On leave, Mr. La Du introduced C. M. No. 4, relative to the construction of a Pacific Railroad, which is as follows:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Washington, the time has arrived for the construction of a great national railway across our continent, connecting the populous States of the Atlantic with the Pacific shores of the Union, already colonized with our young and vigorous men. That so great an object never has been presented to the acceptance of a nation; that the great importance of this line of communication is incalculable.

Resolved, As the opinion of the Legislative Assembly, that there are many and very important reasons requiring the construction of this great work. It will bind together this vast republic and be a chain of union between the Atlantic and Pacific States. It will insure the defense of the country. Armies, seamen, military and naval stores may be transported from ocean to ocean in less time and with less expense than were required between New York and the lakes during the war of 1812. It will give a direct, quick transit to mails.—Military reasons call for its construction. Political reasons require that it should be made, and more than all, commercial reasons demand it. The trade of the Pacific ocean and eastern Asia will take its track. The trade of India, whose channels have been shifting for hundreds of years, is destined to shift once more, and that across our continent. The American road to India will become the European track to that region, and the rich commerce of Asia will flow through our centre.

Resolved, As the opinion of the Legislative Assembly, that the cheapest and shortest route from the great commercial emporiums of the Atlantic to the Pacific, is the route explored and surveyed by Governor Stevens near the 49th parallel of north latitude, connecting Puget Sound—the largest and most commodious harbor in the world, with its inexhaustable beds of coal, with the head of lake Superior and the three great lakes which connect directly with the Atlantic, thus greatly reducing the cost of transit on heavy merchandize. It touches, too, long lines of steamboat navigation on the Columbia and Missouri rivers.

Resolved, That the northern line is the most accessible by navigation—passes through the lumber regions of Minnesota and Washington, and has easy access to the vast pine forests of the Red river, and passing through the rich and boundless prairies of the north-west.

Resolved, That the construction of this great northern national railway, cannot only be the work of the present century, but it can be made the great work of the present administration, giving it undying fame, binding together this vast empire in bands of iron, and bearing the light of the gospel, of science and civilization across the continent, and making it the great highway between Europe and Asia.

At a meeting of the citizens of Pierce county, W. T., held at Steilacoom on January 26th, 1858, E. A. LIGHT was called to the Chair, and F. A. MCCARTY chosen Secretary.

The object of the meeting being stated by the Chairman, the meeting was then addressed at some length by Mr. A. L. Porter, when, on motion of E. M. Meeker, Esq., a committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiment of the meeting. Whereupon Messrs. E. M. Meeker, A. L. Porter, N. H. Orr, A. H. Woolery, and A. C. Lowell were appointed said committee.

Henry E. Bradley here arose and stated that he had in his possession a communication from Frank Clark, addressed to Messrs. McCaw, Rogers and himself, and asked permission to read it before the committee. Leave was granted and the communication read; after which the committee retired.

During the absence of the committee the meeting was addressed by Wm. B. Affick and others.

The committee returned and reported the following Preamble and Resolutions which were considered seperately and adopted:

WHEREAS, The county of Pierce in the Territory of Washington, is fast gaining a disgraceful notoriety in other counties of this Territory, and in other parts bordering on the Pacific coast, and in all places where the acts of a part of her citizens are known, which the undersigned citizens of said Pierce county have long endeavored to ignore to the world; and whereas, the said county of Pierce embraces within her borders a very large amount of areable lands, also good inland roads and fine navigable harbors, and we verily believe some as good law-abiding citizens as can be found in any other county or place that can be mentioned; and

WHEREAS, certain citizens, implicated in the disgraceful farce enacted at Fort Steilacoom on the 22nd inst., to prevent the execution of the Indian chief Leschi, have complained that they have not had a chance to vindicate themselves, and

WHEREAS, the hour appointed having now arrived in which every citizen of the county was invited to participate, and the said parties having refused or neglected to attend, therefore

1st. Resolved, That we, the people of Pierce county, assembled, do now denounce George Williams, the present Sheriff of this county, as a base hireling, unworthy the position he now occupies, and the confidence of any good law-abiding citizen; and especially do we wish to express our indignation at the part our said Sheriff acted in the late farce of the non-execution of the sentence of the law and justice upon the notorious Indian Leschi, who, a few short months since, was murdering, in cold blood, our inoffensive and defenceless neighbors and their children, and would, had it been in his power, swept every civilized being from this fair land.

2nd. Resolved, That we do most earnestly pray that the proper authority will remove and disincumber the present "tool," namely: James M. Bachelder, of the high position of United States' Commissioner, and confer the trust to a more honest man.

3rd. Resolved, That we consider the "thing" that calls himself an Attorney, namely: Frank Clark, the instigator and planner of the late most rediculous and unparalled outrage which robbed justice of her rights, and again jeopardizing the lives and property of our frontier settlers.

4th. Resolved, That we believe a part of the officers of the military garrison at Fort Steilacoom, are a clog and detriment to the execution of the civil law.

5th. Resolved, That we hold as enemies to law and order, all who did, do, or shall in any way countenance or uphold the foregoing named persons in their acts on the 22nd day of January, 1858, and previous thereto, in clogging the executions of the law and justice in the case of the Indian chief Leschi.

6th. Resolved, That we now firmly believe (as it has long been supposed by some,) that Dr. W. F. Tolmie and the other representatives of the Hudson Bay Company, are the Indians' friends and abettors, and the enemies of the American citizens, therefore, we do most humbly pray that the United States Government will deliver Pierce county of this very effective blight and curse.

