BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION.   Sec. 1.   (1) (a) In 1937, the United States government instituted the federal marihuana tax stamp act beginning the prohibition on a botanical herb known as cannabis/hemp.

(b) The very term "marihuana" indicates the bigotry behind demonizing of a plant that has been around for more than ten thousand years, used by many cultures and religions for medical and spiritual purposes, as well as the most useful botanical herb on this planet: Hemp.

(2) (a) In 1970, the United States government, going against reports saying otherwise, chose to classify the botanical herb known as cannabis/hemp as a Schedule I controlled substance with no medicinal value.

(b) A drug war began that has wasted trillions of dollars making criminals of thousands of nonviolent offenders, made the United States have the highest incarceration rate per capita in the world, as well as killed and destroyed thousands of families' and individuals' lives.

(c) In 2003, the United States government, represented by the department of health and human services, was granted a United States patent No. 6630507 on all uses and applications of: Cannabinoids as antioxidants and neuroprotectants.

(d) In 2009, United States patent No. 8632825 was issued for cannabis oil use in the treatment of cancer.

(3) (a) Washington state voters spoke overwhelmingly in 1998, with the passage of Initiative Measure No. 692, creating cannabis for medical use by qualifying patients under chapter 69.51A RCW.

(b) In 2008, the department of health, under the direction of the 2007 legislature, determined the definition of a sixty-day supply. The legislature chose to drastically lower those amounts.

(c) In 2011, poor judgment and lack of leadership lead to the removal of regulation for Washington state's cannabis for medical use market.

(4) (a) Washington voters were sold a new approach to the war on drugs with Initiative Measure No. 502, yet the "Reefer Madness" continues.

(b) The current tax structure of the recreational use of cannabis fuels the illegal market, and does not put an end to it. It also neglects funding allocations to cities, towns, counties, and the federal government from its sales revenue.

(5) The Washington state liquor control board has shown irresponsibility, lack of leadership, and has violated public meeting laws in its actions regarding the regulation of the Washington state's cannabis for recreational use market by:

(a) Losing many court cases against the board for inappropriate conduct and implementing Initiative Measure No. 502;

(b) Allowing the use of harmful synthetic pesticides for producers;

(c) Allowing the selling of one point nine grams of cannabis for forty-one dollars being labeled as two grams;

(d) Allowing retailers to rip off tourists by selling ounces for well above the retail price;

(e) Using a federal standard for testing recreational cannabis that raises the active THC levels by twenty percent; and

(f) Prohibiting public consumption by like minded individuals in establishments and with businesses wishing to provide the service.

(6) The people intend to create the regulation needed for both cannabis markets and to ensure that a new approach to the drug war continues on cannabis-related offenses by:

(a) Protecting access for patients to cannabis for medical use by preserving the intent of Initiative Measure No. 692 while creating the regulation intended in chapter 479, Laws of 2011, yet vetoed out, using the bipartisan language previously approved by a bipartisan legislature specifying cannabis for medical use licensing, as well as other protections from it to qualifying patients;

(b) Restoring the original definition of a sixty-day supply that the department of health determined for the legislature;

(c) Protecting qualifying patients under eighteen years of age, parents, legal guardians, and his or her designated provider;

(d) Allowing cannabis to be used as a botanical herb for qualifying patients exempting it from taxation;

(e) Creating the Washington state cannabis regulation commission with a cannabis for medical use board to create a not-for-profit business model that is the cannabis for medical use market. The mission is to provide the highest quality medicine to the patients at the lowest price possible for qualifying patients who need it the most;

(f) Creating an application fee, an annual fee for insurance and renewal of licenses, and regulation fees on cannabis for medical use that are managed by the cannabis for medical use board to use in conjunction with other funds in the dedicated cannabis for medical use account to keep the regulation of the cannabis for medical use market by the board revenue neutral;

(g) Creating a recreational use board within the Washington state cannabis regulation commission to govern over all aspects of the cannabis for recreational use market;

(h) Changing the improper discriminating racial slur marijuana to its proper name cannabis, making the Revised Code of Washington proper nondiscriminating use of English;

(i) Preventing the use of zoning restrictions for purposes of banning, and/or limiting cannabis for recreational use by cities, towns, counties, or the legislature;

(j) Allowing for public consumption in establishments and with businesses that wish to provide the service;

(k) Allow Washingtonians twenty-one years and older to grow their own cannabis for personal use;

(l) Preventing genetically modified cannabis from being sold in Washington state;

(m) Restoring proof of impairment for driving under the influence by holding law and peace enforcement officers and the people of Washington state accountable for their actions;

(n) Preventing carboxy delta-11 from being used when testing for illicit cannabis drug use in nondangerous employment activity;

(o) Removing cannabis, also known as marijuana, from the state controlled substances act list of dangerous drugs;

(p) Giving a three strikes with penalties until a misdemeanor charge for any state employee or agent who chooses to share in or inform federal, criminal, or civil investigations that are not against state law;

(q) Giving a three strikes with penalties until a gross misdemeanor charge for any state employee or agent who chooses to assist in the arrest, prosecution, or detention of any person for any violation of federal laws that are not against state law; and

(r) Making sure that all state law is consistent in the enforcement of state law over federal law for cannabis-related issues.

