AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION ADOPTED BY THE ELEVENTH CONVENTION

ARTICLE I.

AMENDMENT No. 1.

Article 1, Section 2.
 Strike out the word "General" and the words "and Recruiting Unions."

YES  NO

Article 1, Section 2, "a" and "b" changed to read as follows:

(a) The Recruiting Union shall be composed of wage workers in whose respective industries there does not exist an Industrial Union, and shall be directly under the control of the General Executive Board of the Industrial Workers of the World. The General Secretary-Treasurer of the Industrial Workers of the World shall act as the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Recruiting Union.

(b) Delegates receiving their supplies from the Recruiting Union shall be empowered to initiate all wage workers of any industry. All applications shall be forwarded to the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Industrial Workers of the World, who shall forward these applications weekly to the proper Industrial Unions.

Members of Industrial Unions in any locality where there is a branch of the Recruiting Union, but no branch of their respective Industrial Unions, shall have voice and vote in the Recruiting Union in that particular locality.

YES  NO

AMENDMENT No. 2.

Article 1, Section 2, Division (c) changed to (d) to read as follows:

(d) Industrial Unions shall be composed of actual wage workers in a given industry welded together as the particular requirements of said industry may render necessary.

The General Secretary-Treasurer and the General Executive Board shall have full charge of a newly chartered Industrial Union until such time as a sufficient membership is obtained to place said Industrial Union on a sound financial basis.

(e) Whenever charters have been issued for three branches of any new Industrial Union, the branches shall form a General Organization Committee of the Industrial Union. This General Organization Committee shall maintain relations between the Industrial Union and all its branches, the department to which it belongs and the General Headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World.

Applications for all accepted members eligible for membership in existing Industrial Unions shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Industrial Union of which the Secretary and delegates are members, who shall forward them to their proper Industrial Unions weekly. Industrial Unions shall deduct only actual cost of supplies used.

Branch Secretaries and delegates of Industrial Unions shall be empowered to initiate and collect dues of all wage workers in any industry in their locality.

Secretaries of Industrial Unions shall forward each week reports with applications of all members listed up in industries not yet chartered to the General Office.

All units of the Industrial Workers of the World shall pay all indebtedness to each other at the end of each month.

YES  NO

AMENDMENT No. 3.

Article 1, Section 2, Paragraph c changed to read as follows:

Officers of Industrial Unions shall be as follows: a General Secretary-Treasurer with a General Organization Committee, one of whom shall act as Chairman. Election of officers must be held at least once each year.

The General Organization Committee shall meet as often as necessary, or on the demand of a majority of the branches or members of the Industrial Union.

YES  NO

AMENDMENT No. 4.

Article 1, Section 2, Paragraph (f) is changed to (g) to read as follows:

(g) Industrial District Councils for the purpose of establishing general solidarity in a given district may be organized, and shall be composed of delegates from not less than four Industrial Unions and shall maintain communication between the Industrial Unions and General Headquarters.

YES  NO

AMENDMENT No. 5.

Article 1, Section 2, Paragraph (f) changed to (h) to read as follows:

(h) Industrial Unions within the district defined in the charter of a District Council shall be required to maintain affiliation with said Council.