7th. Resolved, That we deprecate and denounce in unmeasured terms the grog-shop influence which has ever controled our elections in this county, and we are determined in future, to withhold our patronage in every way and form, and will disown as a neighbor or citizen, any one that may in the future, under any pretence whatever, exert said influence at any of our elections.

8th. Resolved, That the undersigned citizens of the county of Pierce, think and conceive it to be a duty that we owe to ourselves, our families, our friends, and our country to publish to the world that we have resolved to see the civil law of the land and the decree of our courts executed in the future, though it be at the expence of our property or even our lives.

F. A. McCarty then offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That we exonerate Capt. M. Maloney from the censure expressed in resolution 4th, respecting the military officers at Fort Steilacoom.

On motion, the Chair appointed a committee of three to receive signatures to the Resolutions and forward the same to the Editors of the Pioneer & Democrat, and request publication.

On motion the meeting adjourned, sine die.

THE GREAT AMERICAN BASIN TERRITORY.—A new Territory is knocking at the door, not of the Union, but for admission to that "outer court" where the preparatory forms of State sovereignty are learned. The inhabitants of the Great American Basin have met in several localities and authorized Hon. James M. Crane to act as their Delegate at Washington in obtaining a Territorial organization. The region thus proposed for a new Territory is defined as lying between the Sierra Nevada on the West, the Goose Creek range of mountains on the East, the Oregon and Utah line on the North, and the Colorado on the South. The inhabitable country is made up of more than two hundred distinct valleys, ranging in size from ten to one hundred miles in length, and of great beauty and fertility. The mountainous parts abound in rich mineral and metal stores. The white population is not estimated, so far as we have seen, in the present statements, although the California papers have ridiculded the previous claim to 7000 inhabitants.

The necessity of a Territorial organization is alleged to spring from the machinations of the Mormons. They regard the whole region as their own, and have united most of the Indian tribes in their interest. The Indian population is said to be over a hundred thousand, all hostile to the Americans, in a greater or less degree, except the Pah Yutes, who number forty thousand. These are intelligent, peaceful, and desirous of co-operating with the Americans, which a regular organization and government will enable them to do. But until that event, the lives of the white residents and of the numerous emigrants passing through the Great Basin will be at the mercy of the rapacious tribes, stirred up and led on by the Mormons. Mr. Crane arrived in the last California steamer, and proceed at once to Washington.—Boston Journal.

OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON TERRITORY,
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1858.

J. W. WILEY AND E. FURSTE, EDITORS.

"Truth crush'd to earth will rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers."

General Results of the Geological Survey of Oregon and Washington Territories.

Two overland journeys have been made to the Pacific, with examinations of the Northern passes in the Rocky mountains; also examinations in the heart of the main chain of said mountains, from latitude 45 degrees north to the British line. Examinations were made along the western base of the same range, from near the British line to the head waters of Salmon river; three trips were made (two west and one east of the Cascade range of mountains), from the boundary of California to the British line; also three crossings of the coast range of mountains in different latitudes, with examinations of various sections of country along the coast. Throughout all these routes, involving, with lateral examinations, twenty thousand miles of travel on foot or on horseback, collections have been made of the prevailing rocks, soils, and minerals.

Rich deposits of semi-bituminous coals have been discovered, cropping out at various points from the British possessions to near the boundary of California. These deposits are almost inexhaustible in quantity, and accessible to sail and steam navigation. Gold has been discovered in several localities in Washington Territory, as well as in Oregon, which proves, on examination of the geology of the country, to be in true gold bearing regions; also ores of lead, copper, and platinum. Marbles, limestones and other valuable rocks for building purposes have been found in various localities. Saline springs have also been discovered.

The report contains a careful analysis of the coals, soils and minerals, limestones, &c. Maps of the country explored have been constructed, and sketches of survey made on changes of geological formations; thus exhibiting the mineral and agricultural resources of Oregon and Washington Territories, and much of the country en route to the Pacific.

VERUM.—We see a long communication in the Pacific Christian Advocate above this signature, justifying or paliating the conduct of the officers of the army stationed at Fort Steilacoom. The letter is mild in its tone and we can find no other fault than the writer's evident desire to uphold the character and justify the conduct of those officers who so disgraced the laws, as well as themselves in the shameful affair on the 22d ult. We should hardly expect from the author of that article, (and our "guess" is that it is a white cravated gentleman,) a defence, when from his own statement, a defence would be ridiculous. Others of his brethren, of like persuasion, and equally high in rank, up here, have denounced the proceedings then enacted, and the actors therein, as infamous, and it seems truly strange to us that his education has been such as to enable him to put upon it so different a construction. Letter writing, it seems to us, will accomplish but little towards the ends for which he has been there stationed, and our surprise is that he has not long since discovered how little his example and precepts have been followed, and left in disgust.

ANOTHER INDIAN KILLED.—The murderer of the Indian of whom we made mention last week, was shot dead by a friend or relative of his victim, while being led up to the Squaxon agency by agent GOSNELL.—Indians state that this last deed made the seventh murder which had been committed by him. If so, he met with a well deserved fate.

LOADING.—A large Chilian ship is now loading at MILLER'S steam saw mill for a foreign port. The lumber trade on the Sound, generally, is on the increase.

THE WEATHER during the last eight days has been very agreeable, nights cool and clear and the days warm and bright. This affords farmers an excellent opportunity for getting in their spring crops, which we doubt not are being usefully employed.—Our farmers are generally, sowing large fields of wheat and oats.

APPOINTED.—Mr. TRAVERS DANIELDS, late assistant clerk of the Council, has been appointed Clerk of the Supreme Court of this Territory, which office was made vacant by the appointment of Mr. B. P. ANDERSON, the late incumbent, as Prosecuting Attorney for the Territory, by the last Legislature.

