Precinct Committee Officers - General Information

- We are not mandating that PCOs must be on a separate ballot.
- Counties may use a separate ballot if they so choose.
- If not using a separate ballot, PCOs will be at the very end of the Top Two ballot.
- For vote by mail counties, even if nobody files, you must still have the PCO race with a write-in line.
- Counties with polling places may leave off uncontested PCO races from the absentee ballots. Poll ballots must always have the PCO races, even if nobody files, in which case you would offer a single write-in line.
Precinct Committee Officers - Office Location WAC 434-230-100(5)(a)

Required:

☐ 1. PCO must be at the end of the Top Two Primary ballot, or on a separate sheet

Precinct Committee Officers - Order of Candidates WAC 434-230-100(3)

Required:

☐ 1. Candidates of the political party that received the highest number of votes for President at the last presidential election must appear first

☐ 2. Within each party, candidates shall appear in lot draw order

Precinct Committee Officers - Office Format WAC 434-230-100(5)(b) and (c)

Required:

☐ 1. The heading must state, “Election of Political Party Precinct Committee Officer”

☐ 2. This explanation must appear before the list of candidates, “Precinct Committee Officer is a position in each major political party. For this office only: If you consider yourself a Democrat or Republican, you may vote for a candidate of that party.”
Precinct Committee Officers - Format for lists of candidates (Choose Option 1 or 2)

OPTION 1 (as shown on ballot example) WAC 434-230-100(d)(i)

Required:

- 1. List all candidates under one heading
- 2. The political party information “Democratic Party Candidate” or “Republican Party Candidate” must be printed under each candidate’s name
- 3. Political party information must have first letter of each word capitalized
- 4. There must be one write-in space provided
- 5. This explanation must be provided, “For a write-in candidate, include party”

OPTION 2 WAC 434-230-100(d)(ii)

Required:

- 1. List candidates separately according to political party
- 2. The headings “Democratic Party Candidates” or “Republican Party Candidates” must be printed above each group of candidates
- 3. The first letter of each word in the political party headings must be capitalized
- 4. There must be one write-in space provided for each political party group
Additional Instructions for Mail Ballots
WAC 434-250-040

These instructions may be located on the ballot, on a separate insert, or on the security or return envelopes.

Required:

☐ 1. To cancel a vote by drawing a line through the text of the candidate’s name or ballot response*
☐ 2. Notice about overvoting
☐ 3. Notice that the ballot will not be counted if the voter signs the ballot or otherwise identifies himself
☐ 4. To complete and sign the affidavit on the return envelope
☐ 5. The option of making a mark witnessed by two other people if unable to sign the affidavit
☐ 6. To place the ballot in the security envelope, and the security envelope in the return envelope
☐ 7. How to obtain a replacement ballot if the original ballot is destroyed, spoiled, or lost
☐ 8. Notice that postage is required (if applicable)
☐ 9. Notice that in order to be counted, it must be either postmarked or deposited at a designated deposit site no later than Election Day
☐ 10. How a voter can learn about the locations, hours, and services of voting centers and ballot deposit sites, including accessibility of AVUs
☐ 11. Any other information the county auditor deems necessary

*Example of new instructions for canceling a vote:

IF YOU MAKE A MISTAKE: Draw a line through the entire candidate’s name like this: ☐ George Washington
You then have the option of making another choice if you wish.

OR

*Example of new instructions for counties who will use envelopes with the old instructions on them (in which case these instructions should be printed on the ballot):

IF YOU MAKE A MISTAKE: Draw a line through the entire candidate's name like this: ☐ George Washington
You then have the option of making another choice if you wish.
The instructions on the security envelope may also be used to change your vote to another choice.

Note: The exact wording will be up to the counties, but should NOT require the voter to mark another choice. Graphics are optional.
These instructions must be provided in their own separate insert.

For a primary election with a partisan office:

Required:

☐ “Washington has a new Primary. You do not have to pick a party. In each race, you may vote for any candidate listed. The two candidates who receive the most votes in the August Primary will advance to the November General Election. Each candidate for partisan office may state a political party that he or she prefers. A candidate’s preference does not imply that the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with that candidate.”

These instructions must be provided, but can be included anywhere in the ballot packet (on the ballot, envelope, or an insert).

For a general election with a partisan office:

Required:

☐ “Washington has a new election system. In each race for partisan office, the two candidates who receive the most votes in the August Primary advance to the November General Election. Each candidate for partisan office may state a political party that he or she prefers. A candidate’s preference does not imply that the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with that candidate.”

OR

For a general election with President & Vice President:

Required:

☐ “Washington has a new election system. In each race for partisan office, the two candidates who receive the most votes in the August Primary advance to the November General Election. Each candidate for partisan office may state a political party that he or she prefers. A candidate’s preference does not imply that the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with that candidate. The election for President and Vice President is different. Candidates for President and Vice President are the official nominees of their party.”
