INTRODUCTION

The Respondent Secretary of State is serving identical discovery requests on the three counties and two county auditors who have chosen to opt back into this election contest litigation as a Respondent after having been dismissed by the Court. These discovery requests require each of those opt-in Respondents to fully disclose the claims and facts which that Respondent will be pursuing (if any), so this suit can proceed to a prompt, orderly, and impartial resolution based upon a full consideration of the claims and legally relevant facts being contested by the litigants in this case.

Given the purpose of these discovery requests and the opt-in Respondents' affirmatively joining this suit after having been dismissed, the opt-in Respondents should be able to provide full and candid answers so this election contest can proceed to an orderly resolution on the merits without any unnecessary delays or surprises. (See also, e.g., Civil Rule 11 and Washington State Physicians Ins. Exchange & Ass'n v. Fisons Corp., 122 Wn.2d 299, 858 P.2d 1054 (1993).)

If counsel for any opt-in Respondent nonetheless has an objection to answering some part of these discovery requests, the undersigned counsel for the Secretary of State will gladly make themselves available for a discovery conference before these requests' April 15 deadline in order to work out a fair resolution to that objection so answers can be timely provided without unnecessary delays and expense.

FIVE GENERAL REMINDERS

1. Interrogatories: Since the Chelan County Superior Court has ruled that the Civil Rules apply in this case, the Respondent Secretary of State is serving these Interrogatories upon you pursuant to Civil Rule 33. You are reminded that Rule 33 requires you to answer each of these Interrogatories under oath, and to then deliver those sworn answers to the undersigned attorney's Seattle, Washington office on or before Friday, April 15, 2005.

These Interrogatories cover and include all information and knowledge available to you. This includes all information and knowledge available to any person who obtained information for you or on your behalf – including your agents, investigators, consultants, and representatives.

2. Production Requests: Since the Chelan County Superior Court has ruled that the Civil Rules apply in this case, the Respondent Secretary of State is serving these Production Requests upon you pursuant to Civil Rule 34. You are reminded that Rule 34 requires you to find the "documents" described in these Production Requests and produce them at the undersigned attorney's Seattle, Washington office to be inspected and copied at 9:00 a.m. on Friday, April 15, 2005.

FOSTER PEPPER & SHEFELMAN PLLC
1111 THIRD AVENUE, SUITE 3400
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON 98101-3299 • 206-447-4400

These Production Requests cover and include all "documents" of any nature which are or have been within your possession, custody, or control. This includes all the documents of any person who obtained information for you or on your behalf – including your agents, investigators, consultants, and representatives. All "documents" shall be produced in the same folders, files, and form in which they are maintained by the person who holds or maintains those documents. Documents attached to each other shall not be separated.

3. Objections: Since the Chelan County Superior Court has ruled that the Civil Rules apply in this case, you are reminded that if you object to producing any of the requested "documents", or object to answering any part of any Interrogatory, then you must fully state your objection and all the factual and legal reasons supporting your objection. If you object on the ground of privilege, you must fully state the nature and extent of the privilege you claim. If you object to answering only part of a Production Request or Interrogatory, you must identify the specific part to which you object and answer the remainder. ANY OBJECTION WHICH IS NOT SO ASSERTED OR IS NOT TIMELY SERVED WILL BE DEEMED WAIVED. You are also expressly reminded of your discovery response obligations under Washington State Physicians Ins. Exchange & Ass'n v. Fisons Corp., 122 Wn.2d 299, 858 P.2d 1054 (1993), and its progeny.

4. Supplementation: Since the Chelan County Superior Court has ruled that the Civil Rules apply in this case, you are reminded that Rule 26(e) requires you to supplement your Interrogatory answers and Production Request responses after you have served your initial answers and responses.

These Production Requests and Interrogatories are continuously renewed to and through the hearing of this case. Therefore, if you ever obtain any information that materially affects any Interrogatory answer or Production Request response so that the affected answer or response is no longer true, you are required to promptly correct that answer or response. Your failure to do that will be a knowing concealment of the truth.