Mr. Danields has also been appointed private secretary to his Excellency Gov. McMULLIN, a position he is well qualified to fill, and in which capacity he will undoubtedly render general satisfaction.

MELANCHOLY AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—A young man named OLLY ECKLER, employed at the Illcom Saw Mill of Mr. A. J. MILLER, a few miles below this place, was accidentally killed while engaged in getting logs down to the mill, a few weeks since. He, in company with others, was engaged in this task on a hill-side, and unguardedly had got on the lower side of the log, which, taking a sudden start, rolled on to his body and lodged on the breast. Not a bone was broken, and his death must have been caused from the rupture of blood vessels, in consequence of its sudden rush to the head. He was a very industrious, promising young man, whose loss will be severely felt by his relatives, residing in this and Oregon Territories.

☞ The Steamer "Columbia" is hourly expected as we go to press. She has now been due the last forty-eight hours.

SHIPS AND SHIPPING.—During the past week our harbor has presented an unusually lively appearance. Two steamers, one ship, five sloops and one schooner were at one time moored at our wharf or at anchor therein. The sloops and schooners are generally freighted with the agricultural products of the lower Sound—wheat, potatoes, vegetables, &c., all of which now meet with a ready market and good prices.

Transplanting Fruit Trees, &c.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Being often questioned relative to transplanting fruit trees, &c., I will, with your consent, give my views briefly through the columns of the Pioneer and Democrat. Much has been said and written about transplanting trees, and in this country where the prospect is so flattering for a person to be amply remunerated for all trouble and expense he may be at in procuring and caring for fruit trees, it is proper that the different methods should be discussed, that we may arrive at the best.

Having such a variety of soils and situations, the mode of procedure in one locality would not be applicable in another; for instance, in a stiff, retentive clay soil, the trees should not be planted as deep as in a sandy soil. Take the trees of the forest for example, and you will find that the roots are much nearer the surface in a stiff clay than in a sandy soil. "Tis nature." And in retentive soils, the holes should not be dug any deeper than the adjacent soil is worked, (unless under drained), for if you dig deeper, the soil being so retentive, you will have a well of cold, stagnant water immediately under the trunk of your tree half of the season, or until absorbed by the summer's sun, which indicates a tendency to disease from the first. Another mistaken idea is in digging a narrow deep hole and filling it with green manure or other stimulant, without applying it elsewhere, to retain the roots immediately under the trunk, (for they will go in the direction of the greatest amount of nourishment.) It is like feeding a large flock of sheep and putting the feed (whatever it may be) all down in one pile or heap for them to fight and trample over for a short time, (the best getting the most) then all is over except the heap of remains which they will stand and look at and weep that it was not equally distributed, that all could get a chance at it. It is so with fruit trees. If their food is properly distributed through the surface of the soil, you can rest assured that the roots will find it, shooting out from the trunk in all directions for it. If any manure is used, let it be old and well decomposed, and well incorporated with the best top soil. Green, fresh manures are very injurious under the tree, scalding the roots and often killing the tree. Shells and decomposed vegetation is good, besides many other stimulants, but let it be well incorporated with the soil, for it is a conceded fact that roots extend as far as the branches. Don't plant too deep—many plants and trees are lost, or comparatively so, by deep planting, placing the roots low in the cold, hard, wet, sub-soil, where they cannot thrive, thus subjecting them to a degree of cold and dampness not required. Would any one plant Indian corn deep in the cold sub-soil, thinking it would germinate and thrive? Most assuredly not; neither should fruit trees be so treated. If the top roots are covered to the usual depth of planting corn, it is deep enough; for if the ground is properly prepared they will seek all the moisture they require. If the location is low and wet, (which is by no means desirable except for plums and quinces) the trees should be planted upon the surface, without even removing the top soil, raising the ground about the tree enough to cover the roots the usual depth, and the ground thoroughly sub-soiled or underdrained.

The roots of all trees should be well looked to before planting, to see if they have been bruised or broken in taking up; if so, prune the ends of all broken roots with a sharp knife, placing the knife upon the under side of the root and cut up in a vertical direction from the trunk, then when the tree is placed where it is to stand, those parts will press upon the soil and will immediately throw out new fibre roots. Carefully scatter the fine earth about the roots, and press it about and under them well with the hand, leaving no place but what is well filled with earth, taking care to keep every root and fibre in its place with the ends nearly horizontal with the base. When the filling in is about half done, it might be gently trodden with the foot, to give the tree a firmer hold of the ground; and if the planting is done late in the season, a pail of water might be applied when the earth is partly filled in, to settle the ground about the roots and fill all little interstices which may not be filled previously. The trees should now be pruned (if not previously done) to restore them to a proper balance, for in removing a tree you must lose more or less of its roots and fibres, and the top should be pruned in proportion to the loss of the roots. As seamen would say, you must not carry any more sail than you have ballast in the hold to support it.

In this country there are many advantages resulting from forming low tops or heads. They resist the wind better, the fruit is gathered easier and cheaper, protects their roots better from effects of drought; and another and greater advantage is, as trees grow so late in the season, that the action of the frost and sun are very liable to injure their trunks, by scalding or blistering them, which stops the circulation of sap, and causes them to turn black or crack open, often killing the tree; hence if low heads are formed the foliage will protect the trunk. Mulching the trees after transplanting has a good effect. Take half-rotted manure, saw dust, spent tan bark, decomposed leaves, straw, three or four inches deep for the distance of three or four feet about the tree, or in fact any litter will do that will retain the moisture and maintain a uniformity of heat, which is very advantageous to the formation of new roots. Grain crops should never be planted amongst trees, as they deprive them of light and air, which is very injurious to the tree. If any crop is put amongst them, let it be some kind of hoed crop, such as potatoes, beans, rutabagas, beets, carrots, &c., and then not plant nearer than four feet of the trunk of the tree. I have been more lengthy, Mr. Editor, than I intended, but if I have advanced anything that will assist the fruit grower, you will be well paid for printing and me for scribbling, and if not, the loss will not be irreparable.

