

Washington State Declaration of Write-in Candidacy

how to file as a write-in candidate

when to file

The last day to declaration as a write-in candidate is 18 days prior to the primary or general election.

All declarations of candidacy must be received by the filing officer before the close of business on the day write-in filing closes. Declarations of candidacy received after this time and date, regardless of the postmark, are invalid.

where to file

• If the office sought is federal, statewide or is in a legislative, court of appeals, or superior court office that includes more than one county, file with the Secretary of State.

You may file in person, by mail, or online at www.vote.wa.gov.

• File with the County Elections department for all other offices. Contact the applicable department to learn if online filing is available.

cost to file

The filing fee is nonrefundable, even in the event of withdrawal.

Filing fees or filing fee petitions must accompany the declaration of candidacy at the time of filing. The filing fee is based on the salary in effect at the time of filing.

Candidates without sufficient assets or income to pay the filing fee may instead submit a filing fee petition that contains the valid signatures of registered voters equal to the dollar amount of the filing fee for the office.

voters' pamphlet

A statement and photograph will be published in the voters' guide and pamphlet for all candidates printed on the ballot.

The names of write-in candidates qualifying to be printed on the general election ballot will be included in the voters' guide/pamphlet.

Write-in candidates declaring for a primary should submit a voters' pamphlet statement and photograph when filing. Doing so will meet publication deadlines if the candidate qualifies for the general election ballot.

other requirements:

public disclosure and campaign finance reporting with the Public Disclosure Commission

Reporting requirements are based on the office, campaign revenues and size of jurisdiction, and are outlined in the chart below. More information can be found at www.pdc.wa.gov.

Washington State Declaration of Candidacy

how to complete the form

1. candidate information

Your name and address must match your voter registration.

Update your voter information prior to submitting a declaration of candidacy.

You are responsible for ensuring that you meet all qualifications of the office.

2. campaign contact

If you do not provide campaign information, your information as a registered voter will be used. A telephone number, email address, or website is not required, but recommended.

Government office addresses may not be used for campaigns

3. office information

Print the jurisdiction, the office name and any position or district number defining the office for which you are a candidate.

The responsibility for filing for the correct office is yours.

4. ballot information

Print your name exactly as you wish it to appear on the ballot. Nicknames are acceptable.

Titles denoting occupations, including military rank, positions on issues, political affiliation, symbols, or anything intentionally designed to mislead voters are not acceptable.

party preference information:

For a partisan office, you may choose to state a political party that you personally prefer. A preference does not imply that you have been nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with you.