5. Sanctions. Since the Chelan County Superior Court has ruled that the Civil Rules apply in this case, you are reminded that the Court may severely sanction you if you fail to comply with any of the Civil Rules. For example, Rule 37 authorizes the Court to exclude evidence favorable to you, to strike your pleadings and enter a default judgment against you, and order you to pay the expenses and attorney fees of the party submitting these discovery requests.

SEVEN DEFINITIONS

The following paragraphs define several of the terms used in these discovery requests so you cannot claim in good faith to have misunderstood what these discovery requests are requesting. Therefore, please read these definitions carefully.

(a) "Petitioners" means Timothy Borders, Thomas Canterbury, Tom Huff, Margie Ferris, Paul Elvig, Edward Monaghan, Christopher Vance, and the Rossi For Governor Campaign.

(b) "you" & "your" mean Respondent Lewis County Auditor.

(c) "person" means humans as well as entities. For example, the term "person" includes any type of candidate committee, political party, company, partnership, association, organization, and non-profit corporation.

(d) "document" means any written, typed, graphic, recorded, or electronically stored matter whatsoever. The term "document" accordingly includes emails, letters, telefaxes, pictures, files, summaries, spreadsheets, notes, drafts, and working papers.

If any information is on a computer disk, tape, or other memory or storage device, the term "document" means (i) a printout of that information in hard-copy form, or (ii) a CD or DVD with a complete, useable copy of all of that information. Thus, for example, the term "document" includes a hard-copy printout, CD, or DVD of all emails responsive to these discovery requests.

FOSTER PEPPER & SHEFELMAN PLLC
1111 THIRD AVENUE, SUITE 3400
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON 98101-3299 ♦ 206-447-4400

(e) "identify".

(i) When applied to a human, the term "identify" means state their full name and, to the extent reasonably available to you, the phone number, email address, and residence address at which they can most easily be contacted.

(ii) When applied to an entity, the term "identify" means state that entity's full name and, to the extent reasonably available to you, the phone number, email address, and business address at which it can most easily be contacted.

(iii) When applied to a document, the term "identify" means state its general description (e.g., letter, handwritten note, report, etc.), its date, its addressee, its author, a brief summary of its general contents and, to the extent reasonably available to you, the persons receiving copies of that document. Alternatively, if that document is being produced with document production numbers on it, you may simply state the document production numbers.

(f) "and" & "or". The words "and" and "or" should not be interpreted to exclude any information from any Interrogatory answer or Production Request response. Both words should therefore be interpreted to mean "and/or" when necessary to prevent such exclusion.

(g) Singular/Plural. The use of the singular or plural form of a word in any Interrogatory or Production Request should not be construed to exclude any information from any Interrogatory answer or Production Request response.

Errors, Etc. Alleged Against The Respondent Secretary Of State

Without specifying the "respondents" to which it refers, the Election Contest Petition alleges that respondents committed "errors", "omissions", "mistakes", "misconduct", "neglect", and "other wrongful acts" – e.g., that this election is being contested "because of the errors, omissions, misconduct, neglect, and other wrongful acts of respondent election officials" (1st para., Sec. IV), because "Respondents ... have made errors and been negligent, and they have committed other wrongful acts" (2nd para., Sec. IV), because "respondents have committed errors, omissions, mistakes, neglect, and other wrongful acts" (Sec. VI.A), and because of "Respondents' errors, omissions, misconduct, neglect, and other wrongful acts" (Sec. VI.B-C). The following Interrogatories ask you to disclose your claims and facts (if any) with respect to one of those respondents – i.e., the respondent Secretary of State.

INTERROGATORY NO. 1: In this suit, do you claim that the respondent Secretary of State committed any error, omission, mistake, misconduct, neglect, or wrongful act relating to the 2004 Governor's election?