LUXURIES OF A FRUIT-GARDEN.—A friend of ours, in whose reliability we have implicit confidence, has a small plat of ground, of which he tells us the following facts:

From a row of currant bushes, about eight rods long, he and his neighbors gathered about two bushels of currants this year. The currant season, from the first picking to the last, was from June 1st to August 15th, two and a half months.

From a row of gooseberry bushes, two rods long, he gathered about a bushel of gooseberries.

From a plat of strawberry vines, four rods long and one rod wide, he gathered nearly three bushels of strawberries. The strawberry season lasted about three weeks, ending about the middle of July.

Then his raspberries came on and lasted about three weeks. Of these he had about a half a bushel. They stood next to strawberries in point of delicacy.

He has a number of cherry trees. They yielded well this year. His family and friends used a bushel or so, and the children of the neighborhood fed themselves upon them, without stint, for two weeks.

Soon after the raspberries were gone, his peaches began to ripen. One of the trees ripened its fruit late, and it has lasted till within a few days past; of these he has had two or more bushels.

All along, since the first of August, his apples and pears have been ripening, and have furnished an abundant supply for his family, for the cow and pig, and some to sell or give away besides. He will have a large quantity of excellent winter apples. He has just gathered from two or three grape vines, as many bushels of fine grapes. Some of these his wife made into marmalade, and some she has preserved in paper, for use hereafter. The best and greater portion of the whole were eaten as dessert, or given to children or friends, all of whom enjoyed them much.

These are some of the enjoyments drawn from a small plat of ground, during the season just closing. They were at small cost, but they sweetened many a meal, ministered to health, and added to the comfort of many guests.

Why may not nearly every man have as large a plat of ground and as many comforts? Simply because he is negligent.—Ohio Farmer, October.

Legislative Nominating Meeting.

At a meeting of the democratic members of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Washington, held in Olympia, at the rooms of Col. B. F. Letter from Gen. Lane—The Bill to provide for the Payment of the Oregon War Debt.

WARHINGTON CITY, Dec. 17, 1857.

A. BUSH, Esq.,

Editor of the Oregon Statesman:

DEAR SIR:—Well knowing the deep interest you take in everything calculated to affect the people of Oregon for better and for worse, and being aware that, if ever, my constituents do now look with anxious solicitude for tidings from the National capital, I therefore hasten to place before you and them everything calculated to enable them to judge for themselves in relation to all matters touching their interests.

Our Territory has passed through a great crisis; war for a time brought death and desolation throughout our borders; our gallant people did not only offer their services to the General Government and freely shed their blood in defence of our frontier settlements, but they generously and without stint advanced their substance, relying upon the impartial justice of Congress for reimbursement. The debt of the general government, thus created, being large, and the people of Oregon and Washington Territories being cramped in their business relations for want of a prompt adjustment of this war debt, it is but natural that they should look for tidings from Congress.

Gov. Stevens and myself arrived here in November, sufficiently early to discuss this subject with the Secretary of War. The report of the Commission appointed to adjust and settle the expenses of the people of the two Territories, arising from the late Indian war, reached here at the same time, and to show what impression was made upon the Secretary of War, I will quote that passage of his annual report which treats on this subject:

"By a law passed the 18th day of August, 1856, a commission was directed to be appointed for the purpose of ascertaining the sum of money fairly due to the volunteers of Oregon and Washington Territories for their services in the Indian wars which threatened to lay waste those Territories. In compliance with this law, Captain Smith, of the 1st Dragoons, Captain Rufus Ingalls of the Quartermaster's Department, and LaFayette Grover, Esq., of Salem, Oregon, were appointed to examine the accounts and claims, and to make a report in conformity with the law and upon the facts as they existed, so far at least as it was possible to ascertain them.

"These officers entered upon their duties on the 10th day of October, 1856, and seem to have labored with great assiduity and patience in discharge of them until the 20th day of October last, when they were brought to a close. I have examined this report very carefully, and conclude that from the data they adopted for their guide as to the prices of stores and subsistence, and time of service rendered by the men, it is not probable a more just or accurate result could be attained than these gentlemen arrived at. The amount ascertained to be due is a very large one, and Congress will have to make provision for its payment, if it is intended they shall be liquidated, of which I presume there can now be no doubt."

The executive branch of the government having thus so promptly and acceptably met our wishes, I prepared immediately a bill, a copy of which I enclose, which I succeeded to introduce into the House, and which is the first bill introduced into the House, during the first session of the XXXV Congress.

I forbear to enter upon the discussion of National politics. The papers will furnish you an ample supply for your columns. Mr. Buchanan has the confidence of the American people; he is known to be a great and good man, a true patriot, and loves his country as ardently as ever any man loved his country, and certainly deserves the support of all democrats—I may say of all good men. I am, sir, your friend,

JOSEPH LANE.

COPY OF A BILL TO PAY THE OREGON AND WASHINGTON WAR CLAIMS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That there be, and hereby is appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, whatever amount may be necessary, to enable the Secretary of War to defray the expenses necessarily incurred by authority of the Territorial governments of Oregon and Washington, in the suppression of Indian hortilities therein, in the years 1855 and 1856, so far as the claims growing out of said war have been adjudicated by the Commissioners appointed for that purpose, agreeably to the provisions of the 11th section of the act of 18th of August, 1856, entitled "An act making appropriations for certain civil expenses of the government, for the year ending 30th June, 1857," and have been reported to the War Department by said Commission for payment.

