relating to that election, including but not limited to, the original count, the machine recount and the manual recount. I believe that there have been numerous errors made in the counting including the inclusion of felons who were not entitled to vote in Pierce County which has resulted in the dilution of my valid vote.

5. It appears that election officials have committed errors, omissions, mistakes, neglect, and other wrongful acts that are the cause of this contest, including but not limited to the following:

a. Employing procedures that resulted in the counting of votes far in excess of the number of lawfully registered electors who participated in the election. Specifically, based on information currently available, it appears there are more votes than individuals credited with voting in Clark County.

b. Counting the votes of convicted felons who have not had their civil rights restored.

6. As a result of the actions and omissions of elections officials, Washington voters appear to have been deprived of a free and fair election:

a. Voters appear to have been deprived of the equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the United States and Washington State Constitutions;

b. The valid votes of the certain voters apparently were either not counted or diluted by illegitimate, invalid, and/or illegal votes; and

c. It is impossible to determine which gubernatorial candidate received the greatest number of legitimate votes.

7. The results of the election should be declared null and void; should be set aside; and any certification of the results of the election and any certificate of election issued as a result of the election should be void. A new vote should be conducted as soon as practicable.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

DATED this 14th day of January, 2005.
