cherry, each for a different party. There must be at least twenty small buildings going up in different parts of own.

LECTURE.—A select and attentive audience listened last evening to Mr. Utter's lecture upon spiritualism. Whether spiritualism is to be considered as a science, a religion or a humbug depends upon definitions and upon the truth or falsity of the alleged facts concerning communications. Until he has more evidence the question must remain an open one and meanwhile it was best to love God and be honest and deal justly with our fellows. At the lecture this evening the subject is infidelity.
Good singing is expected.

The patent-pen peddler, who afflicted this city with his presence a week or so since, was arrested in Portland on Wednesday and "sinched" for peddling without a license. The city ordinance there requires them to pay $10 a day license.

Parties who are wintering stock on the North side of Snake river state that the cattle never looked better, and that they are in fine condition to stand any severe weather, such as is common in the months of January and February.

The steamer Alida came down from Olympia this forenoon. She is to go up again on Monday morning.

COURT.—The term of Court at Steilacoom, W. T., commences on Monday next. His Honor, Chief Justice Lewis, as well as several of the members of the bar, went up on Friday to attend. The January term of Court at this place commences two weeks from Monday.

ST. ALBANS, Vt. Jan. 4.—The Charlie Ross sensation is still the absorbing topic, and bets of $500 to $50 are offered that the boy is the real Charlie Ross.
The authorities will hold the boy until the identification is established, and have offered to pay Mr. Ross' expenses to come and see him. A Philadelphia gentleman saw him today, and avowed he was sure it was Charlie Ross.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The Boating Association of American colleges began its regular session to-day. The colleges represented were Cornell, Princeton, Columbia, Union, Hamilton, Harvard, Dartmouth, Bowdoin, Amherst, Williams, Trinity and Brown. Saratoga was selected as the place for holding the Centennial contest by a vote of 9 to 4. The boat club of Trinity, Dublin, Ireland, says it is not likely they can be at Saratoga, their own races taking place about the same time.

ERE, Pa., Jan. 4.—The tug J. C.
Greenham called here this morning on her way from Buffalo to Ashtabula.
She stopped at Long Point last night, and reports the lake free from ice, and no impediment to navigation beyond the discontinuance of lights in the lighthouses.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—Wm. Carlisle, a young man from Kentucky, shot himself at the Good Samaritan Hospital last evening and died shortly afterwards.
He was under treatment for lung disease, grew despondent and committed suicide.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—A special report from Fort Sully states that a party of miners have formed a supply depot near old Fort Pierre, on the Missouri river, and are constantly in communication with the camps on the Black Hills. They claim to have found a new route by which the hills are reached in one hundred miles travel over an easy road. Their messengers make the trip in two days.

BUFFALO, Jan. 4.—During the temporary absence of the jailer this morning, all the male prisoners in the county jail made an attack on the janitor, who had charge of the door. He rang the alarm, however, and the jailer arrived promptly and compelled the prisoners to go into their cells.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The U. S. str.
Supply, now at New York, will be ordered to Civita Vecchia, where she will receive "the monument to be erected here to the memory of those in the naval service who fell in the defense of the Union and all such contributions as American artists wish to send to the Centennial exhibition. She will then proceed to Leghorn for contributions from artists there. On her way home she will touch at Tangier, Morocco.
No vessel will be sent to north of Europe to secure contributions. The str., it is expected, will return to Philadelphia early in April.

SAN ANDREAS, Jan. 4.—Last night at this place a burglar entered a small building attached to the rear of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express office by cutting out the window, from which place he evidently intended to get into the main building; but finding heavy iron doors to contend with, he armed himself with a steel bar and proceeded to and entered the engine house, which is attached to the side of the express building, and drifted nearly through the brick wall, but the wall being two feet and a half thick, he naturally required some refreshments, and proceeded to a saloon close by and broke and entered through a window, and, while in the act of initiating himself as bartender, was arrested by a watchman, who took from him a Colt's revolver and derringer, and locked him up.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—The London Times has the following: "A detective from Bremen has arrived in Liverpool to investigate the operations of Thomassen, alias Thomas, with a view to discovering whether the man had had any accomplishes. It has been ascertained that Thomassen had made several trips between Liverpool and New York, and he once attempted to obtain heavy insurance on goods he wished to ship. The suspicion has been raised that he might have been privy to the loss of the str.
City of Boston in January, 1870. Tho-massen and wife left New York in June following the disaster, and went to Dresden, where they lived in a stylish manner. A short time before his death Thomassen was asked if he knew the City of Boston. He promptly replied, "Yes—Inman steamer; I know her very well." The Messrs. Inman have no trace of Thomassen, or Thomas, on their book at Liverpool; but most careful inquiries will forthwith be made at New York in the Boston's list of passengers and cargo, and into the insurance on the latter.

PUEBLO, Col., Jan. 5.—J. L. Mitchell, receiver of the land office for this district, attempted suicide here to day by shooting himself in the head. The ball did not, however, penetrate the skull, and he will recover. He is under indictment for defalcation, and had been required to give bail for his appearance at the next Federal court.

BUFFALO, Jan. 5.—Jos. Bork, the defaulting city treasurer, returned to-day and gave himself up. He was arraigned and bailed by his friends in $50,000.
He claims that, if allowed, he can pay all claims the city has against him.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The Postmaster General has appointed Thomas Fraser of Portland, and Harrison Lineville, of Buena Vista, Oregon, mail route agents on the special train on the Oregon and California Railroad from Portland to Albany.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 4.—The Democratic State Convention met at noon in St. Patrick's Hall. Hon. R. H. Marr, chairman of the State central committee, called the convention to order. Judge Albert Voorhees was elected president pro tem. A committee on credentials was appointed, which stated they will allow no proxies for county delegates unless the proxy resides in the parish he represents.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The Cologne Gazette remarks that the American attempt at intervention in Cuba is singularly ill timed. European Governments will not countenance it because they wish in the interests of order to see King Alfon-so's authority more firmly established.

The Paris correspondent of the Times telegraphs: I learn from authoritative sources that France to-day notified Austria that she concurred without reserve in the proposals for Turkish reform made in Count Andrassy's note. All The Powers were notified of the decision of France.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The following resolutions were introduced in the House:
By Goode, whether any part of the money appropriated for the construction of eight steam vessels of war, authorized by act of 10th February, 1873, has been misapplied for political purposes or used in any manner to promote the success of the Republican party; and especially whether any money has been paid to incompetent persons, possessing no mechanical skill, who have been employed in navy yards on the condition, expressed or implied, that he would vote for the nominees of the Republican party. Agreed to.