And be it further enacted, That the amounts severally found due to the parties contained in the report of the said Commissioners, shall be paid to the said parties respectively, or their legal representatives, or to the assignees, or attorneys duly constituted and appointed, of said parties, anything in the act approved July 29th, 1846, or in the act of February, 1853, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Oregon Indians.

From the report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, we take the following, relating to the Indians of these two Territories:

"I would invite special attention to the report of the superintendent for Oregon and Washington, from which it appears to be manifest that our relations with the Indians in those Territories are in a very critical condition, and that under the existing state of things there is a constant liability to a general outbreak on their part from any disturbing cause, which must involve the expenditure of millions to subdue them, as well as the most lamentable loss of life and property, by the insufficiently protected white inhabitants. The non-ratification of the treaties heretofore made, to extinguish their title to lands necessary for the occupancy and use of our citizens, seems to have produced no little disappointment, and the continued extension of our settlements into their territory, without any compensation being made to them, is a constant source of dissatisfaction and hostile feeling. They are represented as being willing to dispose of their land to the government, and I know of no alternative to the present unsatisfactory and dangerous state of things, but the adoption of early measures for the extinguishment of their title, and their colonization on properly located reservations, using and applying their consideration agreed to be allowed to them for their lands to subsist and clothe them until they can be taught and influenced to support and sustain themselves. The losses and damage to the government and to the citizens resulting from another general outbreak on the part of these Indians would, probably, fully equal, if not exceed in amount, what would be necessary to buy out and colonize them, so that they could be effectually controlled; if not improved and civilized.

Our settlements, as well as the friendly Indians along Puget sound and the waters of Admiralty Inlet, suffer materially from the predatory incursions of the Indians from Vancouver's island, and the other adjacent British and Russian possessions.—They are an enterprising, warlike race, and generally make their expeditions by water in large boats or canoes, some of them large enough to carry a hundred men, which they propel with much swiftness. To afford the necessary protection to our people from their frequent depradations, the employment of a light draught armed steamer in those waters to intercept and chastise them is essential.

Congressional.

Congress met on the 7th December. The Hon. James L. Orr of South Carolinia was nomited Speaker by Mr. Jones of Tennessee, and the Hon. Galusha A. Grow of Pennsylvania, by Mr. Banks of Massachusetts. Mr. Allen of Illinois, was then elected Clerk. Orr received 128, Grow, 84, scattering, 13.

Mr. Douglas introduced a bill to enable the people of Kansas to form a Constitution and State Government, preparatory to their admission into the Union. Mr. Douglas made a lengthy speech in opposition to the acceptance of the Kansas constitution, without its acceptance by the people. Messrs. Gwin of California, Stuart of Michigan, Trumbull, Hale and Seward likewise opposed it. Messrs. Jeff. Davis, Mason of Va. and Bigler of Pa., favored its acceptance.

Mr. Hunter introduced a bill for the issue of twenty millions in Treasury notes. The U. S. to borrow that amount upon them. As to the first six millions, the rate of interest is to be fixed by the Treasury Department; the balance is to be issued at the lowest rate of interest that will command the exchange of the notes at par for specie. The bill passed the Senate. Messrs. Crittenden, Foot, Hall, Kennedy, Seward and Wilson of the opposition, supported the bill, while Messrs. Broderick, Jeff. Davis, Johnson of Tennessee, and Pugh voted may, with a majority of the republicans. Mr. Douglas voted for the bill. It was amended so as to limit the duration of the notes to the ensuing year, and forbid the issue of any below the denomination of $100.

In the House, a motion to table Mr. H. Bennett's resolution to raise a select committee on the Pacific Railroad, was voted down—99 to 94. The Senate appointed such a committee.

Mr. Lane of Oregon introduced a bill for the payment of expenses incurred by Oregon and Washington Territories in the suppression of Indian hostilities. The Committees, interesting to the Territories, are as follows:

Committee on the Military—Messrs. Quitman of Mississippi, Faulkner of Virginia, Marshall of Kentucky, Savage of Tennessee, Stanton of Ohio, Bonham of South Carolina, Curtis of Iowa, Pendleton of Ohio, Buffinton of Massachusetts.

Committee on Claims.—Messrs. Marshall of Ill., Garnett of Va., Giddings of Ohio, Davidson of La., Kunkel of Pa., Moore of Ala., Goodwin of N Y., Arnold of Ct., Maynard of Tenn.

Committee on Claims.—Messrs. Iverson, Mallory, Polk, Clark, Simmons.

The celebrated Lemon slave case has at last been decided. The Court of Appeals, the highest judicial tribunal in the State of New York, have sustained the decision of Judge Paine, denying the right of slaveholders to transport their slaves through a free State. The case will now be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States.

U. S. District Attorney McKeon of New York, has been removed by President Buchanan, for opposing the election of Mayor Wood, the democratic candidate, and Hon. Theodore Sedgwick has been appointed in his place. The U. S. District Attorney of New Orleans has been removed for allowing the fillibusters to slip through his fingers.

There has been a general resumption of specie payments by the banks in the principal cities, and the financial crisis may be said to have passed.

On the 9th December, the President having been advised by telegraph that Acting Governor Stanton had called a special meeting of the Territorial Legislature of Kansas, the President removed him, and nominated to the Senate as his successor Gen. Denver, now Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who recently had left Washington for the West. The President said that the sole effect of convening the Legislature would be only to engender strife and embarrass the people in voting on the slavery question in the form proposed by the Constitutional Convention.

