STATE OF WASHINGTON

Keith D. Dozois, Assistant Vice President
THE HARTFORD ACCIDENT AND INDEMNITY COMPANY, of Hartford, Connecticut, (hereinafter called the Surety), binds itself to pay The State of Washington (hereinafter called the Employer), such pecuniary loss as the latter shall have sustained of money or other personal property (including that for which the Employer is responsible) through any failure of official duty, whether of omission or commission in the United States by any of the Employees occupying the positions now named in or hereafter added to the schedule attached hereto and which is hereby made a part of this bond. The coverage for each position begins on the date indicated in the schedule, acceptance notice or renewal list, as the case may be, and continues until terminated as hereinafter provided.

PROVIDED:

FIRST: That the Employer shall have the right to add:

a. Additional positions of the same designation as any position named in the schedule or in any written acceptance of the Surety and such additional positions shall be added to the schedule as of the date of creation thereof, and in the amount set opposite the positions so named in said schedule or such acceptance notice. Said coverage shall continue automatically for a period of 90 days, but only after that period by written request of the Employer and the written acceptance of the Surety. Such coverage shall be null and void from the beginning unless the Surety is notified of such newly created positions within 90 days after the creation thereof.

If the Employer desires to increase or decrease the amount of coverage in respect to any position named in the schedule, or in any acceptance notice, he shall give written notice to the Surety of his desire in this respect. The Surety shall, if it elects so to do, increase said coverage accordingly by its written acceptance. Any decrease, however, shall be binding as of date specified by Employer.

b. Any new position of a different designation from any position named in the schedule or in any written acceptance of the Surety and such positions may be automatically added to such schedule in any amount not exceeding Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars from the date of creation thereof for a period of 90 days, but such coverage shall only be continued after the 90 day period at the written request of the Employer and the written acceptance thereof of the Surety. Such coverage shall be null and void from the beginning unless the Surety is notified of such newly created positions within 90 days after the creation thereof. If the Employer desires to add to the schedule in a greater amount than Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars any new position of a different designation from that named in the schedule or in any written acceptance of the Surety, he shall give written notice to the Surety of his desire in this respect and the Surety shall, if it elects so to do, grant said addition to the schedule by its written acceptance.

SECOND: The Employer shall keep, or cause to be kept, an accurate record of any and all new positions created and of any and all additional positions added to said schedule bearing the same designation of any named herein, showing the name of the occupant, the date of employment in said position and the period of incumbency, if such period shall have been less than 90 day automatic coverage granted hereunder, and (when requested) the Employer shall furnish to the Surety, within the 90 day automatic coverage period, the Surety's application form completed and signed by said Employee.
THIRD: The Employer undertakes and agrees to furnish the Surety on each premium anniversary date hereof a statement specifying the number of positions to be covered, the number of persons occupying each position, and the amount of coverage required for each position.

FOURTH: The total liability of the Surety on account of any Employee, though he may have occupied more than one position, shall not exceed the largest amount of coverage on any one position occupied by him.

FIFTH: If a loss occurs hereunder through any Employee in excess of the coverage of Surety on such Employee, any recovery thereof by the Employer shall revert to the Employer for the loss sustained in excess of the amount of said Suretyship, the balance, if any, to be paid to the Surety; and likewise, the amount of any recovery that may be made by the Surety except from reinsurance, other Suretyship, collateral, or third party indemnity, (less the expenses incurred by the Surety in making such recovery), shall revert to the Employer for the loss sustained in excess of the amount of said coverage, the balance, if any, belonging to the Surety.

SIXTH: This Bond shall terminate:

a. As to any Employee immediately upon the discovery of any default on his part, upon his death or retirement from the service of the Employer, or thirty days after the Employer receives written notice from the Surety that the latter desires so to terminate.

b. As to any position or as a whole upon the date the Surety receives written notice from the Employer of its desire so to terminate, or thirty days after the Employer receives written notice from the Surety that the latter desires so to terminate.

When bond is terminated as provided above, the Surety shall refund any unearned premium, but the premium received for Suretyship upon which a claim is paid shall be fully earned.

It is understood and agreed that the obligee shall have the right to add to the schedule any position inadvertently omitted, in which event coverage shall be effective as of, and premium payable from, the effective date hereof.
