

BRIDGING WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON ARCHIVES MONTH OCTOBER 2015

Sponsored by the National Historical Publications and Records Commission, the Washington State Historical Records Advisory Board, the National Archives at Seattle, the Washington State Archives and the Office of the Secretary of State.

Photo: Susan Korman 2004 (archived at 192.4.165.135) Washington State Archives

Crew digging pits at Winthrop River Bridge, 1906. Washington State Archives

Completed Tacoma Narrows Bridge, 1940. 128 Lanes

Clatsop River Bridge, 1916. Washington State Archives

Salmon bridge with open drawbridge to allow passage of a ship, 1914. University of Washington Libraries

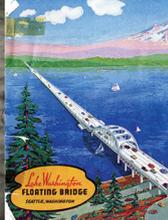

Bridge design signals and clearances, ca. 1900. W.W.

Bridge construction over Chickadee Creek, ca. 1910. W.W.

Personnel under the north end of the George Washington Memorial Bridge, Seattle, ca. 1930. W.W.

Floating bridge brochure, 1910. Washington State Archives

Rockaway River Bridge, ca. 1890. Bureau Photograph, Center for Pacific Northwest Studies, Western Libraries Heritage Resources, Western Washington University

Installation of pinnac, Wenatchee Street Bridge No. 7, 1920. Seattle Municipal Archives

Men working under Lelan Creek Bridge, Spokane, ca. 1930. Washington State Archives

Green River Gorge Bridge construction, ca. 1914. Museum of History & Industry, Seattle