

“How to Find and Get a Job on the Olympic Peninsula” With Charles Mannila

Wednesday June 9, 2010
7:00 PM – 8:00 PM

In conjunction with the Port Townsend Public Library's Transition Yourself Grant to serve area job seekers, this special event will provide job seekers in the community with additional assistance in finding their way to employment. Through the Hard Times Grant the library has sponsored twenty one workshops for job seekers and teens and continues to support the Transition Yourself Network Group that meets Fridays at the Charles Pink House at 10:00a.m. and has expanded its resources and collections for job seekers.

Topic Highlights:

- Employers who are hiring on the Olympic Peninsula
- What employers are looking for today
- Who's getting hired
- Top ten employer hiring traits for today's difficult job market
- 12 reasons why job candidates don't get the job
- Six deadly job hunting mistakes
- Non-traditional job hunting techniques
- How to identify hidden job market opportunities
- Creating a Job Search Action Plan
- Washington State employment resources
