Secretary of State

In Washington state, we enjoy a unique tradition of promoting citizen involvement in our political system. Under the provisions of our state constitution, every registered voter has the right to run for office and to have their name appear on the August Primary and November General Election ballots without approval from a political party.

Washington residents also enjoy other special rights, such as the right to initiative and referendum, the right to recall elected officials, and the right to a state Voters' Pamphlet containing detailed information about ballot measures and candidates. These are important tools at the electorate's disposal.

This publication explains state election law relating to filing for office. Please note, this publication is not a substitute for the statutes and regulations governing this process but rather should be read in conjunction with them.

If you have questions or need additional information, please contact your county elections office or the Secretary of State's Elections Division.

We will be happy to assist you.

Sincerely,

Approval

Please provide a contact email address when you file. This is how we will communicate with you. This can be separate from your public campaign email.

Once you have been approved as a candidate for office, an email will confirm your candidacy.

After your filing is approved and your filing fee has been paid, your name will appear on any official list as a candidate for office.

The final ballot order of candidates in your race will be determined by lot draw after candidate filing ends.

Qualifications

You must be a registered voter and possess the qualifications specified by law.

If a candidate must be selected by voters from a geographic subdivision of a jurisdiction in the primary, the candidate must be registered to vote within that subdivision. (RCW 29A.24.075)

Contact the jurisdiction of the office to learn if there are additional qualifications.

You may update your registration any time before filing. Contact your county of residence for help or visit VoteWA.gov.

Online filing is fast and easy!

The online filing tool will give you step-by-step instructions, email a confirmation of your filing, alert you when other candidates file in your race, and provide a link to submit your Voters' Pamphlet content.

Voters' Pamphlet Tips

- Before filing, prepare and save your statement and biography in a separate program to copy and paste.
- Have your statement ready to submit online with your declaration of candidacy. Statements are not made public until after the submission deadline.

All candidates must submit a Declaration of Candidacy during the regular filing period. This can be done online or at a kiosk available in the Secretary of State's office.

If you need to file by mail, visit our website to print a paper form to fill out and mail in. Mailed declarations cannot be received by our office before April 27.

Personal information

Enter your name and address exactly as it appears on your voter registration. You must also provide contact information for direct communication between the Office of the Secretary of State and your campaign.

Campaign information

All candidate information is public information and will be publicly available. For online display of the Who Filed list and Online Voters' Guide, you may choose to display a campaign address instead of your voter registration address.

It is strongly recommended that you also provide a campaign telephone number, website, and email address for publication.

Government offices may not be used for campaign or candidate information.

Office information

Choose the jurisdiction, office name, and position or district number for which you want to be a candidate.

You are responsible for meeting all qualifications and filing for the correct office. The list of offices open for election is available online.

Ballot name

Enter your name exactly as you want it to appear on the ballot. Nicknames are acceptable, but the last name must be the name under which you are registered to vote.

Titles denoting occupations, including military rank, positions on issues, political affiliation, symbols, or anything intentionally designed to mislead voters are not acceptable.

Party preference

If you are filing for a partisan office, you may state the party name you prefer using 18 characters or less.

The first letter of each word of the party preference will be capitalized (example: Progress For All). Acronyms or initialisms will be printed in all caps with or without periods. No changes to party preference will be accepted after the deadline for withdrawal of candidacy.

Your party preference will appear on the ballot and in the Voters' Pamphlet. If left blank, "States No Party Preference" will be printed.

Party preference plays no role in determining how candidates are elected to public office.

Party preference is entirely your decision and does not imply you have been nominated, endorsed, or approved by the party.

Judicial and most local offices are nonpartisan. Do not list your party preference if you are running for a nonpartisan office.

Filing fee

Your declaration will not be approved until the required filing fee is paid.

Filing fee petitions, submitted in lieu of money by candidates with insufficient funds or assets, must be submitted at the time of filing a Declaration of Candidacy. No signatures may be submitted later.

All filing fees are non-refundable.

Oath

You will need to read and approve the oath on your online filing to complete the filing.

Washington's Top 2 Primary

Washington State's Top 2 Primary is a process of winnowing a field of candidates. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast in a primary race will advance to the General Election ballot. Party preference plays no role in determining how candidates are elected to public office.

You must submit your filing fee when you file for office.

Cost of filing

The filing fee is based upon the salary of the office.

Offices without a fixed annual salary have no filing fee.

For any office with a fixed annual salary of $1,000 or less, candidates pay a filing fee of $10.

For all offices with salaries exceeding $1,000, candidates pay a fee equal to one percent of the office's fixed annual salary.

Specific filing fees are on the list of offices open for election at sos.wa.gov/elections. Filing fees for offices filed with your County Auditor are available from your county elections office (page 10).

Accepted forms of payment

Online filing

- Credit card

In-person or by mail with the Office of the Secretary of State

- Check
- Cash
- Money order
- Valid filing fee petition

If you file with your county elections office, contact their office to determine payment methods.

Filing fees are nonrefundable, even when you withdraw or file for the wrong office.

Filing fee petitions

Candidates without sufficient assets or income may submit a filing fee petition to pay the filing fee.

Candidates submitting petition signatures may not file electronically.

