American Libraries Celebrate Black American History

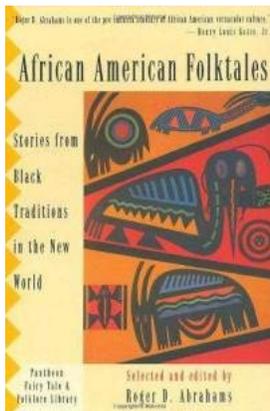

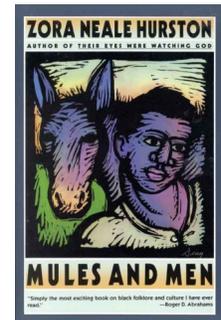

2013 marks the 50th anniversary of Dr. King's I Have A Dream speech in Washington D. C. The complete text of that historic speech is available in our book of the same title. All illustrations were created by award-winning artists. The foreword was written by Coretta Scott King.

We have other charming children's picture books that celebrate Black American life and lives, including:

- Tar Beach, by Faith Ringgold
- The Steel Pan Man of Harlem, by Colin Bootman
- Testing the Ice: Jackie Robinson, by Sharon Robinson
- Queen of the Scene, by Queen Latifah

Mules and Men

Zora Neale Hurston (1891-1960) was a novelist, folklorist and anthropologist who traveled the highways and byways of America to gather folktales and folkways of her culture in their own language and perspective.