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 2: If your answer to the preceding Interrogatory was anything other than an unequivocal "no", then for each error, omission, mistake, misconduct, neglect, or wrongful act you claim the respondent Secretary of State committed, please:

(a) state what you claim that error, omission, mistake, misconduct, neglect, or wrongful act was;

(b) state whether you claim that error, omission, mistake, misconduct, neglect, or wrongful act caused Ms. Gregoire to be declared duly elected even though she did not receive the highest number of legal votes; and

(c) if you claim it did, explain exactly how you claim it did.

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 3: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 1 above was anything other than an unequivocal "no", then please identify every person with any knowledge concerning your answer to Interrogatory Nos. 1-2 above, along with a brief description of the subject matter of that person's knowledge.

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 4: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 1 above was anything other than an unequivocal "no", then please identify every document that supports, is inconsistent with, or otherwise relates to your answer to Interrogatory Nos. 1-2 above.

Failure To Perform Obligations Alleged Against The Respondent Secretary Of State

Without specifying the "respondents" to which it refers, the Election Contest Petition states that "Respondents and their agents have filed to perform their obligations under the constitutions of the State of Washington and the United States and elections laws" (2nd para., Sec. IV), and that "Respondents ... failed to implement procedures to avoid mistakes, errors, and alteration or submission of invalid votes" (3rd para., Sec. IV). The following Interrogatories ask you to disclose your claims and facts (if any) with respect to one of those respondents – i.e., the respondent Secretary of State.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5: In this suit, do you claim the respondent Secretary of State failed to perform any obligation with respect to the 2004 Governor's election?

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 6: If your answer to the preceding Interrogatory was anything other than an unequivocal "no", then for each obligation you allege the respondent Secretary of State failed to perform, please:

(a) identify that obligation;

(b) identify the specific constitutional provision or specific law which you claim created that obligation;

(c) state how you claim the respondent Secretary of State failed to perform that obligation;

(d) state whether you claim that failure by the Secretary of State caused Ms. Gregoire to be declared duly elected even though she did not receive the highest number of legal votes; and

(e) if you claim it did, explain exactly how you claim it did.

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 7: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 5 above was anything other than an unequivocal "no", then please identify every person with any knowledge concerning your answer to Interrogatory Nos. 5-6 above, along with a brief description of the subject matter of that person's knowledge.

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 8: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 5 above was anything other than an unequivocal "no", then please identify every document that supports, is inconsistent with, or otherwise relates to your answer to Interrogatory Nos. 5-6 above.

Alleged Error In The Secretary Of State's Certification

The Election Contest Petition states that "an error has occurred in the Secretary of State's certification of the election returns" (Sec. VI.F). The following Interrogatories ask you to disclose your claims and facts (if any) with respect to that allegation concerning the respondent Secretary of State.

INTERROGATORY NO. 9: In this suit, do you claim the respondent Secretary of State committed any error in his certification of the election returns for the 2004 Governor's election?

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 10: For each error you claim has occurred in the Secretary of State's certification of the election returns for the 2004 Governor's election, please:

(a) state what you claim that error was;

(b) state whether you claim the Secretary of State caused or is responsible for that error;

(c) if you claim the Secretary of State caused or was responsible for that error, please explain exactly how you claim he caused or was responsible for that error;

(d) state whether you claim that error caused Ms. Gregoire to be declared duly elected even though she did not receive the highest number of legal votes; and

(e) if you claim if did, explain exactly how you claim it did.

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 11: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 9 above was anything other than an unequivocal "no", then please identify every person with any knowledge concerning your answer to Interrogatory Nos. 9-10 above, along with a brief description of the subject matter of that person's knowledge.

ANSWER:

Illegal Votes Apparently Given To Gregoire And Rossi

The Election Contest Petition states that "it appears that a sufficient number of illegitimate, invalid and/or illegal votes has been given to Ms. Gregoire that, if taken from her, would reduce the number of her legal votes below the number of votes given to Mr. Rossi, after deducting therefrom the illegal votes that may be shown to have been given to him. RCW 29A.68.110" (Sec. VI.B.10).