Filing fees may not be paid by combining petition signatures and currency.

Only signatures of registered voters in the same jurisdiction as the office are valid. Each petition sheet (Appendix A) must:

- Be printed on uniform paper size and color
- Include a place for each voter's registration name, address, city, and county
- Provide 20 numbered lines or less
- Display the required warning and statement found in RCW 29A.24.101 and 29A.72.140

A reproducible filing fee petition form is available online at sos.wa.gov/elections/candidates as well as in this document on Appendix A.

Petitions must include a total number of valid signatures equal to the dollar amount of the filing fee.

No person may sign more than one nominating petition for the same office.

Without the required number of signatures, the petition is insufficient and your Declaration of Candidacy is invalid.

No additional signatures are accepted after initial submission at time of filing.

Petition sheets are not returned to the candidate.

Due to COVID-19 safety measures, candidates who lack assets or sufficient funds may substitute a filing fee petition with 1) the COVID-19 Filing Fee Petition Attestation and 2) the Declaration of Candidacy form. These forms can be submitted in person or via fax/email to the appropriate elections office.

Candidates submitting petition attestation may not file electronically.

Forms available at:
sos.wa.gov/elections/candidatefiling.aspx

COVID-19 Filing Fee Petition Attestation is also in this document on Appendix B.

Online submission

The deadline to submit Voters' Pamphlet information is 5 p.m. on Friday, May 22, 2020.

Statement

George Washington, a retired general, had no wish or aspiration beyond the humble and happy lot of living and dying a private citizen at his Mount Vernon farm. However, his peers and the American people at large spread rumors declaring George Washington would likely be elected first President of the United States (much to the dismay of Washington himself). George Washington could not escape his conscience. In a formal letter of acceptance, Washington succinctly assented to what he had agonized over for more than a year. Washington concluded to obey the important and flattering call of his Country.

George Washington, as the first president, was well aware of the great responsibility of defining the American presidency. "I walk on untrodden ground," was a frequent comment he made in the days leading up to his first inauguration. Washington believed that the precedents he set must make the presidency powerful enough to function effectively in the national government, but at the same time these practices could not show any tendency toward monarchy or dictatorship. In addition to defining the actual powers of the office, Washington also needed to show the new nation how the leader of a democracy should behave socially.

Dear Candidate:

The Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) wishes to take this opportunity to advise political candidates about the placement of campaign signs and placards along state highways.

Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 47.42, the Highway Advertising Control Act, regulates signing on Interstate Highways, primary highways, and highways that are part of the Scenic and Recreational System. Signs erected on private property that are adjacent to these highways must comply with the Highway Advertising Control Act, rules contained in Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 468-66, and applicable local agency sign codes.

In accordance with WAC 468-66-050, Sign Classification and Specific Provisions, temporary political campaign signs are identified and regulated as a type of on-premise sign intended to express a property owner's endorsement of a political candidate or initiative. Prior to placing signs, WSDOT recommends checking with the property owner for approval and to determine property line locations. Campaign signs are allowed under the following regulations:

- 1) Temporary political campaign signs are limited to a maximum size of thirty-two square feet.
- 2) Temporary political campaign signs must be removed within ten days following the election.
- 3) Sign installers must have permission of the underlying property owner prior to placing signs.
- 4) Temporary political campaign signs are subject to all other applicable provisions of RCW 47.42 and WAC 468.66 that pertain to Type 3 on-premise signs.

In addition to the above restrictions, the erection of temporary political campaign signs within the right-of-way of all state highways is prohibited. Accordingly, signs placed within the right-of-way of any state highway are subject to removal by the Washington State Department of Transportation.

Also, RCW 47.36.180(1) states in part that it is unlawful to erect any structure, sign, or device visible from a city street, county road, or state highway that simulates any directional, warning, or danger sign likely to be mistaken for such a sign. Therefore, a campaign sign cannot be designated in a manner that resembles an official traffic control sign.

If you should have any questions about placement of campaign signs along state highways, please contact Trevor McCain at 360-705-7282 or email at mccaint@wsdot.wa.gov.

We sincerely hope that candidates for public office will observe the laws and regulations enacted to limit driver distraction, and protect and preserve the roadside beauty of our state. Thank you in advance for your courtesy in this matter.

Filing Fee Petition and Attestation | COVID-19

Candidates who lack sufficient assets or income may file the following attestation and petition due to COVID-19 impacts and Washington’s ‘stay home, stay healthy’ order. Candidates must submit a signed attestation with their Declaration of Candidacy form to the appropriate filing officer before the deadline for all candidates: May 15 at 5 p.m.

Filing fee petitions in lieu of fees during a state of emergency declared by the Governor:

RCW 29A.24.091(4) states, “A candidate who lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of filing to pay the filing fee required by this section shall submit with his or her declaration of candidacy a filing fee petition.”

Emergency WAC 434-215 states, “...the petition must take the form of an attestation by the candidate, stating that the candidate lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of filing to pay the filing fee for the office. A candidate submitting a filing fee petition in the place of a filing fee must sign the attestation, certifying under penalty of perjury that the candidate lacks sufficient assets or income at the time of filing to pay the filing fee.