By Kasson, a resolution recognizing the great and gallant services by loyal soldiers to the country, in a time of greatest need and peril; earnestly recommending the people to exercise the utmost care and watchfulness over the rights and interests of these brave men securing them employment. All other things being equal, the soldier shall have preference over the civilian; and declaring that the House is in favor of giving liberal pensions to diseased, crippled soldiers, their widows and children dependent on the fathers and mothers. The previous question was seconded, 142 to 9, and the resolution was agreed to amid laughter on both sides of the house.

TWEED'S EMPTY APARTMENT.—A New York paper thus describes the room formerly occupied by Tweed in Ludlow street jail:

The room occupied by Tweed, and which was vacant last night, is on the ground floor, and is really the parlor of the prison. To enter it the tenant is not obliged to pass through the prison office. He can go out and return without any of the other prisoners seeing him. The door leading to the room is just at the left of the main entrance, and has a large double window opening on Ludlow street. The room last night was just as the celebrated prisoner left it. The bed was made up, and the occupant's night-suit hung in its usual place. This room, which has been the temporary home of many noted prisoners, including Dick Connelly and M. & Brennan, is well furnished, and, as a sitting and sleeping apartment, is very cozy. There are a sofa and several sofa chairs, a good double bed, a washstand, large clock, and other articles of furniture to match. The walls are decorated with numerous engravings and photographs. On one side of the room hangs a wood cut of the room itself, taken from an illustrated paper. Pasted on to the front of the clock is an article clipped from some periodical, entitled "The Bright Side." It advises all to be cheerful and look up, and not go with their heads hanging down. "All people have their troubles," it says, "and none are exempt." The time will come, the author intimates, when all will have reason to rejoice and be happy.

A STRANGE STORY.—They tell this story of a man in London, who, some years ago, lost, then found, then lost again a very respectable fortune, in a most romantic manner. He was a sailor, and engaging in the Neapolitan wars, was one of the crew which took a very valuable prize. His own share amounted to a large sum. He went to the proper office and received his golden guineas in a large leather bag.
Proceeding along the street, he noticed that his shoestring was untied. He put his bag of gold upon a post, and bent over to tie it. At that moment he was seized by a pressgang, hurried off to the ship, held in service, taken prisoner by the Moors, and kept in bondage by them for many years. His story of the bag of gold was laughed to scorn.
Meanwhile a man came along, found the bag, advertised it as found, and having no satisfactory response, used it to set himself up as a banker. He thrived; time passed on; in forty years he retired, rich. One day an old man called upon him and claimed the bag of gold.
The sailor had returned, had heard by chance of the advertisement, had hunted it up, and had found the finder.
The latter told him that if he called the next day he should have his money, with compound interest added. The sailor went away and never returned; and to this day it is a mystery what became of him, or why he never went back to get his own.

NEEDN'T HANG UP YOUR STOCKING.— There are two residents of Detroit who won't get any Santa Claus gifts in their stockings. They live on Adams avenue, husband and wife. She had the front steps washed the other night while he was down town, and when he returned home and rushed for the door in his usual vigorous style he rushed on his head. As he was falling around the wife opened the door and inquired:
"What made you fall down, Peter?" He pitched against the doors in his efforts to stand up and answered:
"Don't you know anything, you numb-head you!"
"What is it—ice?" she asked.
"You don't suppose I'd fall on sand, do you?" he shouted. "I was going to put something in your stocking, but now I won't!"
"Well, keep your brass jewelry, then," she spatfully replied.
"And you keep your old calico dressing-gown!"
It is sad to see folks living this way.

A LUCKLESS EXPEDITION.—Four men passing the Cajon de los Uvas, on their way from Arizona to Kern county, were badly, though not seriously injured by the running away of their four-horse team. They report that of the 700 horses with which they started to Arizona,

"FAR NOBLE FRATERNUM." - Higgins has found his affinity, and his name is Smith; Smith of the Walla Walla Union; formerly the keeper of a "Hurdy Gurdy," and the ostensible husband of one of his dancing girls. When Smith abandoned the hurdy gurdy business and became the publisher of the Union, he married another woman, and when arraigned for bigamy escaped the penitentiary on the testimony of his former reputed wife that they had never been legally married and that their connection was solely adulterous. Smith was subsequently indicted in the Court at Walla Walla as a gambler, convicted, and it became the duty of Judge Lewis to pronounce the sentence of the law upon him in open Court. This judicial act of the Judge made Smith his implacable enemy.

"No rogue were felt the halter draw, With good opinion of the law." Smith assumed that the Judge was guilty of base treachery to the Republic in thus bringing to public scandal the publisher of the party organ; that it was the duty of the Judge, as a party man, to lynch the matter up and allow him to settle the penalty without being publicly arraigned for sentence. But the Judge is a very impracticable man and shows no party bias in the matter of compromises with criminals. From thenceforth the Union has assailed the Judge continuously with all sorts of denunciation and vituperation, without once specifying an act of judicial or moral wrong committed by him.

The bond of sympathy between Smith and Higgins is illustrated in their mutual and natural hatred of an incorruptible Judge. Two or three years ago, when the Intelligencer was issued and circulated in this town on Sundays, we undertook to, and succeeded in, arousing the moral sentiment of the community to the public scandal and social curse of squaw dance houses and open gambling halls which were then the most prominent features of the town. The most respectable matrons of the community, with rare exceptions, backed our efforts with memorial to the Common Council to suppress these nuisances. Higgins, the editor, then came forward as the champion and apologist of the brothel keepers and gamblers, and in ribald terms denounced the wives and mothers who were making as holy an effort as ever moved virtue to the defence of public and private morality, as "women of uneasy virtue." Popular sentiment has somewhat improved since that time, demanding greater circumspection in the practice or defence of social vices, but the animus of this worthy pair is just as apparent in their sympathetic movements now as when they were openly defying and ridiculing all moral restraint. Nothing is more natural than the combination between them, founded upon kindred tastes and habits. Higgins assails Judge Lewis for the same reason he assails Mr. Webster, because he naturally hates all men of like character; he has not a sentiment or taste in common with them or any other gentleman. Smith hates the Judge not only on general principles, but for the special reasons we have mentioned. Higgins quotes and endorses the diatribes of Smith, and Smith follows suit by Higgins, and together they form the links to the common sewer from which all the filth that has been cast at Judge Lewis has emanated. Neither of them has ever mentioned a single fact impugning in the least the character of the Judge, either in his judicial or social capacity, and yet they continually assail him with the coarsest epithets and most general denunciation.

Both of these men profess to be Republicans and supporters of the Administration, and yet it is a notable fact that no opposition papers in the Territory have ever reflected upon the character of the Federal officers they so foully persecute, and they select as objects of assault the very representatives of the Administration who present the best evidence of its confidence, and command the largest degree of respect from the best people of all political parties. The Administration and the Republican party would be well rid of all such supporters.