The Petitioners' February 22 answers to the intervenor Democrats' discovery requests further maintain that Petitioners base their contentions as to the candidate for whom those illegal votes were cast on facts such as direct evidence (e.g., "the specific ballots cast illegally" and "testimony from the illegal voters") and circumstantial evidence (e.g., "a proportional analysis", "proportional allocation" by precinct, or "media reports"). See Petitioner Rossi Campaign's February 22 answers to the Democrats' Interrogatory Nos. 3, 5, 7, 9, 14, & 16.

The following Interrogatories ask you to fully disclose your facts concerning every illegal vote alleged in this election contest.

INTERROGATORY NO. 13: In this suit, do you contend that it appears a number of illegitimate, invalid and/or illegal votes has been given to Ms. Gregoire that, if taken from her, would reduce the number of her legal votes below the number of votes given to Mr. Rossi, after deducting therefrom the illegal votes that may be shown to have been given to him?

ANSWER:

INTERROGATORY NO. 14: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 13 above is anything other than an unequivocal "no", then please:

(a) state the total number of illegitimate, invalid, or illegal votes you claim were apparently given to Ms. Gregoire in the 2004 Governor's election; and

(b) state the total number of illegitimate, invalid, or illegal votes you claim were apparently given to Mr. Rossi in the 2004 Governor's election.

INTERROGATORY NO. 15: If your answer to Interrogatory No. 13 above is anything other than an unequivocal "no", then please:

(a) identify the voters in whose name you claim illegitimate, invalid, or illegal votes were cast in the 2004 election – including each such voter's full name and, to the extent available to you, that voter's residence address, telephone number, voter ID or registration number, county voting precinct, and date of birth;

(b) for each voter you identify, briefly state the reason you claim their vote was illegitimate, invalid, or illegal (e.g., felon, deceased, voted twice, cast by person other than the registered voter, etc.);

(c) for each voter you identify, state the candidate for whom you claim that voter's vote was apparently cast in the 2004 Governor's election;

(d) for each voter you identify, state every type of direct or circumstantial evidence you rely upon for your claim concerning the gubernatorial candidate for whom that voter's vote was apparently cast (e.g., proportional analysis, voter testimony, etc.).

Errors, Etc. Causing Fewer Lawful Votes To Be Counted For Rossi Than Gregoire

The Election Contest Petition states that "As a result of Respondents' errors, omissions, misconduct, neglect, and other wrongful acts, Respondents failed to count more lawful votes for Candidate Rossi than the number of votes separating the candidates" (Sec. VI.C), that "The number of individuals who state that they voted for Mr. Rossi but their ballots were wrongfully rejected by Respondents exceeds the number of votes certified by the Secretary of State as separating the two candidates by more than double" (Sec. VI.C), and that "the votes of lawfully registered voters were not counted, and the failure of the Respondents to count them, when presented with evidence of Respondents' errors, was arbitrary, capricious, wrongful, and a violation of their obligations under Washington's election laws" (5th para., Sec. VI).

In addition to the statements Petitioners refer to by individuals whose votes for Mr. Rossi were rejected, their February 22 answers to the intervenor Democrats' discovery requests indicate that Petitioners base their contentions in this case concerning the candidate for whom votes were cast on facts such as direct evidence (e.g., "the specific ballots cast illegally" and "testimony from the illegal voters") and circumstantial evidence (e.g., "a proportional analysis", "proportional allocation" by precinct, or "media reports"). See the Petitioner Rossi Campaign's February 22 answers to the Democrats' Interrogatory Nos. 3, 5, 7, 9, 14, & 16.

The following Interrogatories ask you to fully disclose your facts concerning the errors, omissions, misconduct, neglect, and other wrongful acts of elections officials alleged in this election contest.
