2018 Candidate Filing - Lot Drawing Results Report

Following the close of candidate filing, the order of candidates that is printed on ballots and in voter pamphlets is determined by lot.

The Secretary of State is the filing officer for Federal, State offices and Supreme Court. As well as Legislative districts and Superior and Appeals court districts comprising more than one county.

Ballot order for all other offices is determined by the county filing officer.

This year 66 offices filed with the Secretary of State.

The lot draw today will only apply to these offices in the Primary. If a primary is not held, the order will apply to the General Election.