Gov. Walker has sent in his resignation of the Governorship of Kansas. It is an able document and maintains that the Lecompton Constitution should have been submitted entire to the people. The Kansas Legislature had provided to submit both the Lecompton and Topeka Constitutions to the people.

Senator Douglas has prepared a bill authorizing the people of Kansas to form a Constitution very similar to that of the last Congress of Mr. Tombs, but providing that the Constitution shall be submitted entire to the vote of the people.

In executive Session of the Senate on the 10th December, Col. Richardson was confirmed as Governor of Nebraska.

Gen. Denver's appointment as Secretary of State of Kansas, was confirmed by 29 Democratic votes to 19 "Republicans" against it. Mr. Douglas was absent.

UTAH.—Letters from the army up to the 3d Nov., state that the Mormons had run off six hundred cattle in sight of Col. Alexander's camp near Ham's Fork, Green River. At the date of the letter it was supposed that Col. Johnson had concentrated his force with Alexander, and that in a fortnight from that time, Col. Cook's command would be with them. They expected to winter on Henry's Fork, Green River. There was a good deal of suffering from want of provisions and clothing, and the horses were giving out from want of forage. Gov. Cumming and the other Territorial officers are determined to get into Salt Lake City if possible. The Mormons were determined on resistance to either the military or civil officers. A skirmish had taken place between Col. Alexander's troops and the Mormons, and three or four of the latter were captured.

A second letter states that Col. Cook's command was one hundred and fifty miles west of Fort Laramie, November 30th.—Thus far the traveling had been pleasant and easy, but now the weather was growing colder, provisions getting scarce, provender giving out, and it is apparent that great hardships are before us still. Notwithstanding the threats from Salt Lake City, the entire army will proceed as rapidly as the elements and the supply of food will permit to the winter quarters marked out by Col. Johnson, on Honey Fork, Green River. It is rumored that Brigham Young's intention is to fight the troops this winter, as it will afford the best chance for an equal conflict, and then, before re-enforcements can be sent to the troops in the Spring, destroy all the Mormon possessions in Utah and proceed to some other country.

Udolpho Wolfe's Schnapps.

It is made from the best barley that can be selected in Europe, with the essence of an aromatic Italian berry, of acknowledged and extraordinary medicinal properties. It has long since acquired a higher reputation, both in Europe and America, than any other diuretic beverage.

In Gravel, Gout, and Rheumatism, in obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys, and in General Debility, its effects are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable; and it is not only a remedy for these maladies, but in all cases in which they are produced by drinking bad water, which is almost universally the cause of them, it acts as a sure preventative.

The distressing effect upon the stomach, bowels, and bladder, of travelers or new residents, and all persons unaccustomed to them, produced by the waters of nearly all our great inland rivers, like the Ohio, Mississippi, and Alabama, from the large quantity of decayed vegetable matter therein contained, in a state of solution, is well known, as is also that of the water of limestone regions, in producing Gravel, Calculi and Stone in the Bladder. THE AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS is an absolute corrective of these injurious properties of bad water, and consequently prevents the diseases which they occasion. It is also found to be a cure and preventative of Fever and Ague, a disease caused by the conjoint effects of vegetable malaria in the atmosphere and vegetable putrescences in the waters of those districts in which it principally prevails.

THE AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS is consequently in great demand by persons traveling, or about to settle in those parts of the country, especially, as well as by many in every community, where it has become known, on account of its various other remedial properties.

In all cases of Dropsical tendency, it is generally the only remedy required, when adopted in the early stages of the disease.

In dyspepsia maladies, when taken in proper quantities, as a diet drink, and especially at dinner, it is found, by uniform experience, to be eminently efficacious in the most obstinate cases, when even the best of the usual remedies have failed to afford more than temporary relief. In cases of Flatulency, it is an immediate and invariable specific, and it may be administered in diluted and proportionate quantities, even to young infants, in all those paroxysms of griping pain in the stomach and bowels to which they are especially subject, as well as in the colic of grown persons.

Its judicious adoption in connection with the principal meals, or when a sense of exhaustion dicatates its use, never fails to relieve the debility attendant upon protracted chronic maladies, low temperament, and exhausted vital energy, by whatever cause induced. These are facts to which many of the most eminent medical men, both in Europe and the United States, have borne testimony, and which are corroborated by the highest written autaorities.

Put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with my name on the bottle, cork, and fac-simile of my signature on the label.

After several years' experimenting in the manufacture of Gin, I fortunately succeeded, in the year 1818, in making a discovery in its manufacture by which it was deprived of all acrid and inflammatory properties, and rendered perfectly pure. My Manufactory is at Schiedam, Holland. After several months' reflection what title to give it, I introduced it to the American public under the name of "WOLFE'S SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS." Schiedam is the name of a place in Holland where the Gin is manufactured. Aromatic derives its name from the Italian Juniper Berry, with which it is flavored; and "Schnapps" is the German word for drink—Cogue, dram—Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Drink.