Port Townsend Items. From the Argosy. Last Wednesday night week, the mail sloop Jenny, on her return trip from Neah Bay, went ashore on the spit at Port Angeles, and after discharging her mail was assisted off by the people at the Lighthouse and brought to Port Discovery, whence she again sailed with the mail on last Wednesday for Neah Bay.

The steamer California, Hayes, from Portland for Sitka, arrived here on Monday evening last, and after taking in some freight for Fort Wrangel, left at 10 P. M. for Victoria. Capt. Hayes reports a rough passage from the Columbia river to Cape Flattery. The Gustie Telfair is at Astoria, but the damage she received is greater than first supposed, and it is now questionable whether she will be repaired. The California will be absent on her trip to Sitka from fifteen to 20 days.

We learn by way of Victoria that the wreck of the ship Orpheus has slipped off the rock on which she stranded and lies in 10 fathoms of water. The schooner Winnifred, Capt. Gilbert, which went from here to save what could be obtained from the wreck, is lying safe at anchor at Spring's trading post, not very far from the position of the Orpheus. It is thought that Capt. Gilbert will have to suspend operations till better weather.

Telegraphic

New York, Jan. 7.—Gold closed at 13.

LEXINGTON, Jan. 7.—The banks of this city have organized a clearing house establishment. Capital nearly $900,000.

OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—Great excitement prevails in Hull owing to an attempt made by the creditors to attach the property of S. B. Eddy, an insolvent. Eddy, backed by a large number of employees, prevented the bailiff from taking possession, and the premises are now guarded by 70 men. It is said that the militia will be ordered out to dry to protect the officers of the law in the discharge of their duty.

PARIS, Jan. 7.—The Presse has received information of a terrible land slide in Isle Reancon on Dec. 21st. Sixty-two persons killed and many injured. Buildings and plantations were destroyed.

Minister Buffet has sent a circular to the prefects of departments, reminding them that they may revoke licenses to newspaper dealers unless legal regulations are observed.

The Journal des Debates treats the circular as an affair of great gravity and says it shows that the Government is interpreting the press law in the most restrictive manner possible.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—A special from Vienna says the negotiations between the Austrian and Hungarian ministers on the bank question have had no result and will be resumed in Vienna. Another Vienna correspondent telegraphs that before Nissic and Dugar were re-ventured by the Turks, the insurgents suffered a defeat which was the severest since the beginning of the war, losing 600 killed and many wounded.

The insurgent commander, Poulvich, who is accused of treason, has fled to Cetlinge.

Nissic is provisioned until May. The Gazette publishes a notice to the masters of British vessels warning them to keep off from the Spanish coast east of Bilbao, as Carlist batteries are placed at intervals along shore and fire at anything appearing.

Jan. 8.—A Vienna correspondent telegraphs that a body of 2800 insurgents tried to surprise Mostar but were defeated and almost totally destroyed.

Because of the threatening attitude of Turkey, 3000 Montenegro guards have been armed with breech-loaders and sent to the frontier.

A Vienna dispatch says it reported that the Montenegro Minister of War intends to purchase rifles in Vienna.

Telegrams from Servia say that the makers of arms are very active.

The Roumanian government is hastening the completion of arming with foreign powers.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Standard reports all the men there who are able to serve in case of war, have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to join their corps in forty-eight hours' notice.

The answer of Italy to Count Andrassy's note was received on Tuesday in Vienna. The Cologne Gazette says Italy has accepted the Austrian note, and England has asked for a week to consider it.

A telegram from Paris states the announcement made by the Times' correspondence, that France has concurred in Count Andrassy's note proposing Turkish reform is premature. The Times' Paris correspondent reiterates the statement that France has adhered to the Austrian note on Turkey.

The Bulletin Francais says private telegrams received in Berlin assert that France and other powers adhered to the proposals of Austria.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—Count Andrassy's note regarding Turkey, has not been officially communicated to the Sublime Porte. This, however, will probably be done soon. An understanding has been arrived at between the signers of the treaty of Paris, but France and England have not yet officially made known their views in the matter. The delay seems solely to have arisen through the temporary absence from London, of Lord Derby, the British Foreign Minister.

LONDON, India, Jan. 8.—While the Prince of Wales and his party were pig sticking to-day, Lord Carrington had his collar bone broken.

VIENNA, Jan. 8.—The Fremden Blatt announces that it is able to state positively that the dispatch reporting that the Austrian government had ordered all men here liable to military service to hold themselves in readiness to join their respective corps on 48 hours' notice is totally without foundation.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Advice from Khodjent say it is estimated that 25,000 insurgent Turcomans are in the neighborhood of Andijon, which is expected to be the chief theatre of war. It has been fortified and is capable of offering a strenuous resistance.

MADRID, Jan. 9.—The Cronista reports that the wife of Tusany, a noted Carlist, has informed the Spanish Ambassador at Paris, that her husband will declare allegiance to King Alfonso if he is allowed to retain his military rank.

ROME, Jan. 9.—The report is confirmed that Italy has given notice of her adhesion to Count Andrassy's note concerning Turkish reforms.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times announces that France has unreservedly accepted the Austrian note.

Another dispatch says the Turkish government has ordered the Circassian settlers in Bulgaria to be organized into 12 battalions which are destined to guard the frontier of servia.

A Berlin dispatch states that Capt. Birchenstein will not demand a German inquiry into the loss of the Deutschland.

Germany has invited the other marine States to an International Conference to devise a common mode of inquiry into shipwrecks and other disasters to shipping.

A Berlin telegram gives assurance that the principal facts in the inquiry relative to Thomas will be officially published.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—The examination of Capt. Sawyer, for wrecking the Orpheus, finished yesterday. The Commissioner decided that the government had failed to make out their case and on motion of U. S. Attorney Van Dusen, the prisoner was discharged and his bail exonerated.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Gov. Tilden after examining the papers and petition of Edward S. Stokes for pardon has denied the application.

George Vining a veteran English actor is dead.

Tweeds attorney and bondsman have brought suit against the members of the ring asking that all except Tweed be compelled to refund and asking that a receiver of all claims against them be appointed. The City and County, the Attorney General, the corporation counsel and others are made defendants.

A special from St. Paul says: Advice from Fort Buford reports Sitting Bull and the hostile Sioux in camp on the Yellowstone, 96 miles above the fort. Their numbers have been increased by the young men from the lower Agencies, who are dissatisfied with the Peace policy of the older chiefs. Several murders occurring last fall on the upper Missouri have been traced to the Indians now with Sitting Bull.