(7) Therefore, the people further strengthen cannabis reform in Washington state by enacting changes to the Revised Code of Washington.

(b) One member appointed from the Washington state department of agriculture for a three-year term;

(c) One member appointed from the Washington state board of health for a three-year term;

(b) Health care professionals, qualifying patients, or their parent or legal guardian wishing to offer their names for service to the board have thirty days to submit their names to the board for the first lottery. Others wishing to serve on the board shall submit their names to the board for the lotteries. Those seeking another term of service shall be put on a previous board members' list for the respective board positions. When the lotteries have no first time candidates, the appropriate board members' list is then used for the random draw of the lottery.

(c) Within sixty days of the effective date of this section, the board shall draw randomly from the names submitted to fill the two board member positions. Within seven days of the announcement of the new board members, the board shall be called to a meeting to make any additional rules about licensing that may be needed. Any additional rules that may need to be made for licensing shall not exclude someone from obtaining all three licenses, or any combination, to allow licensing of the cannabis farmers markets that already serve qualifying patients and designated providers.

(d) After sixty days, but less than ninety days, the board shall start issuing licenses for cannabis for medical use producers, processors, and dispensers to those already serving qualifying patients and designated providers.

(e) Thirty days after licenses start being issued the board will draw randomly from the licensed cannabis for medical use producers and licensed cannabis for medical use processors to fill the last two board positions under subsection (2)(f) and (g) of this section. Those seeking another term of service shall be put on a previous board members' list for the respective board positions for the lotteries. When there are no first time candidates for either position, the appropriate board members' list is then used for the random draw of the lottery.

(4) Within seven days of the announcement of last board members, the board is called to a meeting to govern the cannabis for medical use market. The board shall create a not-for-profit model governing all aspects of growing, production, and distribution of cannabis for medical use, and begin the process of issuing licenses for cannabis for medical use producers immediately. Licenses for cannabis for medical use processors and cannabis for medical use dispensers must be issued accordingly after that, no longer than sixty days. All board meetings are open to the public and shall be recorded and available to the public via the internet.

(5) The board shall be in charge with financial stewardship of the dedicated cannabis for medical use account to maintain a revenue neutral governing body over the regulation of the cannabis for medical use market.

(7) The Washington state rules of seed to sale tracking shall be used by the board for the tracking of cannabis for medical use by all cannabis for medical use licensees. The board shall establish a system to allow for tracking of clones for those licensees who choose to use this to provide the highest quality medicine at the lowest price possible to qualifying patients who need it the most.

(8) The board shall immediately start adding more qualifying conditions based on industry standards, and the science found on the internet about the medicinal properties of cannabis.

(9) All testing of cannabis for medical use shall use a standard that will be more accurate in actual tetrahydrocannabinols and cannabinoids content, and mandate microbial testing for mold and mildew.

(10) All labeling for cannabis for medical use shall include all types of tetrahydrocannabinols and cannabinoids for qualifying patients to make the most informed choice.

(11) As long as cannabis remains on the controlled substances list, it is not in the best interest of nor guarantees truly safe access for qualifying patients to his or her medicine. The board shall not make rules for a patient registry as long as cannabis is on the federal controlled substances list.

(12) The board must create rules to prevent genetically modified cannabis of any kind in Washington state.

(13) The board must make rules so that United States veterans and qualifying patients who have primary care providers or specialists who do not write authorizations for the medical use of cannabis for fear of federal repercussions are able to go to a defined health care professional, sharing their medical records, to get an authorization for the medical use of cannabis.

(14) The board must make rules so that qualifying patients do not have to use costly pharmaceuticals and poisonous treatments, such as chemotherapy, before being allowed to receive an authorization for the medical use of cannabis.

(15) The board may create further rules based upon existing industry standards and best practices for the regulation of the cannabis for medical use market.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 69.51A RCW to read as follows:

(b) The cannabis for medical use board may review the annual fee for insurance and renewal of licenses to adjust the cost in order to maintain a revenue-neutral governing body over the regulation of the cannabis for medical use market.

(2)(a) The board must conduct a criminal history check at the time of the application of all cannabis for medical use licenses. The applicant for the license is responsible for all fees required for the criminal history check.

(b) Criminal histories from any applicant that come back with any crime relating to cannabis must be evaluated during the issuing of a license. Cannabis only crimes including, though not limited to, growing, transportation, selling, or possession are not excluded from obtaining a license. Cannabis crimes that are nonviolent, along with a firearms possession charge from an applicant who was a licensed registered firearms owner, are not excluded from obtaining a license. Crimes involving cannabis that are nonviolent, along with any other charges, may be evaluated for the issuing of a license. This evaluation to determine eligibility of obtaining any cannabis for medical use license must be done by the cannabis for medical use board.