No sooner had my Schnapps been introduced to the American public, and received with approbation, than the Liquor Mixers of New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, started in pursuit with their mixed and poisoned stuff, under various names—Schiedam Gin, Schiedam Schnapps, London Club House Gin, London Cordial Gin, &c., —and in several cases my labels have been so perfectly imitated, with only the addition of a few letters, to plead a technical avoidance of the law, and so carefully prepared as to impose on careless purchasers. I understand a large quantity has been purchased by merchants of California, on account of the cheapness of the article. I especially caution the public against those vile imitations put up in imitation of my bottles, and wrappers of the same colors—YELLOW PAPER, WITH BLUE AND RED PRINTING—intended to deceive careless buyers. Such bottles contain the worst kind of doctored-up and unwholesome Liquor. A merchant who participates indirectly in the fraud, by selling spurious articles, is as much an offender, as the principal who planned the imposition. I hope every honest man, who values the health of the community in which he lives, will aid me in ferreting out and exposing the unscrupulous merchant, who, for the sake of a few cents, will put in jeopardy the lives of the community in which he lives. Such men should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

The genuine Schnapps can be purchased at wholesale from all the responsible liquor dealers and druggists in San Francisco.

I have appointed CROSBY & DIBBLEE, San Francisco, sole agents for the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps for California and Oregon.

Caution—Notice—Caution!

THE ADVERTISEMENT WITH THE ABOVE heading, signed by Wadsworth & Meisegaes, is such a mixture of truth and fiction that no honest motive could possibly have caused its publication. "The Brokers for their principals" state that the mail contract was assigned to M. Louisson & Co. by J. & M. Phelan, July 16, 1857, and the assignment acknowledged by the P. O. Department, which is all false. Plainly stated, an assignment was made to J. & M. Phelan for money loaned, which assignment was acknowledgment by the P. M. General, and that one and that only was acknowledged. The Post Master General has the affidavit of J. & M. Phelan, in which they state they have no claims whatever on the contract, and have not made any assignment to M. Louisson & Co. or any body else, and that their name has been used without their knowledge or authority. As for drafts being drawn by Hunt & Scranton on the P. O. Department, it would amount to nothing if they were, as it is not in that way government usually disburses moneys. We do not fear but that the money will reach the proper hands, even without the endorsement of J. & M. Phelan, or any other than our own.

The mail contract No. 12730 will be fully complied with, and the mail carried as regularly as the means at present at our command will permit. Arrangements have been made for a steamer for the Sound to leave San Francisco on the 22d inst. After her arrival the traveling public will have ample accommodation without the assistance of the "Constitution" or her owners.

The series comprises remedies for nearly every disease adapted to every climate. For Families, Travelers, Seamen, Miners' use they are unequaled. All the Medicines are PURELY VEGETABLE, and warranted to cure the diseases for which they are severally recommended.

The Graefenberg Company does not profess to cure all diseases with one or two medicines. Our series consists of ELEVEN different kinds, adapted to the various diseases incident to the temperate and tropical climate. The following comprise the series of Graefenberg Medicines:

THE GRAEFENBERG VEGETABLE PILLS.

Are considered the standard Pill of the day, and are infinitely superior to any Pill before the public.—They operate without irritation on all the excretions, purging the blood by the bowels, liver, kidneys and skin.

MARSHALL'S UTERINE CATHOLICON.

An infalible remedy for all diseases of the womb and urinary organs, weakness in the back, pain in the breast, nervousness, debility, etc. In California and Oregon, out of more than a thousand cases where this medicine has been used, it has in no single instance failed to give permanent relief or to effect a certain cure.

THE GRAEFENBERG SARSAPARILLA.

Invaluable for burns, wounds, sprains, chilblains, sores, swellings, scrofula, etc. As a Pain Extracter it cannot be excelled, affording immediate relief from the most excruciating pains.

GRAEFENBERG DYSENTERY SYRUP.

This extraordinary article is a speedy and infallible remedy in Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum and the Asiatic Cholera, if taken with the first symptoms of the disease. It is purely vegetable in its compound.

GRAEFENBERG CHILDREN'S PANACEA.

For summer Complaint, and most diseases to which children are subject. Its true worth can never be set forth in words, but it can be felt and appreciated by parents whose children have been saved. No Mother should be without it.

GRAEFENBERG PILE REMEDY.

Warranted a certain cure for this painful disease.—With the Ointment there are very few cases which cannot be radically and permanently cured. A surgical operation for Piles and Fistula should never be resorted to until this Ointment has been thoroughly tried. It never fails.

GRAEFENBURG EYE LOTION.

For diseases of the eye this Lotion has no equal. It is a positive cure for inflamation of the eyes, weaknesses, dimness and failing of sight. It will always be beneficial in acute inflammation of the eyes and also as a wash on inflamed surfaces.

INSTRUCTIONS,

Containing condions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the Department may think proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails.

2. Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from, and deliver it into, the post offices at the commencement and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than 80 rods from a station or landing. Proposals may be submitted for the performance of all the side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a station or landing.

3. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained, three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation of the trip is subject to forfeiture. Deduction will also be ordered for a grade of performance inferior to that specified in the contract. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be made.

4. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be deducted.

5. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters, or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from or deliver it into a post office; for suffering it (owing either to the unsuitableness of the place or manner of carrying it) to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

6. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the post office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the department to do so; for assigning the contract without the assent of the Postmaster General; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

7. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases, and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. He may also order an increase of speed, allowing, within the restrictions of the law a pro rata increase of pay for the additional stock or carriers if any. The contractor may, however, in the case of increase of speed, relinquish the contract by giving prompt notice to the department that he prefers doing so to carrying the order into effect. The Postmaster General may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount dispensed with, whenever, in his opinion, the public interests do not require the same, or in case he desires to supercede it by a different grade of transportation.

8. Payments will be made for the service by collections from, or drafts on postmasters, or otherwise, after the expiration of each quarter—say in February, May, August and November.