The Sun considers the house resolution for special inquiry into the Mexican rubbery incursions into Texas, the first step toward a war with Mexico. If Mexico cannot restrain her bandits and will not authorize the U. S. to repress them by effective pursuit on her soil, public sentiment tends toward the employment of force to compel ample redress.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—All the churches invited to the mutual council have accepted, the list includes some of the most celebrated clergy in all denominations.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 9.—The indications are that a strong effort will be made in the legislature to impeach Judge Hawkins.

CHEYENNE, Jan. 9.—A very rich deposit of gold has been struck in the Centennial lode near Laramie City. At a depth of 100 feet, a large body of quartz was found showing a greater amount of free gold than was ever before seen in any rock. Large solid masses of this rock will be sent to the Centennial exposition at Philadelphia.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 10.—The Legislature opened this afternoon. The Governor, in his speech, refers to the Canadian Pacific Railway as having been since 1873, a fruitful source of anxiety and disappointment to the province and the non-fulfillment by Canada of its railway agreement as having seriously crippled the pastoral and agricultural interests of the community. He has declined the proposals made by the Dominion Government in relation to the railway, which are at variance with the conditions recommended by Lord Carnarvon. He speaks encouragingly of the gold fields of Cassiar and Cariboo and also of the coal mines; he promises measures to amend the law relating to gold-mining and to provide for inspection of coal mines, with the view of protecting lives and property of those engaged in mining business; he will also submit important papers relative to Indian affairs and acts for the improvement of County Court system, and necessary law reforms. The melancholy circumstances connected with the loss of the steamship Pacific, have induced him to forward representations to the Dominion and Imperial Governments with the view of preventing as far as possible, similar disasters in the future.

Hon. Dr. Trimble was elected Speaker. The House adjourned until Thursday.

Weather fine. New York, Jan. 10.—Gold closed at 113.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 10.—Serious disturbances occurred among the miners at Charleroi last night. The military interfered and a number of persons were killed and wounded. More soldiers have gone to the scene of trouble.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—A dispatch from Delhi reports that during the parade Saturday, Lord Napier was thrown from his horse and had his collar bone broken.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—A Ministerial crisis is imminent. A council was held last night. Speaking of the crisis in the French Cabinet, the Journal des Debates, this morning, says the Ministry never was completely organized, although it had the appearance of concord maintained by mutual concessions since the opening of the electoral period. Disagreement has arisen between the Ministers belonging to the right and left centre, respecting political alliance and also whether the electoral candidates should be patronized by the Government.

The Journal des Debates further alludes to the aggressive tone adopted by some of the journals toward certain members of the Cabinet and to the improper manner in which the President is brought into controversy for party purposes.

The Paris telegram of the London Times this morning says the struggle at the coming election will be very bitter.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—The Pall Mall Gazette has an article on the Spanish question in which it ridicules the leading article in the Times this morning. The writer says: "We cannot avoid the suspicion that if a more powerful country than Spain was defaulting in her performance of her international duties, the Times would not have adopted such a line of argument. We are unable to see any more creditable reason for resorting to it in this case than Spain's inability to resent it."

Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, will probably open the coming session of Parliament in person.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The Overland Monthly has suspended publication; the publishers intend to revive it at some future time.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The President to-day nominated John C. Hillman Register of Land Office at Vancouver; reappointed R. G. Stuart Receiver of Land Office at Olympia; Patrick B. Sinnott to be Indian Agent of Grand Round Agency in Oregon.

In the Senate, Sargent of California, presented a petition of 26,616 women of Utah asking the repeal of the anti-polygamy law of 1862, and the Poland bill, and that Utah be admitted as a State in the Union. In presenting the petition, Sargent said he did not concur in the objects of the petitioners but believed in the right of the petition and therefore laid the matter before the Senate as they requested him to do.

Conover submitted the following:—That in compliance with the people, the precedents of history, the best established principles of international law, the precepts of Christian rule and morality, and the requirements of the commercial and political interests of the United States, and taking into consideration the relations existing between the United States and Spain, and that it is desirable that reciprocal sentiments of good understanding between the two peoples and governments be not changed by reason of the grave events which, for seven years, have taken place in the island of Cuba, the President of the United States be and is hereby authorized and requested to declare and maintain the strictest neutrality between the government of Spain and the people of Cuba.

And be it further resolved, that making this declaration through the usual form of a proclamation, and in order to protect citizens of the U. S., merchants and navigators, in general, from injury in any way for want of precise and clear regulations to govern them in this matter, the President of the United States, be and he is hereby authorized and requested to place in full operation the same provisions made and enacted by the government of Her Majesty, the Queen of Spain, on June 17, 1861.

Ordered printed and laid on the table.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The Fourth District Court granted Charity Hayward a divorce from Alvina Hayward to day, on the ground of desertion. Thos. McGuire pleaded in the U. S. Circuit Court to-day not guilty of violation of the Civil Rights bill in refusing two colored citizens admission to certain seats in his theatre. The trial of the cases is set for Friday next.

PORTLAND, Ogn., Jan. 11.—General Howard received a dispatch yesterday from Capt. Trimble, who has command of the two companies which were ordered last week to proceed from Fort Walla Walla to Wallowa Valley, to the effect that the troops were enroute to Walla Walla. This is virtually an end of the threatened hostilities. Capt. Whipple, who in compliance with an order from General Howard, left Walla Walla a few days ago for Wallowa, met the troops coming back and that officer has returned to the post.

SANTA FE, New Mexico, Jan. 10.—Great sorrow is felt in this city at the death of Gen. Gordon Granger. A few weeks since the General was prostrated by a stroke of paralysis, but from which he had nearly recovered. This afternoon about three o'clock, he was again stricken by apoplexy, and without regaining consciousness, died at 6 o'clock.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 11.—The Inland Insurance and Deposit Company of this city closed its doors this morning.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The workingmen held a very large meeting last night to urge upon our law-makers the great importance of promptly adopting such measures as will revive our industries, in order that employment may be obtained by the tens and hundreds of thousands now in enforced idleness. Peter Cooper presided, and Congressman Kelly and ex-Mayor O. P. Dyke sent letters regretting they could not be present.

Gold closed 113. Shearman and Sterling, counsel for Rev. H. W. Beecher, in the suit brought against him for malicious prosecution by Francis D. Moulton, to-day served on Gen. Pryor, counsel for plaintiff, a demurrer upon the ground the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Rev. Dr. Schudder's church of Brooklyn, invited to send delegates to the mutual council called by the Plymouth church, has declined to attend, judging that the question to be laid before the council will be the guilt or innocence of Mr. Beecher. One reason is the question has thus far proved unresolvable, and is impracticable of solution in this world. Dr. Schudder himself, and one of his deacons favored the acceptance of the invitation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—John Wilson, formerly Commissioner of the General Land Office and Third Auditor of the Treasury, died to-day aged 65.