9. The distances are given according to the best information; but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than advertised, if the points to be supplied be correctly stated. Bidders must inform themselves on this point; and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads, hills, streams, &c., and all toll-bridges, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay based on such grounds can be considered; nor for alleged mistakes or misapprehensions as to the degree of service; nor for bridg destroyed, or other obstructions increasing distance, occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be visited without extra pay, if the distance be not increased.

10. A bid received after the last day and hour named, or without the guarantee required by law, or that combines several routes in one sum of compensation, cannot be considered in competition with a regular proposal reasonable in amount.

11. Bidders should first propose for service strictly according to the advertisement, and then, if they desire, separately for different service; and if the regular bid be the lowest offered for the advertised service, the other propositions may be considered.

12. There should be but one route bid for in a proposal.

13. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder, (that is his usual post office address) and those of each member of a firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly stated; also the mode of conveyance, if a higher mode than horseback be intended. The words "with due certainty, and security," inserted to indicate the mode of conveyance, will constitute a "star bid." When a "star bid" is intended, no specific conveyance must be named.

14. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed form of proposals furnished by the department, to write out in full the sum of their bids and to retain copies of them.

FORM OF PROPOSAL.

I, ———, of ———, county of ———, State of ———, propose to convey the mails of the United States from July 1, 1858, to June 30, 1862, on route No. ———, from ——— to ———, agreeably to the advertisement of the Postmaster General, dated Oct. 22, 1857, and by the following mode of conveyance, viz:

for the annual sum of ——— dollars.

This proposal is made with full knowledge of the distance of the route, the weight of the mail to be carried, and all other particulars in reference to the route and service, and also, after careful examination of the laws and instructions attached to the advertisement.

Dated. (Signed.)

GUARANTEE.

The undersigned, residing at ———, State of ——— undertake that, if the foregoing bid for carrying the mail on route No. ——— be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder shall, prior to the 1st day of August, 1858, enter into the required obligation, on contract, to perform the service proposed, with good and sufficient sureties.

This we do understanding distinctly the obligations and liabilities assumed by guarantors under the 27th section of the act of Congress of July 2, 1836.

(Signed by two guarantors.)

Dated

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, postmaster of ———, State of ———, certifies, under his oath of office, that he is acquainted with the above guarantors, and knows them to be men of property and able to make good the guarantee.

15. Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn.

Each bid must be guaranteed by two responsible persons. General guarantees cannot be admitted. The bid and guarantee should be signed plainly with the full name of each person.

The department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also the bids of failing contractors and bidders.

16. The bid should be sealed, superscribed "Mail Proposals, State or Territory of, (as the case may be) ———," addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General," Contract Office, and sent by mail, not by or to an agent; and postmasters will not enclose proposals (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the department by or before the 1st of August, 1858, but the service must be commenced on the 1st July, or the mail day next after that date, whether the contracts be executed or not. No proposition for transfers will be considered until the contracts are executed and received at the department; and then no transfers will be allowed unless good and sufficient reasons therefor are given, to be determined by the department.

18. Section 18 of an act of Congress, approved March 3, 1845, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be let "in every case to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security of such transportation." Under this law a new description of bids has been received. They do not specify a mode of conveyance, but engage to take the entire mail each trip with celerity, certainty, and security, using the terms of the law. These bids are styled from the manner in which they are designated on the books of the department, "star bids," and they will be construed as providing for the conveyance of the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode necessary to insure its "celerity, certainty, and security."

19. In all cases where the lowest grade of service is believed to be sufficient, the lowest bid will be accepted, if duly guarantied, in preference to a "star" or specific bid.

When the lowest bid is not a star bid, and specifies either no mode or an inadequate mode of conveyance, it will not be accepted, but set aside for a specific bid proposing the necessary service.

When the bid does not specify a mode of conveyance; also, when it proposes to carry "according to the advertisement," but without such specification, it will be considered as a proposal for horseback service.

20. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with a regular competition, after the last hour set for receiving bids.

21. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors or sureties without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; and all bidders, guarantors, and sureties, are distinctly notified that, on a failure to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the accepted bids, their legal liabilities will be enforced against them.

22. Present contractors, and persons known at the department, must, equally with others, procure guarantors and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificates of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster or by a judge of a court of record.

Postmaster General.

SILAS GALLIHER, Proprietor.

THE PROPRIETOR has recently erected, in connection with, and as a part of the "Washington Hotel" a large two story building—20 by 60 feet—by which he is enabled to provide the traveling public with a larger number of capacious, comfortable and excellently ventilated apartments than can be afforded by any other public house in Washington Territory. An idea of his ability to accommodate the public may be judged from the fact that the Hotel contains twenty-five private rooms—(exclusive of family apartments)—six of which are large drawing rooms, or parlors.

Thankful to the public for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to the proprietor, and having thus enlarged upon his former business, he feels confident he can render the sojourn of strangers with him comfortable and pleasant, and no pains shall be spared to set his table as well as any in like business.

Beds and bed-rooms furnished to such as may desire them.

Board by the day and week.

A good stable is attached to this establishment, which will be amply supplied with forage for the accommodation of animals of the travelling public.

PAY YOUR DEBTS!

HAVING disposed of my entire interest in the "NONPAREIL SALOON" to its former proprietor, I hereby wish to inform my innumerable "debtors and friends," that having once proved to them "a friend in need," (a friend indeed,) at times when to all intents and purposes they were strapped, and unable to come up to the scratch, thus reluctantly obliging me to book their accounts, that "now is the acceptable time" to make a demonstration of their gratitude. For this purpose I would now gently JOG the memory of such as might otherwise be forgetful. I ask as a favor that all indebted to me attend promptly to this matter, for as I am about to leave the country, these accounts MUST be closed.