Mrs. Bartley, wife of Judge Bartley, and sister of Gen. Sherman, died last night.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 11.—In the Senate to-day, a bill was introduced imposing a fine of $50 for taking the name of God in vain. In the House, bills were introduced to provide for compulsory education; to make the fee bills on last session apply to all county officers; to authorize the insurance of public property.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The proceedings of the secret investigation of Pacific disaster, by Capt. Waterman and James Hillman, U. S. Inspector, have been made public. They report the accident was the fault of the officers of the Orpheus on account of steering wrong. The Inspectors are unable to account for the failure of the Pacific to stop and back when the collision became evident. They find it was impossible to take steps for the preservation of life after the collision on account of the panic among the passengers.

Capt. Waterman justifies his course as Inspector of Hulls, by saying the Pacific was perfectly sea-worthy. The effect of the collision upon her is accounted for by the fact that she gave the blow by the bluff of her bow where the space between frames is, in steamers, from 12 to 30 inches, whereas in vessels it is not more than from 3 to 6 inches. The timber is also smaller and the whole construction lighter; they are therefore, much weaker. An opinion is expressed that the same effects might have been experienced if the Pacific had been a new vessel instead of an old one.

An inspection of the steamers of the Goodall, Nelson & Perkins line was made by the Senate Committee of Navigation this morning.

Arrived, ship Shirley, Tacoma. Sailed, ship City of Panama, Victoria and Pt Townsend.

SEABECK, Jan. 11.—Sailed, bk Gen. Cobb, San Francisco.

PORTLAND, Ogn., Jan. 12.—The bark Rival from San Francisco, with a cargo of merchandise, grounded on Clatsop spit, Monday, and was towed off by the tugs. The extent of damage to vessel and cargo has not yet been ascertained.

Notice. THE PUBLIC ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that I am in no way connected with the firm or business of Geo. Cantieni & Co., Marburg, Black River, King County, W. T., and never have been. EDWARD BYRON, Seattle, King Co., W. T., January 10th, 1876.

NOTICE. TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: WHEREAS THE COMMISSIONER OF THE General Land Office, in letter dated July 28th, 1874, ordered that the lands in Township 23 N. 20 E., Range 5 East, in the district of lands for sale at Olympia, W. T., should be withheld from disposal as agricultural lands until the nonnumerical character thereof shall have been fully established. And whereas Patrick O'Connell, of King County, W. T., who made pre-emption filing, D. S. No. 3401, for land in said Township and Range, viz: S. W. 1/4 of Section 28, now makes application to make his final entry of said land, and has filed in this office his affidavit declaring that there is not within the limits of said land, to his knowledge, any coal or other valuable mineral deposits, and that said land is essentially nonnumerical land.

Now, therefore, in accordance with instructions from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, it is ordered that testimony touching the character of said described land shall be taken before the Clerk of the United States District Court, at Seattle, King County, W. T., on the 5th day of February, A. D. 1876, beginning at 2 o'clock P. M., at which place and time all persons having interest in the matter of the character of the above described land are required to appear and there and then to present such evidence as may serve to fully establish the character of said tract of land.

Puget Sound Dispatch.

From Daily of Monday.

THE BELL TOWN SHIP-YARD.—Our reporter paid a visit to the ship yard at Bell Town, belonging to Mr. W. H. Bryant, the veteran builder, who has established himself there permanently. Mr. Bryant is the oldest ship-builder upon the Sound, having built at Port Madison, in 1863, the bark North West, the first large vessel ever launched on these waters. Since then he has built quite a number of other vessels, notably the tug Blakeley and the barkentine R. K. Ham. He has now the keel laid and all the timbers cut for a vessel of the following dimensions: length over all, 160 feet; length of keel, 134 feet; breadth of beam, 34 feet; depth of hold, 12 1/2 feet. She will be owned by Capt. Gilman & Co. of San Francisco and it is expected will be employed in the Sound trade. Her entire frame work will be up inside of the next two weeks, and she will be launched about the first of May. She is to be barkentine rigged and will register in the neighborhood of 500 tons. Colman's mill is sawing the lumber.

TRUSTEES ELECTED.—At the meeting of the stock holders of the Seattle & Walla Walla Railroad and Transportation Company, held at the office of the Company, the following named gentlemen were elected trustees for the ensuing year: Captain Wm. Renton, A. A. Denny, F. Matthias, John Collins, J. McNaught, J. M. Colman, A. Mackintosh, Bailey Gatzert, H. L. Yesler, T. B. Morris, C. B. Shattuck, J. W. George, W. N. Bell.

STEAMER MOVEMENTS.—The steamer North Pacific left here this morning for Port Townsend, the Libby for Whatcom, the Alida for Olympia, and the Comet for White River. The steamer Zephyr, which went up to Snohomish yesterday, returned this afternoon. The steamer Success made her usual trip over from Port Blakely and the Ruby from Port Madison.

PORT GAMBLE, Jan. 9.—Arrived, bark Roswell Sprague. Sailed, David Headley ley, for Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—Arrived, ship Gen. Butler, Port Gamble; bark Lizzie Williams, Seattle; barkentine W. H. Gawley, Port Madison; barkentine R. K. Ham, Port Blakely; schooner American Girl, Port Ludlow; steamer City of Panama, Victoria. Sailed, bark Dublin, Seabeck.

IN JUSTICE'S COURT.—Thomas, a Siwash, was up before Justice Scott this morning for indulging in the amusement of getting drunk and pounding a Chinaman, for which he will have to work 11 days on the public streets.

There will be a sociable of the Plymouth Congregational Church Society held at the residence of Mrs. Dinsmore on 5th Street, near Union, to-morrow evening. All are invited.

Advertised Letter List.

- The following is the list of letters remaining in the Seattle Post Office, King Co., Washington Territory, for the week ending, Jan. 8, 1876. Anderson, A. P. THE BARK WINDWARD.—The propeller Teaser arrived here last night, having in tow a scow loaded with the boats, spars, sails, tackle and some of the furniture of the bark Windward, recently wrecked in Useless Bay. The Captain and crew of the Windward also came up on the Teaser, leaving no one now at the wreck. At high water the wreck is completely submerged. Of the three boats brought up, two are in good condition, but the third is badly stove up. The sails are stowed in Yesler's warehouse, pending the sale of the wreck, which takes place to-morrow.

PORT MADISON, Jan. 10.—Sailed, bark Northwest.

ASSAULT.—As two sailors, both considerably under the influence of liquor, were walking on the wharf, one dropped a little behind the other and picking up a piece of scantling, aimed a murderous blow at the other's head, but only succeeded in inflicting a severe scalp wound. The assaulted one, who was evidently of a very forgiving nature, made no attempt to have the other arrested and refused to have his wounded head dressed and the two went off together as amicably as if nothing had happened. The assault was evidently committed with intent to rob, as the first man was showing a quantity of money and a gold watch.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A man named John Cousins, a longshoreman by trade, aged about 35 years, fell dead on the street yesterday. He was walking with a friend at a late hour last night, when he was seized with a violent cough and burst a blood vessel, falling dead into the arms of his comrade, the blood streaming from his nostrils and mouth. He resided in a small house in the rear of Dixon's barber shop, to which place he was taken. Dr. Weed examined the body this morning to see whether it would be necessary to hold an inquest, but it was evident the man had died from natural causes, so no inquest was held.

ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON.—Chas. Palmer was arrested and brought before Justice Smith on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon Harry F. Williamson, with intent to kill, and with using threatening language. Defendant, through his counsel, asked leave to have the case adjourned over until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock to plead. Case adjourned on defendant's executing a bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the time named.

REPAIRS.—Mr. Jos. Surber has commenced a series of extensive repairs to Stone & Burnett's wharf. Two rows of piles immediately outside of the warehouse, have been pulled out, and others are to be driven in their places. A row of piles is to be driven entirely around the wharf and another row through the centre.

NEW QUARTERS.—The County officers to-day moved into their elegant new quarters in the upper portion of Colman's new building. They will occupy the following rooms: the County Auditor will take the first room at the head of the stairs; the Treasurer will be next to him, and the Clerk of the Court next; the corner room Judge Lewis will occupy and the end room, fronting on Commercial street, will be divided by a temporary partition, the Probate Judge taking one side and the Sheriff the other. Quite a force was engaged to-day in moving the three safes belonging to the county and in the offices respectively of the Auditor, the Treasurer and the Sheriff. The large trap door opening from the Auditor's new office into the hall below was taken out, and a large derrick erected over it, from which the safes, by which the safes were hoisted, were suspended. The new quarters are the handsomest set of offices in this Territory. Each room is fitted with gas, hot air apparatus for heating, and handsome marble water basin. All the rooms are large and well ventilated. The officers are all delighted with their new quarters.

SPECTACLES.—Those of our citizens who use spectacles will have an opportunity for the next two days of getting such as will enable them to use their eyes with the same ease and advantage as in earlier years by calling on Prof. Magee, who is stopping for a short time at the Occidental Aotel. He has a large and fine stock of the above articles and can test the strength of the human eye and adapt his glasses to each individual case. He will refill old frames. SALE OF THE WINDWARD.—The wreck of the bark Windward was sold this afternoon at Yesler's wharf, by auction, W. T. Balou officiating as auctioneer. The competition for the hull was quite brisk, and it was finally knocked down to John M. Blanchard for $2,500. The tackle, furniture, boats, etc., were bought in by different parties, in small lots.

IN PROBATE COURT.—The session of the Probate Court yesterday was principally devoted to hearing the preliminary arguments on the motion of McGillvra & Burke, attorneys for Abigail Clossen, to revoke the letters of administration of J. "Dashing Wave" and "Forest Queen."

From "Alta Cal." Dec. 20, 1875.]

The claims of the rival Captains for the "best trip on record" to Puget Sound must give way to round trip made by the Emily Banning some years ago, in 16 days. The following shows the work of the rivals for the past year: The Forest Queen sailed from San Francisco, Jan. 12, and arrived from her ninth trip, Dec. 20. Her several passages being made up in 12, 11, 13, 8, 15, 13, 12, and 8 days; an average of 12 days; down, 12, 5, 8 1/2, 5, 8, 7, 8, 15, and 9 days, an average of 8 days and 21 hours.

The Dashing Wave sailed from San Francisco, Jan. 30, and arrived from her eighth trip, Dec. 20. Her several passages being made up in 11, 15, 13, 9, 27, 16, 13, and 6 days, an average of 13 days and 18 hours; down, 6, 9, 9, 7, 9, 11, and 7 days, and average of 8 days and 8 hours. The Queen making the best passage up, and the Wave the best passage down; while the Queen's round trip averaged 30 days and 9 hours, and the Wave's, 34 days and 18 hours.

As there is a lively interest manifested in the speed of these two crack vessels, the above statement may not be uninteresting, as I believe they are reliable.

Another card from Capt. Burns, of the Forest Queen:

ERRORS ALTA: I am sorry for having again to trouble you, but would ask the favor of replying to statements made by Capt. Nickels in the Alta of the 24th about the Dashing Wave and Forest Queen. The only time the Queen and Wave sailed in company was on the 26th of August, 1875. Left San Francisco at 8 A. M. The Queen entered the Straits of Fuca on the 6th of Sept., beat for forty hours with Southeast winds, to Dungeness; then towed to Ludlow. The Wave entered the Straits of Fuca on 8th, two days after the Queen, (from logs of Queen and Wave).

I now think it worth mentioning. The Queen's beating the Wave two days in a twelve days' passage. It was certainly understood on Stewart street that there was a race.

Mr. Hansen, owner of the Dashing Wave, has seen the Queen's log-book, and knows that the above is correct. The Wave left San Francisco, July 8, 1874, and arrived June 27, 1875, nine trips in 11 months and 18 days. The Queen left Jan. 11, 1875, and arrived Dec. 20, nine trips in 11 months and 9 days. The extra lumber claimed to have been carried by the Wave, is offset by the Queen's detention of three or four days each trip with freight and ballast. F. J. BURNS, Master Forest Queen. San Francisco, Dec. 25, 1875.

Another relic is to be seen in Lovett's saloon of the lost steamer Pacific. It consists of a portion of one of her deck houses, with the words "Captain's Room" painted on it. The telegraph wires were in a deplorable condition from Lytton downwards. There was about two feet of snow in the canyons. About Cache Creek there was very little snow and cattle were doing well.

We have received letters seeking information as to the whereabouts of the following parties, feared by their friends to have been on board the lost Steamship Pacific. PORT LUDLOW ITEMS.—A public installation of officers was held in this place on Tuesday last by the society of Red Men, attracting quite a number of spectators. After the ceremonies were ended a free ball which had been previously announced, was given in Good Templers Hall under the auspices of that association; which was well attended by the Dancing Community of Ludlow. Several couples also from Townsend and Dungeness were of the party. After an excellent supper prepared in Mr. Atridge's hotel, dancing was kept up till a late hour, and quite an enjoyable time experienced.

We have again to record another drowning accident within the past month, which happened in this place on the night of Tuesday last. A man by the name of John Stanford, commonly known as "Red Jack," becoming much intoxicated wandered out into the darkness of night. Not making his appearance when expected, fear was entertained as to his safety, and being an old resident of this place and a member of the Order of Red Men, a strict search was made and rewards offered for the recovery of the body, but without effect until Thursday morning, when it was found on the beach about thirty yards out from the high water mark, in a standing position, holding firmly on to the branch of a fallen cedar, whose top projected out into the water. It is supposed he wandered out in the dark and fell over the sawdust bank on the beach, a short distance from the hotel, no doubt going to sleep. The tide overwhelmed him and swimming in the wrong direction till exhausted, sank in 20 feet water. Coming in contact with the tree top, he clutched it with the grip of death. When the tide went out it left him in a standing position.

CRAZY AND IN LOVE.—Philip Standerman, who shot and killed Louisa Sidenbaum in Chatham street, New York, on the evening of the 19th of April, was put on trial last week, and the fact that the plea of insanity was to be the defense led to much delay in getting a jury. Three-fourths of the panel summoned stated that they had objections against insanity as a plea in trials for murder, and one of the number said that one kind of insanity begins an instant before a murder and ends an instant after it. When Standerman was called to plead he looked more like an idiot than a lunatic. He had a shoe shop in Chatham street before his crime. Miss Sidenbaum lived in City Hall place. He sought the girl's hand in marriage; but when he talked with her parents about it they plainly told him that such a marriage was impossible. The girl was young, pretty, educated, and in all ways, socially and mentally, far above him. The rest of the story was told by the witness for the prosecution. Isaac J. Brown testified that, on the evening of April 19, 1875, he started with Miss Sidenbaum and Miss Annie Thomas to go to a German festival. They waited in Chatham street for a car; and as he stepped off the sidewalk to see whether a car was coming, he was startled by the flash and report of a pistol. He turned back, and saw the prisoner holding a pistol close to Miss Sidenbaum's face. Policeman Malloy described the capture of Standerman, which was effected within a block of the place of the shooting, and said that, when the prisoner was asked in the police station why he had done the deed, he answered, "She fooled me. She wouldn't marry me, and so I shot her." Ludwig Fealk testified that, a year before the murder, Standerman said to him, "I asked Mr. Sidenbaum to let me marry his daughter, and he refused. I swore I would have revenge. I will have her, or her life." The jury, after hearing all the evidence, brought in a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged on the 10th of December, the Judge, in passing the sentence, characterizing the plea set up by the defense—"insanity, excited by passion"—as a "flimsy pretext."

THE UNION Gas Machine

Generating Gas by Water.

THIS MACHINE IS DESIGNED FOR LIGHTING TOWNS, FACTORIES, MILLS, HOTELS, CHURCHES, DWELLINGS OR Buildings of any kind Situated in the Country and beyond the reach of coal gas mains of cities, with a Safe and Cheap Gas-Light.

These machines are simple in construction, not liable to get out of order, require no skill to manage, are made of the best material and in the most substantial manner. They occupy little space, are set up at small expense and are equally adapted for lighting the largest public building or smallest dwelling. They are no new or untried thing, but have been in constant and successful use in all parts of the country, lighting all kinds of buildings and towns for the last six years. They make a rich, strong gas, fully equal to coal gas, and at about one-half the cost, the expense being about $1.50 per gas thousand feet. Buildings are insured at the same rates as though lighted by common city gas. We guarantee all machines to be in construction, and put them up on trial, if desired. One of our machines may be run from a tank 30 feet high, with a stream of water 1-16 of an inch. This is ample to make gas for 30 burners, using each night 30 gallons of water which would never be missed from any ordinary water tank. One of these machines is on exhibition at R. B. Curry's Stationery Store, where the public are invited to call and inspect.

TAKING "KEER" OF HIS HEALTH.—A farmer was yesterday walking around the central market trying to find some chaps willing to go into the country and do a little work for good pay, when a colored man accosted him saying: "Boss, does you want some one to hunk corn?"

made at Jerusalem. The proprietor of a piece of ground outside of the Damascus Gate, and on the west of the north road, while digging a cistern on his property, came upon a rock twelve and a half feet below the surface. It appeared to him to sound hollow when struck. He broke it through, and found beneath a series of rock-cut chambers. They present nothing remarkable in their structure, and consist of two irregular quadrilateral vaults, one of them being fifteen feet long by ten feet broad and eight feet high, together with a third, the plan of which is at present imperfect, and, under the smaller of the two vaults, another, with three loculi occupying the whole of its area, excavated to a depth of ten feet below the first. But in the larger chamber was found a stone chest of very unusual dimensions, which contained, when discovered, human bones. It is cut from a single stone, measures 7 feet 7 inches in length, 2 feet 8 inches in breadth, and is 3 feet 2 inches in height. It stands upon four feet, and has the rim cut to receive the lid, portions of which—or what were believed to be portions—were lying in the chamber. The rock roof of the vault has been cut away to admit the chest, which Dr. Chaplin thinks is of much later date than the tombs. He suggests that it was constructed to hold a wooden or leaden coffin, since rifled and removed. Near to this spot and perhaps over it, stood the church dedicated to St. Stephen. "Is it possible," asks Dr. Chaplin, "that we have here the last resting place of Eudocia?" An excellent plan, with sections, has been made of these tombs by Herr Schick.—Athencum.

A MAN BOILED TO DEATH.—At an early hour yesterday morning, the fireman in Roemelt & Leicht's brewery, on Jersey City Heights, built a fire under one of the large tanks used for boiling water. A short time afterward he returned to the tank—having been attending to some other duty in the meantime—and was surprised at hearing a splash of water, as if a heavy body had fallen into it. Then he heard a groan, as of a human being in agony. He immediately turned the faucet to draw off the water, and hastily raked out the fire. Some of the men of the brewery then mounted the ladder, by which access to the tank is gained, and looking over the edge, saw a man lying at the bottom. Ropes were promptly procured, and the man was hoisted out, but life was extinct. His features were so disfigured that it was next to impossible to recognize him, but from his clothing he is supposed to be a man named Muell, a painter, who resided in Washington village, and who was in the habit of visiting the brewery occasionally. How he got into the tank is a mystery, unless, as some of the workmen suppose, he climbed up to the top to look in for the purpose of gratifying his curiosity. That he made desperate attempts to get out is evident from the fact of the fireman hearing the splash in the water. The tank is nearly ten high, and perfectly smooth on the inside. County Physician Stout examined the body and expressed the opinion that the man was steamed to death.—N. Y. Times, Dec. 1.

There is nothing half so funny as a practical joke, and this, as told by an Eastern paper, is a regular rib-tickler. "Frederic Walker and Peter Kohler, of Guttenburg, N. J., stuffed an old suit of clothes with straw, the other night, and carried it to Bull's Ferry road and Herman avenue, where they placed it against a lamp-post. About midnight they began an imaginary quarrel in a loud tone, and continued it until a number of people were aroused from their beds. Then they shot the imaginary man. The body fell down and the young men ran away. The neighbors, thinking a murder had been committed, chased the young men, and Kohler was shot in the leg before the deception was explained." Think what solid enjoyment Mr. Kohler will have laughing at that for six weeks while he nurses his leg, and what a screaming face it would have been for his whole family if he had been shot in the head.

It is privately given out by the friends of Joaquin Miller, in order to prevent misunderstandings and heart-burnings, that the "One Fair Woman" of whom he writes in a recent volume is no longer living. She died long ago, and there is none like her now on the face of the earth.

A farmer escorted his girl into a Vicksburg shoe store the other day, to have her provided with new understandings, and as he left her in order to call at the store on another street, he said: "Now Hannah, don't go and make a fool of yourself, trying to crowd your big No. 7 feet into No. 5 shoes!" She blushed fiery red, and gave him a terrible look, but he went on: "You know you did it last Spring, and I believe that's the reason you had them bites on your legs!"

HUNTING THE GRIZZLY.—Prince Starhemberg, one of the twigs of the Austrian genealogical tree, arrived in San Francisco a few weeks ago. The Prince is a great hunter. He has heard the lion roar in the wilds of Africa, and shot him too. He has also brought down the ponderous elephant, pierced the hide of the mailed rhinoceros, and like Gordon Cumming, been towed up stream at the tail of the hippopotamus. He came to this coast, not to explore her mines, or to study our ways in agriculture or stocks, but to track the wild grizzly and extract his claws. In this pursuit he has achieved a moderate degree of renown. Scott, the hunter of Cloverdale, led him into the wilds haunted by the bear, and on the second day of the expedition the Prince killed a small grizzly, so neatly that the animal had no leisure to reflect on the barbarity of peppering him with explosive bullets. On the third day a brown bear of 600 pounds was slain, and on the fourth an animal which has some affinity to the otter or badger family. The Prince has now gone East, delighted with California sport, but will return.

DISCOVERY AT JERUSALEM.—A curious archaeological discovery has just been HADN'T BEEN THERE.—In the office of one of the hotels the other day, a man spit a great deal of tobacco juice around, and had a great deal to say about his voyage to Europe on last year. He used many oaths, made himself disagreeably familiar to all, and finally stepped on a little man's corns, and bluntly asked: "Did you ever go to Europe?" "No, sir, I never did," was the reply. "I have had all I could do to stay at home and learn mauners!" There was lots of silence around there after that.—Detroit Free Press.

A fearful tragedy took place at Alden, a few days since. Rev. J. T. Clarke, the resident minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, betrayed symptoms of insanity, and obtained a promise from his friends that, if he should go mad, they would keep him at home and not send him to the asylum. On the day in question his wife was lying sick up-stairs and he desired to go and see her. As she was very ill, and he much excited, Mr. Clarke's father resisted his son's attempt to ascend the stairway, and a struggle ensued in which the maniac kicked his father in the stomach and killed him. He then seized his little boy, aged 2, and threw him down stairs, breaking his collar bone. By this time the neighbors had entered the house and secured the maniac.

PERPETUAL MOTION.—The following advertisement recently appeared in the London Times: "Perpetual Motion. No mechanism of any sort; extremely simple. Any light machinery can be kept in perpetual motion. £150 required, for which a share will be given, which will realize a fortune. Upon reference being furnished, a section of model will be shown, and every information given." The English Mechanic, after quoting the advertisement, remarks: "We have no doubt that the invention is simple, but not so simple as any one will give £150 for it."

A farmer living near Elizabeth, N. J., lately went to the barn in search of eggs. While thus engaged he heard a strange noise beneath the hay mow, and upon reaching in the hay his hand was seized by an animal, and it required his utmost strength to loosen his hold. He then plunged a pitchfork into the hole and when the animal ceased its cries he moved away the hay, and discovered a large wild cat. The animal was dead, pitchfork having passed through its breast.

The latest novelty in public amusements in Paris is a trapeze performer who allows himself to be fired out of a mortar a distance of some 45 feet before he catches the swinging bar. The mortar is actually charged with gunpowder, which is lighted in the ordinary way and makes a loud report. The effect of the powder is to loosen a spring which sends the man spinning through space. At first there was some difficulty in adjusting the spring to the required nicely, and when the performer came to try it he was shot about six feet too far, sustaining a dislocated shoulder and a broken rib. He preserved, and has now succeeded in having himself ejected at the required rate. "L'Homme Obus," as he calls himself is just now one of the sights of Paris.

The rebiting of files by means of acid, a French process, is said to be a complete success. The worn files are first cleaned with potash and hot water, after which they are left for five minutes in a solution composed of one part of sulphuric acid and seven parts of water; a quantity of nitric acid equal to the sulphuric is then added to the solution, and as much water also, and the files are left in the solution for about forty minutes longer. They are now ready for use, but if to be stored, they must be brushed over with a little oil or grease to prevent rusting. The files are not allowed to touch each other in the solution, being supported by their tangs only. In order to obtain the most complete results possible the proportions of acid are varied according to the size of the files; for example, for large files, one-sixth acid; for bastard files, one-eighth, one-ninth, to one-eleventh; and for the finest, one-twelfth to one-thirteenth. The cost of the operation is small, and as a file sharpened in this manner is, it is said, quite as efficient as one that has been re-cut, the saving is large.

SOME QUEER RAILROAD BUILDERS.—There were workmen on the Pacific Railway even more curious than the Irish or Chinese navvies. During the summer of 1863, the Laramie river became very low, much to the distress of a contractor who had cut a great many thousands of cross ties—the timbers on which the rails are laid—and which he expected to float down to the point where the railroad was to cross. He was at first at a loss to know what to do, but resolved, finally to build dams across the river at various points, and when the river was high enough, set his rafts afloat. Large parties of men, therefore, went to work building the dams. No sooner would the men leave off work at night than thousands of beavers would begin and work hard at the dam during the whole night. Water is always necessary to the comfort of beavers as on this occasion it was to the welfare of the contractor; and it was probably for this reason, and not because they wished to see the railroad finished that the beaver community joined in the labor of building the dams.—St. Nicholas.
